

She is a ceo Chapter 438

“Of course, I will always be with you,” Esmæ agreed while holding Theodore into her arms.

Juliana seemed to be really anxious to experience a new life. In less than three days, she found a house she liked, and the structure was a duplex. The upper and lower floors were one set, and there were four households on each two floors. Juliana liked such exquisite buildings very much. And there were schools and supermarkets around. She had learned to take the convenience of life into account.

After seeing it, Juliana didn't look for Arthur, but called Lucia to see if she could accompany her to make the final decision.

When Juliana called, Lucia had just settled on Luxwell's case, so she took time to go with her.

It was the first time for Juliana to go out alone with Lucia, and she was still a little uneasy. Because of the previous misunderstanding, she missed the opportunity to become friends with her. Of course, now they got along very well, but Juliana always felt that something was missing. It was like it lacked of some kind of pure originality.

She wanted to get her original intention back.

The house that Juliana took a fancy to was called Humblecreek Residence. This afternoon, she brought Lucia to the house that she loved.

“Lucia, what do you think of this house? It faces south. Thorough in all directions, and it has two floors, so there is plenty of space. You won't be afraid that children will have no place to play.” Juliana asked Lucia excitedly as she introduced it.

Lucia's eyes were soft and she was smiling. Although Juliana was standing in the still rough living room, she seemed to be able to see how the house was renovated. The baby was able to run and walk, and the husband and child were with her happily.

“Well, it’s very good here. The most important thing is that the three of you can be together.” Lucia was really envious when she said this.

Whenever she saw Juliana holding her baby, she thought of her baby Teddy.

Juliana seemed to be touched by this sentence. She lowered her eyes slightly, and her emotions were no longer as excited as before.

“What’s the matter?” Lucia, sensitively aware of the change in Juliana’s mood, approached her and asked.

“It’s nothing,” Juliana said, keeping her eyes on the floor and not looking Lucia’s eyes,

“I just feel a little guilty. I’ve done so many things that I’m sorry for you, but I was the first to get lucky. You, Arthur, and Teddy have to face so many obstacles to be together...”

Lucia didn’t expect Juliana to have such a thought. She couldn’t help laughing. Juliana raised her eyes and stared at her, not knowing why.

“Julia, your luck is yours. My ordeal is mine. You don’t have to feel guilty because you are happy, and I won’t be jealous or resentful because I need to face all kinds of difficulties,” Lucia said, reaching out and gently taking Juliana’s hand.

“Don’t think about the past. Don’t people have to look forward? I know that you have no hostility to me at all. It’s a coincidence. You can’t change it. In the future, you can treat me better, won’t you?”

After speaking, Lucia winked at Juliana, and even Juliana couldn’t help but be moved by that playful look.

“Well, I will definitely treat you very well. If Arthur dares to bully you, tell me, and I will beat him!”
Juliana held Lucia’s hand and said excitedly.

Lucia couldn’t help laughing and said, “If he really dares to bully me, I could beat him up myself.”

Juliana was overjoyed when she heard this. She knew that Lucia really had that ability. The two beautiful women laughed together, and some difficulties in their hearts could really be relieved like this.

Later, during the viewing of the house, Lucia and Juliana had to complain about their respective men. They chatted happily all afternoon, and their relation improved a lot. After seeing the house, they went to have coffee together. They had an appointment to drink and go shopping, because Juliana hadn’t gone out for a long time. And she didn’t expect to meet someone who made their mood bad in an instant.

On the pavement, Spencer followed Samuel. The two were talking while walking towards Lucia. Spencer looked up to meet them.

Samuel’s complexion at this time was amazing.

Lucia glared at Samuel coldly, while Juliana took her arm and stared at Spencer.

Samuel didn’t dare to look at Lucia, and ducked behind Spencer with a guilty conscience. Now he really wanted to find a place to hide himself.

Lucia turned a blind eye to Spencer, but not to Samuel. She took Juliana to meet them directly, and asked directly after,

“Samuel, if I remember correctly, you should be an employee of Webbex Group. What are you doing behind him of other company? And it’s working time. Are you going to the mall to go shopping?”

Samuel’s face was pale. He glanced at Spencer, and seeing that he was just looking at Lucia with a faint smile, he could hardened himself and answer,

“Ms. Webb, this is the client...”

“Client, bullshit!” Lucia swore directly. Did Samuel really think she was a fool? At the beginning, she was afraid that Spencer still had the right to manage Jacob’s shares. She had temporarily let go of the subordinate who followed him. Later, because she went abroad, she even forgot the existence of this villain. She didn’t expect him to confront today

“Send me a resignation report, and make up the money you owe Daphne when you get paid.”

“Ms. Webb, I didn’t do anything wrong either...” Samuel pretended to be pitiful in his defense. In fact, he felt fortunate in his heart. He wanted to leave for Spencer’s company for a long time, but Spencer kept silent. Today’s incident was his wish.

Lucia glared at Samuel as soon as he spoke. Spencer spoke,

“Lucia, Samuel is really talking about business with me. You’re blaming him wrongly.” As long as he was a useful agent, one who can stay with Lucia, Spencer spoke for Samuel. If he was fired, who will be in the future to report Lucia’s movements to him from time to time?

“Talking about business?” Lucia snorted coldly, with her eyes finally squinting at Spencer, “Is it about what I do every day?”

“Isn’t it the right thing to care about my fiancée?” Spencer admitted Lucia’s question boldly.

“Who’s your fiancée! Spencer, don’t be self-sentimental!” Hearing Spencer’s words, Juliana scolded excitedly before Lucia uttered a word. This man used her before, and now she hated him!
