

A Note From Jhope

To Her,

I have always wanted a sister and that became true when you came. You were lost in your own world when you came to me as I was found by my brothers. I thought I could help you find yourself too and you did.

You were my most prized possession in this world. I always cherish and adore you, I wanted the best for you all the time. But everything changed when you made me see that you are not a thing to own. I do not own you. I do not own my most prized possession. And I do not own my sister by heart. You made me see it and it angered me.

And I regretted it. I regret that I got angry with you. I shouldn't have. I should have stick with you until the end and protected you until the end. But everything was a mess, I know how Jimin likes you secretly and how Jungkook plans to get you. I knew it form the start, even Taehyung's lust for you. But you never did listen to me. Like always. <sup>a</sup>

You always get what you want and it annoyed me because just for once, cant you just listen to me? I had knew my brothers before I knew you, I know them all too well but you just wont listen. <sup>a</sup>

And I guess I were to blame for everything. I should've stopped you. I should've stopped them. I shouldn't have my pride got in the way. But you see, a lot of people are hurting of what you did. My heart sympathize Jimin. I saw how he fell for you, how he wondered about and how he loves you. Jimin was hurting and nobody knew.

And I had to give that to him. I cant tolerate your doings if I know that you are hurting me and Jimin. Why do you keep on hurting us? Why do you keep choosing Jungkook?

I guess I would never know. The night I knew what happened to you, I lost it. I lost everything. I dont know the meaning of life anymore. You were gone. I dont know what to do anymore. Everything lost its color. Every life just didn't matter.

I ended up being sent to the asylum. But I wont tell them what happened. Not for 3 weeks. And they saw me. They saw how my world was falling apart. That's when they started giving me the medicines. And I couldn't.

I couldn't remember anything. I can't remember anything about you. I cant remember my everything. But I had to keep going even if I had lost you and my memories.

I still wondered what could've happened if only I did my best to take you away from them. But I guess life wont give me that chance anymore. <sup>a</sup>
