

She is a ceo Chapter 84

Juliana's answer, which seemed to be a refusal, didn't make Poppy confused. Instead, she chuckled and said to Juliana,

"Miss Knight, you are too big-hearted. As I said, Lucia is arrogant and domineering, and extremely autocratic. Do you think it would be better to fall in love with such a person for Arthur?"

Some time ago, they had a quarrel. Arthur drove to her company every day and waited for her to change her attitude. In the end, due to the argument, Arthur had a car accident and was admitted to the hospital. Don't you care about this?"

"What? Arthur was in a car accident?!" Hearing this, Juliana's indifferent attitude finally changed a bit.

Poppy found the right chance, was secretly proud of herself, and said with anger,

"That's right, and it was the day after she privately asked Jacob to meet her. I guess Arthur knew the news from the report, so he asked her about it. How could she recognize that? And then Arthur was in a car accident on the road, so there must be a connection."

Juliana frowned upon hearing this. If she could not interfere Arthur's own romantic choice, and the woman ignored Arthur's safety and had a bad influence on him, then she couldn't just sit back and let it continue like this.

Thinking of this, Juliana suddenly remembered Arthur's weirdness at Christmas. When the family was reunited, everyone was happy and the one who could affect his mood was probably Lucia.

Although there was a certain plan in her heart, Juliana didn't show it immediately. She was just frowning and staring, which made Poppy feel she was about to win.

But Kane, who had been sitting silently beside them, was very aware of Juliana's doubts, so he said suddenly,

"Julia, I know you still have doubts in your heart, especially when Poppy asked you to persuade Arthur. In fact, there are reasons for this."

When Poppy heard Kane's words, she glared at him immediately. Why did he say so?! Especially the purpose of asking Juliana to come here!

Juliana, on the other hand, looked at Kane, waiting for his explanation.

"You also know the strength of Branch of Davonnis. I believe that few people in the country can shake its status. Arthur is even more wise. If he wants to defend a person, or even help her, we have little chance of winning."

Juliana nodded in agreement, not to mention that Arthur who was in charge of Branch of Davonnis was unshakable. Even if this strength really threatened the branch, with the entire Davonnis Corp empire behind him, the opponent really had no chance of winning.

"Now Poppy has married Jacob as he wished, and the two are now living happily. Through Jacob's further development, Webbex Group has also become one of the few large companies in the country, now known as JTP Group.

Lucia suddenly appeared in Athegate last year. No matter what her purpose is, it is a huge threat to JTP Group, to Poppy and Jacob. You can say we are selfish, but we cannot be without any sense of crisis."

Seeing that Juliana agreed with him, he continued,

“Lucia has Arthur’s protection now, and can really do whatever she wants in Athegate.” Juliana still believed in Arthur’s own strength.

“That’s right, not to mention she has a close relationship with Eduard, the president of Jibillion Inc. If she really wants to do something with the JTP Group, it’s hard for us to resist. If Lucia is pure in nature and her relationship with Arthur is serious, then we can’t interfere.

But so far, it seems that things are far from simple. She can influence Arthur, let him publicly admit her identity as his real girlfriend, and let him publicly refute the media for her affair back then. Even so, then forget it. What she wants to say is her freedom.

But now she is clearly with Arthur, why did she meet Jacob in private? And she was photographed by reporters. It wasn’t that we framed her without grounds. All of this shows that she has great ambitions for JTP Group and Arthur.”

Kane’s words made Juliana frown in thought.

Indeed, with his words, Lucia’s intentions were indeed not pure. Poppy finally understood Kane’s intentions when she heard these words, and nodded her head.

Kane added, “If my relationship with Arthur is as deep as yours, I can go to him to analyze the benefits and prevent him from being used by Lucia. But I am not, so we can only find a way to contact you.”

Kane’s bluntness earned Juliana an approving glance, and she did prefer simple and straightforward expressions, even if the other party was selfish.

“If you doubt the authenticity of Poppy’s words, you can check it yourself. Lucia’s personality has long been known in Athegate, and the affair back then cannot be erased. Watching a friend interact with such a woman, I believe you will not sit idly by.”

"I see what you mean." Juliana nodded, finally not just questioning Poppy's words.

"Miss Knight, you can wait to contact me after checking it yourself. But one thing I can assure you, our interests are not conflicting, I hope Lucia loses the support to prevent her from trying to attack our JTP Group, and you are for Arthur." Poppy was stating her purpose directly.

Juliana nodded and said nothing more.

Kane took Juliana out of the room. As soon as they got out of there, Juliana felt refreshed. What she heard tonight made her feel a little dull, and the simple visit had become anything but simple. Kane saw her expression and said to her as he walked,

"Julia, you don't need to have too much burden. You don't need to care too much about Poppy's attitude. Just do what you want."

"Although you said so, you must hope I can help Miss Powell?" Juliana asked Kane with a smile.

"It's the best to be able to do this. After all, we know Arthur's strength, and we also can't do anything to Lucia. We have been attacked by her for many times and has almost no power to fight back. I don't want to see Poppy and Jacob now in a state of beyond redemption because of Lucia's hatred." Kane still answered bluntly.

"I'll take this into consideration. Please let Miss Powell rest assured," Juliana smiled, then turned to stare at Kane seriously and asked, "Kane, are you and Poppy really just friends?"

Juliana was also very sensitive. She always felt that Poppy was not just a friend to Kane.

“Well, we’re friends. When I had a trouble, it was Poppy...and Jacob who helped me,” Kane paused, but added Jacob. In fact, it was Poppy who encouraged him to get out of the mountain village.
