

She Shocks 121

Chapter 121: If You're Not Strong, What Right Do You Have to Be With Sheng Xiao?!

Yu Huang was already very hungry, but she was even more covetous of the Monster Core's energy.

Yu Huang hesitated for a moment before quickly swallowing the Monster Core.

After the Monster Core entered her stomach, the rich and powerful Monster Core spirit energy was instantly released from Yu Huang's body. In that instant, the spirit energy in Yu Huang's body increased explosively. Instantly, she felt as if her body was about to burst from the explosive spirit energy.

Yu Huang gritted her teeth and endured it. The tendons on her forehead protruded, making her look extremely terrifying.

The Vermillion Bird's fire attribute wandered through Yu Huang's limbs and bones. All of Yu Huang's bones seemed to be burning with raging flames.

She was in great pain, but when she thought of Xuanyuan Jing, Yin Mingchong, her father's broken leg, and his self-destructing beast form, her mentor's expectations for her, and that man who was as distant as the moon in the water, she gritted her teeth and endured it.

Yu Huang, if you aren't strong, how can you defeat Xuanyuan Jing?!

If she wasn't powerful, how could she lead her father back to the Yin Clan?!

If she was not powerful, what right did she have to be with Sheng Xiao?!

Perhaps it was because of Yu Huang's emotional fluctuations, but the beast heart in her body that had always been calm suddenly spewed out a wave of Purifying Evil Phoenix Flames.

The Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame quickly circulated within Yu Huang's body. The power of the Vermillion Bird, which had been wild and rampant just now, immediately cowered when it encountered the Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame like a eunuch who had seen an emperor.

The Vermillion Bird Monster Core no longer dared to cause trouble. It quietly floated in front of Yu Huang's beast heart and did not move at all. It obediently allowed the beast heart to devour its energy.

The energy of the Monster Core was too dense. Yu Huang took more than half a month to completely absorb it.

Originally, the beast heart was only the size of a small marble. After completely absorbing the Vermillion Bird Monster Core, it was now as big as a pigeon egg.

Yu Huang opened her eyes slowly. There was the flash of a flame in her hazel eyes, but she quickly hid it.

Sensing the dense Spiritual Energy in her body, Yu Huang was delighted to discover that she had actually broken through to the early-stage Scholar Realm and reached the intermediate-stage Scholar Realm!

Was the energy of a Rank 6 Monster Core that powerful?!

After getting a taste of success, Yu Huang even had the urge to hunt a few more high-level demon beasts to increase her cultivation.

As this thought flashed through her mind, Yu Huang calmly suppressed it.

Cultivation emphasized quantity rather than speed. This was because cultivation did not only cultivate one's ability, but also one's nature.

Be it the Monster Core or the medicinal pill that had the effect of raising cultivation, they were both external factors. It was not advisable to borrow external forces to increase one's cultivation.

The cultivation that she had painstakingly cultivated for was far stronger than the cultivation that she had gained from elixirs.

After thinking it through, Yu Huang shook her head. She had lived for more than two hundred years, but she had almost gotten carried away.

Now that she had completely absorbed the spirit energy of the Monster Core, could she inherit the demon technique contained in the Monster Core?

A thought flashed across Yu Huang's mind. The bones on her back suddenly cracked. Yu Huang could clearly feel the changes in her body. Her shoulder blade seemed to have been broken by a hammer, and then it reformed.

Yu Huang's entire body was trembling from the pain. She used so much strength that her hands were deeply inserted into the soil in front of her.

The bones on Yu Huang's back were like a jigsaw puzzle that had been messed up. After a moment, the jigsaw pieces returned to their original positions and stopped.

Yu Huang thought that it was over, but at that moment, something else was drilling out from her shoulder blade. It was like a bamboo shoot that had broken out of the ground and brutally tore apart the muscles on Yu Huang's back.

"Ah!"

Yu Huang could no longer withstand this torture. She howled in pain.

Swish!

A pair of red wings appeared on Yu Huang's shoulder blades. They slowly spread out and became bigger and bigger. In the end, they were so big that even the cave could not fit them.

Yu Huang laid on the ground and took a long time to recover some strength. She turned her head to look behind her. When she saw the gorgeous red wings on her back, a smile finally appeared on her pale face.

All the pain and torture was worth it the moment she saw the wings.

...

It had been more than twenty days since the battle with the Plum Leopard.

Ge Meng buried their buddies who had died tragically on the spot. They also searched for Yu Huang for three days in the periphery of the primitive forest. After failing to find any traces of her, they returned to the capital of the Rakshasa Empire.

Yu Huang was dead.

This was something the Ge Meng bros silently agreed to.

After returning to the capital, none of them mentioned Yu Huang. The entire team thought that Yu Huang had died in the mouth of a demon beast.

Everyone sighed. "This little girl is unlucky. She encountered a Rank 6 demon beast the first time she entered the mountain. What a pity." Other than that, they didn't have any other thoughts.

The news that the Shark Mercenary Group had encountered a Rank 6 demon beast quickly spread throughout the entire Jingdu. Although the Shark Mercenary Group had lost more than a dozen people this time, the Ge Meng bros had survived from the mouth of a Rank 6 demon beast. This was quite admirable.

Despite being praised by their peers, the Ge Meng bros could not laugh. This was because they understood that the reason they were able to return alive was not because of their powerful abilities, but because Yu Huang had relied on her own strength to gain hatred points from that demon beast.

The demonic beast only had eyes for Yu Huang. It did not take the brothers seriously at all.

They were lucky to have returned alive.

After recuperating in the capital for twenty days, the brothers finally got over the fear of that nightmare. If they did not go into the mountain to hunt demon beasts, they would not be able to gather enough Monster Cores for next month.

This time, when they entered the mountain, the brothers were much more cautious. They only dared to kill some low-level demon beasts at the periphery of the primitive forest.

On this day, the Sharks Mercenary Group and the Eliza Mercenary Group met on a narrow road.

Every leader of the Eliza Mercenary Group was called Eliza. The newly appointed Eliza was a woman with a pair of light green eyes. The woman's skin was tan, and her figure was sexy. She was quite feminine.

Gulli stared at her big chest and long legs a few more times. He snorted and didn't speak.

Ge Meng nodded at her and was about to leave, but Eliza stopped him. "Commander Ge Meng, was the Rank 6 demon beast you encountered last time a Plum Leopard?"

Ge Meng's eyes darkened when he thought of what happened that day. "Yes."

Eliza said, "Then it should be the same demon beast as the last one we encountered." Eliza was one of the few lucky people who had successfully escaped from the mouth of the Plum Leopard. Even now, when she recalled that tragic battle, she still felt a numbing fear.

“That demon beast was very powerful. It was clearly a leopard, but it could fly. We were unable to fight back at that time. Commander Ge Meng, how did you escape?”

Gulli was about to speak when he heard his elder brother, Ge Meng, say calmly, “We were lucky.”

Seeing that Ge Meng was unwilling to say anything, Eliza did not pursue the matter. She continued, “We’ve taken a fancy to a Rank 4 Magic Beast. Do you want to cooperate?”

Occasionally, these mercenary groups would cooperate and distribute the resources according to person.

Of course, when they encountered such ruthless mercenary corps, they would also turn hostile after digging out the Monster Core and directly shoot the other party to take the Monster Core.

However, the reputation of the Sharks Mercenary Group and the Eliza Mercenary Group were not bad. They had cooperated a few times, but never had there been a situation where they shed all pretense of cordiality over a Monster Core.

Ge Meng agreed.

The group walked towards a level 4 Monster Core cave. When they were 300 to 400 meters away from the cave, they heard the angry roar of the monster.

Everyone immediately hid behind the big tree and peeped.

“Roar!” It was a sturdy brown bear. The brown bear’s fur was as hard as iron, and it was most suitable for defensive armor.

At this moment, the brown bear was in a furious state, and the person who angered it was a girl in a black cloak and jacket.

The girl squatted on a giant tree and held a bow in her hand. There was a fiery red duck standing on the bow. The girl shot out a sword, and the duck flew out from the bow like a burning fireball and landed on the brown bear’s head.

Boom!

The brown bear was immediately engulfed in flames.

“Chirp!” Xuan Yu took the opportunity to hurt the brown bear’s eyes. At this moment, Yu Huang jumped down from the tree. A pair of red wings extended from her back. In the next second, the wings spread out and blotted out the sky!

Countless red feathers fell from the sky and shot towards the brown bear like raindrops. The brown bear was instantly pierced by tens of thousands of arrows and fell to the ground!

A Rank 4 demon beast had fallen under Yu Huang’s hands just like that!

The girl took off her hat from her cloak, revealing her waist-long hair and a face wearing a golden mask.

Ge Meng’s pupils dilated!

Wu Huang?

How could she be alive?!

Chapter 122: Yu Huang, the Group Pet

Ge Meng, Eliza, and the others, who were hiding under the distant tree, were all dumbfounded.

Gulli pinched his thigh and grabbed his brother's arm. He muttered in shock, "My dear mother, did this girl... did she eat the female leopard?"

Otherwise, why would the female leopard's wings move to Yu Huang's body?

Ge Meng was also shocked, and the gaze he used to look at Yu Huang became filled with astonishment and shock. "She's actually still alive. Could it be that she defeated that Plum Leopard?!"

That was a level 6 demonic beast. As an early-stage Beast Tamer, how could she defeat that female leopard?!

Ge Meng could not figure it out, so he looked at Yu Huang with admiration.

Eliza also recognized Yu Huang. Wasn't this the young lady she had seen in the mercenary trading hall half a month ago?

That day, when she saw that Yu Huang was weak and easy to bully, she was worried that Yu Huang would be bullied. In the end, she actually killed a Rank 4 brown bear!

Who could bully her when she was so fierce?

The commotion caused by these people's words naturally attracted Yu Huang's attention, but Yu Huang did not take them seriously.

Yu Huang took out a sharp dagger and pierced through the brown bear's tough iron armor with one strike. She dug out its heart and rummaged through its body. She clicked her tongue in disinterest after failing to find the Monster Core.

Yu Huang suddenly turned around and asked in the direction of Ge Meng and the others, "Do any of you know how to skin beasts?"

The forest was silent for a moment before more than twenty adults walked out.

Yu Huang was not surprised to see the Ge Meng brothers in the crowd. Her hearing was excellent, and she had long identified the brothers. However, when she saw the female captain of the newly appointed Eliza Mercenary Group, Yu Huang's expression was slightly surprised.

She recognized Eliza.

Because Eliza was the first woman in Rakshasa Empire to show kindness to Yu Huang, Yu Huang had an impression of her.

"What a coincidence. We meet again," Yu Huang said to Eliza.

She didn't expect Yu Huang to still remember her. Eliza was flattered.

"We meet again." Eliza stared at the knife that was still bleeding in Yu Huang's hand with a complicated expression. "It seems like you've adapted quite well here." It wouldn't be an exaggeration to say that she was at the top of her game.

Yu Huang glanced at the Ge Meng brothers and said with a half-hearted smile, "If you are not used to the law of the jungle, you will be swallowed by the jungle." She was hinting at the way the Ge Meng brothers abandoned her and escaped that day.

Ge Meng could tell what she was hinting at and he was embarrassed.

Gulli blushed and did not dare to look up at Yu Huang.

Yu Huang waved the dagger in her hand at Gulli and asked, "Do you know how to skin it?"

Gulli nodded. "Yes!"

"Then please help me." Yu Huang threw the knife at Gulli.

She threw the knife at him so quickly and violently that Gulli almost couldn't catch it. It was only when Gullan reached out in time that he grabbed the handle of the knife.

When he grabbed the hilt, the sharp and cold blade was hanging in front of Gulli's throat.

Gulli looked down at the silver sword blade and swallowed hard. His heart almost stopped.

Yu Huang really wanted to kill him just now!

No matter how dim-witted Gulli was, he knew that Yu Huang was angry.

That day, Yu Huang was pursued by the Plum Leopard, and the two of them didn't appear in time to help Yu Huang. They were heartless.

Therefore, Yu Huang was demonstrating her prowess with this strike.

Gulli felt guilty. Thus, even though he had almost had his throat slit by Yu Huang, he did not dare to get angry.

Ge Meng passed the dagger to Gulli before walking calmly to Yu Huang.

Ge Meng bowed to Yu Huang and explained with a sincere attitude. "Miss Wu Huang, we were indeed afraid of death, so we were unable to make an appearance in time to assist you in killing the Plum Leopard."

They admitted that they were afraid of death.

"However, after we settled the corpses of our bros, we also turned around to look for you. We searched for you in the periphery of the abyss for three days but never found you. Only then did we return to the city."

Yu Huang was only a newcomer who had just joined the Sharks Mercenary Corps. She was not important enough for the Ge Meng brothers to risk their lives to enter the middle of the forest to rescue her.

“You can blame us brothers for being greedy, afraid of death, and heartless, but who among the people of Rakshasa Empire is not heartless? Besides, this is a world where the weak are prey to the strong. Survival depends on capability, but death is fate.”

Ge Meng was indeed cold and heartless, but he was also frank and sincere.

After Yu Huang heard Ge Meng’s explanation, the coldness in her eyes faded a little. She ignored Ge Meng and only said to Gulli, “Can you help me peel this bear skin completely?”

Gulli nodded vigorously. “No problem!”

Gulli hurried over and placed his foot on the brown bear’s stomach. He bent down and started peeling it.

Throughout the entire process, Gulli did not dare to look at Yu Huang. The last bit of affection he had for Yu Huang had been completely destroyed by Yu Huang’s saber move.

Gulli clearly understood that Yu Huang was a woman he couldn’t obtain.

Gulli peeled off the bear’s skin completely. He said to Yu Huang, “This thing is too bloody. When we get back, we have to soak it in medicine water to use.”

Yu Huang nodded to indicate that she understood.

At that moment, Eliza walked over with a group of women.

She stared at the little duck on Yu Huang’s shoulder and exclaimed in surprise, “So you’re a Beast Tamer.”

Yu Huang extended her right hand towards Eliza. She said, “I’m Wu Huang.”

Eliza took her hand. “My name is Eve, but you can call me Eliza.”

After introducing herself, Eliza sent an invitation to Yu Huang to join the group on the spot. “Miss Wu Huang, you’re very impressive. I wonder if you’re willing to join our Eliza Mercenary Group?”

As she spoke, Eliza glanced at the Ge Meng brothers. She told Yu Huang, “Our entire team is made up of women. If you join our team, it will be much more comfortable than staying in the Sharks Mercenary Group.”

Yu Huang waved her hand. “Thank you for your kindness, but I reject it.”

Eliza was naturally unwilling to accept Yu Huang’s rejection.

Yu Huang was able to kill this Rank 4 Brown Bear by herself. Even if she was only a low-level Beast Tamer, it was still worth currying favor with.

Eliza gritted her teeth and said, “I can let you be the deputy regiment.” This was her greatest sincere compromise.

Upon hearing this, the expressions of the women behind Eliza changed. They looked at Yu Huang with eyes filled with hostility.

Yu Huang shrugged. "I'm not interested."

When Eliza saw that Yu Huang was unmoved, she was both dejected and angry, but she couldn't do anything to Yu Huang.

Ge Meng couldn't help but feel delighted when he saw that Eliza was unable to persuade Yu Huang. He also said sincerely, "Miss Wu Huang, if you're willing, you can continue to stay in the Sharks Mercenary Group. I can give you the position of the deputy regiment."

Upon hearing this, Gulli widened his eyes and looked at his brother without saying a word.

Gulli admired people with abilities. Yu Huang was more capable than them. Not to mention being a vice-captain of the Sharks Mercenary Group, but she could even be the captain.

However, Yu Huang still refused. "I'm not interested in joining your mercenary group." She had joined the mercenary group before because she was not familiar with the rules of hunting demon beasts. Now that she had killed a few demon beasts, she had some experience and insights.

The current her really didn't need to mingle with these mercenary groups.

Moreover, she had come to the Rakshasa Empire to gain experience. Since it was a form of training, it was naturally filled with challenges.

Hunting ordinary-level demon beasts was already unable to satisfy Yu Huang's needs. Yu Huang needed to go to the middle-level circle and challenge those more powerful demon beasts.

Seeing that Yu Huang was really unmoved by their suggestion, Ge Meng's eyes darkened slightly as he hinted to Yu Huang, "Miss Wu Huang, in the Rakshasa Empire, it's very difficult to survive alone. I know that you're very strong, but you have to understand that there is always someone better than you. There will always be Beast Tamers stronger than you."

"Join us and we'll stick together. It's safer than you fighting alone."

Yu Huang was getting impatient. She stared at Ge Meng coldly and asked him with a sneer, "Is it really safe to team up with you guys? I still remember how Commander Ge Meng was generous enough to only protect his younger brother and not his teammates that day!"

Ge Meng's expression darkened and he immediately fell silent.

Yu Huang slung the bear skin over her shoulder and left.

Ge Meng and Eliza watched her leave. Even though they were unwilling, they didn't continue to urge her to stay.

The brown bear had been killed by Yu Huang, so there was naturally no need for Ge Meng and Eliza to cooperate. The two teams separated and went to hunt low-level Level 23 demon beasts.

As for Yu Huang, she went deep into the middle ring alone and found a small cave.

She blocked the entrance of the cave. After entering the cave, she took out a large basin from the bracelet storage device on her wrist and filled it with water. Then, she sprinkled some medicinal powder and threw the brown bear skin in.

Ever since she accepted Sheng Xiao's interspatial ring, the bracelet storage device had become Yu Huang's place to store junk and food. She hid all the truly precious things in her interspatial ring.

The brown bear skin needed to be soaked for two to three hours before it could be used. During this period, Yu Huang took out two more wolf claws from her storage device.

Yu Huang had slaughtered this wolf claw from a Rank 3 Snow Wolf earlier. The wolf claw was extremely sharp, and a light scratch could leave a deep scratch on the rock.

Yu Huang dug the wolf claws out of her flesh. She carefully polished them and threw them into the medicine.

She sat cross legged and cultivated for two to three hours. Her energy had also recovered a little. At this moment, the bear skin and wolf claws were also soaked clean.

Yu Huang used her wolf claws as needles and a thin steel wire to make the bear skin into an airtight armor.

After it was done, Yu Huang put on her armor. From afar, she looked like a giant porcupine.

Although it was ugly, it was indestructible.

Yu Huang was extremely satisfied. She spent some time turning the wolf claw into two fake hands to place them on the back of her hand as the sharpest weapon.

After making ample preparations, Yu Huang left the cave and began her daily quest to kill monsters alone.

...

The weather was particularly hot that day. At night, a bolt of lightning suddenly descended from the sky and struck a towering tree. In an instant, the tree burst into flames and quickly ignited the weeds and trees in the forest.

It was on fire!

The flames dyed half the sky red. The sleeping demon beasts and wild beasts woke up and ran to safety.

In the sky, a beautiful figure flapped the red wings on her back and flew above the sea of fire.. Her eyes were fixed on a injured red-furred ape with a scheming glint.

Chapter 123: When the shepherd's quarrel, the wolf has a winning game

Yu Huang had been paying attention to this fellow for two days.

The red-haired ape's real name was the Wisdom Ape. They were rare intelligent demon beasts on the Holy Spirit Continent. They were born to be Level 6 demon beasts. These demon beasts all had their own unique demon techniques. Yu Huang did not know what the demon beast under her had, but it definitely would not disappoint her.

Two days ago, this red-furred ape and a golden-furred tiger had a fight. In the end, the red-furred ape was no match for the golden-furred tiger and fled with heavy injuries.

After it escaped, Yu Huang secretly followed it.

For the past two days, the red-furred ape had been hiding in his cave abode to recuperate. It was only when the mountain fire suddenly erupted that the red-furred ape left the cave abode in order to survive and ran for his life with the other demon beasts.

No matter how powerful a creature was, it was insignificant in the face of the power of nature. These demon beasts, which usually frightened the mercenaries, were running faster and faster under the pursuit of the mountain fire.

The red-furred ape was injured. After running for more than half an hour, it was exhausted. It stood under a tree and panted. It looked back at the raging flames in the forest, and bestial fear flashed in its eyes.

At that moment, a pair of fiery red wings descended from the sky. The red-furred ape looked down and realized that there was a... hedgehog standing in the middle of the wing.

However, right after that, the red-haired ape discovered that it was not a real hedgehog. Instead, it was a human wearing a hedgehog armor.

The red-haired ape revealed a vigilant gaze as it stared at the fiery red wings on Yu Huang's back and asked in disbelief, "Human, you actually killed the Vermillion Bird!"

Just as Yu Huang was about to speak, she heard the red-furred ape scoff and say, "What an ignorant human. You're just a young scholar, yet you want to kill me!"

Yu Huang was shocked. How did the red-furred ape know what she was thinking?

After guessing a possibility, Yu Huang's expression instantly became excited. "So your demon technique is that you can actually hear the thoughts of others."

Hearing Yu Huang's words, the red-furred ape's gaze became menacing.

It could sense from Yu Huang's inner thoughts that she was determined to kill it. It was somewhat angry and really wanted to kill Yu Huang.

However, the mountain fire in the distance was still spreading. The battle with Yu Huang would definitely drag on. When the mountain fire arrived, it would not be able to escape even if it wanted to.

The red-haired ape glanced at Yu Huang hatefully before turning to flee.

Yu Huang quickly flew in front of the red-furred ape and blocked its path.

"Xuan Yu! Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame!"

Xuan Yu flew into the sky and flapped his wings. The falling phoenix flames formed a red circle that trapped the red-furred ape in the middle.

The red-furred ape was immediately enraged. "Bastard!"

The red-furred ape beat its chest and stomped its feet. Its body instantly climbed to a height of ten meters, like a King Kong.

The red-furred ape threw a punch at Yu Huang, who quickly retreated. However, it still managed to hit half of her wing.

Yu Huang's body swayed slightly and she landed on the ground.

She retracted her wings and looked at the furious ape. She suddenly smiled.

"You're about to die," Yu Huang said calmly.

The red-furred ape felt unwell. When he lowered his head, he saw a long bloody gash in its stomach and its intestines falling out.

Yu Huang told it, "Two days ago, I discovered that you were seriously injured and had been hiding in the cave abode to recuperate. Your wound has yet to heal, and you've been running at high speed for half an hour. Just now, you circulated your Spiritual Energy to forcefully transform. Now, your injury must have recurred."

When the red-furred ape heard Yu Huang's words, it was unable to restrain its anger and cursed fiercely, "Despicable and shameless human, you'll die a horrible death!"

Yu Huang quietly listened to its curse. After it cursed for a while, she saw its eyes turning redder and redder. She knew that the red-furred ape was about to collapse. She flew up again and landed in the sea of fire.

Yu Huang descended from the sky, and the wolf claw on her right hand slashed down from the center of the red-furred ape's brows!

The sharp wolf claw easily cut through the red-furred ape's skin. Its wrinkled face was divided into two halves from the middle. The wound was like a thin river with dark red blood flowing in the middle.

Its stomach, which was already riddled with holes, was now wide open, and its internal organs were all bleeding.

At the last moment of its life, the red-furred ape circulated all of its spiritual power and kicked Yu Huang's shoulder.

Yu Huang was kicked tens of meters away. She fell onto a thick tree trunk, and the pain was so great that she could not even catch her breath.

The red-furred ape also died.

Yu Huang laid on the tree root for a few minutes before regaining consciousness. Her left arm had been dislocated and she was unable to move.

Yu Huang held onto the tree trunk with her right hand and slowly stood up. She dragged her dislocated arm towards the sea of fire. She knelt beside the red-haired ape and retracted her arm expressionlessly. It was so painful that sweat broke out on her forehead, but she didn't make a sound.

Yu Huang used her wolf claw to pull out the red-haired ape's stomach and successfully found its Monster Core. This Monster Core was covered in ape-shaped patterns. It was dark black in color and was as big as a golden orange.

Yu Huang put away the Monster Core and erased the traces of the phoenix fire. Seeing that the mountain fire was still spreading, she hurriedly escaped towards the upper wind outlet.

The fire lasted for two days before it was put out in the pouring rain.

After the mountain fire, many mercenaries broke into the primitive forest and searched for the corpses and Monster Cores of those unlucky low-level demon beasts who had been burned to death in the forest where the mountain fire had burned.

The Eliza Mercenary Group also entered the mountain. They were very lucky to have found a severely burned Level 5 Demonic Beast. It was a golden horned horse with a single horn on its head. This kind of horse was very rare. Its demon core was filled with boundless spiritual energy, and it was the favorite demon core of the leader of the Night Hunters.

If they could obtain the demon core of this demon beast and present it to the leader of the Night Hunters, the Eliza Mercenary Group would not need to enter the mountain to hunt demon beasts for the next month.

Eliza stared at the dying golden horned horse. In the end, she gathered the entire team and decided to work together to kill the Golden horned horse.

The golden horned horse was severely burned and could no longer walk while kneeling on the ground. However, it was still a very intimidating existence to ordinary mercenaries like Eliza and the others.

After a fierce battle, the Eliza Mercenary Group finally managed to kill the golden horned horse. Because of this, four skilled female merchants in their mercenary group died.

Eliza looked at the corpses of her teammates and said to her subordinates, "Let's bury them on the spot."

"Yes!"

Eliza used her dagger to dig out the golden horned horse's chest. It took her a few minutes to successfully dig out the Monster Core.

Eliza entered the golden horned horse's body with her bare hands and dug out the bloody Monster Core.

Before she could take a closer look at the Monster Core, a bullet suddenly shot from afar and hit Eliza's right arm!

Eliza howled in pain. Her fingers loosened, and the Monster Core fell to the ground.

A woman beside Eliza hurriedly bent down to pick up the Monster Core. The others supported the injured Eliza and looked to the right.

A group of men in gray leather pants walked out of the burnt black forest. The leader of the group wore an eye mask on his left eye, and his face and naked chest were filled with claw marks left by demon beasts.

He was One-Eyed Wolf, the leader of the Lone Wolf Mercenary Group.

The deputy captain of the Eliza Mercenary Group held her gun and stared at One-Eyed Wolf with a cold expression. She cursed, "One-Eyed Wolf! You're going too far!"

One-Eyed Wolf laughed loudly. "What are you still trying to show off for? A bunch of b*tches want to compete with us?" After One-Eyed Wolf laughed, he waved his hand. Eliza saw dozens of One-Eyed Wolf's men suddenly appear around the forest.

Seeing this, what else did Eliza not understand?

She said with a pale face, "You guys have already prepared an ambush."

One-Eyed Wolf shrugged and looked at Eliza's waist and chest with an impudent and frivolous gaze. He said shamelessly, "If we didn't set up an ambush early, how could we have seen the scene of Eliza helping us kill this golden horned horse?"

One-Eyed Wolf and the others had long discovered the golden horned horse, but they did not want to fight it head-on, so they deliberately spread the news and attracted the nearest mercenary corps.

They all hid in the dark. After the mercenary group and the golden horned horse perished, they would come out to reap the benefits.

Eliza had guessed the truth. Fury burned in her eyes. "One-Eyed Wolf, aren't you guys too shameless?!"

Being called shameless made One-Eyed Wolf look at Eliza even more wantonly. He had desired her for a long time. This new girl, Eliza, was attractive enough, had a good body, and was ruthless when she attacked. One-Eyed Wolf liked girls like her the most.

She must be sexy in bed too.

Eliza saw the roguish look in One-Eyed Wolf's eyes. She was trembling with anger.

"Eliza, if you're willing to give me the Monster Core of the golden horned horse and you stay with me, I'm willing to release the others. Otherwise..."

One-Eyed Wolf suddenly raised his right hand and buttoned his index finger gently in the air. Thus, the male servant soldiers raised their guns at the same time and aimed them at the women of Eliza's regiment.

Seeing this, the women beside Eliza were all enraged. "F*ck! If you want to kill me, then kill me! If you want to skin me, then do it. Who's f*cking afraid of you?!"

This group of hot-tempered women took out their guns at the same time and swore to fight this group of men to the end!

The Eliza Mercenary Group, which was formed by women, was a loyal team. Because they were women, they understood how difficult it was for women to survive in Rakshasa Empire.

If she did not want to be in a place where she had to rely on men to survive, she could only be more ruthless and decisive than men in order to protect herself.

The leader of the Eliza Mercenary Group was their soul. Selling out their leader's body in exchange for a chance to live was selling out their souls and self-esteem!

This was something that these women would never be able to accept!

Eliza saw that her comrades were all determined to defend her. She also hardened.

She endured the pain and pulled out the bullet in her arm with her bare hands. She threw the bloody bullet at One-Eyed Wolf's face.

Eliza spat at One-Eyed Wolf and cursed angrily, "Idiot! Why don't you take a look at yourself? A useless idiot like you wants to sleep with me?!"

"Oh! I forgot.. You're blind in one eye. Your eyesight isn't good!"

Chapter 124: School Season in September, Return to Meet Your Lover

The blind eye was the forbidden zone for One-Eyed Wolf. Whoever mentioned it would be unlucky.

Upon hearing Eliza's curse, One-Eyed Wolf didn't say a word and directly pulled his index finger. He pressed the trigger and shot at Eliza's glabella!

At that moment—

Swoosh!

A red figure strangely appeared in the crowd. In the next second, Eliza was carried by that person and flew into the sky.

One-Eyed Wolf's bullet didn't hit Eliza but hit a burned tree trunk in the distance.

"Who is it?!"

One-Eyed Wolf raised its head and looked into the sky. His vision was filled with redness.

In the sky, a pair of massive red wings spread out completely, blocking the sun in the sky.

The owner of the wings had a slender and enchanting figure. She wore a golden phoenix mask on her face, and her long black hair swayed without the slightest wind, as if a god had descended.

One-Eyed Wolf was stunned.

Yu Huang hugged Eliza and looked down at One-Eyed Wolf. Her eyes were filled with disdain. "I've long heard that the embroidery needle of the captain of the Lone Wolf Mercenary Group is very famous. I want to see how exquisite it is today!"

As soon as she finished speaking, Yu Huang thought about it and her psychic energy turned into a pair of translucent hands that quickly pulled off the tight leather pants on One-Eyed Wolf.

Then...

The atmosphere was awkward.

Yu Huang looked at One-Eyed Wolf playfully and evaluated, "How small!"

When she said this, she was full of mockery and sarcasm.

"Hahaha!" The women of the Eliza Mercenary Group laughed until they burst into tears. "Hahaha, too small!"

One-Eyed Wolf hurriedly pulled up his pants and glared at Yu Huang while cursing, "Little girl, get down and fight me if you dare to!"

Yu Huang narrowed her eyes and said, "Then let's fight!"

Yu Huang put Eliza down and quickly flew around those male servants. When they came back to their senses, the mercenaries realized that all their weapons had been confiscated by Yu Huang.

Yu Huang threw the pile of weapons beside Eliza. She stared at One-Eyed Wolf and said, "Without the help of any weapons, just based on my bare hands, I can beat you until you kneel down and cry!"

With that said, Yu Huang retracted her wings and quickly ran towards One-Eyed Wolf.

One-Eyed Wolf immediately assumed a defensive posture and started a violent close combat with Yu Huang.

One-Eyed Wolf originally thought that he would definitely win with his experience and height, but after two to three minutes, he fell into a disadvantage.

Yu Huang pressed her hands on One-Eyed Wolf's head and slammed her knee into One-Eyed Wolf's stomach repeatedly. Every collision was like a huge hammer smashing into One-Eyed Wolf's chest.

One-Eyed Wolf spat out blood from its injuries and was unable to fight back.

In the past two hundred years during the apocalypse, Yu Huang had not only killed people, but she had also killed a large number of mutated creatures. Close combat was Yu Huang's most proficient combat method!

Bang!

Yu Huang kicked One-Eyed Wolf to the ground, causing him to completely lose his combat strength.

One-Eyed Wolf's male soldiers were dumbfounded as they watched this scene. They all felt that it was ridiculous. Their powerful and capable regiment commander was beaten to the ground by a little girl just like that?

Yu Huang walked to One-Eyed Wolf and squatted down. She grabbed the hair on the back of One-Eyed Wolf's head with one hand and raised his head to force him to look at her.

“Only the most tasteless man would want to seek satisfaction by violating a woman’s body. You are really trash among men. You have embarrassed all men.”

Yu Huang continued, “Since your eyes always like to look in places you shouldn’t, then go ahead and cripple them!” With that said, Yu Huang inserted her finger into One-Eyed Wolf’s intact eye.

“Ah!”

One-Eyed Wolf’s tragic cry frightened everyone.

Yu Huang threw One-Eyed Wolf away and said to the trembling mercenaries in the distance, “Take your dogs and scram!”

The members of One-Eyed Wolf’s Mercenary Group hurriedly carried the injured One-Eyed Wolf and ran. Without eyes, the One-Eyed Wolf was really blind. Even if he still wanted to survive in the Rakshasa Empire, he was afraid he would not be able to.

After everyone left, Eliza walked towards Yu Huang with weak footsteps.

Yu Huang was holding a handkerchief. She lowered her head and slowly wiped the blood on her fingers. A person’s blood was much dirtier than a demon beast’s.

“Thank you, Miss Wu Huang.” Eliza had mixed feelings. She never expected that the kind reminder she had given Yu Huang in the Mercenary Trading Hall that day would actually save her life.

Yu Huang threw away her handkerchief and looked at Eliza evenly. She said, “You don’t have to thank me. If it weren’t for you, I would have done the same thing.”

It wasn’t that Yu Huang was kind, but One-Eyed Wolf’s actions were too detestable. As a woman, Yu Huang could not tolerate bastards with abominable morals like One-Eyed Wolf.

Eliza knew that Yu Huang was telling the truth, but she was still very grateful for Yu Huang’s help.

Eliza bit her lip and hesitated for a moment. Then, she suddenly said to Yu Huang, “Miss Wu Huang, I’ll sincerely invite you to join our Eliza Mercenary Group again. I’m willing to give you the position of the leader!”

Eliza had finally seen through it. Only a powerful Beast Tamer like Yu Huang could lead them to a better life if she became the leader of their team.

However, Yu Huang still shook her head. “Eliza, I’m not interested in being the regiment commander. Really.”

Eliza frowned and asked Yu Huang, “Then are you planning to wander around alone? Wu Huang, one person is a lone wolf, and a group of people is a pack of wolves. No matter how powerful a lone wolf is, there will be times when it is alone and helpless.”

Yu Huang smiled and said, “It’s almost September.”

Eliza was stunned for a moment. Then, she nodded and said, “There’s only a few days left.”

Yu Huang raised her head and looked around the place she had lived in for more than two months. She actually felt a little reluctant. "I have to go back. If I don't go back, I'm afraid I'll miss the start of school."

Eliza said, "What?"

Yu Huang blinked at Eliza and said, "In September, during the start of school, I have to go back to see my lover." Yu Huang took out the wolf claw from her interspatial ring and threw it at Eliza. "Keep this to protect yourself. If fate wills it, we'll meet again in the future!"

With that, Yu Huang spread her wings and disappeared in front of Eliza and the others in the blink of an eye.

Eliza held onto her sharp wolf claws and looked in the direction where Yu Huang had disappeared. She was perplexed. "She's still a student?"

The key was that such a ferocious girl actually had a lover? What kind of warrior was worthy of a fierce girl like her?

...

Yu Donghai put away the stall and pushed the tricycle back to the rented apartment. When he saw Yu Huang at the entrance of the return building, he was stunned for a moment.

After experiencing the Rakshasa Empire, Yu Huang was slightly tanner, and her gaze became more determined.

Vaguely, Yu Donghai actually saw Yin Mingjue's shadow on Yu Huang.

"You're back?" Yu Donghai, afraid that he had seen wrongly, blinked his eyes.

Yu Huang stood on the spot and smiled gently at Yu Donghai. She opened her arms and said to him, "Father, I'm back."

Yu Huang raised her hand, and Yu Donghai discovered that there were a few more scars on her arm. Some of the scars had already healed, and some had yet to shed scars.

There were seven to eight scars on the places he could see, but what about the places he couldn't see?

Yu Donghai's heart suddenly ached.

"Wine." Yu Donghai walked over and held Yu Huang's hand. His voice was choked with emotion. "It's fine if you lose to Xuanyuan Jing. It's also fine if you can't return to the Yin Clan. Compared to those, I want you to live happily."

Yu Huang held Yu Donghai's hand instead. She said, "But Father, not only do I want to live properly, but I also want to live gloriously."

Some people were suitable for peaceful days, but some were born to be thrill-seekers.

Chapter 125: Reunion of Old Friends

Similar to ordinary institutes, the starting date of the Divine Realm Academy was September 1.

School was about to start, and Yu Donghai brought Yu Huang to the mall to shop.

After walking into a supermarket, Yu Huang saw that the shelves were filled with a dazzling lineup of daily necessities. She asked Yu Donghai, "Father, do I need to bring daily necessities when I report to the Divine Realm Academy? Does the Divine Realm Academy sell them?"

When he heard this, Yu Donghai's expression instantly became unfathomable. "There's no need to bring those. It's useless even if you bring them."

It would be useless even if she brought it?

Yu Huang asked, "Why?"

"You'll know when the time comes."

Yu Huang misunderstood Yu Donghai's meaning. She thought that the Divine Realm Academy had prepared everything for the students. She couldn't help but sigh with emotion. "As expected of the Divine Realm Academy. They are generous, considerate, and humane."

Upon hearing Yu Huang's words, Yu Donghai suddenly gritted his teeth. "That's right, it's quite humane." Even now, when he thought back to the humane actions of the Divine Realm Academy, Yu Donghai still had a deep impression.

However, Yu Huang was immersed in the joy of the impending start of school, and didn't notice Yu Donghai's abnormality.

"Father, there's a men's clothing store over there. I'll buy you some clothes too."

Yu Donghai thought about how their family was doing well now, and how it would be embarrassing for Yu Huang if he continued to dress shabbily, so he followed Yu Huang to the men's clothing store.

Yu Huang bought Yu Donghai three sets and two pairs of leather shoes. She also brought Yu Donghai to the Imperial Cuisine Restaurant for a beautiful meal.

After returning home, Yu Huang passed a bunch of keys to Yu Donghai.

Yu Donghai stared at the bunch of keys in surprise. "This is... the house you bought?"

"Yes, it's a two-bedroom apartment. It's in that high-end neighborhood across the street. I'm going to Divine Realm Academy to report. I definitely won't be able to come back often in the future. I have to settle you down before I can leave in peace. Besides, now that we have money, we should have a home."

Yu Huang stuffed the key into Yu Donghai's palm. "Take it, Father."

Yu Donghai understood that he was Yu Huang's burden. Only when he was doing well could Yu Huang feel at ease and go out.

Yu Donghai held the key tightly and said, "Don't worry and go to school. I will take good care of myself at home."

Seeing that Yu Donghai was willing to accept the house, Yu Huang heaved a sigh of relief.

Yu Donghai continued, "I'll leave the largest room for you to use. I'll get someone to renovate the room to look like how you like it. I'll also buy a two-meter wide bed and place it inside. In the future, when you bring your son-in-law back, you'll also have a place to stay..."

Yu Huang followed Yu Donghai's words and imagined it. However, she could not imagine the scene of Sheng Xiao living in a small house with her.

A good child like Sheng Xiao had to live in a beautiful palace and be treated like a treasure.

However, Yu Huang would not tell Yu Donghai about such a dangerous thought. If he knew, he would definitely treat her as a pervert.

Yu Huang was going to leave tomorrow afternoon. Yu Donghai could not bear to part with her. At night, he pulled her to sit on the sofa in the living room and listened to her recount her experiences during the three months in Rakshasa Empire.

Yu Huang only talked about the details of how impressive she was. All those embarrassing experiences were subconsciously erased by her.

However, even if she didn't say it, Yu Donghai understood.

Yu Donghai stared at the injury on Yu Huang's arm, and his eyes were filled with heartache. However, he didn't ask how exactly Yu Huang was injured, and only told her earnestly, "You must remember, no matter what happens, protecting your own life is the most important. Where there is life, there is hope."

"I understand, Father."

The father-daughter pair chatted until past two o'clock in the night before bidding each other good night and returning to their rooms to sleep.

The next day, after lunch, Yu Huang returned to her room to change her clothes. She pulled her luggage out of her room and saw Yu Donghai standing in the living room. He was also wearing the shirt and casual pants that she had picked for him yesterday.

This was the first time Yu Huang had seen him dressed so formally.

During this half year, Yu Donghai had become much more optimistic. The melancholy in his eyes had all disappeared, and what replaced them was yearning and anticipation for the future. After changing into new clothes, he appeared even more radiant.

Yu Huang stared at Yu Donghai's new look, and she was able to discern his graceful bearing when he was young.

Yu Huang praised him. "When you were young, you must have been a handsome man."

Yu Donghai blushed slightly. In order to cover up his embarrassment, he lowered his head and adjusted the belt on his waist. He only stopped after he placed it in the middle.

At this moment, Yu Donghai also recovered his composure. He said, "What kind of handsome man am I? Young Master is the true handsome man, a role model for the sons of noble families. Back then, when he was walking on the campus, which girl didn't steal a few glances at him?"

Yu Huang restrained the smile on her lips. She said, "I'll visit him when we go to the Divine Realm Academy this time." Even if it was just to look at his statue, she would be satisfied.

"We have to go take a look." Yu Donghai helped Yu Huang pull the box. He said, "Let's go, I'll send you to the Purifying Spirit Academy."

Yu Huang was shocked. "Father, you've finally decided to see Mentor?"

Yu Donghai snorted and said, "I have to go greet him and remind him to take care of you more on the way."

"Alright!"

It had been almost twenty years since her mentor and her father met. Yu Huang sent Lin Jiansheng a message to give him some time to prepare himself.

When he received the message, Lin Jiansheng was explaining things to the disciples of the school. He glanced at the message and learned that Yu Donghai was coming to see him. His gaze instantly became serious.

A few disciples felt uneasy when they saw Lin Jiansheng's expression suddenly turning serious.

Who was the one who did the wrong thing and angered the dean?

Just as this thought flashed across their minds, they heard Lin Jiansheng ask, "If I wear this to meet an old friend, will they think that I'm aloof and feel distant?"

The disciples were speechless.

They had never seen the dean like this.

It was just a friend, not a lover. Was there a need to be so serious?

For a moment, they were all curious about the identity of this old friend that the dean was about to meet.

The oldest Purifying Spirit Master disciple stood up and bowed. "Dean, you are a Level 8 Purifying Spirit Master. You are born with honor and prestige. No matter what you wear, you will look elegant."

They were all people who were experts at flattery.

When Lin Jiansheng heard this disciple's compliment, he frowned and muttered, "Then I have to go back and change my clothes."

Lin Jiansheng quickly went upstairs and returned to his room. He took off his Purifying Spirit Master robe and changed into an ordinary gray shirt and casual pants that he had not worn in many years.

He looked at himself in the mirror and confirmed that this outfit was the most approachable before he was satisfied.

Finally, Yu Huang and the others arrived.

Lin Jiansheng stood behind the curtains in his study and immediately saw the man standing beside Yu Huang.

Lin Jiansheng had long heard about Yu Donghai's predicament from Yu Huang. Hence, he was already mentally prepared.

However, when he saw Yu Donghai's current appearance, and discovered that the man who was still in high spirits twenty years ago had actually become a thin and weak old man who seemed like he could break with a light squeeze, Lin Jiansheng suddenly erupted with anger!

Yin Mingchong, you deserve death!

Almost at the moment when Lin Jiansheng's mental strength fluctuated, Yu Huang sensed it.

She raised her head and looked at the sky that had suddenly turned dark clouds. She guessed that her mentor was too agitated and had lost control of his Psychic power. She hurriedly looked towards Lin Jiansheng's study.

Yu Donghai had previously come to the Purifying Spirit Academy to look for Lin Jiansheng, so he was very familiar with everything in the Purifying Spirit Academy.

Sensing that Lin Jiansheng had lost control of his Psychic power, Yu Donghai raised his head and looked towards Lin Jiansheng's study. Staring at the figure that was hidden behind the curtains, Yu Donghai said calmly, "Old man, don't be angry. The attack power of your Psychic power is too strong. I can't bear it now."

Level 8 Purifying Spirit Masters could hear voices thousands of meters away.

Upon hearing Yu Donghai's words, Lin Jiansheng immediately withdrew all of his psychic energy and tried his best to stabilize his emotions.

The dark clouds gathered above the Purifying Spirit Academy finally turned into a blue sky and white clouds.

Yu Huang raised her eyebrows. She thought to herself that these two people had a really good relationship.

"Father, let's go to the study to see Mentor."

"Yeah."

Yu Huang brought Yu Donghai upstairs and went around the curved corridor to Lin Jiansheng's study.

The door to Lin Jiansheng's study was wide open, and Yu Huang directly led Yu Donghai into the room.

The moment they entered, the study door closed automatically. At the same time, a soundproof barrier enveloped the study and isolated the sound inside.

After doing all of this, Lin Jiansheng turned around and looked at the entrance.

Yu Donghai stood there silently while staring at Lin Jiansheng. His lips quivered a few times, but he did not say a word in the end.

Lin Jiansheng walked towards Yu Donghai step by step. His hands that were hanging by his legs trembled before he slowly raised his right hand and pressed it on Yu Donghai's shoulder.

Sensing how thin and weak the person under his palm was, Lin Jiansheng's eyes turned red with heartache.

Tears welled up in Lin Jiansheng's eyes, but he held them back. He hugged Yu Donghai's head and pressed his forehead against it. With a trembling voice, he asked, "Donghai, why have you become like this?!"

When he heard his old friend calling him Donghai, Yu Donghai almost broke down. He grabbed Lin Jiansheng's arm with both hands and pouted, but in the end, he still held back his emotions.

Lin Jiansheng held Yu Donghai's head. He looked at Yu Donghai's face, which had aged tens of years, and felt both heartache and anger.

"They all said that you were dead, but I refused to accept that it was true. All these years, I've been paying attention to your tracks, but I didn't know that you were actually hiding in the Prosperous Capital and under my watch!"

"It's almost twenty years! You've actually never come to look for me even once! Yin Donghai, do you really treat me as a bro?"

Facing Lin Jiansheng's question, Yu Donghai was speechless.

Of course, he wanted to look for Lin Jiansheng, but he was more afraid of implicating Lin Jiansheng!

Lin Jiansheng and Yu Donghai were best friends. At that time, Yin Mingchong was not sure if Yu Donghai was dead or alive. He must have sent someone to secretly monitor Lin Jiansheng. Once Yu Donghai contacted Lin Jiansheng, Yin Mingchong would immediately learn that he was still alive!

If he was exposed, then Young Master's identity would be exposed as well!

That was why Yu Donghai had never come to look for Lin Jiansheng once in the past twenty years.

Chapter 126: Skysplit Tower, Divine Realm Academy!

Even if Yu Donghai did not explain, Lin Jiansheng could understand what he was worried about.

Lin Jiansheng's heart ached. He shook Yu Donghai's head lightly and said with anguish, "How heroic were you in the past? Look at yourself now! Yin Donghai, you f*cking turned yourself into a cripple!"

"You're Yin Donghai, the Yin Donghai who was praised that you would become the Prime Master of your generation. How did you become a cripple?"

When Lin Jiansheng entered the Divine Realm Academy, Yin Donghai was already a second-year student.

Yu Donghai was Yin Mingjue's attendant and was deeply trusted and respected by Yin Mingjue. Yin Mingjue always said that Yin Donghai was a good seedling for cultivation and thought that he would become an Prime Master in the future.

After hearing Yin Mingjue say it many times, Yin Donghai became blindly confident.

Therefore, at that time, Yin Donghai always said in front of Lin Jiansheng, "Ah Sheng, in the future, you will be a Saint, and I will be a Prime Master. Together, we will be invincible! Let's be Young Master's left shoulder and right arm in the future, okay?"

How did Lin Jiansheng reply to him back then?

He said, "Don't be arrogant. You might become a cripple in the future!" At the thought of this matter, Lin Jiansheng suddenly raised his hand and slapped himself.

Yu Donghai saw it and hurriedly grabbed Lin Jiansheng's hand to stop him. "Stop hitting yourself! I've never blamed you!"

Lin Jiansheng felt very guilty. "I jinxed it. Whatever I said hit the nail on the head." If he didn't say those disheartening words, would he have not become a cripple?

Yu Donghai shook his head. "What has it got to do with you? Young Master's soul has already been destroyed. I'm lucky to still be alive. Old fart, you should be happy to see me."

How could Lin Jiansheng be happy?

As long as he thought about how confident Yu Donghai was in the past, and looked at his current appearance, he hated everything.

Lin Jiansheng took a deep breath and suppressed all his negative emotions before saying, "If you're still alive, there's still hope! Don't worry, I will definitely find a way to help you restore your beast heart! I will let you become a Beast Tamer again!"

When Yu Donghai heard these words, his heart rate couldn't help but increase a little. "I still have a chance to become a Beast Tamer?" He asked carefully because he was afraid that he had heard wrong and was getting his hopes up.

Lin Jiansheng told him, "Ever since I found out that you self-destructed your beast form, I have been researching everywhere. I found in a document that someone in the Upper World had once helped a Beast Tamer successfully repair her beast heart. As long as someone had succeeded before, we have hope!"

Yu Huang felt a fit of impulse when she heard this. She grabbed Yu Donghai's hand and said to him, "Father, you have to take good care of yourself. Mentor and I will definitely help you find a way to repair the beast heart!"

As long as he could successfully repair the beast heart and become a Beast Tamer again, Yu Donghai was willing to start all over again!

“Alright, I’ll wait for you guys!”

Yu Donghai saw that it was getting late. He was afraid that he would delay Yu Huang’s enrollment. He then said to Lin Jiansheng, “You guys should set off. Otherwise, you won’t be able to make it.”

The two of them had only caught up with each other for a few minutes during this reunion. Lin Jiansheng was unwilling to bid Yu Donghai farewell in a hurry, but sending Yu Huang to the academy was the most important matter.

Lin Jiansheng understood what Yu Donghai was worried about. He said, “Don’t worry, I will personally make a trip to the academy and tell the principal that Yu Huang is my personal disciple. The principal cherishes talent the most. If he knows that Yu Huang is a dual master, he will definitely do his best to nurture her!”

Seeing that Lin Jiansheng had already made the necessary arrangements, Yu Donghai finally felt relieved. He reminded Lin Jiansheng, “You must not tell anyone about the Young Master’s identity. It will bring about a fatal disaster for the Young Master. Ah Sheng, the Young Master has treated you well. We have the deepest friendship. In this world, the only person I can trust is you.”

At this point, Yu Donghai suddenly took a step back. He bowed to Lin Jiansheng. “Ah Sheng, I’ll entrust our Young Master to you.”

Lin Jiansheng glanced at Yu Huang and sighed. “She is my only personal disciple. I will do that even without you saying so.”

After receiving Lin Jiansheng’s promise, Yu Donghai left without turning back.

The moment he left, Lin Jiansheng pulled Yu Huang away from the Purifying Spirit Academy.

Sitting in the car, Lin Jiansheng seemed to be in a very low mood. Yu Huang guessed that Lin Jiansheng had probably thought of his younger days, so she didn’t disturb him.

After registering for the Beast Tamer license, Yu Huang did not need to queue up for the plane. The mentor-disciple pair quickly boarded the plane and set off.

Yu Huang sat by the window of the plane and looked at the distant Prosperous Capital. Thinking that she was about to embark on a new journey, she said silently,

Divine Realm Academy, here I come!

...

On the westernmost side of the Divine Moon Empire was a desert. Qiang City was a modern city built on this desert.

Qiang City Airport was the closest airport to Skysplit Tower. After alighting from the plane, one had to take an ancient green train to Skysplit Tower Station.

Qiang City Airport was the closest airport to Skysplit Tower. After alighting from the plane, one had to take an ancient green train to Skysplit Tower Station.

This green train was also the only one left in the world. It had become a unique scenery in the Gobi.

The train drove very slowly, so that passengers could admire the Gobi scenery along the way. There was a kind of firefly-like butterfly living in the Gobi, and when night fell, the entire Gobi would be lit.

The train slowly moved through the Gobi. Yu Huang looked out the window at the charming night sky and felt as if she was in a dream.

When it was almost dawn, the green train finally arrived at the stop.

“We have arrived at Skysplit Tower Station! Please take your luggage and alight in an orderly manner.”

In Coach No.1, seven passengers stood up at the same time, including Yu Huang and Lin Jiansheng. These were all students who were going to Divine Realm Academy to report.

The other passengers on the bus watched them leave respectfully. This was because they knew that the youths who alighted here would become powerful people in the future.

After alighting from the car, Yu Huang lowered her head to look at the people accompanying her. Apart from her and Lin Jiansheng, there was a couple, two youths, and a young girl left.

The youths were very young and inexperienced. They were about fourteen to fifteen years old. One of the youths was very thin, while the other youth was much shorter. He was only as tall as Yu Huang.

The girl was beautiful and exquisite. She was wearing a light purple strapless dress and had black hair, making her appear cute and adorable.

When Yu Huang sized them up, they were also sizing her up.

“Are you Yu Huang?” The girl looked at Yu Huang in surprise.

Yu Huang did not find it strange that she had been recognized.

After all, she was once a big star and even won the Best Actress Award. After she quit filming, she trended on Weibo’s hot topics a few times. It would be strange if no one did.

Yu Huang was about to nod when she heard the short youth knock the girl on the head. He said, “Are you stupid? Is there a need to ask? She looks a few years older than us. She must have been a student who passed the college entrance examination. This year, Yu Huang is the only student in the Divine Moon Empire who was accepted via that route. She must be Yu Huang.”

Yu Huang was speechless.

She felt offended.

Seeing that Yu Huang looked dejected, Lin Jiansheng laughed. Yu Huang’s current experience reminded Lin Jiansheng of the scene when he entered school back then.

The freshmen of the Divine Realm Academy’s first year were generally between the ages of 12 and 16. Therefore, back then, when Lin Jiansheng, who was 18 years old, stood among that group of small youths as a scholar, he was truly outstanding.

Lin Jiansheng pressed down on Yu Huang’s shoulder and consoled her gloatingly. “You’ll get used to it.”

Yu Huang was not comforted.

“Let’s go!”

They climbed a hill and stood on the peak. When they saw the scene in front of them, they suddenly fell silent.

In a desert on a plain, a four-pointed tower rose from the ground. The tower was 99 levels high, and the top of the tower reached into the clouds. A bronze bell hung on the corner of each level. The morning sun shone on the tower, giving the bronze bell with a luster.

The wind in the Gobi blew, and the bronze bell swayed in the wind, making a tinkling sound.

Yu Huang stared blankly at the shocking painting. For a moment, afraid that her heavy breathing would disturb the gods in the tower, she even slowed down her breathing.

Seeing that Yu Huang was stunned, Lin Jiansheng smiled and said, “I was the same as you back then. When I saw this beautiful scroll, I didn’t come back to my senses for a long time.”

“It is indeed beautiful.”

The four-sided pagoda in front of her was the Skysplit Tower.

Skysplit Tower was located in the desert at the border of the four countries of the Divine Realm Continent. It was called a miracle in the desert. On the east of Skysplit Tower was the Divine Moon Empire, on the west was the Cangyuan Empire, on the north was the Jade Empire, and on the south was the Mosantuo Empire.

Skysplit Tower did not belong to any country. It belonged to the Divine Realm Academy, the hub of the link between the Divine Realm Academy and the Holy Spirit Continent.

Today was August 30th. In another day, the Divine Realm Academy would begin school. In these past two days, all the new students from all over the world had rushed over and gathered outside the tower.

At dawn tomorrow, when the gates of Skysplit Tower were opened, these students would be able to go to the Divine Realm Academy.

This year, the Divine Realm Academy only recruited 600 students from the outside. Yu Huang noticed that most of the new students were youths around the age of 15, and all of them were arrogant.

In fact, the children who were able to enter the Divine Realm Academy were mostly descendants of noble families and talented Beast Tamers. Beast Tamers like Anna Tao, who came from a common family and had ordinary talent, would never be able to enter the Divine Realm Academy in their lifetime.

Some people were born in Rome. You couldn’t catch up to others even if you chased them all your life.

This was the cruel reality.

Yu Huang looked at the little kids and then at herself. She suddenly had the illusion that she was an old child that had entered kindergarten.

“Let’s find a place to rest first.”

Lin Jiansheng brought Yu Huang to a place with fewer people and set up a tent. The mentor and disciple sat under the sunshade tent and meditated cross-legged. They sat for more than four hours.

At this moment, there was a sudden commotion in the sky. Yu Huang looked up and saw a group of young men jump down from the aircraft.

They all looked like adults.

The girls were all wearing the tailored suits and shorts of the Divine Realm Academy. They had a storage belt around their waists and the school badge of the Divine Realm Academy on their chests.

The boys' clothes were basically the same as the girls', except that their pants were long.

These were all students of the Divine Realm Academy.

Chapter 127: Encounter Xuanyuan Jing

The moment this group of people landed, they immediately attracted the curious gazes of many new students.

"That's the upperclassmen. They all have aircraft. I want my own aircraft too!"

"Wow, they are all so handsome!"

Yu Huang was also staring at the group of people. Her eyes were calm.

Lin Jiansheng told Yu Huang, "From July to September, it is the annual assessment season of the Divine Realm Academy. During this period, the students have to go out to carry out missions. They can only successfully graduate and enter the next age. Otherwise, they will continue to stay behind. These children should be students who just returned after completing their missions."

Upon hearing this, Yu Huang was speechless. She asked, "Is the system that strict?"

"Of course it's strict. The academy set up the annual assessment system with the goal of screening out those slackers. Students who are held back for three consecutive years will be expelled by the academy. Thus, those who can successfully graduate from the Divine Realm Academy are all very outstanding students."

Yu Huang couldn't help but ask, "How do we graduate?"

Lin Jiansheng's answer was very simple. "Charge into the tower.

Charge into the tower?"

Yu Huang stared at the four-sided pagoda behind her and curiously asked, "Break into the Skysplit Tower?"

Lin Jiansheng nodded and then explained the details of the graduation examination in detail with Yu Huang. "Divine Realm Academy has a total of 12 grades. When you advance to the 12th grade, you have to break into the tower."

"Skysplit Tower has a total of 99 levels. It is a low-end version of the Central Pagoda. After graduation, students who can enter the 60th level can graduate. Students who can enter the 70th level will be given the academy's outstanding student badge. Students who can enter the 80th level will obtain the honorary student badge. And students who can enter the 90th level will be branded as honorary students onto the Divine Realm Academy's honor wall. These students can also choose to stay in the academy."

"Therefore, every faculty member, professor, and man who is sweeping the floor are big shots who have broken into the 90th level."

Yu Huang remembered this crucial piece of information and secretly warned herself not to offend anyone in the school.

Everyone was a big shot and could not be offended.

"Mentor, what will the reward be if you pass level 99?"

Lin Jiansheng raised his head and looked at the top of the Skysplit Tower. He said, "The students who successfully pass the 99th level will represent the academy in participating in the Central Pagoda trials that are held once every five years. Those who pass the trials successfully can enter the Upper World. Back then, Senior was the only student who passed the trials successfully in his grade."

Yu Huang licked her lips and secretly clenched her fists.

She had to walk down the path her father had walked before again.

However...

"Mentor, now that the spatial gate has been sealed, is there still anyone who wants to break into the Central Pagoda?"

"Why not?" Lin Jiansheng rubbed the short beard on his chin with the back of his hand before saying, "Even if you can't enter the Upper World, it's still a good thing to be able to gain a good reputation for your family and the academy through your results in the pagoda challenge. The next Central Pagoda challenge will be next year."

After knowing that it would be the Central Pagoda's challenge next year, Yu Huang immediately thought of Sheng Xiao. "Mentor, why hasn't Supreme Master Sheng graduated?"

Sheng Xiao entered the Divine Realm Academy at the age of 11. With his cultivation and talent, he could have graduated early. However, not only did he not graduate early, but he also postponed it. It was suspicious.

Lin Jiansheng felt amused when he heard Yu Huang mention Sheng Xiao. "You two are close. Ask him!"

Yu Huang was speechless.

“We’re not that close either.” They only kissed.

Lin Jiansheng put away his frivolous attitude and shook his head while saying, “I don’t know the exact reason, but I guess he wants to stay behind for the Central Pagoda Test next year.”

No wonder.

As the master and disciple chatted, the sound of a flying device gliding across the sky suddenly sounded again.

More than a dozen teenagers jumped down from the aircraft. This group of people were also wearing the uniform of Divine Realm Academy.

The leading young man had a pair of almond-shaped eyes, light blue eyes, an upturned nose, and red lips. He looked particularly handsome.

The moment the young man landed, he brought his teammates to another team.

“Mr. Creel.” The young man greeted the male senior at the front of the team before turning his gaze to the woman beside Creel.

The woman had golden curly hair and mixed-race facial features. She was extremely beautiful, and the ordinary-looking school uniform looked handsome on her.

This person’s name was Zhong Luoxue. She was a female student ranked 350th on the top 500 rankings of the academy. She was also one of the top ten beauties of the academy.

With all kinds of glory, Zhong Luoxue naturally could not conceal her arrogance.

The blue-eyed young man nodded at Zhong Luoxue and shouted in admiration, “Luoxue, you’re here too.”

Zhong Luoxue nodded in a reserved manner. When she saw a cut on the blue-eyed young man’s uniform on his shoulder by the demon beast, she raised her fair hand and gently touched his wound. She frowned lightly and asked, “Xuanyuan, are you injured?”

Zhong Luoxue was such an aloof beauty, but she actually took the initiative to express concern about him. This made Xuanyuan Jing feel flattered.

Xuanyuan Jing hurriedly shook his head and said, “Your injuries aren’t serious, just superficial wounds. I heard that your mission this time is to kill a level-six demon beast. I wonder if you guys have completed the mission? You...”

Afraid that his thoughts would make Zhong Luoxue feel uncomfortable, Xuanyuan Jing asked, “Are you guys hurt?”

Zhong Luoxue naturally could hear Xuanyuan Jing’s concern for her. Her eyes warmed slightly as she shook her head. “It’s fine.”

At this moment, Creel interrupted. He said, “The new students are about to report. We can only wait for the tower gate to open tomorrow morning and follow them back to the academy.”

Zhong Luoxue said, "It's nothing. Let's wait a little longer. After all, there are still other students who haven't returned."

When Creel heard her words, he thought of something else. He said, "I heard from the other students that the academy's assessment requirement for Mr. Sheng is for him to retrieve a level 7 Monster Core alone. I wonder if he has completed the mission?"

The students fell silent when they heard Mr. Sheng's name.

Xuanyuan Jing frowned and said, "Mr. Sheng broke through to the level of a Supreme Master last year. He has a chance of winning against a level 7 demon beast alone."

Zhong Luoxue said, "Level 7 Demonic Beasts are so terrifying. No matter how powerful Mr. Sheng is, he's still fighting alone. I'm afraid it won't be easy."

Creel stopped talking.

In the distance, Yu Huang narrowed her eyes and looked at Creel and the others in a daze. She stared at Xuanyuan Jing's back and was somewhat surprised.

She didn't expect to see Xuanyuan Jing before she even entered Divine Realm Academy.

Yu Huang immediately felt her knuckles itch. She really wanted to beat him up.

When Lin Jiansheng heard Zhong Luoxue address one of the youths as 'Xuanyuan ', he recalled the gossip about Yu Huang. He couldn't help but wink at Yu Huang and ask, "Could that Xuanyuan be your fiancé?"

Yu Huang corrected him. "Ex."

Yu Huang didn't deny it, which meant that the brat was Xuanyuan Jing.

Lin Jiansheng chuckled and teased Yu Huang. "You have a rich life in this school. Your ex-fiancé and your prospective boyfriend are both here. Imagine that scene. Tsk tsk."

He wanted to see it!

Chapter 128: Want to take a roller coaster? The kind that kills.

Lin Jiansheng was a person who loved to watch drama. He was a huge gossip. It was bad enough that he usually watched other people's drama, but now, he even watched his own disciple's drama.

Yu Huang glared at Lin Jiansheng. "Mentor, don't be disrespectful."

Lin Jiansheng coughed twice before letting it go.

As night fell, fireflies lit up on the Gobi.

Tomorrow was the day they would enter the Divine Realm Academy. These young children were so excited that they found it difficult to sleep. They lit a bonfire in the Gobi and surrounded it while telling stories. There was even a bold girl who danced beside the bonfire, causing many people to cheer.

A few youths walked towards Creel and the others and invited them to the bonfire to chat.

Creel and the others didn't decline and walked over.

The moment they sat down, they became the center of everyone's attention.

Creel was a black man. He sat beside the bonfire like a black wooden statue. When thrown into the night, he could completely merge with the darkness. However, as long as he opened his mouth to speak, his bright white teeth would be very obvious.

Creel was a very talkative man. No matter what the juniors asked him, as long as he knew, he would tell them a few words enthusiastically.

On the other hand, Zhong Luoxue, who sat on his left, was much more reserved and cold. She sat upright by the bonfire, and her beautiful and fair face was slightly flushed by the bonfire, causing her to seem even more beautiful.

Xuanyuan Jing occasionally stole a glance at Zhong Luoxue with a fiery gaze.

Zhong Luoxue could feel Xuanyuan Jing sizing her up. She didn't respond to Xuanyuan Jing's gaze, but her delicate body sat even more gracefully.

Yu Huang didn't participate in the gathering of those brats, and she didn't want to meet Xuanyuan Jing either. She stood up and left the tent alone to look at the stars in the depths of the Gobi.

As she watched, she suddenly discovered a butterfly emitting five-colored light in the distant sky.

Yu Huang blinked in surprise. How could there be such a huge butterfly in the desert?

Yu Huang looked again and realized that there was a man sitting on the butterfly's back.

This butterfly should be the beast form of the Beast Tamer.

Flying beast form?

The butterfly was exhausted from flying and its spiritual power was completely exhausted. It turned into a ray of light and entered the body of the Beast Tamer. Thus, the Beast Tamer fell from the sky and fell flat on his face.

Yu Huang was speechless.

"Ouch!"

The man's face contorted in pain. He cried out a few times before sitting up and gently massaging his knee.

The man sat on the ground and rested for a few minutes. When he felt that it no longer hurt, he stood up.

He took out a clean coat from the storage device and changed into it. Then, he picked up the glasses that had fallen to the ground and put them on.

Thinking that he was once again a respectable person, the man turned around and prepared to go to Skysplit Tower to meet up with the other new students.

However, when he turned around, he realized that there was a girl sitting on the Gobi behind her.

Feng Si was speechless.

There was actually someone here!

Yu Huang had not expected that she would still be able to see Feng Si after a year. She also did not expect that Feng Si's appearance would be so different.

That's right. This man was the bespectacled man Yu Huang had met at the Black Dome last year. She remembered that his name was Feng Si.

Feng Si also felt that Yu Huang was somewhat familiar, but for a moment, he was unable to associate Yu Huang with the young lady who had boldly jumped into the Purgatory Sea.

When Feng Si thought about how he fell from the sky just now, and his wretched appearance of grimacing in pain and howling was seen by this young lady, he immediately blushed in embarrassment.

He had still wanted to make a dignified entrance, but he did not expect to suffer humiliation the moment he appeared.

"Heh heh..." Feng Si could only laugh awkwardly. After laughing, he asked Yu Huang, "Miss, you are also at the Divine Realm Academy to report?"

Seeing that Feng Si did not recognize her, the smile on Yu Huang's lips became even more playful. "Young Master Feng's entrance method is really unique."

Feng Si's eyes widened slightly. "You know me?"

The Feng Family was indeed a prestigious cultivation family on the Ice Domain Continent, but this was the Divine Realm Continent, where outstanding people lived. How did this lady know him?

Feng Si pushed his glasses up his nose bridge and stared at Yu Huang's appearance carefully. With one look, he found her even more familiar. "Have we met before?"

Yu Huang reminded him, "Rakshasa Empire, Black Dome Mountain, Purgatory Sea."

She said word by word.

When Feng Si heard these three phrases, the image of a girl wearing a cat mask and holding a book while reading beside the fire flashed across his mind!

"It's you! Little Yu!" Feng Si looked at Yu Huang as if he was looking at a monster. He said, "Didn't you jump into the Purgatory Sea? Why are you still alive?"

In Feng Si and the others' eyes, jumping into the Purgatory Sea was equivalent to jumping into a mountain of blades and a sea of flames. That was a trip with no return.

Yu Huang nodded and admitted her identity before explaining, "I jumped, but I came out alive."

Feng Sijun's face was filled with shock. "Impressive, impressive. You can actually escape unscathed from the Purgatory Sea!"

She was a ruthless person!

Yu Huang thought of the Purifying Spirit Sacred Pearl that she had swallowed and looked at Feng Si. She could not help but feel conflicted.

If this guy knew that the Purifying Spirit Sacred Pearl that he wanted even in his dreams had been given to her by Sheng Xiao, would he be so angry that he wanted to kill her?

Yu Huang decided to hide this matter. She asked Feng Si, "Your beast form is a butterfly?"

Feng Si was a man, but his beast form was that of a beautiful butterfly. He was somewhat embarrassed. "... Yes."

Yu Huang said, "Very beautiful."

Feng Si did not see any mockery on Yu Huang's face. Only then did he believe that Yu Huang was purely praising his beast form for being beautiful. Only then did his awkward expression soften.

Feng Si smiled bitterly. "What's the use of being beautiful? This thing is flashy but useless. It's beautiful but useless."

"How can that be? Usually, such a gorgeous beast form has other special abilities even if it doesn't have powerful combat abilities. What kind of beast form is your?"

Feng Sihan replied vaguely, "Support."

"That's great. In the future, you can find a battle-type Beast Tamer as your partner." Auxiliary beast forms combined with a battle-type beast form could achieve twice the results with half the effort.

Yu Huang didn't understand why Feng Si hated his beast form so much.

Feng Si clicked his tongue and said angrily, "What's so good about that? My butterfly is called a Charming Colored Disk. It's a beast form that can only cultivate charm techniques. Why would a man like me cultivate that thing?! I'm not going to sell it in a brothel!"

Yu Huang's expression became intrigued when she heard this.

As a man, he could only cultivate in charm techniques. This was indeed very humiliating. No wonder Feng Si wanted to improve his beast form.

Yu Huang enlightened him. "The beast form was a gift from God to us. Since your beast form chose you, it means that it's the most suitable for you. Instead of resisting it, you might as well treat it well. Furthermore, it's not shameless for men to cultivate charm techniques. Don't look down on yourself."

Feng Si understood this, but he just couldn't get over this hurdle.

His siblings who had successfully awakened their beast forms were all more powerful than him. As the fourth young master of the Feng family, he was a Beast Tamer who could only cultivate charm techniques. If word got out, wouldn't it be a joke?

However, Feng Si still felt a little better after being consoled by Yu Huang.

After explaining his situation, Feng Si asked Yu Huang, "You're also a freshman this year?"

"Okay."

"Are you a Purifying Spirit Master now?"

"Yes. However, I was accepted into the academy as a scholar."

Feng Si knew that Yu Huang loved to study very much. The night before she jumped into the Purgatory Sea, she was still reading. Yu Huang worked so hard and finally successfully entered the Divine Realm Academy. Feng Si was also happy for her.

"Those who can enter the Divine Realm Academy through their own abilities are all very powerful." Feng Si rubbed his nose in embarrassment and whispered, "I entered through the back door."

Yu Huang found his frankness adorable. "How did you get in through the back door?"

"Donation."

That's right, even the Divine Realm Academy had expenditures.

Yu Huang's expression was unreadable. She sighed and said, "Then your parents really dote on you." They were willing to spend money to send their child to the Divine Realm Academy. This was indeed a form of doting.

Feng Si was even more embarrassed. He said worriedly, "If I can't pass the annual assessment for three years in a row, I will still be sent home in the end. However, my parents gave me this opportunity, so I will definitely cherish it."

"Good luck."

The sky was about to brighten.

Yu Huang stood up and said to Feng Si, "Let's go. Skysplit Tower is about to open."

"Okay."

As Yu Huang and Feng Si arrived at the bottom of Skysplit Tower, they heard a rumbling sound. The entrance to Skysplit Tower had opened!

Everyone stood up from the ground and simultaneously stood on their tiptoes to look at the entrance of Skysplit Tower.

There, a man in a brown uniform stood with a bell in his hand.

He was the guide who led the way for the new students.

The guide shook the bell, and the entire bronze bell above Skysplit Tower shook with it. This sound spread throughout the desolate Gobi, shocking everyone.

“New students, please follow me into the pagoda!”

The guide turned around and walked into the tower. Thus, all the new students and their parents quietly queued up to enter the tower.

They entered the tower, but they did not go up. Instead, they went down.

No one knew how deep the pagoda was.

Everyone walked down the stairs to the bottom of the tower.

The new students’ faces were filled with curiosity. As they walked, they looked around.

Lin Jiansheng told Yu Huang, “After walking past these 999 stairs, there will be an underground plaza at the end of the road. We will gather there later and get into the car collectively.”

There was even a car underground?

“Is it the subway?”

Subway?

Lin Jiansheng shook his head mysteriously and said, “You’ll know later.”

Yu Huang immediately had a bad premonition.

As expected, after walking down the 999 steps, they arrived at an underground plaza.

The guide stood at the front and raised his voice to say to everyone, “Everyone, line up. 50 people per team! We’re going to get in the car!”

However, Yu Huang did not see a car.

The outside of the square seemed to be a cliff. There was no road, and Yu Huang did not see any cars.

So, where was the car they were taking? Where was the road?

There were many people who had the same doubts as Yu Huang. Some youths even wanted to run to the edge of the square to take a look, but were pulled back by their parents. “Line up properly. The car will be here soon!”

The child asked, “Where’s the car? There’s no road!”

The parent said, “There will be a road later!”

Yu Huang tilted her head to look at Lin Jiansheng. Seeing Lin Jiansheng’s mysterious expression, she was even more confused.

“Since we’re all in line, let’s get in the car!”

The guide whistled, and the sound of a metal wheel rolling suddenly came from deep underground.

It was as if some kind of monster had awakened.

Beep beep...

Beep beep...

The car was here!

But it was a rollercoaster!

Lin Jiansheng tilted his head and said to Yu Huang, "Welcome to the Soul Chasing rollercoaster ride!"

Want to take a roller coaster?

The kind that kills.

Chapter 129: Divine Realm Academy, Grand Prosperity

The driver was wearing the same design as the guide, but he had a long hat on his head.

The driver honked, and the guide shouted, "First team, get in!"

The students in the first row and their parents got into the car. Just as they fastened their seatbelt, they heard the driver shout, "Sit tight, we're leaving!" After shouting, he stepped on the accelerator and the rollercoaster disappeared.

The bus had indeed disappeared, but the frightened cries of the new students echoed incessantly in the abyss, causing one's scalp to go numb.

Yu Huang raised her eyebrows. Was it that exciting?

There were four people sitting in a row on the roller coaster. They sat according to the order of the queue. Lin Jiansheng, Yu Huang, and Feng Si had just sat in a row when a slightly plump boy sat beside Feng Si.

After taking a seat, the safety equipment on the roller coaster automatically moved out and tied everyone firmly to the chairs to ensure that they were not thrown out.

Feng Si's expression was a little pale. He held his glasses in his right hand and pressed his left hand on the back of Yu Huang's hand. He said nervously, "I'm afraid of heights. I'm also carsick. I... I still want to vomit." Feng Si started to feel carsick before he even started driving.

Yu Huang was helpless as well. "Bear with it."

In front, the driver shouted, "Sit tight, let's go! Have a good trip!"

He stepped on the accelerator and the rollercoaster flew out!

It really flew out!

It flew directly over an abyss more than five hundred meters high and landed firmly on the track at the other end of the mountain. Without giving the students a chance to catch their breath, the rollercoaster drove forward at a high speed for a while before diving towards the bottom of the abyss!

“Ah!!”

Even Yu Huang was frightened and shouted.

At that instant, Yu Huang suddenly thought of a joke—

He flew at the front while his soul chased after him. Once he failed to catch up, he would turn into dust!

Very quickly, Yu Huang adapted to the rhythm of the rollercoaster, but Feng Si, who was beside her, was so frightened that he was incoherent as he shouted frantically, “Ah!! I’m going to die! I’m going to throw up! I’m going to fall down...”

Feng Si’s screams never stopped.

Three minutes later, the roller coaster arrived at the stop and stopped on a flat ground.

Feng Si sat in the car without moving. His face was pale from fright, and his lips were trembling. He had also crushed his gold-rimmed glasses.

Yu Huang stood up and asked him, “Can you still walk?”

Feng Si’s eyes rolled and he said weakly, “Please drag me out of the car.”

Thus, Yu Huang dragged Feng Si off the rollercoaster like a pig.

After getting out of the car, Feng Si laid beside a trash can and vomited non-stop.

Yu Huang stood a little further away.

Yu Huang’s stomach felt a little uncomfortable. She hurriedly peeled a lemon candy and ate it. Only then did she suppress the disgusting and nauseating feeling.

After her stomach felt better, Yu Huang asked Lin Jiansheng, “Mentor, did you also take this rollercoaster when you were in school?”

“Huh?” Lin Jiansheng told her, “This underground roller coaster was sent by the Dwarfs of the Hundred Beast Continent. It took them ten years to successfully build. It is the safest, most difficult, and most difficult underground roller coaster in the world.”

“You won’t be able to sit in it anywhere else.”

Yu Huang rolled her eyes. She didn’t want to sit on this thing a second time.

Creel and the others looked at the trembling and vomiting freshmen from afar. A mischievous smile flashed across their eyes. “Looking at them reminds us of us when we first entered the academy.”

Zhong Luoxue was a little dizzy, but she didn’t say anything when she heard Creel’s words. Xuanyuan Jing saw that Zhong Luoxue was dizzy, so he took out a lemon hard candy from his spatial ring. “Luoxue, have a candy.”

Zhong Luoxue took the candy and had just put it in her mouth when she heard Creel say, “Xuanyuan, why do you still have candy with you?”

Hearing that, Zhong Luo Xue also raised her head to look at Xuanyuan Jing.

Xuanyuan Jing's expression became a little unnatural.

He quickly smiled again and explained, "Someone in our team gets carsick, so I prepared some candy."

Creel originally thought that Xuanyuan Jing knew that Zhong Luoxue had a car sickness, so he had prepared the candy beforehand, so he could give it when Zhong Luoxue was feeling uncomfortable.

After hearing Xuanyuan Jing's explanation, Creel knew that he was overthinking.

When Zhong Luoxue heard his explanation, she lowered her head again.

Xuanyuan Jing's finger touched the interspatial ring lightly, and his gaze became hazy.

This candy was actually something he had prepared for Yu Huang in the past.

Xuanyuan Jing was very attentive when he pursued Yu Huang. He knew that Yu Huang was carsick, so he always had to put a bag of candy in his interspatial ring. As long as Yu Huang was uncomfortable, he would give her one.

When he thought of Yu Huang, Xuanyuan Jing's mood instantly became complicated.

Last year, Xuanyuan Sisi went to the Lou Lan Ancient Pavilion. When she came back, she called him and told him that Yu Huang had fallen into the Time Valley to save the girl from the Sheng family.

When he heard that Yu Huang had fallen into the Time Valley, Xuanyuan Jing's heart trembled violently.

Yu Huang was dead?

Although his attitude was very firm when he broke off the engagement back then, he still had feelings for Yu Huang. After all, that was his first love, a treasure that he had spent a long time pursuing.

After knowing that his first love was dead, Xuanyuan Jing was still sad for a few days before he pulled himself together.

But three months ago, he found out from Xuanyuan Sisi that Yu Huang was still alive.

Not only was she still alive, but she had also become the top scorer of the province in the Prosperous Capital this year. She was the top scorer of the national college entrance examination and had been accepted by the Divine Realm Academy.

Knowing that Yu Huang was still alive, Xuanyuan Jing let out a sigh of relief.

However, when he thought about how Yu Huang was about to become his alumni and how they would see each other often in the future, he felt vexed.

Thanks to Sheng Xiao, the letter of challenge between him and Yu Huang was still engraved on the wall of the disciplinary hall.

Some time ago, his classmates' good friends had asked him indirectly, "Yu Huang is coming to the Divine Realm Academy. Are you nervous? Are you afraid?"

Perhaps he was nervous. After all, it was hard not to be nervous when old lovers met.

But he did not fear her.

After cultivating in Divine Realm Academy for two years, Xuanyuan Jing's cultivation had also improved quite a bit. He was now at the late-stage Scholar Realm. Among his peers, he was considered number one.

It was said that Yu Huang had also awakened her beast form when she reached adulthood last year. However, she had only just awakened her beast form, and she was still at the early-stage Scholar Realm. She was a complete newbie.

A newborn Beast Tamer had no chance of winning against a late-stage Beast Tamer.

At this moment, the guide appeared again and shook the bell in his hand.

Attracted by the bell, the square suddenly fell silent.

"Since everyone has rested, let's prepare to set off."

This piece of flat ground was just a temporary rest area. On the other side of the flat ground was a cliff, and there was a spiral staircase built on the edge of the cliff.

The guide walked at the front. The freshmen held onto the railing and walked down the stairs until they reached the bottom of the cliff.

There was a circular stone platform at the bottom of the cliff.

The man pressed the switch on the cliff, and the stone platform opened to both sides to reveal a passageway.

Creel and the others bowed respectfully to the man who led the way and entered.

After they left, the guide looked at the young and delicate freshmen in front of him and said, "I'll send you guys here. Good luck!"

After saying that, he glanced at the parents standing in the freshman team and said, "Parents, please stop."

After students graduated from the Divine Realm Academy, they could not return to school without the academy's invitation. This was a rule, and they had to follow it.

Even Lin Jiansheng was no exception.

Lin Jiansheng lowered his head and said to Yu Huang, "I'm on a different path from you guys. Ah Huang, it's up to you now."

Yu Huang's heart skipped a beat.

It's up to herself now?

What did he mean?

Could there be a new excitement waiting for them?

The parents left, leaving the students looking at each other.

"Let's go!"

No matter what laid ahead, she had to overcome it!

Yu Huang and Feng Si were the first to walk towards the circular platform. Seeing this, the other new students followed.

There was a flying boat under the stone platform. After entering the cabin, Yu Huang looked around the cabin and suddenly frowned.

Seeing that she had stopped in her tracks, Feng Si hurriedly asked, "Is there a problem?"

Yu Huang stared at the empty hall and said, "Those upperclassmen from before aren't on this ship."

Hearing this, Feng Si's expression suddenly changed. "I heard my brothers at home mention that the new students will go through many tests when they enter the school. So those older students shouldn't be sitting on the same boat as us."

Yu Huang asked him, "Do you know what kind of test it is?"

"I don't know much."

Yu Huang nodded. "Since we're here, let's take it easy."

She and Feng Si found a seat and sat down. Soon, everyone was here.

The spaceship took off and flew deep underground.

It was dark outside the window and she couldn't see anything.

Yu Huang thought that they would continue flying in the darkness, but after a few minutes, light shone in from the front windshield of the spaceship.

Light and darkness intertwined. The spaceship directly leaped into the light from the darkness and appeared high in the sky.

A huge bird that resembled a Kun Peng jumped out of the clouds. Its wings spread out and covered the sky.

All the new students were stunned.

"It's a Kun Peng!"

Feng Si's face was also filled with amazement. He told Yu Huang, "We've entered the Divine Realm Academy."

The space of the Divine Realm Academy was very big. It was said that it was as big as a third of the Divine Moon Empire.

The space was a small world that formed a sect.

What was outside, was here. What wasn't outside, was also here.

Just as everyone was staring at the Kun Peng bird in fascination, the spacecraft suddenly plummeted.

"What happened?! The spaceship malfunctioned?"

“Is the plane going to crash?!”

Bang!

The huge spaceship crashed into the deep sea, causing huge waves.

The new students swayed left and right with the ship’s turbulence. When they stabilized themselves, they heard someone shouting, “Look, we’re in the deep sea!”

Yu Huang turned her head to look out the window and realized that they were indeed sailing in the deep sea.

Outside the window, the coral sea swayed with the sea. Groups of marine fish swam past the window. Sunlight refracted from the sea into the deep sea, making the deep sea seem like another world.

Even the knowledgeable Yu Huang was like a country bumpkin entering the city at this moment. She was stunned by the Divine Realm Academy’s extravagance.

She sighed with emotion. “How extravagant.”

Who would dare to believe that there was even an ocean in the Divine Realm Academy’s independent space?!

No wonder Divine Realm Academy would recruit students like Feng Si.. The expenses were so great, so how could they get money if they didn’t take advantage of others?

Chapter 130: Brother Xiao, Remember Her!

The beautiful scenery of the deep sea was rare to see. Yu Huang was also somewhat fascinated.

Suddenly, she saw a pair of dark golden eyes appear from the dark sea.

The moment she saw those eyes, Yu Huang immediately felt her body freeze.

She couldn’t move, couldn’t even blink her eyes.

What was that thing?!

The thing was getting closer and closer. Just as Yu Huang thought that it would hit the spaceship, it turned around and swam in another direction.

It swam far away, and only then did Yu Huang see the original form of the owner of those eyes.

It was an ancient alligator that was as big as a small mountain!

Yu Huang stared at the alligator’s tail and had a bold guess. Could this ancient alligator be the dean’s beast form?

It was said that when a Beast Tamer’s cultivation level reached the level of Prime Master, their beast form could leave their host and become a unique individual. Some could even take human form.

The dean's beast form was an ancient alligator, and alligators loved water the most. So this sea was actually built for this ancient alligator?

This was the first time Yu Huang had seen such a massive and powerful beast form. For a moment, her heart rate increased.

Feng Si saw that Yu Huang's forehead was covered in sweat and that she was still motionless, as if she had a nightmare. He hurriedly pulled Yu Huang's sleeve and asked her, "Little Yu, what's wrong?"

Yu Huang could finally move.

She looked at Feng Si with a baffled expression and asked him, "Didn't you see it?"

Feng Si was stunned. "What?" What should he see?

When Yu Huang saw that Feng Si didn't seem to be lying, she realized that she was the only one who had seen the ancient alligator.

Why was that?

"I'm fine. My reaction speed is slow. I only feel that a plane crash is scary now."

"Your reaction speed is too slow."

The spaceship sailed in the deep sea for more than an hour before reaching the shore.

After the new students went ashore, they stood by the beach with confused expressions.

What should they do next?

At this moment, the forest suddenly swayed without wind. Following that, a black shadow flew out from the forest.

That person stood in the sky and was also wearing the uniform of the Divine Realm Academy.

From afar, the new students could only see the person's silhouette, but they could not see his appearance.

However, as a Purifying Spirit Master, Yu Huang could see the person's face clearly as well as the black fountain pen in his pocket.

Sheng Xiao!

After she recognized that person, the corners of Yu Huang's mouth instantly curled up.

Sheng Xiao stood in the air. He stared at the confused children on the beach and smiled coldly.

"The welcoming ceremony for the new students has officially begun!"

After Sheng Xiao finished speaking, ten more figures flew out of the forest and stood behind him.

Seeing this, Yu Huang and the other new students were dumbfounded.

"What is this?"

Feng Si had long heard his siblings discuss the perverse rules of the Divine Realm Academy. He told Yu Huang, "The so-called welcoming ceremony for the new students refers to the welcoming ceremony held for the new students by the school's top 10 students and the academy's disciplinary officer the day before the official start of school."

Yu Huang looked at Sheng Xiao and the others' imposing aura. They did not seem like they were welcoming them.

"How will they welcome us?"

Feng Si did not know either. "I don't know."

At that moment, Sheng Xiao suddenly slapped the top of the freshman's head. The spiritual energy turned into a detailed competition notice.

The so-called welcome ceremony was:"

[A new cadet regiment composed of 600 new students challenging the 10 student delegation selected by the academy.

The performance of the new students in the challenger league would become the standard for the new students to be divided into classes.

The top three students in the challenge will also spar with the disciplinary officer. Those who perform best will receive additional rewards.

600 freshmen versus 10 upperclassmen student representatives.

Exciting!

Yu Huang licked her red lips. Her hands began to itch, and she began to feel tempted.

After the other new students finished reading the competition rules, they all rushed to say."

"Senior, if six hundred of us freshmen fight ten of you, isn't that bullying?"

"If we injure you guys, you guys can't make things difficult for us in the future!"

"Hahaha!"

These new students were all 'young geniuses' from their hometown. The geniuses all thought of themselves as the most impressive. They looked at everyone as their underlings.

They obviously knew that the 10 student representatives were very powerful, but no matter how powerful they were, they only had 10 people, while their own camp had a total of 600 people.

Could they not defeat ten of them?

Upon hearing these arrogant words, the representatives laughed.

A man with a head of red hair laughed loudly and said in a clear voice, "Little cuties, I can swear to you that if we are injured or crippled by you, we will definitely not make things difficult for you!"

After receiving his promise, an arrogant youth walked out from the freshmen.

He cupped his fists and said, "Seniors, I'm Liuli Feng. Sorry!"

With that, the male youth summoned his beast form. It was a pair of lethal scissors.

Seeing this youth's beast form, the red-haired man was somewhat surprised. "Huh, there's actually a pure battle type beast tamer among this batch of new students!"

Beast forms were divided into battle beast forms, assist beast forms, and healing beast forms. Battle beast forms were divided into animal battle beast forms, plant battle beast form, and weapon battle beast forms.

The weapon battle beast form was often praised as a pure battle beast form. This was a very rare beast form. This type of beast form was generally quite ferocious.

The youth naturally knew how special his beast form was. Like a small leader, he shouted at the new students behind him, "Students, what are you waiting for? Summon your beast forms and let's fight it out with them!"

All the new students' were invigorated by the youth's angry roar. All of them summoned their beast forms at once and entered battle mode.

Seeing that everyone had released their beast forms, Feng Si hesitated for a long time before gritting his teeth and releasing his beast form.

The moment the butterfly appeared, it immediately attracted the attention of the two females in the sky.

"What a beautiful butterfly!"

Sheng Xiao looked at the butterfly when he heard his companion's compliment.

He did not see what the butterfly looked like, but he saw Yu Huang, who was beside the young man.

The girl stood quietly in the crowd with a calm gaze. She was completely different from the excited new students around her.

Sheng Xiao's mind went blank when he saw her.

Yu Huang sensed that Sheng Xiao was looking at her. She smiled and blew him a kiss.

Sheng Xiao was stunned.

Beside him, the arrogant red-haired young man happened to see this scene as well. He widened his eyes and exclaimed, "Damn, there's a girl among the new students who's so bold to send our Brother Xiao a flying kiss!"

"Bro Xiao, hurry! Write her a note!"

Sheng Xiao was indifferent.. It was as if he did not hear him. He turned to the female student on his right and said, "Yin Rong, the battle has begun!"
