

She is a ceo Chapter 307

“Okay, I don’t ask. As long as it’s good for Lucia.” Arthur said simply. Edwin on the phone was speechless. This son was too fond of his girlfriend!

On the other side, Lucia had just stepped into the lobby of the company. All the senior executives came out to greet her. There was even a banner congratulating Lucia on becoming the new president of JTP. Following their lead, all the staff in the lobby burst into cheers and applauded, making Lucia embarrassed instead.

She didn’t want to be so high-profile. After all, the Jacob case wasn’t settled yet.

Around the senior staff, Lucia saw Nia, and she realized that this matter should be related to her.

Because the atmosphere in the lobby was too warm, Lucia had a smile and gave a short impromptu speech among the crowd. Returning to Webbex Group will definitely continue the hard work of her father and bring a better future to the company.

After stabilizing everyone’s emotions, Lucia came to the executives and ordered them to disperse everyone, and then took Nia to the top floor by elevator. In the elevator, she asked Nia,

“Nia, did you arrange the welcome ceremony just now?”

Lucia did not reveal whether she liked it or not, but Nia thought she liked it, so she answered excitedly,

“Well, it’s me. After I came to the company in the morning, I have reported to the personnel department. They also knew that I was the assistant you brought back, so everyone was very cooperative when arranging the welcome ceremony.”

Lucia lowered her eyes slightly, first nodded to acknowledge Nia's ability, and then said, "Nia, I just returned here, so I should keep a low profile. If there is anything similar in the future, you should ask me first."

After listening to Lucia's words, Nia realized that she didn't seem very happy, so she asked in panic, "Lucia, are you unhappy? I'm sorry. I shouldn't decide all by myself. I just think that you have just assumed the position of president, and you deserve the due attention..."

"You misunderstood me," Lucia said. "I just don't want to be so flamboyant."

"Okay, I'll pay attention next time!" Nia didn't expect to do it wrong on her first day at work, so she hurriedly bowed her head and promised Lucia.

Lucia nodded. Just as the elevator doors opened, she stepped out and Nia followed behind her.

As she came to Jacob's original office on the top floor, Lucia saw Samuel who seemed to have been waiting for a long time here. She came up to find him.

"Ms. Webb, welcome back to Webbex Group," Samuel had a respectful gesture when he saw Lucia, carefully chose words he thought would make her feel good,

"I have arranged an office for you."

"Seal it." Lucia said coldly, glaring at Samuel's flattering smile.

Hearing this, not only Samuel, but also Nia was stunned.

"Ms. Webb, you mean..." Samuel asked uncertainly.

“Seal all the top floor. I’ll just use Poppy’s original office. In the future, no one will come up to the top floor without my permission. Understand?”

Samuel nodded immediately and replied, “Yes, I’ll do it right away.” He didn’t dare to ask why.

“I know you’re with Spencer now. If I quit you, he will definitely protect you, so I won’t touch do anything to you,” Lucia’s eyes turned cold, and she said to Samuel,:

“But I won’t let you act arbitrarily in the company like before. Pay attention to your own words and deeds. Understand?”

Samuel was sweating coldly on his back. He buried his head lower and replied submissively, “Yes, I will definitely pay attention to my words and deeds. I will do whatever you tell me to do.”

“Okay,” Lucia nodded. “Then I’ll give you a task today.”

“Please say it.” Hearing that Lucia wanted to let him do things, Samuel immediately raised his head and asked, being secretly excited. She asked him to do something so Lucia must not be too hard on him.

“A few days ago, I asked the senior management to sort out the cases of Jacob’s illegal business operations. You are his subordinate. You know those cases best. You can even add some, so you have to specially help me sort out the information they hand in these two days. I’ll have it the day after tomorrow.” Lucia’s lips twitched, and her words were clear.

Samuel’s expression froze for a moment. He never expected that Lucia would let him sort out the case data of Jacob’s illegal operations. It stood to reason that he was the least likely to do this, because he used to be Jacob subordinate. Lucia actually handed this matter over to him.

If he hid it, it meant that he was not sincere enough, and if he revealed it in full, he will become a folly in the eyes of others.

“Why, don’t you want to?” Lucia asked with a sneer when Samuel was stunned.

“No!” Samuel replied immediately, “I’ll do it right away!”

Standing at the door of the office and seeing Lucia and Nia entering the elevator, Samuel dared to raise his hand to wipe the sweat on his forehead. At this moment, Samuel clearly realized that although Lucia was a woman, she was not simple at all.

“A new official applies strict measures. She is going to take me first...” Samuel muttered to himself irritably, but also knew that he had to deal with this matter.

Sure enough, when Samuel handed over information to the senior management in the afternoon, everyone looked at him with contempt. He used to be the most trusted person by Jacob, but now, he was the one who defected the fastest.

Samuel can’t tell the bitterness.

After Lucia returned to Poppy’s office, she began to understand the current internal situation of JTP. She worked at the desk, while Nia took the cleaners to organize the office and transformed it into one with simple and elegant style according to Lucia’s preferences. The entire office had been renovated, and all that was left was the desk.

Nia came to the desk and started tidying up, picking up some unnecessary things. When she picked up the music box on the desk and prepared to put it in the bag, Lucia raised her head and said,

“Don’t move this.”

Nia heard that and put the music box back, and couldn’t help but look at it a few more times.

Lucia didn’t say anything, just stared at it for a while, then resumed her work.

At four o’clock in the afternoon, Lucia read the materials sent by the heads of various departments, and now she felt very heavy.
