

She Shocks The Whole World After Retirement - Chapter 1061 - 1070

Ah Kong: When You Grow Up, I'll Buy You a Wife

1061 Ah Kong: When You Grow Up, I'll Buy You a Wife

When Lin Jiansheng brought Ah Kong back to the camp, Yu Huang and the others had already fallen asleep.

He actually wanted to wake everyone up and share the happy news of his successfully obtaining Ah Kong's custody.

However, in order to complete the assessment mission these days, everyone had been on tenterhooks and hadn't been able to rest well. After successfully registering their identity cards, they could relax, but tomorrow, they would leave the town and head to the Cang Lang Continent to start a new journey, so everyone couldn't help but feel nervous.

Hence, Lin Jiansheng hoped that they could all have a good night's rest.

Besides, he was worried about Yu Huang.

Yu Huang reporting Philand under her real name was a public challenge to the prestige of the Cang Lang Continent's Space Administration and a slap in the face. Yu Huang didn't regret reporting this matter under her real name, but it didn't mean that she didn't feel any pressure.

However, Yu Huang was levelheaded and calm, so she hid all her uneasiness because she didn't want to affect her companions' mood.

Today, after knowing that the director of the Space Administration's Cang Lang Continent branch, Si Cheng, was Yin Mingjue's best friend, the burden and pressure in Yu Huang's heart lessened a little.

She should be able to sleep well tonight.

At the thought of this, Lin Jiansheng couldn't bear to wake them up. "Everyone is asleep. Kong Qing, let's go to sleep too. At dawn, I'll introduce you to your brothers and sisters."

Ah Kong was a little excited and didn't want to sleep, but he was very sensible. Lin Jiansheng told him to sleep, so even if he couldn't sleep, he would hug his small bag and lie beside Lin Jiansheng obediently.

Lin Jiansheng was almost two meters tall. He was taller and more muscular than Sheng Xiao, but he stayed in a single tent. Ascension Town was very cold. Although Lin Jiansheng was a Purifying Spirit God, he had a mortal body. He didn't have any spiritual power, so his ability to resist the cold wasn't as good as that of an ordinary Master Beast Tamer.

While lying in the tent, Lin Jiansheng needed to be wrapped in a blanket to feel warm.

When the weather was cold, the down jacket and blanket were his saviors.

Lin Jiansheng got under the blanket first before getting Ah Kong to take off his clothes and get into his chest. After Ah Kong got in, his small body pressed against Lin Jiansheng's chest and laid on Lin Jiansheng. He was really pitifully small.

With a little child on his chest, Lin Jiansheng felt at ease.

After finding Kong Qing, he fulfilled one of his two regrets.

The other half was to revive Su Tingxue.

"Uncle Lin." Ah Kong laid his face on Lin Jiansheng's shoulder and said, "Your muscles are so hard."

Lin Jiansheng's muscles were real, so naturally, they couldn't compare to a soft bed.

Lin Jiansheng clicked his tongue and said, "What do you know? This is called manliness."

Ah Kong indeed didn't understand.

As he laid on Lin Jiansheng's body, he slowly felt sleepy. Just as he was about to fall asleep, he suddenly asked in a daze, "Do you have a wife? Will your wife hate me?" Ah Kong had yet to ask about this.

Lin Jiansheng naturally knew what Ah Kong was thinking. He shook his head and said, "Not yet." However, he already had a crush.

Hearing this, Ah Kong heaved a sigh of relief, but at the same time, he felt puzzled. He said, "Why don't you have a wife? Is it because you're ugly?"

Lin Jiansheng was speechless.

Children were really blunt!

He couldn't lower himself to the level of a child.

Lin Jiansheng asked Ah Kong, "Am I ugly?"

Ah Kong thought about it seriously before giving a very honest evaluation. He said, "You're not ugly, but you're a little intimidating." This was the first time Ah Kong had seen a person as intimidating as Lin Jiansheng. The first time he saw Lin Jiansheng, he felt that this man ate children.

However, he had a kind heart and gave him the love that no one else had ever given him.

Children were innocent and said whatever they thought.

Lin Jiansheng said, "Yes, I look intimidating, so no girl is willing to be with me."

Ah Kong hugged Lin Jiansheng's arm and said softly, "Don't be afraid. When I grow up and earn money, I'll buy you a wife."

Lin Jiansheng was momentarily speechless.

"Pfft—"

A few laughs came from the tent next door. It was obvious that Sheng Xiao and the others had been woken up by Lin Jiansheng and his son.

When Lin Jiansheng heard Yu Huang and the others' muffled laughter, he immediately felt embarrassed. He tried to be intimidating as he roared, "What are you guys laughing at?! We're setting off for the Cang Lang Continent tomorrow afternoon. Aren't you guys going to take the opportunity to rest tonight?"

After they were reprimanded by Lin Jiansheng, the surroundings of the camp returned to silence.

* *

The next morning, Yu Huang and the others woke up at dawn.

Seeing that Ah Kong was sleeping soundly, Lin Jiansheng didn't move.

He heard that children could only grow taller if they had enough sleep. Ah Kong was in the phase of growing taller, so Lin Jiansheng couldn't delay his growth.

Lin Jiansheng waited until Ah Kong woke up before putting on clean clothes for him. Then, he held Ah Kong's hand and walked out of the tent.

Just as the two of them emerged from the tent, they heard Yu Huang tease, "Mentor, congratulations on getting a filial son." Only Yu Huang dared to say this to Lin Jiansheng.

Yin Rong and the others thought of what Ah Kong had said last night and lowered their heads to laugh.

Donor handed the warm water to Estelle before turning around and winking at Ah Kong. "Ah Kong, what kind of wife are you planning to buy for your Uncle Lin?"

Ah Kong said, "A beautiful woman like you."

Donor was speechless.

"Hahaha!" Feng Yuncheng laughed loudly and pointed at Donor. "You deserve it for bullying a child. You've been counterattacked."

Estelle also smirked. He felt that Ah Kong's answer was very witty.

Ah Kong genuinely felt that Donor was good-looking and worthy of being Uncle Lin's wife.

Donor stopped smiling and told Ah Kong sternly, "I'm a man, so I can't be a man's wife."

Ah Kong stared at Donor's face with a strange expression for a while before lowering his head and muttering softly, "But you're so beautiful. You're even more beautiful than Red Wolf." Red Wolf boss was the most promiscuous and beautiful woman in the town.

Ah Kong heard those male bosses discussing Red Wolf's appearance and figure behind his back.

However, in Ah Kong's opinion, Donor wasn't inferior to Red Wolf.

Donor walked over and knocked on Ah Kong's head as he said, "You can't use the word beautiful to describe a man in the future. Do you understand?"

Feng Yuncheng sneered as he educated Donor with schadenfreude. "The child thinks you're beautiful and is praising you, so you should thank him."

Before Donor could speak, Ah Kong looked at Feng Yuncheng. When he saw Feng Yuncheng's handsome face, he praised him sincerely, "You're prettier than him."

This time, it was Donor's turn to laugh at Feng Yuncheng.

1062 Kill One to Be an Example to a Hundred

Feng Yuncheng acted as if he had met a confidant and hurriedly picked Ah Kong up as he said to Ah Kong, "You're so smart and discerning. You're right. I'm prettier than Donor."

Two of the four men present were praised by Ah Kong. Only Estelle and Sheng Xiao were not evaluated by Ah Kong.

Yu Huang pointed at Sheng Xiao and asked Ah Kong, "What about him? Is he good-looking?"

Ah Kong looked at Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao was the calmest among them. He rarely smiled and didn't talk much. Everyone was amused by Ah Kong's words just now, but Sheng Xiao remained aloof.

He didn't seem fond of children.

Ah Kong shook his head timidly. "He's not good-looking..." When he noticed that Sheng Xiao suddenly looked up at him with a cold gaze, Ah Kong quickly added, "He's especially handsome."

Everyone was speechless.

Sheng Xiao smiled and said, "You're quite discerning."

Everyone rolled their eyes.

Feng Yuncheng pointed at Estelle and asked Ah Kong, "Is Estelle good-looking?"

As Ah Kong stared at the black-winged and dark-skinned Estelle, he replied tactfully, "Mr. Estelle is a hundred times better-looking than the black-hearted boss." He didn't compare Estelle to Sheng Xiao and the others, but he compared Estelle to the dark-skinned boss.

This was very smart and tactful.

Everyone smiled and praised Ah Kong for being smart, but they felt a strong sense of pity for him.

Everyone present was smart. How could they not tell that Ah Kong was deliberately saying nice words to please them and gain their approval?

This child was probably afraid that they would abandon him and despise him.

Yin Rong walked over and picked Ah Kong up as she told him gently, "Ah Kong, my name is Yin Rong. You can call me Sister Yin Rong. That's Donor..."

Yin Rong thoughtfully introduced everyone to Ah Kong.

Ah Kong had long heard of these people's names, but he couldn't tell who was who. When Yin Rong introduced everyone, he was trying his best to remember this information.

In just one morning, Ah Kong became familiar with them.

At this moment, Lin Jiansheng suddenly raised his head and stared at the sky above the town as he said, "There's a spiritual energy approaching here."

Hearing this, everyone looked up and saw a pure black huge screen appear in the sky above the town. Under everyone's gaze, a long text announcement appeared on the screen. There was a steel seal with a starlight symbol at the end of the announcement.

He Zhiqiu said, "It's an announcement of the investigation results from the headquarters of the Space Administration."

"Let's go take a look."

When they walked into the town, there were already many ascenders standing on the street.

Everyone was looking up at the announcement.

The announcement said—

Three days ago, after the headquarters of the Space Administration received Yu Huang's report, the headquarters immediately sent the eight Prime Masters to investigate the entire matter. After investigation, they discovered that the report provided by Yu Huang was true. However, the reported person, Philand, wasn't a participant or an insider in this matter.

The real mastermind behind the entire matter was the vice president of the Pharmacy Association, and also the deputy director of the Cang Lang Continent branch of the Space Administration, Prime Emperor Shi Cheng. The owner of the plant cultivation base, Leng Shuang, and the 13 administrators of the Spirit Grass base were all Shi Cheng's lackeys.

Due to the mismanagement and supervision of the Cang Lang Continent branch, the ascendant of the Hongyan Continent, He Zhiqiu, was deceived for a full ten years. This was a major dereliction of duty.

The headquarters decided to immediately suspend the mastermind, Prime Emperor Shi Cheng, and the important participant, Prime Master Leng Shuang, and kick them out of the Space Administration. The 13 managers were also stripped of their status as the managers of the Spirit Field Base and sent back to their respective families to be imprisoned for a hundred years.

At the same time, as Prime Emperor Shi Cheng's immediate superior and as Leng Shuang's superior, Si Cheng and Leng Shuang also had to bear the punishment for dereliction of supervision.

Si Cheng was temporarily suspended and wasn't allowed to participate in the selection of the director-general of the branch for three years.

As for Philand, he was directly removed from his position as the supervisor of the Cang Lang Continent's Ascending Town and retired early.

In the end, in order to compensate for He Zhiqiu's sacrifice over the past ten years, the headquarters decided to give him an S-rank identity card authority, compensate him with a million spirit stones, and give him an additional ten meters of spiritual field. They also allowed him to enter the spiritual field base freely to plant spirit herbs.

In addition, in order to encourage the ascendants and employees to monitor each other, the headquarters decided to reward Yu Huang, who had taken the initiative to report the crime, with 10,000 spirit stones.

After reading this announcement, everyone fell silent.

The punishment given by the headquarters for this incident was too ruthless.

Presumably, the headquarters had made such a decision to set an example to others and warn the other managers not to break the rules.

After Yu Huang finished reading the announcement, she immediately felt apologetic. She didn't expect that Mr. Philand really didn't know about He Zhiqiu being set up.

She felt even more guilty towards Si Cheng.

Just like Yu Huang, He Zhiqiu didn't expect Philand to be an innocent person.

He Zhiqiu held his walking stick as he said awkwardly, "I wonder if I can still see Mr. Philand. I want to apologize to him in person."

Three days ago, He Zhiqiu had scolded Philand in front of everyone. Now that the investigation results had been announced and confirmed that Philand was innocent, He Zhiqiu felt bad.

“A million spirit stones...” Lin Jiansheng suddenly pressed down on He Zhiqiu’s shoulder and said with shining eyes, “Brother He, you’ve become rich!”

From a penniless pauper, He Zhiqiu had instantly become a millionaire. His status had changed so much that He Zhiqiu was a little unused to it. He shook his head and waved his hand as he said, “I only have a few more years to live. I’m afraid I’ll be buried before I finish spending the million spirit stones.”

He Zhiqiu turned around and said to Yu Huang, “Yu Huang, take the million spirit stones. Just leave me the coffin money.”

Everyone looked surprised.

Yu Huang couldn’t believe that He Zhiqiu was going to hand this huge sum of money to her. “Mr. He, this is what you deserve. I can’t accept it.” Yu Huang rejected him very bluntly.

He Zhiqiu had spent ten years of his vitality and lifespan in this Ascension Town. The value a Grand Master expert could create in ten years was far more than these million spirit stones.

How could a mere million spirit stones make up for He Zhiqiu’s sacrifice?

No matter what, Yu Huang definitely couldn’t accept this money.

However, He Zhiqiu said, “But if you hadn’t upheld justice for me, I might have been killed by Yuan Ying and the others. This money has nothing to do with me. Yu Huang, you guys have just entered the Cang Lang Continent and you guys will need money in the future. Take this money. You guys need it more than me. As long as I have something to eat and a place to stay with you guys, it’s enough.”

He Zhiqiu had let it go now.

After wreaking havoc in the Spiritual Field Base, every day that He Zhiqiu lived was earned by Yu Huang.

He had long disregarded his own life and placed Yu Huang’s interests above all else.

Money, spiritual fields, and even his life existed for Yu Huang.

1063 We're All Country Bumpkins (1)

Yu Huang saw the determination in He Zhiqiu's eyes and realized that this old man was really fulfilling his promise from that night. If she rejected him ruthlessly, it would make the old man sad.

After hesitating for a moment, Yu Huang said, "Then consider it as me lending you this money. In the future, I'll give you dividends whenever I earn money. Losing money will have nothing to do with you."

Seeing that Yu Huang was willing to relent, He Zhiqiu happily agreed.

Mr. Zhang had been standing not far from them. He crossed his arms and glanced at Yu Huang while saying, "A million spirit stones is not the most valuable thing. The truly valuable thing is that spiritual field." Lin Jiansheng carried Ah Kong as he stood beside Yu Huang. Therefore, when Mr. Zhang spoke, he refused to approach them.

Lin Jiansheng really wanted to ask Mr. Zhang how valuable and rare this spiritual field was. However, he thought about how their relationship was awkward now. Even if he asked, Mr. Zhang might not even bother with him. Hence, he decided not to ask.

After Lin Jiansheng glanced at Yu Huang, Yu Huang immediately understood her mentor's hint.

Yu Huang strode in front of Mr. Zhang and asked humbly, "Mr. Zhang, can you tell us about the wonders of this spiritual field in detail?"

Mr. Zhang snorted and gave Lin Jiansheng a derisive look before telling Yu Huang, "With a spiritual field, you can register a herb company and legally sell spiritual herbs wholesale. This is a treasure land that can help earn money, even if it can't produce many spiritual herbs."

Yu Huang's eyes lit up, and she immediately understood what Mr. Zhang was hinting at. "Mr. Zhang, you're saying that we can use the one million yuan in our hands to register a spirit herb company and expand it to establish ourselves?" In other words, possessing a spirit field was equivalent to possessing unlimited resources.

Mr. Zhang snorted. "I didn't say that." With that, he turned around and left.

After taking a few steps, he stopped again and said without naming anyone, "If you want to look for me, go to the Zhang family of the Cang Lang Continent's Northern Yan Cang Realm." With that, Mr. Zhang strode away.

Lin Jiansheng glanced at Ah Kong, who was in his arms, and told him, "The Zhang family of the Northern Yan Cang Realm is Mr. Zhang's home, right?"

Ah Kong nodded and looked up at Lin Jiansheng with sparkling eyes as he said, "Mr. Zhang is still willing to see me, right?"

"Of course."

* *

He Zhiqiu's ten years of sacrifice had finally been avenged and his wish had been fulfilled, so he could finally leave Ascension Town in peace.

Before leaving, they went to the Time Pavilion to register He Zhiqiu's identity.

Si Cheng bit his cigarette as he sat on a stool by the window. As he bathed in the sunlight, he embroidered. When he heard Yu Huang and the others' footsteps, he put out the cigarette and stood up to look at Yu Huang as he said, "Little girl, you're the same as your father. You exist to jinx me."

Back when he was studying in Cang Lang Academy, Si Cheng was often implicated by Yin Mingjue.

Unexpectedly, he was implicated by Yin Mingjue's daughter at the present.

Yu Huang's face was filled with shame. She lowered her head and apologized to Si Cheng guiltily. "Mr. Si Cheng, I really didn't know that this matter would implicate you."

"Do you regret it?" Si Cheng asked Yu Huang.

Yu Huang raised her head and met Si Cheng's probing gaze. However, she said, "I don't regret it. Even if the director was my father, I still would have reported the crime."

Si Cheng laughed. "As expected of the daughter of the demoness and that bastard."

Si Cheng seemed to admire Yu Huang's personality very much. He gave her a meaningful look before turning on his computer to register He Zhiqiu's identity.

When He Zhiqiu took his S-rank identity card, his expression was complicated.

He had wasted ten years in the town for this little thing.

When he came to the small Ascension Town, he had just broken through to the Grand Master realm not long ago and was in his prime. However, these ten years had slowly worn away He Zhiqiu's passion.

As he touched the identity card he had been yearning for, He Zhiqiu wasn't as excited and happy as he had expected.

He Zhiqiu suddenly raised his head and asked Si Cheng, “Mr. Si Cheng, I want to know where I can buy the Bone Nurturing Grass seed?”

Si Cheng looked at him in surprise. “You want to buy Bone Nurturing Grass?”

He Zhiqiu nodded and said, “I’ve spent ten years on Bone Nurturing Grass. If I don’t successfully plant it, I’ll never die in peace.”

Si Cheng laughed. He Zhiqiu was really a stubborn person.

“There should be one in the plant cultivation base.” After a pause, Si Cheng continued, “Your assessment mission back then was to plant the Bone Nurturing Grass. Logically speaking, you should have obtained a Bone Nurturing Grass seed. Why don’t you ask the new boss and see if he’s willing to give you one as compensation?”

1064 We’re All Country Bumpkins (2)

He Zhiqiu thanked Si Cheng and returned to the town with Yu Huang.

After finding the new boss, He Zhiqiu asked him for a Bone Nurturing Grass.

The new owner was surprisingly easygoing. He said, “Your assessment mission is to plant the Bone Nurturing Grass, so according to the rules, you should have obtained a Bone Nurturing Grass seed. Wait a moment, I’ll go get it for you now.”

The plant base was very spacious. There were many display shelves inside. On the shelves, there were neat boxes filled with all kinds of precious spirit herb seeds.

Bone Nurturing Grass was already extinct, and its seeds were also very precious, so they were treasured on the highest floor of the last row of display shelves.

The owner flew up to the top of the display rack and carefully pulled out a wooden box. Then, he carried the box towards He Zhiqiu and the others.

When He Zhiqiu saw this scene, he couldn’t help but recall the past ten years ago when the black-hearted owner casually took out a bag of black sesame seeds from the display shelf and threw it to him.

He could only blame himself for being stupid. Why didn’t he notice anything at that time? Could the seeds of the Bone Nurturing Grass be randomly stored in a cloth bag?

The new owner opened the wooden box and solemnly took out a seed that looked like a black sesame seed.

When He Zhiqiu saw the black sesame, his expression instantly became extremely ugly. "You're still planning to fool me with black sesame seeds?"

The new owner froze for a moment before he realized that He Zhiqiu had misunderstood.

"Mr. He, the seeds of the Bone Nurturing Grass are indeed very similar to the seeds of the black sesame seeds, but their scents are completely different." The owner handed the seed to He Zhiqiu and said, "The seeds of the Bone Nurturing Grass actually have the scent of death. If you don't believe me, you can smell them."

He Zhiqiu leaned closer and took a sniff. As expected, he smelled a scent of death that made his hair stand on end.

He Zhiqiu's expression softened slightly. Then, he glanced into the box and saw that there were more than ten grains at the bottom. He said, "Give me a few more."

The owner smiled politely, but he rejected him firmly. "Mr. He, there are only 11 Bone Nurturing Grass seeds left in the entire Cang Lang Continent. We can't hand it to you without permission."

He Zhiqiu thought about it seriously, then he raised a condition. "Let's make a deal. If I can successfully plant this seed, give me the other seeds. I'm willing to help you plant them for free. But after all the Bone Nurturing Grass sprout, I only need to keep two. I'll give the rest to you guys."

The owner hesitated.

In fact, in the beginning, there were a total of 100 Bone Nurturing Grass seeds preserved in the Cang Lang Continent. Later, the Pharmacist Association handed 88 of them to the most outstanding herbalists to cultivate new Bone Nurturing Grass. Unsurprisingly, they all failed.

From then on, the Pharmacist Association couldn't bear to waste any more Bone Nurturing Grass seeds.

If He Zhiqiu could really plant the Bone Nurturing Grass and use two Bone Nurturing Grass in exchange for ten Bone Nurturing Grass, wouldn't this be a win-win deal?

At the thought of this, the owner relaxed and said with reservations, "If you can really make them sprout, I will fight for this cooperation opportunity from the association."

"Okay."

After He Zhiqiu took the seeds and left the base, he said to Yu Huang, "If I can really plant them, I'll give you one and give the other to Brother Lin."

Yu Huang was somewhat shocked when she heard this and asked He Zhiqiu, "Why are you giving one to me?"

He Zhiqiu looked at Yu Huang with a meaningful gaze as he said, "You wouldn't follow me to the Spirit Grass base to look at the Bone Nurturing Grass for no reason. You actually need the Bone Nurturing Grass very much, right?" He Zhiqiu knew the miraculous effect of Bone Nurturing Grass, so he guessed that Yu Huang probably wanted to revive someone important.

Yu Huang smiled, but didn't deny He Zhiqiu's guess. "Then I wish you the best of luck in planting the Bone Nurturing Grass as soon as possible."

"I definitely can."

They were about to get what they wanted, so their sojourn at Ascension Town should come to an end.

They came here from the Time Pavilion, so they had to leave from the Time Pavilion.

Si Cheng stood under the roof of the Time Pavilion and watched them leave. Like a guide, he pointed at the other end of the grassland and said, "After passing through the space-time barrier at the end of the grassland, you guys will see the space station of a super Great World. After you show your identity cards, you can board the spaceship heading to the Cang Lang Continent."

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

1065 We're All Country Bumpkins (3)

With that said, Si Cheng nodded at Yu Huang and said, "See you next time, Little Huang'er."

"See you next time, Mr. Si Cheng."

...

This grassland looked extremely vast, as if there was no end to it. Yu Huang and the others walked side by side for two kilometers before discovering that the seemingly wide grassland in front of them was suddenly impossible to pass through.

It was as if an invisible wall was blocking in front of them.

After Lin Jiansheng reached out and touched the invisible barrier energy wall, he suddenly said, "On the day I came, I climbed this wall."

Everyone was shocked.

Even Sheng Xiao found Lin Jiansheng's actions unbelievable and couldn't help but ask, "Mentor, why did you climb the wall? Can't you just pass through it?"

Lin Jiansheng felt a little awkward as he said, "I was afraid of pain. I didn't expect that the wall could be shuttled through."

"Pfft!" Donor couldn't help but turn around and snicker.

Lin Jiansheng glared at Donor angrily and said, "Is it very funny?"

Donor immediately held back his smile.

At that moment, Sheng Xiao suddenly reached out his left hand and held Yu Huang's hand. Then, he held Feng Yuncheng's hand with his right and said, "Come, let us experience the power of the Cang Lang Continent together." Everyone held each other's hands tightly.

Lin Jiansheng stood on the leftmost side. He held He Zhiqiu's hand with his right hand as he said to Ah Kong, "Kong Qing, hug my neck."

"Okay!" Ah Kong hurriedly hugged Lin Jiansheng's neck tightly and wrapped his legs around Lin Jiansheng's waist.

When everything was ready, they held hands and rushed into the invisible wall without hesitation.

As if they had fallen into a lake, they barged into a humid and suffocating mysterious space, but soon, they walked out of the space and appeared in a world they had never seen before—

What appeared in front of them was a vast and silent universe.

An interstellar city formed by hundreds of buildings floated in the sky in front of them. Ten long silver-white bridges extended from the interstellar city and led to ten different super Great Worlds.

Countless spaceships flew out of the interstellar city and towards the distant super Great Worlds. Thousands of warriors in silver-white military uniforms were patrolling above the interstellar city on mighty and unfamiliar cosmic mounts.

This was actually a super huge space station!

The scene in front of them was even more advanced and shocking than the scenes Yin Rong and the others had seen in science fiction movies.

Was this the difference between super Great Worlds and small worlds?

Before Yu Huang and the others could even enter the Cang Lang Continent, they were stunned by the advanced technology of the super Great Worlds!

As everyone stared at the interstellar city, they could feel their hearts beating violently.

At this moment, they all felt a sense of inferiority.

At this moment, a group of warriors riding black T-Rex mounts appeared in front of them. Then, the warriors raised the spiritual spears in their hands and looked at them coldly.

“Please show your identity cards!”

Upon hearing this, Lin Jiansheng put Ah Kong down and held his hand as he walked towards those people.

He lifted his sleeve and revealed the identity card on his arm.

When they saw that Lin Jiansheng had successfully obtained the S-rank identity card, the soldiers looked at him less coldly and more respectfully.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

1066 You're Overthinking Things. They're Just Looking at Endangered Animals

Even on the Cang Lang Continent, those who obtained an S-rank identity card were very impressive people.

After a citizen of the Cang Lang Continent was born, they could register an identity card with the proof of expedition issued by the hospital. However, this identity card only gave them the basic rights of a citizen. With this identity card, a citizen could live freely in their country. Once they wanted to go abroad or travel to other continents to work, they had to fill out an application and obtain approval before they could go.

Only after a citizen awakened his beast form could he use his Beast Tamer Badge to upgrade his identity card.

The identity cards of the Cang Lang Continent were divided into ordinary public identity cards, A-rank identity cards, B-rank identity cards, C-rank identity cards, and the highest-ranking S-rank identity card.

Among them, all Beast Tamers who had awakened their beast forms could obtain a C-rank identity card. The higher the beast form potential, the higher the level of the identity card they could register. Beast Tamers who could obtain an A-rank identity card could become famous powerhouses in their respective worlds after diligent cultivation.

As for Beast Tamers who had S-rank identity cards, after they completely advanced, most of them would break through to the Prime Master cultivation level and become the pillar of many cultivation families. They would have supreme power and status and be highly respected.

Therefore, even though Lin Jiansheng was a foreigner, with an S-rank identity card from the Cang Lang Continent, he had the possibility of becoming an expert in the Cang Lang Continent.

Therefore, even these interstellar warriors had to respect them.

“So you’re an S-rank ascender.”

A warrior jumped down from the Black Mech’s Tyrannosaurus Mount. He strode towards Lin Jiansheng in his combat boots as he said respectfully, “Sir, welcome to the Space Administration’s space station. This is an interstellar city jointly built by the ten super Great Worlds. In a while, you will take a spaceship from here to the Cang Lang Continent.”

With that said, the warrior bent down and retreated to the side to let Lin Jiansheng pass.

Lin Jiansheng walked forward with his head held high. He didn’t forget to pull Ah Kong along.

The warrior saw the ordinary citizen ID card on Ah Kong’s shoulder, but didn’t stop them.

Perhaps this child was the son of this S-rank ascendant. Presumably, he would be able to awaken his beast form in the future and become an impressive Beast Tamer.

“Everyone, please show your identity card information for us to review.” Because of Lin Jiansheng, these interstellar warriors became cautious towards Yu Huang and the others.

To be able to become partners with Lin Jiansheng, these ascenders were probably impressive as well.

Hearing this, Yu Huang and the others cooperated and pulled open their sleeves to reveal their identity cards.

One, two, three S-rank identity cards!

The rest all had A-rank identity cards!

Seeing this, the warrior instantly became filled with respect.

Apart from the little boy, four of the others had successfully obtained an S-rank identity card. The remaining ascenders all had A-rank identity cards.

This lineup was astonishing!

From their clothes and mannerism, it could be seen that they came from the same world.

The interstellar warriors took a closer look at their identity cards and realized that other than the old man from the Hongyan Continent, the other ascenders were all from a world called the Holy Spirit Continent.

Holy Spirit Continent?

Where was that?

These warriors had worked here for decades. Their daily work was to interact with ascendants from different worlds. Therefore, memorizing the information of their nine super Great Worlds and a hundred large worlds was their job requirement. They had even learned the names of many medium worlds.

But this was the first time they had heard of the Holy Spirit Continent.

Could it be that the Holy Spirit Continent was only a small world?

When they thought about how so many powerful ascenders from a small world appeared at once, the interstellar warriors couldn't help but feel admiration.

Being able to ascend from a small world to the Cang Lang Continent was already an extremely difficult thing, and it was even more difficult for all of them to obtain identity cards that weren't lower than A-rank.

These people were all worthy of respect!

At the thought of this, the interstellar warrior didn't dare to neglect Yu Huang and the others at all. He hurriedly bent down and said respectfully, "Please follow me to the space station. Later, a staff member will guide everyone to take the spaceship to the Cang Lang Continent."

"Thank you."

Under the lead of the interstellar warriors, the ten of them walked towards the interstellar city floating above their heads.

There were no cars in the interstellar city, so the mode of transportation was the black iron-colored mecha T-Rex. Countless warriors were patrolling outside the city on mecha T-Rexes. Everyone was equipped with advanced spiritual weapons with lethality. This city was impregnable. It was a miracle in the ethereal universe.

After entering the interstellar city, they walked into a wide hall that stretched as far as the eye could see.

The hall was a cold silver-gray color.

Yu Huang had good eyesight. Through her psychic power, she saw the overall appearance of the hall clearly.

It was a huge circular hall and there were tall doors at intervals in the outermost area.

There were a total of ten doors, and outside the doors, there were the long bridges that Yu Huang and the others had seen earlier.

Presumably, these bridges led to the ten super worlds.

The warriors riding on the mecha T-Rexes were leading the Beast Tamers who had ascended from different worlds over from the long bridge. Among these Beast Tamers, there were ascenders in revealing clothes, ascenders in long robes and face scarves, and some ascenders in strange clothes.

There were humans, beastmen, and some ascenders in the form of demon beasts.

While Yu Huang and the others were sizing up the strange-looking ascenders, those ascenders were also sizing up Donor and Estelle.

In the Great World, the elves, like the Divine Feather Phoenix Clan, had long become extinct. Therefore, these ascenders were surprised and excited to see the long-extinct elves at the space station. They couldn't help but stare at Donor and Estelle.

Donor puffed out his chest and couldn't help but turn his head to show off to Sheng Xiao. He said, "Look, my handsomeness, elegance, and gracefulness have already been recognized by the three thousand worlds." Donor thought that those people had been staring at him because of his handsome appearance.

Sheng Xiao pursed his lips in disdain when he heard Donor praising himself and scolded, "You're overthinking things. They're looking at endangered animals."

The word 'animal' was quite well used.

Donor immediately reacted and asked Sheng Xiao coldly, “Are you calling me an animal?”

Sheng Xiao smirked. “Idiot.”

1067 Our Fees Are Not Expensive, Really

Donor was about to bicker with Sheng Xiao when a pleasant female voice suddenly sounded in the entire space station lobby. It was like a clear spring that washed away everyone’s uneasiness.

“Honorable Beast Tamers, welcome to the three thousand worlds’ interstellar city. This is the transfer center of the three thousand worlds and the transfer center of the super Great World. Here, we thoughtfully prepared a dining area, a rest area, and a spatial delivery station for you all.”

The broadcast lady introduced the various wonders and greatness of the space station to them in detail. After she finished speaking, she reminded them considerately, “In order to facilitate communication between you and your family and friends from other worlds, the Space Administration specifically set up a space delivery station in the middle station. You only need to send your valuables to the delivery station, then the delivery man will send your package to your family and friends from other worlds.”

“The package is mailed and you only need to pay ten thousand spirit stones per thousand grams. For every thousand grams added, we only charge an additional hundred spirit stones.”

“Our fees are not expensive, and our service is top-notch. We won’t charge you if the package isn’t delivered, so you can mail it without worry.”

Lin Jiansheng, Yu Huang, and the others were speechless.

Yeah right!

After Lin Jiansheng heard the broadcast lady’s introduction of the space delivery station, he turned around and asked He Zhiqiu, “Mr. He, is this the space delivery station you told me about before?”

He Zhiqiu held his walking stick with both wrists as he nodded. “I think so.” He had never used it before, so he didn’t know.

Lin Jiansheng loved money as much as his life, so he couldn't bear to spend that much money to mail a package.

Lin Jiansheng glanced at Yu Huang from the corner of his eye and suddenly lamented, "Sigh, it's been a period of time since we left the Holy Spirit Continent. I wonder if the Grand State Master, Mr. Linyuan, and Xiao Shu are fine now. I wonder which Great World they went to. It's a pity that we don't have spirit stones, so we can't find out."

Yin Rong, who was worried about Xiao Shu's whereabouts, and Beatrice, who was worried about the Grand State Master, all looked at Yu Huang.

It wasn't like they didn't have spirit stones.

Didn't Mr. He give all his spirit stones to Yu Huang?

Yu Huang glared at Lin Jiansheng in amusement. "Mentor, you're trying to scam me!"

However, Yu Huang also wanted to know the whereabouts of the Grand State Master, Eldest Senior Brother, and Xiao Shu.

A million spirit stones sounded like a lot, but they only needed to send a hundred packages to spend it all.

Yu Huang said to Yin Rong, "Hurry up and write a letter. Write down everything you want to say to Xiao Shu. I'll send a letter to the Demon Beast Continent later." Although Yu Huang felt that it was very likely that the Grand State Master and the others had gone to the Demon Beast Continent, perhaps the three of them were not together.

It was better to write a letter and ask about the situation.

Yin Rong immediately smiled when she heard this. She said, "I've already written the letter!" Yin Rong had long asked the other ascenders about the spatial delivery station. She would write down whatever she thought of these days as she waited for the chance to send it to Xiao Shu in the future.

Therefore, seeing that Yu Huang was about to send a package, Yin Rong hurriedly took out all the letters she had written.

She had written more than ten letters and stacked them together.

Yu Huang stared at the pile of letters with a helpless expression. "Can you send less? I'm afraid it'll be overweight."

Yin Rong hesitantly picked out a few letters from the pile that she thought were relatively unimportant.

“It should be fine now.” Yu Huang took the envelope from Yin Rong’s hand and looked up at Sheng Xiao. “Brother Xiao, follow me to send the letter.”

“Okay.”

When the two of them arrived at the spatial delivery station, they were surprised to discover that the delivery business here was very popular. The outside of the delivery station was filled with ascenders queuing up. Seeing that they were generous, Yu Huang remembered that other than ascenders, there were other powerhouses who had obtained other super Great World passes.

These experts were naturally rich. To them, a mere 10,000 spirit stones was naturally nothing.

Sheng Xiao was in charge of queuing up, while Yu Huang went to write a letter.

She didn’t have as much words to say as Yin Rong did. She only wrote three sentences on the envelope—

The first sentence was: “Godfather, the seven of us and my mentor obtained the Cang Lang Continent’s pass and successfully completed the assessment mission. We registered our identity cards and obtained three S-rank identity cards and five A-rank identity cards. Where are you? Do you know the whereabouts of Eldest Senior Brother and Xiao Shu?”

The second sentence was: “I look forward to your reply.”

The third sentence was: “Written by: Yu Huang.”

Yu Huang put the letter in an envelope and placed it on top of Yin Rong’s pile of letters. Then, she placed them in the same box and handed them to the staff. After the staff packed her letter, he threw it into a box containing the envelope. Without raising his head, he said to Yu Huang, “The package is less than a thousand grams, so it’s also calculated according to the base weight of a thousand grams.”

Hearing this, Yu Huang suddenly took out a few pieces of lemon candy from her interspatial ring and handed them to the staff. She said, “Please add this.” Xiao Shu liked to eat this kind of candy. It was sour and sweet, and the aftertaste was delicious.

The staff was speechless.

He looked at Yu Huang in amusement, then placed the candy with the envelopes and said, “It’s just right.”

Yu Huang was satisfied.

She paid ten thousand spirit stones before pulling Sheng Xiao back to the space station.

As soon as they walked into the waiting room, they heard a female voice shouting on the radio, "In ten minutes, the Blue Wolf No. 7 spaceship will set off for the Cang Lang Continent on time. This flight is the last flight for this week. Those who need to go to the Cang Lang Continent, please hurry up."

Sheng Xiao pulled Yu Huang and ran to the boarding gate.

The two of them boarded the spaceship at the last minute.

Yin Rong stood up and beckoned at them. "Here!"

The two of them walked to the remaining empty seats and sat down. Only then did they have the time to size up the interior of the spaceship.

The interior of the spaceship was similar to the aircraft of the Holy Spirit Continent, but the equipment and products here were more advanced and filled with high-tech technology. For example, the seats under them were invisible, but when Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao sat down, the seats would automatically adjust to suit their height and size.

When they got up, the mount would automatically disappear.

When they were thirsty, tired, or sleepy, they only needed to pay spirit stones to have delicious food and drinks sent to them. The seats could also automatically transform into beds.

The flight attendants in the spaceship were not real people. They were service robots with the same appearance and uniform, but different serial numbers on their chests.

Those robots stood on both sides of the cabin like wooden blocks. When someone needed their services, they would automatically activate the service program to provide the best services to the ascendants. As Lin Jiansheng stared at the robots, he suddenly muttered, "I wonder if they will still work for us for free if we steal these robots and bring them back."

Upon hearing Lin Jiansheng's words, He Zhiqiu was afraid that he would commit a crime, so he hurriedly warned He Zhiqiu, "I heard that the robots in the space station all have serial numbers. Once they are forcefully brought out of the cabin, they will instantly explode. It is said that the power of their explosion is not inferior to that of a Grand Master expert."

Lin Jiansheng immediately dispelled this thought.

1068 The Natural Leader Yu Huang

The spaceship was unbelievably fast as it shuttled through the universe at high speed.

Yu Huang and the others stayed in the spaceship for an entire day before they finally heard a pleasant female voice that they had not heard for a long time. “Dear passengers, we are about to reach the Cang Lang Continent’s deep space flight station. After alighting from the spaceship, please line up and take the aircraft to the Cang Lang Continent. As the spaceship approaches landing, there will be turbulence. Please remain in your seats.”

As soon as she finished speaking, the spaceship shook and fell with a clang.

“Ah!”

This was the first time Yu Huang and the others had boarded a spaceship, so they were like country bumpkins taking the high-speed rail for the first time. They were so frightened that they pressed their backs against the back of the chair.

After the spaceship stopped shaking, they slowly stood up and walked out of the spaceship with the other ascenders.

The so-called flying station was a transfer platform built in the sky of the Cang Lang Continent. It floated in the sky, so when Yu Huang and the others walked down from the spaceship, they could see the distant Great World below. If the area of the Holy Spirit Continent was equivalent to that of Earth, then the Cang Lang Continent was equivalent to that of Jupiter.

It was really too big.

Even though Yu Huang and the others were 100,000 kilometers in the sky, they were still unable to see the entire Cang Lang Continent clearly.

Just like the Holy Spirit Continent, the Cang Lang Continent wasn’t a planet, but a flat plane.

The three thousand worlds all seemed to be flat.

Because the Cang Lang Continent was vast, different regions presented different scenes. Some places had white glaciers, some had wide deserts, and there was even a continent filled with storms.

Staring at the overly vast territory under their feet, Yin Rong and the others were shocked and speechless.

They suddenly realized how small and humble the Holy Spirit Continent was in front of a super Great World.

In the past, they felt that the Holy Spirit Continent's territory was vast, and the distance from the Light Sea to the Divine Realm Continent was too far. However, after seeing the Cang Lang Continent, they realized what it meant to be insignificant.

In such a vast super Great World, there must be many geniuses and experts.

At the thought of this, everyone gradually calmed down.

Here, they were no longer the cream of the crop.

They had to learn to put down their pride and be humble.

It wasn't only Yu Huang and the others who were stunned. When the ascenders from the other worlds saw the entire Cang Lang Continent for the first time, they were also shocked.

Everyone had a translator, so Yu Huang and the others heard the other ascenders say

"I heard that the screening test of the various high-level Beast Tamer Academies in the Cang Lang Continent is next month. The final results will be out in three months. Many people ascended to the Cang Lang Continent recently."

"That's right. I heard that Ye Qingyang and Jing Jiaren of the Divination Continent arrived at the Cang Lang Continent as well."

"Oh really? In that case, Cang Lang Academy's screening test for this year will be entertaining."

Those who knew this gossip must be disciples of the various super Great Worlds or large world families.

As Yu Huang and the others heard their discussion, Yu Huang suddenly stopped in her tracks and asked in shock, "Ye Qingyang?"

Was it the Ye Qingyang she met that day?

Sheng Xiao stopped when he heard Yu Huang's question and looked at her in surprise. "You know Ye Qingyang too?"

Sheng Xiao seemed to have seen Ye Qingyang before.

Yu Huang asked Sheng Xiao, "Do you know him?"

Nodding, Sheng Xiao said, "Back in the Doomsday Battlefield, when I was attacked by three experts from the Great World, only Ye Qingyang stood up for me." Ye Qingyang might not remember Sheng Xiao at all, but Sheng Xiao wouldn't forget Ye Qingyang's kindness.

Sheng Xiao told Yu Huang, "We saw him together when we were resting outside the city."

Yu Huang remembered when she heard Sheng Xiao's words.

Not only had they seen Ye Qingyang, but they had also heard the participants of the Demon Beast Continent discussing Ye Qingyang and Jing Jiaren's relationship.

The two of them were originally a couple. Later, it was unknown what crime Ye Qingyang had committed, but he was hunted down by the Divination Continent. His engagement with Jing Jiaren was also canceled because of this. Later, Ye Qingyang cultivated the Ghost Dao and even joined the Cang Lang Continent.

When he participated in the Doomsday Battlefield, Ye Qingyang reported his identity and mentioned the Cang Lang Continent.

"Actually, when I first arrived at the Cang Lang Continent that day, I also met Ye Qingyang in that alley. At that time, I felt that Ye Qingyang's name was a little familiar, but I couldn't remember where I had heard it before." In the Doomsday Battlefield, because of the language barrier and the existence of the barrier membrane, Yu Huang didn't see Ye Qingyang's true appearance. Therefore, when she met him in the alley that day, she didn't think of Ye Qingyang.

Hearing the discussions of those ascenders just now, Yu Huang suddenly matched Ye Qingyang with the ghostly cultivator in the Doomsday Battlefield. "I remember that four years ago, Ye Qingyang already had a late-stage Grand Master cultivation level. I wonder what his cultivation level is now."

Sheng Xiao was curious too and said, "He might have broken through to the Prime Master Realm."

At the thought that Ye Qingyang might already be a Prime Master, Yu Huang felt admiration.

* *

They boarded the aircraft and continued flying for three hours before finally arriving at the Central Continent of the Cang Lang Continent.

It was said that the Central Continent was the most prosperous continent in the Cang Lang Continent and had the most advanced technology.

This was the world of technology. The most famous scientists in the entire Cang Lang Continent lived on this continent. The most famous battleships and weapons in the ten super worlds, including the towering and fantastic interstellar city, were designed and built by Central Continent scientists.

On the Cang Lang Continent, the two professions Beast Tamers wanted to do the most were Pharmacist and Blacksmith, followed by Combat Master and Healer.

The commoners wanted to change their fate through learning and becoming respected scientific research experts.

When Yu Huang and the others walked out of the aircraft, they were caught off guard by the cold wind. Yu Huang and the others immediately circulated their spiritual power to resist the cold, while Lin Jiansheng hurriedly took out the down jacket he carried with him and put it on. Then, he hid Ah Kong in his arms.

“Where should we go?” Standing on the street of a completely unfamiliar alternate world, Prince Donor experienced the embarrassing feeling of a country bumpkin for the first time.

The Cang Lang Continent was so big. Where should they go?

Sheng Xiao made a prompt decision. “First of all, we need a home.” With a home, no matter how far they went or how seriously injured they were, they would have a safe haven.

Yu Huang nodded and said, “I have the same intention. Let’s find a big house to stay in first.”

“Then?” Donor and the others subconsciously walked towards Yu Huang.

Ever since they found out that Yu Huang had lived for more than two hundred years, Yu Huang had gradually replaced Sheng Xiao’s position in their hearts.

Their team seemed to be following Yu Huang’s lead.

Sheng Xiao had noticed this long ago, but he was happy about it.

He felt that Yu Huang was a natural leader.

Perhaps it was because love was blind.

In her previous life, Jing Huang was ruthless and decisive in battle. She had a cunning personality, but Yu Aofeng loved her arrogant and aloof demeanor. Sheng Xiao was also infatuated with Yu Huang’s intelligence and boldness.

It was said that women admired strength, but as a man, Sheng Xiao also admired strength.

Therefore, when Yu Huang was around, Sheng Xiao was willing to restrain himself and follow her.

Yu Huang didn't know what Sheng Xiao was thinking since she was used to being a leader in the post-apocalyptic world. Yu Huang didn't realize that there was anything wrong with Donor and the others trusting her. She pondered for a moment, then looked at Lin Jiansheng and said, "You were once the top scholar, and are extremely smart and learn everything quickly, so I have something to ask you to do."

After being praised by Yu Huang, Lin Jiansheng was instantly filled with a sense of responsibility. He pounded his chest and said loudly, "I'm your mentor, the backbone of your group of little fellows. Tell me, if there's anything you need me to do, I'll definitely get it done marvelously!"

Seeing that Lin Jiansheng had taken the bait, Yu Huang smiled slyly and said, "I want to send you to school. I hope that you can use the shortest time possible to find out the history of the development of the various continents in the Cang Lang Continent, their major deeds, and what grudges there are between those experts in the world. Write them down and organize them into books that we can understand and memorize."

Lin Jiansheng was speechless.

He never expected that after he became a Purifying Spirit God, he would actually have to return to school to study!

He was really regressing.

But he had already boasted. He couldn't go back on his words.

When Ah Kong heard Yu Huang's words, he was instantly overjoyed. He hugged Lin Jiansheng's neck and shouted, "That's great! Uncle Lin is going to school with me!"

1069 Ice River City

It was almost dark, and the climate in the Central Continent was plummeting at night. With a child by their side, the most important thing to do now was to find accommodation quickly.

However, they had just arrived on a new continent and were unfamiliar with the place, so it wasn't easy for them to find a suitable house in a short period of time.

It seemed that they could only find a hotel to make do for a few nights.

On the Holy Spirit Continent, Yu Huang and the others were all people with noble statuses. As members of the royal family, Donor and Beatrice enjoyed the best service wherever they went.

But in the Cang Lang Continent, be it the prince, the princess, or the heirs of big families like Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang, they were all ordinary Beast Tamers. Here, they had to rely on money to survive.

Not only did they not have a single cent, but they also owed the Space Administration a thousand spirit stones.

Without money in their pockets, no one felt at ease, let alone be picky about their accommodation conditions.

When she left the airport, Yu Huang asked the staff here for a geographic map of the city. Fortunately, this thing was free. After she took the geographic map, she glanced at the name of the city on the map. She realized that the city they were in was called—

Ice River City.

Ice River City was extremely large. From the map, the size of Ice River City was five times larger than Jingdu. Its overall area was as big as a fifth of the Divine Moon Empire's. Ice River City was the most economically developed city in the Central Continent. This was also the capital city with the largest temperature difference in the entire Cang Lang Continent.

The weather here could reach 38 degrees in the day, but at night, it was -20 degrees Celsius.

Yu Huang and the others were currently located in the south of the Ice River City. This area was called the Star Gazing District, and the Nine Gods District in the east of the city was the core of the entire city.

Everyone studied the city map beside Yu Huang. They noticed that the vastest area in the east was called the 'Nine Gods District'. Donor raised his eyebrows and said, "Could it be that there were nine Divine Masters in this area?" Perhaps he was already numb from all the amazement Cang Lang Continent brought him, but Donor felt that Divine Masters were not a rare existence here.

"How is that possible?" Yu Huang immediately rejected Donor's guess. She said, "Even in a super Great World, a Divine Master is still a divine existence. Even if there was a Divine Master in the Cang Lang Continent, it's impossible for nine Divine Masters to appear in such a big place. Perhaps they are only nine experts who have achieved outstanding results in other aspects."

Yu Huang's guess was more realistic.

Sheng Xiao said, "Let's find a hotel to stay in first. We'll talk about the rest later."

Lin Jiansheng had already buttoned his down jacket and hid Ah Kong in his down jacket. From the side, he looked like a pregnant woman. When Yu Huang saw that Lin Jiansheng was so cold that his nose was running, she didn't dare to waste any more time.

Her mentor couldn't fall sick, since they didn't have the money to pay for treatment fees.

Yu Huang opened the Ascendant's explanation manual.

She called Xiao Ya.

After the connection was successful, without waiting for Yu Huang to speak, Xiao Ya said, "Yu Huang, you guys have successfully completed the identity registration. This acceptance manual is useless to you guys now, so why don't you throw it away?" Xiao Ya had been slacking off in the customer service department for the past few decades.

Recently, because of the trouble Yu Huang caused, she had gradually become busy.

For the first two days, Xiao Ya was quite passionate about her work, but she quickly got tired of her busy work life. Now, she wished that Yu Huang and the others would throw away the manual quickly and never disturb her again.

Yu Huang could naturally hear the disdain in Xiao Ya's words, but she didn't mind at all.

Xiao Ya was a free guide, so Yu Huang couldn't bear to throw the manual away.

"Miss Ya, I have a request."

Xiao Ya said unwillingly, "Please speak."

Yu Huang told Xiao Ya, "Please help me check which hotel in Ice River City is the cheapest."

"That's it?" Xiao Ya sounded incredulous. She was the most beautiful customer service employee in the Space Administration and the oldest employee. How did she end up doing errands?

She was really regressing.

Yu Huang chuckled and reminded Xiao Ya in the gentlest and most considerate tone, "Xiao Ya, it's your duty to help the ascendants, right?"

Xiao Ya took a deep breath and gritted her teeth as she said, "Please wait."

Xiao Ya quickly found information about the cheapest hotel and told Yu Huang, "Ice River Hotel is the cheapest hotel in Ice River City. You can go there and take a look." After a pause, Xiao Ya continued, "If there's nothing else you need to ask, then goodbye."

It would be best if she never spoke to her again.

After Yu Huang said that was all, and Xiao Ya couldn't wait to end the call.

After Yu Huang closed the commentary manual, Feng Yuncheng shook his head and sighed. "The few of us are probably the customers that Miss Xiao Ya hates the most. Yu Huang, you're probably at the top of the list."

Yu Huang waved her hand indifferently and said, "As long as we're thick-skinned, we can travel the entire Cang Lang Continent without obstruction."

If being a little thick-skinned could bring them many conveniences in life, then Yu Huang didn't mind being thick-skinned.

After finding the location of the hotel on the map, they flew towards the hotel on their swords.

The hotel was located at the southernmost end of the Star Gazing District. That was also the southernmost end of the entire Ice River City. On the way to the hotel, Yu Huang saw that the neighborhood was getting more and more dilapidated and decadent. She had a bad premonition.

Perhaps, the further south they went, the worse the security and economy were.

Seeing that they were about to fly out of the city, Yu Huang and the others decided to stop and find a local resident to ask for directions.

They landed on a narrow street.

At this moment, the sky was completely dark. The cold wind blew wildly, and the ground began to freeze. There was barely anyone on the street. However, laughter and conversation could be heard from the hotels by the street.

Sheng Xiao said, "Wait here. I'll go to the tavern to ask for directions."

Donor recommended himself. "I'll go with you."

"Okay."

The temperature outside the house was too cold, at least -20 degrees Celsius. The heater was on in the room, so it was warm. The cold air covered the glass window of the tavern with a layer of ice crystal white mist. The outside of the tavern and the inside of the tavern were like two different worlds.

Sheng Xiao pushed the door open and walked in.

A cold wind blew, and the glass bottle wind chimes on the corridor of the tavern swayed.

Hearing the sound of the wind chimes swaying, the guests in the tavern fell silent and looked out the door curiously.

They were surprised to see Sheng Xiao and Donor.

Sheng Xiao was wearing a black collar shirt and a long coat of the same color, while Donor was wearing a golden suit. His white wings were folded behind his back, and his waist-length golden hair was tied with a red silk ribbon.

1070 Five Lake Street, The Shabby Tavern

One of them looked reserved and taciturn, but it was difficult to hide his arrogance. The other was gorgeously dressed, handsome, and noble.

Their temperament and dressing were out of place on this street.

This street was called Five Lake Street. The people living on this street were all illegals and paupers from all over the world.

Most of the local residents here were dressed in a slovenly manner and were all wearing black down jackets. Even if they took off their down jackets, the sweaters inside were still black. This was because they were illegals who were engaged in the dirtiest and lowest job, so the warm and dirt-resistant black down jacket became their best choice.

Donor's noble and gorgeous clothes betrayed their identity as 'outsiders'.

Besides, as a person with wings on his back, he was an elf.

The elves of the Cang Lang Continent had long gone extinct thousands of years ago, so this elf who suddenly appeared here was most likely an ascender who had transmigrated from another world.

If he was an ascender, then he was a Beast Tamer.

It was even more unbelievable that a Beast Tamer would come to Five Lakes Street.

The group of people who were doing the lowest level of hard work looked at the elegant Sheng Xiao and Donor with baffled and envious expressions.

While they were sizing up Donor and Sheng Xiao, Donor was also sizing up the tavern. The tavern was very old and colorful lights decorated the colorful old walls. It looked shabby and backward.

This formed a strong contrast with the prosperous Central Continent.

So there were also poor people on the Cang Lang Continent.

Seeing this, Donor suddenly felt confident.

Sheng Xiao brought Donor to the front desk and asked the man who was both the owner and the bartender, "Hello, how can we get to Ice River Hotel?"

The owner had a full beard and was wearing a black down jacket. His bright black eyes were like sunlight that suddenly shone on a coal mine that had been hidden underground for tens of thousands of years.

The owner pointed at the table under him and said, "This is it."

Sheng Xiao was shocked.

This was Ice River Hotel?

Before entering the tavern, Sheng Xiao had seen the name of the tavern, so he said, "When I was outside the door just now, I saw that the name of this tavern is Ice Rock Hotel." Then, Sheng Xiao smiled and said, "Sir, the signboard of your shop is missing a few corners. Aren't you going to make another signboard?"

Hearing this, the owner stared at Sheng Xiao seriously.

After a long while, the owner laughed and said, "Everyone who lives on this land knows my shop. People with noble statuses like you guys usually won't set foot on Five Lake Street at all." The owner pointed at the customers who were partying and drinking in the tavern as he said, "Our customers are usually people like them."

So whether this signboard was hung up or not made no difference.

Sheng Xiao nodded in understanding.

He asked the owner, "Is there another room?"

The owner took out a pile of keys from the drawer and said to Sheng Xiao, "If you really want to stay here, I can show you."

"Thank you."

"Come on."

When the owner walked out from behind the bar, Sheng Xiao realized that there was a pair of metal prosthetics under his long down jacket.

When the owner noticed Sheng Xiao and Donor's gazes, he patted his leg with a smile and said, "It was cut off."

Sheng Xiao wasn't interested in other people's privacy, so he nodded and followed the owner in silence. He thought that the hotel room was upstairs, but the owner pushed open a door at the back of the tavern and brought them in.

Sheng Xiao realized that it was a courtyard surrounded by low houses. The houses were flat and the walls were painted with all kinds of murals.

There were stairs leading up to the roof.

"This is my courtyard." The owner stood under the pear blossom tree in the middle of the courtyard as he said, "There are a total of six rooms here. My daughter and I each stay in one. There are still four rooms left. How many rooms do you need?"

Sheng Xiao pondered for a moment and said, "Exactly four rooms."

"That's quite a coincidence." The owner opened the first room on the west side of the courtyard with the key.

Unexpectedly, although the room wasn't big and the interior furnishings were very simple, it was very clean and had a faint perfume smell. On the big bed in the room, there were light yellow dandelion sheets.

This place didn't look like a hotel, but more like a personal room.

To Donor, who was used to staying in star-rated hotels, this room was too shabby and simple, but at least the environment was clean.

They had just entered a foreign land and were penniless, so they were lucky to find a clean hotel. Donor had no objections and didn't dare to either. Donor said to Sheng Xiao, "Not bad."

After Sheng Xiao looked around the other rooms, he was satisfied and asked the owner, "How much is the room rate?"

The owner said, "It depends on how long you want to stay. The longer you stay, the more cost-effective it will be. The fee for a room here is 200 continental coins per night. If you want to stay here for the month, the monthly rent is 4,000 continental coins. The annual rent is 40,000 continental coins."

Continent coins.

Sheng Xiao didn't know what the conversion rate for continental coins was, but since Xiao Ya said that this was the cheapest hotel in the entire Central Continent, the boss must have offered the best price.

And they, who were short of money, really didn't have the conditions to live in a better place.

They were new here, so they might not be able to buy a house successfully. Renting for a month was the most cost-effective way. "We'll rent for a month."

The owner grinned and shouted, "Naris, we have guests. Prepare dinner!"

"Okay!"

A young female voice came from the house on the north side of the small courtyard and gave off a feeling of vivacity.

Sheng Xiao frowned when he heard the woman's voice and a hint of confusion flashed across his eyes.

The owner noticed that Sheng Xiao was looking at the room in the middle. He said, "That's my daughter, Naris. She's an outstanding perfumer. She made the perfume you guys smell." The owner's eyes lit up at the mention of his daughter. He couldn't hide his pride.

Sheng Xiao nodded. "Sorry to disturb you for the next month."

The money was with Yu Huang, so Sheng Xiao asked Donor to bring Yu Huang and the others over.

After seeing the owner and finding out that the monthly rent for each room was 4,000 continent coins, Yu Huang gave Yin Rong, who was the most eloquent one, a hinting look.

After receiving Yu Huang's hint, Yin Rong walked out and asked the owner with a gentle smile, "Sir, how many continent coins is a spirit stone worth?" If the owner wanted to scam them, who were outsiders, this was the best time.

The owner said, "One spirit stone is equivalent to a thousand continent coins."

Yin Rong looked at Yu Huang with a questioning gaze.

Yu Huang nodded at her.

Long before she entered the tavern, Yu Huang had asked Xiao Ya about the conversion rate between the spirit stones and currencies of the Cang Lang Continent.

One spirit stone was indeed equivalent to a thousand continent coins.

This boss was quite an honest person.
