

Part Two

Serena's POV

I was on my way to Karina's house and Jade was riding with me and Aisha with Karina. We were on the phone with Aisha talking about what we were gonna do at Karina's house.

"So what are we gonna do?" I asked

"I want to watch the new Conjuring movie!" Jade exclaimed.

Jade was the one who loves to watch scary things and things that creep out the average person, but you would never guess that because she's so quite and has a so voice.

"No!" The rest of us said in unison.

She pouted.

"We can watch a movie while eating some snacks, maybe a trip to Walmart and we can just gossip and catch up on each others' lives. We haven't hung out much since the second semester of junior year to be honest." Aisha said.

Aisha was kind of like the mom of the group. She was the most reasonable out of all of us and she oen took care of us, mostly Karina when she was drunk.

We all agreed and we all just talked about nothing on the rest of the way.

=====

We arrived at her home, and every time I walked into her house, I was always amazed. Her house is beautiful, it's like a mansion, but it's so homey and comfortable.

We walked into her room and I immediately jumped on her giant bean bag that's placed on her carpet.

Karina is the wild one in the group. She always wants to do something adventurous and out of the box.

I checked my phone and saw that it was 6 p.m.

"Should we get changed and get some snacks?" I asked.

They agreed and that's what we did.

While I was changing into my shirt, I realized that it was a cropped tank top, but like a few inches above my belly button cropped. I didn't want to wear this around her house, what if her parents saw me??

I stole one of Karina's old oversized tees and put that over it.

We all walked down into the pantry to pick out what snacks we wanted and headed back into her room to start having a Marvel movie marathon.

We just finished Captain Marvel when Jade mentioned going to Walmart for fun, and we all agreed.

We didn't bother to change back into our regular clothes, we just put on some crocs and called it a day.

As we got out the car in the parking lot, Aisha noticed a car, Roman's car.

"Karina, isn't that your brother's car?" She asked

Karina looked, "Yeah, that is. I wonder what the hell he's doing at Walmart."

"Probably to buy some condoms." Jade said.

We all laughed at that.

"JADE!" I exclaim, surprised at her words.

Then I saw the car next to his, and it was one of his friends car, Dmitri I believe.

I did not want to run into her brother. I haven't seen him since he was with Karina at our graduation. For some odd reason, he just could not stop staring at me. When I finally decided to look back at him, he continued to look at me, but it was weird because there was no glare. I just chose not to think about it a er it happened. I didn't think I would see him this soon, I'm just gonna try hard to pay attention and not run into him or something.

Aisha grabbed a cart, because Lord knows what we're about to get, and we first headed towards the clothes section.

"Omg, look at these bikinis! We should go swimming tomorrow guys." Karina exclaimed

"Yes, we should and they're so pretty, we should get matching ones!" I said

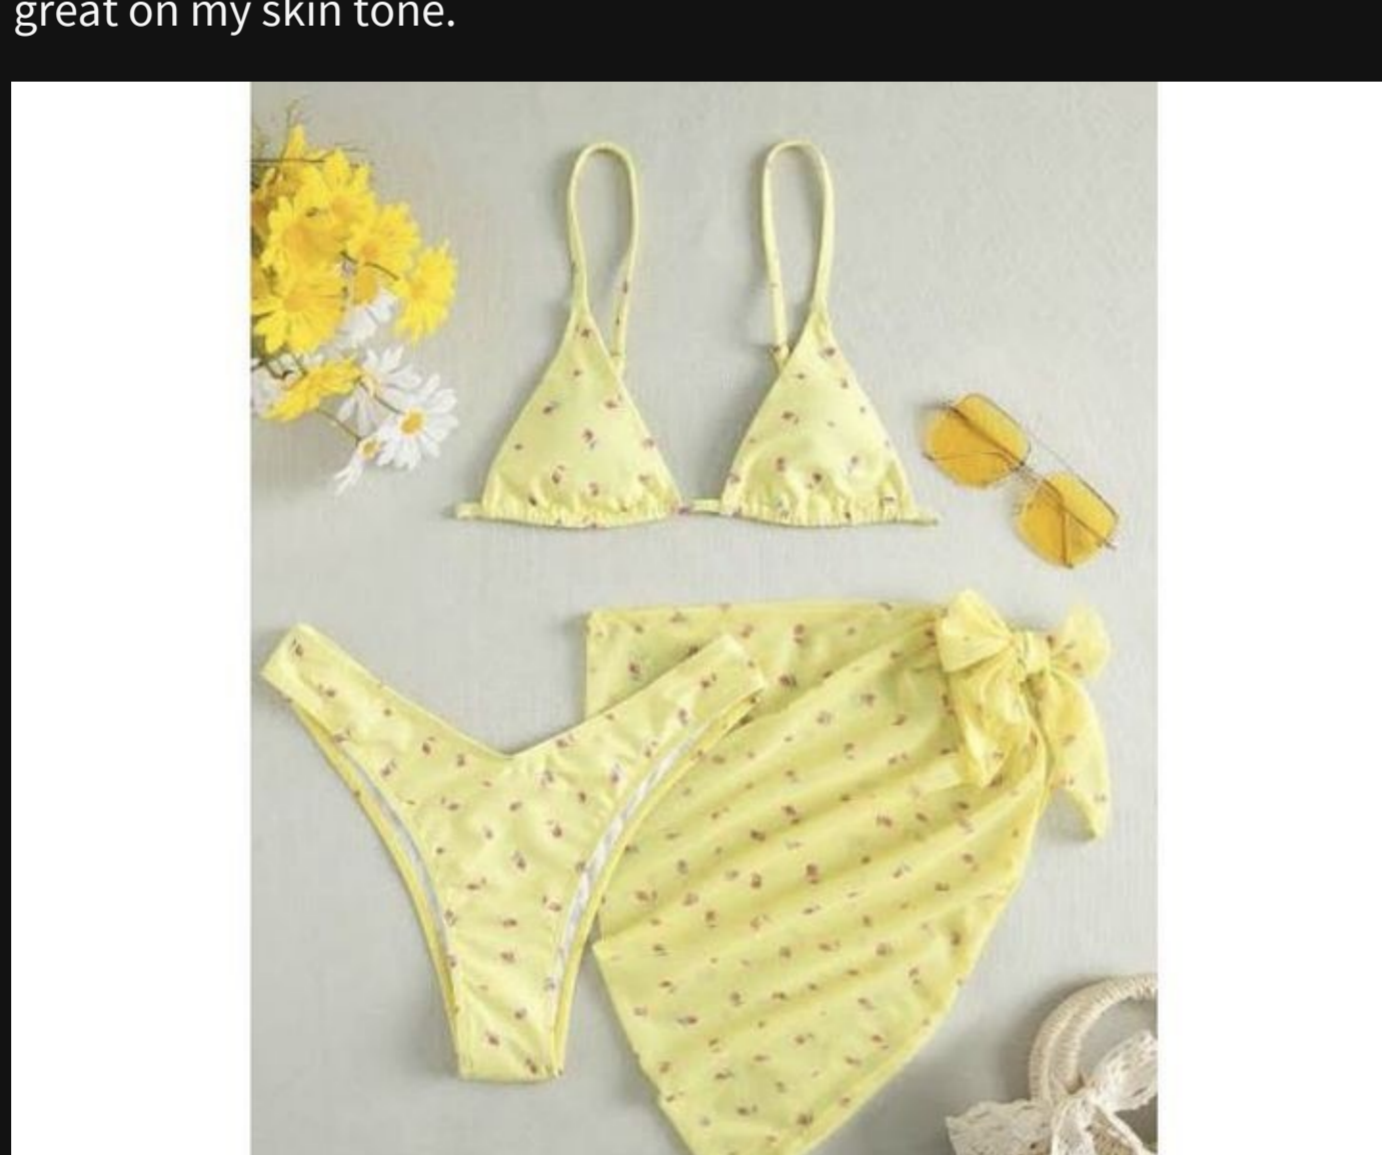

"No." The rest replied

"Why not?"

"Because no." Karina replied.

They never wanna match and it's so frustrating.

I chose to get a yellow floral one because I thought it would look great on my skin tone.

We somehow ended up in the frozen food sections to get pizza rolls, ice cream and other junky foods.

I saw a glimpse of a tall figure that was a few feet away from us. I quietly squealed and looked else where.

"Roman!" Karina shouted.

I didn't even have to look to know that he turned around and grunted in response.

I briefly looked up and he was with his group of friends Ivan, Dmitri, and Nikolai.
