

Schoolgirl 2251

Chapter 2251: was not about the hair, but the head

The party held in the name of Rong Yao Company had caused a sensation all over the world.

It was said that at the party venue, a young girl faced off against a large international assassin organization, the rebel Emperor Organization, and the leader of the rebel Emperor Organization, who had gathered a total of 50 top international bigwigs, furthermore, she killed those 50 top international bigwigs without any fear, and at the same time, destroyed the rebel emperor organization.

As for who this young lady was, the underworld did not reveal the slightest bit of information. However, after the emperor defying organization and those 50 or so famous international bigwigs were killed on the spot, this mysterious young lady was completely known by everyone.

The group of hooligans in front of them had naturally heard of this young lady's deeds. At that time, when they heard Yun Jian's words, the leader of the Hooligans was stunned.

"You, who are you? !"The hooligan who had pulled his belt and wanted to play dirty with Yi Qingqing glared at Yun Jian and asked loudly.

Yun Jian ignored the hooligans' words. At that time, she had already put on a genuine leather glove that was invulnerable to knives and spears. Her eyes twitched slightly.

When she saw Yun Jian suddenly put on a genuine leather glove that was taken out of nowhere, the hooligan was stunned. Then, he swallowed his saliva and asked,

"What... Do you want to do? !"

Just as the hooligan who took the lead had finished speaking, Yun Zhi had already put the genuine leather glove into her hand. Her eyes reflected a sharp luster.

In the next second, when the group of hooligans opened their mouths wide to form an exaggerated "O", Yun Zhi's hands shook and her figure flashed, her hand speed was so fast that the group of hooligans could only feel that Yun Jian was holding an object that had refracted a sharp light.

When the group of hooligans reacted, Yun Jian, who was holding an object that refracted a sharp light, had already flashed past them. Her speed was so fast that she was almost as fast as the wind.

By the time the group of hooligans reacted, Yun Jian had already flashed in front of them. Her back was facing the group of hooligans who wanted to commit adultery against Yi Qingqing, and her ponytail, which was tied up high, was full of energy, her tight leather clothes and pants perfectly outlined her perfect figure.

However, the attention of the hooligans was not here at this moment.

It was..

The Yun Zhi Ren was placed on her hands, which were at the seams of her pants, and she was holding two shiny butterfly knives!

“Where... where is your hair? Where did your hair go?”

At this moment, a hooligan who was standing on the side suddenly saw his brothers. Their hair, which had been dyed in all kinds of colors and had been shaved into different styles, had all been shaved bald!

Therefore, this hooligan cried out in shock.

“Second straight, your, your hair is gone too!” At this moment, a hooligan next to him pointed at the hooligan who had first been discovered and cried out in shock.

This cry of alarm made everyone panic.

The hooligans quickly discovered that their hair had been shaved bald by Yun Jian with the two butterfly knives that were so fast that their appearances could not be seen clearly!

Yun Jian’s knife skills just now were actually so fast...

The hooligans who realized this were scared half to death.

Imagine if Yun Jian had not cut their hair just now, but had cut their heads a little lower!

“Go, go, go, Go!” The hooligan who had taken the lead just now was so scared that his face turned green. He covered his head and did not even care about the belt that he had untied. He rushed into the distance first.

However, after just two steps, his pants were untied, and his pants slid down to the area below his knees.

After his pants slid down to the area below his knees, the gangster only wore a pair of men’s underwear in the middle of winter.

His feet tripped over his pants, and the gangster who had initially said that he wanted to deal with Yi Qingqing fell to the ground.

However, he was so scared that he didn’t even care about the pain. He stood up and continued to run forward with all his might. His appearance was no different from eating dog shit.

At that time, the other hooligans followed the hooligans who had taken the lead from the beginning. Just a second before the group of hooligans left the scene, they could even hear Yun Jian’s cold and chilling voice from behind:

“Don’t let me see you again. Next time, it won’t be your hair, but your heads.”

Chapter 2252: had been gone for three days, and it was very big and soft

After Yun Jian finished speaking, the group of hooligans had been scared out of their wits. Yun Jian took the opportunity to put away the butterfly knife and did not say anything more.

When Yi Qingqing saw this, she could not help but sigh.

However, because of the incident when Yun Jian had dealt with Lin Mengyu in Xinjiang Town, Yi Qingqing was not too surprised by Yun Jian's skills.

However, Yi Qingqing was deeply grateful to Yun Jian.

After the two of them went to a nearby milk tea shop for a short gathering, Yun Jian went home and briefly packed his luggage.

He had arranged to meet Si Yi in seven days, but before that, Yun Jian had to go somewhere.

"Little Jian, are you going on a long trip again?" Qin Yirou asked when she saw Yun Jian walking out of the house with her backpack on her back.

"Yes, Mom." Yun Jian nodded.

She didn't say anything else.

If Qin Yirou knew that her trip was extremely dangerous, she would definitely be worried.

It was better for her not to say anything.

"Then pay attention to your safety!" After Qin Yirou found out Yun Jian's identity, she didn't restrain Yun Jian's actions. After hearing Yun Jian's words, she said something and didn't say anything else.

"Okay!" Yun Jian nodded and left home.

After leaving home, Yun Jian went straight to the airport and headed to country s.

Before going out to sea to search for death island aimlessly, she still had one very important thing to do.

That was to find the only old pirate who had been to death island back then and confront him face to face.

At this moment, on the God continent.

Gu Nianzhi had followed Linong to the continent of gods for a few days. The continent of gods was very big. She had wandered around the continent of gods for three days, but she still hadn't met a single person on the continent of gods.

At this moment, Gu Nianzhi reached out to wipe the sweat off her forehead. She walked around and asked Linong with a frown,

"Why haven't you seen a single person on the continent of gods after walking for so long? Are you taking me on a Detour?"

"The gods of the God continent rarely go out," Linong said with a straight face.

If desolate Yan was here, she would probably roll her eyes at Linong for a few days.

The gods of the God continent loved to gather together and compete with each other in strength, so they often went out.

Linong had indeed deliberately brought Gu Nian to a less crowded place.

“Really? Then Where’s Your Home? Hurry up and take me to your place to rest!” Gu Nianzhi was about to throw up.

At first, she had let Li Nong Touch her butt and eat a lot of tofu in order to come to the continent of gods.

Now, Gu Nianzhi regretted just thinking about it.

She had thought that there was something fun and delicious to eat on the continent of gods, but in the end...

“Hey, why don’t you send me back? I don’t want to stay on the continent of gods anymore. It’s not fun here. I’d rather stay with green glaze!”

Gu Nianzhi held a weed in her hand that she had pulled out of nowhere. She pouted and swung the weed in her hand as she walked, as if she would collapse to the ground at any moment.

Li Nong had said that they couldn’t fly on the continent of gods, or there would be serious consequences. Gu Nianzhi had followed Li Nong for three days and three nights, but had never made it out of this godforsaken place.

At that moment, the two of them were walking in an endless forest. Gu Nianzhi swayed left and right as she walked forward, sighing at the same time.

However, just as Gu Nianzhi was aimlessly walking forward with her head lowered, waving the weed in her hand and pouting her lips lazily, she bumped into Li Nong, who had suddenly stopped in front of her.

Gu Nianzhi pounced forward fiercely. Li Nong looked like he was completely unprepared to defend himself.

So Gu Nianzhi pounced on him and threw him to the ground.

At that moment, Li Nong had turned around and fallen to the ground.

Gu Nianzhi hadn’t noticed that Li Nong had curled up when he had fallen.

“Ouch!” Gu Nianzhi cried out in pain as she fell to the ground.

When Gu Nianzhi finally reacted, she suddenly realized in horror that his hand was actually grabbing onto her...

It looked like he had done it on purpose...

Chapter 2253: arrived in S country to look for the old pirate

“Ah!” When Gu Nian came to her senses, she suddenly screamed and stood up. She covered her chest tightly and glared at Linong with bulging eyes. She barked at Linong with her teeth bared:

“... you did it on purpose! It’s not that there’s no one here, you did it on purpose! I want to go back to Earth!”

Gu Nianzhi was speechless. She should have known that a normal person would ask to touch her butt before bringing her to the continent of gods!

Gu Nianzhi instantly realized that this Li Nong... .. He probably wanted to take advantage of her!

He was the kind of person who liked to take advantage of girls! A pervert!

Unexpectedly, Li Nong stood up calmly. His serious face did not change in the slightest. He casually put his hand into his pocket, he did not show any signs of panic or fear after Gu Nianzhi had discovered his intentions.

He only turned his handsome face towards Gu Nianzhi and suddenly said,

“This is my first time bringing a girl back to the mainland of gods, so you can’t leave.”

I like you, so you can’t leave.

On the other side, Yun Jian had already arrived in country s.

S country was a developing country. Its urban infrastructure was poor, and the facilities of three-star hotels were old.

S country’s economy was mainly agricultural. Its most important export product was Ceylon Black Tea.

It was also one of the three largest tea-producing countries in the world, so its domestic economy was deeply affected by the situation of tea production.

Of course, there were some people in s country who depended on going out to sea to fish for a living.

Country S was a country in the Indian Ocean, and the only old pirate who had been to death island was from country s.

The old pirate was now living in a mental hospital. Because he had been greatly stimulated, he had become crazy.

There were many people who liked to take risks in the world. They went to the legendary Death Island from country S, but most of them came back empty-handed.

Generally, those who loved adventure and wanted to explore the death island would come to this neurotic hospital to ask the old pirate about the death island.

Even if no one got information about the other death islands from the old pirate, there were still people who loved adventure who came to this neurotic hospital to visit the old pirate and communicate with the old pirate, they tried to get more information about the death island from the old pirate.

After Yun Jian got out of the taxi, she simply carried a decent backpack and came to this neurotic hospital.

She slightly raised her eyes and a dark light flashed in her eyes. The next second, she lifted her feet and walked into this neurotic hospital.

This neurotic hospital was indeed big, but there were many people who came to visit the old pirate every day. Therefore, Yun Jian quickly followed the direction of the crowd and came to this neurotic hospital, the old pirate's ward.

As expected, the old pirate's ward was filled with people.

Even though twenty years had passed, the old pirate was already a little old man with white hair and a white beard. Many people who loved adventure and excitement also insisted on coming here every day, trying to get information about the mysterious island of death from the old pirate.

As soon as Yun Jian entered the door, he saw a little old man with white hair and a long beard. His eyes were dull as he sat on the bed in a daze. His entire person seemed to have received some kind of stimulation, like the appearance of a chicken pecking at rice, his body trembled.

He looked like he was in a state of epilepsy.

The old pirate's full name was Horace Landau. Horace was short for the old pirate.

At this moment, Horace was surrounded by people. At that time, he was half-kneeling in front of Horace. The person who was greeting Horace was a blonde woman in her twenties.

The blonde woman was greeting Horace with fluent s language. She planned to get closer to Horace and then get more information from Horace.

Chapter 2254: How to see through and play the fool

"Water... I want water, water that's the same as milk..." at this moment, Horace's body was trembling as he spoke these words that were not properly pronounced.

When the blonde woman who was half-kneeling in front of Horace heard this, she gave her companions a look.

When the blonde woman's little friends saw this, they hurriedly handed the water to the blonde woman and the blonde woman handed it to Horace.

"Here! This is water. Be careful, it's Hot! Old Man, please drink it slowly!" After the blonde woman handed the water to Horace, she even reached out her hand to Pat Horace's back.

The blonde woman was not the only one in the group. There were many people standing beside them. Some of them took fruits, and some of them gave all kinds of delicious gifts to the old pirate Horace, saying all kinds of flattering words.

Everyone's goal was very simple and clear. It was to win the trust of the Crazy Old Pirate Horace and get all the information about the death island from Horace!

After getting the water, Horace stared blankly at a certain spot on the floor. After taking the water from the blonde woman, he did not even look at it before sending it into his mouth with a trembling brain bone.

The way he drank the water was no different from a baby who was eating for the first time.

“Elder, please drink slowly! You might choke!” The blonde woman reached out and patted Horace’s back, as if she was Horace’s biological granddaughter. She spoke to Horace with caring words.

“Eva, are you done? Hurry up and get up! It’s our turn!” Another group of people standing by the side urged Horace when they saw the blonde woman holding the seat and talking to him for so long.

Eva must be the name of this blonde woman who was in her twenties.

Eva’s name matched the blonde woman’s appearance quite a bit. From the profile of the blonde woman, the cloud notes could tell that the blonde woman looked like a Barbie doll in a toy. She was relatively young.

There were many people who wanted to build a good relationship with Horace and force him to tell them the information about the island of death.

Many people came here every day to provide Horace with good food and drinks, trying to get Horace to tell them about the secret of the island of death after he had gained the trust of the Crazy Horace.

Like the blonde woman named Eva and the group of people next to Eva, they all came for this purpose.

“What are you rushing me for? Now!” Eva turned to look at the person who was rushing her and immediately shouted in a low voice, which was the opposite of Horace’s gentle voice.

After that, she turned around and used her cute face to look at Horace again. “Old Man, is there anything else you need?”

Eva wanted to establish a good relationship with Horace so that Horace would reveal all the secrets of the Death Island.

However, just as Eva smiled and said this to Horace, she suddenly saw a beautiful z country girl walk in from the main door. She was so beautiful that it was hard to look away. After she stepped in, she walked straight to Horace, she looked at Horace coldly and said directly to him,

“You’ve been pretending to be crazy for twenty years. Even the mental hospital admitted that you’re really crazy. Mr. Horace, good job!”

The person who came was none other than Yun Jian!

As soon as Yun Jian’s words rang out, everyone around was stunned.

Especially Eva, who had been flattering Horace.

Eva’s expression froze. After she was stunned, she immediately realized what Yun Jian had said.

Moreover, the cloud note had said these words after she fawned over Horace. Was it trying to make all her previous efforts go to waste?

Eva gritted her teeth at the cloud note and said angrily,

“Who are you? What right do you have to say that old man Horace is pretending to be crazy and acting dumb? Don’t you know that the world-class medical experts who have won international awards have already concluded that old man Horace is not pretending to be crazy? Little Girl, you are still young. Go aside and don’t hinder me!”

Eva sized up the cloud note with her hateful eyes before turning to look at Horace.

What kind of person was this! He actually said that Horace was pretending to be crazy and acting dumb!

Could a person pretend to be crazy and act dumb for more than 20 years?

He must be dumb!

Eva had just turned her head to look at Horace when she suddenly saw that the originally dull-looking Horace was stunned after hearing the words of the cloud note.

Then, in front of everyone, the originally foolish Horace suddenly stopped trembling and his body did not even tremble. In front of everyone, he narrowed his eyes and looked at the cloud note. In front of everyone, he said in a shocked tone,

“After coming back from the Death Island, I pretended to be crazy and acted dumb for twenty years. No one has ever seen through me. Even the world-class doctors in the world have already determined that I am crazy.

“Little girl, how did you find out?”

Chapter 2255: the old pirate’s past

Horace looked at the cloud tablet with a shocked gaze, and a hint of surprise flashed across his eyes.

Horace, who had been extremely foolish, now had the same expression, face, and expression as a normal person.

This change caused the blonde woman Eva, who had thought that the cloud tablet was talking nonsense, to have a sudden change in expression.

Everyone in the ward of the mental hospital, including the members of Eva’s team, as well as the group of people who had urged Eva, were all shocked!

Mr. Horace was really as Yun Jian had said...

He wasn’t really crazy, but was pretending to be crazy! ?

It must be known that countless international medical experts, who were known as world-class doctors, had diagnosed Horace and concluded that he was really crazy after returning from the island of death.

Those international medical experts and world-class doctors had already confirmed that Horace was truly mad. From then on, no one doubted that Horace was faking it.

Everyone treated Horace as a madman and tried to deceive him, trying to get information about the island of death from Horace.

Until today, when Yun Jian pointed out this point in public.

Pointing out that even international medical experts and doctors could not see that Horace was faking it, everyone present was completely in an uproar.

Not only that, even Horace himself was shocked.

He had pretended to be crazy for 20 years. He had thought that no one would see through him in his lifetime, but he had never expected that this young girl who had just entered the school and looked like she had just turned 18 years old would see through him at a glance!

The surrounding people widened their eyes in shock. They did not accept this reversal of events for a moment.

At that time, the cloud tablet's cold arc was slightly curved. She looked sideways at Horace. Under the gaze of Horace and everyone else, she replied to Horace with simple yet arrogant words:

"There is a clear difference between your gaze and that of a truly deranged person. You can tell at a glance that you are faking it.

"As for the group of people in the world who claim to be world-class doctors, they are arrogant and pedantic. Naturally, they won't be able to recognize that you are faking it."

After saying that, the cloud advisor walked up to Horace and sat down on a bench beside Horace's bed. He narrowed his eyes and looked at Horace lazily. At the same time, he said,

"So, it's time for you to say something about the island of death."

After the cloud advisor finished speaking, even Eva, who had just insulted the cloud advisor, shut her mouth and listened quietly to Horace's reply.

Without a doubt, this group of people, including Eva, were people who loved to take risks.

And a terrifying place like the island of death, just listening to it made people feel terrified. But it was such a place that this group of people who loved to take risks wanted to explore even more.

Therefore, when the cloud note asked this question, the surrounding people pricked up their ears to listen.

"Hey!" After being asked by the cloud note, Horace first sighed deeply.

Then, under everyone's gaze, Horace shook his head and slowly said,

"On Death Island... .. It's extremely dangerous. Back then, I almost died here along with my old friends. Later, I risked my life to escape from Death Island and pretended to be crazy so that those who loved to take risks internationally would not go to Death Island and lose their lives in vain ! !

"So listen to my advice... Don't go to Death Island!"

That was why the old pirate Horace had pretended to be crazy for more than 20 years. He didn't want those adventurers to go to Death Island and lose their lives for nothing.

Everyone in the room sighed deeply.

However, just as everyone took a deep breath and was hesitating whether they should ask the old pirate Horace for information about Death Island, a clear and pleasant female voice spoke to Horace and everyone else, she spoke to Horace once again:

“So you plan to let your old friends die on the Death Island in vain, and you don't want to recall the past and look for an opportunity to avenge them?”
