

She is a ceo Chapter 418

“Nia, although Lucia and I have a good relation, but am I not working hard? I have not made any mistakes since going to work. Although Lucia did not clarify the division of labor between the two of us, I have been working overtime to do your part some time ago. Doesn't this prove anything?”

Daphne's grievances just hit Nia's pain point. She almost gritted her teeth in hatred, and her voice became sharp and mean,

“What of it? I've already worked by Lucia's side as soon as she returned to the country. I can't be called your senior because of my qualifications? Do you understand the rules of the workplace? As a junior, will you complain so much if you do more? It's you relying on the relation with Lucia. You look down on people and look down on me, an ordinary assistant?!”

Daphne's lively side was only shown around familiar and friendly people. In front of strangers or even hostile people, like Nia now, she was more introverted. So after listening to Nia's words, she was stunned for a long time. She can't refute but just felt full of grievances...

Looking at Daphne's pitiful expression, Nia didn't feel any pity at all. Instead, she felt more disgusted and felt that she was just pretending!

Now that she was directly arguing with her, Nia no longer hid her disgust. She gave Daphne a cold look, sat down, and said a few words,

“Anyway, I hate people like you who rely on relation to gain position or something. You can sue me to Lucia for what I said today. I believe Lucia is not the kind of person who only protects the 'little sister'.”

Of course Nia was afraid that Daphne would sue her, so she deliberately said this to Daphne.

Sure enough, Daphne bowed her head after listening, and would rather hold back her grievances than ask Nia for anything.

Seeing Daphne sit down, Nia was secretly relieved. She couldn't control her emotions just now. It was really hard to say whether Lucia will favor Daphne.

Between today's quarrel, Nia didn't leave immediately even after work hours. She was going to stare at Daphne.

Half an hour after off-hours, Lucia came out of the office, and Nia immediately got fully armed and stared at Daphne with dread.

Lucia found that both Nia and Daphne had not finished work, so she came over to them and said, "Nia, Daphne, I have finished the business on my side, and you can leave work too."

Nia smiled at Lucia and glanced at Daphne. Daphne stood up with a smile on her face, nodded to Lucia, and picked up her bag. Nia immediately grabbed her bag and followed in their footsteps.

Daphne lowered her head slightly after seeing Nia following, and didn't even respond immediately when Lucia called her name, looking a little dazed.

"Daphne, Daphne !" Already in the elevator, Lucia saw that Daphne still didn't respond to her, so she turned up the volume and called her twice, and Daphne suddenly woke up.

"Lucia, what's wrong?"

Lucia smiled, looked at Daphne dotingly and asked, "You are in a daze. Have you encountered something confused?"

Daphne's mouth moved a little but didn't dare to say anything, because she noticed Nia was staring at her. But even if Nia wasn't staring at her, she wouldn't complain to Lucia.

"It's okay. It's just my period. I'm a little uncomfortable..." Daphne replied in a low voice, blushing slightly.

"I see," Lucia understood and asked her again, "Does your stomach feel uncomfortable? Do you want to take a rest tomorrow?"

For Daphne's good, Lucia never thought about covering it up. She understood jealousy in the workplace, but she just trusted Nia not to think about it.

"No, no," Daphne hurriedly shook her head and declined, secretly thinking that it was not good. If Lucia's words were heard by Nia, it would only make her feel that she was being favored. She hurriedly continued, "I'm fine. My period will end in two days."

"Are you really fine?" Lucia was a little worried. Daphne was really in a daze just now, but it didn't look like she was okay.

"Well," Daphne told Lucia with a smile, "Thanks Lucia. I can take it."

"That's good," Lucia was relieved and turned to Nia, "Nia, Daphne is not feeling well these days. You need to take more care of her."

Nia was suddenly named, but the thing she was entrusted with was to take care of the people she hated. Although she was unhappy in her heart, she still maintained a warm smile and replied,

"Of course, I'll take care of Daphne."

Daphne felt chills when she heard Nia's words, but she didn't dare to show anything in front of Lucia and kept holding back until she got out of the elevator and the three of them went in different directions. It was the first time that she had to withstand such a lot of pressure in front of Lucia.

Lucia didn't go home, but directly asked the driver to take her to the Branch of Davonnis. After visiting a client this afternoon, Arthur called and asked her to find him after work. Although Lucia didn't know why, she still went there happily.

At six o'clock, Lucia came to the lobby of the Branch of Davonnis. As soon as she appeared in the lobby, she was the focus of everyone's attention. Even people who had seen Lucia countless times couldn't help but stop and watch. Lucia was really eye-catching..

Once the CEO of Jibillion Inc with outstanding ability, now she was the strongest female president to retake Webbex Group. Lucia was already the best among people in terms of strength. Plus God's preference, she had a charming face and slenderness. The attractive figure, wherever she went, was the focus of everyone's attention.

So, Lucia had just walked into the Branch of Davonnis, and Kyle at the top had received the notification and immediately informed Arthur.

Lucia had just reached the top floor from Arthur's elevator, and the moment the elevator door opened, she saw Arthur waiting in front of the door.

Today, the suit that Lucia wore was still carefully selected by Arthur. Both of them were dressed in a dark blue with black pinstripes, which visually elongated the already outstanding two people. When they stood together, there was no need to deliberately exude aura, and the surroundings were already in a state where no one dared to approach them for 100 meters.

Kyle, who was shivering from the assistant seat, wailed in his heart and begged them to stop displaying affection in public. He had enough...

“Mr. Davies, the news of your company spreads very fast.” After stepping out of the elevator, Lucia teased him mischievously and put her hand in Arthur’s.
