

She is a ceo Chapter 382

The meeting was chaired by Kane. After he announced the number of holdings of Lucia and Arthur, the other two shareholders did not express any opinions, but were secretly joyful. It was right not to sell the shares at the beginning. Not only Lucia's popularity in Athegate, but also Arthur's shares of the company, the future development of JTP was inestimable. They even felt that they got a great bargain.

Half an hour after the start of the meeting, after the basic matters were announced, several shareholders will re-select the company's president according to the process. Although the two shareholders hold less shares, they also had voting rights. Just when everyone started to enter the process, a low male voice came from the door of the room,

"Why, isn't the vote waiting for me?"

The voice was so familiar that Lucia and Arthur turned to look at him the same time, only to see Spencer walk into the conference room leisurely, followed by Samuel.

"Spencer!" Lucia frowned in displeasure. Why did he join?

Arthur looked at Spencer coldly, not saying a word or saying hello. He probably knew why he was here.

"Lucia, long time no see. Do you miss me?" Spencer deliberately spoke to Lucia in ambiguous words, looking complacent.

"Spencer, what are you doing here?!" Lucia asked nonchalantly.

Arthur stood up, stared at Spencer and warned, "Spencer, watch your words."

"What? Aren't you calling me cousin any more?" Spencer sneered at Arthur with a smirk.

“Are you still the cousin I know?” Arthur shot back.

Spencer shrugged indifferently. Lucia disdained to mediate with him, and asked coldly, “What are you doing here?”

“Why? Don’t you know?” Spencer raised his eyebrows in surprise, motioned Samuel to step forward and hand Lucia a document, and said,

“Jacob handed over his shares to me to manage. This is a document he signed.”

Lucia didn’t bother to get the document. Kane, who was beside her as a lawyer, took it. After reading the whole document, he whispered to Lucia,

“The document is genuine.”

Lucia sneered when she heard the words, and mocked, “Jacob is smart. He knows to stay behind before running.”

“What,” Spencer raised his brows in “surprise” again, and said, “Did Jacob run away? Why didn’t I know?” He then turned to look at Samuel on purpose.

“I just found out. I forgot to tell you.” Samuel said innocently. His expression was no longer as flustered after discovering Jacob’s running away this morning. Now that Spencer was here, and he was in charge of all of Jacob’s shares, it was equal he had another backer. Samuel’s confidence rose again in an instant.

“Stop acting!” Lucia shouted in disgust, “Since Jacob entrusted you to manage his shares, then sit down and vote.”

Although Lucia did not expect things to develop to this point, the direction of her actions will not change.

Spencer smiled, as if he didn't mean to come, just stood at the door and said, "Lucia, don't worry. Although I took over Jacob's shares, as your fiance, I will naturally vote for you."

As soon as Spencer finished speaking, he saw Arthur come to him, reach out and grab his tie, warning coldly with anger in his eyes,

"Spencer, don't go too far!"

"It's you who goes too far?!" Since he offended him openly, Spencer was not polite to Arthur. His tie was still grabbed and he said calmly,

"Arthur, as my cousin, don't you think it's unethical to meddle with your own cousin?"

"Spencer, are you too thick-skinned? Fiancee? Fiance? Am I engaged to you?" Lucia walked over to Arthur, didn't stop him but joined him against Spencer.

"Isn't it a matter of time?" Spencer replied leisurely. He was in a very unhappy mood now, and no one wanted to see the woman they liked standing next to another man.

"Then just wait for that day. If there is such a day." Lucia scowled and said indifferently. If Arthur hadn't made the move first, it would have been him who was grabbing his tie now.

Arthur, Lucia and Spencer were confronting each other due to emotional issues at this time. The rest of the people, especially the two shareholders, were at a loss. Samuel, who was standing behind Spencer, was shocked. He didn't expect that Spencer had such a deep relationship with Lucia.

Was Jacob also tricked by Spencer? Samuel secretly guessed.

“Arthur, can you pay attention to what you’re doing? This isn’t your Davonnis Corp.” Spencer sneered impatiently, being grabbed by Arthur all the time.

“This isn’t your Cloudwork Corp either!” Arthur shot back coldly.

Seeing that Arthur didn’t let go, Spencer could only take a step back, and forcefully broke free from his hand. After adjusting his tie, he said,

“I came here today to let you know. From now on, I will also join JTP. No matter what you do, 35% of the equity is still in my hands. Lucia, we can get along well in the future.”

Lucia was furious when she heard this, and couldn’t help but take a step forward. Spencer stepped back again and again when he saw the obvious anger in Lucia’s eyes. He knew that she was very skilled, but he couldn’t really was thrown out by her over the shoulder.

Whoever understands the times is a great man. Spencer knew that he can no longer stimulate Lucia, so he said, “Everyone, I vote for Lucia to become the new president of JTP. I don’t care about other things. I will leave first.”

After speaking, without waiting for Lucia and Arthur to react, Spencer turned and left, and Samuel hurriedly followed him away.

As soon as Spencer left, the conference room returned to calm. Lucia and Arthur were both angry, and the two shareholders looked up at the ceiling, not knowing what just happened. And the outcome was already decided.

“Arthur, don’t be angry.” Although she was angry, Lucia comforted Arthur first.

"Tomorrow we're leaving for Chicago!" Arthur said angrily.

"Okay, we'll leave tomorrow." Lucia reassured him, but she knew in her heart that they couldn't leave so quickly.

Upon seeing this, Kane hurriedly announced that Lucia had become the new president of JTP, and announced that the meeting was adjourned. The two shareholders didn't dare to stay for more, and hurriedly said goodbye to Lucia and left. Lucia sighed, held Arthur's hand and did not dare to relax for a moment.
