

She is a ceo Chapter 339

“Kane, this time you can only succeed and not fail.” In front of Lucia, Arthur wouldn’t ask Kane what to do, but behind her, Arthur asked Kane to succeed, which was his principle of doing things.

“I know. I will try my best to make it up.” Kane said with some guilt.

“It’s not for you to make up. Your success means you’re safe. I remind you. It’s for Julia and the baby!” Arthur explained, knowing that Kane had misunderstood him.

Kane looked up and saw the smile in Arthur’s face. That was how he knew his true intentions.

Not to mention the new understanding of Lucia, Kane also looked at Arthur differently.

That afternoon, after saying goodbye to Juliana and the baby, Kane went to Lepus to find Poppy, while Sophie took the opportunity to talk to Lucia and Arthur, asking why Lucia was so depressed yesterday.

Having spoken to Arthur, Lucia stopped hiding from Sophie and told her about Esmæ’s request to be engaged with Spencer.

After knowing Lucia’s secret, Sophie pondered for a long time and was surprised. And the first question she asked was, “Are Spencer and Esmæ familiar?”

Sophie thought that she asked Erik to sound Esmæ out, but how could Spencer gain Esmæ’s trust so easily and make her have the idea of having Spencer and Lucia together? There must be something strange about it.

“Sophie, didn’t you ask Spencer to go with his father to lobby her?” asked Lucia.

“That’s right, but it stands to reason that Erik should come forward. How can Spencer get Esmae’s favor so easily?” This was what Sophie is most puzzled about.

“I also find it strange. I have seen Spencer when he met her. They seem to be quite familiar with each other. I haven’t seen Erik, but Spencer confessed to me that his purpose of returning to the country was to help me retake Webbex at her request. And he didn’t reveal much,” said Lucia.

“Spencer used to help Jacob attack the Branch of Davonnis. Lucia, you should know it.” Arthur only said it now, wondering what Sophie would react.

“Spencer helped Jacob? Are you sure?” Sophie asked Arthur, being wide-eyed.

“Sure, it’s him. I’ve checked this, but I don’t know what intentions he has. I hinted to him about this. Spencer seemed to have listened to my advice and left, but he returned to the country soon after. and set up Cloudwork Corp. I don’t know what he wants.” Arthur frowned.

Hearing this, Sophie thought that could it be that Erik and Spencer were disloyal to the Davis family?

At this time, Sophie was not surprised by making such a guess. Erik was very dissatisfied with his father’s attitude towards them from the past, and never considered his own reason, but thought that it was because his father was partial.

“I don’t know about it, but I can feel Spencer’s hostility to Arthur. He even bought a car that is same with Arthur’s. He always compares himself to Arthur, which is very unpleasant.” Lucia spoke softly.

“How do you know what car he’s driving?” Arthur was always concerned about Lucia.

Lucia frowned and could only tell him about her “coincidences” with Spencer a few times. Arthur felt jealous after hearing that. It turned out that Spencer had coveted Lucia for a long time!

“Why didn’t you tell me sooner!?” asked Arthur.

“How can I tell you...” Lucia glanced at Arthur and said lightly.

Only then did Arthur remember that there was still misunderstanding. Lucia really wouldn’t tell him this, so he was very upset!

Seeing her son was jealous, Sophie didn’t have time to comfort him but continued to ask Lucia, “Lucia, Esmae has never changed the attitude towards us, right?”

“Nothing has changed. She still has the same attitude towards you, the same obsession. It seems that Erik and Spencer didn’t mediate between you and uncle. I even doubt...” Lucia looked down. She was smart enough not to finish her words.

Sophie and Arthur guessed what Lucia meant, and without a moment’s hesitation, Sophie stood up and said, “I’ll call your dad right now. You focus on Poppy first, and your dad and I will handle the rest.”

After saying so, Sophie went upstairs. Lucia looked in the direction where she disappeared and asked Arthur, “Arthur, have Spencer and you always had a bad relation?”

Arthur nodded and told Lucia all about Spencer’s qualities. Lucia suddenly realized that, “It seems that Erik and Spencer didn’t mean to help Sophie and Edwin in the first place.”

“Yes, they were for themselves in the first place.” Arthur’s words implied his anger. No one liked being betrayed, especially one’s closest relatives.

“Spencer and I can’t get engaged anymore. What he wants is nothing more than my status as Esmae’s ‘righteous daughter’.” Lucia said coldly.

Arthur frowned, not revealing anything. Lucia was so charming. He knew that Spencer pursued her not just for profit. Of course, he couldn't be stupid enough to remind Lucia of this, but he just had to be more alerted about Spencer in the future.

Just as the two were talking, Juliana suddenly went downstairs. Without knowing what they were talking about, she took the lead in mentioning the development projects of south sea last time, which was what she just remembered to confess to Arthur.

"Arthur, I did the development projects of south sea, and I couldn't help myself at that time." Juliana said guiltily.

"Who ordered you?" Arthur had almost guessed the answer.

"It's Spencer." Juliana replied directly.

Really! Arthur and Lucia looked at each other and asked Juliana, "Do you know what Spencer did?"

"How could Spencer tell me that? He threatened me with the child, and even tried to persuade me to stay with you several times. I can't figure out what he meant." Juliana told the truth.

Juliana didn't know Spencer's intentions, but her words confirmed that Spencer was really targeting Arthur, and it was enough to know that.

Arthur didn't want Juliana to be involved, so after a few words of reassurance, he let her go upstairs to rest, and immediately said to Lucia,

"Lucia, when Kane comes back, let's go to Chicago to find Esmae!"

“Okay.” Lucia frowned slightly. She also knew that this matter could not be delayed.
