

Secret Love 1741

Chapter 1741: Ye Bai is back

What?

Gong Xu's manager?

Everyone was taken aback by the newcomer's words.

Isn't Yao Jiawen Gong Xu's manager?

Yao Jiawen was sitting right there, so where did this person claiming to be Gong Xu's manager pop up from?

Next to Yao Jiawen, her assistant furiously yelled, "Nonsense! Our CEO Yao is sitting right here. Who the heck are you? How dare you impersonate CEO Yao! You must be here to make trouble!"

"That's right! Who are you? Why are you trespassing on a set?!"

"Where's security? What the heck are they doing?"

...

In the midst of everyone's furious outrage, Ye Wanwan walked inside without regard for anyone, Seven Star and Big Dipper trailing behind her.

Lights were blasting on the set, so everyone finally saw the newcomer's face clearly when she left the shadows.

The boisterous set quieted like a mute button was abruptly pressed.

Sound was stolen from everyone as they stared at the girl who entered with astonishment and disbelief all over their faces.

"Dir—director... Director Ye..."

"Ye Bai!!!"

"D*mn! Why is she back?!"

Although the entertainment industry experienced extremely rapid change, there wasn't anyone present who didn't recognize this girl.

This was a mere brand-new manager who succeeded in making Luo Chen popular as soon as she debuted, who then signed on Gong Xu, and was the mastermind behind clearing up Han Xianyu's scandal.

She managed to revive Dazzling Media single-handedly, create the Age of Immortals after leaving Dazzling, and produce two Best Actors and one Best Actress in last year's Golden Orchid Awards within a year of the company's establishment.

As her name and reputation swept throughout the industry, news of the second miss of the Ye family crossdressing as a man was exposed...

Her brilliant resume couldn't be replicated by anyone! She was a legend in the entertainment industry!

After she disappeared for many months, everyone nearly forgot about her existence and thought she wouldn't return to the country anymore.

To everyone's surprise, she suddenly showed up here in front of them...

"How... how is that possible..." Yao Jiawen's gloating expression vanished without a trace, and the color drained from her face. She shot up, shoving her chair back in the process.

Ye Bai...

That woman is actually back?!

"Heavens! Is that Ye Bai, is that Ye Bai???"

"It is, it is! I've seen her in female clothes! She's still so handsome in female clothes, ahhhhh!"

"D*mn! I might become crooked!"

...

"Brother... Brother Ye..." Gong Xu stood in his spot in a daze, unable to believe what he was seeing.

He knew Ye Wanwan was overwrought with anxiety from her father and brother's situation, and they managed to deceive her yesterday, so he never would've expected Ye Wanwan to suddenly show up.

The sentence "I'm Gong Xu's manager" caused an ache to grip his heart.

Ye Wanwan glanced at Seven Star, extending her hand out toward him.

Seven Star understood immediately and unzipped his jacket, swiftly taking it off to hand to her.

Then Ye Wanwan tossed his jacket toward Gong Xu.

Gong Xu's eyes reddened the second he caught the black jacket. "Brother Ye... I knew... I knew you'd come and pick me up while riding a trail of rainbow-colored auspicious clouds one day..."

Ye Wanwan's lips twitched. What the heck was up with "riding a trail of rainbow-colored auspicious clouds"?

Gong Xu wanted to pounce enthusiastically toward Ye Wanwan as usual but was blocked by Seven Star again.

"Dress yourself," Ye Wanwan ordered.

Gong Xu sniffed and was immensely moved as he stared at the jacket in his hands. "I don't like this color... I like his more!"

Chapter 1742: Do you want to die?

Gong Xu intently stared at the gaudy jacket embedded with sequins on Big Dipper.

Ye Wanwan: "..."

"Ahahaha! You have good taste, bro! I also think mine's good-looking! Come here, I'll give you mine to wear!" Big Dipper looked like he'd found a best friend and generously took off his jacket for Gong Xu to wear.

Ye Wanwan: "..."

"Brother Ye, why... why did you come?" Gong Xu put on the jacket with great satisfaction before asking with furrowed brows.

Ye Wanwan glanced at him from the corner of her eyes. "If I didn't come, how long were you all going to deceive me?"

Gong Xu glanced at Yao Jiawen and her lackeys. "Brother Ye, it's not that we wanted to deceive you, but... Anyway, it's no big deal, so you don't need to worry about it! Really!"

Gong Xu's heart jumped to his throat when he saw that Ye Wanwan only brought two people there.

At this point, Yao Jiawen finally managed to calm herself down a bit and nonchalantly walked toward Ye Wanwan. She derisively greeted Ye Wanwan, "Heh, long time no see, Director Ye."

So what if Ye Wanwan's back?

Does she think she's still that sought-after golden manager from before?

In an ever-changing place like the entertainment industry, a mere three months was enough for a dynasty to be usurped by another dynasty.

Now, it wasn't Ye Bai's dynasty anymore!

Ye Wanwan's expression didn't shift as she looked at this woman who resembled a complete stranger to her. "It's truly been a long time. It feels like the blink of an eye, but I almost couldn't recognize you, CEO Yao."

"Director Ye, people are prone to change." Dark clouds shrouded Yao Jiawen's heart when she saw how this woman retained her calm, confident, and formidable persona.

Why? Why does this woman look so arrogant despite sinking so low?

She seriously knows how to put on airs...

"May I ask the reason behind Director Ye's sudden visit?" Yao Jiawen impatiently asked as she sat back down in her leather chair and took a sip from her coffee.

The second her bottom made contact with the chair, she was abruptly picked up by Big Dipper and thrown onto the floor.

Big Dipper menacingly glared at Yao Jiawen like he was a bandit and arrogantly said, “D*mn! Who gave you the guts to sit down when my Brother Ye is talking to you?! Do you want to die?”

Big Dipper had smoothly adapted to how Gong Xu and the others addressed Ye Wanwan as “Brother Ye.”

However, when the words “Brother Ye” came from Big Dipper’s mouth, it sounded like he was referring to a gang leader with his innate mobster aura.

Yao Jiawen rolled in a circle after hitting the ground, her expensive clothes decorated with a layer of dust. She was in absolute disbelief. “You... you actually! Are you mad?!?!?!”

The staff members on the set finally returned to their wits after being stunned for a few seconds, and they hastily scrambled to help her up.

Gong Xu was also dumbstruck. He didn’t expect Big Dipper to look like a pretty boy who relied on his face to make a living in the entertainment industry while acting in a manner completely unfitting of his appearance. He resembled a robber and bandit more.

Big Dipper ignored those people though and eagerly dashed over to straighten the leather chair. “Have a seat, Brother Ye!”

Seven Star calmly brewed a new cup of coffee for Ye Wanwan.

And so, Ye Wanwan casually sat down under everyone’s flabbergasted gazes.

Simply... unbelievable...

“D*mn! This Ye Bai! Did a screw go loose in her head from the shock of the mishap in her family?”

“Right?! Isn’t she acting too arrogant? I bet she’s gone mad!”

“Does she want to die?! It’s Emperor Sky Entertainment standing behind Yao Jiawen! Who doesn’t know that Emperor Sky Entertainment is supported by...”

...

Chapter 1743: Who came here to talk principles with you?

Next to Yao Jiawen, the female assistant Ye Yiyi assigned to her imperiously admonished Ye Wanwan: “Ye Bai, what in the world are you doing? Wake up and look at your current status! Your brother isn’t the CEO of the Age of Immortals anymore, and you also aren’t a director at this company anymore! You don’t have any right to question our artists’ business!”

The producer also chimed in, “Do you think you’re still the Director of the Talent Recruitment Department at the Age of Immortals? Isn’t it too ridiculous how you’re sticking your nose into something that’s none of your business?!”

The director quickly added, “Miss Ye, I understand you’re unable to accept this outcome, but I’m advising you to accept reality. If you continue to be a pest and throw tantrums, I won’t be so polite anymore!”

When Gong Xu witnessed everyone mocking Ye Wanwan, his eyes turned as red as an enraged bull. “All of you shut up!”

Although he wanted nothing more than to hit them, he couldn’t. Brother Ye was there, so it was too risky.

He couldn’t cause her to fall into a dangerous situation.

After shouting that, he leaned in close to Ye Wanwan’s ear and lowered his volume. “Brother Ye, hurry and leave. I’m really fine!”

With the help of her assistant, Yao Jiawen got up and sneered. “Ye Bai, I’m sorry to inform you that it’s me who’s Gong Xu’s manager now, and you? You’re nothing. You have no right to govern his affairs. No matter where you go, this principle holds true!”

Confidence brimmed from Yao Jiawen’s face, and she looked fearless from the knowledge of her support system.

Ye Wanwan remained seated in Yao Jiawen’s leather recliner and drank the high-class coffee Seven Star prepared for her. She raised her brows at the other woman, looking surprised. “Who said I came here to talk principles with you? I’m not interested in doing that!”

She didn’t come there to talk principles with these people.

Why would she?! Was she crazy?

Yao Jiawen looked at Ye Wanwan then at the skinny, young youths who came there with her. Yao Jiawen derisively snorted. “Then what would you like, Director Ye?”

A word from her and she could toss them out.

She didn’t, though. She wanted everyone to witness her destroying the legend that was Ye Bai!

Ye Wanwan glanced at Yao Jiawen and blew on the hot cup of coffee in her hands before chuckling softly. “I, of course, came here to... wreck the set...”

“What?”

Before Yao Jiawen and the others could react, Ye Wanwan waved her hand at Seven Star and Big Dipper. “Wreck it all!”

Seven Star and Big Dipper instantly shifted into gear.

Big Dipper exploded with excitement and dashed to the front, sending the most expensive camera crashing down with a flying kick.

The loud bang caused everyone to be flabbergasted.

Ye Wanwan really went mad, right?

She brought two pretty boys there and declared she would... wreck the set?

Yao Jiawen exclaimed in shock before a sneer spread across her face. "Ye Bai, I originally wanted to give you some face since we were once close, but since you want to die, don't blame me!"

She then flicked her hand at the underlings Ye Yiyi arranged for her and commanded, "What are you waiting for?! Beat them without any mercy!"

The audience hastily retreated far away and sympathetically looked at Ye Bai and those two youths.

Ye Bai should've remained hiding overseas after taking the money! Why did she run back here to court death...?

Gong Xu panicked. "Brother Ye, hurry and tell them to come back! These aren't normal bodyguards—they're from the gang!"

Ye Wanwan nodded. "Oh? Are gang members scary?"

Chapter 1744: They're too vicious!

Gong Xu was nearly angered to death by Ye Wanwan's nonchalant expression. "Brother Ye, you're too naive, so you don't know about affairs concerned with gangs. Let me tell you frankly—Ye Yiyi sank her claws into the leaders of Hongxing Gang. You should know about Hongxing Gang, right? These people aren't your typical thugs and thieves; they're all criminals who live their lives on their blades and don't have any morals!"

As Gong Xu spoke, a dozen or so hired thugs rushed forward and completely surrounded them.

Ye Wanwan pulled Gong Xu down to sit in a nearby chair. "Stop panicking and sit down for a cup of tea! I know about Hongxing Gang; I heard they're quite frightening, but I'm also quite frightening!"

Gong Xu was on the verge of a breakdown. "Brother Ye, stop kidding around! It's not the time for that!"

Ye Wanwan pursed her lips. "I'm not kidding around! I really?am?frightening. These two friends of mine also don't have any morals and are very vicious!"

"... The width of their shoulders is thinner than the other guy's thigh! How the heck are they vicious?!"

What should I do? My Brother Ye seems to have become a bit foolish after leaving for a few days?

Promptly after Gong Xu's inquiry, he saw a giant tattooed man 1.9 meters tall with muscles bulging from his figure swinging his fist, which was as big as a wok, toward Seven Star's expressionless and exquisitely handsome face...

"Ah! It's over!" Gong Xu shouted miserably and covered his eyes.

As soon as Gong Xu covered his eyes, he unsurprisingly heard an enormous boom.

He carefully peeked between the slits of his fingers, and his hand and chin dropped down the next second.

What... what is going on?!?!?!?

What did I just see?!

In the standoff between Seven Star and the bulky man, Seven Star's skinny figure was rooted to his spot. He merely twisted his wrist to grab the bulky man's hand at an odd angle.

A second later, the bulky man was flung back like a burlap bag.

"Eh..."?Am... am I seeing things? What just happened?

In the midst of Gong Xu's daze, the peacock-like Big Dipper also acted. He kicked a second thug and twisted another bulky man's arm until it broke with a bone-chilling crack.

"AHH!!! AHH!!!"

The blood-curdling screeches from the thugs nearly pierced the ceiling.

The bulky man rolled onto the ground while howling for his parents, his arm limply hanging behind him like freshly made noodles.

As for the bulky man who was thrown by Seven Star, he crashed into a wall and was convulsing and spurting blood out simultaneously.

Gong Xu's chin nearly touched the floor, and he shivered. He looked at Big Dipper and Seven Star like they were ghosts and subconsciously shrank back behind Ye Wanwan. "D... d... d*mn..."

In the following minutes, everyone blankly watched as the two handsome youths turned into the embodiment of demons and pummeled the dozen or so burly thugs until they were broken and bleeding.

One youth was expressionless while the other youth had a bone-chillingly excited and twisted smile on his face, but their every attack was extremely cruel and savage, sending everyone's hair on end.

When one of the bulky thugs slammed into the wall from a kick, his head directly shattered from the immensity of the force.

"Barf..." Yao Jiawen, who acted imperious and haughty a second ago, started vomiting and turned into a pile of mud, the scent of urine emitting from her a second later.

Ye Wanwan languidly drank her coffee. "What do you think? Are they vicious?"

Gong Xu: "..."

They are too vicious, alright!!!

Chapter 1745: World's #1 ferocious dog

Gong Xu's eyes were bulging from his face as he glanced at Ye Wanwan in disbelief. His lips twitched as though he wanted to say something but didn't voice it. His gaze shifted, landing on Big Dipper once more.

That peacock has a similar build as me, so how does he possess such explosive strength? He could probably kill an ox with a punch, right?!

This is simply too terrifying... and too freaking vicious!

“D*mn... f*ck me... I’m not dreaming, right...?” Gong Xu intently watched the rampaged set and the fallen bulky thugs who kept howling in agony.

This was completely different from his expectations.

“D*mn, cowards like you want to play shady with me?”

Big Dipper hurled a thug away and swept his eyes across the set before shaking his head in disappointment. “Blah! A bunch of shameless b*tches!”

Seven Star expressionlessly returned to his spot next to Ye Wanwan, standing there like a guardian deity.

“Bro, you’re really awesome...”

Gong Xu walked to Big Dipper and gave him a thumbs up. “Bro, you’re too cool!”

“Brother, you think your Brother Big is cool just from this? This is nothing! You haven’t seen your Brother Big at his mightiest yet! Forget about these people—have you heard of Piece of Sh*t? Piece of Sh*t has to walk around your Brother Big when he sees me! Did you think I was bragging?” Big Dipper’s face brimmed with pride.

“Piece... Piece of Sh*t?”

Gong Xu was dumbfounded. Who the heck was Piece of Sh*t?

“What? You haven’t heard of Piece of Sh*t?” Big Dipper shot him a look.

Gong Xu immediately straightened his back and hastily said, “I have! I’m also well-versed in the world, bro! Of course I’ve heard of Piece of Sh*t! He’s a very fearsome dog! I know, Piece of Sh*t is a pit bull, the #1 ferocious dog in the world, right, bro? I have one myself!”

Although Gong Xu was clueless as to what Big Dipper was saying, he didn’t want to humiliate himself, so he could only blow his way through it and make up a story.

Big Dipper glanced at him, baffled. “Eh... It’s Piece of Sh*t from the Independent State, don’t you know?”

“I do, of course I do! Why wouldn’t I know?! Eh, the Independent State, right... it’s an island that’s rather independent and lives secluded from the world. It’s a paradise, and the island is home to the most ferocious pit bull in the world!”

Big Dipper: “...”

Seven Star: “...”

Ye Wanwan: “...”

Before Ye Wanwan could say anything, Big Dipper caught sight of the thug by his feet clutching broken pieces of glass and slowly standing up.

Big Dipper ruthlessly kicked the thug's face and sent him flying back three to four meters away.

"Lie down properly! Did I say you could get up?" Big Dipper glowered at the thug he sent flying.

When the thug didn't respond, Big Dipper's temper exploded. "Eh, you're quite brassy! How dare you ignore me?"

Gong Xu quickly stopped Big Dipper and said, "Bro, he fainted, so how can he respond? How about we let it go?"

Big Dipper nodded. "Fine, I'll do it for you."

Then he turned to Ye Wanwan. "Brother Ye, we're done wrecking things. Should we continue?"

The faces of Yao Jiawen and the other onlookers were deathly pale, and some of the set staff were hiding on the side, not daring to breathe loudly.

The two youths brought here by Ye Bai were simply too terrifying!

Chapter 1746: All a misunderstanding

"You can stop," Ye Wanwan answered aloofly.

"Then let's eat. I'm starving," Big Dipper said.

"What's the hurry? Are we done?" Ye Wanwan retorted.

"Brother Ye, if we don't leave now, it won't be an easy escape when their back-up comes!" Gong Xu said anxiously.

"Say, brother, what are you saying? So what if their back-up comes? I can suffocate pieces of trash like this with a single finger! Who cares how many ants there are? It's not like they can threaten an elephant!" Big Dipper sneered.

"Bro, you're right, but... why are we staying here still?" Gong Xu was puzzled.

"To film. Don't you see how dedicated everyone is to their work? How could we leave so irresponsibly?" Ye Wanwan answered with a soft chuckle.

Gong Xu's expression shifted, and he looked at her in surprise. "D*mn... Brother Ye... you aren't..."

Gong Xu gnashed his teeth, as though he came to a great decision. "Brother Ye, unless... unless you shoot it with me, I won't shoot it!"

Ye Wanwan immediately rolled her eyes at him. Does this idiot have tofu for a brain? Who freaking said he's shooting it?

Ignoring this idiot, Ye Wanwan walked toward a nearby table and gently rapped on the surface. She snorted and asked, "Why are you hiding under here, director? It's time to come out and work."

“Ah... Director... Director Ye... It’s a misunderstanding, it’s all a misunderstanding! I don’t know them!”

The director climbed out from under the table and looked at Ye Wanwan with an ingratiating smile.

“Director Ye, I’m a fan, your staunchest fan! These people threatened me to shoot this kind of film, which is a gigantic humiliation for me. Did you know, Director Ye, the thing I freaking hate the most in my life is shooting this type of scandalous and immoral film?!”

“Shut up.” Ye Wanwan shot the director an impatient look.

“Yes.” The director nodded.

“Where’s the screenwriter?” Ye Wanwan called from her spot on the chair.

“I... I’m the screenwriter, Director Ye...” a young man said fawningly as he hastily walked toward Ye Wanwan.

“Let me see the screenplay,” Ye Wanwan ordered.

The screenwriter quickly handed the screenplay to her.

Less than a minute later, Ye Wanwan finished skimming the script and chuckled. “You’re truly unprofessional and chose completely inappropriate male and female leads, so how could this film become popular upon release?”

“Right, right, right!” The director anxiously agreed. “You’re too right, Director Ye. I previously mentioned that the casting was too rash and doesn’t have that essential impact and explosiveness!”

“So, director, who do you think would suit the female lead the best?” Ye Wanwan asked the director with a smirk.

The director frantically shook his head. “That’s hard to say, Director Ye!”

“What do you think about Yao Jiawen?” Ye Wanwan’s gaze landed on the nearby Yao Jiawen.

“What did you say, Ye Bai?!” Yao Jiawen viciously glared at her.

“Great! That’s great! Yao Jiawen as the female lead is perfect!” The director gave Ye Wanwan a thumbs up.

“As for the male lead...” Ye Wanwan turned to the howling thugs. “Whoever doesn’t want to die should step forward.”

One of the thugs in black moaning with everything he had instantly climbed up from the floor. “I-I don’t want to die!”

Chapter 1747: A stray dog I picked up

“Hm?! You don’t want to die?” Big Dipper sent the man’s bottom a kick. “You think you won’t die just ‘cause you said you don’t want to die? Are you trying to make me lose face?”

Ye Wanwan looked at the bulky man. “It’s easy to avoid death. I think that with your looks, it’s rather appropriate for you to star as the male lead of this film. What do you think?”

“I can! I have experience in this! I’ll do exactly as you say, boss!” The bulky man nodded frantically.

He could shoot this type of film and avoid being put to death, plus the female lead was Yao Jiawen. She couldn’t be described as pretty, but at least she wasn’t ugly... No matter how you looked at it, he was the one benefitting from this...

“Um... Can you censor my face afterward?” the bulky man asked after a moment of thought.

“What do you think?” Ye Wanwan smiled faintly.

“Oh, I think that’s... unnecessary. I’m willing to sacrifice my body for art!” the bulky man replied.

“Why aren’t you starting yet, director?” Ye Wanwan turned to the director.

“Ye Wanwan, you’re asking for death... Do you think you’ll live after this...? You dare to antagonize me and Emperor Sky Entertainment just because you have two pretty boys with a little talent in martial arts... You’ll die very, very tragically. Your family too—all of you will die!” Yao Jiawen screamed hysterically.

“Stop spouting nonsense. Hurry and strip! Don’t waste filming time, I’m telling you...” the director impatiently snapped at her.

If he offended Yao Jiawen, only his career in the industry would end. If he offended Ye Wanwan though, his life would probably end today... Ye Wanwan had gone completely insane!

Soon, with the help of the new bulky male lead, Yao Jiawen was stripped to her skin along with the male lead himself, and they started posing in all sorts of extremely suggestive ways.

Seven Star turned to Ye Wanwan and expressionlessly said, “Brother Ye, you should close your eyes.”

Ye Wanwan was taken back and looked puzzled. “Close my eyes? Why?”

Seven Star earnestly replied, “Although they are only shooting some photos and not genuinely doing anything, you’re still a girl, after all, Brother Ye. It isn’t good for you to watch this.

Ye Wanwan: “...”

In the midst of Yao Jiawen’s despair, they finally finished taking the photos.

Ye Wanwan promptly walked toward Yao Jiawen and chuckled when she saw Yao Jiawen’s loathful expression. “What, CEO Ye? How does it feel to personally experience it yourself?”

“Ye Bai... When this is over... Just wait... I’ll make you kneel by my feet...” Yao Jiawen maliciously glared at Ye Wanwan.

“Oh?”

The corners of Ye Wanwan’s mouth curled up into a shockingly bewitching smile. “What a backbone CEO Yao has... I suddenly realize that I’d be letting you off too easy if I just had you shoot some photos... How about... you shoot a genuine film with that male lead now? What do you think?”

Yao Jiawen’s face transformed.

“Heh... Yao Jiawen, you’re nothing but a stray dog I picked up back then. What? You haven’t grown up yet, but you already have the guts to bite me—your master?” Ye Wanwan snorted as she lifted Yao Jiawen’s chin up.

Chapter 1748: I filmed it!

Ye Wanwan had zero pity for an ingrate like her.

If she didn’t pick up Yao Jiawen, who was getting snubbed everywhere she went, where would Yao Jiawen be today?

It would be alright if Yao Jiawen didn’t feel any gratitude, but Yao Jiawen turned around and bit her!

Yao Jiawen snatched away the Age of Immortals’ funds but falsely accused her of being the culprit.

It wouldn’t be overboard even if a person like Yao Jiawen was hacked into thousands of pieces.

Just now, not only was Yao Jiawen devoid of remorse, but Yao Jiawen also used her family to threaten her... What a wonderful person!

Now, Ye Wanwan was merely giving Yao Jiawen a taste of her own medicine, which could already be considered merciful.

“Ye Bai... Fine, you win...” Yao Jiawen forced out between gritted teeth.

“Don’t be in such a rush, CEO Yao. The game’s just begun; it would be boring if it ends too fast, no?” Ye Wanwan smiled faintly at the other woman.

Ye Wanwan ordered the director to save the photos and some recordings and send them to her.

After that, Ye Wanwan led Gong Xu, Big Dipper, and Seven Star out of the set without looking back.

Inside the living room of the Golden Seas mansion:

Big Dipper and Seven Star had their fill of dinner, and Liang Wanjun had returned to her bedroom to sleep.

First Elder and Third Elder were sitting on the sofa and were watching a Chinese TV show, looking rather relaxed.

Yao Jiawen and the others probably wouldn’t dare to publicize what Ye Wanwan did that day since Ye Wanwan possessed information that could be used against them—the photos and videos.

Even if Yao Jiawen told Emperor Sky Entertainment and that supposed Hongxing Gang, Ye Wanwan didn't care. They were nothing in her eyes.

"First Elder, Third Elder," Ye Wanwan called, breaking out of her contemplation.

The two elders quickly walked toward her as well as Big Dipper and Seven Star.

"How's the task I assigned to you a few days ago coming along? Any progress?" Ye Wanwan asked.

"Yes!" Big Dipper hastily answered. "Sis Feng, I stalked them with everything I had these past few days. In the end... guess what I discovered?!"

"What could you possibly have discovered?" Third Elder glanced at Big Dipper.

"Third Elder, how could you? What about me? Why couldn't I discover anything? I think that my intelligence is the highest amongst all of us here. I don't care whether you admit it or not; I think it's true regardless!" Big Dipper protested.

"Quiet. What did you discover?" Ye Wanwan asked him.

"I discovered that Steward Huang or something from the Ye family really had an affair with that Liang Meixuan woman. These two often go to a hotel to do some illicit things!"

"That's it?" Seven Star looked at Big Dipper.

"Yeah! Isn't that enough?" Big Dipper asked.

"It's not that it isn't enough, but First Elder, Third Elder, and I all knew about this already," Seven Star calmly answered.

"What about videos and photos?" Ye Wanwan pressed.

The four of them looked at each other blankly.

"President, the floor of the hotel room they booked is a bit too high, so it's hard to film them. Plus... we need to film them... doing that kind of thing...?" Third Elder looked somewhat chagrined.

"So you're saying you all didn't film it?" Ye Wanwan was dumbstruck.

"I-I filmed it! I filmed it!" Big Dipper shouted abruptly.

Chapter 1749: I filmed everything

Everyone in the room looked at Big Dipper.

"You filmed it?" Ye Wanwan was surprised, and doubt surfaced in her eyes.

If First Elder and Seven Star said they filmed it, Ye Wanwan wouldn't suspect it at all, but when these words came from Big Dipper's mouth, she inexplicably felt like something was amiss...

"Haha, Sis Feng, I really filmed it! That scene..." Big Dipper clucked his tongue and shook his head before pulling his phone out of his pocket.

"I followed and filmed them the whole time with my phone. Let me play it for you." Big Dipper waved the phone in her hand.

They all quickly congregated around Big Dipper and intently stared at his phone.

"Where's the video?" Third Elder couldn't help asking after a while.

"Eh... My phone ran out of battery. Let me charge it a little," Big Dipper awkwardly replied.

First Elder: "..."

Third Elder: "..."

Ye Wanwan: "..."

Seven Star: "..."

After a few minutes, Big Dipper's phone finally turned back on.

When Big Dipper pulled up the video, First Elder and Third Elder were dumbstruck.

At an unspecified hotel, the position of the camera was somewhere between the 20th and 30th floors.

Some appalling sounds emanated from the hotel room.

The figures of Huang Mingkun and Liang Meixuan were entangled on the bed...

"Old Three... We really weren't able to tell when we typically followed her, but you gotta admit, that woman has a rather nice figure..."

"It's alright..." Third Elder intently watched the video.

Ye Wanwan: "..."? These two old men...

It had to be said that Big Dipper's video was shot clearly, and the lighting was perfect. Unfortunately, there weren't any leads for Ye Mufan and Ye Shaoting's case.

However, Liang Meixuan and Huang Mingkun did reveal some information in this video.

For example, Ye Yiyi was their daughter.

The length of the video wasn't long, and it finished playing a few minutes later.

"How about it? Decent, right?"

Big Dipper closed the screen and asked Ye Wanwan.

"Not bad," Ye Wanwan praised him with a smile.

"Sis Feng, should we upload this video onto the Internet?" Big Dipper asked after sending a copy to Ye Wanwan.

Ye Wanwan mulled over it for a long while before shaking her head in the end.

The goal of her return to China wasn't to expose Liang Meixuan and Huang Mingkun's affair or Ye Yiyi's true background. It was to restore Ye Mufan and Ye Shaoting's innocence.

If they uploaded this video onto the internet now, it would certainly create an enormous storm and affect Ye Yiyi to a certain degree, but it couldn't knock down Ye Yiyi, Huang Mingkun, and Liang Meixuan.

After all, Ye Yiyi currently possessed complete control of Emperor Sky Entertainment, and no one would give Ye Yiyi trouble over this. On the other hand, once they did this, they would alert the enemies, and Liang Meixuan and Huang Mingkun would become timid birds. At that time, it would be harder than ascending to the heavens to make an issue out of their affair, trick information out of them, and save Ye Mufan and Ye Shaoting.

"Sis Feng, what was the point of me filming this video then?" Big Dipper was baffled.

Ye Wanwan said, "Keep it for now; it'll be useful later. Keep following and filming them."

Chapter 1750: Hand them over to me

The next few days, First Elder and Third Elder made up one team while Seven Star and Big Dipper made up a second team, and they monitored the Ye residence nearly 24/7. As long as Liang Meixuan and Huang Mingkun stepped out of the Ye residence, they would follow and take photos and record videos.

Seven Star even snuck into the Ye residence and photographed and filmed some of their actions in the Ye residence.

However, Liang Meixuan and Huang Mingkun behaved very properly inside the Ye residence and acted no different from any master-servant pair, so they couldn't find any dirt on them.

As time elapsed and Ye Mufan and Ye Shaoting's court date drew closer, they still didn't have any substantial evidence that could prove Ye Mufan and Ye Shaoting's innocence.

Ye Wanwan had informed First Elder, Third Elder, and the other two of this matter before coming to China, so they all knew about it and didn't delve into the matter.

On one certain day, Third Elder sought out Ye Wanwan.

"President, we can't continue like this. Stalking and filming rely only on luck, and luck is too vague and uncontrollable," Third Elder said to her.

Ye Wanwan nodded and looked at him. "Then what do you think we should do, Third Elder?"

"If you believe in me, President, leave this matter to me... I'll definitely provide the information and answer what you want, President," Third Elder replied.

"Alright, I'll leave it to you then."

With Ye Wanwan's permission, Third Elder's apprehension dispersed.

That night, Third Elder summoned a group of elites from the Fearless Alliance and had Seven Star and Big Dipper perch outside the Ye residence.

About three days later, Liang Meixuan and Huang Mingkun visited the hotel again.

...

“Third Elder, what should we do?” A member turned to Third Elder.

Third Elder chuckled but didn’t respond. Instead, he led everyone into the hotel.

Third Elder stopped in front of the front desk. He looked at the receptionist and asked, “Which room did that couple go into just now?”

“You are?”

The receptionist cautiously looked at Third Elder.

“No need for you to know,” Third Elder impatiently retorted.

“My sincere apologies, but we can’t provide our guest’s information to you, including the guest’s room number,” the receptionist said.

“Third Elder... I saw those two old things go up to the 31st floor. I remember that there’s only a presidential suite on the 31st floor; there aren’t any other suites,” Big Dipper interjected at this moment.

After learning of their room number, Third Elder sneered and waved his hand. “Let’s go.”

The receptionist panicked and rushed out from behind the reception desk, blocking Third Elder and his group. “You can’t do this! Leave the hotel before taking care of any business you have or else we’re going to call the police!”

Third Elder glanced at the receptionist. “Little Miss, I won’t cause trouble for you, so call the police as you said.”

Then Third Elder led his group into the elevator and directly went to the 31st floor.

...

Third Elder stood outside the presidential suite and knocked on the door. “Huang Mingkun, come out and open the door.”

After a series of knocks, Huang Mingkun’s wary voice finally drifted from inside the room. “Who is it?!”
