

She Shocks 101

Chapter 101: Because You Have Me in Your Heart

The two of them walked side by side towards the exit of the racecourse. They attracted a lot of attention. However, Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang were calm. No one dared to guess their real relationship.

The Beast Tamer Selection Competition was the grandest day of the year in Jingdu. In order to ensure that no accidents happened, the roads leading to the suburbs of Jingdu were all sealed, and only the host's double-level bus was allowed.

Yu Huang and the others had taken a double-storey bus to the subway station. Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao were going to the city for a meal, so they could only take the double-storey bus to Jingdu.

Dozens of double-storey buses stopped at the side of the road outside the racecourse. The first bus had already started and would set off after everyone was here. Yu Huang saw that the seats were almost full and wanted to wait for the next bus with Sheng Xiao.

When the driver saw their picky expressions, he was instantly angered. He stuck his head out of the car window and shouted at Yu Huang and the others, "You have to get in the car quickly! The car behind me will only leave after the crowd has dispersed. When there are more people later, you won't even have a seat!"

The qualifying competition ended at six o'clock sharp and continued tomorrow. After the competition ended, the audience would take the double-storey bus and leave. At that time, they would indeed not even be able to get a spot.

Yu Huang asked Sheng Xiao, "Are you going?"

Sheng Xiao nodded. "Yes."

The two of them got into the car. Seeing that the first floor was full, Yu Huang said to Sheng Xiao, "I'll take a look at the second floor."

On the second floor, Yu Huang saw that the middle seat of the last row was still empty, so she stood at the stairs on the second floor and said to Sheng Xiao, "Brother Xiao, come up. There's another seat."

Sheng Xiao frowned. "There's only one?"

Yu Huang said, "Come over quickly, I'll let you sit!"

Yu Huang knew how to dote on people the most. When she doted on him, even she herself was jealous.

The second floor was only 1.7 meters tall. Sheng Xiao had to bend down to walk.

He walked to the middle seat and sat down. He asked Yu Huang, "Then where are you sitting?"

Yu Huang waved her hand. "I don't need to sit." She squatted down in the aisle in front of Sheng Xiao and took out her phone to search for the most delicious wonton place in Jingdu.

At that moment, Sheng Xiao poked her back with a finger.

Yu Huang turned around and looked at Sheng Xiao in confusion. "What's wrong?"

Sheng Xiao stretched out his legs and put his boots together. He said to Yu Huang, "Sit on my feet."

When Yu Huang saw that Sheng Xiao was blushing, she had evil intentions. Yu Huang sat on Sheng Xiao's leg and looked up at him. "Your feet are so hard. Your legs are so soft. Why don't you let me sit there?"

Sheng Xiao was a little embarrassed by Yu Huang's teasing. He did not know how to answer. He was even angry.

Sheng Xiao was not used to Yu Huang being like this. He felt that she was a little too unrestrained, but he did not dislike it.

Sheng Xiao stared at Yu Huang's face and pursed his lips without saying anything.

Although Yu Huang had been disfigured, her facial features were very perfect. Not only did she not look ugly while wearing a mask, but it also added a sense of mysterious beauty to her.

Looking at Yu Huang's cherry red lips, Sheng Xiao asked, "Are Xuanyuan Jing's legs very soft too?" Sheng Xiao wanted to slap himself.

How stupid!

Yu Huang was shocked. She thought that she had heard wrongly and looked at Sheng Xiao in surprise. When she saw that Sheng Xiao was angry and regretful, she smiled again.

She teased Sheng Xiao on purpose. "You have to let me sit once before I can compare."

So she had really sat on Xuanyuan Jing's lap before!

Sheng Xiao's gaze darkened when he heard this answer. He suddenly pulled his legs out from under Yu Huang's butt.

Yu Huang was caught off guard and fell on the ground.

Sheng Xiao bent down and stood up. He said, "Take a seat. I'll stand on the first floor." Then, he went to the first floor.

Yu Huang sat down and thought about Sheng Xiao's angry reaction. She felt that it was funny. She did not expect him to be so jealous.

The double-storey bus stopped at the downtown terminal. The passengers on the first floor got off first, and the people on the second floor followed.

Yu Huang sat in the last row. When she got out of the bus, there was no one in the bus.

Yu Huang thought that Sheng Xiao left after getting angry. However, when she got out of the car, she saw Sheng Xiao waiting for her in the crowd.

Yu Huang was quite happy and waved at him. "Brother Xiao, I'm here!"

Sheng Xiao only turned around and walked out of the bus stop when he saw that she had alighted.

Yu Huang hurriedly ran after him.

After walking for a while, Sheng Xiao realized that his actions were a little childish. He stopped in his tracks quietly. When Yu Huang got closer, he suddenly apologized. "I was rude in the car earlier. I apologize."

Yu Huang was very surprised and asked him, "Why are you apologizing?"

Sheng Xiao stopped in his tracks and looked at Yu Huang. He said frankly, "I'm being petty. I shouldn't be angry with you."

Yu Huang smiled and asked him, "Why are you angry?"

Sheng Xiao pursed his lips and did not say anything.

Yu Huang knew why Sheng Xiao was unhappy, but she wanted to get to the bottom of it. She wanted to let him know what he was thinking.

“If you don’t know why, let me explain it to you.” Yu Huang pressed her palm on Sheng Xiao’s chest. “Because you have me here.”

Sheng Xiao raised his eyebrows at her. He did not refute her words, but he did not admit it either.

Yu Huang blinked her curly eyelashes and said, “Let me guess. When did I enter your heart?”

Yu Huang stood on her tiptoes and looked up at Sheng Xiao. She asked curiously, “Was it when you saw that after I was dumped by Xuanyuan Jing, not only did I not cry, but I even threw him a declaration of war? Or was it when you found out that I risked my life to jump into the Purgatory Sea to become a Purifying Spirit Master, and I even successfully became a Purifying Spirit Master? Or was it that night at the capital hotel of Rakshasa Empire, when I recklessly swallowed the Purifying Spirit Sacred Pearl to make you happy and almost exploded?”

The more Yu Huang spoke, the deeper Sheng Xiao’s gaze became. He felt embarrassed that someone had seen through his thoughts, but he did not stop Yu Huang from continuing.

Yu Huang knew that she had guessed correctly when she saw Sheng Xiao’s cold expression.

She said with certainty, “Sheng Xiao, maybe there are many girls in the world who like you and worship you, but none of them are as special as me.”

Sheng Xiao finally spoke. He asked Yu Huang, “How are you special?”

Yu Huang said, “I’m especially attractive to you.”

Sheng Xiao paused.

He stared at Yu Huang with a strange expression for a while before suddenly saying, “I underestimated you before. You will become this year’s college entrance examination top scorer.”

Yu Huang did not understand what Sheng Xiao meant immediately. When she understood, she smiled sweetly. "Brother Xiao, are you praising me for being smart?"

Sheng Xiao lowered his head and walked. He did not admit it.

Yu Huang chased after him and shook Sheng Xiao's sleeve. She said, "If I become the top scorer, you can be my boyfriend!"

Sheng Xiao reminded her mercilessly, "Have you forgotten? Your name and your ex-fiancé's are still engraved on the wall of my school's disciplinary hall."

Every time he passed by the disciplinary hall and saw the names of the two people together on the wall, Sheng Xiao would feel vexed.

However, he did not realize how he felt about Yu Huang back then. Now that he had thought about it, Sheng Xiao had the urge to smash the wall.

Yu Huang changed her words. "When I defeat Xuanyuan Jing, you can be my boyfriend."

Sheng Xiao did not nod this time, but he did not reject it.

The two of them walked all the way to an old wonton shop. Yu Huang had only eaten a bowl of minty starch jelly in the morning and was already hungry.

She ordered two bowls of wonton in one go while Sheng Xiao only ordered one.

The waiter brought the three bowls of wonton to the table and placed two of them in front of Yu Huang, one on each side. She noticed that someone was peeping at them and asked Sheng Xiao in a low voice, "I have a big appetite. Would you feel ashamed to eat with me?"

Sheng Xiao put down the spoon and looked at her. He suddenly thought of something. 'Whether the husband is rich or not all depends on how pump the wife is.'

Sheng Xiao was speechless.

He stared at Yu Huang's thin arm and frowned as he said, "Eat more. You're too thin."

"Mentor also thinks that I'm too thin. He said that after my college entrance examination is over, he will set up a systematic strength training for me. When we meet again, I might become a King Kong Barbie."

Yu Huang put down the spoon and asked Sheng Xiao seriously, "Do you like muscular girls or demure girls?"

Sheng Xiao thought to himself, 'Girls of your type.'

However, he felt that it was too brazen, so the answer that was about to come out of his mouth was changed at the last moment. "The kind that is ruthless and reticent."

Yu Huang only shut up when she was despised for being a chatterbox.

She felt that after being with Sheng Xiao for a long time, she had become younger. Her mumbling was not like her.

After dinner, Sheng Xiao asked Yu Huang, "Where are you staying tonight?"

Yu Huang had yet to book a hotel. She said, "I want to go to the Myriad Book Pavilion."

"Myriad Book Pavilion?"

"I need to check some information."

Sheng Xiao had nothing to do tonight. He said, "I'll go with you."

“That’s good. I still have to apply for the Beast Tamer Badge and Purifying Spirit Master Badge. Do you know where I can get them?”

“You have to register your identity at the Beast Tamer Alliance and apply for a badge. The Purifying Spirit Master Badge can be done at the various Purifying Spirit Academy branches in the various cities. It will be more convenient for you to register after you return.”

Since the Beast Tamer Alliance would end work at 8: 30 PM, Sheng Xiao said, “Go to the Alliance’s place to register your identity before going to the Myriad Book Pavilion.”

“Alright then.”

The two of them circled half the city before arriving at the Beast Tamer Alliance’s building.

The office hall was on the first floor and the hall was very wide. The desks were scattered in the hall in a U shape. There was a staff member sitting behind every desk.

The manager recognized Sheng Xiao the moment he appeared.

The manager quickly walked out from behind the desk in the middle and came to Sheng Xiao. He bowed and asked respectfully, “Supreme Master Sheng, it’s been half a year. Did you... level up again?”

Hearing this, everyone in the hall instantly became silent.

What?

Sheng Xiao had advanced again?

Everyone looked at Sheng Xiao as if he was a monster.

Yu Huang burst out laughing.

Sheng Xiao was also feeling awkward. He took a step to the left and revealed Yu Huang, who was standing behind him.

When the manager saw Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao's awkward expression, he realized that he had asked a stupid question.

Sheng Xiao had broken through to the Supreme Master realm half a year ago.. Even if he swallowed a rocket, he would not be able to break through to the Grand Master realm in a short time.

Chapter 102: Identification, Super Beast Form!

Sheng Xiao pointed at Yu Feng and said to Manager Liu, "This is a friend of mine. She awakened her beast form last year. I brought her to the Alliance to register her identity."

"I see! May I know how to address you?" Although Manager Liu was the manager of the Beast Tamer Alliance in Jingdu, he was an ordinary person. Facing these powerful Beast Tamers, Manager Liu had to address them respectfully.

Yu Huang said, "My name is Yu Huang. You can call me by my name."

Upon hearing the name Yu Feng, Manager Liu's expression instantly became strange.

The news of Yu Feng and the young master of the Xuanyuan Sheng Clan had long been spread throughout the cultivation world. Now, who in the cultivation world did not know that Young Master Xuanyuan had gone to the Prosperous Capital to end the engagement, but was instead angrily thrown a letter of challenge by his ex-fiancée?

Now, this matter had become a topic of discussion for everyone.

Xuanyuan Jing had awakened his beast form at the age of 13 and was now at the peak of the intermediate-stage of Scholar Realm. Yu Huang was already 18 years old and had yet to awaken her beast form, so she would probably never be able to be a beast tamer in her lifetime.

If she couldn't become a Beast Tamer, then Yu Huang could only enter the Divine Realm Academy as the top scorer of the national college entrance examination and strive to enter the Purifying Spirit Academy to work after graduation.

However, everyone knew that Yu Feng was a celebrity with mediocre grades. How could she become the top scholar?

Hence, when they heard about Yu Feng issuing a letter of challenge to Xuanyuan Jing, everyone felt that it was ridiculous while thinking that Yu Feng didn't know her own limits.

It was a fool's dream for her to defeat Xuanyuan Jing and avenge herself.

Manager Liu had always thought so too.

So, when he heard Sheng Xiao say that Yu Huang had awakened her beast form and was going to register as a Beast Tamer in the Alliance, Manager Liu was shocked.

He suspected that he had made a mistake. Perhaps the girl in front of him just happened to have the same name as that celebrity, Yu Feng.

Manager Liu stared at Yu Feng and asked cautiously, "May I know which Yu Huang you are?"

Yu Feng seemed to know what was on Manager Liu's mind. She took off her mask, revealing the ugly and terrifying scar on her right face. She replied calmly, "The former actress Yu Huang."

The moment he saw Yu Feng's face, Manager Liu knew that he couldn't be wrong.

Heavens!

The woman who the entire cultivation world believed could not be a Beast Tamer had awakened her beast form and become a Beast Tamer! She had even become good friends with Sheng Xiao!

This was really...

It was a pleasant surprise!

Manager Liu felt gossipy and was extremely excited. He only wanted to immediately hide backstage and open his phone to share this first-hand information on the Beast Tamer website to shock those bastards.

Manager Liu took a deep breath and said with a smile, "Ms. Yu Huang, Supreme Master Sheng, please follow me to the examination room to meet the teacher. He will do the most professional examination for you."

Every Beast Tamer had to be tested before they registered their identity as a Beast Tamer. This was the rule. No one was an exception. Sheng Xiao had gone through this process before.

On the way to the testing room, Sheng Xiao reminded Yu Feng, "Don't be nervous. The teacher in charge of your test is an experienced old man. He must know what species your duck is."

Yu Huang's lips curled up when she heard Sheng Xiao's words.

A duck?

She would scare him later!

The old man was already waiting in the studio. When he saw Sheng Xiao, he stood up and bowed to Sheng Xiao. "Good evening, Master Sheng."

Sheng Xiao bowed and replied, "Hello, Mr. Zhong."

Mr. Zhong's gaze landed on Yu Feng again. He nodded and said, "Please release your beast form."

Yu Huang cooperatively stretched out her right hand and summoned her beast form Xuan Yu.

The moment Xuan Yu appeared, the temperature in the room increased by more than ten degrees. Manager Liu immediately felt hot and could not help but let go of his tie and unbutton his shirt.

The moment the old man saw Xuan Yu, his originally turbid eyes suddenly trembled. He was afraid that he had seen wrongly, so he hurriedly picked up the presbyopic eye on the table and put it on. He stood on his tiptoes to carefully examine Xuan Yu's body.

Sheng Xiao stared at the little duck. He realized that it had only been half a year since they last met, but the little duck had grown bigger and its fur was redder. He noticed that Mr. Zhong was excited. He had a bold guess.

Could it be that Yu Huang's beast form was not a duck?

Mr. Zhong looked at Xuan Yu for a long time. The more he looked, the brighter his eyes became. He muttered to himself, "It's shaped like a baby duck, has a loud voice, and is covered in red feathers. This thing..."

He had a vague guess about Xuan Yu's identity, but he didn't dare believe it.

At this moment, Xuan Yu suddenly flapped his chubby little wings and flew up. When it flew, its wings brought about a ball of flames, so the temperature in the room was even higher.

Manager Liu's forehead was covered in sweat.

When he saw the flame, Mr. Zhong was so excited that his hands began to tremble. He shouted in shock, "Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame!"

When she heard the words Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame, Yu Huang's pupils constricted slightly. In the Time Valley, the witch spirit that was formed from a Fourth Grade Divine Rank cultivation technique had also said these words about Xuan Yu.

What exactly was a Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame?

Mr. Zhong stared at Xuan Yu with his bright eyes, as if he had seen a treasure. He said crazily, "Absolutely right! Absolutely right! This is it!"

Mr. Zhong strode over to Yu Huang and grabbed her arm as he asked anxiously, "It's the Divine Feather Phoenix, right?!"

From the moment Yu Huang heard about the Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame, she knew that the old man was knowledgeable and had already recognized Xuan Yu. Yu Huang knew that she couldn't hide it anymore, so she could only admit it.

After receiving Yu Huang's affirmation, Mr. Zhong was so excited that he was about to cry.

He sighed and said, "I really never expected that not only would I be fortunate enough to meet Black Qing in my lifetime, but I would also be able to meet the Divine Feather Phoenix. I have no regrets in this lifetime!"

Sheng Xiao could not help but look at Xuan Yu. He seemed to have seen the name Divine Feather Phoenix before.

He looked at Yu Feng again. She looked calm, so he knew that she knew about the little duckling's identity. Sheng Xiao remembered Yu Feng's mysterious smile when he mentioned the little duckling. He understood why she was laughing at that time.

This girl was a little mischievous.

Manager Liu watched Mr. Zhong's crazy reaction and then looked at Yu Feng in a different light.

Mr. Zhong was not an ordinary person. Not only was he a Beast Tamer Alliance Master, but he was also the Pavilion Master of the Myriad Book Pavilion.

Their family had guarded the Myriad Book Pavilion for generations and had only worked on three things in their lives—

Gathering beast forms, recording beast forms, and perfecting beast forms!

Yu Huang's beast form made this old man go crazy. What did this mean? It meant that Yu Huang's beast form was most likely a transcendent-grade beast form!

Transcendent-grade beast form! Didn't that mean that it was on the same level as Supreme Master Sheng's Black Qing Sky Dragon?

Manager Liu was shocked.

Yu Feng had such an impressive beast form, so why would she still be worried about being unable to defeat Xuanyuan Jing? At this moment, Manager Liu couldn't help but shed bitter tears for Xuanyuan Jing.

After confirming that Yu Huang's beast form was a Divine Feather Phoenix, the old man's attitude towards Yu Huang was different. His gaze was filled with love.

He chuckled and completed the follow-up test for Yu Huang. He first tested Yu Huang's cultivation level, then tested her beast form's attributes. Only then did he hand the final results to Manager Liu.

Manager Liu received the test report and lowered his head to see what was written on it—

Yu Huang:

Identity: Elementary Scholar-level Beast Tamer.

Beast Form: Divine Feather Phoenix

Beast Form Rank: Super Beast Form

Beast Form Attribute: Battle Type

Super beast form!

Yu Huang was the second super beast form awakened in the Divine Moon Empire apart from Sheng Xiao. He would register this person!

What an honor.

Manager Liu's hands were trembling as he held the test results. When he spoke to Yu Feng again, his tone became respectful. "Madam, this way please. I will personally register your ID."

"Thank you."

Manager Liu swiftly registered Yu Feng's identity and settled her Beast Tamer Badge. He even thoughtfully opened the Beast Tamer website's membership number for her.

"Scholar, this is yours. Take it."

Yu Huang took the badge and stored it in the identification box in the storage device. Then, she put the mask on her face.

Before she left, she looked at Manager Liu meaningfully and said, "Manager Liu, you should know what to say and what not to say."

Yu Feng didn't want the news of her awakening her super beast form to be spread out too early. She hoped that the fewer people who knew, the better. That way, Xuanyuan Jing wouldn't know about her strength.

Xuanyuan Jing was a beast tamer at the peak of the intermediate-stage of the Scholar realm after all. Yu Feng wasn't completely confident that she could defeat him. That was why she wanted to numb Xuanyuan Jing's state of mind and make him look down on her and belittle her without knowing the truth.

The more Xuanyuan Jing didn't take her seriously, the higher the chance of Yu Feng winning.

Manager Liu had also guessed Yu Feng's thoughts. He immediately straightened his back and swore solemnly, "Scholar, don't worry. I will keep my mouth shut."

Yu Huang possessed a super-rank beast form. She would definitely achieve great things in the future. To be able to keep a secret for a powerful Beast Tamer, Manager Liu immediately felt that he was quite a big shot.

Yu Feng only left with Sheng Xiao after hearing Manager Liu's promise.

"Supreme Master Sheng, Scholar, I'll send you off." After sending Yu Feng and the others away, Manager Liu couldn't help but shake his head and sigh. "Young Master Xuanyuan, you're finished!"

That was why one couldn't be a jerk no matter or provoke women.

Sheng Xiao remained silent after they left the building.

Yu Huang knew what he was thinking. She told Sheng Xiao, "At first, I didn't know that my beast form was the Divine Feather Phoenix. Mentor brought me to the Pantheon Pavilion and checked the information for the entire night. Then, we found out its identity."

Sheng Xiao shook his head when he heard her explanation. "I don't blame you for hiding your beast form. I was thinking about something else."

"Then what are you thinking?"

Sheng Xiao stopped in his tracks and looked down at Yu Feng. His expression was complicated. He said, "Have you heard of an ancient legend?"

Yu Huang said, "Huh?"

Sheng Xiao told her, "It is rumored that there was a Divine Master in the ancient era."

"Didn't they say that there had never been a Divine Master?" Who was right?

"It has never appeared on the Holy Spirit Continent before, but ten thousand years ago, there was a Divine Master in these three thousand worlds," Sheng Xiao told Yu Huang. "Among the three thousand worlds, there is a big world called the Divine Feather Continent. The Divine Feather Phoenix Clan and the Black Qing Sky Dragon Clan live there. They are natural enemies. They kill each other when they meet."

"It is said that when a Prime Master Phoenix eats a Prime Master Sky Dragon, it can break through and become a Divine Master.. Similarly, if a Sky Dragon eats a Phoenix, it can also become a Divine Master."

Chapter 103: Senior Brother, Ji Linyuan!

Divine Feather Phoenix and Black Qing Sky Dragon!

Yu Huang was shocked. "Aren't you and my beast form these two?"

Sheng Xiao hummed thoughtfully.

He had heard about this rumor before. That was why Sheng Xiao found the name Divine Feather Phoenix familiar when he heard it in the Alliance.

He thought for a while before remembering where he had heard the name of the Divine Feather Phoenix.

"The Divine Feather Phoenix and Black Qing Sky Dragon are not humans. Instead, they are powerful demon beasts. Their beast form has their own spirit souls. Thus, their cultivation speed is extremely fast."

Yu Huang said, "No wonder your cultivation talent is so terrifying."

"But that's not what I want to say." Sheng Xiao seemed to have thought of something. He frowned and looked gloomy.

Yu Huang didn't like to see him frown, so she asked, "What do you want to tell me?"

Sheng Xiao looked at her with an expression that was complicated and hesitant.

"Just say it." Yu Huang hated naggy men the most.

Sheng Xiao then said, "It is said that there was a mutant in the Black Qing Sky Dragon Clan..." He stared at Yu Huang's bright eyes and said softly, "That mutant fell in love with his nemesis."

Yu Huang's heart suddenly ached, as if she had been pricked by a needle. She subconsciously frowned, and her instincts told her that she would not like to hear this story.

However, Sheng Xiao did not notice Yu Huang's disgust. He muttered to himself, "I heard that the dragon loved the Phoenix Bird so much that he was petty. It did many traitorous things for her, but in the end, he was used by the Phoenix Bird and died. When he died, his dragon flesh was cut off and even his dragon bone was made into an alchemy bone."

Yu Huang suddenly felt sad. She interrupted Sheng Xiao coldly. "Stop it! I don't like to hear it."

Sheng Xiao immediately shut up.

Yu Huang looked at Sheng Xiao meaningfully. She sneered and asked Sheng Xiao, "What are you implying? We are old enemies. Are we destined to have a bad ending?"

Sheng Xiao raised his index finger and flicked Yu Huang's forehead. He said, "I want to tell you that you should take every step of your cultivation seriously. Don't try to improve your cultivation through those dirty tricks! The Divine Feather Phoenix Clan and the Black Qing Sky Dragon Clan might have been exterminated because they angered the heavens by killing each other."

Sheng Xiao was worried that Yu Huang would have ulterior motives when she learned about this rumor in the future and would want to find a dragon to swallow to improve her cultivation.

Yu Huang was speechless.

Just a second ago, she was still fuming mad, but now, she was caught between laughter and tears.

Yu Huang looked at the small mole beside Sheng Xiao's Adam's apple meaningfully and said, "Is that so? But I want to catch a dragon and 'eat' it to improve my cultivation."

Sheng Xiao's expression darkened immediately. He scolded her, "Nonsense! Did you forget what I said?" He was worried that Yu Huang would do something stupid. He threatened her, "If you dare to do such a stupid thing, I..."

He said in the most fierce tone, "I will ignore you forever."

How scary.

Yu Huang smiled and asked him, "Sheng Xiao, do you not know what the word 'eat' means?"

Sheng Xiao did not understand what Yu Huang meant at first. When he understood what she meant, his body became hot.

He looked helpless and angry. He stared at Yu Huang for a long time before saying, "Are all you people in the entertainment industry so... so unrestrained?!"

The strict Sheng family wouldn't raise a pervert like Yu Huang, and they wouldn't allow a lecherous person to come out of the family.

A lecher like Xuanyuan Jing would be whipped by a stick in the Sheng Clan.

Sheng Xiao entered the Divine Realm Academy at a young age. He was the 'number one genius' of the Divine Realm Academy. The teachers in the school treated him like a treasure. Everyone who appeared beside him was an outstanding beast tamer.

Outstanding people were more or less reserved and prideful. No girl had ever been as brazen as Yu Huang. Sheng Xiao could not stand Yu Huang's passion and teasing. He was furious, but he could not bear to leave.

Yu Huang noticed Sheng Xiao's cute reaction and could not help but tease him. She was quite happy to see the child being shy.

Seeing that Sheng Xiao was really angry, Yu Huang did not dare to push her luck anymore. She explained, "I don't know if women in the entertainment industry are promiscuous, but I am only promiscuous with you."

Sheng Xiao was even angrier.

"Let's go. We're going to the Myriad Book Pavilion!" Yu Huang turned around and left after teasing him. Sheng Xiao stared at her back and followed her obediently.

The gatekeeper of the Myriad Book Pavilion was the same old man as last time. When he saw Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao, he reached out and stopped them. He reminded them expressionlessly, "Please show your Beast Tamer Badge."

Yu Huang turned around and looked at Sheng Xiao. Her gaze seemed to be saying, "There are places that you can't enter just by showing your face."

The two of them obediently took out their badges and were let in after he checked them.

After they entered the Myriad Book Pavilion, Sheng Xiao told Yu Huang, "The old man just now is a member of the Yin family. He might not look handsome, but his cultivation is very high. He is a Grand Master."

Yu Huang could not help but turn back to look at the elder.

The old man was wearing a washed-out blue robe. He had an ordinary face. If Sheng Xiao had not told her the truth, she would not have guessed that he was a Grand Master.

"Are you very surprised?" Sheng Xiao asked her.

Yu Huang acknowledged it and asked, "If he's so powerful, why is he guarding the door here?"

Sheng Xiao asked Yu Huang, "Do you know about the Central Pagoda Protection War 18 years ago?"

Yu Huang pursed her red lips tightly and didn't dare to reveal her true emotions. She pretended to be calm and said, "I know. A Prime Master died in that battle."

"Yes." Sheng Xiao turned around and looked at the old man. He told Yu Huang, "This old man is the only personal disciple of the Prime Master. He is also one of the participants in the Central Pagoda challenge."

“In that battle, he was the only one left out of the 200 participants. I heard that when the rescue team rushed into the Central Pagoda and found him, he was still wearing the protective shield given to him by the Prime Master.”

Yu Huang, her eyes filled with confusion, listened in a daze. Was that person her senior brother? “Then why is he guarding the door here?”

“There’s something you should have heard before.”

Yu Huang said, “Huh?”

Sheng Xiao did not say anything else. He only said, “Every new sovereign brings his own courtiers.”

After Yin Mingjue passed away, everything in the Yin Clan became Yin Mingchong’s. Since he was Yin Mingjue’s personal disciple, the Yin Clan naturally couldn’t tolerate him.

“What’s his name?”

Sheng Xiao shook his head. “I’m not sure. He was brought back from the Upper World by the Prime Master. He seems to be an orphan. No one knows his name. When I was very young, I heard the Prime Master call him Lin Yuan.”

Lin Yuan.

Yu Huang suddenly said softly, “Ji Linyuan.” This name subconsciously came out of her mouth.

Swish!

Outside the hall of Myriad Book Pavilion, the old man with drooping eyelids suddenly raised his head and looked into the hall.. A trace of confusion appeared on his face. How did that little girl know his name?

Chapter 104: Mutated Devouring Beast

On the Holy Spirit Continent, there were many people who knew that the Prime Master had a personal disciple. There were also many people who knew that the personal disciple’s name was Linyuan, but there were very few people who knew that Linyuan’s surname was Ji.

Apart from his master, Yin Mingjue, only Yin Mingjue’s personal attendant, Yin Donghai, knew.

But how did that young lady know his name?

Ji Linyuan couldn’t figure it out.

Sheng Xiao was surprised to hear Ji Linyuan’s name from Yu Huang. He asked Yu Huang, “You know his name?”

Yu Huang felt strange when she heard Sheng Xiao's question. According to her father, she was kidnapped by Yin Mingchong's people when she was only three months old. But what kind of memories could a three-month-old baby have?

Yu Huang shook her head and explained, "I don't know his name. I just think the name Linyuan will be more beautiful with the surname Ji."

In order to hide her guilt, Yu Huang asked Sheng Xiao, "Don't you think so?"

Sheng Xiao nodded. "That's a good name. Let's get down to business."

Yu Huang had been to the Myriad Book Pavilion once and was familiar with the layout.

The Myriad Book Pavilion was divided into Bird Pavilion, Sea Beast Pavilion, Plant Pavilion, and Beast Pavilion. The insect-type beasts were temporarily stored in the Plant Pavilion because of the small number of species.

Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao went straight to the plant store. They found the insect file on the west side of the second floor according to the instructions.

Yu Huang said to Sheng Xiao, "You read it from the left while I read from the right."

"Okay."

Although there were fewer types of insects in the beast form, there were still two bookshelves full of them. The two of them started reading from 10 o'clock to 3 o'clock in the morning. They did not rest for more than 15 minutes during this period. However, they did not find a beast form that was completely compatible with Anna Tao's beast form.

After reading the last book, Yu Huang still did not find the answer she wanted. She closed the book and looked up at Sheng Xiao. She muttered, "Perhaps her beast form does not belong to the insect specialization."

Yu Huang's eyes lit up when she thought about how Mr. Zhong was a mobile encyclopedia. Perhaps he knew Anna's beast form. She said to Sheng Xiao, "If only we can contact Mr. Zhong. We can ask him."

Sheng Xiao looked at the long corridor outside the hall of the Myriad Book Pavilion and said softly, "You don't have to ask Mr. Zhong. It's the same if you ask the gatekeeper."

Senior Brother?

"Let's try our luck."

After leaving the botany hall, the two of them stood on the stairs outside the gate of the hall of the Myriad Book Pavilion. Sheng Xiao said to the empty night sky, "Mr. Linyuan, I have something that I don't understand. Please enlighten me."

The empty air suddenly distorted as an old man's figure slowly condensed.

Ji Linyuan lowered his head and stood below. He walked up to the two of them.

Ji Linyuan stared at Yu Huang thoughtfully for a while before nodding at Sheng Xiao. "What is it?"

Sheng Xiao asked Ji Linyuan humbly, "I would like to ask Mr. Linyuan if there is a beast that looks like an ant but has teeth?"

After hearing Sheng Xiao's description, Ji Linyuan closed his eyes and thought for a moment. Then, he opened his eyes and said with certainty, "There is indeed such a beast form. Follow me."

Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao looked at each other in joy.

The two of them hurriedly followed behind Ji Linyuan and arrived at the Beast Hall.

Standing in front of the Beast Hall, Yu Huang could not help but suspect that Ji Linyuan had remembered wrongly.

Yu Huang reminded Ji Linyuan, "Sir, my friend's beast form is very small, and her beast form..."

Ji Linyuan interrupted her. "Some ferocious beasts are growth-type." He glanced at Yu Huang and said meaningfully, "For example, the Divine Feather Phoenix Clan."

Yu Huang's pupils dilated slightly. She guessed that her and Lin Jiansheng's every move in the Myriad Book Pavilion last time was under Mr. Linyuan's surveillance.

Without questioning Linyuan's professional judgment, the two of them followed him into the Beast Hall.

Lin Yuan stood in the hall of the Beast Hall and thought for a moment before walking up the stairs. He walked straight to the fifth row of bookshelves on the left of the fourth floor of the building and stood on his tiptoes to take a black book at the top of the bookshelf.

The book said—

[Catalogue of mutated beasts].

"Let's see if there's anything you want in here." Ji Linyuan handed the black book to Sheng Xiao and was about to leave. He took a few steps and suddenly turned around to ask Yu Huang, "Young lady, how old are you?"

Yu Huang met Ji Linyuan's thoughtful gaze. She hesitated for a moment before telling the truth, "I turned 19 this year."

Ji Linyuan looked at her with a deeper gaze. "Oh, based on your accent, you don't seem to be from Jingdu. Which family are you from?"

Yu Huang told her, "My surname is Yu, and my father is Yu Donghai. I'm from the Prosperous Capital." She deliberately mentioned Yu Donghai's name to test Ji Linyuan's reaction.

She noticed that when Ji Linyuan heard Yu Donghai's name, his eyes clearly flickered slightly, but he quickly regained his composure.

Ji Linyuan didn't continue asking and only said, "Call me if there's anything. I'll take my leave first."

"Take care, Sir."

Sheng Xiao only opened the book after Ji Linyuan left.

Sheng Xiao had long hands. His right fingertip landed on the ancient and slightly yellow page, making it appear even fairer.

Yu Huang stared at the beautiful right hand in a daze.

The book recorded some mutated beast forms. These beast forms had all kinds of strange appearances. At first, they looked like monsters, but on a closer look, one could find the semblance of a normal beast form on their bodies.

Sheng Xiao quickly read the contents. He flipped through more than sixty pages and finally found something. “Yu Huang, look at this!”

Sheng Xiao quickly read the contents. He flipped through more than sixty pages and finally found something. “Yu Huang, look at this!”

There was a creature that looked like an ant on the page, but in the close-up picture, it had teeth in its mouth.

Beside the picture was the name of the creature—

Mutated Devouring Beast.

Mutated Devouring Beast?

This name sounded awesome.

Yu Huang hurriedly flipped to the back and saw annotation regarding the Mutated Devouring Beast—

The Mutated Devouring Beast looked like an ant, but it had sharp teeth. There was a chance that a Mutated Devouring Beast would be awakened in every hundred thousand ant beast forms. It was a high-level beast.

Its teeth were extremely sharp and could cut iron like mud.

Note: This beast can absorb everything in the world. If it consumes spiritual force, it can increase its cultivation. If it consumes poison, its lifespan will decrease. It is both a good beast and an evil beast.

After reading the notes, Yu Huang’s eyes were filled with shock. Even Sheng Xiao was shocked. “This thing increases its cultivation by consuming spiritual energy. No wonder your friend’s cultivation level did not improve after cultivating for half a year. This thing is really a evil beast.”

Yu Huang was unhappy when she heard Sheng Xiao’s evaluation of Anna Tao. She could not help but retort, “But from another perspective, a mutated devouring beast can be a good beast. The book said that a mutated devouring beast can remove poison.”

Sheng Xiao understood Yu Huang’s protection of Anna Tao as a friend, but he still pointed out a key question mercilessly. “Yu Huang, if your beast form is a Mutated Devouring Beast, do you want to be a super-powerful person? Or do you want to be a saint and use your life to save those poisoned strangers?”

Yu Huang was momentarily speechless.

Sheng Xiao closed the black book and stuffed it back onto the shelf.

He looked up at the carved pillar at the top of the building and sighed softly. "Yu Huang, human nature is sometimes very great, but sometimes it's very selfish. I'm seven years older than you. I've lived for 26 years. Among the Beast Tamers I've seen, there's only one person who is truly selfless."

At the mention of that person, Sheng Xiao, who had always been quiet, started to talk non-stop. "That person is my idol. In the Central Pagoda Protection War, in order to protect the Holy Spirit Continent, he sacrificed his beast form and blocked the space-time gate with his flesh and blood. When you successfully enter the Divine Realm Academy, I will bring you to worship him. He is a person worthy of admiration and love."

At the mention of that person, Sheng Xiao, who had always been quiet, started to talk non-stop. "That person is my idol. In the battle of the Central Pagoda, in order to protect the Holy Spirit Continent, he sacrificed his beast form and blocked the space-time gate with his flesh and blood. When you successfully enter the Divine Realm Academy, I will bring you to worship him. He is a person worthy of admiration and love."

However, she could only hear information related to her father from the descriptions of others, yet she was unable to see it with her own eyes, and this caused Yu Huang to feel sad and dejected.

Yu Huang hid her thoughts and asked Sheng Xiao, "Is the person you're talking about the Prime Master?"

Sheng Xiao admitted it openly. "Yes, it's him. But I've never seen many people who are as selfless as him. Most of them are selfish people. Do you think she will still be as calm and composed as she is now after your friend knows her true identity in her beast form?"

Yu Huang retorted Sheng Xiao's opinion of Anna Tao. "Anna is not that kind of person! She is very kind!"

Sheng Xiao did not argue with Yu Huang when he saw that she was agitated. He analyzed rationally, "Anna Tao was bullied by many people during the past half a year because of her weak beast form."

"This might not be the first time she's faced such a situation in the screening test. Do you think a girl who's always bullied by others can still remain unmoved after suddenly finding out how powerful her beast form is?"

Sheng Xiao was familiar with human nature.

His words directly rendered Yu Huang speechless.

Yu Huang had lived during the end of the world. She had seen countless sins in that base. She knew that Sheng Xiao was not exaggerating the truth. He was just stating the truth as a rational adult.

Yu Huang could not help but change her position and think about it. If she were Anna Tao, would she still be able to maintain a normal mindset after suffering those unfair treatment?

Probably not.

Just what happened at the screening test today was enough to plant a seed of hatred in her heart.

At the thought of this, Yu Huang felt a chill down her spine.

She was suddenly confused and didn't know if she should tell Anna Tao the truth about the Mutated Devouring Beast.

If she said it, she was afraid that Anna Tao would go astray in the future. If she did not say it, then Anna Tao would not even have a chance to choose.

In her life, Anna Tao could not be a bad person or a good person.. She could only be an ordinary person with mediocre talent.

Chapter 105: Grand State Master: Am I Good-looking?

Sheng Xiao could read Yu Huang's mind. He only needed to look at her eyes to know what she was thinking.

Sheng Xiao pressed Yu Huang's shoulder and told her, "I think you should tell Anna Tao the truth."

Yu Huang subconsciously said, "But I'm afraid that she'll take the wrong path when she finds out the truth."

Sheng Xiao smiled gently at her. "What are you afraid of? With a friend like you supervising her, if she wants to take the wrong path, she will have to ask for your permission."

He bent his finger and flicked Yu Huang's forehead. He continued, "I questioned Anna Tao because she was just an ordinary person to me. And I have always been cold and heartless to ordinary people. But you guys are different. You two are good friends. I can question your friends, but you can't."

"We should be filled with confidence and trust in our friends, right?"

After hearing Sheng Xiao's words, Yu Huang felt enlightened.

That made sense. She would supervise Anna properly.

If anyone bullied Anna again, she would beat them back with her fists! As long as there was someone who loved Anna, Anna would still love the world and would not take the evil path.

"Sheng Xiao, you're such a treasure." Yu Huang, who was only slightly interested in Sheng Xiao, was even more interested in him now.

The calmness on Sheng Xiao's face disappeared when he was praised. He became embarrassed again. "Alright, let's go."

"Okay."

Before dawn, Sheng Xiao asked Yu Huang what her plans were.

Yu Huang said, "Find a place to sleep and then bid farewell to Anna. I only took a day off from my mentor. I still have to go back to catch up on lessons."

“Are you returning to the Prosperous Capital today?” Sheng Xiao did not notice the reluctance in his voice, but Yu Huang could hear it.

Yu Huang looked up at Sheng Xiao and said, “It’s fine if I don’t sleep. Are you willing to watch the sunrise with me in Jingdu?”

Sheng Xiao could not bear to reject her.

The best place to watch the sunrise in the entire Jingdu was the Divination Tower where the Grand State Master lived. However, that was a forbidden place. Ordinary people would not be able to get close to it. However, Yu Huang was bold. She urged Sheng Xiao to fly to the Divination Tower with her when there were fewer people in the morning.

After only half an hour, the sun rose from the east and cast sunlight in.

The Divination Tower was the tallest building in the center of Jingdu. The morning sunlight shone on the top of the tower and on Yu Huang’s face. Under the sunlight, Yu Huang’s hair and skin were glowing. The mask also reflected a golden luster. This made her appear holy and beautiful.

At that moment, a strange scene appeared in Yu Huang’s mind. She saw a girl with a ponytail sitting on Sheng Xiao’s shoulder. She shouted at her softly, “Mommy, Mommy!”

Yu Huang wanted to look at the girl’s face carefully. She tilted her head and almost kissed Sheng Xiao’s face.

Sheng Xiao saw that Yu Huang was staring at a certain spot in a daze. He was afraid that she would miss the beautiful sunrise, so he came over to remind her. Unexpectedly, Yu Huang tilted her head when he moved closer. They almost kissed.

Sheng Xiao came back to his senses and was about to step back when Yu Huang suddenly raised her right hand and pressed it against the back of Sheng Xiao’s head. She raised her head and kissed him.

It was a very clean and precious kiss.

Sheng Xiao was kissed.

For a full ten seconds, he forgot where he was and what he was doing.

Yu Huang stared at Sheng Xiao’s handsome face. The warm scene that she had expected flashed across her mind. Her heart softened.

Yu Huang suddenly felt at ease.

She had her eye on him.

Sheng Xiao pretended to watch the sunrise in embarrassment. Yu Huang was also recalling the foreseeable future. She did not speak for a moment.

At this moment, a smiling male voice suddenly sounded below them. “Not only did the two of you come uninvited, but you even kissed above my roof. Do you guys really not treat me as an outsider?”

Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang were shocked. They stood up abruptly.

Sheng Xiao grabbed Yu Huang's hand and flew down the roof. They landed in the corridor under the roof.

After she stabilized herself, Yu Huang looked up and saw the Grand State Master.

The Grand State Master was wearing a hat and a gorgeous wide-sleeved robe. There was a white crane soaring in the sky embroidered on the robe, giving off a mysterious and noble aura.

In his hand was a beautiful porcelain cup with a cup of coffee.

The Grand State Master lowered his head and took a sip of coffee. There was a drop of coffee juice on his cherry red lips, making his face appear as exquisite and flawless as white jade.

Yu Huang was somewhat stunned when she saw this.

Sheng Xiao knew that the Grand State Master hated it when people stared at his face like a love-struck fool. He would throw people into the snake pit if he was angry.

He saw that Yu Huang had been staring at the Grand State Master's face while sizing him up. He hurriedly pressed down on the back of her head and made her look at the ground.

"Hehe." The Grand State Master suddenly laughed. Even his laughter sounded pleasant and moving.

Yu Huang heard the Grand State Master ask, "I saw you staring at me in a daze. Tell me, am I handsome?"

His tone was sarcastic and cocky.

Yu Huang was momentarily unsure of what to do.

If she said that he was handsome, she was afraid that she would be thrown into the snake cavern. If she said that he was not, then she was lying through her teeth.

Fortunately, Yu Huang was quick-witted. She immediately organized her words and said, "The Divine Moon Empire is filled with beautiful rivers and mountains. No matter how I look at it, I can't get enough of it. In my opinion, the Grand State Master is as beautiful as the mountains and rivers of the Divine Moon Empire."

Sheng Xiao felt that it was corny. However, the Grand State Master laughed hysterically. "Hahaha, you're such a bad girl. I like you."

The Grand State Master handed the coffee cup to the attendant behind him. He took a step forward and raised Yu Huang's face with a black, tattooed finger.

Yu Huang was forced to look up and meet his gaze.

When she looked into the Grand State Master's blue eyes, Yu Huang immediately felt a sense of disorientation. However, she quickly snapped back and her hazy eyes became clear.

Upon seeing the change in Yu Huang's gaze, a hint of surprise flashed across the Grand State Master's eyes. "You are a Purifying Spirit Master?" Only a Purifying Spirit Master could remain conscious under the Grand State Master's gaze.

Yu Huang did not dare to lie and nodded honestly. "Grand State Master, I am Lin Jiansheng's personal disciple, Yu Huang."

She introduced herself because she hoped that the Grand State Master would show some leniency to her reckless behavior today on account of her mentor.

The Grand State Master only smiled and did not ask Yu Huang any more questions. He tilted his head and said to Sheng Xiao, "You can go down and wait."

Sheng Xiao would not leave Yu Huang alone. He raised his head and looked into the Grand State Master's eyes. "Grand State Master, you can punish me if you want. Don't punish a little girl."

The Grand State Master became impatient when he heard this. He waved his sleeves in disdain and urged, "Hurry up and scram. Don't put on such a show of affection in front of me. An old bachelor like me can't bear this provocation."

Sheng Xiao refused to leave.

Yu Huang tugged at Sheng Xiao's sleeve and said, "The Grand State Master is the most magnanimous and kind person. He is a noble person. Why would he mind a little girl like me? Brother Xiao, you can leave first!"

Yu Huang's words were not soft. She had placed the label of 'magnanimous and kind' on the Grand State Master's head. If she was really punished by the Grand State Master, the Grand State Master would have the reputation of a ruthless person.

The Grand State Master cast a sideways glance at Yu Huang and said in a sarcastic tone, "As expected of Lin Jiansheng's crafty disciple. You have such a silver tongue."

"Thank you for the compliment, Grand State Master. If Mentor knew that you thought so highly of him, he would laugh even in his sleep." Yu Huang gave the Grand State Master an extremely fake smile.

The Grand State Master's eyes hurt from watching and he couldn't help but turn his head to the side.

Sheng Xiao could tell what the Grand State Master was thinking. He knew that the Grand State Master would not punish Yu Huang, so he left.

After Sheng Xiao left, the Grand State Master said to Yu Huang, "Come in with me." He then entered the room.

Yu Huang stood in the corridor and exhaled before walking into the house with small steps.

As soon as she entered the house, she heard the Grand State Master say, "You're lucky to be able to grow up alive after being thrown into the abyss."

Yu Huang's expression changed slightly. Before she could speak, she heard the Grand State Master say, "Your fate is quite strange. You should have died three months ago, but your lifeline was extended to 18 years old. You should have died at the age of 18, but for some reason, you survived."

The Grand State Master stared at Yu Huang and sized her up. There was some confusion in the depths of his blue eyes. "I can't see your fate clearly now."

Yu Huang knew that the Grand State Master had already recognized her true identity. She knelt on the ground and kowtowed with gratitude. "I thank you for your guidance back then. If it wasn't for your benevolence and how you couldn't bear to see me buried in the abyss, so you have hints, I'm afraid I would have long become a pile of bones in the stomach of the ferocious abyss beast."

Upon hearing Yu Huang's words, the Grand State Master chuckled. "You're a good child who knows how to be grateful."

Yu Huang said, "I wouldn't dare forget your kindness to me!"

"I naturally have a request for saving you." The Grand State Master did not make things clear and only said half of it deliberately to bait Yu Huang.

Yu Huang was especially unwilling to take the bait, so she pretended not to understand the Grand State Master's hint.

Seeing that Yu Huang was feigning ignorance, the Grand State Master suddenly leaned forward and examined Yu Huang's eyes at a closer distance. After looking at them for a moment, he said with certainty, "Your wise eyes can see through the future and predict death and disaster. Am I right?"

Yu Huang was shocked.

As expected of the Grand State Master, he had seen through her completely with just one look.

Yu Huang did not like this feeling. This made her feel like someone had taken off her panties and looked at her naked.

Yu Huang no longer pretended to be stupid. She said bluntly, "My mentor said that you've been looking for a new successor recently. May I ask if you have taken a liking to me?"

Although he was surprised by Yu Huang's frankness, the Grand State Master did not avoid her question. He said, "You were born to be this way. Don't you want to learn how to control this ability from me so that you can predict your birth mother's information in the future?"

Yu Huang's eyes widened.

The Grand State Master went straight to the key point.

Yu Huang was momentarily speechless.

Seeing that Yu Huang had wavered, the Grand State Master was relieved. "Go back first and prepare for the college entrance examination. Think about my suggestion.. If you have thought it through, come to the Divination Tower and look for me."

Chapter 106: The Eve of the College Entrance Examination

Seeing that Yu Huang had finally come out, Sheng Xiao walked up to her quickly. He sized her up and asked, "Did the Grand State Master make things difficult for you?"

Yu Huang shook her head. "No, we should go to the horse ranch."

Sheng Xiao was relieved to see that Yu Huang was really safe. Although he was curious about the reason why the Grand State Master left Yu Huang alone, he would not ask further.

When they arrived at the racecourse, the competition was about to begin. After Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao separated, she went to the treatment building alone.

Anna Tao was eating breakfast, which was quite sumptuous.

Seeing Yu Huang come, Anna Tao hurriedly handed her two small steamed buns that had yet to be touched. "Yu Huang, try them. The Emperor Dowager sent them over. You should try them too."

Yu Huang took the bun and took a bite. She didn't think it tasted very delicious. She ate the steamed buns with a lot on her mind. She was still hesitant about telling Anna Tao the truth.

Anna Tao was also curious as to whether Yu Huang had gained anything from her trip to the Myriad Book Pavilion last night, but she didn't dare to ask. The two of them finished their breakfast with different thoughts. Yu Huang got up and washed her hands before coming over with a wet towel to wipe Anna Tao's hands.

Anna Tao obediently stayed put. When Yu Huang wiped her hands clean, she said, "You have something on your mind."

Yu Huang glanced at Anna Tao but said nothing.

She went to the bathroom to wash the towel and dry it before walking to the bed and sitting down. Yu Huang took Anna Tao's hand and told her, "I found information about your beast form."

Anna Tao nodded calmly. "What is it?"

"It is not an ant, but a mutated beast form called the Devouring Beast. Only one in every hundred thousand ant beast forms has a chance of awakening."

Anna Tao frowned. She was confused. "Is this thing capable of anything?"

It was very capable.

"Anna, your beast form is quite special. This thing is neither good nor evil. It's not easy to judge."

Neither good nor evil?

Anna Tao's expression became serious. She asked Yu Huang, "What is this Devouring Beast? Yu Huang, tell me the truth directly. I can bear it."

"Okay." After nodding, Yu Huang told Anna Tao the characteristics and strength of the Mutated Devouring Beast.

When Anna Tao found out that her beast form could actually devour the spiritual energy of others to increase her cultivation, her heart suddenly beat faster. Because she was too excited, her originally sickly face instantly flushed red.

Yu Huang grabbed Anna Tao's hand and said sternly, "Anna, there are some shortcuts that you can't take. If you really devour the spiritual power of others to increase your cultivation, you will become the enemy of the entire cultivation world!"

Anna Tao instantly sobered up.

She held Yu Huang's finger back with a conflicted expression on her face. When she thought about what had happened to her in the Beast Tamer Academy over the past half a year, her eyes turned red.

She told Yu Huang, "Do you know, Yu Huang, the cultivation world is really a cold and real world. In the six months I've been in the Beast Tamer Academy, I've been very unhappy. Those Beast Tamers with powerful beast forms always look at me as if I'm trash. When those boys talk about me, their tone is always frivolous and vulgar. Those girls will also bully me secretly."

"Just because I was born into an ordinary family without any power or status, and I even have the publicly acknowledged useless beast form, does that mean I deserve to be bullied?" Anna Tao was too agitated. She lost control of her hand and squeezed Yu Huang's hand directly.

Yu Huang's heart ached for Anna Tao. She couldn't persuade Anna Tao to be kind and let go of her past. She had to embrace the future with a cheerful mindset.

Because she didn't experience it, she had no right to.

"Because I was weak and had no one to rely on, Xuanyuan Sisi was able to publicly humiliate me at the screening test yesterday! I wanted to become more powerful even in my dreams! I want to not be bullied!"

As she spoke, tears flowed down Anna Tao's face. She asked Yu Huang for help in pain, "Yu Huang, I also want to be a good person, but becoming powerful is too tempting for me. Tell me, what can I do to suppress my desire?"

Yu Huang was speechless.

At that moment, she suddenly regretted it. Perhaps she should not have told Anna Tao the truth about the Mutated Devouring Beast.

"Anna, I know it's unfair to you to let go of the humiliation you've suffered in the past, but I want to tell you that no matter how others humiliate you, there will always be a group of people who love you and hope for you to be well."

"For example, me, the class monitor, and Vivian."

Hearing this, the protection and love Zhu Nuowen, Jiang Shangfeng, and Vivian had for her flashed across Anna Tao's mind. At that moment, a ray of light suddenly appeared in her distorted and dark heart.

The light did not scatter the darkness, but it also made her feel a hint of warmth. "Yu Huang, I promise you that I will try my best not to be a bad person."

Yu Huang pressed Anna Tao into her arms and stroked her hair. She sighed. "I believe in you. Rest well and try to get a good result next month. I have to go back soon. See you when my college entrance examination is over."

"Okay."

After Yu Huang left, Anna Tao released her beast form. She observed the engulfing beast with a complicated gaze. Thousands of thoughts flashed across her mind. Every thought made her blood boil. In the end, she suppressed them.

She wanted to work hard to be a good person for those who loved her.

...

After returning to Prosperous Capital, Yu Huang's life became boring again. She spent all her time dealing with exam papers and revision materials. Gradually, those questions that were unfamiliar and complicated to her became easy to understand.

A week before the college entrance examination, Lin Jiansheng wrote a set of college entrance examination papers for Yu Huang according to the pattern set by previous years.

His guess was very accurate. Most of the questions he gave would appear on the college entrance examination papers.

However, Lin Jiansheng did not tell Yu Huang this. When he threw the test paper to Yu Huang, he only said, "This is the test paper I bought for you at the bookstore. Let me see it."

Yu Huang was very serious about every paper. After she received the paper, she did not say anything. She opened the cap of her pen and started to do the questions.

After completing the exam paper, Yu Huang was really sleepy. She fell asleep the moment she laid her head down. When she woke up, there was a set of exam papers by the bed. On it were Lin Jiansheng's comments and marks.

Mathematics, 100; Literature, 98; World Language, 100; Morals and Law, 98; History, 99; Biology, 100; Chemistry, 100.

Recently, she had been doing too many exam papers. Yu Huang performed very well every time. Hence, when she saw this outstanding score, Yu Huang's mood did not fluctuate at all.

She thought that the college entrance examination would definitely be more difficult. She could not be complacent just because she performed well.

The college entrance examination oath was held three days before the college entrance examination. That day, Yu Huang also returned to school. After the oath, the homeroom teacher, Li Shi, called her to the side and asked her about her gains from studying in Jingdu for a year. "How is it, Yu Huang? You've been studying in Jingdu for more than half a year. Have you improved?"

Yu Huang nodded lightly and told Li Shi, "I've gained a lot. It shouldn't be a problem for me to become the top scholar."

Li Shi was speechless.

He felt that Yu Huang was most likely studying so hard that she had lost her mind.

Li Shi patted Yu Huang's shoulder with a heavy heart and consoled her. "Yu Huang, the college entrance examination is not your only way out. You... just take it easy."

Yu Huang, filled with ambition, looked at Li Shi with a determined gaze. She said, "Teacher, don't worry. I will definitely give you a top scorer trophy for the college entrance examination. I will place it on your desk later!"

Oh no, this child was really out of her mind.

Chapter 107: Scheming Bitch

Li Shi did not take Yu Huang's words seriously. He was more concerned about Yu Huang's psychological state.

Li Shi firmly believed that Yu Huang's heart had been broken by the series of blows last year. Thus, she converted her sorrow and anger into motivation and wanted to become the top scholar to prove herself.

But how could Yu Huang become the top scorer with her grades?!

If the results of the college entrance examination were out and Yu Huang's results were not ideal, would that child take things too hard and do something stupid?

Li Shi returned to his office worriedly and opened his group chat. He sent a message in the group chat: "Dear family members, is there any reliable psychiatrists?"

He had to find a good psychologist for Yu Huang before her mentality completely collapsed. He hoped that Yu Huang could overcome the difficulties with the psychologist's intervention.

...

The day before the college entrance examination, Yu Donghai pulled Yu Huang to the Arch Star Pavilion to pay a visit to the star signs.

Yu Donghai had already been equipped with the prosthetic arm half a year ago. After half a year of training, he had long been used to the existence of the prosthetic arm.

Now, Yu Donghai didn't need the help of a walking stick when he was working and hiking.

When they were climbing the mountain, Yu Donghai patted his prosthetic arm and said with a smile, "How many years has it been since I've climbed a mountain? This money is worth it!"

Seeing her father's high-spirited appearance, Yu Huang also felt satisfied. She told Yu Donghai, "Father, when I establish myself in the future, I will ask someone to build a big house for you to live in."

Yu Donghai waved his hand and said with a smile, "We'll talk about the future in the future. Right now, the most important thing is to get good results. Let's go, we'll reach the peak after climbing for a while."

"Got it."

Over the past few days, the incense offerings at the Arch Star Pavilion were especially high. Some parents came to the Arch Star Pavilion every day to eat vegetarian and recite the scriptures, just to seek good results for their children.

Yu Huang stared at the people who were chanting scriptures while thinking to herself: If your children can have the same drive as you guys, they will be able to enter top universities.

Yu Donghai extended his hand towards Yu Huang and said, "Give me the incense stick."

Yu Huang hurriedly took off the bag of incense from her shoulder and handed a bunch of incense over to Yu Donghai before kneeling down with him.

Yu Huang did not believe in ghosts and gods, but when she saw Yu Donghai sincerely kowtowing, she, infected by Yu Donghai, also put away her nonchalant attitude and sincerely kowtowed.

There were many people kneeling in front of the statue of Wenquxing. Yu Huang and Yu Donghai could only kneel on the futon at the back.

The statue of the star signs was very funny. There were two balls of red rouge on its white face, which looked hilarious.

Yu Huang stared at the statue of the star signs. The image of the glutinous rice ball with Sheng Xiao on it appeared in her mind. She could not help but laugh.

When Yu Donghai heard this, he scolded her. "You can't disrespect the star signs. Quick, admit your mistake!"

Yu Huang hurriedly shut her mouth and sincerely kowtowed a few times. Only then was Yu Donghai satisfied.

After kowtowing, Yu Donghai took out seven brand new bills from his wallet. He folded the bills together and stuffed them into the donation box. As he stuffed them, he muttered, "Sir, I've given you seven hundred yuan. You must bless Ah Huang with getting 700 points for this year's college entrance examination! Thank you, thank you!"

Yu Donghai's serious expression, coupled with the words he said, didn't seem like he was asking for its help, but more like he was threatening it.

When the surrounding devout parents saw Yu Donghai's actions, they were somewhat dumbfounded.

When the surrounding devout parents saw Yu Donghai's actions, they were somewhat dumbfounded.

After paying his respects to the star signs, Yu Donghai brought Yu Huang to the temple's dining hall to eat a bowl of plain noodles. Yu Huang was a carnivore, so the bowl of plain noodles didn't arouse her appetite.

Seeing that she was unwilling to eat the noodles, Yu Donghai said, "This is called zhuangyuan noodles. If you eat it, you can become the top scorer. It's twenty yuan for a bowl. If you don't eat it, it will be a waste."

With the spirit of not wasting money and food, Yu Huang ate the bowl of zhuangyuan noodles.

After eating a bowl of noodles, the father-daughter pair returned home.

Yu Huang had just visited Arch Star Pavilion in the morning to pay her respects to the star signs. In the afternoon # The college entrance examination was imminent, the topic of Yu Huang secretly visiting the star signs # appeared on Weibo's trending topics.

Yu Huang had already deleted her Weibo app. Jiang Shangfeng and the others had seen it and tagged Yu Huang in the group. Only then did she know that she had gone viral again.

Yu Huang temporarily downloaded Weibo and logged into her account. She opened the trending topics and saw what was written on the most talked about news—

Conway Entertainment Official Account: There are 6.5 million students taking the college entrance examination this year. Young actress Yu Huang will also be taking her college entrance examination tomorrow.

Perhaps it was because she had heard the legend of Arch Star Pavilion, but this morning, our club reporter took a picture of Yu Huang appearing at Arch Star Pavilion and sincerely kneeling down to the star signs.

In the video, Yu Huang was dressed casually with a mask on her face. She kept a low profile, probably because she was afraid of being recognized by her fans.

It was reported that Yu Huang's scores were not outstanding. She had also taken a gap year this year. According to her previous exam results, in this college entrance examination, if Yu Huang performed well, she should be able to score between 420 and 450 points.

However, it was not easy to get into a top university with such scores.

However, there were always miracles. Will Yu Huang, who had broken records several times in the entertainment industry and become the youngest movie actress, bring us a new miracle this time? Let's wait and see.]

This article was written very well. The entire article appeared to be realistic, but every word was secretly mocking Yu Huang. In just a few words, it had molded Yu Huang into a good-for-nothing who did not have good grades. She did not know how to improve nor did she work hard. She was a good-for-nothing who only knew how to pray to God.

Half a year ago, when Yu Huang was kidnapped by Yu Rufeng, Yu Huang had already sensed that there were paparazzi secretly taking photos of her daily life. She had also guessed who had instructed that paparazzi.

It was most likely her 'good friend' Su Qianqian.

Su Qianqian had always been jealous of Yu Huang. She was jealous of Yu Huang's beauty and good acting skills. She even found a Beast Tamer fiancé with a powerful background. Now that Yu Huang had become a damsel in distress, her former fake friend had become the first person to jump out and slander her.

The last time she was drunk, she had used Su Qianqian's scandal to threaten her to return the money. Su Qianqian was completely enraged.

That was why Su Qianqian was like a rabid dog, biting Yu Huang whenever she could.

In Yu Huang's eyes, Su Qianqian's little tricks were like a child throwing a tantrum. It was a little funny.

Yu Huang boiled a pot of water and brewed a cup of excellent green tea. Then, she took a picture of herself holding the tea with one hand.

She finished her tea calmly and opened Weibo. She edited the content and updated the post—

Yu Huang's official account: "Look at this tea. It's green and clear. It's really top-notch green tea. @ Su QianqianV: Sis, when are we going to drink tea together?"

Following that, Yu Huang sent a second post—

Yu Huang's official account: "@ Conway Entertainment, I heard that your company wants to see what kind of miracle my college entrance examination can create? Why don't we make a bet? Let's bet that my college entrance examination score will be over 680 points. If I win, your company's elders will have to lead all the company's employees to apologize to me live. Do you dare to bet?"

Being openly challenged by Yu Huang in front of the entire country's netizens, Su Qianqian and Conway Entertainment were somewhat stunned.

Yu Huang actually personally snubbed them?

Su Qianqian could naturally tell that Yu Huang was mocking her for being a scheming bitch. In the past, Su Qianqian would have already fallen out with Yu Huang.

However, when she thought about how Yu Huang's college entrance examination was imminent and how her lousy grades were about to be criticized by the entire internet, Su Qianqian's mood brightened again.

As a scheming bitch, Su Qianqian's response was naturally hypocritical: "@ Yu Huang. My good friend, I wish you the best of luck in the college entrance examination's golden rankings. When you get the acceptance letter from the top universities, let's meet again to celebrate."

Su Qianqian had just replied to Yu Huang when Conway Entertainment replied to Yu Huang's message: "@ Yu Huang, why wouldn't we dare to?!"

As a famous entertainment media company, Conway Entertainment dared to post such words on their official Weibo account because they were certain that Yu Huang would not be able to score above 680.

Everyone knew that Yu Huang was a bad student.

It was impossible for her to score above 680 points!

Yu Huang saw Su Qianqian and Conway Entertainment's replies. She took two photos and saved them before closing Weibo.

Yu Huang went offline after she stirred up a ruckus on Weibo. However, Weibo was in an uproar again because of her.

It had been more than half a year since Yu Huang's Weibo post had last been updated. The announcement that she had left the entertainment industry had been placed at the top of Weibo.

But now, the top post on her Weibo had become the bet between her and Conway Entertainment.

When the fans saw this post, they had mixed feelings.

His true fans left messages to dissuade Yu Huang—

First post: You can't be too rash. Aren't you afraid of shooting yourself in the foot by bragging too much? Hurry up and delete it.

Second post: Although we really hope that you can get a good score, we also need to be honest. Don't scare us.

Third post: I believe in her. She will definitely keep her word!

The anti-fans started mocking her on her Weibo comments page—

Anti-fan number one: Score 680 points? I swear, if Yu Huang can score 680 points, I'll eat sh*t on a live stream. If I don't eat it, I'm not human!

Anti-fan number two: Is she planning to make a comeback with anti-fans?

Anti-fan number three: Thanks to you, Yong Hui High School is going to become famous.

Anti-fan number number four: The worst joke of the year is out.

...

No matter what the netizens said, Yu Huang was still confident.

The next morning, under Yu Donghai's forceful request, Yu Huang was forced to wear a red dress. "Today is the college entrance examination. Wear a red dress for luck!"

Yu Huang tugged at her skirt and ridiculed, "If you wear a red veil on my head too, I can get married on the spot." The only thing missing was a groom.

Yu Donghai glared at her. "Don't talk nonsense." Yu Donghai raised his hand and gently patted Yu Huang's forehead. He said to her, "The Young Master will bless you."

"Father, wait for my good news." Yu Huang patted Yu Donghai's arm before heading to the school to participate in the college entrance examination.

Although Yong Hui High School was not as famous as Shengdu High School, it was still an old school with a long and glorious history.

The Ministry of Education set it as the examination hall for the third-year students. Apart from the school, the students of the three other high schools in the county would gather at Yong Hui High School to participate in the college entrance examination.

The students from the county arrived in Prosperous Capital yesterday afternoon and booked all the hotels near Yong Hui High School to stay in.

The atmosphere in the entire city became tense because of the college entrance examination.

Chapter 108: Yu Huang Turns in the Exam Early

Before the college entrance examination began, the examination hall was not allowed to be open to the public. When Yu Huang arrived at the school, the students were queuing up to be examined.

In order to prevent students from playing favorites, during the college entrance examination, all the students had to wear uniform clothes prepared by the Ministry of Education and were not allowed to bring any personal belongings in.

In the end, Yu Huang took off her red dress and changed into the uniform white shirt and sweat pants.

The Divine Moon Empire's college entrance examination only had one day. All the examinees had to complete all the examination papers for all the subjects within 15 hours and hand in the exam papers on time.

Apart from going to the bathroom, she was not allowed to leave the examination room.

Yu Huang followed the instructions and found her examination room. She stood outside the examination room and noticed that most of the students in the same examination room had arrived. Whether they would live or die was about to be decided. No smiles were on these children's faces. All of them had stern expressions and were very nervous.

When the invigilator saw that Yu Huang was wearing a mask, he reached out to stop her and asked curiously, "Why are you wearing a mask?"

Yu Huang told her, "I'm disfigured. I'm afraid that my appearance will scare these students and affect their performance in the examination hall, so I can only wear a mask."

The invigilator stood in front of Yu Huang.

After completely blocking the gazes of the other students in the examination hall, the teacher then said to Yu Huang, "Take off your mask and let me take a look." Although this request was offensive, it was reasonable.

Yu Huang obediently took off her mask, revealing her burned right face.

Seeing Yu Huang's ugly appearance, the invigilator was a little frightened, but he did not show it.

He carefully examined the mask inside and outside. After confirming that the mask was fine, he returned the mask to Yu Huang.

Yu Huang had appeared on Weibo's trending video yesterday with a golden mask on her face.

Now that they had seen Yu Huang in Yong Hui High School's examination hall, everyone recognized her based on the symbolic mask on her face.

In the past, Yu Huang was an out of reach celebrity. Now, she was a disfigured ugly monster. These students were always curious and suspicious of her.

Under the curious gazes of all the examinees, Yu Huang calmly walked to the back of her seat and sat down. Her calm expression made these students who were peeping at her feel ashamed.

Everyone quickly looked away and waited for the exam.

All the examination candidates were present.

The invigilator looked at his watch. There were still five minutes to the exam.

The invigilator abided by the rules of the college entrance examination and said coldly, "During the college entrance examination, whispers and noise are prohibited, and you are all prohibited from leaving their seats."

Just as he finished speaking, a translucent barrier appeared in front of everyone's desk and on both sides.

This block was about 80 centimeters high and completely blocked the line of sight of this group of examinees. It really prevented them from plagiarizing or being plagiarized against.

Yu Huang stared at the partition and had the feeling that she was in a cage.

The teacher told them, "There is an emergency button at the top left corner of each of your tables. If you are feeling unwell, you can press the emergency button to seek help. If anyone needs to go to the bathroom, you can press the green button at the top right corner. A staff member will bring you to the bathroom."

At this point, the teacher added, "If you submit your paper early, you can also press the green button." Generally, during the college entrance examination, no one would submit their paper early.

"I will reiterate this one last time. Cheating is strictly prohibited during the college entrance examination. If you cheat once, you will be blacklisted for life. It is shameful to cheat. I hope that all the examinees will respect themselves."

In the Divine Moon Empire, cheating on the college entrance examination was tantamount to a crime. Once cheating was discovered, one would be blacklisted and would never be able to work in a public position for the rest of their lives.

Not only that, but when you enter a company and get married in the future, once the other party discovers that you cheated on the college entrance examination on your resume, they will also eliminate you immediately.

Because the cost of committing a crime was too high, cheating was rare in the history of the Divine Moon Empire's college entrance examination.

After the teacher finished speaking, the examination bell rang.

The first test subject was world language.

World language mainly tested the official language of the superpowers on the five continents and three seas, and it also included the official language of the merfolk and elves.

For many candidates, the world language subject was a stumbling block during the college entrance examination. They may never get to meet these special people again in their lives, so to test the language they speak was outrageous.

The World Language Examination lasted for a total of three hours, while the rest of the subjects took two hours.

The moment Yu Huang received the paper, she was shocked to discover that she had done many of the questions on it before. Especially the last set of papers she had done last week, there were more than 30 questions with the same content as the college entrance examination papers.

Only then did Yu Huang realize that the teacher might not have bought that set of exam papers when he went to the bookstore. It was highly likely that the teacher had personally prepared the mock exam paper for the college entrance examination.

Yu Huang licked her lips and started writing..

After she finished writing an essay, Yu Huang put down her pen and examined the paper from top to bottom.

After the inspection, Yu Huang pressed the green button on the right side of the table.

The teacher thought that she was going to the bathroom, so he hurriedly called a female staff who was waiting outside the door in and said to Yu Huang, "Go to the bathroom with her."

Yu Huang raised her hand and said softly, "I want to submit the paper."

Swish!

All the students in the examination hall raised their heads and stared at Yu Huang in shock.

The teacher blinked and asked in disbelief, "What did you say?"

Yu Huang had already placed the test paper into a sealed bag and wrote her name and exam permit on the bag.

She raised the sealed bag and repeated her words, "Sir, I want to submit the paper."

The teacher walked over quickly and snatched the sealed bag from her hand. He asked her again, "There's still an hour until the end of the exam. Are you sure you want to hand in the exam early?" Afraid that she would disturb the other candidates, the teacher lowered his voice.

Yu Huang nodded seriously. "Yes."

The teacher shook her head and didn't say anything. He took the test paper and returned to the podium. He locked Yu Huang's answer bag into the safe.

Even the invigilator did not have the right to look through Yu Huang's questionnaire. Only the examiner had the right to open them.

After handing in the paper, Yu Huang left the classroom with light footsteps under the strange gazes of all the examinees.

After she left, all the examination candidates shook their heads.

Sigh, she must have not done many questions since she handed in the papers so early. Was she giving up on herself because she realized that the questions were too difficult?

The girl who was thought to have given up on herself arrived under the green shade of the sports field after leaving the examination hall. She laid under the tree and closed her eyes to take a nap until the examination bell rang again. Only then did she open her eyes, get up, and return to the examination hall to continue the second examination.

For the next tests, Yu Huang would submit her papers beforehand and leave the venue. She would appear in the examination hall to participate in the next test.

Hence, before the college entrance examination ended, almost all the students and teachers in Yong Hui High School's examination hall knew about Yu Huang.

Everyone had the same thoughts. No one felt that Yu Huang was outstanding because she had finished the test paper in advance and handed it in.

They all believed that Yu Huang could not complete the question, so she gave up on herself and left early.

...

The college entrance examination lasted from 8: 30 AM to 12 PM.

When the twelve o'clock bell rang, the invigilator immediately stood up and said to all the candidates, "Stop writing immediately and seal the paper!"

Upon hearing this, the examination candidates obediently stopped writing and put the examination papers away while waiting for the invigilator to come and collect the papers.

The invigilator this time was a serious-looking male teacher. When he accepted the paper, he realized that Yu Huang was still sitting behind the examination table. He found it strange.

"Why didn't you hand in your papers in advance this time?" The teacher was curious and couldn't help but ask.

Yu Huang said, "It's late. It's not safe for a girl to be out alone."

The teacher was speechless!

After the exam, Yu Huang followed the crowd out of the school building and walked towards the school gate.

The school gate was packed with parents who came to pick up the students.

“Ah Huang!” Yu Donghai waved his hand towards Yu Huang, successfully attracting her attention.

Yu Huang smiled and walked over. “Father.”

Yu Donghai hurriedly stuffed a lunch box into her hands. “You must be hungry after a day of testing. I made chicken soup for you. It’s a whole chicken. Eat it while it’s hot.”

Other parents were holding their children’s hands and asking about the details of the examination. Some parents even started to estimate the scores on the spot. Only Yu Huang received her father’s food as soon as she got out.

Yu Huang held the lunch box and her stomach felt warm.

She held the lunch box and drank it in small mouthfuls. She heard Yu Donghai mutter at the side, “I heard them say that there was a student in the examination hall today whose attitude was especially bad. She even handed in her exam papers beforehand. Sigh! I wonder how many points she can get.”

Yu Huang choked on her soup and didn’t dare to utter a word.

Yu Donghai shook his head and sighed. “I wonder which family’s child is this. He’s taking the college entrance examination, yet he’s still so rebellious. The college entrance examination is such an important occasion. If he doesn’t know how to do the questions, then sitting in the examination hall to pretend would be better than leaving early, don’t you think?”

“How reckless!”

Yu Huang still didn’t dare to reply. She only lowered her head and drank the soup obediently.

Yu Donghai patted Yu Huang’s shoulder, and revealed a gratified expression. He said, “You’re the best. You’re smart and hardworking.”

Yu Huang couldn’t bear to listen any longer. Just as she was about to tell Yu Donghai the truth, at this moment, a girl not far away pulled her mother’s hand and said, “Mom, that girl wearing a mask is the examinee who handed in her exam paper early today.”

Therefore, in the next moment, all the parents who had heard the rumors cast their gazes at Yu Huang. Yu Huang immediately became an obstacle in their eyes, a thorn in their flesh and a bad child in their hearts.

Yu Donghai’s kind expression froze on his face.

Yu Huang slowly let out a breath and raised her head to look at Yu Donghai. Her voice was clear as she said, “Father, the examinee who handed in her exam paper early and had a bad attitude was none other than me.”

For a moment, Yu Donghai didn’t know what to say.

Yu Huang was well aware of how complicated Yu Donghai's inner world was. She didn't dare to agitate Yu Donghai anymore and hurriedly shut her mouth.

Yu Donghai finally returned to his senses.

If that person was someone else, Yu Donghai would feel that that person was a hooligan who lost his will while playing around. However, that person was his own child, so Yu Donghai's thoughts were completely different.

Yu Donghai was very confused. He asked Yu Huang, "Ah Huang, why did you submit the paper in advance?" There had to be a reason, right?!

What was the reason?

Yu Huang said, "The test paper was too simple. After I finished it, I handed in the paper!"

Wasn't it normal to submit the paper early after completing it?

Chapter 109: Being Touched Immediately become worthless

Upon hearing Yu Feng's explanation, the parents and examinees all thought that she was bragging.

However, Yu Donghai believed Yu Huang's words.

Who was Yu Huang's teacher?

He was Lin Jiansheng!

That old fart Lin Jiansheng might not be good at other things, but he was really good at research and academics. Lin Jiansheng had personally taught Yu Feng for three months. Could Yu Feng's current academic level be comparable to those ordinary examination candidates?

When he heard Yu Huang's reply, not only was Yu Donghai not angry, but he even revealed a happy expression as he asked her happily, "You think it was very easy? Then how many points are you confident of getting?"

Yu Huang thought for a moment and said, "At least above 690."

At least above 690...

At least above 690

Infuriated by Yu Feng's shameless tone, some of the anxious parents around them hurriedly said to their children, "Child, you have to be honest. Don't imitate some children, who don't have good grades, but sure are arrogant."

The child said, "Mom, I understand."

Yu Huang thought, "What do you all know?!"

“Let’s go, Father.”

Yu Huang pulled Yu Donghai and left.

After returning to her rented apartment, Yu Huang went to bed and headed straight to the Purifying Spirit Academy the next morning.

Lin Jiansheng had a guest today. He needed to cast the Purifying Spirit Art for that guest and had no time to bother with Yu Feng.

Yu Huang found something to do.

After becoming a Purifying Spirit Master, Yu Huang’s memory improved as well. She remembered all the contents of the seven papers. She could even write them down.

Yu Feng found seven pieces of white paper and wrote down the questions for the test. Then, she copied them down again.

When Lin Jiansheng came to look for Yu Feng, she was doing the last chemistry test.

Lin Jiansheng did not disturb her. He gently took away the stack of papers that had been written with the answers and looked through them.

After Yu Feng finished the last question, she stopped writing and realized that Lin Jiansheng had already arrived.

Lin Jiansheng sat behind the desk and meowed. He was holding a ballpoint pen in his hand and marking papers.

Yu Feng hurriedly passed the last paper over as well. She leaned against Lin Jiansheng’s chair and said to him, “Mentor, I wrote down all the questions for the test and wrote down my answers. See how many points I can get.”

“Okay, go away. I’ll call you when I’m done.”

“Okay.”

There were a few strange-looking plants on the windowsill of Lin Jiansheng’s study. They were all genetic mutations.

Yu Huang walked over and released her psychic power to try to purify them.

Lin Jiansheng sensed the fluctuations of Yu Huang’s Psychic power. Without raising his head, he said, “As a Purifying Spirit Master, you have to remember that our strength is a gift from nature. We have to return as much as it has given us.”

“When executing the Purifying Spirit Art, one must show respect.”

Yu Huang nodded and injected her Psychic Strength into one of the mutated plants. She opened her mouth and softly chanted the Purifying Spirit Art in an attempt to purify the plant.

Before Yu Huang finished reciting her Spiritual Art, the plant withered at a visible rate.

Yu Huang stared at the plant and couldn't figure out what she had done wrong.

Lin Jiansheng did not need to look to know what had happened. He continued, "When you learn to respect nature and life, your Psychic energy will transform into the power of Purifying Spirit. Only then will it have the effect of Purifying Spirit. Otherwise, your overbearing Psychic energy will be a knife that will cut them off at the root."

Yu Huang listened with some confusion.

What was reverence for nature?

What was respecting life?

In her previous life, she personally ended the lives of 100,000 people in the base. As she killed more people, she felt a little numb.

Now, he wanted her to learn to respect nature and life. Was this karma?

Yu Huang would not be defeated easily. She set her sights on the second plant. This time, she only inserted a trace of psychic energy into the plant. Then, she calmed down and attempted to sense the changes in the plant's roots.

Slowly, Yu Huang calmed down.

Lin Jiansheng sensed that Yu Feng's Psychic energy had gradually become calm and gentle. He raised his head and looked at the window sill with his eyes filled with gratification and envy. This child was really talented.

He lowered his head again and looked at the score of 100 on the test paper. His lips curled up again.

This disciple was worth it!

Lin Jiansheng finished approving the test paper. Seeing that Yu Huang had yet to recover from her mysterious cultivation realm, he did not disturb her and went to do his own thing.

After Yu Huang finished cultivating, she realized that the sky was almost dark, and her teacher had disappeared.

She hurriedly walked to the table and picked up the test paper on the table to check her scores.

Mathematics, 100; Literature, 99; World Language, 100; Morals and Law, 98; History, 99; Biology, 100; Chemistry, 100.

She scored 696 out of 700.

Yu Huang's mood was originally calm, but when she saw this score, she actually had the urge to cry from joy.

She hugged the paper tightly to her chest and took a deep breath. She immediately felt that the three months of hellish training was worth it.

Yu Feng burned the test papers before going out to look for Lin Jiansheng.

Lin Jiansheng was guiding the few Purifying Spirit Master disciples in the cultivation hall while Yu Huang sat at the back and listened.

After Lin Jiansheng's lesson ended, Yu Feng walked forward and boasted to Lin Jiansheng. "Mentor, I scored 696 points!"

Lin Jiansheng did not smile, but there was mirth in his eyes.

"Mentor, don't you have anything to reward me with?" Yu Huang smiled and extended her hand towards Lin Jiansheng.

Lin Jiansheng finally smiled. "Yes."

"What is it?" Yu Huang was very curious.

Lin Jiansheng reached into his robe and took out a plane ticket from it before placing it in Yu Feng's palm. "This is your vacation ticket for three months."

"Thank you, Mentor!" Yu Feng checked the flight information and realized that the destination on the plane ticket was the Rakshasa Empire. She was instantly stunned. "Mentor, why did you ask me to go to the Rakshasa Empire?!"

Lin Jiansheng said, "There are only three months left until the match between you and Xuanyuan Jing. In a short span of three months, it's impossible for you to smoothly raise your cultivation from the initial stage of a Scholar to the peak of the intermediate stage."

Yu Huang naturally knew this as well. She said, "I understand, but why is your plan for me to go to the Rakshasa Empire?"

Lin Jiansheng explained, "Your cultivation levels aren't the same, so if you want to defeat Xuanyuan Jing, you can only win through technique. The Rakshasa Empire is the most chaotic place on the Holy Spirit Continent. There is the most complete mercenary system in the world, and there are even a few groups of beast tamer hunters formed by itinerant cultivators."

"These hunting groups will go deep into the abyss and kill abyssal demon beasts to obtain demon cores and sell them for money. They live a life of bloodshed. I want you to go to the Rakshasa Empire and think of a way to join the Beast Tamer Hunting Group and follow them to the abyss to train."

Xuanyuan Jing was born in a great cultivation clan. He walked the normal path of cultivation. If he were to really fight against freelance cultivators of the same cultivation level, he would most likely lose.

In order to survive, independent Beast Tamers had to resort to unscrupulous means. Lin Jiansheng wanted Yu Huang to learn the unaffiliated Beast Tamers' unorthodox ways and study their crafty and unpredictable ways.

Yu Feng understood Lin Jiansheng's intentions. She put the plane ticket away properly and became more determined. "I understand now that you have put in so much effort. I will set off for the Rakshasa Empire tomorrow and won't let you down!"

"Got it."

Lin Jiansheng took out some treasures from his interspatial ring and threw them to Yu Feng. "These are all healing medicine. That jade bottle contains a Heaven Grade alchemical pill, the Rebirth Pill. You cannot use it unless you are at the brink of death."

After knowing that the Rebirth Pill was a Heaven Grade medicinal pill, Yu Huang held it carefully.

A Heaven Grade medicinal pill was a gem. She had to cherish it!

"Mentor, you've given me such an important treasure. You're so good to me!" Yu Feng was very touched. She swore that she would let her mentor live a good life in the future. When she became rich, she would let her mentor be her financial supervisor.

However, the old man said, "Oh, I forgot to say that this is the apology gift from that woman in the Lou Lan Ancient Pavilion. She gave it to me when she thought that you had died in the Time Valley."

Oh, so this thing was exchanged with her life.

Yu Feng was immediately no longer moved. She did not intend to give the position of Finance Director to Lin Jiansheng anymore.

"Go back and accompany your father for a few days. After the college entrance examination results are released, you'll set off for Rakshasa Empire."

These few days were the day of revelry before Yu Huang would suffer.

"Okay."

After leaving the Purifying Spirit Academy, Yu Huang received a message from Jiang Shangfeng. He told her to attend the graduation party and even told her that Tao Anna was back.

Upon seeing this message, Yu Feng waved for a car and headed straight for the hotel for the gathering.

Chapter 110: Graduation Party

That night, the few big buildings near the school were booked by the nearby third-year graduates and became the venue for their graduation party.

At the graduation party, the young ladies all put on skirts, exquisite light makeup, and lipstick that they usually did not dare to wear. All of them were beautiful and moving. The moment they appeared, they attracted the attention of the boys in the class.

Among them, Vivian, the class belle, was the most beautiful and eye-catching.

She was wearing a light purple strapless dress that accentuated her fair and charming skin. She had deliberately gotten her hair done in the morning and put on light makeup. She looked feminine and charming.

When Jiang Shangfeng saw Vivian, who was dressed up, he blushed and was embarrassed to look at her.

Vivian noticed Jiang Shangfeng's shyness and was a little embarrassed.

Suddenly, someone shouted, "Yu Huang is here!"

Yu Huang had arrived!

The youngest movie actress and the queen of the red carpet was here to attend the graduation party! Everyone turned to look at the entrance of the gathering hall and saw Yu Huang.

Yu Huang was dressed lightly today. She was wearing a red halter top that revealed her navel. Her narrow waist was hidden under a pair of high-waisted jeans, revealing her slender and straight legs. Although she was thin, she was curvy.

The weather was hot, and Yu Huang's long hair was tied up high. She had the vigor of a young woman, but also the composure of an adult.

Everything was fine, except for the mask on her face that reminded everyone that this perfect person had flaws.

"Yu Huang!" Li Shi shouted as he walked over. He grabbed Yu Huang's arm and pulled her to his table. He asked her indirectly, "I heard from the teachers supervising Yong Hui that you handed in your papers in advance for every test?"

Without waiting for Yu Huang's reply, Li Shi asked again, "Why did you hand in the papers in advance? Are those questions too difficult and you can't do them?"

Why did everyone think that she handed in the paper early because the questions were too difficult and she did not know how to do them?

Couldn't it be that the test paper was too simple and she had finished it early, so she submitted her paper early?

Looking into Li Shi's sincere and concerned gaze, Yu Huang said honestly, "That's not it, Mr. Li. I thought those questions were quite simple. After I finished them, I even seriously checked them once before submitting them in advance."

Li Shi doubted the authenticity of Yu Huang's words. He thought that Yu Huang was lying for the sake of her pride.

He was even more worried about Yu Huang's mental state.

Li Shi lowered his head and moved closer to Yu Huang's ear. He whispered, "I know a psychiatrist. I heard that he's very reliable. I'll send his contact number to your phone. If you really have something on your mind, go and see him."

Seeing that Yu Huang still seemed to have something to say, Li Shi thought that she was going to reject him. His expression darkened as he educated her sternly, "Yu Huang, psychological illness is also an illness that cannot be ignored. Sometimes, people will easily mess things up if they get too caught up in it. However, when you overcome this obstacle and look back, you will realize that the things that made you wish you were dead are actually just trivial matters."

“You have to say goodbye to your past self so that you can better welcome your future self. Do you understand?”

Yu Huang could still tell who was truly concerned about her. She knew that Li Shi was sincerely thinking for her. Yu Huang would not be ungrateful.

She waited for Li Shi to finish speaking before raising her eyes to look at Li Shi’s eyes. She looked into his soul and saw his future.

In the future, Li Shi would meet a petite and gentle woman who was kind to him. They would also give birth to cute twin daughters. He was very responsible for his students and his family. He also lived a happy life in his later years.

Yu Huang suddenly picked up the wine cup on the table and poured a cup of beer into it. She raised the cup and said to Li Shi, “Mentor, you are a responsible and good teacher. You will be rewarded. This cup is to you for your concern and care for me these three years.”

Li Shi picked up his cup and clinked it with Yu Huang’s. Before drinking, he even reminded her, “You can just take a sip to show your appreciation. Students shouldn’t drink yet.”

Yu Huang really only took a sip of wine when she heard this.

She did not dare to drink too much because she was afraid that getting drunk would mess things up. The blunder caused by her getting drunk last time was still vivid in her mind. Yu Huang was determined not to get drunk again.

Some other students came to take a photo with Li Shi. Yu Huang took the opportunity to slip away. When she turned around, she saw Vivian walking in from outside the main hall. She was holding a bouquet of red roses.

Yu Huang raised her eyebrows and tilted her head to look at Jiang Shangfeng.

Jiang Shangfeng also noticed the roses in Vivian’s arms, and his bright eyes suddenly dimmed.

Julia and the girls gathered together and whispered, “Hey, Vivian just took a call and went out. Did someone confess to her?”

“Has the school belle stopped being single?!”

Ever since Yu Huang was disfigured, Vivian had become the campus belle and the most popular goddess among the boys in school. It was normal for someone to confess to Vivian at this graduation party.

Jiang Shangfeng clenched his fists and looked extremely disappointed. He subconsciously reached for his phone to cancel the flowers he had reserved online.

At this moment, Vivian arrived in front of Jiang Shangfeng with the bouquet of flowers.

Yu Huang found a stool and sat down. She admired this interesting scene from a distance.

Vivian handed the bouquet of roses to Jiang Shangfeng, and Jiang Shangfeng was so stunned that he forgot to take it.

Vivian blushed and lowered her head. In a soft voice, she said, "Class monitor, I, I like you a lot and want to ask you to be my boyfriend. You..."

Jiang Shangfeng suddenly interrupted Vivian. "Stop it!"

Vivian was shocked. She thought that Jiang Shangfeng was going to reject her pursuit of love. She was shy, so she was about to cry. She looked at Jiang Shangfeng with tears in her eyes while sobbing. "You... you don't like me?"

Jiang Shangfeng stared at the door behind Vivian and explained, "I should be the one to confess!" With that, Jiang Shangfeng walked past Vivian towards the door.

Everyone turned their heads to look and saw a delivery man standing at the entrance. The delivery man shouted, "Jiang Shangfeng, the roses you ordered have arrived!"

Jiang Shangfeng walked over and took the roses from the delivery man. He carried the bouquet to Vivian.

Jiang Shangfeng knelt in front of Vivian with a flushed face. He held the flowers in his hand and said loudly to Vivian, "Vivian, I like you very much and want you to be my girlfriend. Are you willing?"

Vivian looked at the flowers in her arms and then at the flowers in Jiang Shangfeng's arms. She suddenly burst into laughter.

Everyone laughed as well. Yu Huang shouted, "Kiss her!"

With Yu Huang leading, everyone applauded and shouted, "Kiss her! Kiss her!" Thus, the two of them really kissed in public.

Yu Huang smiled at the two of them and silently thought to herself, It's so good to be young!

Yu Huang could not help but take out her phone and take a picture of them kissing. Then, she forwarded the picture to Sheng Xiao and left a message: "They said that the graduation party is the night of confession."

After sending the message, Yu Huang saw that Anna Tao was here. She quickly turned off her phone and waved at Anna Tao. "Anna, I'm here!"

Anna Tao ran to Yu Huang in small steps and hugged her. "Yu Huang, I've been accepted by Yu Hui Academy!"

Yu Hui Academy was considered to be at the bottom of the rankings among the high-level Beast Tamer Colleges. However, it was still a formal Beast Tamer Academy. It was a good thing that Anna Tao was accepted into Yu Hui Academy.

Yu Huang revealed a happy expression and hurriedly said, "Congratulations!"

When the others heard that Anna Tao had been accepted into the Beast Tamer Academy by Yu Hui, they were all happy for her.

Li Shi walked over and hugged Anna Tao. He told her, "When you go to the new school, you have to study hard. You have to quit being reckless and impetuous. We haven't had a Beast Tamer in Yong Hui High School for many years. You have to bring glory to our school!"

"Alright, Teacher Li!"

That night, everyone ate and drank. After they drank too much, they started to become more gregarious.

Near the time when the crowd would disperse, Li Shi raised his glass and glanced at all the students' flushed faces. His eyes finally became moist.

Li Shi rubbed his eyes and said, "My children, from now on, the five continents, three seas, north and south are the world where you spread your wings and fly. If you're tired and lost, you can return to the campus for a walk. As teachers, I don't ask you to make a name for yourself, but I hope that you can be upright for the rest of your lives and be good people with grit!"

Li Shi raised his head and drank all the wine. He placed the wine glass on the table forcefully and shouted, "Don't cry when we part. Let's meet again next year!" With that said, he was the first to turn his head and walk out of the banquet venue. He hid outside the house and secretly cried.

As soon as Li Shi left, the youths who had been laughing and joking earlier suddenly fell silent. It was unknown who started sobbing as he sighed lightly and said, "I don't want to graduate at all!"

Hence, everyone started crying, as if they had drunk too much water. They cried together.

Yu Huang couldn't cry. She sat quietly on the stool and stared at this group of innocent classmates with a sincere heart with a kind gaze. She gave them her blessings in her heart: I hope you guys can go wherever you want. I hope you can look back on the years and have no regrets. I hope you can gather again with a clear conscience.

After the banquet ended, Yu Huang walked alone on the old street's sidewalk. She was a little drunk, so she used her psychic power to dissolve the alcohol in her body. Her muddled mind immediately became clear again.

Yu Huang tore open a mint and threw it into her mouth. She lowered her head and walked in the direction of the rented room. After walking for a while, she suddenly discovered a slender man standing on the bridge in front.

Yu Huang felt that the person resembled Sheng Xiao.

She stood still and stared at the person from afar. After confirming that it was really Sheng Xiao, she could not help but smile.

Yu Huang walked to Sheng Xiao and pretended to be drunk. She leaned her head on Sheng Xiao's shoulder.

Sheng Xiao was about to push her away when he heard Yu Huang murmuring, "No one told me that I would be given a boyfriend when I was drunk..."

Sheng Xiao was about to push Yu Huang's hand away when he heard this.. He put his arm around her shoulder instead.
