

《Sweet Daily Life With Rich Fool Husband》

Chapter 34

The more time Jiang Chengzhan wakes up, the more upset Su wanwan is. He expects him to get better soon, but he can't help worrying.

This kind of contradictory heart made her not have a good rest these days.

The old man of the Jiang family has been ill for nearly a month. She takes Jiang Chengzhan with her and is stopped by Xu Hongmei before she even sees anyone.

The old man is resting and can't be disturbed.

In the original book, there are not many descriptions of the old man's illness, and Su wanwan doesn't know what illness he has.

But after all, people in their eighties may have something wrong with anything.

Su wanwan only hopes that Jiang Chengzhan will get better soon, and he'd better pick up the old man.

Recently, the company is also constantly moving. The old man is not in good health. Jiang Chengzhan is stupid. Jiang Yushen is in charge of the overall situation. In order to completely change the previous pattern of the board of directors, the senior management has made several drastic changes.

Su wanwan is secretly worried. She doesn't know if Jiang Chengzhan can get the company back.

But she also did a lot of work, has been helping to supervise, when Jiang Chengzhan wake up, sure can help him.

After two more days of anxiety, Su finally came to the day when Jiang Chengzhan woke up.

In the morning, she washed and ate breakfast, then took Jiang Chengzhan to the hospital.

Before going to the hospital, she took Jiang Chengzhan to a place where no one was there and said, "Zhan Bao is the most obedient, isn't he?"

Today, Jiang Chengzhan is wearing a blue half sleeve and grey trousers. Ordinary clothes can't cover his good figure. He has wide shoulders and narrow waist, and is tall and straight.

He's a good-looking man with star eyebrows, sword eyes and three-dimensional features. If he doesn't behave foolishly, I don't know how many little girls will be hurt.

It's just that the prick on the head is a little bit against the rules.

Jiang Chengzhan nodded and giggled: "of course, Zhan Bao is the most obedient and the most late."

Su Wan nodded her head late and rubbed her nose. She pulled Jiang Chengzhan down to his ear and said, "Zhan Bao, do you remember to pretend not to be awake after a while?"

Jiang Chengzhan frowned and looked at her in a daze.

Like a butterfly, Su wanwan looks at Jiang Chengzhan. After a while, he looks like a normal person. I don't know what it will be like?

I have expectations in my heart, and I have some worries vaguely.

She said again: "if you can be good for a while, don't show it. The company's affairs are waiting for you to deal with, and grandfather... Do you understand?"

Jiang Chengzhan's eyes are a little wandering. He looks at her quietly. For a moment, Su wanwan feels that he has regained consciousness.

For a long time, Jiang Chengzhan nodded and looked silly again: "zhanbao knows, zhanbao knows."

Su wanwan still worried: "you can't tell anyone about this, do you know?"

Jiang Chengzhan did not hesitate this time and nodded happily.

Since Jiang Chengzhan came into the examination room, Su never stopped walking.

She held her fingers together and put them in front of her chest. She didn't know whether to pray or worry. All kinds of strange feelings poured in.

She wore a white half sleeve, with a denim skirt and small white shoes. She looked very lady.

Usually like loose black hair, today she was tied into a ponytail, with a small clip on it. She is beautiful and has delicate skin. I didn't know that I thought she was a college student.

It's been almost an hour since I went in, but I haven't come out yet. Su wanwan can't help but be worried.

I don't know what to check. She wants to rush in and have a look.

About another half an hour later, Su wanwan felt that one of her dirty eyes was about to crack, and the door of the examination room was opened.

She Leng for a moment, see Jiang Chengzhan follow the doctor out, subconsciously to run.

But after a few steps, she stopped. She carefully observed Jiang Chengzhan's face. Should this person be sober?

What would he do to her?

After all, they have no emotional foundation. She still married on behalf of her younger sister, which is also a joy to him. Will he recognize his wife?

In the past year, she has been very kind to him, not only doing everything according to him, but also doing a lot for him. She has never let him suffer losses, so he should not be bad to her.

At least not as an enemy.

The man's face is very calm and can't see anything. Su wanwan's heart is thumping. She moves a few steps in front of the doctor, and her voice is trembling: "doctor Han, Zhan Bao, no, it's Cheng Zhan. How is he?"

The doctor sat back in his seat, his face was not very good. He pushed his eyes first, and then looked at Su wanwan seriously: "Mrs. Jiang..."

He said in a heavy voice, "you'd better be prepared..."

Su wanwan's heart sank. What's the best way to have a heart preparation?

The slender fingers clenched hard. She turned to look at Jiang Chengzhan. Without waiting for the doctor to give her an answer, Jiang Chengzhan had already responded to what the doctor wanted to express.

He stretched out his hand to hold Su wanwan. Wei qubaba said, "wife, the machines inside are so scary. Zhan Bao will never come again."

Su wanwan suspected that she had heard wrong. How could she still be silly?

She looked at the doctor again.

The doctor cleared his throat and said in a regretful voice, "I'm afraid you have to be prepared. He may always be like this?"

"What do you mean?" Su wanwan asked in disbelief.

How is that possible?

It is said in the book that Jiang Chengzhan will wake up after being silly for a year. Why doesn't he wake up now?

The doctor explained: "I just checked him and found that his brain nerve was damaged, causing irreversible damage, which can no longer be repaired. He will probably keep his IQ at the age of five forever."

Su wanwan

The brain seems to have been thrown into a bomber, and the noise can't stop for a long time. The ears seem to have been covered with a film. Only the sound from the heart is isolated from the outside. You can only see the doctor's mouth constantly opening and closing, but you can't hear his voice at all.

Why is that?

What is irreversible nerve damage?

Does he really stay at five-year-old IQ forever?

He'll never get better?

I don't know how long it took for Su to calm down. Her face turned purple and she looked at the doctor with unfriendly eyes. She angrily scolded: "you are a quack, hum!"

At the end of the speech, she took Jiang Chengzhan and turned to go, "zhanbao, we'll change the hospital."

Su wanwan and Jiang Chengzhan changed five hospitals in a row, and the results given by each hospital were almost the same.

At least there is no sign of recovery for a short time.

Only the answer given by the last hospital is different. Tell Su wanwan not to worry, it will be OK.

But before she got out of the office, the leading doctor came, pointed to the doctor's nose and scolded, "my mother must be OK, but what happened?"

"I sold the house, and the people didn't come back. Your conscience was eaten by the dog?"

Listen to that person's scolding roar, Su late night headache pressed the temple, she felt as if directly said Jiang Chengzhan did not save it.

"Wife, you don't seem happy?"

Su wanwan took him to the hospital for several days. Now she was tired. She shook her head on the rocking chair and said absently, "no, I'm just a little sleepy."

"Oh," Jiang Chengzhan sat on the carpet next to her, looking at her bad face, the whole person has no spirit, reluctantly leaning against her reclining chair.

How can you not wake up?

Su wanwan couldn't figure out why she couldn't wake up?

She didn't dare to see Jiang Chengzhan. She used to live like an emperor, but now she is no different from a fool, and there is almost no possibility of soberness. How can she accept that?

She turned to look at Jiang Chengzhan, hard to beat her to live forever with a fool?

At the beginning, when she wore it, she thought that he would get better in a year. She would treat him well, and when he woke up, she would never treat her badly, even if she didn't treat her as a benefactor.

Even in order to make him remember her, he kept a diary every day.

Of course, the diary was written by him as Xiao Huang Wen.

This is not the point. The point is how can he be stupid all the time?

She can't abandon him and walk away, or send him back to Jiang's home, and let him continue to be abused by Jiang Yushen.

Moreover, when she thought of separating from him, her heart hurt uncontrollably, as if she would suffocate.

I felt that the air pressure in the whole room was so low that she couldn't breathe.

She knows what that kind of heartache means, she is not stupid, very understand their feelings.

Even if he's stupid, she can't stop falling in love with him.

I want to spend my life with him.

That's why I'm afraid he won't want her when he wakes up.

Now, he will never wake up, he will not abandon her, and he will even rely on her all the time.

It's not so bad. Without Jiang's family and company, she still has 10 million yuan and a small villa. Two people live like ordinary people, which is enough for a lifetime.

And she also has the shares of the Jiang family, which receive dividends every year.

After a child, a family of three, how sweet to have.

But why do you feel so miserable in your heart?

She wants to see him standing high, she wants to see him become a dragon and Phoenix, she wants to see him commanding and scolding Fang Qiu, she wants to see

She wanted to see too much, but she didn't want to see him go on foolishly.

Su wanwan felt that she couldn't think about it any more. When she thought about it, she felt uncomfortable. Her eyes were hot, her nose was sour, and she wanted to cry.

It's not that I want to cry, it's that tears have come to my eyes, and I feel that they will flow out in the next second.

Su wanwan doesn't want to cry in front of Jiang Chengzhan. She raises her hand and presses her eyes. She forces her tears back.

He will never be well after that, so she will take care of him all the time and have another child after three months, so she can live happily.

Anyway, in the previous world, she suffered everything. If someone gave her 10 million yuan, she would be crazy.

Thinking of this, Su wanwan reaches for Jiang Chengzhan's big hand and holds his slender and clean fingers. He feels more secure.

Wanwan has realized her feelings.
