

《Sweet Daily Life With Rich Fool Husband》

Chapter 80

Everyone used to say that the baby just born was lovely and beautiful. Su cried when she saw Jiang Chengzhan's mobile phone photo.

Why are you so ugly?

"Wife, what's the matter?" Jiang Chengzhan looks at her distorted facial expression and asks painfully.

Guess she is worried about the child, comfort: "the doctor said very good, nothing, you don't worry."

After all, twins should be careful.

Su wanwan shakes her head. Her voice is a little wronged. She has made so much effort to give birth to two ugly children. How can she inherit the good genes of her and Jiang Chengzhan?

"What's the matter?" Jiang Chengzhan is more worried, "is not the body uncomfortable?"

Su wanwan still shook his head: "no, it's them. How ugly!"

After she finished the ugly word, she began to cry again, "how can it be so ugly? The skin is all pulled together."

Jiang Chengzhan frowned and looked at Su wanwan with a puzzled face. After the end of his life, the child's aesthetics has not changed, has it?

"Wife, even the doctor praised the baby beautiful, what do you think?"

He pointed to her with his mobile phone: "you see how slippery the skin is, how black and dense the hair is, how beautiful the eyes are, like you."

"Is it?" Su wanwan thought along with him, and really thought that the two babies in the picture looked better.

I thought maybe I just finished the operation and my brain is not very clear.

"By the way, you've just finished the operation. Take a rest first. You can't keep looking at your mobile phone," he said, taking it back and putting it up.

Su wanwan is still worried: "is it safe for children to put the incubator? Don't be stolen."

She was born with difficulty.

Jiang Chengzhan is quite at ease with this. He has sent several bodyguards, and there are monitoring everywhere. Today's society is not like before, and anyone can do anything.

"It's OK. I'll be watched. Don't worry."

Just now, I had an operation in the operating room for more than 40 minutes, and I came out after suturing and observing for less than an hour.

Now the medical treatment is really developed.

It's just that it's creepy to look at such a long needle when taking anesthetic, and then everything is much better.

The doctor was still talking to her and asked her about her height and weight. She was not very clear at that time, but she still knew that the doctor was talking to her. When she came back, she heard a loud cry.

"The first child is a boy, 55 in height, weighing five Jin and three Liang, born at 12.58."

"I'll show you."

When Sue heard the doctor talking to her, she turned her head and took a look. There was only a vague shadow, eh.

Soon heard a cry: "second child, girl, height 50, weight 4 jin 9 Liang."

"Both of them are very healthy. I packed them and carried them out."

Sue could hear the doctor talking to her all the time, but her brain was slow to understand.

In the operation, I feel that time passes quickly, but the people waiting outside are different. Jiang Chengzhan is just entering the new year.

He was scared to death by signing those informed consents just now. Now for a long time, no one came out. He kept pacing in place, and said, "why don't you come out, why don't you come out?"

Although Qin Mingyang has no experience, he is calmer than him: "it's only 20 minutes. No matter how fast the operation is, it's also a major operation. Besides, it's twins, and so on."

Jiang Chengzhan knew what he said was right, but right didn't mean he wanted to hear. He gave him a cold eye, and Qin Mingyang immediately shut up.

Come on, you have a baby today, your boss!

After about 20 minutes, the two children were carried out by the doctor and showed to Jiang Chengzhan: "Dabao boy, Erbao girl, brother and sister are safe."

Jiang Chengzhan just felt a warm current in his nose. He asked subconsciously, "where's my wife?"

Doctor: "my mother is also safe. She is suturing the edge of the knife."

Don't know how, Jiang Chengzhan suddenly red eye, the water vapor in the eyes is about to flow down, he turned over, wiped his eyes.

And then we'll have someone follow the doctor.

Qin Mingyang looks at Jiang Chengzhan in a mysterious way beside him. Except that he cried when he passed away five months ago, this is the second time he cried.

Don't you just have a baby? Which woman doesn't!

Of course, single dog. Qin can't feel the feeling of being a father in a short time.

Especially when I heard that mother and son were safe.

Soon Su wanwan was also pushed out of the operating room, and Jiang Chengzhan was completely relieved.

Discharged a week later, Jiang Chengzhan directly took the person to the maternal care center, the most upscale one in the city.

It is divided into 28 days of small confinement and 40 days of large confinement.

Jiang Chengzhan, of course, chose the best.

Anyway, the room inside is so big that a family of four can live in it, and there are two more nannies.

Of course, the baby has a special nursery and special nursing staff, which is relatively easy for parents.

The main reason is that their parents have passed away, not to mention there is no one to help them, let alone the Su family.

Sue has just finished her operation. She still needs to be taken care of, let alone the children.

He is busy with his work, so he can take care of his children 24 hours a day.

Sending to the maternity care center is his best choice.

Su wanwan doesn't have much milk. She barely has enough for the two kids. If she is a little bigger, I'm afraid it won't work.

On the eighth day after delivery, Su wanwan asked Jiang Chengzhan, "in another month or two, I'm afraid it will only be enough for one child. What should I do?"

Jiang Chengzhan scratched his head: "if not, just eat milk powder."

Su wanwan had some regrets: "now we advocate breast-feeding, but it's not a pity that we don't give it to our children."

Jiang Chengzhan frowned: "how about a meal for that child?"

Su wanwan objected: "that's not good. I'll take turns to feed you. I won't be used to it then."

This is not good, that is not good, Jiang Chengzhan hair worry, "then how to do, or give my sister to eat, she was born without brother Zhuang."

Sue thought about it later, but she was afraid that she could only do so.

"That's OK. After two months, it's not enough to eat. My brother eats milk powder, and my sister continues to breast milk."

When she left the hospital, she set the names of the two children, but Su wanwan kept in mind the matter of nickname, "Zhan Bao, what about nickname?"

He didn't want to become Guangmingding's father when he was young. Jiang Chengzhan said, "didn't you say that you should pay attention to your weight before?"

"Oh, right," Sue remembered later. They were most used to this naming method. "How much does your brother weigh?"

Jiang Chengzhan opened his mouth and said, "five Jin three Liang, sister four Jin nine Liang."

Su wanwan said, "the elder brother's name is Wusan, and the younger sister's name is Jiumei."

Many years later, that is, the year of the college entrance examination, Jiumei's classmates didn't like his brother very much. How could they see him, they felt that they had seen the annoying five-year college entrance examination three-year simulation. She also strongly protested: "no brother's nickname is allowed in the future, who told me to fight with who!"

"OK," Jiang Chengzhan has no objection. Anyway, it's just a name. These two are quite agreeable, "just Wusan and Jiumei."

After 40 days of confinement, Jiang Chengzhan took the man back.

When I came out, there were only two people, husband and wife. Now there are four members in a mighty family, and there are several nannies and bodyguards. They are very powerful.

The house suddenly seemed more crowded.

There's a baby room and a grocery room for two babies, plus two month's wives, two nannies, a vegetable mother and a chef. Su wanwan feels that there's no room left for her.

Fortunately, Jiang Chengzhan vacated the house opposite.

No wonder rich people don't have enough houses to live in.

If she had such a big house in the original world, she would feel tight now.

I just hope that the villa Jiang Chengzhan is building will be ready soon, and then the family will be able to move there.

Postpartum too. The consequence of ease is that Su wanwan's weight only dropped 10 jin.

Sobbing

She wanted to cry.

You know, after pregnancy, she gained more than 40 Jin.

That is to say, there are still 20 jin of meat that is not your own.

The doctor said she couldn't have the same room forty days after delivery.

Jiang Chengzhan calculated the date. The baby was born one day less than 50 days.
That is to say

After feeding the baby in the evening, Su wanwan lies in bed to find ways to lose weight after childbirth. Jiang Chengzhan comes out after a bath and looks at Su wanwan with red eyes.

He's been abstinent for five months.

And since Su wanwan was pregnant, although there have been several times, I'm afraid I can't completely enjoy meeting her.

Further on, the last time Sue was pregnant.

"Wife," Jiang Chengzhan climbed into bed, took away Su wanwan's mobile phone and swam to her.

Su wanwan was impatient. She raised her hand and patted off his big hand: "what are you doing? Sleep honestly."

Jiang Chengzhan directly put people in his arms, coaxed her voice and said, "you don't think about it. How long have I been a monk?"

Su Wan Wan lifted up her clothes and said, "look at this body of meat. Are you still interested?"

Jiang Chengzhan stretched out his hand and pinched it. He pinched it softly and comfortably: "it's very good. I like it."

"Chubby and comfortable."

SHENTE is so fat and comfortable that Su sits upright: "don't talk about it now. After a long time, you will dislike me."

"Why, my woman, I like everything." Jiang Chengzhan is dying of anxiety, "wife, you are so beautiful, why don't you believe me?"

Su wanwan looks down and takes a look. It's really much better than before, but it's much bigger in other places!

Jiang Chengzhan really saw Su wanwan's worry and said, "it's OK. I'll hire a personal trainer for you tomorrow. I'm sure I can lose weight in the last month of exercise. You're postpartum fat and empty. It's easy to lose weight."

"Really?" Sue looked at him incredulously.

Jiang Chengzhan nodded: "of course it's true. Can I cheat you?"

Sue thought about it later, as if it was the same thing.

Happy in the heart, interest also came, she hugged Jiang Chengzhan to kiss his mouth.

Two people haven't contacted like this for a long time, just a contact can't help but repent.

Women's lips are sweet and soft, while men's thin lips are slightly cool and sexy. When they come into contact with each other, the feeling is crisp and numb, and soon turns to the whole body.

In the end, the two people who had not met for a long time were completely integrated into the quiet night.

The next day, Jiang Chengzhan did hire a coach for Su wanwan, but after that, he was on a business trip.

Su wanwan starts to take exercise in her spare time. Anyway, she wants to return to her original appearance.

Men are big pig hooves, here coax you to say that you will treat you anything, but there is a business trip secretly, hum, absolutely not satisfied after finishing last night.

Su wanwan thinks that Jiang Chengzhan is the biggest pig's hoof.

She wants to return to the original appearance, never give him touch again, angry to death him!

Sweating all over, Su took a bath late and went to see Yuesao to take care of her children.

Now children have to do aerobics twice a day, that is, Yuesao pull their legs, pull their arms, looking very fun.

The two children have different personalities. The elder brother should be a little better. He doesn't like to cry. When he's hungry, he just talks.

My sister is more able to toss, no matter what to do, I wake up with a whoa.

At first, we didn't know what was going on. We thought that she was uncomfortable or inappropriate.

But more times, we will understand that it's all routine.

She cried two throat tears will not have, no one cares about her, she began to play on their own.

This look, that look, staring at the big eyes, full of curiosity.

Su evening to see sister-in-law to brother finished, the palm itching, said: "I do for my sister."

Yuesao commanded her: "so, so, so, pull her leg, it's OK."

Su Wan did it in the evening. Her daughter's small hands are not big enough for her palms, so her skin will grow and look much better than when she was born.

After gymnastics, she gently picked up her daughter and looked at the child, her eyes were full of tenderness: "Oh, nine younger sister, oh, I'm my mother, my father is on a business trip, today only my mother accompany my baby."

Next to the little brother flicking legs, eyes staring big, did not know that his mother did not notice him.

But who makes him a brother and quieter!

Jiang Chengzhan went to several places on this business trip. In the past year, he has just returned to the company, but many of the remaining problems have not been solved. Su wanwan got pregnant and gave birth, and he put his focus on his home, so many of his subsidiaries have come to the point of no good.

I only know how to ask the group for money. I can't even be responsible for my own profits and losses.

This time, he slashed down two subsidiaries whose benefits were too poor. Other groups no longer provided financial support. If they could not, they would withdraw at the end of the year.

If you don't exert any pressure, I'm afraid these people don't know what they do.

With his iron hand actions, the atmosphere of the company has changed a lot.

I didn't expect that a month would pass in a twinkling of an eye.

During this period, Su was able to answer his phone well at first. Later, women's attitude towards him became more and more subtle, and he seldom answered the phone. If he wanted to see his children again, he had to go through the nanny.

He was worried and couldn't go back. He asked her what was wrong and refused to say.

I'm really angry.

When a subsidiary's business was finished, he didn't even eat, so he asked someone to book a plane ticket and came back home.

/The number of words is not enough.
