

She is a ceo Chapter 462

The second reason was that Esmæ's confidence in front of Lucia made Arthur very suspicious, as if... she knew that Theodore must be saved. Obviously each of them knew that finding a match was a matter of looking for a needle in a haystack. Was she just trying to comfort Lucia so showing that confidence?

The third reason was Esmæ didn't show up in the hospital for four days in a row. It stood to reason that even if she hated seeing the Davis family, she shouldn't ignore Theodore at all.

It was suspicious, really suspicious. Arthur had a natural sensitivity to the logical development of things. Esmæ's actions didn't match the logic, and he cared so much.

However, Arthur was only thinking about it in his heart, and he wouldn't say it to bother Lucia any more.

Esmæ left after comforting Lucia, and took Helena with her by the way. It seemed that she didn't want to be in the same room with the Davis family. But just after leaving the ward, Helena saw Esmæ immediately take out her mobile phone and call. She didn't say much, just said one sentence,

"Come see me right now."

Helena looked suspiciously at her mother, wondering whom she was looking for.

After returning home in the afternoon, Helena saw Spencer, who had been waiting in the living room for a long time, and only then did she know that the person her mother was looking for was him!

Helena didn't like Spencer in the first place. Although she knew that her mother had a cooperative relationship with him, she still thought it would be better to have less contact with him. So, she went back to her room without paying attention to anything. She was anxious to go back and contact Otis for information.

“Come with me to the study.” Seeing Helena go upstairs, Esmæ said so and walked towards the study first, with Spencer naturally obediently following behind.

When they went to the study and the door was closed, Esmæ said to Spencer as soon as she sat down, “Speed up. Teddy’s condition has begun to deteriorate.”

“Is Lucia sad right now?” Spencer asked nonsensically.

“Bullshit!” Esmæ scolded him in displeasure.

Spencer smiled indifferently, with a hint of slyness, and said, “The time is right now.”

“I don’t care what you plan is. In short, Teddy can’t miss the best time for treatment!” Esmæ said coldly and disdained Spencer’s smile in her heart.

“Yes, I’ll do it now!” Spencer assured Esmæ with excitement in his words.

Theodore slept until the afternoon, and when he woke up, the window was already dyed with the color of the setting sun. He opened his eyes and asked his mother in a daze how long he had slept.

“Not long,” Lucia said softly, touching Theodore’s soft hair, “Does your foot still hurt?”

“It doesn’t hurt as much,” Theodore replied, turning to look at Arthur. “Dad, if I fall asleep again, you can’t make Mommy cry anymore. Her eyes are swollen.”

It turned out that after seeing Lucia’s red and swollen eyes, little Teddy felt distressed.

Arthur softened and nodded immediately, "I know. I will protect Mommy."

"Okay, then I can rest assured." Theodore nodded with a smile. His pale face was bloodless, but the smile was the most beautiful, because it was full of love and distress for his mother.

Hearing this, Lucia held back her tears and smoothed Theodore's hair, hoping that the god of luck would bless this sensible child.

Lucia and Arthur completely gave up their business in order to take care of Theodore. Lucia naturally didn't know now the Webbex Group had been in trouble.

After Lucia left Athegate, Monty suddenly approached Noah of Webbex Group and asked them how they estimated their assets. Noah looked puzzled at that time. After further questioning, he found out that Monty questioned their wrong appraisal of the assets of the tannery, and the assets of the tannery could not meet the qualification of the loan amount. Once the payment could not be paid, even selling all of the factory could not offset Luxwell's losses.

"It's impossible," Noah responded immediately, "This case was estimated by me, and the amount will never go wrong. You must have misunderstood, Mr. Gallagher."

"Are you questioning my character?" Monty asked Noah coldly.

"I don't dare," Noah said politely and immediately. "I just think there is some misunderstanding. Now that Ms. Webb is not here, it's not easy for us to make a decision."

"What? Ms. Webb isn't at the company? Where has she been?" Monty's attitude changed as soon as he heard Lucia's name.

"Ms. Webb has been away for two days because of personal matters. We don't know where she went." Noah replied.

“You call her right away. I’m going to have a face-to-face talk with her!” Monty demanded.

“Okay, I’ll try to contact her right away.” Noah agreed immediately, but after he dialed Lucia’s phone, he found that it was connected. How could he know that Lucia was anxiously waiting for Davies’ family test of blood, and had no time to take care of others.

“Sorry, Ms. Webb doesn’t answer the phone.” Noah finally said to Monty helplessly.

“Okay, then you can bear the consequences of this incident yourself!” Monty said harshly and left.

After returning to the company, Monty talked to Lennie about Lucia leaving the company. Lennie thought for a while and said unhappily,

“Arthur isn’t at the company now, so they probably went on vacation together...”

“It’s not surprising,” Monty said. “Isn’t it normal for people to be in a relationship right now and take a vacation?”

There seemed to be jealousy in Monty’s words, and his words managed to make Lennie’s displeasure to the extreme.

“Don’t let this case go off. I’m going to make Lucia panic.”

“Why are you making it so difficult for her...” Monty spoke for Lucia for the first time.

A glint flashed in Lennie’s eyes. He glared at Monty, and said solemnly, “Why? Do you have a crush on her?”

“Can’t you?” Monty sneered. “It’s hard not to be attracted to such a woman.”

“Be careful with your action,” Lennie warned.

“I know. She doesn’t like me. She only likes mature men like Arthur.” Monty smiled slyly and mentioned Arthur deliberately.

Lennie frowned, but kept her temper under control. Monty had been with him since he was a kid, like his younger brother. Of course he knew he just wanted to tease him.

But only love Arthur?

There was a smile on Lennie’s face. That was not necessary.

Time can erase everything, as long as they didn’t meet again!

It’d been a week since Lucia left. Daphne had no news from her. Although she worked very hard every day, she still occasionally got distracted, thinking about what Lucia was doing.

Mainly because Lucia left so suddenly, she didn’t even call her.
