

She is a ceo Chapter 336

Kayla and Robert apologized to Lucia again. As elders, they felt very guilty because of their daughter. Lucia consciously couldn't bear it, and even said no, while Juliana couldn't keep silent any longer.

"Mom and dad, I'm sorry I need you to apologize for me at this time." Juliana said in a depressed mood as she walked down the stairs.

Juliana still didn't know that Lucia had forgiven her generously just now, thinking that her parents were now begging for her.

Lucia turned her head away and deliberately didn't say anything, while Kayla hurriedly greeted her and told Juliana what they had just said. Juliana stopped in place after hearing that. Looking at Lucia, she couldn't say anything. Lucia let go bluntly but Juliana showed her timidity instead.

Although she was also an upright person, Juliana thought she herself was not as generous and tolerant as Lucia.

"How could you forgive me so easily?" After thinking for a long time, Juliana expressed her doubts to Lucia. She had done so many unforgivable things.

"It doesn't matter if I forgive you or not. Your original intention was for Arthur. Later, the development of things was induced by Poppy step by step. Now that the truth is revealed, you have woken up, so what do I haggle about?" Lucia responded simply.

After listening to Lucia's words, Juliana was so moved, looked at Arthur and said sincerely,

"Arthur, now I know why you still love Lucia after I tried my best to stop you..."

With a smug smile on Arthur's face, he hugged Lucia tighter. His woman, of course, was the best.

“Now, you can be together again.” Juliana said sincerely. Arthur looked down at Lucia, showing his love, but Lucia was not so happy, Arthur was blindly immersed in the joy of the truth being revealed. Only Sophie, who was standing by her beside, found that her mood didn’t seem so excited.

Being doubtful, Sophie secretly speculated the reason.

Lucia and Juliana had already reconciled, and the next step was how to resolve the grudge between Kane and Juliana. Kane and the Knight family talked and explained, while Sophie took the opportunity to ask Lucia.

“Lucia, now that the truth is out. You don’t seem so happy?”

Lucia looked down and avoided Arthur’s gaze uncomfortably, not responding.

Arthur was startled when he heard his mother’s words, and looked at Lucia’s expression carefully and found that there was a trace of worry hidden in her eyes. She was not as happy as he was, so he asked quickly,

“Lucia, what’s the matter? Today, Julia and Kane have told the truths, and all our misunderstandings have been cleared up. Are you not happy?”

“I’m not...” Lucia wanted to force a smile, but the corners of her mouth couldn’t lift up. Only she herself understood the pain in her heart.

“What’s that?” Arthur asked anxiously, holding Lucia’s arms lightly and making her look at him.

“Arthur, don’t force Lucia.” Seeing that his son was in a hurry, Sophie quickly patted his arm to remind him.

"I..." Arthur was at a loss for words. Could he not force her? Why was Lucia not happy after the truths? Did she not want to be with him anymore?

"Arthur," Lucia finally looked up to meet Arthur's eyes, and said softly, "I'm not unhappy. I'm really relieved to know that you didn't betray me, but things are not that simple..."

"What's so complicated? Tell me!" Arthur asked anxiously. His voice was a few degrees louder, attracting several people who were talking on the other side.

"Arthur, what's the matter?" Juliana hurried over to ask, regardless of what she was talking about the baby with Kane.

Lucia glanced at Arthur embarrassedly and pinched his waist lightly. Arthur immediately realized that she didn't want to make things obvious, so he asked,

"How are you talking?"

Hearing this, Juliana glanced sideways at Kane. Her face was slightly red, and she whispered, "What else can I do? The baby can't be without a father since he is a child..."

"What do your parents think?" Arthur had expected that Juliana would not be hard on Kane, especially after the two had a baby. And forgiveness would be a matter of time. It just depended on Kayla and Robert's attitude.

Kayla and Robert also had their own contradictions. Judging from his speech and behavior, this man named Kane was polite and modest. If they didn't know that he did so many wrongs for Poppy as soon as they met, they must have a good impression of him. But if they really agreed with him to let him be with their daughter like this, they felt something was wrong.

“Her parents must still be wary of me,” Kane said with a wry smile, “I know I have done a lot of wrong things, and it is not something that can be washed away by confessing today. I just hope you can give me a chance. Allow me to occasionally visit Julia and the baby, and I dare not ask for other things.”

These were Kane’s sincere words. To be honest, he originally thought about the thousands of possibilities after confessing, but he never thought that he would be forgiven and accepted easily. He was willing to take the time to impress Juliana again, even if it took his whole life.

“You’re really honest...” Sophie had met and known numerous people, and she can tell at a glance whether Kane’s character was good or not. It was actually similar to Juliana. He also went the wrong way because of his love for Poppy. Juliana can get Lucia’s forgiveness and Kane naturally had the same, so she helped him at the right time.

Sophie’s words made Kayla and Robert approve, so they didn’t say anything, just looked at their daughter and let her decide on her own.

Seeing that everyone was looking at her, Juliana lowered her eyes slightly. The redness on her face gradually deepened. Her love for Kane gradually covered the hatred she had just aroused. She thought for a while and said,

“If you don’t help Poppy to do those hurtful things in the future, my baby and I can give you a chance...”

Hearing Juliana’s words, Kane’s eyes lit up instantly, and he stared at Juliana with joy and said, “Really? Julia, are you willing to give me a chance?”

Juliana nodded shyly. Seeing her shy expression, Kayla knew that her daughter really loved Kane. However, as a mother, she wanted to stand up for her daughter,

“Kane, my daughter promises to give you a chance now, but because of the mistakes you made in the past, Julia’s father and I will always supervise you. If you’re disloyal...”

Before Kayla's words were finished, Kane made a hasty promise, "Don't worry. I won't. Never in my life!"
