

She is a ceo Chapter 463

When back home in the evening, Daphne asked Eduard again if he had any news about Lucia, and Eduard was also very impatient.

"I always thought something was wrong. Lucia and Arthur couldn't be missing at the same time and couldn't get in touch. There must be something so big that they couldn't take care of other things."

"Eduard, is there any way we can get in touch with them?" Daphne asked anxiously, grabbing Eduard's arm.

"Yes! Kane and Juliana must know it!" Eduard finally remembered them, and Daphne immediately begged him to find Kane and Juliana together. Eduard checked that it was not too late, so the two went out to Fragnererde Hall together.

It was already eight o'clock in the evening when they arrived at Fragnererde Hall. Eduard and Daphne knocked on the door of the villa. Kane and Juliana were indeed at home.

"Kane, do you know the whereabouts of Lucia and Arthur?" Eduard asked straight to the point as soon as he entered the door, even omitting polite words.

"I'm looking for them too," Kane took Eduard and Daphne into the living room, where Juliana was sitting on the sofa with the baby. After they sat down, he continued,

"But I couldn't get in touch with them. Julia said that Arthur's parents came here some time ago, and they deliberately drove her away. She didn't know what they said. When Julia came downstairs, they had already left.."

"Just left?" Eduard asked suspiciously, "They didn't even say anything?"

“Yes,” Juliana nodded and replied,

“I asked the butler, and he said he didn’t know what was urgent. I didn’t care, but on the third day, Lucia and Arthur hadn’t come back. I wondered if they were going back to USA together, so I called. And a servant at New York mansion said they didn’t go back either...”

Eduard and Daphne frowned deeply and worried.

“They... won’t anything happen?” Eduard said uneasily. The speculation made Daphne even more anxious.

“Eduard, don’t talk nonsense!” Daphne was afraid of Eduard’s guess.

“Daphne, don’t worry. They may only encounter something major, and there is no problem with their personal safety. The Davis family is not a family that ordinary people can threaten. The reason why I am worried is that I just don’t know what happened to them.” Juliana, who knew the Davis family well, reassured Daphne.

“It must be serious,” Kane analyzed while rubbing his chin,

“Recently, a company is looking for trouble with us. Noah came forward to withstand the pressure, but the other party was still persistent, so the company’s top management has been contacting Lucia. Lucia values the company so much. If there is no serious matter, she will definitely not to call back.”

“Yes!” Daphne agreed immediately, “Even if Lucia doesn’t contact other high-level executives, Nia and I are her assistants, and she will always contact us.”

“Is there any way to find out what’s going on now?” Eduard listened to their analysis. Although he was no longer worried about the safety of Lucia and Arthur, he was still worried about what happened to them.

Juliana thought for a while, waved her hand to the three to lean towards her, and then whispered,

“I doubt Peter know it. Peter is with my uncle before we were born. When Arthur, Otis and Bailey came back to develop, uncle arranged each of them a man he trusted. So Peter knows it for sure. He just didn’t tell us.”

“Did he hide it on purpose or didn’t feel the need to say it?” Kane frowned.

“Of course it was deliberately concealed,” Juliana immediately retorted, “There is no news of them suddenly. How can it be unnecessary to say such a big thing?”

“But Peter won’t speak... what can we do?” Eduard asked.

“Coercion and temptation!” Juliana raised her brows and said seriously.

“Huh?” The three looked stunned.

After a while, when they saw Juliana and Peter talking, they realized what “coercion” meant.

“Peter, will you tell me what happened to Arthur? If you don’t tell me, I will move out immediately, live on the side of the road, and wander with the baby. Arthur will definitely not let you go off when he comes back. !” Juliana hurriedly threatened Peter.

Not only Peter, but also Kane and the others felt dumbfounded. Juliana’s threat was too baseless.

Peter smiled and said, “Miss Julia, I know you’re worried about them. I can tell you they’re absolutely safe, but I can’t say much else.”

As soon as Juliana heard this, she immediately caught the loophole in Peter's words and asked, "What else?!"

Peter's face looked awkward.

Seeing this, Kane stepped forward and said sincerely to Peter, "Peter, we are really worried about Lucia and the others. Although we know that there will be no problems with their safety, but what happened to them, we as friends are equally concerned. Please tell us. Even if it can't be of any help, we want to know."

Seeing that Kane was speaking so sincerely, there was a hint of hesitation in Peter's eyes, and Juliana immediately begged him after realizing it,

"Peter, please tell us. We're really worried."

Peter was softened by Juliana's begging, and after a moment of hesitation, he sighed and said,

"Hey, Arthur is just worried that you will be anxious, so he specifically told me not to reveal it. Maybe he didn't consider that you would be more worried, so I'll tell you..."

"Speak quickly..." Juliana urged impatiently when even Eduard and Daphne came over, waiting for Peter's answer.

"Actually," Peter's expression slowly dimmed, and he whispered, "It's for Teddy."

"What?!" The four exclaimed in shock at the same time.

“Peter, what’s wrong with Teddy?!” Eduard was so excited he wanted to grab Peter by the collar and asked him.

“This time, Mr. and Mrs. Davies came back to tell Arthur and Lucia that Teddy is sick, but I don’t know the specific symptoms, only know that it is very serious.”

“What happened to this...” Kane frowned, finally knowing why Lucia and Arthur had no news. Lucia regarded Theodore as a treasure. If Theodore was seriously ill, no matter how important other things were, she will also ignore it.
