

She is a ceo Chapter 242

Juliana was shocked at the words. A drop of sweat slid down along her temple. It was so cold that she grimaced, laughed and said, "Arthur, are you trying to force me to die?"

"I feel pained by what you have suffered and have tried to heal your pain, but what you are doing now is intolerable. People have their own path to follow. Julia, you should face it yourself for once." Arthur implied that Juliana should face the truth herself, that the child she had given birth to was caused by rape.

"Arthur!" After Arthur finished his words, Juliana shouted frantically and yelled at him.

"Have you forgotten who caused the situation I'm in today? Are you now going to uncover my scars directly in front of my parents for her sake?"

"Julia," Arthur did not waver at Juliana's words but said firmly, "I am not asking you to confess everything for Lucia's sake, but this is the way you should have gone. You can always rely on me to run away from everything, but unless you are willing to face it yourself face, otherwise the thorn in the heart can never be removed!"

"After all, you just want me to admit that the baby isn't yours so you can be with Lucia, don't you?" Arthur's words sounded like an excuse for Juliana.

"You were supposed to defend me. You were supposed to give in to me, marry me, let the baby live happily ever after. You were supposed to do it all! Because it's all your fault! Everything is your fault!"

Juliana shouted and didn't look like a normal person. Especially the words she said when she lost temper, had clearly exposed the psychology of taking advantage of Arthur's sympathy, and, until now, she still thought he deserved it.

Kayla and Robert were stunned at their daughter's frantic appearance. Both watching her in amazement as they argued, their suspicion for their daughter grew wildly.

Arthur sighed and finally knew why Eduard wanted to watch out for Juliana. Because as a bystander, he saw more clearly than himself. He had his view of the important overshadowed by the trivial, and never found she had become a selfish person.

Being determined, Arthur did not want to say more with Juliana and continue the unnecessary argument. Now, he just wanted an answer.

"Tomorrow, come back to Athegate with me!" Arthur's words implied the irresistible meaning.

Juliana, who was panicked, turned once again to her parents for help, but the next thing she was confronted with was their confusion.

"Julia, what exactly did Arthur mean by what he said?" This time, it was Robert's questioning voice. After listening for so long, he had known the general stuff so now he just wanted his daughter to be honest with them.

Juliana was shocked. Now even her parents began to suspect her. What should she do?

Arthur's cold gaze and her parents' puzzled eyes made Juliana anxious and forced her to be mad. Finally she had no alternative but could only choose to escape. She violently pushed away Robert who was coming towards her, and shouted.

"Even you suspect me. Fine! From now on no one cares about me. Let me and the baby take care of ourselves!"

After she finished speaking, she turned around and ran upstairs, not giving anyone a chance to let her stay. As soon as she got to her room, she locked herself inside and leaned against the door with her heart beating wildly.

Could it be that she had really exhausted Arthur's patience?

Juliana managed to make herself to be Arthur's fiancée position step by step. And it was because she always relied on his guilt and sympathy for her, and their friendship of childhood. What if she lost all of these ... what should she do?

Noticing this, Juliana was alarmed.

Outside the door, Kayla kept tapping on the door in fear that Juliana would commit suicide, and Robert caught up with her, shouting angrily, "Stop tapping. She can do whatever she wants!"

Kayla looked at Robert with tears in her eyes, and said sorrowfully, "But she's our daughter."

"Our daughter is educated and reasonable. Look at her today. Is she still our daughter?" said Robert coldly. He was sophisticated. After knowing the content of Arthur and Juliana's quarrel, he knew that the one who was in the wrong must be his daughter. However, she did not reflect on it, but made things difficult for Arthur. This attitude had disappointed Robert to the extreme.

Kayla was dumbfounded and tearful. She was caught in the dilemma and asked bitterly, "Julia, what are you hiding ..."

Inside the door, Juliana heard everything Robert said, and she leaned against the door with her head low. She felt it conflicted to the extreme.

Could it be that she really did something wrong?

Kayla stood at the door of Juliana's room and was not willing to leave, while Robert sighed and chose to go downstairs to talk to Arthur. Unfortunately, Arthur was no longer willing to say anything more and can not say as well. In the face of Robert's doubts, he could only sigh and gently shook his head.

The Knight family was sad and gloomy.

Out of spite, Juliana just kept staying in her room and can only turn to Kane for help.

After making sure that Kayla had left, Juliana made a phone call to Kane and told him that Arthur was taking her and the baby to the DNA test tomorrow.

Thinking for a long time, Kane said to Juliana, "Julia, just come clean."

"What do you mean?" Juliana didn't expect to get such a result when she approached Kane for a discussion.

"Julia, things have come to this point. Let's just confess. Now explain the baby's birth clearly. Maybe there is still room for negotiation. Your parents will definitely protect you." All Kane wanted was that Juliana and the baby cannot lose their shelter.

"What do you mean by that?" Juliana questioned with frown unhappily, "We have worked hard to get to this point. If I just confess, Lucia can still be with Arthur. I'm not willing to see that!"

Juliana can never forget her hatred for Lucia. If it wasn't for her, she wouldn't have encountered all this, and what supported her all the way was also full of resentment towards her. Now Kane wanted her to let go of the past?

Kane heard Juliana's words, and was unable to express his discomfort. The reason why Juliana insisted was Poppy's trap. What she suffered simply never had nothing to do with Lucia. If he asked her to confess, he was bound to tell everything he had done before as well. In the current situation, Kane can not say and also dare not say.
