

Secret Love 2371

Chapter 2371: Indeed had a child together

Yin Heng pondered over it for a moment before asking, "When will Madam return?"

"Madam was sent on a business trip by the President this time, and it will probably take at least a week," Ah-Zhong answered.

The corners of Yin Heng's mouth turned up. "Good. When Mother returns, I will give Mother a big present... I will investigate what Mother wasn't able to find out myself!"

If Yin Heng discovered that Yi Yunmo was being impersonated, then the person he wanted to assassinate wasn't the president's daughter. This way, if the assassination was attributed to him, Yi Lingjun wouldn't do anything to him, and the risk to him would be removed.

Moreover, if that woman really was an impostor, he could say he was eliminating a spy. Not only would he not be in the wrong but he would've also performed a meritorious deed.

"Young Master, I'm afraid that won't be easy." Ah-Zhong mulled over it momentarily. "That woman isn't simple... Young Master, think about it—even Madam couldn't do anything to her with her techniques. Last time, the third elder of the Fearless Alliance was following Madam and was captured, so Madam used him to test that woman but the test didn't reveal anything. Even if that woman is being impersonated by Worriless Nie, she's a marble-hearted woman and has barely any flaws."

"A member of the Fearless Alliance..." Yin Heng turned contemplative.

Minutes later, the corners of Yin Heng's lips turned up and he snorted. "Oh right, I heard Worriless Nie and Si Yehan have a little b*stard together?"

"They indeed have a child together—he's probably four or five years old. He's currently with Yun City's Nie family." Ah-Zhong nodded.

"Great." Yin Heng nonchalantly continued with a smile. "Worriless Nie doesn't care about the fate of an elder from the Fearless Alliance but... what about her biological son? I believe she wouldn't sit by and do nothing then, right?"

"Young Master, please prudently reconsider this!" Sweat soaked Ah-Zhong's forehead. "It would be fine if that Yi Yunmo was truly being impersonated by Worriless Nie... but if she isn't being impersonated and is really the president's daughter..."

"Heh, if Yi Yunmo truly isn't related to Worriless Nie in any manner and I capture Worriless Nie's son, it'd be none of Yi Yunmo's business. Don't tell me Yi Yunmo will make trouble for me simply because of a child she doesn't know." Yin Heng looked dismissive.

"That's true, but Yi Yunmo isn't the person I'm worried about, Young Master... You have to understand one point: Worriless Nie's son is also Si Yehan's son... You should know what kind of person Si Yehan is. If you abduct Si Yehan's son, I'm afraid your situation, Young Master..." Ah-Zhong was hesitant.

At the mention of the old methods of the Eldest Young Master who left the Yin family, Ah-Zhong felt a chill settle in his spine.

A chilling glint sparkled in Yin Heng's eyes, and he coldly said, "What? If Si Yehan's son ends up in my hands, do you think he'd still dare to act rashly? Anyway, Madam will return soon, so what's wrong with me bringing Madam's grandson here so that the child can spend some time with his grandmother? Is that a problem?"

"Brilliant, Young Master, truly brilliant! If you put it like that, then there isn't the slightest problem!" Ah-Zhong gave him a thumbs-up.

"Send several reliable people over there. I heard the child has been clever since he was young and possesses extremely high intelligence and vigilance. He isn't easy to fool," Yin Hen ordered.

Ah-Zhong disdainfully said, "Regardless of how clever he is, he's just a tiny child."

Yin Heng's face darkened. "Don't lower your guard. This matter absolutely doesn't allow for any mishaps."

Ah-Zhong replied, "Yes, this subordinate will make thorough preparations."

...

Chapter 2372: How did you guess?

Yin Heng ordered, "That little b*stard must have Si Yehan's people protecting him nearby. Mobilize the Iron Guards in my name."

Otherwise... it would probably be very difficult to take him away.

Ah-Zhong was secretly shocked. "Mobilize the Iron Guards... would that be too brazen...? What if Madam finds out..."

Yin Heng's expression darkened, and he shot his confidant a cold glance. "Mother handed the Iron Guards to me, so they're naturally my people and listen to my commands. Is there a problem with that?"

Although Ah-Zhong still held onto his worries, he could do nothing but obey Yin Heng's orders in the end.

On the surface, Yin Yuerong had handed the Iron Guards to Yin Heng, which was essentially the same as acknowledging Yin Heng's status as her heir. However, there were still many people in the Yin family standing on Si Yehan's side.

It would be fine if Si Yehan didn't return. However, the moment Si Yehan returned, the will of the people wouldn't be with Yin Heng even if Yin Heng possessed the Iron Guards.

Originally, Yin Heng still had a fighting chance after obtaining Qin Xiyuan's support. Who would've expected Yi Yunmo to pop up out of nowhere and take a fancy to Si Yehan? Hence, the members of the Yin family were currently observing the circumstances and didn't dare to disclose their positions.

In this kind of situation, it was no wonder Yin Heng felt anxious.

In Yun City:

In the evening, after school let out, several Nie family guards escorted Tangtang home like usual.

As the car drove smoothly and reached a slope, the wheels suddenly shook and the brakes were slammed urgently.

Their car was stopped.

“Young Master, be careful!” Guards immediately guarded Tangtang behind them, afraid he would be frightened.

Tangtang expressionlessly turned to the group of men in black, a thoughtful expression revealed on his fair face.

“Who dares to try to abduct our Young Master Nie? Do you want to die?!” a Nie family guard shouted coldly.

The leading man icily demanded, “Hand over Nie Tangxiao, and we can spare your lives.”

“Who are you?! You simply want to die...”

Midway through the guard’s words, Tangtang glanced at the men and expressionlessly said, “You’re from Tianshui City.”

He was clearly just a young child, but his eyes contained a depth that didn’t match his age. Moreover, he didn’t bear a trace of panic.

When the leader heard this, he was startled. How did this child guess?

“Yin family... from Tianshui City?”

“What? From the Yin family?”

The expressions of several of the Nie family guards changed.

“How did you know?” The leader wore a strange expression.

If it was a guard who said that, he could understand, but this was a child...

The men looked at each other, bewildered. People said the Little Young Master of the Nie family was very intelligent, and he indeed appeared so.

Tangtang revealed a childish smile. “I was guessing! I didn’t expect to have guessed right.”

Guessed?

The leader was suspicious but didn’t think deeper when he met the eyes of the young child.

Yin Heng issued an absolute order for this mission. Even if it was a life and death struggle, they still must take the child with them.

They were still in Yun City, the Nie family's territory, after all, so to avoid alarming too many people, they had to make it a quick fight. If these people resisted, then everyone had to die.

They couldn't delay any longer!

The leader was about to order his men to kill everyone without mercy when his deputy suddenly walked toward Tangtang and affably said, "Heh, Little Young Master, it's like this—your grandmother would like to see you, so can we please trouble you to come with us?"

Chapter 2373: He's too easy to deceive, right?!

Tangtang looked up and tilted his head slightly, his fair face in full view. When he heard the mention of his grandmother, he appeared to have lowered his guard and appeared naive and innocent.

"Grandmother wants to see me?"

The deputy quickly said, "That's right, that's right. As you said, we're from Tianshui City's Yin family, so we were naturally sent by your grandmother. Your grandmother wants us to pick you up!"

Upon seeing the deputy bewitching their young master, a nearby guard hastily said, "Young Master, you mustn't listen to these people's coercing words. People from Tianshui City are extremely dangerous, and you absolutely can't leave with them!"

A murderous aura flashed through the deputy's eyes.

When Tangtang heard this, he didn't show any care and waved his little hand. "They're Grandmother's people! I want to go with them to see Grandmother!"

Those words produced a similar effect to saying "I know they're the big bad wolf, but I want to go home with them."

The leader and deputy were both startled. It was just a careless remark... but this child... agreed?

He was too easy to deceive, right?!

Before coming here, Master clearly plied them with instructions on how difficult this child was, but it appeared they truly overestimated him.

He was dumb no matter how you looked at it. As the little young master of the Nie family, how could he lack all traces of vigilance?

"Little Young Master, you can't!" You absolutely can't!" a guard anxiously protested. "Let us inform your uncle first..."

As long as Nameless Nie came, forget about the Yin family, but even Yin Yuerong herself wouldn't be able to take Little Young Master away!

"No need to find my uncle. I also want to go see Grandmother. You're all done now, so leave, everyone," Tangtang ordered and also sent a warning glance at a hidden spot.

"Um..."

The Nie family guards were dumbfounded. How could they allow this?

Tangtang glanced at the Nie family guards, his expression displeased. ‘What? I can’t order you now?’

He knew Daddy had sent some people over to protect him in hiding.

However, this time, the other party evidently came prepared. If he wasn’t mistaken, these were all the sharpest members of the Yin family’s secret guards, the Iron Guards. All of them were experts and carried gu poison. If he didn’t go with them, even if he managed to safely escape by luck, the people protecting him today would all die without a doubt.

Most importantly.... this way... Not only would Daddy and Mommy seek unending vengeance against the Yin family, but Yun City and Tianshui City would also erupt into a major battle...

Uncle was still looking after Aunt-In-Law in the hospital. Even if Uncle found out, he wouldn’t be able to rush over in a short period of time, so leaving with them was Tangtang’s best option right now.

Moreover, he was well aware that these people wouldn’t dare to do anything to him regardless of which member of the Yin family sent them.

“Didn’t you hear? Little Young Master wants to go and see his grandmother. It was nothing to do with you all! Scram!” the deputy yelled fiercely.

“No! Absolutely no! You can’t take Little Young Master away. Even if it’s as you said, you have to wait until Young Master Nameless from the Nie family arrives first! You can only take Little Young Master away if Young Master agrees!” a Nie family guard persistently insisted.

In the end, the group of Nie family guards was knocked to the ground.

The power differential was too great. They were no match for the Yin family at all.

In the dark, the people who Si Yehan sent to protect Tangtang fell into a dilemma.

“What should we do? Should we attack?”

“Yeah, if we don’t attack, Young Master will be taken away.”

Chapter 2374: A dragon’s wrath

The leader of that group spoke, his expression unchanged: “Master instructed us to obey Young Master’s orders completely. Young Master issued an order just now and prohibited us from attacking.”

“That’s too foolish! What if Young Master is in danger? We won’t be able to pay for that even if we had 10 heads!”

“Plus, boss, he might be Young Master, but he’s still a child! How could you listen to him completely?”

The leader coldly glanced at his men. “Insolence. Regardless of how old he is, he’s still Young Master. Moreover... don’t underestimate Young Master.”

Then the leader ordered, “Everyone, don’t attack. Secretly follow and protect him.”

...

In the end, the guards who were knocked down could only watch helplessly as the people from the Yin family took Tangtang away.

Soon, one of the guards rapidly dialed Nameless Nie's number.

When Nameless Nie learned Tangtang was taken away, he immediately left the hospital and rushed to the guards' location.

However, by the time Nameless Nie arrived, the people from the Yin family had long disappeared.

...

At Tianshui City:

Ye Wanwan was currently speaking with Medusa in the mansion.

Medusa was discussing the latest situation with Ye Wanwan. "Wow, I seriously admit defeat to that woman, Yin Yuerong! What kind of grievances and enmities does she have? I heard she's been traveling everywhere recently and mobilizing all the power she can. From the looks of it, she absolutely won't allow the bill to pass!"

Ye Wanwan rubbed her chin. "Is there really no method to persuade her?"

Medusa looked at her in shock. "Persuade Yin Yuerong? Are you kidding me? Women like her absolutely won't change their minds about something they've decided on regardless of the factors!"

Ye Wanwan's expression was exasperated. "That's true..."

At that moment, Ye Wanwan's phone started ringing abruptly. It was Nameless Nie calling.

"Hey, Worriless!"

"What is it, Brother?" Ye Wanwan asked.

"Worriless, where are you?" Nameless Nie sounded extraordinarily anxious.

"I'm still in Tianshui City. Did something happen?" Ye Wanwan frowned.

"When Tangtang was released from school, he was stopped by people from the Yin family and was taken away by them," Nameless Nie replied.

"What did you say?!"

Ye Wanwan's expression changed drastically. Tangtang was abducted?!

Astonishment also appeared on Medusa's face.

"The guards responsible for protecting Tangtang said it was Tangtang's grandmother who wanted to see Tangtang," Nameless Nie explained.

"Brother Ye, are you certain it was the Yin family?!" Ye Wanwan asked hastily.

"I'm certain. I already looked into it just now, and it was the Yin family without a doubt!"

“However, it couldn’t have been Yin Yuerong who wants to see Tangtang... the next few days are key for revising the bill, and Yin Yuerong went on a business trip to retrieve an important document two days ago. She’s been utterly exhausted from overwork recently, so there’s no way she’d touch Tangtang at a time like this...” Ye Wanwan analyzed.

“If it wasn’t Yin Yuerong, who else could it be? I investigated it and discovered the abductors were members of the Yin family’s Iron Guards. They’re Yin Yuerong’s direct secret guards!” Nameless Nie was befuddled.

A chilly glint flitted through Ye Wanwan’s eyes. “I have a general idea of who’s responsible. Brother, seal off the news for now. I’ll take care of Tangtang!”

“But...”

“Don’t worry! I won’t allow anything to happen to Tangtang!” Ye Wanwan steadied her voice.

...

Not long after Ye Wanwan hung up, she received a text on her phone.

The sender was an unfamiliar number, and it contained an invite for her to visit the Yin family.

Soon, a second message came. It was Tangtang’s photo...

“Yin Heng, you’re dead!”

Ye Wanwan’s eyes glinted icily as she stared at Tangtang’s photo.

No one could use her baby to threaten her!

A dragon had wrath...

...which could be incurred at a touch!

Chapter 2375: No need for the trouble

The phone was slapped onto the table with a “bang,” the screen shattering into a web.

Because she held the identity of both Worryless Nie and Yi Yunmo, there were two SIM cards installed on her phone.

And Yin Heng’s two messages... were sent to Yi Yunmo’s number.

Medusa also discovered this, and her expression turned serious. “Yin Heng is suspicious of your identity!”

He intentionally sent these two text messages to Yi Yunmo. If Yi Yunmo was Yi Lingjun’s daughter, the texts he sent would be fine.

The first text was an invitation for her to visit the Yin Estate while the second text was Tangtang’s photo. He could say he sent it as a mistake but he could also be informing Yi Yunmo about the existence of Si Yehan’s illegitimate child. He could explain it any way he wanted.

However, if Yi Yunmo was Ye Wanwan, Ye Wanwan would naturally understand the meaning of this second text and his objective would be achieved.

Medusa cursed quietly. "I didn't expect Yin Heng to use such a crafty move and to even threaten you with a child! Little Junior Sister, you mustn't take the bait! Otherwise, as soon as you seek him out, it'd be the same as telling him you're Worryless Nie and you would fall into his trick!"

Ye Wanwan remained silent the entire time. She naturally knew that.

Medusa continued, "Little Junior Sister, I'll go to the Arbitration Council building to find Master right now! Wait for news from me before doing anything!"

Ye Wanwan calmly stood up and glanced at Medusa. "Senior Sister, no need for the trouble."

"Eh... Then... then what are you preparing to do?"

"What will I do?" The storm and iciness in Ye Wanwan's eyes enveloped her surroundings. "Doesn't he want to expose my true identity? I'll do as he wishes."

Ye Wanwan walked out.

Half a minute later, the sound of a sports car's ignition was heard, quickly followed by the sight of Ye Wanwan darting through the mansion gates in her sports car and speeding toward the Arbitration Council building.

Medusa couldn't catch up to Ye Wanwan and could only spin in circles in her panic as she watched her little junior sister speeding away. She hastily ran to the garage to grab her own car. "Sh*t! I better hurry and chase after her!"

At the same time, in the Yin Estate:

A banquet was currently being held in the Yin Estate. Today, Yin Estate had specifically invited Qin Zong, Qin Xiyuan, and many higher-ups and managers from the Arbitration Council.

Now that he'd basically taken over the Yin family, Yin Heng thought he should naturally hold a banquet and invite these higher-ups as the future head of the family.

"Everyone, please make yourselves at home. The President will arrive shortly," Yin Heng politely greeted the higher-ups with a toast, acting as a family head would.

"Mr. Yin is truly young and promising!"

"That's right, that's right, no wonder you made Miss Qin fall for you!"

Amongst the higher-ups present, many of them supported and thought highly of Yin Heng.

To them, Si Yehan's abilities and status might be much higher than Yin Heng, but he was truly too difficult to predict and he acted too tactlessly.

For the second miss of the Nie family, he not only played guarantor for her using his position of director but he also wanted to marry her. Even if he obtained the President's favor right now and was well-regarded, he would still probably fall behind Yin Heng in the future.

After all, Yin Heng not only had the support of the Yin family behind him but also had immense assistance in the form of Miss Qin.

What a pity. If Si Yehan was smarter and chose Miss Yi, this situation could've been greatly different...

Yin Heng already informed Qin Xiyuan of his plan, so Qin Xiyuan was rather impatient right now and kept shooting glances toward the entrance.

If Worriless Nie, that little b*tch, was really this suicidal, that would be splendid!

"You're too polite, everyone. It's all thanks to the care of every senior here!" Yin Heng downed the wine in his glass before imperceptibly glancing at the time on his phone.

Chapter 2376: Hand over the person

Yi Yunmo definitely saw the message already... If she was truly being impersonated by Worriless Nie, then she would've arrived by now...

The purpose of the banquet tonight was not only to socialize with the higher-ups of the Arbitration Council but to also set up a foolproof trap for Worriless Nie!

At the table, drinks were exchanged and conversation flowed.

At this moment, a loud commotion was heard from the entrance.

"Miss Yi! Miss Yi, do you need something?"

"Miss Yi, there's a banquet inside right now. Allow me to announce your presence first?"

"Miss Yi..."

"Scram!"

...

A girl in a tight, red dress with a Tang backsword sitting on her waist was marching toward the dining hall like a blazing inferno.

Immediately, everyone in the dining hall reflexively turned to the entrance.

"Eh, isn't... isn't that Miss Yi?"

"Why did Miss Yi also come?"

Everyone knew Yi Yunmo never attended this kind of function, so they were all surprised by her appearance.

When Yin Heng saw the newcomer, he was startled for a moment before mad joy rushed into his heart.

Yi Yunmo came! She really came!

Although Yin Heng was ecstatic, his expression remained calm and collected. He nonchalantly stood up and courteously greeted the girl, "What a rare guest, what a rare guest. I knew Miss Yi preferred the quiet, so I didn't invite Miss Yi. May I ask why Miss Yi is gracing us with your presence this late in the day?"

Yin Heng especially emphasized that he didn't invite her and she came of her own volition.

When Ye Wanwan didn't say anything, Yin Heng purposely asked again, "Why did you come here today, Miss Yi?"

Ye Wanwan still remained silent and strode forward, stopping in front of Yin Heng.

"Miss..."

Yin Heng had just uttered one word when a loud "bang" rang in the room a second later, and Yin Heng was sent flying back with a smack from Ye Wanwan.

The chair behind Yin Heng shattered from the impact and Yin Heng slammed into a giant flower vase the height of an adult before crashing into the wall like a snapped kite.

"Cough cough cough cough..."

Yin Heng had yet to recover and was using an arm to raise himself up a little when another "bang" was heard.

Ye Wanwan stepped on his chest with her foot, the horrifying sound of bones shattering ringing in everyone's ears.

"PU!" Yin Heng couldn't endure it anymore and twisted his head, spitting out a large mouthful of blood.

This abrupt scene left everyone stupefied. Dead silence enveloped the room and everyone was frozen in their spots, unable to react from the enormous shock.

Ye Wanwan was akin to a Rakshasa who brought hell to the mortal realm. The dining hall was joyous and harmonious mere moments ago but had now turned into purgatory with a murderous intent flooding the hall.

The girl kept her foot on Yin Heng's chest as she leaned closer, enunciating each word carefully as she asked, "Heh, you don't know why I came here? Do you know... now?"

"You... you..." Yin Heng started but spat out another mouthful of blood.

He calculated every possibility but never expected Ye Wanwan to attack him so publicly and so ruthlessly.

Also, what was the deal with this woman's martial strength?

From the information she obtained, Worriless Nie might've been very strong maritally but definitely wasn't so strong that he had no room for retaliation.

There was a second when he nearly thought she was going to kill him...

Ye Wanwan's expression didn't contain a trace of warmth. "I will give you three seconds: Hand him over."

Chapter 2377: I'm your Great Aunt Worriless Nie

Yin Heng quickly calmed himself down and confidently stared at the girl before him. He mockingly ridiculed, "Miss Yi, I did capture someone, but the person I captured is the son of Worriless Nie and my Eldest Brother, Nie Tangxiao!"

"However, what does this have to do with you? If someone were to panic, it should be Worriless Nie!"

"You merely look similar to Worriless Nie. You aren't that child's mother, so why are you this anxious? Don't tell me you really are Worriless Nie?"

Yin Heng pressed, "Miss Yi Yunmo, could it be you've been Worriless Nie all along? You've impersonated the President's daughter!"

Worriless Nie was still too inexperienced!

He originally thought she'd be tricky to handle and would contend with him in some manner. He didn't expect that the mere act of kidnapping Nie Tangxiao would be enough to rattle her and make her reveal herself.

How could the dumbfounded crowd still remain clueless about the circumstances?

Worriless Nie impersonated President Yi's daughter, Yi Yunmo, and Yin Heng abducted Worriless Nie's son, causing Worriless Nie to reveal her own identity in her panic.

Qin Xiyuan clutched her mouth exaggeratedly, showing an expression of disbelief. "Oh my god! Is it true? Worriless Nie actually impersonated the President's daughter, Miss Yi Yunmo?"

Following Qin Xiyuan's exclamation, other people started reacting.

"I was wondering why two completely different people could look so similar. She actually dared to impersonate even the President's daughter! Isn't she too gutsy?!"

"Does this woman want to die? Does she know what she's doing?"

Qin Xiyuan glanced at Ye Wanwan and murmured with feigned suspicion, "But what's her objective for doing this?"

Someone immediately replied, "A spy! She must be a spy sent by an evil cult! This woman had dubious connections with the Rose of Death previously! Now she infiltrated the Arbitration Council; she must have ulterior motives!"

Qin Xiyuan nodded as though a realization dawned on her. "That's true. Why else would she impersonate the President's daughter and sneak her way in here? She must have ulterior motives! Thank goodness Yin Heng discovered her in time or else the consequences would've been simply unimaginable!"

As Yin Heng listened to the accusations of the higher-ups around him, he revealed a satisfied smile.

Finally... finally, everything would end!

The matter of Worriless Nie impersonating the President's daughter was exposed, and the danger would be eliminated.

Worriless Nie was done for! At the same time, Si Yehan, who had acted as a guarantor for her, was also done for!

By abducting a little b*stard, Yin Heng eradicated all of his obstacles in one go and also accomplished a meritorious deed!

Yin Heng brazenly looked at Ye Wanwan. "How about it, Miss Yi? Am I correct? Oh, perhaps I should address you as Miss Worriless Nie now?"

"Heh, you're wrong..." Ye Wanwan chuckled lowly, her chuckle inexplicably sending shivers down listeners' backs.

Ye Wanwan paused for a moment before enunciating her next words carefully: "I am! your! Great! Aunt! Worriless! Nie!"

"You..." Yin Heng's expression darkened, and he promptly exclaimed frantically, "You admitted it! You finally admit you impersonated Yi Yunmo! You impersonated President Yi's daughter!"

"Worriless Nie, you're seriously too gutsy! You impersonated the daughter of the Arbitration Council's president and attempted to spy on confidential information and entangle yourself with an evil cult. Every single one of your deeds is punishable by death!"

Ye Wanwan impatiently picked at her ears before putting force to her foot and completely breaking one of his ribs. "You have three seconds to release my baby. Otherwise, you'll see whether you or I die first."

Chapter 2378: Her whole family includes me

"AHHH!" A wretched scream escaped from Yin Heng from the intense pain.

On the side, Vice President Qin Zong wore a pitying expression and advised in a heartfelt manner, "Miss Worriless Nie, don't hurt Nephew Yin. I implore you to surrender peacefully!"

Ye Wanwan ignored Qin Zong and started counting. "Three!"

Upon seeing this woman completely ignore him, the Vice President, Qin Zong's expression looked terrible. "You absolutely can't escape from your crimes now, but if you relent, perhaps you can strive for your family's survival still!"

"Two!" Ye Wanwan yelled.

Yin Heng sensed the terrifying murderous aura from the woman before him and sweat drenched his forehead. This woman had gone mad! She really dared to kill him!

Yin Heng suddenly discovered he was positioned on extremely dangerous forbidden ground. There was a great possibility Qin Zong wouldn't care about his survival.

Yin Heng hastily said, "Worriless Nie, think carefully! If I die, your son also won't survive!"

The second Yin Heng said that, Ye Wanwan didn't shout "One" and directly stomped on him again.

KACHAK!

The sound of another rib shattering.

At this moment, a furious roar abruptly erupted from the entrance.

"Yunmo! Stop!"

This low voice sent the whole room into a grim silence and every pair of eyes simultaneously shot toward the entrance.

Yi Lingjun arrived in a flurry. "Yunmo, what are you doing?"

Yin Heng released a sigh of relief when he saw Yi Lingjun, as though he'd seen his savior. "President, save me! This vixen... this vixen impersonated your daughter!"

Qin Zong walked toward Yi Lingjun before explaining, "President, calm down. This woman isn't your daughter, Yi Yunmo. She's actually the second daughter of Yun City's Nie family, Worriless Nie!"

Qin Xiyuan piped in, "That's right, President. This woman admitted it herself just now! I think it's not only her! Her entire Nie family should be interrogated! It's very possible her whole family is related to an evil cult!"

Yi Lingjun coldly glanced at Qin Xiyuan, the pressure of a superior instantly flooding out. "Her whole family is related to an evil cult... Miss Qin, are you implying that I, the President, am also related to an evil cult?"

Qin Xiyuan panicked and fretfully replied, "Why would you think that, President? That's not what I meant! I was talking about Worriless Nie's whole family!"

Yi Lingjun expressionlessly said, "I'm her father, so when you say her whole family, it naturally includes me."

"You... you're her father?" Qin Xiyuan thought Yi Lingjun still didn't understand the situation, so she quickly explained, "President, are you still confused? This woman isn't your beloved daughter, Yi Yunmo—she's Worriless Nie!"

"Yin Heng abducted Worriless Nie's son, but Yi Yunmo came running here and demanding the child back, directly admitting she's Worriless Nie! With so many pairs of eyes watching, it's absolutely true! She is that lowly woman!"

Yi Lingjun's face turned icy. "That's correct. Worriless Nie is my daughter!"

Worriless Nie is the President's daughter??

A commotion swept through the room following Yi Lingjun's words, and everyone's eyes shot open in shock. Qin Xiyuan's pupils contracted abruptly, and she stared incredulously at Yi Lingjun. Yin Heng's expression also changed.

What did Yi Lingjun just... say??

Worriless Nie is his daughter??

Has the President gone muddle-headed??

At this moment, Medusa, who had followed Yi Lingjun, glanced at Yin Heng and Qin Zong before coldly asking, "Did you think the President would be so foolish that he'd mistake his own daughter?"

Chapter 2379: Acted out a whole play

This...

Everyone was dumbfounded, confused about everything going on.

Medusa continued, "As everyone knows, the President has students covering the earth but only lacked a personal disciple. And the Second Miss of Yun City's Nie family, Miss Worriless Nie, is the only personal disciple that Sir President accepted. She's my little junior sister.

"Little Junior Sister was injured earlier and was stranded in China, thus losing contact with Master for many years. They only reunited recently!"

"Wh... what..."

"Worriless Nie is the President's long lost personal disciple!!!"

"Sh*t!"

No one expected Worriless Nie to possess this alternate identity.

Medusa said, "Worriless Nie and my master are close like father and daughter, so how could she be a spy?! If she wanted to spy on the Arbitration Council's secrets, would she have had to go about it so complicatedly?"

Nobody could refute Medusa.

"Since she's the President's personal disciple, how did she become the President's daughter? Don't tell me she's the illegitimate daughter of President and Madam Nie?" Qin Xiyuan questioned from the side.

Medusa's expression chilled. "Nonsense! How could you rashly spout this kind of slander?"

This kind of matter absolutely couldn't occur based on Yi Lingjun's personality. If that had happened, it'd be the same as Yi Lingjun's public image collapsing, and it would also immensely impact his reputation.

"Since that's not it, why did Miss Worriless Nie appear as Yi Yunmo out of nowhere? There must be a reason, right?" a director next to Qin Zong asked, and the other directors all nodded in agreement.

At this moment, the silent Ye Wanwan raised her foot and released Qin Zong momentarily only to use her other foot to step on him again. She then turned to Qin Zong and asked with raised brows, "Vice President Qin, shouldn't you know best why I would appear using the identity of Yi Yunmo and present myself as the President's daughter in front of everyone?"

Qin Zong's expression darkened. "Me? You must be joking, Miss Nie. Why would I know?"

"Oh? You don't know? That's fine—I'll explain it to you slowly!"

Ye Wanwan snorted. "These years, you've used your position as the vice president of the Arbitration Council to stuff your pockets and indulge in bribery and fraud. Who knows how many shady dealings you've conducted in secret? According to your plan, the position of the next president would belong to you. At that time, your power would be all-encompassing, those matters naturally wouldn't come to light, and you could continue to use the position of President to seek your personal gains."

"However, who could've expected President Yi to suddenly have a daughter he spoiled with no limits?"

"If you didn't witness the sudden introduction of President Yi's daughter, if you didn't think President Yi had intentions for his daughter to succeed his position, why would you be driven to desperate action and resort to assassinating me—assassinating Yi Yunmo?"

"If it wasn't for that, why would you have messed up your own plans and destroyed all evidence of your crimes these past years in such haste that I managed to obtain information against you?"

"My master has extensive foresight and knew about the things you've done long ago, but he didn't have evidence, so he colluded with me to act out this play and make you reveal your flaws so that he could eradicate you, a malignant tumor concealed in the Arbitration Council!"

Ye Wanwan spoke righteously and honorably from start to end; Yi Lingjun was dumbfounded and nearly also believed what she said was true.

As for Qin Zong, his expression was still composed at first but darkened as he listened. When he heard the last sentence, his expression changed drastically and he furiously shouted, "Little b*tch, you're spouting nonsense! What assassination? What evidence? Utter nonsense!"

Chapter 2380: Don't dirty your foot

Qin Xiyuan also quickly said, "Woriless Nie, my father is the vice president of the Arbitration Council. Do you know the consequences of accusing and slandering him without any proof?"

The other directors were also incredulous when they heard this, and many directors from Qin Zong's party spoke on his behalf.

At this moment, footsteps were heard from the distance. In his black windbreaker and with a brown briefcase in hand, Si Yehan walked toward the crowd.

Upon seeing Si Yehan, Ye Wanwan's unease finally settled. "Ah-Jiu..."

Si Yehan ignored everyone and stopped in front of Ye Wanwan. He coldly glanced at the Yin Heng tightly pressed against the floor beneath her foot and frowned. "Wanwan, let go."

Ye Wanwan protested, "No! He abducted Tangtang!"

"Don't dirty your foot."

After saying that, Si Yehan shot Lin Que a look.

Lin Que resigned himself to his fate and pursed his lips as he walked over. "Alright alright, let me do this kind of task. Let go, Ninth Sister. I will step on him for you. I'm not afraid of dirtying myself!"

Gently embraced by Si Yehan, Ye Wanwan finally lifted her foot and returned to Si Yehan's side.

"AH!" Yin Heng screamed in pain as he was stepped on again by Lin Que.

After placating Ye Wanwan, Si Yehan brought over the brown briefcase to Yi Lingjun. "President, I've fortunately succeeded in obtaining the item you wanted."

When Qin Zong saw the object in Si Yehan's hand, his expression shifted and an ominous feeling rose in him. Yin Heng also held his breath.

"Great! You've worked hard." Yi Lingjun took the briefcase from Si Yehan before throwing it at Qin Zong's feet with a *bang*. His expression was dark as he said, "See for yourself!"

Qin Zong truly panicked this time. With a tremble, he picked up the briefcase from the floor while the directors near him also bent down to pick up the documents that fell out of the briefcase.

Shock filled everyone who saw the contents.

Wasn't Qin Zong's appetite too insatiable?!

He actually used the Arbitration Council to dredge up so much money for himself and committed crimes knowingly as the vice president of the Arbitration Council. Who knew how many inconceivable deeds he'd done in secret?

Each and every deed was tracked and presented before everyone by Si Yehan!

"Guards! Take Vice President Qin away and lock down the Qin residence immediately!" Yi Lingjun ordered.

Soon, guards poured inside and securely arrested Qin Zong.

Qin Xiyuan was also seized and turned to Yi Lingjun, panic written all over her face. "President! This is a misunderstanding! There must be a misunderstanding here! Don't listen to that little b*tch's poison, President!"

Yi Lingjun responded, "Miss Qin, if there's something you wish to say, you will have the opportunity to do so at your trial."

Qin Xiyuan's legs turned limp and defeat enveloped her face. It was over, it was all over...

"Yin Heng! It's your fault! It's all your fault! You piece of garbage! Garbage! You did this!" Qin Xiyuan hysterically pounced on Yin Heng, causing Yin Heng to vomit several more mouthfuls of blood with her kicks.

If he didn't fail in his assassination of Worriless Nie, how could they have alerted their enemies? How could their Qin family be destroyed?!

Qin Xiyuan was overrun with regret at this moment. Her biggest mistake in life was choosing to form an alliance with this idiot, Yin Heng.

Si Yehan... If she dated Si Yehan, things absolutely wouldn't have turned out like this...

However, it was too late. Everything was too late!

Qin Xiyuan was lifelessly dragged away by the guards, but her expression was filled with envy and hatred as she looked at Ye Wanwan.

What she found harder to accept than her father being arrested was that she never would have expected this lowly and wretched woman to actually be Yi Lingjun's sole personal disciple...
