

She Shocks The Whole World After Retirement –

Chapter 1101 – 1110

Every Flaw On Your Body Is A Hero's Medal

Hearing Donor gasp, Naris suddenly realized how ridiculous her actions were.

Even if she was Anna, Feng Yuncheng's former best friend...

...Her current appearance was really too ugly. How many people could accept the current her?

Naris put her veil back on in shock. However, for some reason, her hands were trembling and she couldn't tie them properly. She was so anxious that tears flowed down her face.

At this moment, Estelle suddenly came behind Naris. The tall Estelle lowered his head slightly and said to Naris, "Don't be afraid." Estelle took the two straps from Naris's fingertips and helped her tie them again gently and carefully.

"Naris, there's no need to feel sad over shallow people. They're not worth it." With that, Estelle glanced at Donor coldly.

Donor was very vain.

When he saw Naris' terrifying face just now, he was indeed frightened. Gaspings was his instinctive reaction.

But after he gasped, he knew that he had hurt Naris' feelings and he regretted it.

At this moment, when he received Estelle's cold gaze, Donor felt even more flustered. This reminded him of the past when Estelle was despised by everyone because of his ugly appearance and dark skin.

Donor bit the tip of his tongue. Under Sheng Xiao, Yu Huang, and the others' condemning gazes, he walked towards Naris in shame.

When Naris saw him walking over, she subconsciously took a step back and fell into Estelle's arms.

Seeing this, Donor stopped.

As he stared at the pair of bloody wings on Naris's back, Donor's heart ached when he thought about how this girl had to secretly cut off her wings to hide her flaws.

As an elf, Donor's wings were a part of his body. Their wings would hurt even if they lost their feathers, let alone cut off their wings!

That was a heart-wrenching sort of pain.

"Naris." Donor felt ashamed.

Naris looked at him silently.

The guilty Donor apologized sincerely to Naris. "Naris, I'd like to apologize for my rude actions just now. Estelle is right. I'm a shallow person. Don't feel sad over me. It's not worth it."

Naris stared at him in silence. There was no warmth in her eyes.

Donor knew that Naris probably disliked him.

He could only blame himself.

Donor didn't expect Naris to forgive him. After all, he had done something wrong and hurt her feelings.

However, there was something Donor needed to let Naris know. "Naris, you don't have to feel embarrassed because of your disfigurement, because every disfigurement on your body is a medal for you saving the world! They're a hero's medals!"

When she heard this, Naris' eyes flickered.

After Donor finished speaking, he walked back to his seat dejectedly and sat down.

But Naris had already calmed down.

Just as Estelle had said, there was no need for her to take Donor's words to heart.

At this moment, Lin Jiansheng suddenly waved at Naris. "Naris, come here and let me take a look."

Only then did Estelle let go of Naris and encourage her in a low voice. "Go. God Ling Xiao is very powerful. He should have a way to heal your disfigurement."

After nodding her head, Naris walked to Lin Jiansheng.

Lin Jiansheng stood up and took off his black robe to put it on Naris. Then, he stared at Naris' almond-shaped eyes that were still filled with tears and said gently, "Central Continent is very cold at nighttime. It won't be good if a cute girl like you catch a cold."

Upon hearing this, Naris wanted to cry even more.

But she held back and tightened her robe. "Thank you, God Ling Xiao."

"Did Yu Huang tell you that many years ago, I purified your spirit once?" Lin Jiansheng remembered that Anna was almost devoured by the Nightmare Spider that year. If he and Yu Huang had not arrived in time, Anna would have already become a monster in the Broken Cliff.

"She said that before." Naris was very grateful for Lin Jiansheng's help and said, "God Ling Xiao, you are a good person."

Lin Jiansheng loved being labeled as a good person.

"Give me your right hand and relax. I want to see what's going on with your body." In fact, Lin Jiansheng had guessed the truth the moment he saw the dragon scales on Naris' body. However, he needed to verify it personally.

Upon hearing this, Naris hurriedly placed her hand on Lin Jiansheng's palm. Then, she relaxed and allowed Lin Jiansheng to use his psychic power to check the changes in her body.

When Lin Jiansheng was checking on Naris' body, the courtyard was very quiet.

Everyone looked at Naris with focus and concern. They wanted to know why Naris had become like this, and whether God Ling Xiao had the ability to heal her.

Di Wu bit a cigarette, but didn't light it. He watched silently as Lin Jiansheng examined Naris and slowly narrowed his eyes.

When Sheng Xiao noticed Di Wu's reaction, he frowned.

Before long, Lin Jiansheng let go of Naris' hand.

Naris opened her eyes and looked at Lin Jiansheng with nervousness and anticipation. "God Ling Xiao, can you cure me?"

Lin Jiansheng stared at Naris in silence for a while before answering, "That depends on whether you want me to cure you or not."

When Naris heard this, she knew that Lin Jiansheng could heal her. Naris was overjoyed and nodded vigorously as she said, "Of course I want to. Who would be willing to be a monster if they could be a normal person?"

Monster...

Di Wu suddenly took the cigarette out of his mouth and said to Lin Jiansheng in a hoarse voice, "Naris is still young. If you can heal her, there might be a good marriage waiting for her."

Di Wu suddenly stood up and held the dining table with both hands. Then, he slowly knelt down towards Lin Jiansheng. "Lord!" Di Wu kowtowed to Lin Jiansheng. "Please help heal Naris' body!"

Naris hurriedly walked to Di Wu's side and knelt down as well. Then, she kowtowed to Lin Jiansheng. "God Ling Xiao, I don't want to be a monster anymore. I want to be a normal person!"

"Of course I will treat Naris, so please get up first." Lin Jiansheng disliked people kneeling to him.

He wasn't dead yet, so it was a little too early.

Naris hurriedly helped Di Wu up.

After they stood up, Lin Jiansheng asked Naris a question. "Naris, have you ever thought about who the ice-blue dragon scales and wings on your body originally belonged to?"

Naris was stumped by Lin Jiansheng's question.

She subconsciously said, "Aren't they from a monster?"

Lin Jiansheng glanced at Yu Huang and asked her, "You didn't tell her about the Icy Night T-Rex?"

Yu Huang replied, "I did."

Upon hearing the conversation between Lin Jiansheng and Yu Huang, Naris immediately recalled what Yu Huang had told her today.

Ice-blue...

1102 Wherever You Are, It's My Home

A detail that Naris had forgotten suddenly flashed across her mind—

The Icy Night T-Rex that Anna fell in love with was ice-blue!

At this moment, a cold aura was being released from Naris' chest.

As Naris pressed her chest, she had a guess.

Naris suddenly felt her mouth go dry. "Could... could these scales be..."

A sharp pain spread from Naris' heart and quickly spread throughout her entire body. It was as if a sharp dagger was mercilessly stabbing the flesh and blood of her heart.

Naris fell to the ground in pain and cold tears fell from the scales on her face. Wherever the tears flowed, the scales emitted an incomparably dazzling ice-blue luster.

At this moment, the scales seemed to have suddenly come to life.

Upon seeing this, how could Naris not understand?

She raised her face and looked at Lin Jiansheng with tears in her eyes as she asked him in a hoarse voice, "It's the Icy Night T-Rex, right?" Naris pulled the scales on her body with tears and roared in despair, "It's the T-Rex, right?! He gave his life to me, right?!"

Yu Huang had said that when she fell into the abyss rift, that silly dragon had also followed her.

She climbed out of the Black Eye, but the Icy Night T-Rex had disappeared. Ice-blue dragon scales and wings appeared on her body.

"God Ling Xiao, the T-Rex is in my body, right? These scales, these wings, they're not from a monster at all. They're from the T-Rex, right?"

Seeing that Naris had already guessed the truth, Lin Jiansheng became filled with sympathy and pity.

"... Yes."

Upon hearing this, Naris was stunned. Then, she cried even more sorrowfully.

"Boohoo..." As Naris laid on the ground and sobbed, her heart-wrenching cries made Yu Huang want to cry as well.

The meticulous and empathetic Yin Rong had already run to the tree and hid under it while secretly wiping her tears.

Beatrice and the others also watched this sad scene in silence.

Who would have thought that the demon beast that Dean Di reared was so devoted?

Seeing that Naris was crying, Di Wu was also so sad that his eyes turned red. Di Wu quickly walked over and bent down to hug Naris while comforting her. "Naris, don't cry anymore, okay?"

Naris grabbed the sweater in front of Di Wu's chest tightly as she shook her head and said, "I don't want to cry either, but Daddy, I can't help it. I really can't help it." Just the thought of these scales being the Icy Night T-Rex's made her feel endless sorrow.

She clearly didn't have Anna's memories and didn't even remember what the Icy Night T-Rex looked like.

But she still felt heartbroken.

Perhaps, even if she couldn't remember anything, Anna's love for the Icy Night T-Rex had always been hidden in her body.

It wasn't Naris who wanted to cry, but Anna.

Lin Jiansheng let out a long sigh and said, "Naris, I don't know what kind of situation you and the Icy Night T-Rex encountered in the abyss rift, but I can sense a cold demonic aura in your blood. There's a high chance that the Icy Night T-Rex has fused with your body."

"Naris, the way to heal your body is actually very simple. As long as you purify the demonic aura that belongs to the Icy Night T-Rex in your body, you will naturally return to normal."

"What about the T-Rex?" Naris asked in pain. "Is there any hope of the T-Rex reviving?"

Lin Jiansheng frowned slightly. He couldn't bear to, but he had to tell the cruel truth, so he said, "Naris, the Icy Night T-Rex is already dead. The moment it fused with you, it died."

"The moment your body was healed was also the moment the Icy Night T-Rex completely disappeared." Lin Jiansheng stared at Naris sadly and asked her, "Naris, do you still want to heal your body?"

Naris kept shaking her head while saying, "No, the Icy Night T-Rex can't disappear. No!"

Hearing this, Di Wu immediately held Naris' arm tightly, so tightly that Naris felt pain.

"Naris, you're so foolish!" Di Wu advised her earnestly, "Naris, I don't know what kind of friendship there is between you and that Icy Night T-Rex, but I know that everyone should look forward. That Icy Night T-Rex was willing to sacrifice its life to fulfill your wish. Naturally, it hoped that you could live a happy and fulfilling life."

"If you're happy, his sacrifice will be worth it."

Di Wu shook Naris' body hard to make her come back to her senses. "Naris, you dwell on the past forever! Listen to me, make the Icy Night T-Rex' death meaningful!"

Of course, Naris understood this principle.

However, as long as she thought about how the traces of the Icy Night T-Rex were about to completely disappear from this world, she no longer wanted to heal her incomplete body.

She actually felt that it was okay to continue living with an ugly body.

Seeing that Naris refused to accept Lin Jiansheng's help, Yu Huang could understand how Naris couldn't bear to see the Icy Night T-Rex disappear. However, Di Wu was right. One had to move forward. "Naris, do you know? In the eyes of the Icy Night T-Rex, you're an extremely tough girl. The Icy Night T-Rex loves the lively, tough, and confident you. That fool definitely wouldn't want to see you live in pain and anguish."

"Naris, listen to Uncle Di. Let me purify your spirit."

At this moment, Beatrice and the others also advised Naris, "Naris, you're only 24 years old. You still have a long way to go. You can't dwell on your 20s forever."

Despite facing everyone's persuasion, Naris was still unmoved.

Just as she was about to refuse, Sheng Xiao, who had been silent, suddenly said to Naris, "Naris, death isn't true disappearance. Being forgotten is."

Naris was stunned.

She slowly turned to look at Sheng Xiao.

At that moment, Sheng Xiao was looking at her gently as he said, "He won't disappear. He will always live on in our hearts. You know that, right?"

Naris was enlightened by Sheng Xiao's words.

"Sir." Naris wiped her tears and said to Lin Jiansheng, "Please help me purify my spirit."

Lin Jiansheng said, "Okay."

Di Wu also smiled. He wiped Naris' tears with his rough fingers and said, "Naris, when you recover, in the future, no matter how big the world is, your appearance will no longer be your burden."

Naris said, "No matter where I go, wherever Daddy is will forever be my home."

Di Wu's eyes turned red again.

He patted Naris' head with a sad smile as he said with a sigh, "Wherever you are will forever be my home as well."

1103 Any River Can Be Holy With The Presence Of A Dragon

That night, Central Continent's psychic energy gathered in the sky above Five Lakes Street again.

Sensing an abnormal energy fluctuation in the air and that this energy was gathering in the direction of Five Lakes Street, they guessed that this was most likely caused by the Purifying Spirit Master called Lin Jiansheng. In order to see Lin Jiansheng's true strength, some hidden experts silently sneaked into Five Lakes Street.

Some of them stood on top of trees, while others hid behind dark clouds.

With their extraordinary eyesight, they could see everything that was happening in the small courtyard of the tavern clearly.

Lin Jiansheng held the scepter in his right hand and stood behind Naris while chanting in a profound and unfamiliar language.

These experts didn't understand what Lin Jiansheng was summoning, but they could acutely sense that the surrounding air seemed to have become much fresher in an instant. When they sensed it carefully, they realized that there seemed to be some faint spiritual bodies hidden inside.

When they sensed these changes, surprise appeared in their eyes.

From the looks of it, Lin Jiansheng was indeed capable.

At this moment, the temperature suddenly plummeted, as if some terrifying ice-type demon beast had arrived, freezing the already chilly Central Continent.

This was...

Everyone turned to look at the courtyard of the tavern and saw wisps of ice-blue gas being released from Naris' body. The ice power contained in that gas was unprecedented.

It turned out that the sudden drop in the Central Continent's temperature was because of that mysterious demonic aura.

What kind of demonic power was this?

After about twenty minutes, the demonic power left in Naris' body by the Icy Night T-Rex was completely released.

Naris laid on the ground with a sad expression. She could clearly feel the dragon scales left on her body being peeled off piece by piece. Fair and delicate skin quickly grew from the wound where the dragon scales fell.

Naris was finally going to become a normal person as she wished.

However, now that she could finally escape the control of the 'monster' and be reborn like a normal person, Naris wasn't happy at all.

Naris suddenly felt a burning sensation in her shoulder blade, as if something was about to drill out of her body. She turned to look behind her. The wings that had once made her suffer were being uprooted from her shoulder blade.

The pain of flesh and blood separating made Naris tremble.

At this moment, Naris suddenly realized with profundity that the Icy Night T-Rex was about to disappear.

He was disappearing from her body bit by bit.

"No..." Naris suddenly broke down and shouted with tears, "T-Rex, you're not allowed to leave!"

But she couldn't stop it.

Soon, the pair of wings completely peeled off from Naris' body and landed on the ground with ice-blue dragon scales.

The sight was quite jarring.

But this wasn't the end.

Naris suddenly realized that the flesh in her chest was suddenly burning violently.

It was the Heart-Protecting Scale stirring.

When Naris sensed the restlessness of the Heart-Protecting Scale, she realized that once the demonic power in her body was expelled, even this Heart-Protecting Scale would be purified. Naris finally lost control of her emotions at this moment.

Pressing her chest hard, Naris asked Lin Jiansheng with tears streaming down her face, "It's enough! Can you make them stop? I don't want to continue!"

"Let the Heart-Protecting Scale stay in my body, okay?"

Lin Jiansheng couldn't bear to see her like this. He closed his eyes and sighed softly before saying, "Naris, the Heart-Protecting Scale also belongs to him."

When she heard this, Naris's beautiful face was instantly filled with despair and sorrow.

In the end, the Heart-Protecting Scale broke free from Naris' chest and was caught by Naris with both hands.

The Heart-Protecting Scale was covered in ice-blue horizontal patterns.

They said that the number of horizontal stripes on the Heart-Protecting Scale represented its owner's age.

There were countless horizontal patterns on the Icy Night T-Rex's Heart-Protecting Scales. There were at least three to four hundred.

Three to four hundred...

To demon beasts, three to four hundred years was only a very short period of time. If it had not been unlucky enough to meet her, the lifespan of the Icy Night T-Rex would still be very, very long...

She had cut the Icy Night T-Rex's life short.

At the thought of this, Naris' heart ached.

"T-Rex..." Naris hugged the Heart-Protecting Scale tightly and sobbed again.

Yu Huang and the others watched Naris with heartache and couldn't help but tear up. Feng Yuncheng couldn't help but take off his glasses and turn around to secretly wipe the tears from the corner of his eyes.

He and Yu Huang were witnesses to Anna's relationship with the Icy Night T-Rex.

They knew better than anyone how difficult Anna and the Icy Night T-Rex's romance was.

It was truly tragic that people who loved each other couldn't be together in the end.

...

When the experts hiding in the dark saw with their own eyes that Lin Jiansheng had healed Naris' body, their mentality changed silently.

Pharmacists' pills could help people increase their cultivation level and save lives, but they couldn't help Beast Tamers evolve complete beast forms. A refiner's Spirit Tool could increase the combat strength of Beast Tamers, but it couldn't help Beast Tamers exorcise the evil in their bodies.

Although Healers could treat illnesses, they couldn't cure people who were cursed and infected.

However, Lin Jiansheng couldn't only exorcise evil spirits, but could also help people evolve beast forms and heal their physical disabilities. He was an all-rounded talent.

No wonder Jun Qing thought so highly of Lin Jiansheng.

As the saying went, any river could be holy with the presence of a dragon.

Lin Jiansheng was the dragon hidden on Five Lakes Street.

As for Lin Jiansheng, who had these superpowers, even if he spent his entire life in a godforsaken place like Five Lakes Street, he would still be fawned over by those experts from the Cang Lang Continent!

Realizing how valuable Lin Jiansheng was, these experts returned home overnight and gave a mandatory order to the young people in the clan who had not successfully awakened their beast forms—

“Tomorrow, all of you have to go to Five Lakes Street to participate in the Purifying Spirit Academy's recruitment assessment!”

Thus, the next day, Five Lake Street welcomed batches of young people with extraordinary status.

This was the first time these young masters and young ladies had stepped into the legendary backward and poor Five Lakes Street. Seeing that the ground was covered in black dust, they felt disgusted. Some people even took out their isolation suits and masks that they had prepared in advance and fully disguised themselves before finally daring to walk into Five Lakes Street.

However, they didn't know that from the moment they stepped into Five Lakes Street, they had already entered the assessment field that Lin Jiansheng had set up for them. Their every move, word, and action had long been captured clearly by the surveillance detector above the town.

What they didn't know was that Lin Jiansheng hated arrogant and rude people the most.

1104 We Will Have A Chance Encounter With Everyone We Miss

This time, a total of 20,000 people participated in the enrollment assessment of the Purifying Spirit Academy. However, only 50 students were chosen by Lin Jiansheng.

Among these 50 people, the youngest was only 16 years old, and the oldest was already 82 years old.

As for why they were left behind and why the others were eliminated, Lin Jiansheng didn't give a detailed explanation.

When some of the eliminated young people saw that Lin Jiansheng would rather accept a group of old fellows than them, who were young and had noble statuses, they immediately felt resentment. They even left disparaging comments on the official website of the Central Continent's Purifying Spirit Academy—

[What Purifying Spirit Master? He's just a swindler who came from a small world to pretend he's a big shot.]

[Hehe, the oldest student is already 82 years old! Let's hope he doesn't die before he becomes a Purifying Spirit Master. I think this school might as well be called a nursing home.]

[It's called an assessment, but there's no assessment standard. Whether one can pass the assessment depends on Lin Jiansheng's personal standards. Isn't this too outrageous?]

Under their deliberate instigation, many discordant comments appeared on the internet.

For a moment, everyone doubted the profession of a Purifying Spirit Master.

However, Lin Jiansheng had never been a pushover.

How could he tolerate being scolded?

Coincidentally, the mayor, Jun Qing, came to Five Lakes Street personally yesterday and sent an AI terminal to Lin Jiansheng, Yu Huang, and the others. Lin Jiansheng was so happy that he immediately became sworn buddies with Jun Qing.

After reading the comments on the official website, Lin Jiansheng immediately registered a personal account and used Yu Huang's photo as his profile picture to send the first post—

[Stupid dog, you should hide behind your master obediently and be loyal lap dog instead of causing trouble. Do you think you look very impressive when you bark? The way you bark embarrasses your master.]

These words insinuated that those arrogant and rude young people from cultivation families were like stupid lap dogs.

Stupid lap dogs should hide behind their masters and beg for food. If they ran out to bark at passersby, that would be stupid and ignorant.

Such people not only embarrassed themselves, but also their families.

Smart people could tell that the Central Continent's government wanted to make the profession of Purifying Spirit Master into a powerful force.

Even if one didn't look up to it, one couldn't challenge it.

When this matter reached the ears of those elders of the large families, they were so angry that the elders sent people to gather the group of people who caused trouble. Then, they punished them. After the beating, they still were not appeased. Therefore, the troublemakers were even punished with confinement for a year and were not allowed to cause trouble again.

Under the instructions of the elders, these things reached Lin Jiansheng's ears.

When Lin Jiansheng heard about this, he knew what the attitudes of those large families were.

He understood that even if these large families and sects in the Central Continent didn't take the initiative to befriend him, they definitely wouldn't interfere with the development of Purifying Spirit Masters in the Central Continent.

This was enough.

The Purifying Spirit Master Academy was still under construction. Before school started, Lin Jiansheng's days were quite leisurely.

He had just enjoyed a leisurely day when He Zhiqiu found him. He Zhiqiu said, "Brother Lin, it's time for me to leave. The Beast Tamer High School's enrollment competition is about to begin. Yu Huang and the others will be busy, so I had no choice but to look for you shamelessly. I hope you can take the time to accompany me to the Divine Miracle Continent."

The spiritual field that the Space Administration had compensated He Zhiqiu with was located on the Divine Miracle Continent, which was in the east. It was said that the Divine Miracle Continent was the first continent in the Cang Lang Continent. There were many experts there, and the spiritual power was abundant. Naturally, the soil in the spiritual field base there was the most fertile, and the spiritual power there was the richest.

The Divine Miracle Continent was thousands of miles away from the Central Continent. He Zhiqiu was old, and his cultivation level was declining faster and faster, so it was unsafe for him to travel alone.

Due to various considerations, He Zhiqiu could only beg Lin Jiansheng.

Lin Jiansheng naturally wouldn't reject him. He hoped that He Zhiqiu could plant the Bone Nurturing Grass as soon as possible. He was still waiting to revive Su Tingxue.

"Brother He, we're buddies. It's only right for me to send you there. Even if you didn't look for me, I planned to personally escort you to the Divine Miracle Continent."

When he heard this, He Zhiqiu's furrowed brows instantly relaxed. "Then I'll have to trouble you, Brother Lin."

After discussing this with Lin Jiansheng, He Zhiqiu went to bid farewell to Yu Huang.

After knowing that He Zhiqiu was going to the Spiritual Field, Yu Huang was a little worried. "The Divine Miracle Continent is very far from the Central Continent. Mr. He, you have to take good care of yourself along the way."

Yu Huang had always thought highly of He Zhiqiu's talent in planting spiritual herbs, but the only thing she was worried about was his lifespan.

He Zhiqiu was old and had been deceived for ten years. Now, he could barely even straighten his back.

Yu Huang was worried that he would die before he could plant the Bone Nurturing Grass.

He Zhiqiu also knew how bad his physical condition was. He waved his hand and said, "Yu Huang, don't worry. I will take good care of myself. Before I plant the Bone Nurturing Grass, I won't dare to die." His life was saved by Yu Huang, so he hoped that before he died, he could plant the Bone Nurturing Grass to repay Yu Huang for saving his life.

In order to let He Zhiqiu plant the Bone Nurturing Grass with peace in mind, Yu Huang mentioned some good news, "Mr. He, I've already chosen the address of the Spirit Grass Trading Center. I'm just waiting for you to plant the Bone Nurturing Grass and help our Spirit Grass Trading Center become famous."

Hearing this, He Zhiqiu was indeed interested.

He asked Yu Huang, "Yu Huang, where are you planning to spread the spiritual herbs?"

"Besides the Purifying Spirit Academy." Yu Huang blinked at He Zhiqiu and said, "In the future, the Five Lakes District will definitely be the most dazzling pearl in the Central Continent. Setting the Spirit Grass Trading Center here is definitely a win-win situation! Perhaps it will become the number one Spirit Grass Trading Center in the Central Continent."

As if he had already foreseen that scene, He Zhiqiu couldn't help but feel his blood boiling and was instantly filled with energy.

"I wonder if we can choose the name of the Spirit Grass Trading Center?"

"I've already chosen."

"What's it called?"

Yu Huang said, "It's called Chance Encounter Spiritual Herb Shop."

After He Zhiqiu pondered over this name, he suddenly smiled and said, "I was lucky enough to meet you guys in Ascension Town. This is called a chance encounter. As soon as we entered the Cang Lang Continent, you guys met Naris. This is also a chance encounter. In the future, we will have many more chance encounters."

The more he thought about it, the more He Zhiqiu felt that this name was perfect.

"It's a coincidence. It's a good name." He was full of praise for it.

Yu Huang said, "Of course, we will have a chance encounter with everyone we miss."

After bidding farewell to Yu Huang, He Zhiqiu left Five Lakes Street under Lin Jiansheng's escort.

1105 Brother Xiao Is Indeed Shrewd

As soon as they left, Yu Huang and the others also focused their attention on the Beast Tamer Enrollment Competition.

A few days ago, Donor and Estelle had been asking about the details of the enrollment competition in the Ice River City. When this reached Jun Qing's ears, he started making arrangements.

On this day, the captain of the guards of the mayor's manor personally came to the small tavern on Five Lake Street and handed a beautiful invitation letter to Yu Huang. "Good afternoon. The mayor and his wife are holding a banquet in the mayor's manor tonight to entertain all of you. Please attend on time."

Holding the invitation letter, Yu Huang pondered for a moment before saying, "Alright, we'll go to the banquet on time."

The guard captain heaved a sigh of relief and said, "Our car is parked on the street. When you set off, you only need to inform us and we will rush over immediately." With that, the guard captain left with his subordinates.

Sheng Xiao stared at the guard captain's back figure as he said thoughtfully, "I guess Jun Qing wants to invite us to join the Central Continent's registry."

Nodding her head, Yu Huang also said, "Most likely."

Glancing at Donor and Estelle, Yu Huang said, "Coincidentally, we still don't know much about the high school enrollment competition. Why don't we take this opportunity to ask the mayor? He will definitely be able to clear our doubts."

"Okay."

This time, they would be guests at the mayor's manor.

In order to express how important this banquet was to them, the seven of them changed into new formal clothes before following the guard captain to the mayor's manor.

As expected, Jun Qing had set up a banquet for them. There was wine and delicacies on the long table.

Jun Qing and Madam Brulee were wearing matching outfits of the same color. They sat side by side at the top of the long table while Yu Huang and the others sat on both sides.

During the meal, Jun Qing mentioned, "I heard from Qin Pei yesterday that she saw Mr. Donor and Mr. Estelle asking about the college enrollment competition in front of the Beast Tamer Alliance Hall.” Jun Qing looked at Donor and the others and asked, “Are you guys planning to participate in this year’s college beast tamer enrollment competition?”

Donor nodded and replied, “That’s right. We heard that there are a few super famous schools on the Cang Lang Continent, so we also want to give it a try. We went to the Beast Tamer Alliance Hall yesterday and heard from the staff there that if we want to study in a super famous school, we have to participate in the Central Continent Selection Competition. Only Beast Tamers who enter the top 100 of the Selection Competition are qualified to go to Cang Lang City to participate in the intercontinental finals. Beast Tamers who perform well in the intercontinental finals have a chance to be chosen by a super famous school.”

“Is this true?”

Nodding, Jun Qing said, “That’s indeed the case.”

Jun Qing’s gaze swept across the faces of Yu Huang and the others, whose expressions didn’t change. Seeing that they were all calm, he couldn’t help but feel bored.

He was waiting for Yu Huang and the others to take the initiative to ask questions. This way, he could follow the plan and persuade them to join the Central Continent.

“Hehe.” Jun Qing laughed awkwardly and said, “The intercontinental screening test determines whether you can enter a super famous school to cultivate. However, there are only five thousand spots in the intercontinental screening test, and every spot is very precious. That’s why the screening test exists. Twenty days before the intercontinental screening test officially starts, there will be a huge screening test between the various continents. Elite Beast Tamers will be selected to go to Cang Lang City to participate in the final intercontinental finals.”

Yin Rong couldn’t help but ask, “According to your words, there are a total of five thousand spots in the intercontinental finals, and but why is there only a hundred spots for Central Continent, which is one of the eight continents?”

When Jun Qing heard Yin Rong’s question, he looked awkward and embarrassed.

Yu Huang secretly extended her right foot and kicked Yin Rong under the table.

At this moment, Yin Rong also understood and guessed the reason.

She felt a little guilty.

On the other hand, Madam Brulee’s reaction was very calm. She even teased, “What else could it be? It’s because Central Continent is disappointing. Although Central Continent is huge and has many scientific and technological talents, it has few cultivation talents. Among the eight continents of the Cang Lang Continent, Central Continent's cultivation level is ranked at the bottom and is far behind that of the other continents."

"You guys have heard of the War God Clan, right?"

Everyone nodded. "I've heard a little."

Nodding her head, Madam Brulee told them, "All the Beast Tamers in the Central Continent combined are not comparable to the War God Clan. In the intercontinental finals, the Central Continent only has a total of 100 participants, while the War God Clan has 500 slots."

At this point, the charming smile on Madam Brulee's face disappeared.

She lowered her eyes and lamented, "It's quite embarrassing."

After hearing Madam Brulee's words, everyone fell silent.

They had long known that the overall strength of the Beast Tamers in the Central Continent was too weak, but they didn't expect them to be this weak. Such a huge continent was actually worse than a mere sect.

Wasn't it embarrassing?

Yin Rong felt guilty. Seeing that Madam Brulee was sad, she hurriedly comforted her. "Madam, you don't have to be ashamed. This wasn't caused by you guys."

Madam Brulee shook her head and said, "The Beast Tamers of the Central Continent are the weakest. This indeed wasn't caused by me and my husband. However, as the mayor of the Ice River City and the leader of the Central Continent's government, my husband and I were unable to lead the Central Continent to become stronger. This is our dereliction of responsibility."

"That's right." Jun Qing sighed. "Working hard to lead the Central Continent to obtain the recognition of the Cang Lang Continent is not only my ultimate goal, but also the goal of past leaders. We have always been striving to achieve this goal, but we have never succeeded."

This was a sad thing.

After finding out about the sorrow in the mayor and his wife's hearts, Yin Rong and the others also sympathized with them.

At that moment, Sheng Xiao suddenly pointed out, "If we want to participate in the Central Continent Selection Competition and enter the top 100, does that mean that the seven of us have to join the Central Continent first?"

When Sheng Xiao asked this, he was staring at Jun Qing. His clear eyes looked piercing and cold.

Jun Qing didn't dare to look into Sheng Xiao's eyes.

He knew that Sheng Xiao had seen through his tricks.

Jun Qing felt a little embarrassed.

He lowered his head slightly and replied with difficulty, "...Yes."

"Heh." Sheng Xiao let out a short but mocking laugh. "Did you guys say those words on purpose to arouse our sympathy so that you can persuade us to join the Central Continent?"

When Yin Rong and the others heard Sheng Xiao's words, they realized that Jun Qing and Madam Brulee had said those words on purpose.

As Yu Huang stirred the coffee in her cup, she smiled.

Brother Xiao was indeed shrewd.

She Shocks The Whole World After Retirement - Chapter 1106 - 1106 Challenger League

1106 Challenger League

Even Jun Qing felt embarrassed that Sheng Xiao had exposed his true motive. His face and ears burned.

Madam Brulee's heart ached when she saw Jun Qing's expression turn ugly.

Madam Brulee stared at Sheng Xiao as she said frankly, "We think highly of the seven of you. Although you guys are from a small world, you all obtained at least an A-rank identity card. Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang even got the most difficult S-rank identity card. We know that the seven of you will reach an unprecedented height and become people that we can only look up to in the future."

“The Central Continent has been stagnant for thousands of years. It urgently needs fresh and powerful blood. The seven of you are the fresh blood chosen by us. Tonight, we used the excuse of the gathering to lure you guys here and deliberately said those words in front of you guys. We indeed wanted to gain your sympathy and rope you guys in to join the Central Continent. We want you guys to become legal residents of the Central Continent and represent the Central Continent to participate in the intercontinental finals.”

At this point, a hint of shame appeared on Madam Brulee’s charming face.

“But...” Madam Brulee glanced at Jun Qing, who was blushing. She held her husband’s hand silently and looked up at Sheng Xiao, Yu Huang, and the others.

The seven of them had the same cold expression.

Sighing, Madam Brulee continued, “I admit that we have an ulterior motive. However, just like how you guys have ascended to the Cang Lang Continent with the goal of saving your hometown, my husband and I only want the future of the Central Continent to be more glorious.”

“We all have the same ideals, so you guys don’t have to treat us as sinful people.”

When they heard Madam Brulee’s last few words, the expressions of Yu Huang and the others finally softened.

That’s right, although Madam Brulee and Jun Qing were putting on an act to trick them into joining the Central Continent...

However, Jun Qing’s family was rich. Even if they didn’t work and spent money every day, he probably wouldn’t be able to spend all his savings even until he died. Therefore, why did he put in so much effort to put on this show?

It was all for the Central Continent!

“I’m sorry, Madam. Mayor, I was rude just now.” Sheng Xiao apologized.

Jun Qing and Madam Brulee waved their hands. “Sheng Xiao, you’re being too polite. We were in the wrong first.”

After both sides apologized to each other and explained this matter, they felt relaxed.

Jun Qing suddenly said, “Actually, I hid something else from everyone just now.” He looked up at Sheng Xiao with a conflicted look in his eyes. Then, he said, “If you want to participate in the intercontinental finals, there’s another way besides the Central Continent Selection Competition.”

Previously, Jun Qing had deliberately not revealed this out of selfishness.

“Oh really?” Sure enough, everyone looked up at Jun Qing when they heard his words.

Donor said in surprise, “What other way is there? We’ve been asking around for a few days, but we’ve never heard of any other way.”

Jun Qing lamented, “That’s because the other method has rarely been used in recent years. Perhaps in a few years, this method will be canceled.”

Yu Huang asked, “What exactly are you talking about?”

Without deliberately showing off, Jun Qing said bluntly, “It’s a challenge competition.”

After a pause, Jun Qing explained in detail, “There are hundreds of Beast Tamer students in the Cang Lang Continent. Among them, there are ten publicly acknowledged top schools. In every intercontinental finals, these ten top schools will send two elite students and form an elite team of 20 people. On the day before the intercontinental finals, those who have not joined any sects, sects or continents can challenge them to qualify to participate in the intercontinental finals.”

Yu Huang and the others were instantly interested when they heard this. “I wonder what rules are there for this challenge?”

“I’m not sure about the details. After all, I’ve never participated in it before.” Jun Qing smiled awkwardly and revealed an ashamed expression as he lamented, “Cang Lang City is a holy land in the hearts of every cultivator. Cang Lang Academy is a place every Beast Tamer dreamed of going to when they were young. Although I’m the leader of the Central Continent’s government and I’ve lived for almost two hundred years, I have never been to Cang Lang City.”

Logically speaking, Jun Qing wasn’t short of money and was also a Beast Tamer, so he had the right to go to Cang Lang City to take a look.

However, Cang Lang City was a place full of people with hidden potential. It was said that even the people who sold meat buns in the streets might be big shots. Jun Qing was only a Master with an incomplete beast form, so he had low self-esteem.

Jun Qing didn’t have the courage to set foot in a holy land like Cang Lang City.

However, in the future, he wanted to visit Cang Lang City.

“This information was obtained from the experts who participated in the intercontinental finals. The information I gathered might not be complete, but it’s definitely true.” In order to investigate clearly, Jun Qing had specifically brought gifts to visit those experts yesterday.

However, Jun Qing didn't intend to reveal all the details to Yu Huang and the others in case they thought that he was taking credit.

However, the smart Yu Huang instantly guessed that Jun Qing must have personally visited those seniors in order to investigate this information. She smiled at Jun Qing gratefully, and her smile was much more sincere than before. "Thank you for helping us gather information."

Jun Qing smiled. "You're welcome"

Jun Qing continued, "The ascenders from a hundred years ago chose to participate in the intercontinental finals in the form of a challenge. However, in recent years, the ascenders are more inclined to choose sects in advance and participate in the screening test as sect disciples. The rules of the challenge are actually very simple. The ascenders only need to arrive at the venue the day before the competition and participate in the lot drawing ceremony. You will challenge whoever's lot you draw."

"Generally speaking, the difficulty of the challenge is even higher than that of the screening test, but the seven of you are all very talented young cultivators. Even if you participate in the challenge, you should be able to enter the finals." After saying that, Jun Qing frowned and added, "As long as you don't encounter the arena guardian of Cang Lang Academy."

"Why?" Sheng Xiao frowned and asked, "Is Cang Lang Academy really that terrifying?"

It was just a challenge competition, so Cang Lang Academy wouldn't send their most powerful inner sect disciple, right?

However, she heard Jun Qing say, "It's not that Cang Lang Academy is terrifying, but in recent years, Cang Lang Academy has produced an extremely talented student. This person's name is Zhan Wuya, and he's the number one student at Cang Lang Academy. I heard that he's not even 40 years old this year, but he's already broken through to the Prime Master cultivation level."

Donor, Beatrice, and the others couldn't help but gasp.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

1107 Ye Qingyang Again

To be able to break through to the Prime Master Realm before the age of 40, this person was indeed talented.

Donor had always thought that Sheng Xiao was like a tall mountain that he couldn't cross, but after he arrived at the Cang Lang Continent, he realized that there were countless mountains like Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao's eyelashes fluttered when he heard that Zhan Wuya was already a Prime Master, but he didn't say anything.

In just four years, Zhan Wuya had broken through to the Prime Master Realm. Someone who could reach the top of the Central Pagoda of the Doomsday Battlefield was indeed top-notch.

"To break through to the Prime Master Realm before the age of 40, Zhan Wuya is indeed impressive." Feng Yuncheng blinked at Sheng Xiao again and said, "Senior Sheng, you're only 31 years old this year, but you're already a Grand Master. Perhaps you can break through to the Prime Master Realm before the age of 40."

Sheng Xiao shook his head calmly as he said, "There's a large gap between a Grand Master and a Prime Master. Back then, I forcefully broke through to the Grand Master realm and injured my body. As for when I can break through to the Prime Master realm, who knows?"

Yu Huang lowered her head when she heard this.

Sheng Xiao had always emphasized stability in his cultivation path. If not for the fact that he wanted to save Yu Huang from Ouyang Luo, he wouldn't have broken through to the Grand Master realm.

Yu Huang had always felt guilty about Sheng Xiao's bone structure being damaged because of her.

Although Sheng Lingfeng had given Sheng Xiao some spirit herbs to repair his bones back then, the effects of those herbs were limited. They could only protect Sheng Xiao's bones for the time being, but they couldn't repair the damage to his bones. If Sheng Xiao hadn't cultivated the Divine Wood Cultivation Technique, he would have become a cripple already.

If only there was a pill that could repair the bones of a Grand Master's Spiritual Root.

Jun Qing saw that Feng Yuncheng and the others had high hopes for Sheng Xiao, so naturally, he wouldn't crush Sheng Xiao's confidence. He smiled and said, "Sheng Xiao, your cultivation talent is not inferior to that of those geniuses even in Cang Lang Academy. I think highly of you."

Of course an ascendant who could obtain an S-rank identity card wasn't bad.

Sheng Xiao was unmoved by everyone's praise. He remained rational and calm.

Sheng Xiao asked Jun Qing, "Zhan Wuya is so powerful, so how many ascenders can withstand his attack? I don't think Cang Lang Academy will send him to be the arena defender, right?"

"Heh." Jun Qing shook his head and said with a sigh, "That might not be the case. According to rumors, there might be a few talented ascendants in this year's enrollment competition. Among them, there's even a notorious ghost cultivator Prime Master. In order to reject this person, the top ten schools this year will most likely send their most powerful elite students."

Sheng Xiao frowned and asked in surprise, "Is the ghost cultivator you're talking about Ye Qingyang?"

Sheng Xiao and the others were from a bottom-tier small world, so Jun Qing was shocked that he could say the ghost cultivator's name so accurately. "Sheng Xiao, you know Ye Qingyang too?"

Nodding, Sheng Xiao explained, "Four years ago, when the Doomsday Battlefield opened, I met him once." However, in his impression, Ye Qingyang wasn't a heinous evil person. Why did the people of the super Great world look so afraid when they mentioned him?

"No wonder..." After knowing that Sheng Xiao had participated in the Doomsday Battlefield, Jun Qing was even more curious about Sheng Xiao's performance in the Doomsday Battlefield. He said, "If it was four years ago, Ye Qingyang was probably still a Grand Master at that time. I heard that there is a Grand Master Thousand Ranking List in the Doomsday Battlefield. Did you make it?"

Before Sheng Xiao could nod, Donor said proudly, "He barely made it on the list. He was ranked 1,000th." Donor seemed so smug that it was as if he had entered the rankings himself.

Sheng Xiao glanced at Donor, but didn't say anything.

When Jun Qing heard that Sheng Xiao had successfully entered the Grand Master Thousand Ranking List on the Doomsday Battlefield, he looked at Sheng Xiao with even more fervor and respect. "You're so impressive. Those who can enter the Grand Master Thousand Ranking List are outstanding youths that all factions want to rope in, even in the ten super worlds! Impressive, impressive!"

Since Jun Qing's cultivation level wasn't high, he admired powerful Beast Tamers very much.

He admired Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao remained calm in the face of praise and said, "I was just lucky." But he knew very well how much he had suffered to enter the Grand Master Ranking.

"You entered the Grand Master Thousand Ranking List four years ago, so I think you can get the pass to the intercontinental finals even if you participate in this year's Challenger League." However, Jun Qing left out something——

If Yin Rong and the others participated in this year's Challenger League, they would most likely fail.

But even if he didn't say it, Yin Rong and the others knew.

Jun Qing suddenly stood up.

At this moment, the expression on his face was unprecedentedly sincere.

"Everyone, as the leader of the Central Continent's government, I sincerely invite you guys to join the Central Continent and compete on behalf of the Central Continent. If you guys are willing to join the Central Continent and successfully enter the intercontinental finals, I promise that I will definitely give you guys the best resources, connections, and financial support!"

Jun Qing had nothing to boast about but money.

Therefore, when he said this, he was full of confidence.

"However." Changing the topic, Jun Qing continued, "If you guys are unwilling to join the Central Continent, I will respect your decision. No matter what your final choice is, this will not affect our friendship."

At this moment, Madam Brulee picked up the wine pot and poured Jun Qing a glass of wine.

Jun Qing picked up his glass and raised it to Sheng Xiao and the others as he said, "No matter what, you guys will always be friends of Central Continent's people! No matter what decision you make, I wish you guys success!"

With this sentence, Jun Qing lessened their burden and showed his magnanimity.

Yu Huang and the others also stood up one after another. At the same time, they raised their wine glasses and toasted Jun Qing. "Thank you!"

After they drank this glass of wine, there was no longer any discussion about the intercontinental finals.

The gathering was quite enjoyable.

It was already late at night when the gathering ended.

It was cold and breezy at night, so Madam Brulee took the fur cloak from the butler and put it on. Then, she smiled sincerely as she invited Yu Huang and the others to stay over.

“Thank you for your kindness, Madam. However, we don’t have much time left on Five Lake Street. There are still many things to do, so we won’t stay overnight.” After rejecting Madam Brulee’s kind offer, Yu Huang and the others got into the guard captain’s car and returned to Five Lake Street.

When they returned to Five Lakes Street, Naris was still awake.

As if she knew that they would return and that they wouldn’t be able to sleep after they returned, Naris lit the grill on the roof in advance and prepared good wine.

Yu Huang and the others had just pushed open the door of the tavern and walked into the small courtyard when they saw Naris standing on the roof and waving at them. “Come quickly. The fish is almost roasted. I was waiting for you guys to come back.”

Seeing this scene, the seven of them suddenly calmed down.

1108 Joining the Central Continent

It was because her friends were too loveable.

* *

The next morning, when the guard captain of the mayor’s manor opened the heavy door of the mayor’s manor in admiration, he was stunned when he saw Sheng Xiao and the others standing side by side outside the door. Then, he shouted towards the backyard excitedly, “Mayor, Sheng Xiao and the others are here!”

Jun Qing stopped eating breakfast and hurriedly went to the main hall.

Seeing the seven young people standing in the middle of the main hall, Jun Qing knew what their choice was.

He felt gratified and happy.

However, when his gaze landed on the seven young faces, his heart ached.

Jun Qing knew very well that Sheng Xiao and the others were willing to join the Central Continent not because he was charming or because the Central Continent was technologically advanced and prosperous.

They only wanted to become strong as soon as possible and return to save their hometown.

They were once known as prodigies, but now, they compromised for their hometown's sake.

At that time, their average age was only 30.

They were just a group of young people the same age as his grandsons. His grandsons were squandering his assets and fooling around all day long, but this group of young people was already at a level that even Jun Qing had to look up to.

"Sir." Sheng Xiao explained their intentions, "After careful consideration, we have decided to join the Central Continent."

Hearing this, Jun Qing was overjoyed. "I promise you guys that the Central Continent's government will not mistreat you guys. Time will prove that your choice today is the right choice!"

Sheng Xiao said calmly, "Let time prove it."

Jun Qing was overjoyed. He personally accompanied them to the administrative building and settled their registration as quickly as possible. After this day, the empty column on Yu Huang and the others' identity cards was finally filled—

Continent: Central Continent.

* *

They only returned to the tavern on Five Lakes Street in the evening.

It was closing time.

There was a folding ladder in front of the tavern. On the ground, there was a broken sign with the words "Ice Rock Hotel." Di Wu stood on the ladder as he tried to hang the newly customized signboard.

The cold wind blew past, blowing against his wide-legged pants, revealing the cold prosthetic limbs under his pants. It was a terrifying sight.

"Uncle Di, let us do it." Sheng Xiao flew up and snatched the tablet from Di Wu's hand. Then, he hung it on the door of the tavern.

Di Wu raised his eyebrows and said, "Thanks."

When he walked down the ladder, he saw that Yu Huang and the others looked a little dejected and sad. He narrowed his eyes and asked, "When are you guys planning to leave?"

Parting was a very strange emotion.

There was no need for them to say it clearly. The reluctance in their eyes were telling enough.

Yu Huang said, "Tomorrow."

It was two days earlier than Di Wu had expected.

Di Wu sat down on the stairs in front of the tavern, but this revealed his prosthetic leg again. However, he didn't care at all. He took out a crumpled pack of cigarettes from his pocket and smoked a joint.

"Where are you guys going?" Di Wu asked.

Feng Yuncheng replied, "To participate in the Central Continent Selection Competition."

"Central Continent Selection Competition?" Di Wu looked at them in surprise as he said, "So, you're all joining the Central Continent?"

No one said anything.

Di Wu shook his head and said, "You guys don't seem like the kind of people who would casually join the Central Continent. I thought you would carefully investigate the various continents first before making a decision." He really didn't expect Yu Huang and the others to join the Central Continent so rashly.

Sheng Xiao smiled calmly. "There's nothing wrong with joining the Central Continent. As long as we enter the top 100 of the screening test, we can participate in the intercontinental finals."

Sheng Xiao had bowed down in the face of harsh reality.

Di Wu muttered, "When did you, Sheng Xiao, become like this?"

When he heard this, Sheng Xiao narrowed his sharp eyes and stared at Di Wu's bearded face.

Di Wu sounded like he knew what kind of person he was very well.

Sheng Xiao's gaze became unfathomable and he asked with a smile, "Uncle Di, how long have you known me? How do you know what I was like in the past?"

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

1109 Monster Sect

Sheng Xiao's words were filled with curiosity. Yu Huang and the others also looked at Di Wu suspiciously.

When Di Wu saw that they were all looking at him suspiciously, he shrugged and said with laughter, "How would I know?" Di Wu took a big whiff of the cigarette and tapped the end of his right eye with his right index finger as he said, "Sheng Xiao, your ambition was hidden in your eyes. You couldn't hide it from people. But now, your ambition is gone."

Sheng Xiao fell silent when he heard this.

It wasn't that his ambition was gone. That ambition was just hidden now.

When Yu Huang and the others heard Di Wu's answer, they dispelled their doubts about him.

Di Wu comforted them. "There's nothing bad about joining the Central Continent. There's just one thing. After you become legal residents of the Central Continent, you can only join the sects and factions of the Central Continent in the future. A big family like the War God Clan will be off-limits for you guys."

That was, unless the War God Clan was willing to take the initiative to remove their registration with the Central Continent's government in order to let them join.

That depended on whether Sheng Xiao and the others had the ability.

Sheng Xiao shook his head without hesitation. "I don't intend to join the War God Clan."

Zhan Jianxue had cut off Yu Huang's arm in the Doomsday Battlefield, so Sheng Xiao wished he could hunt down the War God Clan and kill Zhan Jianxue to avenge Yu Huang's broken arm. Why would he join the War God Clan?

Di Wu rolled his eyes when he heard this and said, "Without the protection of a sect, you're just an itinerant cultivator. How can an itinerant cultivator have the ability to compete with a large sect or family clan for resources?" Di Wu said in amusement, "Could it be that you're prepared to establish your own sect and be the boss?"

Di Wu was amused by his own words. He took out the cigarette in his mouth and looked at Yu Huang and the others with a smile as he said, "Everything is possible. Perhaps you can really work together to establish a large sect that surpasses the War God Clan."

With that, Di Wu lowered his head and chuckled.

They knew that Di Wu was joking, but Yu Huang and the others were comforted by this joke.

Feng Yuncheng laughed too. He was laughing so hard that his shoulders were trembling. He rubbed his face hard and suddenly said, "I think Uncle Di has a good idea. Why don't we register a sect tomorrow? It'll be called... Monster Sect." Then, Feng Yuncheng looked at Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang as he asked them, "What do you guys think of this? Isn't the name I came up with very special?"

Feng Yuncheng really felt that this name wasn't bad.

The seven of them were all more or less weirdos—

First of all, Yu Huang had transmigrated from another world. She was an old woman who was more than two hundred years old. Sheng Xiao looked tough, but he had a damaged soul. As a man, Feng Yuncheng had awakened the Bewitching Butterfly. He also had the Divine Butterfly Light and killing instinct.

Beatrice was charming and sexy, but deep down, she had a man's soul. While as a Night Elf, Estelle could summon powerful ghosts.

Yin Rong looked quite normal, but she had awakened the only deformed three-eyed unicorn in the world.

The only normal person among them was Donor.

Therefore, the name Monster Sect was really suitable for them.

However, Feng Yuncheng was only joking.

But Sheng Xiao nodded seriously. "I think it's feasible."

"Huh?" Feng Yuncheng was stunned.

Yu Huang, Yin Rong, and the others looked at Sheng Xiao in surprise as well.

Seeing the serious expression on Sheng Xiao's handsome face, they realized that he wasn't joking. "Brother Xiao, are you serious?" Yu Huang suspected that Sheng Xiao was out of his mind and messing around with Feng Yuncheng.

Sheng Xiao nodded. "Really." He never lied.

Everyone was speechless.

Feng Yuncheng rubbed his nose and explained softly, "Senior Sheng, I was just joking. Don't take it seriously."

"I took it seriously." Once Sheng Xiao took something seriously, he would do his best to achieve it.

Sheng Xiao analyzed calmly, "Our team only has seven people, but we have 5A2S. The level of authority of our identity card represents the Beast Tamer Alliance's evaluation of our potential. This is enough to prove how great our potential is."

The so-called 5A2S referred to the level of access the identity card obtained by the seven of them had.

Sheng Xiao asked Yu Huang and the others, "Tell me, are you guys confident that we can become powerhouses?"

Without any hesitation, Yu Huang and the others replied in unison, "Of course!"

"Then why should we, who are so outstanding, sell ourselves short to other sects?" Sheng Xiao looked up at the gray sky and said calmly, "We didn't work hard to reach the top of the mountain to become invincible swords in the hands of others. We don't want to be swords. We want to be the people holding the swords!"

"Therefore..."

Sheng Xiao looked down at his good friends and said, "Let's establish a sect that belongs to the seven of us. The Monster Sect is a good name. We will definitely be able to make a name for ourselves among thousands of sects. In the future, our sect will only accept monsters."

Yu Huang and the others actually felt their blood boil when they heard this.

As they looked up at the dark clouds above their heads, they felt as if they could already see the moment when the Monster Sect became a top sect in the Cang Lang Continent.

Yu Huang suddenly said, "Then you'll be the Sect Master and I'll be the First Elder."

Sheng Xiao looked at Yu Huang with a smile. "You can even be the Sect Master."

Yu Huang hurriedly waved her hand. "I find it too troublesome."

Donor added, "Since Yu Huang will be the First Elder, I'll reluctantly be the Second Elder."

Feng Yuncheng continued, "Then I'll be the Fourth Elder."

Beatrice, Yin Rong, and the others looked at each other. Then, Beatrice asked Sheng Xiao solemnly, "Sheng Xiao, are you serious?" She still felt that the idea was ridiculous.

Sheng Xiao nodded again. "Really. I'll register with the sect's Administration tomorrow and establish the Monster Sect."

Beatrice took a deep breath.

Good lord, he was serious about getting it done. How bold!

"Then I'll be the Third Elder." As she spoke, Beatrice glanced at Feng Yuncheng and smiled at him provocatively. "You can't be above me."

Beatrice had a tough personality. If Feng Yuncheng became the Fourth Elder, she had to become the Third Elder.

However, when Feng Yuncheng heard this, he misunderstood. He smiled gently at Beatrice and replied ambiguously, "I can be below you."

These words amused the people present, but Beatrice's ears turned red. "How boring."

Seeing that they had allocated positions already, Yin Rong could only go along with them. She said, "Then I'll be the fifth elder."

Estelle looked at everyone and said softly, "Then I'll be the youngest elder."

Just like that, the sect had yet to be registered, the sect location had yet to be chosen, and the sect disciples had yet to be recruited, but the sect master and six elders of the Monster Sect had already decided.

1110 Five Lakes Street Is the Place of Battle

As Di Wu looked at the group of ambitious young people, he suddenly laughed. "I was just joking. Why did you guys take it so seriously?" He looked at Sheng Xiao solemnly and lamented, "It's not that easy to establish a sect."

"Of course it won't be easy."

But should he give up just because it wasn't easy?

Sheng Xiao suddenly pulled out his sword and pointed it at the sky. The gray clouds dissipated, while wisps of sunlight passed through the dark clouds and shone on Five Lakes Street. Instantly, the dim Five Lakes Street seemed revitalized. It became much more vibrant.

Sheng Xiao's next words struck a chord with everyone.

"A person's life is about bullsh*t, jokes, and legends. Everyone in the Monster Sect will become legends!"

Then, Sheng Xiao held his sword in his right hand as he shot into the sky.

As he stood above the sky, his body fused with the sword and turned into a huge Dragon Sword that rampaged through the dark clouds. In an instant, the dark clouds that enveloped the sky above Five Lakes Street all year round were shattered by the Dragon Sword.

The wind blew and the dark clouds dispersed.

Sunlight instantly shone on the miners in black down jackets.

After living in the gloomy weather for so long, the miners were not used to the bright light.

When the sunlight landed on them, they felt extremely warm.

As the miners looked up at the scorching sun hanging in the sky, they revealed silly smiles.

The sun was out.

Five Lake Street finally welcomed a sunny day.

As Sheng Xiao floated in the air and looked down at Five Lake Street, he was shocked to find that the Five Lake Street that Jun Qing had redesigned looked like a battle between dragons and tigers from the deep sky!

As he stared at the landscape, Sheng Xiao's blood boiled. It was as if the hatred engraved in his genes was activated.

Sheng Xiao was filled with hatred.

He suddenly swooped down with his sword and flew towards the undeveloped suburbs of Five Lakes Street.

As he fell, Sheng Xiao quickly activated his spiritual power. When he landed, he held the Dragon Sword tightly with both hands and stabbed it into the top of a barren mountain in kneeling position.

“Ah!”

Boom!

How could a barren mountain withstand the full-strength attack of a Grand Master?

In the next second, the entire barren mountain began to shake violently. After there was a shocking bang, the cone-shaped barren mountain was instantly razed to the ground!

The moment the barren mountain exploded, some things instantly changed.

At that moment, if someone happened to be standing in the void, they would realize that Sheng Xiao’s sword had destroyed the tiger’s eye!

Could a tiger without eyes be a match for a dragon?

...

Yu Huang and the others rushed over when they heard the commotion. Then, they saw the razed barren mountain and the Dragon Sword inserted in the middle of the barren mountain.

She looked up along the sword and saw Sheng Xiao stepping on the hilt with a cold expression.

At that moment, Sheng Xiao gave off an imposing aura.

He was clearly only a Grand Master Beast Tamer, but the powerful aura emanating from his body was actually comparable to that of a Prime Emperor!

Sheng Xiao lowered his eyes to look at Yu Huang and the others. Then, he spoke in a dignified voice.

“This is where the Monster Sect will be!”

Upon hearing this, Yu Huang and the others were speechless.

Looking up at the figure in the void, Feng Yuncheng suddenly recalled the first time he saw Sheng Xiao in the Black Dome. That time, Feng Yuncheng saw Sheng Xiao transform into the Black Qing Sky Dragon with his own eyes and was so shocked that he forgot to breathe.

After so many years, Sheng Xiao shocked him once again.

He took off his glasses and lamented softly, "Damn it, he's so handsome."

Donor looked at Sheng Xiao with a complicated expression as he muttered softly, "Damn, perhaps I will never be able to defeat him."

At this moment, Yu Huang also came back to her senses. She stared at the razed barren mountain in front of her and lamented with a frown, "We have to pay compensation..."

Since a mountain had been razed to the ground, the commotion naturally alarmed the entire Ice River City.

Jun Qing thought that there was an earthquake somewhere and immediately rushed towards the direction of the commotion with the guard captain, Qin Pei.

The Patriarchs of the few cultivation families in Ice River City were also alarmed.

...

When Jun Qing arrived at the scene and saw the razed mountain, his legs went weak.

When he looked again, he realized that there was a huge sword with black dragon patterns on the flat ground. There were seven familiar young people standing beside the dragon pattern sword. Jun Qing almost fainted at the sight of this.

"They... they actually..." Jun Qing grabbed Qin Pei's hand and subconsciously closed his eyes.

His throat tightened as he said to Qin Pei, "Qin Pei, tell me that this is all my imagination."

At this moment, Qin Pei was also staring at the crushed mountain in front of him in shock. He gasped in disbelief as he said, "It's true, my lord..."

When he heard this, Jun Qing's lips quivered a few times before he opened his eyes in despair. Looking at the razed ruins in front of him, Jun Qing muttered in a daze, "It's over, it's over, it's over now!"

When Yu Huang heard Jun Qing's words, she couldn't help but feel puzzled.

This was just an abandoned small mountain. There wasn't even a crystal mine at the foot of the mountain. Why did Jun Qing have such a huge reaction when he saw that this mountain was destroyed?

Could this mountain have some special purpose?

Yu Huang glared at Sheng Xiao before walking towards Jun Qing. "My lord, something went wrong with my husband's cultivation just now and he accidentally destroyed this barren mountain. I see that your expression is quite serious. I wonder what's so special about this mountain?"

Something went wrong with his cultivation?

Jun Qing looked at the culprit with a complicated gaze as he asked him, "Do you know what the mountain you destroyed is called?"

Sheng Xiao thought of the painting he had seen in the deep sky. He guessed that this mountain must have a special historical significance.

But what could he do?

Even if it was a mountain of gold and silver, it had already been destroyed by him.

Besides, Sheng Xiao felt endless hatred when he saw the painting. Although he didn't understand why he had such an abnormal reaction, he didn't regret destroying this mountain.

But he couldn't offend Jun Qing either.

Sheng Xiao shook his head and pretended to feel guilty as he apologized. "I'm sorry. I was disturbed by my inner demon when I was cultivating just now and caused such trouble in a moment of confusion. We're new here and don't know the culture well enough. Please tell us more about this mountain."

Jun Qing was speechless when he saw Sheng Xiao's innocent expression.

After Jun Qing shook his head and walked to a shattered mountain rock to sit down, he refused to speak for a long time.

At this moment, five more local Beast Tamers rushed over after hearing the news.

There were four men and one woman. Their attire and auras were very extraordinary. They were probably Beast Tamers from Ice River City.
