

She is a ceo Chapter 251

Kayla's face turned pale when she heard this, and she said with accusation to Juliana, "Julia, why are you so confused..."

Their daughter had never been such a person with treacherous intentions.

Juliana blushed at Kayla's words, but she continued,

"That night, I tricked Lucia into the room for the reason of having a stomachache, and asked her to drink the water I have added the hallucinogens in advance and then went to Eduard. I didn't expect to find that she was no longer in bed when I came back. Until now, I don't know where have you been that night."

Juliana finally looked at Lucia and said that if she hadn't disappeared that night, maybe things wouldn't be the way they were today. And her hatred for her wouldn't be that deep.

Lucia saw that everyone was looking over, looked directly at Juliana and asked her, "The hallucinogens you gave me were just a little bit?"

"Well, Poppy said she found it in the black market. A little bit is enough to make you stunned. You just woke up when I brought Eduard in. Then I will leave for an excuse, and you will..." Juliana felt ashamed and couldn't continue.

"Then you must not know it. When you went to Eduard, Poppy entered the room, and she gave me an unknown dose of hallucinogens. At that time, Poppy and Jacob were already in a fight, so Jacob kept sending people to follow her. That night, it was Jacob who came to save me. Because of an overdose of hallucinogens, I was taken to the hospital overnight by him and almost died of organ failure."

When Lucia said this, everyone looked at her in shock, especially Juliana and Arthur, who had no idea what happened to Lucia.

“Lucia, why didn’t you tell me!” Although it was over, Arthur was still in shock when he heard the word “died”. No wonder when Lucia came back and he went to find her himself, she looked haggard and lacked energy. She was affected with hallucinogens!

Lucia glanced at Arthur and continued, “Fortunately, I was rescued at the time. I was worried about your situation and wanted to contact you, but Jacob took my mobile phone away. For three days, I had been receiving treatment. I didn’t leave until the doctor said I could leave the hospital, but when I came back, I found Arthur had changed...”

Lucia stopped talking at this point, because those memories still hurt her heart now.

Arthur looked at Lucia, and was so distressed that he could hardly breathe. At that time, Lucia had just gone through life-threatening danger. As her boyfriend, instead of comforting her, he misunderstood her. How did she endure all his doubts and reproaches at that time?

“I don’t know what happened. When I faced you, I was worried about my previous relationship with Jacob, so I chose to hide it from you. I didn’t expect it to cause a deeper misunderstanding...”

Lucia spoke softly, suppressing her emotions.

Holding Lucia’s hand, Arthur’s guilt reached its peak. Lucia silently looked back at him, feeling more complicated than anyone else.

She knew that Arthur was being misled by Juliana, but his doubts about her at the time were real, and the pain was real too.

Juliana looked at Arthur and Lucia who were looking at each other, and felt very uncomfortable. What did she do?

It made Kane's hair stand on end. How many crimes he had committed while helping Poppy?

As soon as he gritted his teeth, Kane talked about what happened next.

"Let me tell you guys what happened next. Poppy brought Eduard to the room and found Lucia was gone. Then she had a new idea. She was not willing to see her plan fail, so she deliberately asked you and me to look for Lucia. On the way, she secretly contacted me by a text message."

Juliana frowned and stared at Kane. What he was going to say next was the knot in her heart.

"Poppy asked me to lead Julia into the dark alley, and then..." Kane was breathless and could hardly speak, but he forced himself to continue and looked at Juliana,

"Then let a few hooligans rape you and make Lucia the culprit of your injuries, so that no matter what position, by any means, you will definitely prevent them from being together. And Lucia will lose Arthur, the biggest reliance. She will no longer be a big threat to JTP."

With Kane's confession, everyone took a deep breath. They didn't expect Poppy to be so vicious. Even Juliana, who had promised to cooperate with her, was not spared, and was even more miserable.

Holding back tears, she asked Kane, "Why is the baby's father you?"

"I can't bear it..." Kane looked at Juliana, as if to open his heart for her to examine, and said with difficulty,

"I can't bear to see you're raped, but Poppy kept pushing me. I couldn't do anything, so I let them leave. Julia, that night... only me..."

Hearing this, Juliana's tears fell down immediately. She thought that Kane raped her like everyone else did. When she heard him say that it was only him, she couldn't help but feel a sense of joy in her heart, but then came deeper hatred.

"No wonder you tried so hard to keep the baby when I said I was going to abort it, and even took me to hospital for a checkup," Juliana murmured as her tears fell down.

"No wonder you said that you would treat the baby as your own child. No wonder you abandoned everything and returned to Lepus with me. So, you always knew it!"

Raising her eyes sharply, the hatred in Juliana's heart made Kane overwhelmed.

"Julia, I'm not just for the baby!" Kane accepted Juliana's accusation, but he couldn't let her misunderstand that he was only for the baby.

Juliana sneered and asked him with tears in her eyes, "If I guessed correctly, my fallopian tubes are blocked and it is difficult to conceive, and a forced abortion will cause life-threatening. You made it up too?"

Once the reason was confirmed, the subsequent events were all clear.

Kane felt guilty. After thinking for a moment, he answered truthfully, "Yes, the doctor who examined you that day was an old acquaintance of my mother. You are in good health. All those illnesses were made up by me to keep the baby."

"Kane!" Gritting her teeth, Juliana shouted and stood up from the sofa, with tears and pain in her eyes. It turned out that the one who lied to her the most was Kane!

In the midst of suffering, he appeared as a savior for her, and she fell in love with him because of it. She didn't expect that everything ... was fake!
