

《Sweet Daily Life With Rich Fool Husband》

Chapter 23

Jiang Chengzhan sleeps too much at noon and refuses to sleep at night.

Ling Jinchuan began to play with him. Later, he had homework to do, and he had to get up early to go to school tomorrow, so he had to do his homework until 9 o'clock.

Jiang Chengzhan is bored and can only rely on Su wanwan.

Until 11 o'clock, Jiang Chengzhan still refused to go to bed. Su wanwan coaxed him back to his bedroom and showed him cartoons from his mobile phone. "Zhanbao, it's too late. My aunt and uncle have a rest."

Jiang Chengzhan pouted and said, "wife, but Zhan Bao is not sleepy."

Su wanwan said helplessly, "you can't sleep so much at noon tomorrow."

Jiang Chengzhan is bored. His deep eyes keep aiming at Su wanwan. The girl is too beautiful. Her skin is porcelain white. She is whiter than the baby's skin he has ever seen. She seems to be able to water.

Jiang Chengzhan licked his lower lip, suddenly got up and looked at Su wanwan with a smile: "wife, let's play kiss!"

Ever since his eyes floated on her, Su wanwan thought it was dangerous. He didn't insist for a few seconds, so he asked.

If it was normal, she would not refuse.

But this kind of family is an aunt's family after all. How interesting?

If people listen to him, they all know that he is stupid, but it's her who laughs at him, isn't it?

Su wanwan refused: "no, this is my aunt's house. I can't pretend to be a family."

Jiang Chengzhan put his head close to her mouth, two arms also hugged her, don't let her move, "Zhan Bao want to kiss."

"Zhanbao is to kiss, wife. Don't you like zhanbao?"

Su Wan Wan looked at him with a look of embarrassment: "when do I not like you?"

Jiang Chengzhan was wronged: "then you won't let zhanbao kiss you."

When he spoke, he kept touching her with his big hand, and quickly picked up the obstacles of the clothes and pasted her delicate skin.

Su wanwan bit her teeth and snorted uncontrollably.

Damn Jiang Chengzhan, are silly, can accurately find her sensitive place.

In the end, Su wanwan, in the case of Jiang Chengzhan's extremely noisy, half pushed and half pushed to run a family with him.

It's just that I can't cry out because I'm suffering from it.

After all, it's someone else's house.

This time, Su wanwan and Jiang Chengzhan stayed at Jiang's home for a week.

This week, Su didn't learn anything else, but her cooking skills improved a lot.

When they left, aunt Jiang also cried a nose. Su wanwan told her that she would often live there for a period of time when she was OK. Then Aunt Jiang stopped crying.

During this period, Ling Yue also told Su wanwan that things had made some progress, but did not tell her what the specific progress was.

After all, it's an important secret. She thinks it's normal for people not to tell her.

She believed that as long as Ling Yue wanted to find out, it was impossible that he could not find out.

Another thing is that Su wanwan asked Ling Yue to help him find several people. They were all veterans of the special forces. Their skills are not to be said, but they are very reliable.

Since Jiang Yushen hit Jiang Chengzhan at home last time, she thinks it's not safe to have no bodyguards.

Looking at the six strong bodyguards, Su wanwan was very happy. Later, Jiang Yushen dared to be arrogant again. Any one of these people could break him up.

After going back, Su wanwan chose several majors to study in the training school in order to improve herself.

After all, the original owner graduated from university. It's impossible for her to go to school again, and it's easy to arouse suspicion. She can only sign up under the guise of letting Jiang Chengzhan study.

And her identity is to accompany reading.

In this way also paid two people's registration fee, think about all feel meat pain.

Su Wan Evening News reported on painting, body beauty, English and music appreciation. He wanted to learn something else, but he couldn't eat fat all of a sudden, so he had to learn a few things first.

When there is nothing to cultivate sentiment.

In the basic class of English Su Wan evening news, she only had a few days of study on time when she was in primary school, and there was no English class at that time.

When I was in junior high school, I was basically hiding for a few days, fishing for three days and drying the net for two days. Sometimes, his father took her to other places with him and begged for help from the local teachers.

So not to mention college, high school, she didn't go to junior high school for a few days.

I've learned a few letters in English and I've forgotten them for a long time.

Now we can only start from 0.

In fact, she is not interested in English, but she will definitely travel in the future. She will always know a few international languages, so she will be prepared to learn some basic English first.

Anyway, she has a lot of time, money, leisure and willfulness.

This is the beginning of an English class on Thursday.

Two festivals a day on Tuesday and Friday.

On Tuesday morning, Su wanwan urged Jiang Chengzhan to wash up. She made breakfast ahead of time and could leave after eating.

In order to have a sense of ceremony, she also bought two small schoolbags, two identical pen bags, and a pile of pens with various functions, all in pairs.

We loaded the books issued by the training school and let the driver drive them directly to the training school.

The training school is a very high-level private school. It has regular full-time classes, which is also their kind of training classes.

Training classes are also divided into adult classes and student classes.

She's afraid that Jiang Chengzhan's going to the adult class is boring, so she reports to this kind of student class. She's mainly afraid that she doesn't know anything and will be laughed at when she goes to the adult class.

But who knows that after she entered the training classroom, more than 20 pairs of naive eyes looked at her as if they had heard the call.

They're all a few years old.

Sue was so stupid that she didn't expect to be so small.

This meeting has not yet class, we are curious to look at the two of them, bold students also came to ask her: "aunt, are you a teacher?"

Su wanwan's face is forced to squeeze out a smile, do not know how ugly, "Auntie ah, Auntie is reading."

She pointed to Jiang Chengzhan beside her.

Jiang Chengzhan doesn't care about this either. He seems to meet his peers and talk about toys and cartoons with them. After a while, he attracts half a room of children.

Su Wan looked at him in surprise, and he became the king of children.

In a word, it was a failed registration training. After class, Su wanwan went to the leader to ask if there was a teacher who could come to the door, and she could pay more tuition.

Seeing her special situation, the school finally agreed to send her a special teacher to arrange separate teaching.

The next study is mainly in Su wanwan's home. Jiang Chengzhan is not happy. He likes the children in the school and has a common language.

It's a pity that sue won't let him go.

"Wife, why don't we go to school? There are so many children there?" Jiang

Chengzhan said pitifully.

Can you say it's embarrassing to go?

Su wanwan explained: "because there are children, we are adults, and we will be laughed at if we go to school with them."

Jiang Chengzhan does not understand: "but zhanbao is also a baby?"

Su wanwan pinches his waist: "when you want a baby, why don't you say you are a baby?"

Jiang Chengzhan has nothing to say, and unhappily opens the bookshop to the desk, confused.

Su looked at him speechless and knocked on the table with her fingers, reminding: "I spent so much money on training you, you should study hard for me!"

In front of them is the most elementary introduction to English.

This is specially customized by the trainer according to Jiang Chengzhan. Although he has a very low IQ, he is an adult after all. He will not take the school examination in the future. He is mainly practical.

Most of the oral communication courses are more.

Jiang Chengzhan is not very happy, raised eyelid to sweep one eye, carelessly said: "this is too simple, also want to learn what, wife you learn well."

"Too simple?" Su didn't believe his lies until later. Although he was admitted to the doctor's degree, he has a low IQ now. Is it that he has printed all these things in his bones and has not forgotten them?

"Anyway, zhanbao doesn't want to learn. Zhanbao wants to play with children. Wife, let's go out, eh?" Jiang Chengzhan began to cheat.

Su wanwan's beautiful big eyes blinked, looking for a difficult English paragraph to put in front of him: "then you read this for me, I believe you will, otherwise you will study hard for me."

Jiang Chengzhan looked down and read the words as if he were speaking Mandarin. There was no pressure.

Su wanwan looks at him in surprise. His voice is very nice, just like those foreign hosts on TV. No, it's better than what they say.

It's strange that this guy is not fooling her, is he?

He turned another page and pointed to him, "what about this one?"

Although Jiang Chengzhan reluctantly read it again, Su wanwan bit his lip and looked at him, "what do you mean, then?"

Jiang Chengzhan was obviously impatient. He threw the book aside and said, "I remember the whole book, but you don't understand what I said."

And I don't like her anymore, do I?

Su wanwan really didn't understand. She couldn't understand him even if he translated casually. She thought that she would test him later when the teacher came.

Jiang Chengzhan went to work on the jigsaw puzzle next to her. Su wanwan reopened the book. It seems that she has a good memory. What the teacher said yesterday, she can repeat it word by word now.

The teacher also praised her, saying that she would not take two months to travel, normal communication is no problem.

Soon the teacher came. Su wanwan read the passage Jiang Chengzhan had just read to her.

Although the teacher was puzzled about her purpose, she read it out. Su wanwan recalled what Jiang Chengzhan had just read, and finally found that it was not a bad word, and Jiang Chengzhan was much better than the teacher.

In the heart sighed a, even if is the fool, that is also the fool of Jiang family, more than she this normal person understands.

The teacher is a sophomore girl named Zhang Dandan, who usually works part-time in the training school.

Like Su wanwan, there is no teacher willing to come, so she volunteered to come.

Looking at Su wanwan sitting there in a daze, she couldn't help reminding her: "sister, what's the problem?"

Su wanwan's mind was pulled back, "no, let's continue."

Zhang Dandan asked with his eyes, "isn't Jiang Chengzhan together?"

Su wanwan's face was chatting and said vaguely, "you tell me first, and I'll tell him later."

Oh, Zhang Dandan has some regrets. Jiang Chengzhan is so handsome. He is more handsome than their school staff. Although he looks abnormal, it's good to say a few words.

Thinking back, Zhang Dandan begins to give Su a lecture at night, while Jiang Chengzhan continues to play puzzles.

When it comes to the difference between American English and British English, Zhang Dandan has no idea. However, she finds that Su wanwan's foundation is very poor. If she says something wrong, she won't be found, so she says it according to her own subjective consciousness.

Who knows that the man who has been playing with the puzzle carelessly all the time suddenly put in a sentence: "wife, she's wrong."

Su Wan Wan said, "don't talk nonsense. You don't listen to class. Do you know what we say?"

Unconvinced, Jiang Chengzhan threw down the puzzle and took out his mobile phone to find out the answer: "you see, this is the right one."

Su wanwan was surprised to see his mobile phone, Zhang Dandan, and then his mobile phone, and Jiang Chengzhan. He was thinking quickly. Why can a fool be so smart?

Is she going to live or not!

Why is the gap between her and him so big? She was hit by chiguoguo!

The evening party is growing up. Don't worry.

Jiang Chengzhan: it doesn't matter. It's just a small blow. The big one is still behind.

Su wanwan: then you'd better be stupid all the time!

There will be another watch later.
