

She Shocks 1001

Chapter 1001: Greedy Persona

Tanoyi stood on the 456th step. Bai Cheng'an was on the 455th step, and Chou Sibao was behind on the 452nd step.

There were a total of 1,004 stairs on the Sky Penetrating Bridge.

The higher they went, the stronger the test for them.

Tanoyi's face was already covered in sweat, and Bai Cheng'an's face had already turned pale from excessive consumption of spiritual power. Bai Cheng'an gritted his teeth and jumped to the 455th step. Then, he turned to smile at Tanoyi weakly and said, "Miss Tanoyi, can you still hold on?"

After Tanoyi wiped the sweat from her forehead, she gritted her teeth and nodded. "I can still hold on," she said.

"Then let's work hard together."

"Yes, okay."

Tanoyi spread her wings and flew up.

Suddenly, Bai Cheng'an, who was beside her, jumped up and kicked Tanoyi's shoulder with his feet. Then, with the spiritual power released from Tanoyi's body, Bai Cheng'an jumped five steps in one go!

"Ah!" Tanoyi was rebounded by Bai Cheng'an's energy and her body bounced back. She left the trajectory of the Sky Penetrating Bridge and fell straight down.

Seeing this, Tanoyi's father roared angrily, "Despicable beastman!"

Tanoyi's father clutched his chest and ran to Tanoyi to catch his daughter.

At that moment, a cloud formed from psychic power accurately caught Tanoyi and carried him to the ground. Tanoyi's father quickly knelt on the ground and hugged his daughter. When he saw his daughter's pale face and the despair in her eyes, his eyes turned red with anger.

"Bai Xi, look at your grandson! He's just like you, despicable and heartless!"

Bai Xi had never been an upright person.

But he didn't expect his grandson to manipulate Tanoyi in front of everyone.

Upon witnessing this with their own eyes, be it the human Grand Masters or the Elven Grand Masters, they all looked at the Beast Clan Grand Masters with disdain. Their expressions seemed to say, "Told you that the Beast Clan is full of traitors."

Bai Xi knew that he was in the wrong. Facing everyone's condemning and mocking gazes, he couldn't help but lower his head.

Mo Xiao seemed to have expected this scene. He shook his head and said in extreme disappointment, "This is the most outstanding young Beast Tamer of the Snake Clan. Talent aside, he's very evil."

Chou Gang and Lie Huo reacted calmly.

After all, the one who was embarrassed was Bai Cheng'an of the Snake Clan, not their child.

At this moment, Chou Sibao also felt exhausted.

He had already reached the 499th step. If he jumped another step, he would be halfway there.

Chou Sibao's Supreme Master Realm was accumulated from natural treasures, so at this moment, the spiritual power in his body was almost exhausted.

But Chou Sibao refused to give up.

He gritted his teeth and circulated all his spiritual power to jump up.

However, before his fingers could touch the 500th step, his body suddenly deflated like a balloon and lost all his energy. "Ah! Daddy, save me!" Chou Sibao shouted as he fell.

Chou Gang was disappointed to see his son fail just like that.

Seeing his son fall, he was worried that his son would get injured, so he ignored the wound on his chest that had yet to heal and quickly ran in the direction where his son had fallen. At this moment, Lin Jiansheng used his psychic power to catch Chou Sibao.

When Chou Sibao landed, he hugged his father's body tightly and shouted dejectedly, "Daddy, I don't want to go to the Great World anymore. I'm not going! I can't even pass through half of the Sky Penetrating Bridge. Even if I go to the Great World, I'll be a slave!"

In the Beast Clan, useless people became slaves.

Chou Sibao would rather be a young master of the Beast Clan for the rest of his life than be a slave in that exciting and vast Great World.

Chou Gang cursed his son for being useless, but he didn't condemn him.

He looked up at Mo Xiao, who was standing on the stairs, and sighed in resignation. "My son isn't competent enough. We're willing to give up this spot." His son was right. If he wasn't good enough to further his studies, he should not overextend himself to reach the Great World.

Some jade was suitable for carving, but some jade would shatter with a light cut.

His son was a disappointing piece of jade.

Nodding, Mo Xiao carried Ji Linyuan and landed on the hundredth step.

Yu Huang and the others had to jump up the Sky Penetrating Bridge step by step, while Mo Xiao landed on the 100th step in one go. Then, in the blink of an eye, he appeared on the 550th step.

At this moment, Bai Cheng'an was struggling to climb the 549th step.

He finally jumped up. Before he could catch his breath, he looked up and saw Mo Xiao, who was standing above him and looking at him coldly.

Bai Cheng'an was stunned.

Mo Xiao sneered at Bai Cheng'an and said, "The Holy Spirit Continent didn't sacrifice three emperors and a thousand masters to send a heartless beast like you to the Great World!" With that, Mo Xiao kicked the void lightly with his right foot, and a majestic attack power rushed towards Bai Cheng'an.

"Ah!"

Bai Cheng'an suddenly fell.

This time, the psychic cloud that saved people in time didn't appear again.

Bai Cheng'an landed heavily on the ground. When he looked up, he met Tanoyi's hateful gaze.

His lips moved up and down, but he didn't apologize to Tanoyi. He struggled to his feet and said coldly, "The winner takes all."

With that, he limped towards his grandfather, Bai Xi.

At this point, the three youths who had entered the list through special connections had all been eliminated.

At this moment, on the Sky Penetrating Bridge, other than Yu Huang and the others, there was also Mo Xiao, Ji Linyuan, and She Ying, who had already returned to her nascent form.

The Sky Penetrating Bridge could carry 12 people to the Great World.

Logically speaking, there was still one person missing.

At this moment, Mo Xiao, who was standing in the deep sky, suddenly shouted down, "God Ling Xiao, are you willing to follow us to the Great World to take a look?!"

When Lin Jiansheng heard Mo Xiao's words, his eyes widened in shock.

"Really?" Lin Jiansheng pointed his index finger at himself with a shocked expression.

Sheng Lingfeng turned around and looked at Lin Jiansheng, who was halfway up the Black Dome. He said, "God Ling Xiao, there are no Purifying Spirit Masters in the Great World. As a Purifying Spirit God, you can unleash a magical ability that those Beast Tamers in the Great World won't expect. Therefore, we implore you to go to the Great World and take care of these children for us."

How could they be at ease with Sheng Xiao and the others going to the Great World all alone?

Lin Jiansheng hurriedly nodded and said anxiously, "Alright! Alright! I'll go!"

It was Lin Jiansheng's dream to visit the Great World.

Not to mention, he was going with his only personal disciple.

However, it was too sudden, and had yet to collect all the treasures in his house. After Lin Jiansheng flew onto the Sky Penetrating Bridge, he suddenly turned around to shout at Sheng Lingfeng, "Prime Master Lingfeng, we are considered in-laws. When you guys return to Jingdu, remember to go to my house and hide the treasures in my collection! You can't let anyone steal them!"

With that said, Lin Jiansheng waved his hand and flew towards the end of the Sky Penetrating Bridge with the Purifying Spirit Scepter.

When Sheng Lingfeng heard Lin Jiansheng's parting reminder, he was amused.

What a money-grubber!

Chapter 1002: New Journey: From a Small World?

Yu Huang and the others blocked their senses and focused on clearing the level. They didn't know what had happened below.

As a Grand Master, Sheng Xiao was the first to reach the end of the bridge.

Even he felt exhausted. He was so tired that his fingers could barely move. After him, Xiao Shu reached the end, followed by Donor.

At this moment, Yu Huang was still struggling on the 999th step.

At this moment, the spiritual energy in Yu Huang's body was about to be exhausted. Every jump was challenging her limits.

At this height, the Sky Penetrating Bridge had already passed through the atmosphere and dissipation layer above the Holy Spirit Continent. The white stairs floated in the universe without a visible end.

If one fell from here, one would definitely die.

Yu Huang gritted her teeth and jumped again before landing steadily on the 1,000th step.

Sheng Xiao stood at the top and stared at Yu Huang from afar.

He didn't say anything, but his eyes were filled with love and encouragement.

When Yu Huang saw Sheng Xiao's look, she had the illusion that she had gone back in time when Divine Realm Academy had just started school. At that time, as she sat in the school hall, she stole a look at Sheng Xiao, who was sitting in the management seat.

He always looked at her with such encouragement.

However, Yu Huang didn't want Sheng Xiao's encouragement. She wanted to be on par with Sheng Xiao and make him admire her.

If possible, she hoped that Sheng Xiao would look at her with reverence.

Thinking of this, Yu Huang suddenly felt motivated again.

A piece of trash who couldn't even pass the Sky Penetrating Bridge wasn't worthy of Sheng Xiao's admiration.

Yu Huang suddenly jumped and landed on the 1,001th step...

Finally, Yu Huang landed on the last step. Sheng Xiao, Donor, and the others reached out and grabbed her arm. After she stood still, she nodded at them. Then, she looked up at the end of the bridge. Unexpectedly, there was nothing at the end of the bridge.

“This...” Yu Huang frowned slightly and asked in shock, “Why is there no pathway?”

Mo Xiao said, “Not everyone can go to the Great World. You have to see the path that belongs to you before you can go to the Great World you should go to.”

Yu Huang, Sheng Xiao, and the others turned around in shock when they heard Mo Xiao’s voice.

“Godfather!”

“Grand State Master!”

“Why are you here?!”

They were all shocked.

With a smile, Mo Xiao briefly explained what had happened to them.

After finding out, Yu Huang felt overjoyed. “So, Mentor, Godfather, and Eldest Senior Brother will accompany us to the Great World?”

Mo Xiao shook his head and said, “I don’t know if we can go to the same world together.”

“What do you mean?” Sheng Xiao was puzzled.

Mo Xiao said, “Among the three thousand worlds, there are ten super large worlds, a hundred large worlds, and countless small worlds and peripheral worlds. We can’t determine where we go.” Mo Xiao pointed at the void in front of him and said, “Concentrate and calm your mind. Feel with your heart. Whichever path you see next, follow it without hesitation.”

With that, Mo Xiao continued, “When you break through to the Prime Master Realm, you can take the initiative to choose which Great World you want to go to.”

Yu Huang and the others were stunned when they heard this.

“So, we might go to different worlds?” After Yu Huang asked that, she found Sheng Xiao holding her finger silently.

Nodding, Mo Xiao said, “Yes.”

Everyone suddenly fell silent.

They thought that the eight of them could go to the same Great World together and create a legend together in that world.

However, they didn’t even have the right to decide which world to go to.

Upon hearing this, Lin Jiansheng realized that he might not be able to go to the same world as Yu Huang. He suddenly regretted it.

If he had known, he wouldn’t have decided to go.

If he went to a desolate peripheral world, he might as well stay in the Holy Spirit Continent.

At this moment, Yin Rong and the others had also successfully passed the test of the Sky Penetrating Bridge and arrived at their destination.

Realizing that there was no pathway in front of them, Beatrice and the others were stunned. "There's no pathway. How can we move forward?"

Donor conveyed what the Grand State Master had just said to them word for word.

Yin Rong and the others frowned when they heard this.

Yin Rong looked at Xiao Shu with a bitter gaze.

They had just gotten married. Were they going to be separated?

Splash...

The stairs below Yu Huang and the others began to shatter step by step.

Mo Xiao frowned and said, "The power of the Sky Penetrating Array is about to dissipate. Everyone, listen to my orders and immediately calm down. Carefully sense the path that belongs to you!"

Upon hearing this, everyone could no longer dwell on their sadness. They closed their eyes and carefully felt the path in their hearts.

The moment they closed their eyes, all the starlight in the universe shot towards them. They passed through the bodies of Yu Huang and the others and lingered in their hearts and minds for a long time, as if they were thinking about where they should go.

Suddenly, Yu Huang seemed to have sensed something and opened her eyes. She saw a spacious white path appear in the void in front of her.

The path led straight to a door of light.

She turned to look at the people around her, but realized that Sheng Xiao and the others were gone.

Yu Huang hesitated for a moment, but then she decided to believe Mo Xiao's instructions and walked towards the wide white road. She walked on that road for a long time before walking to the door of the light beam. Yu Huang took a deep breath and reached out to push open the door of the light beam—

Splash!

A beam of moonlight landed on her body. It was a little cold.

Yu Huang stood on the spot quietly for a moment before raising her head to size up this world.

She was standing in a narrow black alley. The road was paved with black stone, and there were many black doors on both sides of the alley.

There was no one here.

Yu Huang turned around and looked behind her. She realized that the door behind her had disappeared and turned into a wall.

She reached out and touched the wall. Realizing that she had no way back, she could only move forward cautiously.

The moonlight shone on the stone path, making Yu Huang's figure appear slender and lonely.

Creak!

Yu Huang suddenly heard the sound of a door opening. When she raised her head and looked ahead, she saw a black door open from the inside. A man in a white sweater with a high ponytail and a grayish-white short sword tied to his waist walked out.

The man raised his head and saw Yu Huang.

He froze for a moment before narrowing his eyes.

Clearly, he didn't expect to meet someone here.

The man suddenly asked Yu Huang, "@¥..."

Yu Huang was speechless.

The moment she arrived, Yu Huang realized that she had encountered a problem.

She didn't understand the language of this world.

Seeing that Yu Huang didn't understand, the man frowned and asked in another language, "..."

Yu Huang took a deep breath and continued to remain silent.

A look of frustration flashed across the man's face as he changed his language again. "You're from a small world?"

This time, Yu Huang understood.

The man's words sounded very similar to the language of the Divine Moon Empire, but his pronunciation was somewhat different. It sounded a little like... the language of the Demon Beast Continent.

Chapter 1003: Ye Qingyang

The people of the Great World were indeed different. They were worldly and knew the language of many worlds.

She came from a small world and was a nobody.

She felt like a child from a backward village coming to a bustling city for the first time and meeting an elite who was proficient in many languages.

Yu Huang couldn't help but feel ashamed.

Yu Huang nodded in shame and replied in the Divine Moon Empire's language, "That's right. I just arrived and am new here. I don't understand the language of this world yet."

"Okay." Seeing that Yu Huang was a country bumpkin, the man lost interest in talking to her. He took off the sword at his waist and hugged it while walking deeper into the alley alone.

There was no fork in the alley. Walking forward was the only way out.

Yu Huang followed him calmly.

The two of them maintained a relatively safe distance.

The man heard Yu Huang's footsteps, but he didn't turn around. Instead of saying that he trusted Yu Huang, it was more like he looked down on her.

How strong could a Beast Tamer who had come from a small world and had never even learned the languages of the Great World be?

The man's arrogance was understandable.

It was very common for Beast Tamers from the Great World to look down on people who had ascended from small worlds.

After walking for a while and failing to see the exit of the alley, Yu Huang suddenly called out to the man in front of her, "Sir, please wait."

When he heard Yu Huang call him, the man stopped but didn't turn around.

Yu Huang hurriedly chased after him in a few large strides. She stood behind the man as she asked, "I want to ask you, which world is this?"

"You don't even know which world you ascended to?" The man turned around and asked Yu Huang with a surprised and dismayed expression.

This was the first time he had encountered such a muddle-headed ascender.

Yu Huang felt embarrassed by the other party's question.

Damn!

Grand Master and the others were right. The people of the Great World indeed looked down on country bumpkins like them.

Back in the Doomsday Battlefield, Yu Huang had already seen the prejudice of the Great World towards participants from small worlds.

Yu Huang suppressed her displeasure and shook her head before saying frankly, "I don't know."

The man didn't answer Yu Huang's question. Instead, he asked in confusion, "Could it be that this is your first time transmigrating in space?"

Yu Huang nodded. "Yes."

Hearing this, the man suddenly looked at Yu Huang with a strange gaze as he muttered in surprise, "Since you were teleported here the first time you passed through the space-time gate, you must be quite outstanding in your world."

When Beast Tamers ascended, it was never the Beast Tamer who chose the Great World, but the Great World who chose the Beast Tamer. The greater the potential and the stronger the Beast Tamer, the more likely they would be chosen by a powerful world.

Therefore, the path Yu Huang had seen earlier was the pass this world had given her.

If a Beast Tamer wanted to go to a certain Great World, they had to obtain a pass to that Great World.

The first time Yu Huang transmigrated into space, she was able to obtain the recognition of this Great World. It could be seen that she was definitely extremely talented.

Originally, the man wasn't interested in Yu Huang. After knowing that this was her first time transmigrating into space, he actually became curious about her, so the man asked Yu Huang, "Where did you come from?"

Yu Huang replied in a neither servile nor overbearing manner, "Holy Spirit Continent."

The other party frowned and thought about it, then he said coldly, "I've never heard of it."

Yu Huang was speechless.

The Holy Spirit Continent was indeed a peripheral world.

Yu Huang also asked about his background curiously, "Sir, where did you come from?"

The man said, "The Divination Continent."

It was also a super Great World.

The man picked up the gray sword and turned around to continue walking into the depths of the alley. As he walked, he said, "This is the Cang Lang Continent, one of the super Great Worlds."

Cang Lang Continent?

Yu Huang was somewhat shocked.

She had actually come to the Great World where her father had studied.

Was this considered fate?

Her mother and father had met at Cang Lang Academy. She wondered where her mother was now and if she was still living in Cang Lang Continent.

When she thought about how it was very likely that she and her mother were breathing the same air under the same sky, Yu Huang suddenly felt at home.

She walked forward quickly, while still maintaining a distance from that person.

They walked together in silence for a long time.

Along the way, the doors on both sides of the alley were closed. No one opened the doors and walked out.

Yu Huang counted the number of doors along the way. When she reached the 2996th door, Yu Huang heard the man in front of her say, "Stop counting. There are a total of 2997 doors here."

Yu Huang had been mentally counting the number of doors. She didn't expect this person to guess that she was counting the doors.

Upon hearing the number 2997, Yu Huang subconsciously asked, "Shouldn't there be 3,000 doors in the three thousand worlds? Other than the Cang Lang Continent itself, there should still be 2,999 doors."

Nodding, the man said, "It's said that there were indeed 2,999 doors in this alley, but for some reason, the door at the end of the alley and the door in the middle disappeared. After that, there were only 2,997 doors here."

The reason why he knew this so well was that the man had been to several Great Worlds and realized that there were only 2,997 doors in every alley.

"This alley is called the Time Alley. It connects this world to the other 2,997 worlds." The man pointed in the direction of the end of the alley and told Yu Huang, "At the end of the Time Alley in every world, there is a Time Pavilion. When newcomers report, they have to report to the Time Hall to register and register their identity cards."

At this point, the man looked at Yu Huang and warned her, "Beast Tamers without identity cards are considered illegals in this world. You won't be able to survive. Therefore, you must go to the Time Pavilion to register."

The man wasn't a talkative person.

The previous few times he went to other Great Worlds, he had never met an ascender in the Time Alley.

Thus, when he met Yu Huang today, he wanted to talk to her.

Considering that Yu Huang was a Beast Tamer from a small world and didn't understand the rules of the Great World, the man felt benevolent enough to tell Yu Huang this knowledge.

It had been many years since he had been so benevolent.

After explaining everything, the man didn't want to delay any longer. He turned around and strode away.

Yu Huang wasn't an ungrateful person. She naturally understood that the man didn't have to tell her these things.

But since he told her, it was a gesture of kindness.

Yu Huang stared at the man's back and said loudly, "How should I address you? If we can meet in the future, we'll know how to greet each other." This was the first person Yu Huang had met in the Great World and they had both ascended from other worlds. To Yu Huang, this had a special meaning.

The man stopped in his tracks and turned around. He stared at Yu Huang quietly for a moment before he said, "Ye Qingyang."

Yu Huang said politely but seriously, “Ye Qingyang, thank you for your help today. If we’re lucky enough to meet again in the future, if you need my help in any way, I definitely won’t refuse.”

Ye Qingyang didn’t think that a Beast Tamer from a small world could help him in any way.

Thus, he didn’t even listen carefully to what Yu Huang said.

He didn’t care about Yu Huang’s name at all.

However, he still nodded politely at Yu Huang before stepping into the starlight and leaving quickly.

They had already arrived at the end of the alley. After the man turned a corner, he disappeared from Yu Huang’s line of sight. As Yu Huang stared at the wall at the end of the alley, he revealed a thoughtful expression.

“Ye Qingyang.”

This name sounded familiar.

Could it be that she had heard it before?

Yu Huang had only interacted with experts from the Great World in the Doomsday Battlefield. If she had heard of the other party’s name, it must be in the Doomsday Battlefield.

However, the person Yu Huang remembered the most from the Doomsday Battlefield was the woman who had chopped off her arms.

At the thought of that woman, Yu Huang’s eyes burned with burning hatred and unquenchable battle intent.

Yu Huang clearly remembered that woman saying this when she broke her arm—

[The cherry blossom war hammer is priceless. It was given to me by the top disciple of Cang Lang Academy, Zhan Wuya, for my 18th birthday. It is my most precious thing.]

Yu Huang didn’t know what that woman’s name was or what she looked like, but as long as she searched around with Cang Lang Academy’s top disciple, Zhan Wuya, as a clue, she would definitely be able to find that woman.

After four years, she had already advanced to the Supreme Master Realm. She wondered what cultivation level that woman had now.

At the thought of this, Yu Huang fell into deep thought.

Coming to the Cang Lang Continent was a golden opportunity!

Chapter 1004: Time Pavilion, Sir

Yu Huang quickly took a few steps forward and arrived at the end of the alley.

But there was no road at the end of the alley.

However, the man called Ye Qingyang turned around and left.

Yu Huang also turned to the right and charged into the black high wall at the risk of hitting the wall.

Unexpectedly, her body really passed through the wall and appeared in front of a... beef noodle restaurant.

Beef noodle restaurant.

Yu Huang couldn't understand any of the words on the shop's signboard, but she could see the picture of the beef noodles on the billboard.

The beef noodle restaurant was built on the side of the road. There was a road beside the noodle restaurant that led to the town at the back. Yu Huang could see many modern houses that were three to four stories high. The architectural style here was similar to that of the urban area of the Holy Spirit Continent.

The man called Ye Qingyang had said that at the end of the alley was the Time Pavilion.

Could it be that the noodle shop in front of him was the Time Pavilion?

Yu Huang walked to the beef noodle restaurant dubiously.

The door in front of her was closed, but the lights in the room were on. Yu Huang could even hear the sound of the television inside.

After a moment of silence, Yu Huang raised her hand and knocked on the door.

Knock, knock, knock—

The knock on the door interrupted the sound of the television in the noodle shop.

"..." An old man's voice sounded from the room. He spoke in a language that Yu Huang didn't understand.

Soon, the old man opened the door.

It was an old man in a white vest and black pants. He was also wearing a pair of slippers. The old man held a fan in his left hand and a purple sand pot in his right. It was unknown if he was drinking tea or wine.

Without waiting for the old man to speak, Yu Huang asked hesitantly, "Sir, may I ask if this is the Time Pavilion?" She spoke the language of the Divine Moon Empire.

The strange thing was that the old man actually understood.

The old man stared at Yu Huang for a moment before saying, "You're not from the Demon Beast Continent, right?" He sounded very certain.

Clearly, he could tell that the language Yu Huang spoke was slightly different from the language of the Demon Beast Continent.

Yu Huang nodded and told the old man, "I'm from the Holy Spirit Continent."

“Holy Spirit Continent...” The old man raised his head and thought for a while. He couldn’t figure it out, so he hurriedly took a sip of water. As soon as he drank it, the old man instantly sobered up. He patted his head as he said in realization, “Oh, I remember that small world.”

Yu Huang was speechless.

He didn’t have to be so blunt.

“The last time I met an ascender from the Holy Spirit Continent was more than 160 years ago.” It was also late at night. A young man in a white suit knocked on his door and politely asked him about the location of the Time Pavilion.

Yu Huang’s heart skipped a beat when she heard the old man’s words.

She suppressed her excitement and tried her best to ask calmly, “Is the ascendant you’re talking about a young man?” After a pause, Yu Huang added, “Is his surname Yin?”

The old man had a good memory. He nodded and said, “Yes, his surname is Yin. That kid did well and even entered Cang Lang Academy. He was quite a prodigy.” Thinking of how Yu Huang came from the same world as that kid, and how the Holy Spirit Continent was a pitifully small world, the old man asked her, “Perhaps you know him?”

A sad smile appeared on Yu Huang’s face as she said, “Yes, of course I know him. He’s my father.”

This time, the old man couldn’t help but stare at Yu Huang carefully.

In the end, he came to a conclusion. “You don’t look like him. You must resemble your mother more. Your mother must be a beauty.”

Yu Huang smiled and said, “You flatter me. Sir, can you tell me the location of the Time Pavilion?”

This was Yu Huang’s goal.

The old man smiled and said, “This is the Time Pavilion.”

Yu Huang was speechless.

Yo!

The space-time hall used by a super Great World to receive ascenders was actually such a dilapidated noodle shop?

Could it be that the Cang Lang Continent was not as prosperous as the Holy Spirit Continent?

Suppressing her various guesses, Yu Huang tried her best to maintain her composure and said calmly, “Hello, sir. I want to register my identity.”

“Oh, sure.”

The old man pointed at the town behind him and said, “Go to town and find a cotton shop. When you can successfully spring a cotton blanket, come to me to register your identity.”

“Wh-what?”

Spring cotton?

Yu Huang was shocked.

What the hell was springing cotton?

Seeing Yu Huang's reaction, the old man shook his head and lamented, "As expected of an ascender from a peripheral world. You don't even know the process of registering her identity." The old man glared at Yu Huang in disdain and stuffed an ascension manual to Yu Huang before closing the door. "I'm going to rest. Go and study it yourself."

With that said, the old man mercilessly closed the door and left Yu Huang outside.

As Yu Huang raised her head and looked at the corridor lights under the eaves, she felt an inexplicable sense of desolation.

She opened the novice manual in her hand and realized that there was not a single word on it. However, a woman's voice automatically sounded.

The woman muttered for a long time, but Yu Huang didn't understand a single word.

It was like a child in the village hearing English for the first time. It was all Greek.

Finally, Yu Huang heard the female voice say in the language of the Demon Beast Continent, "For the Demon Beast Continent's explanation version, please say 28."

Hearing this, Yu Huang suddenly realized that this woman was asking which language the ascendant needed to hear. Yu Huang hurriedly said, "28."

Then, the woman explained, "Welcome to the super Great World Cang Lang Continent. If you want to consult the identity registration procedure, please say 1. If you want to download the Cang Lang Continent map, please say 2. If you want to know the recruitment information, please say 3..."

"1," Yu Huang said.

Only then did the female voice say, "Hello, foreign ascendants who have just entered the Cang Lang Continent need to complete the test mission set up by Mr. Philand. After successfully completing the mission, you can register your identity card. With your identity card, you can pass through the Cang Lang Continent and obtain the residence rights and benefits of the Cang Lang Continent. If you can't complete the mission, you can't register your identity card. You can't step into the core city of the Cang Lang Continent and can't enjoy the various resources and benefits of the Cang Lang Continent..."

After saying that, the woman added kindly, "...Warm reminder, if you have an automatic translator, you can buy a translator with 1,000 spirit stones in advance. The advance fee needs to be repaid within three months, or you will be pulled into the Cang Lang Continent Beast Tamer's bad credit list."

Yu Huang was speechless.

She couldn't help but curse softly, "Damn!"

In short, foreign Beast Tamers who obtained identity cards could participate in various competitions and apply for various Beast Tamer academies like local Beast Tamers. They could also apply for high-paying jobs and could freely enter and exit the Beast Tamer library everywhere...

In short, foreign Beast Tamers could do anything Beast Tamers of the Cang Lang Continent could do.

Chapter 1005: The Child Called Ah Kong

If one didn't register their identity, they weren't allowed to enter any city on the Cang Lang Continent's core city list. Similarly, one couldn't apply for an academy, obtain residence rights, or apply for a high-paying job as a Beast Tamer.

In short, they were even worse off than the commoners of the Cang Lang Continent.

After Yu Huang heard this introduction manual, she fell into a long silence.

The Great World was really unfriendly.

From the looks of it, Mr. Philand's test was definitely not easy.

It was hard to say what the 'cotton' was.

"Do you need to buy a translator?" Just as Yu Huang was about to close the commentary manual, the woman asked softly.

Considering the language barrier, Yu Huang paid a thousand spirit stones in advance and bought an automatic translator.

The woman in the commentary manual said, "Okay, dear. Press your fingerprint here."

A glass surface with fingerprints appeared on the commentary manual.

Yu Huang raised her eyebrows and pressed her thumb on it.

"Thank you for supporting my work. I also wish you the best of luck in completing your identity registration as soon as possible so that you can pay off your loan as soon as possible." With that said, a rice-sized automatic translator appeared in front of Yu Huang through the commentary manual.

It was telekinesis.

From the looks of it, not only was the cultivation level of the Beast Tamers in the Cang Lang Continent much higher than that of the Holy Spirit Continent, but even the civilian technology was thousands of years ahead of the Holy Spirit Continent's.

This was super modern technology.

After Yu Huang held the small rice grain and placed it on her earlobe, the small rice grain automatically fused with Yu Huang's body.

At this moment, the sky already brightened slightly.

Yu Huang held the commentary manual as she walked towards the town ahead.

At dawn, the residents of the town opened their doors.

After buying the translator, Yu Huang finally recognized what was written on the billboards on the doors.

[Rejuvenation Hall], [Vegetable Planting Base], [Ores Base]... [Heartwarming Cotton Shop].

Heartwarming Cotton Shop?

Yu Huang stopped at the entrance of the shop.

A middle-aged man in a yellow apron walked out of the room. When he saw that Yu Huang was hesitating and didn't dare to enter, he asked in a rough voice, "You just arrived? Mr. Philand asked you to come?"

Yu Huang nodded.

"Come in!"

The man pushed the rolling gate completely to the top and let Yu Huang in.

Yu Huang walked into the Heartwarming Cotton Shop and saw many white cotton-like things in the bags by the wall. However, they weren't cotton, but a kind of worm that could squirm!

The man told Yu Huang, "Spring these two pockets of Heart Devouring Worms into white silk and successfully turn them into a blanket. Then, you will have completed the test."

Yu Huang stared at the insect in her pocket and asked the man, "What's the use of this Heart Devouring Worm?"

The man said calmly, "They are a type of demonic insect that can seduce people's inner demons. Every insect represents a portion of your demonic will. If you can defeat your demonic will, you can defeat the insects and turn them into cotton threads." What the owner didn't tell Yu Huang was that Mr. Philand had always arranged test missions according to the potential of ascenders.

Heartwarming Cotton Shop had the most difficult test in the entire town.

It could be seen that Mr. Philand thought highly of this little girl.

Patting Yu Huang's shoulder, the owner said, "Work hard and strive to complete the test as soon as possible."

With that, the owner took off the cotton bow on the wall and handed it to Yu Huang.

Yu Huang put away the Aofeng Longbow on her back and carried the cotton bow on her back.

Yu Huang, who had never played cotton before, didn't even know the correct posture to hold the cotton bow. She tried, but she couldn't find the key to it. Suddenly, Yu Huang heard the sound of something falling to the ground. After she raised her head and looked in the direction of the voice, she saw a little boy.

The boy was wearing a white tank top, jeans, and a pair of canvas flats.

He suddenly came down from upstairs. The thing he pushed to the ground was a small stool.

As if sensing Yu Huang's gaze, the little boy raised his head and looked at her.

Thus, Yu Huang saw a pair of black eyes. Those eyes were as black as an abyss.

She had seen a pair of eyes like this on another child before.

Yu Huang's heart skipped a beat.

At this moment, the owner of the quilt shop said to the little boy, "Ah Kong! You should go deliver breakfast now!"

The child called Ah Kong ran towards the town canteen on his short legs.

After watching the little boy run away, Yu Huang turned around and asked the owner, "Is that your child?"

"Who are you talking about? Ah Kong?" The owner walked out with a cigarette in his mouth. Then, he leaned against the door frame and stared in the direction of the canteen as he said, "No, Ah Kong is the child of a staff member at the ore shop in town. This child is a jinx. His mother was jinxed to death the moment he was born."

The owner shrugged and lamented, "Qingya had a child out of wedlock. After she died, there's no one to take care of Ah Kong. This child grew up eating potluck. Now that he's grown up, he helps the people in our town do what he can."

Yu Huang felt uncomfortable when she heard this. "That child's name is... Ah Kong?"

The owner nodded and said, "Yes, the house was empty and not a single spirit stone could be found, so everyone named him Ah Kong."

Ah Kong meant emptiness and having no one to rely on.

As usual, Ah Kong arrived at the beef noodles restaurant at the edge of the town and asked Mr. Philand for beef noodles.

"Mr. Philand." Ah Kong stared at Mr. Philand with a deep gaze as he said, "I'm here to get the noodles."

Anyone this child looked at would have the illusion that they were being stared at by an abyss.

Therefore, everyone in town was actually a little afraid of him.

They were willing to give him a bite to eat, but they refused to take him in. They were afraid that he would jinx their family, just like how he jinxed his mother. The owner of the quilt shop was alone and unmarried, so he dared to take Ah Kong in.

When Philand saw Ah Kong, he handed him a beef shortbread and said, "Eat it before you go."

"Okay."

Ah Kong sat at Philand's dining table and took small bites of the beef shortbread.

At this moment, someone knocked on the door again. Then, a low and reserved male voice came from outside the door. "Hello, where is this?" Ah Kong didn't understand the other party's language, so he didn't turn around.

In just a few hours, Philand heard the language of the Holy Spirit Continent twice in a row, so he couldn't help but be shocked.

What was going on this year?

Why were there two people from the Holy Spirit Continent, which had not had anyone who ascended for more than a hundred years?

Philand put down the spoon in his hand and turned to look out the door.

He thought that a man who spoke in such a levelheaded manner would be a mature middle-aged man. However, Philand saw a... boorish man.

It was a bald man in a black robe and round black leather shoes.

He was really...

... quite fierce.

Philand tried to sense the spiritual power on the other party's body, but he realized that there was no spiritual power in the other party's body at all!

Huh?

Strange.

"This is the Cang Lang Continent." With that said, Philand threw a beginner's handbook to Lin Jiansheng and said, "This is the Time Pavilion. You have to register your identities with me before you can enter the Cang Lang Continent. Go to the ore pavilion in town. When you get two full buckets of ore, come and register with me."

Upon hearing this, Lin Jiansheng blinked and was about to leave with the beginner's handbook.

Before he left, he smelled the aroma of beef noodles and walked back shamelessly. He looked at Philand and said, "Sir, can you give me some food?"

Philand was speechless.

He had guarded the Time Pavilion for thousands of years, but this was the first time he had met an ascendant who dared to ask him for noodles.

But...

The Space Administration didn't stipulate that he wasn't allowed to give ascendants a bite to eat.

Philand stared at Lin Jiansheng for a while before saying, "Come in."

Lin Jiansheng hurriedly walked in and sat on the only empty chair at the only dining table in the room.

When Philand saw Lin Jiansheng sit down in his seat, he couldn't help but raise his eyebrows.

That was his exclusive seat.

What a boor.

Lin Jiansheng didn't realize that something was wrong, nor did he notice the old man raising his eyebrows.

It was only when the child opposite him was staring at him without blinking that Lin Jiansheng lowered his eyes and looked at the child. "Why are you looking at me?" Lin Jiansheng deliberately revealed a serious and scary expression as he said to the child, "I eat children."

The child looked at Lin Jiansheng with an impassive expression and said, "@#..."

Lin Jiansheng looked at Philand helplessly and asked, "Sir, what is this child saying?"

The old man snorted and said, "He said that you sat in my seat."

Lin Jiansheng blushed.

Chapter 1006: Lin Jiansheng: I Climbed The Wall

Lin Jiansheng had been respected and loved in the Holy Spirit Continent for decades. This was his first time coming to a super Great World, so he still hadn't adapted to his change in identity yet.

He even had to beg for a bowl of noodles.

When he sat in someone else's seat, he would get scolded by a child.

Lin Jiansheng realized that he was no longer the respected God Ling Xiao.

Here, he was a 'weirdo' who didn't even have spiritual power.

Lin Jiansheng stood up with a flushed face and apologized to Mr. Philand. "I'm sorry, Mr. Philand."

Philand snorted and said, "It's fine."

Philand quickly cooked noodles for Lin Jiansheng. When Lin Jiansheng saw that the noodles were cooked, he hurriedly walked over and picked up the noodles. He stood in the middle of the room with the bowl and finished the bowl of noodles in a few bites.

Beast Tamers wouldn't starve to death even if they didn't eat for a few months.

However, Purifying Spirit Masters were different.

Purifying Spirit Masters were like commoners. They would starve to death if they didn't eat.

Last night, Lin Jiansheng followed his 'path' and walked to a door. After he opened the door and walked out, he saw a long and dark alley. The alley was quiet and long, and there wasn't even a single person. Lin Jiansheng walked in the alley alone for a long time. When he reached the end of the alley, he realized that there was no road at the end.

Guess how he walked out?

He climbed out from the wall at the end of the alley!

He had climbed for six hours with his bare hands!

When Philand saw Lin Jiansheng eating so ravenously, he noticed that Lin Jiansheng's finger was bleeding and the bowl he had held was covered in blood. Philand raised his eyebrows and asked calmly, "Are you injured?"

Lin Jiansheng nodded and said, "I'm fine. It's a small injury."

To cultivators, this was indeed a small injury.

Philand nodded.

Unable to stand Lin Jiansheng's bad table manners, Philand asked him again, "Are you very hungry?"

Beast Tamers who could ascend from a small world to the Cang Lang Continent were at least Supreme Master Beast Tamers. They wouldn't be so hungry.

Didn't that girl called Yu Huang also come from the Holy Spirit Continent last night? He hadn't seen her so hungry.

Without raising his head, Lin Jiansheng said, "After climbing the wall for so long, I'm really hungry. Fortunately, I'm strong and burly. Otherwise, I would have fallen down halfway through." Lin Jiansheng had already finished the beef noodles. After saying that, he hugged the bowl with both hands and raised his head to drink all the soup.

If not for his identity as a God Ling Xiao, Lin Jiansheng would have licked all the onions and minced meat in the bowl.

When Philand heard the word 'climb', he frowned again.

Was there any place on the way here that needed climbing?

"Where did you crawl from?" Philand was very curious.

Lin Jiansheng turned around and pointed at the end of the lawn as he said, "There's an alley. There's no road at the end, only a super high wall. I climbed over the wall."

Philand was speechless.

Damn!

It wasn't an ordinary high wall, but a physical barrier wall.

If the foreign Beast Tamers didn't receive the pass given to them by the Cang Lang Continent, they wouldn't be able to pass through the wall and enter the Cang Lang Continent. If someone forcefully passed through the Time Gate to the Cang Lang Continent, they would be trapped by the wall.

In his thousands of years of life, this was the first time he had seen someone who could climb over the barrier wall!

What kind of weirdo was this man?

Philand looked at Lin Jiansheng as if he was looking at a monster.

Philand couldn't help but ask, "Which world are you from?"

Lin Jiansheng didn't hide it. He said, "Holy Spirit Continent."

Nodding, Philand asked, "How did you get here?"

Not understanding why this old man was asking these questions, Lin Jiansheng looked at Philand in confusion.

However, since Lin Jiansheng had eaten the old man's beef noodles, he couldn't have a bad attitude. Lin Jiansheng told the truth, "I saw a white road, so I walked down the road. Then, I arrived at the alley in this world."

Upon hearing Lin Jiansheng's explanation, Philand said in surprise, "You saw the path, which means that you obtained the pass to this world. Then, there's no reason why you can't pass through the wall to come here. Any Beast Tamer with some spiritual power can pass through the wall as long as they obtain the pass."

Upon hearing this, Lin Jiansheng continued, "Oh, I don't have any spiritual power."

Philand was speechless.

Philand was utterly baffled.

What kind of incident was this?

A person without spiritual power could actually obtain a pass to the Cang Lang Continent?

At this moment, Ah Kong had also finished the beef shortbread.

He jumped down from the stool and walked to the stove. "Mr. Philander, I'm done eating."

Philand handed two lunch boxes to Ah Kong. "They're all inside." Each lunch box was almost half of Ah Kong's height.

"Thank you, Mr. Philand." Ah Kong reached out his thin arm and grabbed the lunch box with his small hand. Then, he turned to leave.

"Hey, child, let me help you." Lin Jiansheng bent down to take the lunch box from Ah Kong's hand.

Ah Kong's hand was very short. It looked like he couldn't even completely hold the handle of the lunch box.

Logically speaking, Lin Jiansheng was strong and should be able to snatch the lunch box easily.

But...

Lin Jiansheng actually failed to take the lunch box out of Ah Kong's hand.

Lin Jiansheng noticed that when he reached for the lunch box, Ah Kong didn't even curl his fingers. In other words, Ah Kong didn't do anything to protect the lunch box at all. He only pinched it gently, but Lin Jiansheng couldn't snatch it away.

How strong was this child?

Lin Jiansheng heard Ah Kong ask Philand, "Mr. Philand, he said that he wants to help me carry the lunch box."

Philand looked at Lin Jiansheng with a spurious smile and said, "Then let him take it."

Only then did Ah Kong let go.

Lin Jiansheng carried the lunch box and followed Ah Kong out of the Time Pavilion's beef noodles before walking towards the town. When Lin Jiansheng stared at the town at the end of the path, he realized that this town looked no different from the towns of the Holy Spirit Continent and felt more at ease.

From the looks of it, the difference between the Cang Lang Continent and the Holy Spirit Continent wasn't big.

After Lin Jiansheng inserted the beginner's handbook into the middle of the belt of his robe, Lin Jiansheng walked forward with Ah Kong and asked casually, "Your name is Ah Kong?"

Not understanding what Lin Jiansheng was saying at all, Ah Kong looked at him in confusion.

Lin Jiansheng felt helpless.

Ah Kong pointed at the beginner's handbook on Lin Jiansheng's waist and gestured for Lin Jiansheng to look at it. Lin Jiansheng hurriedly took off the beginner's handbook and walked towards the town while listening to the beginner's handbook explain various key points. Of course, at the end, the customer service called Xiao Ya didn't forget to promote the automatic translator to Lin Jiansheng.

"... Warm reminder, if you need to buy an automatic translator, you can get an advance of a thousand spirit stones to buy the translator. The fee needs to be repaid within three months, or you will be pulled into the Cang Lang Continent Beast Tamer's bad credit list."

Chapter 1007: Nonsense, You're a Lucky Star

"What? A thousand spirit stones?" When Lin Jiansheng heard Xiao Ya's words, he immediately cursed, "What translator is so expensive? Is it made of gold? Even gold isn't that expensive! Don't scam me just because I'm a foreigner."

"Let me tell you, don't even think about scamming money from me!"

What kind of bullsh*t translator cost a thousand spirit stones?!

After cursing, Lin Jiansheng felt that he finally vented his frustration.

The beginner's handbook seemed to have intelligence. After it heard Lin Jiansheng's words, it actually said, "Customer, a thousand spirit stones isn't expensive. You have to know that a language barrier will cause many inconveniences and misunderstandings. A thousand spirit stones will allow you to communicate without worry. It's worth it."

Xiao Ya was a very qualified salesperson.

However, Lin Jiansheng was an even stingier person.

He sneered and said, "Are you lying to me? What translator? I don't care. Back then, I was the top scorer on the national college entrance examination. I can learn anything. I don't want your bullshit translator anymore!" With that, Lin Jiansheng was about to close the beginner's handbook.

At this moment, Xiao Ya suddenly said loudly, "Customer, I can give you a 50% discount!"

Lin Jiansheng slowly opened the beginner's handbook again.

He narrowed his eyes and looked at the town in front of him as he said thoughtfully, "You're not a smart bot set up by software. You're a real person, right? This beginner's handbook is just a tool for you to talk to us. It's like a phone."

Xiao Ya was speechless.

Damn, why was this person so smart?!

Lin Jiansheng analyzed again, "The Cang Lang Continent is a super Great World, and among the three thousand worlds, the ten super Great Worlds are interconnected. I think the Beast Tamers of the other Great Worlds have all learned the language of your continent, while most of the Beast Tamers who can ascend to the Cang Lang Continent are geniuses from these Great Worlds."

"It's probably very difficult to sell your automatic translator, right? Now, you're probably trying to scam anyone you can." After saying that, Lin Jiansheng sneered and mercilessly exposed Xiao Ya's true motive, "If you're a salesperson, then the automatic translator is a product you need to promote. Under the circumstances that most of the ascenders are proficient in the Cang Lang Continent's language, can your automatic translator still be sold?"

Xiao Ya was speechless.

Lin Jiansheng realized that the beginner's handbook in his hand was trembling.

Clearly, Lin Jiansheng had hit the nail on the head about Xiao Ya's awkward situation.

"I'll pay 200 spirit stones max. If you sell it, I'll buy it. If not, forget it!" 200 spirit stones was Lin Jiansheng's limit. He felt that even this price was too expensive.

Xiao Ya took a deep breath and said, "Add another fifty spirit stones."

Upon hearing this, Lin Jiansheng shouted mercilessly, "Then 150 spirit stones it'll be!"

Xiao Ya was exasperated.

"Don't pretend to be in a difficult position. Providing appropriate help to the new ascendants should be Time Pavilion's job. This automatic translator is worth a hundred spirit stones at most. Giving you a hundred and fifty is already generous."

Xiao Ya gritted her teeth and cursed, "Scrooge!"

"Then 150 spirit stones it is."

"Deal."

After Lin Jiansheng used 150 spirit stones to buy the automatic translator, a translator appeared out of thin air. Lin Jiansheng was stunned for a moment before realizing that the technology of the Cang Lang Continent was far ahead of that of the Holy Spirit Continent.

At least, in the next hundred years, the Holy Spirit Continent wouldn't be able to teleport things.

After Lin Jiansheng put on the translator, he asked Ah Kong impatiently, "Your name is Ah Kong?"

This time, Ah Kong understood Lin Jiansheng's question. He nodded and said, "Yes."

"How old are you?"

Ah Kong said, "Four years old."

Four years old.

Lin Jiansheng subconsciously tugged at his collar and lowered his eyes to glance at the child's round face as he said, "You already know how to help people at such a young age? Your parents raised you well." Lin Jiansheng had never seen a child who wanted to help others at the age of four.

In the Holy Spirit Continent, such a young child was still a little baby.

When Ah Kong heard Lin Jiansheng's words, he pursed his lips and said calmly, "I don't have a father, and my mother is dead." After a pause, Ah Kong said, "She was jinxed to death by me."

Lin Jiansheng stopped in his tracks.

He lowered his head and stared at Ah Kong for a moment before suddenly saying, "Then how did you grow up?" Thinking of how Ah Kong had a good relationship with the old man from the Time Pavilion, he guessed, "Could it be that you're living with Mr. Philand?"

"I grew up taking potluck," Ah Kong said. "Whenever the people in town give me a bite to eat, I do whatever I can for the people in town."

Lin Jiansheng understood.

Delivering food to the people in town was Ah Kong's way of repaying their kindness.

Lin Jiansheng reached out and touched Ah Kong's head. That familiar touch made his heart skip a beat.

"You're doing the right thing, Ah Kong."

Ah Kong waited for Lin Jiansheng to retract his hand before raising his head and asking him, "Why did you touch my head?"

Lin Jiansheng asked him, "Has no one touched your head before?"

Ah Kong said, "I'm a jinx."

Who would be willing to take the initiative to touch a jinx?

Upon hearing this, Lin Jiansheng specially stroked Ah Kong's head and said, "Nonsense. You're a lucky star."

Ah Kong pursed his lips and quickened his pace. Soon, he brought Lin Jiansheng to town. Along the way, he sent a plate of beef noodles to every shop owner. In the end, he pointed at the ore base and said to Lin Jiansheng, "Your test venue is here."

Lin Jiansheng knew that Ah Kong was saying goodbye to him.

Lin Jiansheng suddenly asked Ah Kong, "What do you do when you don't deliver food? Do you go to school?"

There was no school in town.

Although this was only a small town, the bosses here were either mysterious experts with high cultivation levels or adults who were related to a mysterious expert. This was the test town of ascendants. Other than Ah Kong, there were no children around here.

Ah Kong didn't go to school.

Lin Jiansheng suddenly said, "After the delivery, you can look for me. I'll teach you how to read." Lin Jiansheng stroked Ah Kong's head again and said, "I was the top scorer on the college entrance examination. I'm the best student in my world. Come and look for me. I'll let you become the top scorer."

Even in the Cang Lang Continent, the top scholar among the commoners would have a bright future.

Even in the Cang Lang Continent, the top scholar among the commoners would have a bright future.

After Ah Kong left, Lin Jiansheng stood on the spot for a while before suddenly closing his eyes to cover the tears in them.

When he was in the Time Pavilion, he just wanted to eat beef noodles and spend more time with this child. As soon as he entered the Time Pavilion and saw Ah Kong's back and head, he felt a connection.

Chapter 1008: Malice from the Great World

As a Purifying Spirit God, Lin Jiansheng had a very strong sense of a person's soul.

Ah Kong's soul was a black fog. Only a Demon Fetus had a fog-shaped life form.

Lin Jiansheng never expected Kong Qing to reincarnate into the Cang Lang Continent and become Ah Kong.

As the Demon Fetus, Kong Qing had the clearest and most innocent pair of eyes in the world, while Ah Kong's eyes were as black as an abyss. Although the color of their eyes was different, the way they looked at people was exactly the same.

"Kong Qing!"

He finally found him.

After taking a deep breath, Lin Jiansheng walked up the stairs and entered the ore base.

As soon as he entered, the owner handed him a hammer and a hoe. He pointed at the empty space that extended into the darkness in the room and said, "Dig up two ships of ores and your test will be completed."

After Lin Jiansheng put away the Purifying Spirit Scepter, he held the hammer in his left hand and the hoe in his right as he asked the owner, "Sir, do I have to use spiritual power to dig ores?"

The owner looked at Lin Jiansheng as if he was looking at an idiot and asked, "If you don't use spiritual power, what else can you use?"

Lin Jiansheng revealed a hesitant expression.

The owner raised his eyebrows and asked him, "What's wrong?"

Lin Jiansheng held it in for a long time before saying, "I don't have spiritual power."

The owner was speechless.

Mr. Philand had never misjudged anyone. Since he had sent Lin Jiansheng to the ore base, he probably had potential. The owner rolled his eyes and said, "I don't care. In short, you have to mine two ships full of ore before you can successfully register your identity card."

Helpless, Lin Jiansheng could only carry the hoe and hammer and walk into the darkness.

After walking for a while, the world in front of him suddenly opened up.

The place he was standing at was no longer in the ore base, but a deep black sea. He was standing on a small boat, and there was a black mine on the shore. At this moment, there were two to three young people mining. Lin Jiansheng guessed that they were probably ascenders who had arrived earlier.

Noticing Lin Jiansheng's arrival, the two ascenders turned around and gave him a cold look.

Perhaps they felt that Lin Jiansheng looked fierce and it was obvious that he wasn't someone to be trifled with. He had the image of a typical gang leader. The two of them restrained their hostility a little and nodded at Lin Jiansheng before continuing to mine with their spiritual power.

Lin Jiansheng jumped off the boat and carried his tools up the mine. Then, he raised the hoe and dug down. With a clang, half of the hoe was broken, but there wasn't a single mark on the ore.

Lin Jiansheng frowned and raised the hoe again. Then, he wrapped the hoe with his psychic power and dug again.

This time, the hoe broke from the root.

There was still no trace of any marks on the ore ground.

Lin Jiansheng frowned in frustration. He wanted to return home now.

He didn't want to stay in this bullsh*t Great World anymore!

Weren't they bullying him?

At this moment, the two ascenders finally couldn't stand it anymore. They walked over and said to Lin Jiansheng, "This is a magic mine. It can only be mined by demonic creatures. Beast Tamers like us have to use our spiritual power to dig it up, and the efficiency is very slow. I've been digging here for half a year."

The ascendant who spoke pointed at his boat and said, "We've only dug half a boat."

Lin Jiansheng hurriedly asked, "Where are you guys from and how should I address you are? What is your cultivation level now?"

The Beast Tamer said, "I'm from the Moon God Continent. My name is Li Jianbing, and I'm at the peak of the Supreme Master Realm."

The Moon God Continent seemed to be one of the Great Worlds.

Without waiting for Lin Jiansheng to ask, the young man standing beside the Supreme Master ascendant took the initiative to say, "I came to the Ancient Jue Continent and I'm called Gu Huan. I'm an early-stage Grand Master Beast Tamer. I've been digging here for a year." Gu Huan pointed at his boat and said, "I just filled my first boat last month."

Even a Grand Master had to mine here for a year to fill a boat. One could imagine how difficult digging this ore mine was.

Without spiritual power, Lin Jiansheng, who had even dug out a hoe, would probably die here before he could fill these two ships.

Lin Jiansheng felt despair.

However, Lin Jiansheng had never been a person who would admit defeat easily. He asked the two of them, "Mr. Li, Mr. Gu, I don't have any spiritual power. I wonder if there are any other ways to mine?"

"What? You don't have spiritual power?"

Li Jianbing and Gu Huan looked at Lin Jiansheng as if they were looking at a weirdo. "Without spiritual power, how did you ascend?"

Lin Jiansheng said, "I cultivate psychic power."

"What is psychic power?" Li Jianbing and Gu Huan had never heard of such a strange type of energy.

Lin Jiansheng said mysteriously, "Psychic energy is a profound and invisible strange energy in nature. Those who cultivate psychic energy are Purifying Spirit Masters. Purifying Spirit Masters can use psychic energy to purify the undead, resentment, and demonic energy. They can also purify incomplete beast forms through Purifying Spirit Purification."

Hearing this, even Li Jianbing and Gu Huan revealed shocked expressions. "There's actually such a magical energy."

Gu Huan stroked his chin and said, "This sounds a little similar to ghost cultivation." At the mention of ghost cultivation, Gu Huan thought of the famous genius of the Divination Continent. He said, "On the Divination Continent, there was a Beast Tamer whose beast heart had been destroyed. Through other means, he formed his own sect and became a ghost cultivator. It's said that he can refine ghosts and absorb ghost energy to become half a ghost and half a human. Your psychic power sounds a little similar to that of a ghost cultivator."

Lin Jiansheng took it that Gu Huan was praising him. He said proudly, "Those with a powerful mind will most likely awaken their beast form and become a Beast Tamer. However, only the purest and kindest people have a chance of forming a Psychic Pearl and cultivating the Purifying Spirit Art. In my world, I was the boss of the Purifying Spirit Sect."

No one who could ascend into the Great World was incompetent.

Gu Huan and the others were very curious about Lin Jiansheng's background, so they asked him, "We've never heard of a cultivator like a Purifying Spirit Master. I wonder which world you're from? I really want to go take a look."

Lin Jiansheng raised his head and said, "Holy Spirit Continent."

Gu Huan and Li Jianbing looked at each other and saw confusion and unfamiliarity in each other's eyes.

Holy Spirit Continent?

They had never heard of it before. It seemed that he came from a peripheral world, and it was the kind of small world whose name had never even appeared in their world.

The two of them, who originally admired Lin Jiansheng, suddenly lost interest in him. A big shot who reigned supreme in a small world was nothing in the Great World.

Although Lin Jiansheng looked rough, he was very meticulous and observant. When he sensed the change in their attitude towards him, his attitude also cooled down a little.

It seemed that the people of peripheral worlds weren't respected in the Great World.

"Without spiritual power, you won't be able to dig up the ores here." Lin Jianbing cupped his fists at Lin Jiansheng and said, "I have to continue mining. Mr. Lin, I still wish you the best of luck in completing the assessment as soon as possible." Lin Jianbing knew very well that Lin Jiansheng would probably be unable to complete the test at all.

His time was precious. It would be a waste of time to deal with an ascendant who couldn't even get his identity card.

With that, Lin Jianbing left.

Chapter 1009: Philand: Strange!

As a Grand Master from the Great World, Gu Huan subconsciously felt a patronizing sense of pity for Lin Jiansheng, who had ascended from a small world. Gu Huan stood on his tiptoes and patted Lin Jiansheng's shoulder as he said sympathetically, "Mr. Li's words might be a little harsh, but that's the truth. Mr. Lin, perhaps this world is not suitable for you."

Gu Huan was tactfully persuading Lin Jiansheng to give up and return to his own world.

Lin Jiansheng said with a cold expression, "I don't think it's suitable for you." He sneered and said, "If it was really suitable, you wouldn't have to dig here for a year before you could fill a boat with ores." With that said, Lin Jiansheng picked up the hammer on the ground and walked into the distance alone.

Gu Huan's expression was gloomy after being mercilessly insulted by Lin Jiansheng.

As Lin Jiansheng left, Gu Huan stared at Lin Jiansheng's arrogant and fearless figure with a sinister gaze and sneered. "What's the use of being stubborn? You can't even dig out the ores. What can you possibly do?!"

* *

Lin Jiansheng carried the hammer and walked to the top of the mine to sit.

Unable to dig a mine, he felt somewhat dejected. As he looked at the black clouds in the sky, he felt vexed.

Suddenly, a small figure ran into his line of sight.

It was Ah Kong.

Ah Kong climbed up from the foot of the mine with a few books and sat down beside Lin Jiansheng. Then, he noticed that Lin Jiansheng's hoe was broken and his expression was unpleasant, so he asked Lin Jiansheng, "What's wrong?"

Lin Jiansheng kicked the ore mountain under his feet and said angrily, "I don't have spiritual power, so I can't dig up the ore here. Ah Kong, other than spiritual power, is there any other way to dig up the ore?" Lin Jiansheng was just asking casually, since he didn't expect a child to give him an answer.

Ah Kong's mother was a former staff member of the mining base. When he heard this, he said, "Yes."

Lin Jiansheng's eyes lit up. "Really?"

"Yes." Ah Kong nodded and pointed at the dark clouds in the sky as he said, "Do you see the dark clouds there? Those dark clouds are the demonic creatures that live here. They rely on mining ores and absorbing the demonic energy in the ores to survive. If you can catch them and let them work for you, you can gather two ships of ores quickly."

"Oh really?" Lin Jiansheng stared at the dark clouds in the sky and couldn't help but ask, "How can we capture them?"

"I don't know," Ah Kong said. "They're not afraid of spiritual power, so every ascendant who comes here to mine can't catch them. However, a ghost cultivator used to mine here. He caught a demonic creature and filled two ships of ores in three days."

Lin Jiansheng subconsciously felt that the ghostly cultivator Ah Kong mentioned was the ghostly cultivator from the Divination Continent that Lin Jianbing and the others had mentioned earlier.

Demonic creatures weren't afraid of spiritual power, but they were afraid of ghostly cultivators.

Would demonic creatures also be afraid of his psychic power?

Lin Jiansheng suddenly made a decision. He stood up and said, "Ah Kong, if I catch a demonic creature, let the demonic creature work for me. I'll teach you how to read."

Ah Kong looked at him skeptically, but nodded and said, "Okay."

Lin Jiansheng clenched his right hand in the void, and the Purifying Spirit Scepter appeared in his hand. Lin Jiansheng stared at the thick dark clouds above his head as he chanted in a low voice.

When he chanted, the black robe on his body fluttered without any wind. Wisps of milky white psychic energy floated out of his Purifying Spirit Scepter. They were the benign psychic energy of countless undead who had been purified. The psychic energy quickly floated towards the dark clouds.

As soon as the demonic creature living in the dark clouds sensed the existence of this energy, it began to struggle violently.

For a moment, the dark clouds in the entire ore space were shaking.

Noticing this anomaly, Li Jianbing and Gu Huan, who were mining, looked up in shock.

They looked up at the demonic creatures hiding everywhere in the sky and then at Lin Jiansheng. They actually felt that Lin Jiansheng's entire body was emitting the warm and sacred energy of a priest.

What the hell?!

Countless bursts of psychic power turned into thin and dense powers of desire that wrapped around the demonic creatures one by one.

The demonic creatures struggled incessantly amidst the psychic power and whimpered while begging Lin Jiansheng to let them off.

They realized that the man with the scepter in front of them was far more difficult to deal with than the ghostly cultivator they had met a few years ago!

Ghost cultivators controlled ghosts, but Purifying Spirit Masters could purify all the unclean things in the world!

Purifying Spirit Masters were the natural nemesis of demonic creatures!

Sensing the demonic creatures begging for mercy, Lin Jiansheng suddenly stopped chanting. He opened his eyes and stared at the demonic creatures surrounded by the psychic net in the sky with a smile and said, "Friends, if you don't want your cultivation to dissipate and be sent to reincarnation, we can make a deal."

The demonic creatures stopped struggling at the same time.

Among the black demonic creatures, pairs of pitch-black and angry eyes were revealed as they stared fixedly at Lin Jiansheng.

Lin Jiansheng smiled and said, "Help me gather two ships' worth of ores. Then, I'll leave immediately and won't bully you guys anymore."

The demonic creatures were silent for a moment before conveying their intention to cooperate with Lin Jiansheng.

Lin Jiansheng nodded and released the psychic net.

After those demonic creatures obtained their freedom, they subconsciously wanted to escape. Lin Jiansheng sneered and chanted the Purifying Spirit Incantation again. This time, more psychic energy quickly surged towards the demonic creatures and surrounded them again in the blink of an eye.

The demonic creatures were completely distraught now.

“Do you still dare to run?” Lin Jiansheng asked sinisterly.

The demonic creatures no longer dared to run.

This time, as soon as Lin Jiansheng removed the psychic net, the demonic creatures rushed to the mines and worked hard to mine. They were very smart and knew how to work together. A group of powerful demonic creatures was in charge of mining, and a group of weak demonic creatures was in charge of transporting them.

From afar, they could only see balls of thick black fog floating around the ore mountain.

The mine on the left was extremely lively, but the two mines nearby were terrifyingly quiet. Li Jianbing and Gu Huan had already thrown away their hoes in shock and sat on the ore mountain helplessly. With their heads raised, they watched the busy demonic creatures with numb expressions.

They looked at Lin Jiansheng with admiration.

This time, they had misjudged him.

“Mr. Li, stop looking. If we can’t catch demonic creatures, we still have to dig ores ourselves.” After Gu Huan accepted his fate, he stood up, picked up the hoe on the ground, and started digging without complaint. Li Jianbing said enviously, “What’s so great about knowing how to control a demonic creature?!”

“What’s so great about it?” Gu Huan laughed at Li Jianbing for so being stupid. He stared at the boorish man who was teaching children how to read as he said with fear and admiration, “He’s a Purifying Spirit Master who can cultivate psychic power, use psychic power to deal with vengeful spirits, demonic creatures, and help Beast Tamers increase the potential of their beast forms. Do you know what kind of changes will happen if a person like him appears in a super Great World?”

Li Jianbing was stunned. He stammered, “What, what change?”

Gu Huan said with a serious expression, “He can form his own sect and become the first Grand Master of that sect!”

Li Jianbing was completely stunned.

Lin Jiansheng had sharp hearing and heard everything Gu Huan said.

Upon hearing Gu Huan’s words, Lin Jiansheng gradually understood the Grand State Master’s motive for bringing him to the Great World.

The Grand State Master wanted him to use his identity as a Purifying Spirit God to create a brand new system in the Great World. Under his influence, those Beast Tamers who couldn't awaken their beast forms could try to cultivate the Purifying Spirit Art and could acknowledge him as a Grand Master.

He could form his own sect and become Yu Huang and the others' strongest backer!

Lin Jiansheng suddenly said in the Spiritual Abode world, "Senior Su, accompany me to develop the Purifying Spirit Art in the three thousand worlds!"

Su Tingxue's soul was still very weak and her voice came from the void—

"I'd be extremely happy to."

* *

Philand sat under the roof of the Time Pavilion's beef noodles restaurant while sunbathing and taking an afternoon nap.

Suddenly, a shadow covered his face.

When Philand opened his eyes, he saw a very handsome man standing in front of him. The man was wearing a white suit and a pair of boundless golden chain glasses on his face. The man asked with a smile, "Hello, sir. I'm Feng Yuncheng. I'm from the Holy Spirit Continent. I want to know which Great World this is."

Philand was speechless.

Philand picked up the fan on the coffee table and shook it as he lamented with an unfathomable expression, "You're the third one."

For more than a hundred years, they had never seen a single ascender from the Holy Spirit Continent. On this day, three of them came.

Strange.

"Cang Lang Continent." Philand couldn't be bothered to explain to Feng Yuncheng. He threw him a beginner's handbook and said, "Ask her if you have any questions!"

After Feng Yuncheng caught the beginner's handbook, he cupped his hands at Philand and left.

Philand covered his face with a fan and laid under the rocking chair to catch up on sleep.

He was about to fall asleep when he heard footsteps again.

His ears twitched as he thought to himself, "What's going on? Why are there so many ascenders these two days?"

Just as that thought flashed across his mind, Philand heard the person say, "Sir, I'm Sheng Xiao. I'm from the Holy Spirit Continent..."

Philand was speechless...

How strange!

Chapter 1010: Yu Huang: He Is My Mentor (1)

Philand slowly lowered the fan on his face.

Philand was already extremely old. His face looked a little haggard and his light blue eyes were turbid because of his age.

However, when he looked at people, he still gave off a discerning and astute feeling.

Sheng Xiao, who was being scanned by the old man, reacted calmly. He stood upright under the roof like a pine tree and accepted the old man's observation without changing his expression.

Philand could tell this man's true cultivation level at a glance.

He was a Grand Master Beast Tamer.

Although many Beast Tamers could maintain a youthful appearance, the young man in front of them was really very young.

He was probably in his early thirties.

To be able to have a Grand Master cultivation level at such a young age, even in the Cang Lang Continent, where geniuses were as common as clouds, he could be considered the cream of the crop.

Interesting.

Philand put down the fan and asked Sheng Xiao, "How old are you?"

Sheng Xiao nodded as he said, "31 years old."

Philand nodded.

Sheng Xiao was a few years younger than he thought.

Philand then answered Sheng Xiao's question. "This is the Cang Lang Continent."

"Thank you for telling me." Sheng Xiao looked down at his ring finger. Seeing that the marriage line on his ring finger was lit, he knew that he had found the right world. "Sir." Sheng Xiao lowered his head and asked, "Have you seen a woman called Yu Huang?"

It was difficult for anyone who had seen a woman like Yu Huang not to have an impression of her.

Philand looked up at Sheng Xiao.

From Sheng Xiao's words, it seemed like he was here to look for her.

Philand suddenly closed his eyes, as if he was taking a nap. However, the moment he closed his eyes, Sheng Xiao sensed that a powerful force was wrapping around him and trying to peep at his background through his body.

To be able to guard this place and supervise every ascendant from the alternate world, this old man's identity and strength were naturally extraordinary.

Therefore, Sheng Xiao didn't intend to resist when he realized that the old man was peeping.

He couldn't resist either.

After a while, the old man opened his eyes and looked at Sheng Xiao in shock. "You came from the Demon Beast Continent." He looked surprised. "Interesting. You can change your path at will and forcefully pass through the Time Gate."

Sheng Xiao wasn't surprised that the old man discovered his tracks.

Sheng Xiao nodded and said, "You're right. I did chase all the way here from the Demon Beast Continent."

He chased after the spiritual energy to find his way here.

As Philand held the handle of the fan and knocked it on the table, he revealed a thoughtful expression and muttered, "Logically speaking, ascendants can't choose which Great World they want to go to. Only those who have obtained the pass to a certain world can enter that world. At the beginning of the ascension, the path you saw actually led to the Demon Beast Continent."

Sheng Xiao didn't say anything, but his silence meant that the old man's analysis was right.

"You're not a Prime Master!" Philand suddenly sat up straight and stared at Sheng Xiao as he asked curiously, "As a Grand Master, how did you forcefully change your path and come to the Cang Lang Continent?"

After so many years, this was the first time Philand had met an ascendant who could forcefully change his path on his first ascension.

The reason Ye Qingyang of the Divination Continent was able to pass through these super Great Worlds at will was that when he first ascended, he had obtained a pass to the Cang Lang Continent. Therefore, later on, he was able to enter and exit the Cang Lang Continent freely.

But how did Sheng Xiao do it?

This child was really mysterious.

Sheng Xiao smiled and said, "As the supervisor of the Cang Lang Continent's Time Pavilion, you must be a knowledgeable elder. In the three thousand worlds, other than a Prime Master choosing his own path, there is another special situation. That answer is in your heart, isn't it?"

Sheng Xiao, who had regained some of Yu Aofeng's memories, knew many secrets of the Great World.

To be able to become the supervisor of the Cang Lang Continent's Time Pavilion, the old man in front of him must be a Prime Emperor powerhouse, a super powerhouse respected by the entire Cang Lang Continent. This was because he was responsible for supervising foreign ascendants and protecting the Cang Lang Continent.
