

She is a ceo Chapter 465

“Do as I told you to!” Lennie looked serious, and after a scolding, Monty slowly walked into the lounge and took out his personal phone for him.

Thinking for a while, Lennie turned on the phone.

On the same day, Lucia and Arthur received an accurate report of Theodore’s condition from the doctor. Theodore’s condition continued to deteriorate, and the drug treatment had no effect. Although the lymphoma cells had not transformed into cancer cells, the doctor also recommended the use of Chemotherapy to prevent further fission of tumor cells.

As if being struck by lightning, Lucia heard the news. Theodore was still so young, and the foot ulcers made him so painful. Radiation chemotherapy was a hundred times more serious than this, and even had an irreversible effect on the development of the body. Teddy was not yet six years old. How can he bear it in the future?

Holding the report and leaning against the wall, Lucia’s face was paler than the wall.

Arthur was also in pain, but he respected the doctor’s advice and said to Lucia, “Lucia, let Teddy do chemotherapy.”

“But...” Lucia was reluctant to let her son suffer. Her brows were filled with grief, and she wanted to express the sorrow in her heart.

Arthur was more rational, but he also understood why the emotional Lucia hesitated, and finally he said, “Well, let’s think about it for another afternoon. When you make up your mind, let’s talk to the doctor.”

“Arthur, thank you...” Lucia thanked Arthur softly with wet eyes. She knew that Arthur was willing to cooperate with the doctor’s treatment, and the reason why she said this was because of her own feelings.

“No problem.” Arthur pulled Lucia into his arms in a heartache and continued, “I’ll go to the database and wait for the staff to keep refreshing to see if a miracle will happen.”

“Arthur, thank you.” Lucia wanted to go too, but she knew she didn’t have the energy to wait.

At this time, Theodore had just fallen asleep because of the effect of the tranquilizer. Since it was not yet noon, Lucia was alone in the ward. She was sitting on the edge of the hospital bed holding Theodore’s hand, and she did not want to look away from him for a second. At this moment, someone lightly stroked her arm. Lucia thought it was Arthur, so she didn’t look back, and asked in a low voice,

“Arthur, why are you back?”

The person behind her didn’t say a word. Lucia turned around abruptly and saw Spencer standing behind her with a faint smile on his face!

“Spencer!” The voice became uncontrollable. Lucia shook Spencer’s hand from her arm, stood up and asked unhappily,

“What are you doing here?!”

Spencer didn’t care about Lucia’s rejection. He gave Theodore a concerned look and said, “Is Teddy awake?”

“It has nothing to do with you!” This man didn’t care about his son at all. Lucia felt that he was disgustingly hypocritical now!

“Of course it has something to do with me,” Spencer’s smile continued. Not caring how cruel his smile was in front of Lucia at this time, he continued,

“There just happens to be no one right now. Let’s find a quiet place to talk?”

“I don’t want to talk to you!” Lucia refused without hesitation.

“Wouldn’t you like it even if it has something to do with Teddy?” Spencer asked Lucia with an unintelligible smile on his face.

Lucia’s eyes flashed, and she finally looked at Spencer and asked coldly, “What do you mean by that?”

“Come with me and I’ll tell you.” Spencer said with a smile.

Lucia narrowed her eyes. Of course she didn’t want to have a private conversation with Spencer, but he mentioned Teddy. Could it be that there was anything he could do to help Teddy?

Even knowing that the danger was ahead, Lucia raised her head and said to Spencer, “Lead the way.”

With a smile on Spencer’s face, he took the lead to walk towards the door. When he was about to leave, he saw Lucia stop and look back at Theodore, and Spencer was even more confident.

Spencer took Lucia to the corner of the atrium on the first floor of the hospital. At this time, there were many patients or family members sitting nearby, but Spencer didn’t care anyway. No one could understand what they were talking.

“Just say it if you have something to say!” Seeing Spencer standing still, she urged impatiently. Although she knew that it was okay for Teddy to stay in the ward alone, she was still very worried if he suddenly woke up.

“Lucia, do you love Teddy very much?” The conversation had already started, but facing the impatient Lucia, Spencer still asked a seemingly idiotic, but very meaningful question.

“Nonsense.” Lucia scolded coldly.

“In other words, in order to save him, you can do anything, right?” Spencer smiled and continued to follow his own steps.

Hearing this, Lucia had already sensed Spencer’s intention, and she asked directly, “Do you have a way to save Teddy?”

“Lucia, you’re smart enough to get it right,” Spencer said with a smile. “Before I start talking to you formally, I want to show you a report.”

When Spencer said this, Lucia realized that he had been holding a folder, and she asked suspiciously, “What report?”

“You’ll know it after you read it.” Spencer handed the document to Lucia as he spoke with a smug smile.

Lucia took the file after hesitating for a moment, glanced up at Spencer, and slowly opened it.

At this time, the breeze was blowing, and occasionally there would be a breath of disinfectant. The sky was as blue as the sea, and occasionally birds and beasts flew by. The whole world was quiet when Lucia was flipping through the documents.

Few minutes later, Lucia finished reading the report. The air was stagnant for a few seconds. Suddenly she frowned, raised her hand, and threw the report to Spencer’s face without hesitation, cursing,

“Spencer ! You pathetic villain!”

The report fell on his face, but Spencer's smile remained unchanged. He quickly caught the falling report and said with a smile,

"It's not that I can't help you. Look, didn't I tell you that I'm the one who can save Teddy?"

It turned out that it was a matching report, and every test result above proved that Spencer was the best donor for Theodore's marrow replacement. With the contents of the report, he not only tested the blood, but also checked all the conditions that needed to be matched. He was undoubtedly Theodore's savior!

But why did Spencer come up with the report only now? It all started a week ago.
