

She is a ceo Chapter 451

“Do you suspect my motives based on this alone?” Spencer said helplessly, “My dad and I came back after hearing about it from relatives. We didn’t think much about it at all. My dad’s feet have been hurting for a few days. Hearing this news, he set off immediately. It’s really inhuman to say that.”

“Then treat me like I don’t understand human feelings.” Lucia’s words stopped Spencer to continue speaking.

And Arthur couldn’t take it any longer. He held Lucia’s hand, turned his head and said coldly to Spencer,

“Spencer, are you pretending I don’t exist?”

Spencer raised his eyebrows, and even deliberately “cooperated”, “Arthur, so you’ve been here all the time?”

“You!” In terms of sarcasm, Arthur was indeed inferior to Spencer.

“Arthur, ignore him.” Seeing Arthur getting angry, Lucia immediately comforted him. Although he was the one who told her to control her emotions every time, it seemed that he was the one who got angry every time. Lucia understood that he was for her.

“Yeah, Arthur, better ignore me. I’m here to help Lucia and Teddy. It has nothing to do with you.” Spencer continued to fan the flames without giving up. He wanted to see how long Arthur could endure.

Arthur stopped as soon as he heard this, and a pair of eagle eyes burst out with fiery flames, rolling straight towards Spencer. Lucia stopped him when she saw this and leaned herself into Arthur’s arms to calm him down.

“Arthur, don’t be angry. You know he’s trying to provoke you on purpose.” Lucia reassured Arthur, hugging Arthur’s waist. Arthur had always been calm and proud when dealing with people and things, but not for Spencer, because he coveted his woman!

“Yeah.” Arthur nodded in response, tried to suppress his anger, and knew that Spencer had bad intentions.

Seeing that he failed to anger Arthur, Spencer compressed his lips and felt it dull, staring coldly at Lucia’s hand around Arthur’s waist, and hiding his jealousy in his heart.

At this time, a group of people just came to the lobby. Edwin turned around and told Arthur to hurry up, just to rescue them from the siege.

Lucia took the opportunity to pull Arthur forward, and immediately distanced them from Spencer, but she could still feel the fiery gaze on her from behind. Lucia couldn’t help but glance back, frowning immediately.

She saw Spencer leisurely walking behind them, with a calm smile on his face, which made Lucia even more uneasy.

What exactly did Spencer intend to do?

Could it be that he already knew that he and Teddy could match successfully, so he came back to use this as a threat?

Lucia couldn’t help but guess.

But when they got to the hospital and found the head of the laboratory department that Erik knew to draw blood for the two, the answer was disappointing. Erik and Spencer did not match Theodore’s blood type.

Lucia guessed it wrong.

Because they had to wait for the test results, the group waited in the hospital for nearly two hours, which was obviously disappointing.

“Edwin, I’m sorry. We can’t help either.” Erik said to Edwin with a look of sadness, putting down his rolled up sleeves.

“We can’t do about it.” Although Edwin doubted their intention, of course he hoped that the match would be successful, so he couldn’t hide his disappointment.

On the side, Spencer took the opportunity to come to Lucia and whispered, “Lucia, do you still suspect that my motive is not pure?”

What Spencer said was that if he really had a purpose, it should confirm that he could match successfully. Now that it failed, it meant that he and his father were really just rushing back to help Teddy.

Even so, Lucia still didn’t believe him. She gave him a cold look and said, “Even if you really just wanted to help Teddy, I wouldn’t be grateful to you.”

“It’s ruthless...” Spencer didn’t seem to be embarrassed by Lucia’s words, but chuckled.

Seeing the smile on Spencer’s face made Lucia really want to throw up, especially when he was so worried and his face was disgusting.

As soon as Arthur found Spencer approaching Lucia, he immediately pulled his woman into his arms, silently but firmly surrounding Lucia in his shelter and separating them.

Being blocked by Arthur from seeing Lucia, Spencer slowly raised his head to look at Arthur. His eyes were as gloomy as a ghost's.

Arthur was naturally unafraid, looking back at Spencer coldly.

They were in a battle, and Edwin had to continue to talk politely to Erik. After all, they really came for blood test, even if there was no successful match in the end.

Erik took this opportunity to propose to Edwin to return to the USA together tomorrow. They also wanted to visit Theodore. Edwin had no reason to refuse, so he could only agree, and he couldn't deliberately leave.

Sophie felt very uncomfortable when she heard Erik's suggestion. She always felt that Erik was building a bridge for Spencer to contact Lucia, but seeing that Arthur was always by Lucia's side, Sophie didn't object, or it was not impossible to decline with her means of communication.

After returning from the hospital, the group went back to their rooms. Lucia and Arthur were both unhappy when they learned that they were going to be with Erik and Spencer, but they also knew that it was hard to reject.

Lying in bed late at night, Lucia and Arthur couldn't sleep. These days, they slept very little. Every time they fell into sleep because they were too tired to support their bodies, but their mental stress didn't stop for a moment.

"Lucia, I always thought Spencer has another purpose," Arthur whispered, burying his face in her hair and wrapping around Lucia's waist.

"You're right. We all know that our relation is tense. And Erik made a request to go with them, obviously with bad intentions." Lucia leaned her back into Arthur's arms and answered him softly.

“Teddy’s thing hasn’t been decided yet, and they’re here to disrupt. It’s really hard for me to calm down.” Arthur admitted that he was out of control, and if it wasn’t for Lucia by his side, he was afraid he would really collapse.

Hearing Arthur say that, Lucia rolled over to face him, kissed him on his chin, and said,

“Arthur, we will have to face Esmee after returning to USA. I know you are in a difficult situation, but I hope you can deal with it calmly. After all, at this time, Teddy is the most important person.”

“I’ll try my best.” Arthur didn’t choose to say something perfunctory to Lucia, but spoke his thoughts calmly. He could stay sane without Spencer. But with Esmee, Erik and Spencer, it was difficult for him to guarantee that he would not lose control.
