

She is a ceo Chapter 195

"Kane, don't regret it," seeing Kane's determined look and hearing his decisive words, Poppy looked sullen and said in an intimidating tone.

"I won't," Kane replied firmly.

Poppy gave Kane a deep look, snorted and then stood up, "Kane, I gave you a chance. Don't come crying to beg me in the future!"

Poppy grabbed her bag and left, cursing Kane within herself for being insensitive, and it seemed that she had to rely on herself in the future.

Sitting in his chair, Kane did not say a word with a solemn face. Just then, he saw a figure flashing from the corner of his eyes, and then, that figure was sitting in the seat where Poppy was sitting just now.

"Julia?" Seeing the person opposite him, Kane exclaimed out loud.

Why was she here?

"I wanted to surprise you ..." Juliana said quietly, "but I didn't expect to see you and her..." "

"Julia, it's not what you think." Kane realized that Juliana had seen him talking with Poppy, so he hurriedly explained.

"How was that?" Juliana asked him, hiding her grievance.

Kane hesitated for a while and decided to tell Poppy's plan to Juliana. He didn't want Juliana to misunderstand him, but of course, he still kept their conversation about Juliana to himself.

Juliana listened to Kane's explanation and recalled what she saw just now. Her suspicions were gone, but she still felt jealous and said, "So you had been in love with Poppy before."

"Julia, let bygones be bygones." Kane explained anxiously, "Poppy was my first crush, and I haven't fallen for any other woman over these years. My feelings for her may have become an obsession. I'm afraid I wouldn't have been able to get rid of it if I hadn't met you."

"Can I trust you?" Actually, she had trusted Kane, but she still asked him on purpose.

"Julia, trust me. The only person I love is you!" Kane did not hesitate to express his loyalty to Juliana. Juliana was beaming with happy smiles after hearing this.

"I believe you," Juliana said with a smile. "It's just that we'll have to make other plans from now on."

"What do you mean?" Seeing some unfathomable emotions in Juliana's eyes, Kane asked suspiciously.

"Listen to me ..." Juliana leaned over to Kane and told him what she intended to do.

"That won't work!" After hearing Juliana's words, Kane declined her and frowned. "It's too risky. I won't put you in that much danger!"

Sensing Kane's worry, Juliana was joyful and said firmly, "Kane, it's worth a try for our future. If everything goes well, we will be able to get away with everything we've done without Poppy's help and leave here safe and sound."

"Will we?" Kane was skeptical; he still thought Juliana's approach was too risky.

“Yes, when Lucia is crushed and no longer able to recover, we will go far away!” Now, Juliana not only harbored the hatred for Lucia, but also the expectation for the future of Kane and her.

“But if Arthur finds out ...” Though Kane also expected the future that Juliana described, Kane was worried that she would be put in danger.

“Don’t worry. Even if he finds it out, he can’t do anything to me. The worst result is that we are dragged down together.” Juliana had made up her mind when she heard Kane’s confession of love just now.

Kane looked at Juliana’s determined look and felt worried, but he could not shake her mind. So, he could only sigh. “Julia, if you have to do it, you gotta be careful. Come to me right away if there is anything wrong, and we immediately leave here.”

“I know.” With a happy smile on her lips, Juliana placed her hand into Kane’s palm. They clasped hands, just like the fate that bound them.

Jacob had been recently very worried recently. Spencer cut off contact with him. And now he was left alone to deal with Davonnis Corp.

Arthur was indeed not a person that Jacob could afford to mess with.

After Arthur lost the bid to Jacob, he had taken Jacob as the arch foe. Davonnis Corp was taking measures to go against JTP Group, especially in the stock market. Arthur purchased a lot of shares of JTP Group, and even bought some shares from shareholders of JTP Group as well! He also became a shareholder of JTP Group, and the shares he possessed were increasing day by day.

Jacob held several meetings and instructed the shareholders to resist the pressure caused by Arthur, but after the meetings was dismissed, the news report said that the shares owned by Arthur were increasing. Jacob felt for the first time how wealthy the Davonnis Corp was.

The good thing was that JTP Group was formerly Webbex Group, and the shares owned by him reached seventy percent and he got the final say. Otherwise, Jacob was really afraid that Arthur would take over JTP Group by purchasing shares, but according to the current situation, Arthur could soon appear in the shareholders meeting of JTP Group!

Jacob cursed Spencer for using him to go against Arthur and burning the bridge, so he kept calling Spencer. Finally, after nearly a month, Spencer contacted him.

“Spencer! How shameless you are. You used me to go against Arthur and then just walked away. Now Davonnis Corp is going against my company with full force.” As soon as the call was answered, Jacob scolded Spencer harshly.

“What’s the hurry?” Spencer said, showing a sense of superiority. “You hold seventy percent of the company shares and have a controlling interest in it. Why are you so worried?”

Jacob was speechless when he heard this. Spencer wouldn’t be anxious unless he was implicated, right?

“Spencer, don’t burn the bridge after you cross it. If you push me too far, I might talk to Arthur about you.”

“So you’re threatening me?” Spencer chuckled and said causally, “Didn’t I tell you I’ve arranged for someone in Davonnis Corp to secretly help you?”

“Then you tell me who he is!” Jacob said in exasperation.

“Don’t worry. It won’t be long before he contacts you, and I promise this person will reassure you,” Spencer replied.

Jacob was silent for a while, hesitating to believe Spencer’s words. After all, Spence had ensnared him once.

Spencer seemed to sense his hesitation and said, "Don't worry. I didn't just make an empty promise to you. I'll be back in Athegate soon. When we join forces, Arthur is no match for us even if he's smart."

"So you're going to openly fight against Arthur?" Jacob felt Spencer's words incredulous.
