

She is a ceo Chapter 432

“Yeah,” Kane replied with a nod, “Poppy spent her last days there, and that’s where...I want to keep it.”

“Sometimes keeping is a kind of worry.” Lucia deliberately brought Kane to the bar by herself, just to enlighten him. After all, he really loved Poppy before.

“Don’t you also have Poppy’s necklace?” Kane asked Lucia with a wry smile. He and she were not people who can easily let go.

Lucia lowered her eyes, replied “um” in a low voice, and then said, “It’s just that the place is so special. I’m afraid you can’t help but go back and look.”

Looking once, being sad once.

Lucia was doing good for Kane too.

“Not now. After Jacob is arrested and punished, I will dare to go back there with peace of mind.” Kane said solemnly.

“Don’t worry. Jacob can’t escape. Since Spencer dares to help him escape, he will definitely be used in the future. He can’t live without showing up.” Lucia said affirmatively.

“I hope so.” Kane could only believe that.

“What are you two whispering about?” Juliana asked curiously after finding that Lucia and Kane went to the bar alone in the living room.

“Nothing. It’s just a chat.” Lucia chuckled, put away the grief from missing of Poppy, and walked over with a smile.

Back in the living room, Arthur stood up and put his arms around Lucia’s waist, whispering in her ear, “Don’t worry. Jacob won’t be free and unfettered for long.”

Lucia moved her head on his shoulder. It turned out that he knew everything.

The next day, Kane and Lucia came to the Webbex Group together. Lucia read out Kane’s appointment letter at the high-level meeting, and told everyone to actively cooperate with Kane. Everyone nodded in agreement, but after the meeting, someone still found Lucia and expressed the doubts.

It was well known that Kane and Poppy had a very close relation, so people reminded Lucia whether it was wise to make this decision. But Lucia expressed her trust in Kane by rejecting the public opinion, which suppressed the discussion.

The reputation of Webbex Group had gradually recovered, and many old partners had returned to cooperate with it. And of course, there were new partners among them.

On this day, Webbex Group received a cooperation invitation from a company requesting a guarantee. Because of the huge amount, after receiving, the department directly submitted the case to Lucia for review.

The company requesting guarantee was a leather manufacturing factory in the city. Because of the recent difficulty in turnover, it needed a large amount of financial support. Its own benefits were good. Lucia took over the case after learning about it.

There were not many companies in the city that can lend nearly 30 million dollars at a time. Lucia asked Nia to sort out the documents. Nia worked overtime after receiving the task, and did not force the work on Daphne. She completed the sorting work by herself.

The next day, Nia handed over the documents to Lucia for review.

After Lucia reviewed the documents, she marked the top company and said to Nia, “Just this company, I’ll go over and talk to their president this afternoon. You can sort out the details of this company and give them to me.”

“Okay.” Nia breathed a sigh of relief in her heart, and immediately exited Lucia’s office after taking the documents.

Back at the seat, Nia stared at the company name marked by Lucia for a long time, but in the end she made up her mind and started to organize company documents for Lucia.

In the afternoon, Lucia checked the company documents submitted by Nia, and after understanding its situation, she brought the department manager in charge of the case and the assistant to this multinational company, whose name was Luxwell Investment.

After Lucia left, Nia sent Lennie a message on her phone.

“Lucia has set out.”

Lucia and several people came to the lobby of Luxwell Investment. They were warmly received by the front desk just after the assistant reported the company name. There was almost no obstacle, and the three came to the president’s office smoothly.

Before entering the office, Lucia revisited the information about this company that she had checked in her heart. This Luxwell Investment had just been established, but it had a strong force behind it. As soon as it entered the market, it quietly occupied the top ten in the financial industry. It was extremely low-key, and even the establishment of the company was carried out quietly, unlike Spencer’s Cloudwork Corp. There were not many reports about it in the market.

Lucia had suspected that Nia had compiled the information wrong before, but after reviewing its information, she also felt that this was the best partner to work with.

Luxwell's assistant to the president opened the door of the office. Lucia walked in with the manager and his assistant. As soon as they entered the door, she saw that the office was unpretentious. Even for a president's office, it could be called simple. But Lucia can see at a glance that the furniture in the office was all from luxury brands, and it seemed that the president was a luxurious and simple person.

With this knowledge, Lucia was looking forward to getting to know this President of Luxwell.

"Ms. Webb, please sit down for a while. Our president is doing department inspections. He will be back in ten minutes." The assistant asked Lucia and the others to sit down, and politely served tea.

"Okay, thank you." Lucia responded gracefully.

The tea was fragrant and smelled good. Less than ten minutes, the door of the office was pushed open. Lucia stood up and looked at the door, and found a young man with a good appearance who came in. She raised her eyebrows slightly. Lucia thought that the president would be a mature and stable elder, but the man she saw now was more like a student who had just graduated from a university.

"Are you Ms. Webb?" The man immediately greeted Lucia when he saw Lucia, and said apologetically, "Sorry for keeping you waiting."

The man's voice was bright and his face was warm. Lucia smiled and shook hands with him, and said softly, "It's okay. We just arrived. May I ask you to be Mr. Gallagher, the president of Luxwell?"

"It's me. Nice to meet you." Mr. Gallagher's whose full name was Monty Gallagher, and he responded with a smile.

Lucia spoke politely to Monty, but when she tried to withdraw her hand, she found that the he didn't want to let go. She looked into Monty's eyes suspiciously, and found that his eyes were full of smiles, without a trace of embarrassment or lewdness and obscenity. Lucia was even more puzzled.

Why did he keep holding her hand?

Monty could see the doubt in Lucia's eyes, but he still held Lucia's hand in his own way, seemingly unaware that such a handshake was beyond the limit of politeness.