

《Sweet Daily Life With Rich Fool Husband》

Chapter 81

Because he was too busy, although Jiang Chengzhan remembered to bring a gift to Su wanwan, he didn't find the time to buy it himself.

He asked the assistant to take a female assistant from a local subsidiary to pick out the gift.

Worried that Su would think more about it later, he took his male assistant with him when he went out. He felt that he must be in place.

The assistant is a college student in his twenties who has just graduated for less than two years. He usually looks very smart. He wants to give the gift to Jiang Chengzhan before getting off the plane. "Mr. Jiang, it's a necklace. Have a look."

Jiang Chengzhan opened the box and a ruby leaped into his eyes. It looked very beautiful.

In fact, jewelry is almost the same in his eyes. There are only two kinds, one is cheap and the other is expensive.

Cheap is not good-looking, expensive even if it is a ghost, there are many people boast on the right.

But since women like it, he must lean on it.

The reason why I took that bracelet before is that it has a nice name, pure heart.

How many people can maintain their original pure heart after experiencing the rendering of the secular world?

"President Jiang," the assistant said in a voice to remind Jiang Chengzhan of his absence.

Jiang Chengzhan calmed down and let out a sound.

Assistant: "I guess you must have bought it for your wife."

Jiang Chengzhan frowned. What's the meaning?

Assistant: "I know Mr. Jiang is very busy recently. I must have neglected his wife. Don't let others buy this gift for you, just say that you choose it yourself. In this way, if a woman thinks you value her, it will be fine if there is anything wrong with her."

Several times he saw that no one answered the phone call from the boss, and then he was in a bad mood. He guessed that there was a fire in the backyard, so he had such a smart reminder.

His girlfriend is like this, a coax is good.

Jiang Chengzhan smell some doubt: "really work?"

The assistant laughed in his heart, and sure enough, let him guess right, "of course, my girlfriend is like this, just coax."

Jiang Chengzhan imagines Su's surprise when she receives the gift, and slightly hooks her lips.

But he said, "my wife is not so vulgar."

Assistant:

Why is his girlfriend so tacky?

Forget it. He's the boss. He's right.

After getting off the plane, Jiang Chengzhan asked the driver to take him home directly.

I haven't seen my wife and children for a month. I always think about it in my dreams.

But the child can see it through the video every day, the elder brother will turn over, the younger sister can only turn half, but the wife hasn't seen it for a long time.

She refused to answer the phone, and it was difficult for the servant to open the video to take pictures of her. Jiang Chengzhan could only ask inside and outside what she was busy with.

It's all about keeping fit, losing weight and taking care of children.

Now Su wanwan is not only his wife, but also his relatives, who are as important as his two children.

A month later, Su wanwan lost more than ten jin, and a few more Jin went back to before her pregnancy.

Recently, she's always holding her breath, especially she doesn't want to talk to Jiang Chengzhan.

To say that he did something wrong, she thought about it carefully and didn't seem to have done it.

It's just a business trip the day after I finished my family with her. It's only a month since I left.

How could she be offended by such a distance.

Su wanwan did Yoga for half an hour today, and then went to feed her baby.

Now brother can only eat milk powder, she just feed a sister on the line.

The elder brother is strong in the end. He will turn over in just three months. The younger sister is soft and can only turn over in half.

When she finished feeding her younger sister, she saw that her brother was lying on his stomach, staring around. She turned her younger sister over and put it opposite her brother, so that they could look at each other.

But she forgot that her sister had just had milk, and she fell down for less than a minute. She vomited a big mouthful out of her mouth. Su Wan Wan hugged her tightly and cleaned her up.

"Nine younger sister, you see you vomit, good waste."

Su Wan holds her sister for a while. Seeing that her brother is going to turn over and give her to Yuesao, she picks up her brother again.

She felt that her elder brother was much heavier than her younger sister, holding her heavy arms.

There is no abnormality after eating milk powder.

"May 3rd, you need to grow up quickly. You know, mom will choose the best kindergarten, the best primary school and the best university for you."

Only three months of May 3, of course, don't know what Su wanwan expected of him. He stares at Su wanwan with big round eyes and grabs her fingers.

Her eyes were full of novelty.

The vegetable mother saw that the two children were playing well. She also came to join in the fun. She thought that it would be a hundred days soon and said with a smile, "in a flash, the two children will be a hundred days soon. I don't know what's in her mind?"

"A hundred days?" Sue thought about it later, "don't we all draw lots? Or shall we do it again? "

Vegetable mother nodded: "OK, I'll go to prepare. Then I'll see what the little prince and the little princess will do."

It's been a hundred days now. Su wanwan put down the May third Festival. The mood he just lifted suddenly became a little lost. Jiang Chengzhan has been gone for a month and still hasn't come back.

If you don't come back, you'll settle down outside.

We'll find another woman to give him twins.

Hum, Sue thought later, then she would kill him and break him into pieces.

"Wife"

"Wife"

All of a sudden, a familiar male voice comes. Su wanwan, who is absent-minded, is stiff. Jiang Chengzhan is back?

She subconsciously looked out. Sure enough, the man was tall and long legged. At the same time, she took off the watch on her wrist and handed it to the servant.

Two people look at each other, many days have not seen, some trance.

Su wanwan only looked at him for a few seconds and then looked away.

Men with before not too much change, white shirt black trousers, height, long legs, posture straight, as before, see the heart.

Su wanwan pulled the corner of the mouth, men really have a congenital advantage.

The woman is much thinner. Jiang Chengzhan's eyes have been sticking to her, and her skin is much better than before. Her small face is not as big as the palm of her hand. Her skin is compact and tender, and her complexion is OK, but her face is not very good. She seems to be angry with him.

Jiang Chengzhan steps pause, first went to see two babies.

This will be full of food and drink are lying in bed to sleep, great changes, with his walk completely changed.

A month ago, two children had a wet rash, and their faces were full of pimples, and their skin was not very good. Now they look very lovely.

However, the children are asleep, he did not want to disturb, just to reach out and pull Su's late hand, "come back to the house with me."

There are so many people here that it's not convenient for him to talk.

Su wanwan is angry in her heart and refuses to talk to him with her head down. She doesn't resist and lets him pull herself back to the bedroom.

"Wife, are you angry with me?" After entering the room, Jiang Chengzhan closes the door, presses the woman on the door, and looks at her with deep eyes.

Su wanwan looked down at him and snorted, "how dare I!"

This is a bit awkward, Jiang Chengzhan right hand hook her chin, let her look at himself, "still said not angry?"

"Blame me for not coming back so long?"

Su wanwan staggers his eyes. Fortunately, she doesn't come back at such a time.

Before, she didn't feel that she was so sentimental. After having a baby, she suddenly became sensitive. Her eyes were filled with water vapor and she couldn't help sniffing.

Jiang Chengzhan's heart sank.

I feel like I've made a serious mistake.

"Wife," he pulled the woman into his arms and looked down for her mouth. He was alone outside for so many days and wanted to hold her after every day's work.

Today, I can really hold a woman in my arms.

As soon as the four lips touched, Su wanwan subconsciously wanted to hide, but the man held her back and didn't let her move, so she was forced to accept.

At the beginning, there was still some resistance. Slowly, Su Su felt numb. In my heart, Su wanwan finally had some subtle responses.

Jiang Chengzhan felt her response and began to kiss hard. It was only when the woman reached out to push him out of breath that he felt that he was using too much energy.

Jiang Chengzhan releases Su wanwan and holds her face in both hands. The woman's eyes are wet. It makes people feel sad to look at her. "Wife, you've worked so hard for so many days."

Su wanwan actually knows that Jiang Chengzhan is very busy. She should understand him and support him, but it's another matter to really do it.

Especially if I didn't say hello in advance, I suddenly left, and it took so long.

He wasn't at home the first night and she didn't sleep well all night.

"Then you go out ahead of time and say," she doesn't believe he made a temporary decision.

"Well," said Jiang Chengzhan, "I promise to report to you three days in advance, and I won't leave until you approve."

Seeing the man's serious appearance, Su banged, "I'm afraid there will be something urgent at that time. You'll call and go again."

Jiang Chengzhan promised, "I'll come back as soon as possible, and then I'll leave."

Su wanwan: "isn't it tiresome to toss about like this?"

Jiang Chengzhan: "as long as you feel comfortable, I'm not tired."

He also said some grievances: "you don't know, these days you don't answer my phone, I have no decline in my heart, fast suffering to death."

Although Su wanwan thinks it's wrong not to answer his phone, she won't admit her mistake, "who let you go out so long?"
