

She is a ceo Chapter 236

"I'm at Meadows Gardens, hiding behind the mascot next to the ticket office. Come quickly. I'll wait for you!" Poppy hurriedly told him about her location.

"Okay, just wait for me there." Jacob hung up the phone after that, but what he did next was to dial another number.

Poppy calmed down a little bit. She carefully hid herself while observing the three men. She regretted that she had chosen such a remote scenic spot. It was lunch break; even the conductor had gone to eat lunch, and the few tourists in the scenic spot could not make her feel secure at all.

Just when Poppy was suppressing her fear and waiting for Jacob, she noticed that the three men were coming in her direction after receiving a phone call. Poppy's heart was pounding and the beads of sweat on her forehead kept coming down. She prayed inside that they were just walking over to have a look and didn't really find her.

But when the three got closer and closer, Poppy finally realized that something was wrong and they were coming directly at her!

Her body reacted quicker than her mind. Poppy abruptly scurried out from behind the mascot and ran towards her car. The three men saw this, sped up and chased after her. Poppy panted desperately, even her high heels were wrenched off. When those men were only ten meters away, she finally arrived at her car.

She quickly got into the car. Sweat blurred her vision and she could even hear her heart thumping. When she started the engine, those three men had reached her car. Poppy quickly pressed the button to lock the car door. The three men slapped the window in annoyance, and one of them even stopped in front of the car.

Without any hesitation, Poppy stepped on the gas pedal. The roar of engine sounded, and the next second it rushed out like an arrow, and knocked out the man in front of the car. Poppy did not dare to stop, and continued to step onto the gas pedal, only to see from the rear-view mirror that the three men were screaming at her in annoyance.

The car quickly drove away from the scenic spot, but Poppy did not dare to stop for even a moment. Her hands were trembling and her heart was pounding. A realization hit her mind.

It was Jacob!

Only Jacob knew she was hiding behind the mascot, and the three men came directly towards her after answering the phone. Clearly, they had learned her position.

Thinking of this, Poppy slammed the steering wheel, and the car zigzagged through the highway, but she did not give a damn about it.

She just cursed angrily, "Jacob, you're a jerk! You really ask someone to kidnap me!"

Poppy was angry. She thought of any possibility of their future, but she never thought Jacob would injure her. It seemed she underestimated his ruthlessness.

Thinking of this, Poppy drove the car towards the airport. Luckily, she had her ID and bank card with her everywhere she went. At present, escaping from here was the most important thing now.

On the other side, the three men who failed to catch Poppy had to call Jacob.

Knowing that Poppy had escaped, Jacob angrily cursed them for being useless. They were killers Spencer had found from abroad, but he didn't expect that they were easily found out by Poppy and they even let Poppy escape.

“Idiot! Idiot! Idiot!” Jacob was so angry that he cursed repeatedly and hung up the phone only after the other party promised to continue the move.

Putting away his phone, Jacob knew that Poppy must have known he was behind this. He got up and rushed home, hoping that Poppy would run home and hide, though it was unlikely to happen.

Unfortunately, by the time Jacob returned home, Poppy had boarded a plane to Lepus, and Jacob immediately called the bank to freeze all her bank cards.

‘Poppy, I’ll see where you can run!’

Kane was hesitant to look for Juliana, so he did not turn off his phone. Because of this, he knew all the calls Poppy had made to him and he just ignored them. But this afternoon, Kane received a text message from Poppy.

“Kane, I’m begging you to answer my call; Jacob’s going to kill me!”

When he saw Poppy’s message, Kane was shocked and called Poppy, only to find out that she was also in Lepus and was hiding in a hotel near the airport.

“Kane, you finally answered my call.” Hearing Kane’s voice, Poppy burst into tears.

“Poppy, what did you mean by the text message you sent me?” Kane hurriedly asked.

Poppy then told Kane what happened to her. Kane immediately realized how serious the matter was, asked her about where she was, and rushed over.

At the hotel, Kane met Poppy, who looked haggard.

As soon as she saw Kane, Poppy's tears flowed down. And she threw herself into his arms and cried sadly.

Kane hugged Poppy and could say nothing to comfort her. Though he knew she asked for it, he could not blame her when seeing her haggard look.

After crying for a long time and venting out her emotions, Poppy then sobbed and said to Kane, "Kane, Jacob is going to kill me. He sent some thugs to kidnap me; I found out in time and escaped, but he froze my bank cards. If you don't come over today, I will be thrown out of the hotel."

When the hotel manager came up to inform her that he would call the police if she did not have money to pay the charge by noon, Poppy was really devastated.

Kane hesitated for a moment and asked Poppy, "Are you sure it's Jacob?"

Kane didn't expect that Jacob would go this far either.

"That's him!" Poppy wiped tears, both eyes red and swollen from crying. "Kane, you have to save me or I'll be killed!"

Kane thought about it. Jacob indeed may do such a thing. After all, he could not agree to with the conditions Poppy offered. To Jacob, the only feasible way was to make Poppy disappear from the world forever, so that she would never pose any threat to him.

Kane had mixed feelings after seeing Poppy's misery.

"Don't worry." Kane could only reassure Poppy. "Jacob can't search the country for you no matter how capable he is, and I don't think he'll know you have come to Lepus."

“Kane, I beg you to take me away.” This time, Poppy degraded herself, clutched Kane’s arm and begged.

“Jacob has frozen all my bank cards, but I still have some stocks. After selling all of them, I will get the money that is enough for us to live a good life. It’s insecure to stay in the country. You take me away! Let’s go abroad!”
