

Schoolgirl 2051

Chapter 2051: going to the countryside for a week

Like a small boat gently brushing past, the oars rippled with the water, and the two hugged each other, lingering.

The night was still very long.

The room was beautiful.

...

Si Yi would come to look for Yun Jian several times every month. Although he didn't come many times during the first month or two when he returned to Earth, Si Yi had almost formed a habit.

He would come to look for Yun Jian three times a month and stay for two days at a time.

Of course, Si Yi would usually come during the weekend of Yun Jian School.

After two days, Yun Jian would go back to his dormitory.

Zhu Huili was already used to the fact that Yun Jian would move out for two days as soon as Si Yi came.

Of course, as long as Yun Jian returned to his dormitory, Zhu Huili would go with Yun Jian as usual.

That afternoon, it was almost time for class, so Yunjian and Zhu Huili went to the classroom first.

When she saw Yunjian and Zhu Huili leave the dormitory, her roommate Xi Xiujuan went up to Miao Li and asked, "Miao Li, did you purposely invite Yunjian to the party last time?"

When Xi Xiujuan suddenly mentioned this, Miao Li's eyes moved slightly.

Even though Miao Li and Xi Xiujuan were good friends, Miao Li did not want Xi Xiujuan to know about this.

Miao Li had secretly communicated with song Yu behind everyone's back.

"What? How could I?" Miao Li pretended to be dumb.

"TSK, stop pretending. You didn't even tell me, your good friend, so what? I just found 10,000 yuan in your schoolbag! 10,000 yuan! Other than song Yu asking you to help give it to me, could it be yours?"

"I know very well how deep your family's background is!"

Xi Xiujuan said with some dissatisfaction.

"Xiujuan, I didn't hide it from you on purpose. It was song Yu who told me not to tell anyone, or else he wouldn't have given me so much..."

When Miao Li saw that her lie had been exposed, her eyes rolled and she quickly thought of an excuse to cover up the lie.

“Alright, I’m your friend. I’m happy for You Too!” Xi Xiujuan was foolishly deceived.

Miao Li and Xi Xiujuan did not know that Yun Jian was standing outside the dormitory’s door.

The dormitory’s soundproofing was quite good. People inside the door usually could not hear the voices of the people outside, and the people outside usually could not hear the voices of the people inside the dormitory either.

However, at that time, Yun Jian had clearly heard the conversation between Miao Li and Xi Xiujuan.

Yun Jian’s deep eyes only flashed slightly, and a cold intent flashed past the corner of her mouth and instantly disappeared without a trace.

When he saw that Zhu Huili did not notice that she had stopped and walked away, Yun Jian followed her in two or three steps as if he had not noticed anything.

...

After the fixed lesson in the afternoon, the students all left the classroom.

The form teacher who had not appeared for a month appeared.

At this time, most of the students in the classroom had just left, and a few were still in the classroom.

The form teacher, teacher Yu, who had not appeared for a long time, first waved at Yun Jian, then walked over with a smile:

“Student Yun Jian, right?”

Teacher Yu was a female teacher in her forties. She was about 1.55 meters tall and was not tall, but she was rather well-proportioned. It could be seen that she was already married and had children.

Yun Jian nodded and said indifferently, “Yes.”

When teacher Yu saw this, she walked up to Yun Jian with a smile. In front of some of her classmates who were still in the classroom, she directly praised Yun Jian:

“You got first place in our freshman exam this time! Especially your English composition. Even our school’s English professor can’t stop praising it after seeing it!”

Teacher Yu first gave her a round of praise.

After all, when ordinary students heard the teacher’s praise, they should have laughed happily long ago. They were as happy as kindergarten children who had received lollipops.

However, the Yun Jian in front of her seemed to have known this result long ago. She calmly replied, “Yes.”

Teacher Yu was stunned. She didn’t expect the Yun Jian to have such an attitude.

However, after being stunned, teacher Yu was not overly shocked. She did not continue to praise him. Instead, she directly stated her purpose of coming:

“It’s like this, student Yun Jian. Next Door, Jiangcheng Normal University is organizing college students to experience the rural support activities. Our School has a total of four places, and they will be given to the student who is the first in each grade in this exam.

“This rural support activities is a rare opportunity, and it will last for a week. The goal is to let college students experience some poor rural life, and bring joy to the children in the countryside during this week.

“Are you willing to represent our school to teach in the rural support activities for a week?”

Chapter 2052: will love you, diploma

Supporting teachers, as the name implies, refers to the support of backward areas of rural primary and secondary schools in education and teaching management work.

In layman’s terms, rural supporting teachers, that is to go to some backward, economic conditions can not keep up with the rural areas, for rural small towns to attend school children, so that they can also feel part of the well-off economic conditions or the lives of urban children.

Not to mention 2002, even now, there are many children in poor areas even to go to school is a problem.

They want to go to school, but no money.

And most of the economic conditions, well-off children born, but hate learning, want to not even elementary school nine years of compulsory education, they can directly out of society.

This was a stark contrast to those students in poor areas who had to climb several mountains to get to school from home. They had to walk nearly two hours a day to get to school.

Teacher Yu meant that a group of college students would go to the countryside to help the children grow up and study in the Poor Mountain areas.

Of course, college students usually did not stay long in the countryside.

Seeing that Yun Jian didn’t respond to her words, teacher Yu tried to persuade Yun Jian to agree to participate:

“Although the environment of the branch teachers in the countryside will be a little harsh, it’s only for a week. You can treat it as a trip to another place. Besides, if the branch teachers do well, the school will also have a reward!”

Indeed, teacher Yu really wanted Yun Jian to go with her, because Yun Jian would represent her honor.

After all, Jiangcheng University of electronic technology was not the organizer, so there were only four people who went to a school.

In each grade, the four most outstanding students in the first, second, third, and fourth year of the exam were qualified to go.

The reward was actually just a pretense. As a teacher, they usually thought that since they were required to do so as a teacher, the students would definitely not dare to go against the teacher, so they had to be obedient.

Teacher Yu did not think that Yun Jian would really ask about the reward.

“If you don’t give me the reward, you’ll know when you come out. I’ve already given you your name. Pack up tonight and go to the gate of Jiangcheng Normal University at 1 p.m. Tomorrow. Someone will pick you up.”

Teacher Yu directly said these words.

This was teacher Yu’s goal.

The teachers in the school generally thought that since I was a teacher, I could make decisions for any student.

If you don’t agree? Fine, the graduation certificate will be delayed or withheld.

This forced the students to agree.

“In the future, if I want to apply for leave, I don’t need any reason. If you agree, I will participate. Otherwise, the one who signed up is you. If you want to participate, you can go by yourself.”

Just as teacher Yu was about to announce these words and leave, Yun Jian’s voice came from behind teacher Yu.

Hearing this, teacher Yu was stunned.

An ordinary female student actually dared to go against her teacher’s decision?

This was not a third-rate university! Usually, students who wanted a graduation certificate would leave a good impression on the teacher.

Yun Jian’s words made teacher Yu stunned for a moment before she decisively used the graduation certificate to speak:

“I sent you to teach in the countryside for the sake of your academic qualifications! If you don’t even agree to the little things that the school has instructed you to do, then the school has the right to confiscate the graduation certificate that you could have obtained directly after your fourth year!

“The last few naughty students that I taught were seized of their graduation certificates. In the end, it was their parents who relied on their connections and came to the school every day to beg the school. In the end, the school reluctantly gave it to them because they saw that their parents were pitiful and sincere.

“You’re a girl. It’s not easy for your parents. If they want you to be thick-skinned and ask your parents to go to the principal’s office to ask for the graduation certificate, then it’s up to you!”

These few sentences were often heard by teachers. Even a fool would be able to tell that they were threats.

The meaning in their words seemed to be that without their school's graduation certificate, Yun Jian would not be able to survive for the rest of her life.

She originally thought that after Yun Jian heard her words, she would be so scared that she would quickly apologize to her.

However, what teacher Yu saw was Yun Jian's cold arc. She crossed her arms and waited for her to finish speaking before she spoke to her in a calm and indifferent manner:

"Don't you know what kind of connections I have to enter Jiang City University of Electronics and Technology? Why would I want a mere graduation certificate from your school?"

"As long as you agree to the reward, I will participate. This is to give you face. Don't refuse a toast only to be forced."

"Otherwise, I can make any school in Z country not dare to accept a teacher like you. If you don't believe me, you can give it a try!"

Chapter 2053: meeting Liang Xiu Min, on the eve of teaching

Yun Jian was extremely disgusted by teacher Yu's threatening tone despite her appearance as a teacher.

Therefore, she directly said such words to teacher Yu in front of Zhu Huili and the students who had not left in time after class.

Hearing Yun Jian's words, Zhu Huili was stunned, and the students who had not left in time were also shocked.

By the time they reacted, those naughty boys who had yet to leave had gathered together and started chatting in low voices.

"Oh my God, our class's Yun Jian is even fighting with the old class!"

"Too fierce! Even we don't dare to easily fight with the old class. When the old class threatened her, she actually turned around and threatened the old class! Tsk, this chick is pretty and has big breasts and a straight butt. I didn't expect her to be so awesome!"

"The president of the martial arts club is really different!"

...

The conversation of this group of boys was as soft as the chirping of a mosquito.

Old Ben, teacher Yu, didn't hear it. Yun Jian had good ears and could hear it clearly, but she ignored it.

Teacher Yu, who was standing across from Yun Jian, was stunned by Yun Jian's words.

Then teacher Yu suddenly remembered that during the previous teachers' meeting, the principal had left her alone after the other teachers had left to remind her to take care of a classmate in her class named Yun Jian in the future.

Teacher Yu had already forgotten about this matter. When she heard Yun Jian's words, her ears rang and she immediately recalled it.

Could it be that Yun Jian had some terrifying background?

When she thought of this, teacher Yu felt a lingering fear.

If that was really the case, then she could not afford to offend him:

"Good, good, good! Yun Jian, I promise you. I am not such a difficult person to talk to. If you had said it clearly earlier, I would have immediately agreed.

"In the future, if you want to take a leave of absence from school, I will agree without any reason. But before you take a leave of absence, you have to tell me. I have to know that you are safe!"

After all, students were in school. If something happened to them, the teacher would also be responsible.

If they could not find the person, their parents would also cause trouble at school.

Yunjian ben was not an unreasonable person, so he naturally nodded. "Okay."

"Then go to the entrance of Jiangcheng Normal University at one o'clock tomorrow morning. Remember to bring your luggage with you. A teacher will stand there with the registration form to count the number of people. You can just go over and register. After that, you can follow the main group."

After seeing that Yun Jian had agreed, teacher Yu told Yun Jian about the plan.

In exchange, Yun Jian replied with neither joy nor worry, "En."

The next day, 1 pm.

Not a minute later, not a minute earlier, the Yun Jian appeared at the entrance of Jiangcheng Normal University.

In the distance, beside a registered teacher stood more than twenty college students.

From the looks of it, these twenty college students were obviously students of Jiangcheng Normal University.

This event was organized by Jiangcheng Normal University, so there were only four more students from other schools, and only one or two less.

Yun Jian walked forward.

"School, name." The teacher who registered glanced at Yun Jian and asked.

"Jiangcheng University of electronic technology, Yun Jian," she replied indifferently.

The teacher who registered immediately recorded the data.

“Oh my, it’s the legendary figure of Jiangcheng University of electronic technology, the Yun Jian who took over the martial arts club as a freshman and won the Adoration of University President Song of Dongfang University!”

Perhaps because Yun Jian’s reputation was too well-known, there were female students in normal university who immediately recognized Yun Jian.

“By the way, a few days ago, I heard that Campus Belle song from the neighboring Eastern University didn’t go to school anymore. It seems that something happened at home?”

The female students’ voices rose and fell, and no one seemed to care about Yun Jian.

Regarding this, after Yun Jian reported his name, he put his hands into his pockets and didn’t care.

“It’s You! Are you going to the countryside to teach?”

After Yun Jian stood aside for about five minutes, a very beautiful and gorgeous girl walked in front of him.

The girl’s eyes lit up when she saw Yun Jian. She walked over and said in surprise.

The girl was Liang Xiumin, the daughter of GE Junjianfa, who had come to the seaside with his wife and daughter to visit GE Junjian.

That pampered and pampered young lady.

After the trip, Yun Jian and Liang Xiumin had taken a bus from Longmen City to Jiangcheng. At that time, Liang Xiumin had blushed and invited Yun Jian to her school to play. After saying that, she had run away.

Yun Jian still remembered her. She was a girl with a mismatched heart. On the surface, she seemed to be unkind to others, but on the inside, she was pure.

In short, Yun Jian had a good impression of Liang Xiumin.

At this time, seeing Liang Xiumin greet him, Yun Jian couldn’t help but reply, “Yes.”

Chapter 2054: stole something

“That’s great! My dad secretly signed me up and said that he would use this opportunity to let me experience poverty. I don’t want to! And I don’t have any friends. Now that you’re here, that’s Great!”

Liang Xiu Min jumped two steps towards the cloud paper and held onto the cloud paper like a mischievous young girl.

The cloud paper did not avoid her. It was clear that it did not dislike Liang Xiu Min.

Liang Xiu Min’s father, Old Liang, had long realized that his daughter had been spoiled by him. He had been throwing a tantrum every day, even though he was not a bad person in nature.

This time, there was a school organizing a support activity in the countryside.

Old Liang directly used his connections to squeeze Liang Xiu Min in. This time, he was determined to let his spoiled daughter have a good experience of the poor mountain area and how life was.

When he returned in the future, he also hoped that his daughter would be able to control her personality during this support activity.

“Let’s go over there and sit for a while. My legs are so sore!” After waiting for about fifteen minutes, Liang Xiu Min was so sore that she half bent over and hammered her legs. She did not even have the strength to straighten her body. She raised her head to look at the cloud paper and said.

“Okay,” the cloud paper responded softly.

Then, Liang Xiu Min excitedly went to the flower bed that was made of tiles and sat down on the tiles that could barely fit a person.

Yun Jian stood to the side and didn’t say anything.

After everyone had arrived, they each carried their own backpacks that contained their change of clothes and daily necessities and got on the bus.

The bus was bumpy and headed to its destination.

After driving for five hours from Zhejiang province to the border of H province, many people on the bus were already impatient.

“Why aren’t we here yet?”

“It’s already been five hours!”

Some people grumbled and complained.

Some people on the bus were already dozing off. Yun Jian and Liang Xiumin were sitting in the same row. Liang Xiumin had already fallen asleep after sitting on the bus.

Yun Jian was also resting with his eyes closed.

In the back seat of the bus, a boy was excitedly telling stories to a group of girls. There were also all sorts of bragging mixed in. The girls were also very interested in listening to it. They were all shouting excitedly.

“Have you heard of the Chairman of New Start Company? Hey! That’s awesome! She started new start company only three years ago. Now, her new start company has already stepped onto the international stage!”

This guy’s name was Shen Qingjiang. He was not very good-looking, but he was thin and tall. Usually, he liked to sit in the middle of a group of girls and brag.

Needless to say, there really were people like him in this world. He was not good-looking, but just his mouth alone was popular with the girls.

This was probably referring to Shen Qingjiang.

“Wow! So Amazing!” Immediately, a girl seemed to be shocked and replied.

“Yeah! My Dad has someone in the new startup company! If you guys want to come tomorrow, I’ll sneak you guys to the new startup company to have some fun! It’s not my first time going there!” Seeing that the girls were interested, Shen Qingjiang became more and more excited as he talked.

Seeing that he was surrounded by acquaintances, Shen Qingjiang couldn’t help but tell them about what he did when he went back to the new startup company:

“Let me tell you guys in secret. Last time, I stole a treasure from new start company! Those staff members were also stupid and didn’t realize it! Haha!”

Shen Qingjiang told them about how he stole a treasure from new start company as if it was a glorious deed after serving justice.

When he said this, a group of ignorant girls exclaimed.

“Xin Qi Company is an international company! Brother Jiang, you’re amazing! You actually stole from Xin Qi company without being discovered! You can become a godly thief! You’re So Cool!”

“Exactly! This is too amazing! I think even the international godly thieves are not as good as you!”

While the girls were talking, Yun Zhi, who had her eyes closed, suddenly opened them.

No one saw that her sharp eyes reflected a strong killing intent at the same time.

Chapter 2055: really thought that there was no one else around (1,700 + words)

The boy named Shen Qingjiang was still bragging when he suddenly saw the most beautiful girl in the car that he had been paying attention to just now walk up to him from the front seat.

Shen Qingjiang whistled and then looked at Yun Jian who walked up to him. He thought that Yun Jian was also attracted by what he had just said. Only then did he feel that he was handsome enough to flip his hair and stop the topic, then he said to Yun Jian:

“Beauty, are you interested in Xinqi company too?”

“What did you steal from Xinqi Company?” Yun Jian said with a cold face.

Just two days ago, Zhang Zhifan sent her a message.

Something was stolen from Xinqi Company. It was worth hundreds of thousands of yuan. To Xinqi Company, it wasn’t worth much.

However, the person who stole it took away the design of the latest model of a sports car, which was very important to Xinqi company. They bought it at a high price.

This design was inspired by a genius doctor who made cars. It was the only one in the world, and even that doctor couldn’t draw a second one!

Xinqi company had cameras, but the cameras in this era were very blurry, and people could only be vaguely seen. The person who stole the prototype design of the latest sports car happened to have a camera on his back.

Now, Xinqi Company had begun a large-scale search for the thieves.

This was also two days ago.

If they still hadn't found the person, Yunjian was planning to go back to Xinqi company and personally search for the person.

But he didn't expect to hear Shen Qingjiang's words here.

Shen Qingjiang had long scanned the beautiful female college students in the car. He had seen the most beautiful Yunjian early in the morning.

However, the cloud note seemed to have nothing to do with anything. Shen Qingjiang felt that it was very difficult to make a move.

However, what Shen Qingjiang had never expected was that the cloud note actually took the initiative to send it over.

Hearing the words of the cloud note, Shen Qingjiang really thought that the cloud note was interested in his words. He quickly said, "What else could it be? It's a treasure!" He even kept it a secret.

"If brother Jiang stole it, then it's brother Jiang's things. The new start company doesn't lack such things. You're not brother Jiang's girlfriend, so why do you care so much?"

A fat girl stood in front of Yun Jian. At the same time, her body trembled a little, and she had a rude and unreasonable look on her face.

"You're a student from another school, right? You really care so much. Your Elbow is almost reaching our Jiangcheng Normal University! Stand far away, stand far away! You're really an eyesore!"

A beautiful, slim, and well-dressed girl who was with the fat girl stood in front of Yun Jian and glanced at him with disdain.

Whether it was Shen Qingjiang, the fat girl, or the pretty girl who spoke up later, they were all students of Jiangcheng Normal University.

The girl with the fat body was called Cai Xinyuan, and the girl with the good looks and figure was called Wu Zhizhi.

Cai Xinyuan and Wu Zhizhi were mesmerized by Shen Qingjiang. At this moment, they really didn't know whether it was right or wrong, so they directly started cursing at Yun Jian.

The other girls surrounding Shen Qingjiang also followed up with a few words that Yun Jian inexplicably came forward and said, "Shameless."

Indeed, if what Shen Qingjiang did had nothing to do with Yun Jian, then Yun Jian was indeed shameless.

However, Shen Qingjiang admitted that he stole from Xinqi Company.

Yun Jian had seen the video surveillance. The thief who stole the design was exactly the same as Shen Qingjiang.

Yun Jian could remember the person who was seen by Yun Jian, no matter how tall or strong he was. This was the experience and ability that she had accumulated over the years in assassination.

Yun Jian ignored Cai Xinyuan and Wu Zhizhi. She looked at Shen Qingjiang with a cold face and said bluntly, "Among the things you stole, there are a few drawings of the interior and exterior design of the sports car."

"How did you know! ?"Hearing Yun Jian's words, Shen Qingjiang said in surprise.

"Beauty, don't tell me you have superpowers? You're really amazing!"Shen Qingjiang looked at Yun Jian and exclaimed.

It seemed like he was sighing, but in reality, Shen Qingjiang wanted to get close to Yun Jian.

As he spoke, Shen Qingjiang pushed away a girl who was sitting next to him. She had been secretly touching her thighs. He patted the seat and said to Yun Jian,

"Beauty, it seems like you're in the same boat. Let's sit down and talk. How about next time, I'll bring you to Xin Qi company to touch some hands?"?

"I've been studying godly thieves recently and found that I'm really suitable to be a godly thief. Do you want to join me?"

Shen Qingjiang's words immediately attracted Wu Zhizhi's dissatisfaction. "Brother Jiang, didn't we agree to bring me there?"

"Don't worry, I'll bring you there next time!"Shen Qingjiang said perfunctorily to Wu Zhizhi before turning his head to look at the cloud paper.

"Hand over the design."Shen Qingjiang had just turned his head to look at the cloud paper when the voice of the cloud paper came out.

Hearing this, Shen Qingjiang was stunned.

"Beauty, I got those by myself. Why should I give them to you?"Unless you sleep with me.

Before Shen Qingjiang could finish his sentence.

Yun Jian stood in front of Shen Qingjiang and the others. His expression did not change. His cold eyes were extremely sharp. In the next second, Yun Jian's right hand suddenly came to Shen Qingjiang's neck.

Shen Qingjiang thought that Yun Jian was going to let him touch it. He was about to touch it with a smile, but before he could touch Yun Jian's hand, his neck was touched by an icy cold object.

The object reflected a ray of light in the setting sun that was reflected through the window of the bus.

After that, everyone saw clearly that Yun Jian was holding a shiny butterfly knife in his hand.

Before they could react, they saw that Yun Jian had already sent his cold voice to the ears of everyone in the bus in front of everyone. The next second, everyone in the bus widened their eyes in shock:

"Stealing my things and inviting me to steal my company's things. How dare you!"!

“Do you really think that the chairman of my new company is just a decoration?”

Chapter 2056: the destination of the branch school

Yun Jian’s voice was flat and low. It didn’t have any fluctuation, but it was as cold as the ice of February. It was so cold that everyone in the car, especially Shen Qingjiang who was sitting in front of him, Cai Xinyuan and Wu Zhizhi who were sitting next to him.., they shivered from the bottom of their hearts.

“What, what do you mean!”Wu Zhizhi didn’t understand what Yun Jian meant.

“Your stuff? No, that’s Xinqi Company’s stuff. Now it’s brother Jiang’s stuff! When did it become your stuff? It’s not like you’re the chairman of Xinqi Company!”

The Fat Cai Xinyuan, whose fat body started to shake after just two sentences, shook her fat body and scolded Yun Jian in a rough and unpleasant voice like a man.

The whole car didn’t think that Yun Jian was the chairman of Xinqi Company.

After all, his age was right here.

Xinqi company was an international brand!

If Yun Jian was the chairman of Xinqi Company, wouldn’t he start Xinqi Company at the age of fifteen?

What a joke?

“I, I, I will give it to you... put down the knife and I will give it to you...”Shen Qingjiang was still afraid of death. His pupils constricted slightly and he stuttered.

“Give it first.”Yun Jian’s words did not leave any room for rebuttal.

Shen Qingjiang, who originally wanted to trick Yun Jian, was afraid that Yun Jian would be blind under the knife.

Moreover, this was only a piece of waste paper. At that time, he saw that this super sports car design looked good, so he brought it along with him. It was useless to him.

Obviously, Shen Qingjiang did not know that this piece of waste paper, which he thought was useless, could be sold at a sky-high price in the international market!

He reached into his pockets and pockets to search for a while. Then, Shen Qingjiang raised his eyes and glanced at Yun Jian. Seeing that Yun Jian was staring at him, he slowly handed the design to Yun Jian.

Yun Jian took the design directly from Shen Qingjiang’s hands and put away the butterfly knife. She was so fast that the people around could not see when she put away the knife.

At this time, the bus had already entered the bumpy, cement-free muddy ground in front of them.

As soon as the bus entered the bumpy muddy ground, the bus drove all the people on the bus into a bumpy position.

Some of the students on the bus could not react to the sudden jolt, so they jumped forward involuntarily.

Shen Qingjiang was sitting in the middle of the last row of the bus aisle. There was no seat in front of him.

Standing straight in front of Shen Qingjiang was Yun Jian.

When the bus jolted, Shen Qingjiang also jolted. He rolled his eyes and was about to make use of the bumpy mountain road to pretend to jump forward and accidentally jump onto Yun Jian.

Yun Jian was in the midst of the bumpy bus. In a few flashes, she retreated back to her original seat in the front row.

Shen Qingjiang missed and hugged the dirty floor of the bus.

“Ah!” Shen Qingjiang screamed and couldn’t stand up for a long time.

He wanted to jump on Yun Jian and rub her plump breasts!

But he didn’t expect Yun Jian to react so fast!

In the end, it was Cai Xinyuan, Wu Zhizhi, and the other girls who helped Shen Qingjiang up.

“Sit tight and don’t run around. The next three hours will be bumpy like this!” The driver drove the car and warned loudly.

This time, the university students organized a support activity in the countryside. The teacher followed one of them and sat at the front of the bus to rest with his eyes closed.

After the bus drove into the bumpy and rugged mountain road, many students who had been sleeping woke up in shock.

“What, What’s wrong? Why is the bus shaking so much?” Liang Xiu Min, who had been sleeping and didn’t know what had happened, also woke up in shock.

By the time everyone reacted, the bus was already bumpy and swaying left and right.

Just like that, the bus traveled for about three hours on an empty road and arrived at the destination of the people who went to the countryside to support their teachers — Wuzhen, W City, H province.

Chapter 2057: came to Wuzhen, a poor mountainous area

Wuzhen was located in a rugged ravine and was a very remote and desolate place.

Different from Xinjiang Town, where Yun Jian was initially reborn, the gap between Wuzhen and Xinjiang Town was very large.

Compared to Xinjiang Town, Wuzhen was not considered a town at all.

Wuzhen was surrounded by mountains and the mountain roads were rugged. The people relied on themselves to sow seeds and live a good life.

There was no need to mention whether there was a large textile factory in Wuzhen. Just Imagine, from Wuzhen to the remote suburbs of W City, it would take three hours to drive by car. No large enterprise would choose to invest in Wuzhen.

This was a truly poor mountain area.

How poor was it?

The people here, whether they were old or young, had basically never walked out of the mountains in their entire lives.

Because the transportation here was very inconvenient, there would occasionally be special people going to the city on Mondays to collect, but they all drove tractors, tricycles, and other means of transportation.

The normal bus would take three hours to drive, and it would take at least two to three times longer to drive to the city than the bus.

Moreover, taking a tractor to the city along the way was also expensive.

The poverty here was beyond imagination.

No news report could completely describe how hard life was for the people at the bottom of society.

Yunjian thought that a place like Xinjiang town was already considered poor. After all, for her, who had once been at the peak of the world, Xinjiang town was a stark contrast.

However, compared to Xinjiang Town, Wuzhen was nothing.

“Oh my God, are we really going to live here for the next seven days?”

“This house is made of mud, right? What if the house collapses in the middle of the night if we live here? We’ll die!”

“Moreover, this road is full of potholes. There’s not even a cement floor!”

...

Seeing the scene in front of them, all the students cried out in shock.

Although they had been prepared, they were still shocked when they saw this scene in reality.

How was this a house?

The houses in Wu Town were all made of mud. Occasionally, those with good conditions lived in stone houses.

As for brick houses, it was simply impossible for the people of Wu Town!

“Alright, I’ll take you to the mayor of Wuzhen. The mayor will arrange a house for you.”The only teacher leading the team led the students through the bumpy mud and walked towards the direction of the mayor’s house.

Soon, the students were all settled down.

Wuzhen was a town.

There was also a village here.

Some of the students were taken to the homes of the children in the village.

There was a primary school and a junior high school in Wuzhen. If the children living in the countryside did not live in the school, they would have to walk for about two hours every day to get to Wuzhen.

It was far enough to go from Wuzhen to the suburbs of W City. The children in the poor mountainous areas lived in a place deeper in the mountains than Wuzhen.

Yun Jian followed them for about two hours on the mountain road and was finally taken to a village that was two hours away from Wuzhen.

Some of the students refused to go to the village, so the mayor arranged for them to stay with the best families in Wu Town.

But to be honest, the families in this place were not that different.

Of course, Wu Town could not accommodate so many people, so the mayor led Yun Jian and the others to Dali village, which was the closest to Wu Town, but was also two hours away by foot on the mountain road.

It was difficult to walk at night, but with a lantern, they could still walk.

"I can't walk, I can't walk, I can't walk..."Liang Xiu Min gasped for breath, almost unable to keep up.

Wu town had extra rooms for people to stay in, but they had been snatched away by other students. Liang Xiu Min complained about her father all the way, complaining and walking at the same time.

"Don't talk when you walk, or you'll be more tired."Yun Jian helped Liang Xiu min up a steep slope.

"This little girl is so young, she really knows a lot. It's rare!"The mayor led the way with a lantern and sighed from the bottom of his heart.

College students nowadays were spoiled. After walking so many mountain roads, it was only normal for them to be like Liang Xiu Min.

There weren't many who could endure hardship like this little girl.

Chapter 2058: mother will not abandon us

As the mayor spoke, he even made a few jokes.

The mayor's words eased the mood of the people present. Walking on the mountain path that alternated between high and low was not as boring as it was at the beginning.

Most of the people stayed in Wuzhen. Only a dozen or so people followed him to Dali village.

Fortunately, it did not rain during the day, and the mountain road was not slippery. The people climbed until they were out of breath.

Two hours later, while the people repeatedly asked if they had arrived, the mayor brought the people to a small village.

This was Dali village.

Compared to Wu town, this place was even more down and out.

Even the mud houses had become houses that only the rich people of Dali village could afford to live in. Many families in Dali village built shabby thatched houses.

The mayor went from house to house and asked people to arrange for Yun Jian and the others to live in the houses.

Yun Jian and Liang Xiumin were arranged to live in the same house in Dali village.

After the mayor gave his advice, they returned to Wuzhen.

The dozen or so college students who were arranged to live in Dali village were told by the mayor that the children of these families would cross a few mountains on their own the next day to study in Wuzhen.

At that time, Yun Jian and the others would follow the children of their respective families to Wuzhen Primary School and gather with the dozens of other college students who had come here to teach.

At that time, the mayor had already left, and Yun Jian and Liang Xiumin were sitting at the wooden table of the family that had been arranged to enter.

It was already 11 o'clock in the night. The children and farmers in the mountains had all gone to bed early, and they had fallen asleep as soon as the sky turned dark.

Today's incident happened suddenly. The mayor woke up the people from these families and arranged for Yun Jian and the others to move in.

At this moment, Yun Jian and Liang Xiu Min were sitting on the only two wooden stools in the thatched hut.

In front of them stood an eleven-year-old girl. Her cheeks were rosy and her face was dirty. The clothes on the girl's body had already faded, and one of the big toes on the shoe on her foot was broken because of the shoe, so the big toe directly penetrated through the shoe.

The shoe was also covered with clay. It looked like the shoes that she had worn for many years were no longer suitable for her feet.

In this cold weather, the little girl only wore two tattered and dirty thin clothes, and her little body kept shaking.

There was a bad smell in the thatched cottage.

Liang Xiumin couldn't help but cover her mouth and nose, breathing lightly.

But after all, she was staying in someone else's house, so Liang Xiu Min was too embarrassed to say anything. She just kept blaming her father.

How was this a place for people to live! This was simply a pigsty!

“Hello... Sisters...” after a long silence, the little girl finally greeted Yun Jian and Liang Xiu Min with some fear.

“Where are the adults in your house?” Liang Xiu Min covered her mouth and nose and asked the little girl.

Yun Jian blinked but didn’t say anything.

If Yun Jian was asked about her feelings here, the answer was very simple.

She had once walked at the peak of the world and became an existence that everyone at the top of society looked up to but couldn’t reach.

She had also fallen at the bottom of the valley. When she was in the dark soul organization, her status was even lower than a dog.

Therefore, to her, no matter what the situation was, she could accept it.

When Liang Xiu Min asked this question, the little girl fell silent.

Just when Yun Jian and Liang Xiu Min thought that the little girl would not answer, she suddenly sobbed:

“There’s only me, my little brother, and grandmother at home. Father is dead, and mother doesn’t want us anymore.”

As she said this, the little girl shrank back in fear.

Yun Jian and Liang Xiu Min only found out later that the little girl’s father had accidentally been smashed to death in order to earn money to move stones in the town.

Her mother had long run away with someone and left the mountain.

She only had a sick grandmother to take care of. Every day, the little girl not only had to bring her little brother to Wu town to attend school, but she also had to work in the fields whenever she was free. Otherwise, the family of three would starve to death.

After the little girl finished speaking, Yun Jian and Liang Xiumin were silent for two seconds.

“But Yingying is not afraid. Grandma said before that mother would definitely come back!”

The little girl’s name was Liu Ying. It was a beautiful name. It was said that before her mother ran away with someone, her father and her mother had asked someone from Wuzhen to help them get it.

The clear and pure look in Liu Ying’s eyes was something that other children did not have. This made Liang Xiumin’s heart pound.

Yun Jian also blinked.

“Then where... did your mother go?” Liang Xiumin could not believe that Liu Ying’s mother did not want her anymore. She asked again.

Liu Ying was silent for a few seconds when she heard this, then she shook her head. "I don't know, but Dad said that mom will definitely come back. Mom Won't abandon us..."

Chapter 2059: a girl in a mountainous area, a vague wish

Liu Ying's firm and clear eyes made people unwilling to break the only wish in the life of this simple girl who missed her mother.

Her wish was very simple. She wanted to live happily with her mother.

Liu Ying's younger brother's name was Liu Shi. The names of the two siblings were given by the educated people in Wuzhen, so it sounded not bad.

At night, Yun Jian and Liang Xiu Min were placed in the same room.

This room was damp and gloomy. In the middle of winter, the two of them shared a quilt that had already been covered. The smell of someone covering the quilt was stinky and very thin.

"This place is so broken! The quilt that was used to cover us is so thin and cold to death! And so stinky! The room is as stinky as a pigsty! I want to go home!"

Liang Xiu Min shrank her body. It was already the hundredth time she dialed the phone in her hand. She wanted to make a call.

But there was no signal here, so the phone could not be dialed.

Not to mention a phone, there was not even an electric light here. At night, it was all lit by candles.

There were not even many candles, so they were all used sparingly.

Liang Xiu Min was a rich young lady. She naturally could not stay in such a place.

Yun Jian could understand.

After the blanket was pulled over, Yun Jian turned to Liang Xiu min and said, "Go to sleep."

...

At 1:30 am, Liang Xiu Min, who was still in a daze and was about to wake up, gently pulled on the Yun Jian. "Can you accompany me to the toilet? I'm a little scared..."

If she had to go to the toilet at night, she would have to walk a few hundred meters before there was a latrine.

There was no toilet in the house.

Yun Jian was used to putting on her clothes to sleep at night, so she directly turned over and stood up.

Although Liang Xiu Min did not understand why Yun Jian did not change into her pajamas to sleep, she did not ask.

When she came back from the toilet, she happened to pass by the room of the little girl Liu Ying and her brother Liu Shi.

“Sister, I’m so cold.”

“Be Good, little brother. When you sleep, you won’t be cold anymore. Go to sleep...”

If they were covered with a blanket, they wouldn’t be so cold that they couldn’t fall asleep no matter how cold they were. Yun Jian and Liang Xiumin could see through the thin gap between the wooden and paper windows that couldn’t block the cold wind that blew into the room from the outside.

Liu Ying and Liu Shi weren’t covered with anything. They were only wearing two more pieces of clothing, huddled together and shivering.

The two extra pieces of clothing were as thin as if they weren’t wearing anything. They were as thin as paper.

Seeing this scene, even a fool would know that these two young children had given Yun Jian and Liang Xiu Min the only quilt that Liang Xiu Min had previously disliked. It was thin, smelly, and dirty.

Seeing this scene, Yun Jian and Liang Xiu Min’s hearts seemed to be deeply moved by something.

Even Yun Jian’s expression could not help but change.

Liang Xiu Min tilted her head and glanced at Yun Jian. Then, she rushed into her and Yun Jian’s room. She carried the quilt and rushed to Liu Ying and Liu Shi’s room. In front of Liu Ying and Liu Shi, she threw the quilt on their bed.

Liang Xiu Min didn’t know how to speak. By the time she reacted, Liu Ying and Liu Shi were already staring at her in a daze.

Liang Xiu Min’s heart hardened. She closed her eyes and said stubbornly with the tone of a young miss, “I was woken up by the stench of this quilt! Don’t give this quilt to us to cover. Keep it for yourself! HMPH!”

After saying that, Liang Xiu Min ran back to her and Yun Jian’s room.

An eleven-year-old girl and a nine-year-old boy stared blankly at Liang Xiu min, who “Disliked”their quilt, running back to her room. They didn’t know what to do.

Yun Jian, who was hiding in the dark, saw this and narrowed his eyes.

Liang Xiu Min was clearly freezing to death, yet she still wanted to return the quilt to Liu Ying and Liu Shi. Her words were still so unpleasant to hear.

However... it was really like her Missy’s temper.

Liang Xiumin did not sleep for the whole night.

...

The next morning, after Liu Ying had made breakfast and fed her grandmother who was sick in bed, everyone sat at the table and ate breakfast.

Breakfast was porridge.

There were no side dishes.

Rather than saying it was porridge, it was more like a big pot of water with a small handful of rice put in and boiled out into fragrant rice and tea.

Eating this wouldn't fill her up, but at least she wouldn't starve to death.

Before heading to Wu Town, Liu Ying drew a stroke on a wall next to her home.

Half of the wall had already been covered by countless "Zheng" characters. After drawing this stroke, Liu Ying pulled her younger brother along with Yun Jian and Liang Xiu Min as they walked towards the mountain path in the town.

When they were almost at school, Liu Ying's footsteps quickened.

Liang Xiu Min couldn't help but be curious and asked Liu Ying, "Little sister, what did you draw on the wall just now?"

"I was waiting for mom to come back." Liu Ying pulled her brother along as they walked briskly.

She walked in front and suddenly turned her head, revealing her small canine teeth as she smiled at Yun Jian and Liang Xiu Min. "Before dad left, he said that as long as I filled up the "Zheng" characters on the wall, Mom would come back."

Some people lived a luxurious life, with big fish and big meat every day.

But some people had very small wishes.

No matter how poor and bitter they were, they only wanted their parents to accompany them when they grew up.

Chapter 2060: am I the same

Leaving at 4:30 am, I finally walked from Dali Village to Wuzhen Primary School at 6:30 am.

Wuzhen Primary School was different from other primary schools. There were fewer children in Wuzhen, and the number of students in one grade could not even put together a class.

Therefore, in Wuzhen Primary School, there was one class for grade one, two, three, one class for grade four, five, and six, and there were only two classes in the whole school.

Places like Wuzhen Primary School lacked teachers the most.

However, most of the teachers who graduated from universities were not willing to come to such a poor mountain area.

At present, only two teachers in Wuzhen Primary School were still holding their positions.

In addition to the principal, there was also a female teacher who voluntarily came to the poor mountain area to teach.

Seeing Liu Ying and Liu Shi enter the classroom, Yun Jian and Liang Xiu Min did not intend to go in.

On the first day of going to the countryside, there were no activities.

After all the college students who went to the countryside to teach were gathered here, they were immediately dismissed.

From the second day onwards, each college student would be officially arranged to tutor the children here.

With nothing to do, Yun Jian and Liang Xiumin went to town to buy a few big beds.

They even helped to buy Liu Ying, Liu Shi, and their grandmother's quilts again.

At this moment, the two of them were passing through a large bamboo forest.

There was only one place that sold quilts in Wu Town, and the bamboo forest was the only place they had to pass through.

Trees were planted around the bamboo forest. Perhaps the biggest difference between Wu town and other small towns was that there were many bamboo forests and forests. They were densely packed, and the surrounding grass was as tall as a person.

If someone was hiding in the grass, it would not be easy for them to be discovered.

"It's so F * cking easy to come here! These two women came here by themselves!"

"So F * cking tender! That delicate skin and flesh. I heard that they are female university students from the city!"

"Knock them out. One for each of us. After we're done, we'll switch back and F * ck them again!"

Just as they passed by the bamboo forest and the depths of the forest, two sparse voices came from the corner.

Liang Xiu Min naturally couldn't hear these whispers, but Yun Jian's eyes narrowed slightly.

After taking three steps forward, a gust of wind suddenly blew behind her.

Yun Jian didn't even think about it. She grabbed Liang Xiu min and threw the bed to the side. With a flip, she carried Liang Xiu Min and flipped over ten meters in a short three seconds.

The two old ruffians from the village of Wuzhen were startled when they saw this.

This girl was so fast and fierce!

These two old ruffians were old bachelors. They had been doing nothing all their lives and couldn't afford to marry a woman. They had only fucked the lonely widow in town a few times. When they saw Yun Jian and Liang Xiu Min's soft and tender skin, the two old bachelors felt an itch and had bad intentions.

Who knew that Yun Jian would notice.

“TSK, female college students, how F * cking soft and tender. Let me tell you, very few people usually pass by this place. Today, it’s useless even if you scream your throat out...” one of the old ruffians looked at Yun Jian with a lecherous gaze and said.

“Who said there’s no one? I Won’t let you bully them!” Just as Yun Jian narrowed his eyes, a righteous male voice sounded.

What entered his eyes next was a masculine and righteous male student.

The male student was about twenty years old. He looked quite handsome and gave people the feeling of a gentle senior.

“Senior Mu Chen?” Liang Xiu Min was stunned when she saw this male student.

Senior Mu Chen was a student of Liang Xiu Min’s school. He usually greeted Liang Xiu min twice and wasn’t familiar with her.

“Tsk, Kid, you’re courting death!” However, the two old ruffians didn’t wait for Liang Xiu Min and Mu Chen to speak before they rushed over and punched the defenseless Mu Chen a few times, tying him up.

“What, what should we do...” Liang Xiu Min saw that Mu Chen was tied up. She was so scared that she grabbed Yun Jian’s hand and pulled him back into the bamboo forest.

“Yeah, what should we do hehehe, the two of you should just follow us. Our Big Brothers have been empty for so many years. It wasn’t easy for us to catch you guys, so let us be happy... hehehe...”

An old ruffian walked over with a wicked smile.

Seeing this, Liang Xiu Min became even more afraid.

“Let them go! Let Them Go! You Hit Me! If you have the guts, hit me! Let Them Go!” When Mu Chen saw this, he shouted.

Another old ruffian stepped on Mu Hen’s head and fiercely stepped on mu hen a few times. He scolded, “Damn Kid, you better behave yourself, or I’ll kill you!”

After saying that, he tied mu hen to a tree and continued to walk towards Yun Jian and Liang Xiu Min.

“Hehehe, little sister, what are you thinking about? Do you want to escape? No Way! If you know what’s good for you, come over obediently and let us F * ck you, or else...”

The old ruffian saw Yun Jian squinting as if he was thinking about something, and he laughed evilly.

“I’m thinking about how to kill you.”

He did not know when, but a butterfly knife had appeared in Yun Jian’s hand.

She was playing with this butterfly knife when she suddenly spoke, and the two old ruffians were shocked.

However, the two old ruffians were also greatly frightened, so they were naturally not afraid. They continued to walk towards Yun Jian and Liang Xiu Min.

“Little sister, we are greatly frightened. Not to mention you, even if an assassin agent came, I would still F * ck her...”

The two old ruffians laughed mockingly and continued to walk over.

“Is that so? That’s really a coincidence.”

Yun Jian twirled her butterfly knife and stood in front of the old ruffian. Then, in front of everyone present, she spoke without any fear. However, she said something that everyone present was so terrified that they were dumbfounded:

“I’ve been in the industry for seven years. I’ve taken on 1,027 assassination missions and annihilated 109 assassin organizations. I wonder if this me is the same as the assassin agent you mentioned.”
