

She is a ceo Chapter 320

Arthur ridiculed himself. Looking down at Lucia as he spoke, and with just one look, he sank into Lucia's starry eyes.

Lucia's eyes were already red. She never knew that Arthur had been watching her silently in the dark. She thought... she wouldn't care.

"Fool, why are you crying?" Seeing Lucia's red eyes, Arthur felt more distressed than her. He stroked her cheek and said,

"I don't say this to impress you or to show how affectionate I am, but I really want to tell you that I have never forgotten you for a moment. It is a wonderful and uncontrollable impulse. It's absolutely ridiculous for me to leave work and wait for you just to glance at you. But for you, everything goes so naturally. Lucia, sometimes I even wonder if you live there in my heart."

Lucia bit her lower lip and raised her body to wrap her arms around Arthur's neck, choked up and said, "Idiot, that's called affectionate!"

Arthur looked down for a moment, then softened. He hugged Lucia and smiled, "Well, affectionate."

A deep love, only for one person.

Soon, for the case of Jacob's will fraud, a court was held. Wyatt appeared in court to testify as scheduled. When the video was released in court, the court also summoned the reporters who appeared in the screen in advance. Perhaps because of the solemn coercion of the court, the reporters admitted that they were all bought by Jacob. At that time, they completely ignored the objective fact and directly characterized the incident as Lucia cheating in marriage, and publicized false remarks to the public. As soon as they admitted, the court was in an uproar.

Lucia in the plaintiff's seat heard countless discussions behind her.

"I told you. Lucia must be innocent!"

"Jacob is really hateful. He used her feelings to steal her family's property, and he justly drove Lucia away. It's really unforgivable!"

"Hey, I used to think the rich lady likes to play, but Lucia didn't do anything at all."

"Poppy found her conscience and left that video at the end."

Now that the truth had come out, Lucia listened to these remarks and felt extremely complicated. She was relieved and happy, but also a little sad, and that sadness was for Poppy.

In the end, the court made a trial. Jacob was suspected of inheritance fraud. Due to the huge amount of fraud, he was sentenced to ten years in prison and declared that the will was invalid. All the assets of JTP were returned to Lucia, the only heiress of Eric. Wyatt was arrested as an accomplice. He was sentenced to three months in prison. This result was already very, very light for him.

After coming out of the courthouse, Lucia felt that the sky was bluer. At least now she could be more calm when she went to visit her father's grave.

Countless reporters had been waiting outside the courthouse for a long time. Lucia, accompanied by Arthur, was immediately surrounded by a group of people. The most asked question was how she was feeling now. Lucia did not refuse all of them. "Justice will triumph" showed that the pain she had suffered over the years.

After that, the wonderful fate between Lucia and Arthur was known and talked about by the public. The rumor that Lucia wanted to use Arthur to retake JTP collapsed of itself. She didn't know Arthur deliberately at all, but the fate was too deep. Their love was spread like virus, and there were even many versions. But in any case, their relationship was officially recognized by the public, and it had also attracted many fans.

This matter finally came to an end. Webbex Group also successfully returned to Lucia's hands. With the status of a legal person, Lucia did not stop for a moment to let Kane start the name change, and the part of the equity managed by Spencer was forcibly recovered by the court. Although the company still had a lot to do, Lucia immediately suggested to go Chicago with Arthur.

"Lucia, just wait a little longer," Arthur said to her in the evening, after listening to Lucia's proposal to leave Chicago tomorrow after dinner,

"Webbex Group has just returned to your hands. Now the business is heavy, and the company needs you. I can wait."

"It's alright," Lucia replied with a smile. "The company is very important, but our son is more important. I know how much you want to make it clear to Esmee. We will leave tomorrow."

"Really?" Arthur asked uncertainly.

"Of course, our family of three should be reunited." Lucia said softly.

A smile finally appeared on Arthur's face. Although he was still trying to persuade Lucia to focus on business, she just agreed, and Arthur turned around and called Kyle to book a flight. Lucia couldn't help laughing when she saw him like this.

Early the next morning, Arthur and Lucia boarded the flight to Chicago. Lucia kept an eye on it and did not inform Esmee in advance. She was a little worried that Esmee would deliberately take Theodore away to avoid him and Arthur meeting.

However, Lucia didn't know that Spencer had arrived in Chicago a few days earlier, and told Esmee that she was going to come with Arthur. Esmee immediately took Theodore to her daughter, who set up a company in Los Angeles, and prepared to wait for Arthur and Lucia.

So when Lucia and Arthur showed up at Browns Manor, instead of seeing Theodore as expected, they ran into Esmae who had been waiting for them for a long time.

Lucia and Arthur knew everything when they saw Spencer standing beside Esmae. Staring at Spencer, Lucia couldn't hide her anger.

Esmae stood on the steps, looking down at Arthur. Seeing Edwin's features on his handsome face, Esmae's mood was beyond words. But one thing was for sure, she was very unhappy now.

"Lucia, why didn't you let me know when you came back?" Esmae asked Lucia, looking coldly away from Arthur's face.

"Esmae, I..." Lucia was interrupted by Esmae as soon as she said so.

"Since when have you been so disrespectful to me? Bring someone irrelevant home?" Esmae scolded Lucia deliberately, and the relation between her and Arthur had been clearly divided by the words. One was a family member, and one was an outsider. It stood clear.

"Esmae, this is Arthur..." Lucia said to Esmae with one hand on Arthur's arm, stopping Arthur from trying to stand up for her.

Arthur was already furious when he heard Esmae speak, not because of the disdain she revealed in her words, which he was prepared for, but because of Esmae's high-level rebuke to Lucia.
