

She Shocks 211

Chapter 211 When A Bird's Nest Is Overturned, No Egg Can Remain Intact.

The Grand State Master, more than anyone else, hoped that this was all an error in his calculations.

But he knew better than anyone that his deduction would not be wrong.

He said, "I've been practicing divination for almost a thousand years. My calculations have never been wrong. I wish more than anyone that my calculations were wrong. However, I've repeatedly deduced and calculated countless times. However, every time, the future of the Holy Spirit Continent will be cut off six years later!"

The Grand State Master raised his head and stared at Yu Huang with a burning gaze. He said in a deep voice, "And you are the only unforeseen factor that I found after hundreds of calculations."

Under the mask, Yu Huang frowned.

She did not understand what unforeseen factor she was.

Was it because she was an outsider?

Seeing Yu Huang's confused expression, the Grand State Master told her, "Your fate is very strange. On the day of your full moon celebration, the Prime Master brought you to the Divination Tower to see me..."

That was 20 years ago.

That summer, Yin Mingjue came to the Divination Tower with a baby in his arms and requested to meet the Grand State Master. At that time, Yin Mingjue was already a Prime Master beast tamer.

The Grand State Master and Yin Mingjue were old friends, and the Grand State Master invited them in.

The moment they met, Yin Mingjue took out a bag of red-shell eggs and handed it to the Grand State Master. He said, "Grand State Master, today is my beloved daughter's full moon celebration. This is a full moon egg. Please try it, Grand State Master."

It was the custom of the Divine Moon Kingdom to eat full moon eggs during a full moon banquet.

When a guest ate a full moon egg, it could be considered a blessing to the child. The Grand State Master didn't like eating eggs, but he did eat one that day.

Yin Mingjue was especially happy to see the Grand State Master eat the full moon egg. He handed the infant daughter to the Grand State Master and said to him, "My daughter still doesn't have a name. You are a person of virtue and prestige. Please give this child a name."

The Grand State Master stared at the fair and tender baby girl in Yin Mingjue's arms before asking, "What kind of name do you want? What are your hopes for this child?"

Children's names often hid their parents' hopes for them.

Yin Mingjue said without thinking, "I don't want her to become a dragon or phoenix. I just want this child to grow up healthy and safe."

Nodding his head, the Grand State Master stared at Yu Huang's face.

Coincidentally, at this moment, the soundly sleeping Yu Huang woke up.

That pair of round eyes suddenly opened. The Grand State Master could tell that this child had a short lifespan when he saw her eyes. He calculated with his fingers that this child would have a life and death calamity in two months.

Yin Mingjue's only hope for his daughter's name was for her to grow up healthy and safe.

However, this hope had actually become an unrealistic wish.

The Grand State Master pondered for a long time before saying, "Only when a phoenix undergoes nirvana can it be reborn. Why don't we call her Yin Huang?"

Yin Mingjue seemed to have discerned the hidden meaning behind the Grand State Master's words. His expression changed slightly. He wanted to ask for the truth, but he knew that the Grand State Master would never reveal anything. Afraid that he would break the Grand State Master's rules, Yin Mingjue didn't dare to ask further. He said, "It's a good name." The name 'Phoenix' was given to Yu Huang by the Grand State Master himself. Therefore, when Yu Donghai found Yu Huang and brought her to the Prosperous Capital, he did not dare to change her name. He was afraid that if the name changed, Yu Huang's providence would change as well.

When he recalled this past, the Grand State Master also felt rather emotional. "I named you 'Phoenix' because I hoped that you would have a tenacious and unyielding character. Even if the future is fraught with danger, I hope that you can endure the hardship and be reborn."

"But a name is just a code name, a kind of hope. It can't change anything. But I didn't expect you to come back to life."

Yu Huang never thought that she would have such a bond with the Grand State Master.

So her name was given to her by the Grand State Master.

However, Yu Huang did not understand how she became the variable that the Grand State Master mentioned.

"Grand State Master, after saying so much, do you really think that I can save the Holy Spirit Continent?" Yu Huang's expression was filled with self-mockery. She believed that she was talented, but she was not arrogant enough to think that she could save the entire world.

Seeing that Yu Huang was full of doubts, the Grand State Master asked her, "You don't believe me?"

Yu Huang shook her head. "No."

"According to my calculations, you're the only person on the continent who possesses the Eternal Eye. You're a natural prophet. Only your eyes can see the past and look towards the future. I can't predict what will happen in the Holy Spirit Continent six years later, but you can!"

At this point, the Grand State Master became visibly agitated.

He grabbed Yu Huang's arm and said with unconcealable excitement, "Child, if we can accurately predict what will happen in the Holy Spirit Continent six years from now, we will be able to find a solution in advance. Then, we will be able to risk our lives to save them!"

"Otherwise, when disaster strikes and we are in a critical situation, we can only wait for death!"

"Child, the Holy Spirit Continent is the hometown that your father risked his life to protect. Do you really have the heart to see the Holy Spirit Continent destroyed? Do you have the heart to see the people on the continent plunged into misery and suffering?" These words were like a 'benevolent saber' hanging high above Yu Huang's head. If she did not nod, it would appear that she was heartless.

Yu Huang's mind was in a mess, and her consciousness was also disoriented. She looked at the Grand State Master, and her lips opened and closed again. This happened several times, but she was still unable to make a decision.

"I... I'm a little torn. Please let me go back and think it over."

Hearing this, the Grand State Master was somewhat disappointed. "Child, are you going to reject me?"

Yu Huang pursed her lips tightly and remained silent.

The Grand State Master sighed. "Don't you want to know what happened behind the Time Gate? Don't you want to know what happened to your father back then?"

"When a bird's nest is overturned, no egg can remain intact. Think about your family, your friends, and your boyfriend! Yu Huang, do you really have the heart to see this world destroyed in one day, see the Holy Spirit Continent flow with rivers of blood, and piles of corpses?"

The Grand State Master's repeated questions made Yu Huang feel suffocated. Yu Huang immediately felt as if she had returned to the doomsday era.

It was as if she had become the ultimate inspector again, taking on the heavy responsibility of protecting humanity.

"Give me a little more time to think about it." Yu Huang calmly looked at the Grand State Master and said, "Don't force me."

The Grand State Master looked at her deeply and finally nodded his head. "This time, don't make me wait too long. You can wait, but not the Holy Spirit Continent."

Yu Huang nodded. She picked up Yu Huang and was about to leave.

When she stood up, she heard the Grand State Master say, "There is a holy spring in the royal palace of the Light Sea's Elven race. The holy water in it is the most nourishing thing for all demon beasts and spirit pets. You can collect more holy water for Yu Huang to drink. It might be effective."

Yu Huang paused. She turned back to look at the Grand State Master and thanked him sincerely, "Thank you, Grand State Master."

After she left the Divination Tower and returned to the Purifying Spirit Academy, Yu Huang was filled with worry all along the way.

Sensing her return, Lin Jiansheng arrived at the main door of the Purifying Spirit Academy early to wait for her. When he saw her return with Yu Huang, he asked, "Where did you go?"

Yu Huang seemed to have not heard his words and her reaction was a little slow. After a long time, she finally called out, "Mentor."

Lin Jiansheng frowned. "Why are you so distracted? Who did you meet?"

Yu Huang gradually came back to her senses. She shook her head and said, "I met the Grand State Master."

Lin Jiansheng was shocked. "The Grand State Master?"

Lin Jiansheng glanced in the direction of the Imperial City and saw a man in a gorgeous brocade robe standing on the Divination Building in the distance. Lin Jiansheng hurriedly bowed in that direction.

When the Grand State Master turned around and returned to his room, Lin Jiansheng then stood up and lowered her head to ask Yu Huang, "Why is the Grand State Master looking for you?"

Yu Huang said, "He's snatching your disciple from you."

Lin Jiansheng's expression instantly darkened. "As the Grand State Master, how could he do such a bad thing! What's going on? Tell me in detail when you get into the car."

They were going to the space station and drove Yu Huang's off-road vehicle.

Lin Jiansheng opened the car door at the back and sat inside. She couldn't wait to ask, "The Grand State Master knows that you're a Super Beast Form S Class Beast Tamer, so he wants to take you in as his disciple and impart his skills to you?"

Yu Huang shook her head and explained in a low voice, "No, he wants to teach me divination."

Lin Jiansheng was shocked. "Divination?" He stared at Yu Huang for a moment before asking in surprise, "You're also skilled in divination?"

"I'm not proficient, but my eyes can see the past and foresee the future." Yu Huang touched her eyes and lowered her head. "The Grand State Master said that my eyes are the Eternal Eye."

Lin Jiansheng gasped.

Yu Huang focused on the road in front of her. Without turning back, she asked, "Mentor, what is the Eternal Eye?"

Shocked, Lin Jiansheng said nothing for a long time. "Let me process it..."

Yu Huang didn't pursue the matter.

When they arrived at the space station, Yu Huang stopped the car. Just as she was about to get off the car, she heard Lin Jiansheng say, "Some people say that the Eternal Eye is the eye of the Heavens. If time is a winding river, the Eternal Eye is the sun on this river. It knows what has happened and what will happen." Hearing that, Yu Huang turned back to look at Lin Jiansheng. "Is it that powerful?"

Lin Jiansheng stared into Yu Huang's eyes. Those brown eyes were clear and bright, and they were shimmering. They looked just like a pair of ordinary eyes. No matter how he looked at it, it didn't seem to be the Eternal Eye. However, the Grand State Master's judgment would not be wrong. Yu Huang told Lin Jiansheng, "The Grand State Master told me that a calamity will happen in the Holy Spirit Continent."

Lin Jiansheng let out a long sigh and said, "The Grand State Master is right. The Eternal Eye will only appear in times of chaos. The Heavens is merciful and can't bear to see a world completely destroyed, so it will leave an Eternal Eye in the human world. Ah Huang, if the Grand State Master wants to take you as his disciple, you have to agree."

Yu Huang was a little shocked. She said to Lin Jiansheng, "But I've already acknowledged you as my mentor."

However, Lin Jiansheng said, "But us cultivators should be concerned about the common people of the world. At this time, don't worry about these small matters."

Chapter 212 Embarrassing

When she heard this, Yu Huang suddenly realized that there was a selfless Prime Master in everyone's hearts. Their hearts were tied to all the living beings in the world, and if necessary, they would sacrifice their lives for righteousness. It had already become the faith of cultivators.

And she was not as broad-minded as the Grand State Master and her mentor.

She always treated herself as an outsider from another world, but she forgot that from the moment she decided to embark on the path of cultivation, she had already become one with this world.

When a bird's nest was overturned, no egg would remain intact. With the world in chaos, no one could stay out of it.

She was the one who was feeling timid.

"Mentor, I understand what to do."

After returning to the Prosperous Capital from the spatial teleportation station, Yu Huang followed Lin Jiansheng back to the Purifying Spirit Academy.

She had her own break room in the Purifying Spirit Academy. Yu Huang placed Yu Huang on the carpet beside the bed and covered it with a thin blanket. Yu Huang quickly fell asleep. Only then did Yu Huang walk to the desk and sit down.

She twisted open the pen and wrote something on a piece of pale yellow paper.

Yu Huang folded the piece of paper into a heart shape and threw it out the window. The piece of paper transformed into a red light and flew towards the Divination Tower in the Imperial City.

In a short while, the light beam arrived at the Imperial City.

In the night, a tall figure stood under the eaves of the top floor of the Divination Tower. When he saw the red light beam flying towards the capital, the Grand State Master reached out his right hand and held the ball of light

The light landed on his palm before transforming into a heart-shaped letter.

The Grand State Master opened the letter and saw the words,

[Everyone has responsibility for the rise and fall of the world. Although I am weak, I am willing to save the Holy Spirit Continent with the Grand State Master. When the Cong Lang Mystic Realm competition is over, I will definitely head to the capital personally to pay my respects to the Grand State Master.]

After receiving the reply, the Grand State Master finally smiled.

A dark light flashed in his eyes, and the letter in his hand instantly turned to ashes.

“Yu Huang, I’ll wait for you.”

After finishing the letter, Yu Huang took out the red elm tree and used her Spiritual Force to expedite its birth. Only then did she sit down and focus on cultivating.

The spiritual energy in the Purifying Spirit Academy was denser than anywhere else. Yu Huang was unwilling to sleep every time she came to the Purifying Spirit Academy.

ca

In the middle of the night, Yu Huang woke up once. She was awakened by hunger.

Yu Huang had no teeth, and Yu Huang could only feed him minced meat and mashed vegetables. Yu Huang ate some food and its condition improved, but it still could not muster up any energy. Yu Huang remembered that two years ago, when she went to the Lou Lan Ancient Pavilion, she had once set up a stall with her mentor to sell homemade pots. At that time, an elf girl brought two drops of holy water from the Light Sea and exchanged it with her for a homemade pot.

Yu Huang took out all the small items in the necklace’s storage and finally found a small pale golden bottle.

The small bottle contained two pearls, and each pearl contained a drop of holy water.

This thing was very precious, but Yu Huang didn’t care.

She took out a pearl and poked it open with a sharp needle, then squeezed all the holy water inside the pearl into Yu Huang’s mouth. As soon as Yu Huang tasted the sweetness, it quickly stuck out its tongue and sucked the pearl shell in Yu Huang’s hand into its mouth before swallowing it.

Yu Huang was only relieved when she saw that Yu Huang didn’t choke.

After drinking a drop of holy water, Yu Huang’s energy clearly improved. When she saw that this holy water was really effective for Yu Huang, Yu Huang instantly felt at ease. Later on, when Yu Huang cultivated, Yu Huang obediently laid on Yu Huang’s legs and stared at her with its round eyes.

The next day, Lin Jiansheng held a class in the cultivation hall and sent someone to call Yu Huang to attend the class. Yu Huang was very clingy to Yu Huang. When it saw that Yu Huang was about to leave, it grabbed Yu Huang’s skirt and insisted on going with her.

Yu Huang could not resist its charm, so she carried Yu Huang to the Cultivation Hall.

Lin Jiansheng personally taught and all the disciples of the Purifying Spirit Academy came to the Cultivation Hall.

Lin Jiansheng saw that Yu Huang had come with her. He raised his eyebrows slightly and was about to reprimand Yu Huang when Yu Huang suddenly jumped out of Yu Huang's arms and landed in Lin Jiansheng's arms. It even grabbed Lin Jiansheng's long robe tightly with its two claws.

Lin Jiansheng was speechless. "Waah..." Yu Huang climbed onto Lin Jiansheng's shoulder and licked his cheeks.

Under everyone's gazes, Lin Jiansheng blushed from being licked.

"Ahem!" Lin Jiansheng coughed but did not chase Yu Huang away. He said, "Sit tight and get ready for class!"

Yu Huang and the other disciples sat on the ground.

In front of Lin Jiansheng was a deformed level 2 demon beast. From the looks of it, it should be a lop rabbit, but it only had one ear.

"This is a lop rabbit. What we need to do is cleanse it and improve its purity."

Lin Jiansheng opened the cage and released the lop rabbit.

As soon as the lop rabbit walked out of the cage, Yu Huang jumped off Lin Jiansheng's shoulder. It pressed its buttocks on the waist of the lop rabbit and quickly reached out his claws to press on the head of the lop rabbit. It even swaggered towards Lin Jiansheng while letting out cries of praise.

Yu Huang thought that Lin Jiansheng was going to play the rabbit-catching game with him.

Lin Jiansheng was speechless. The disciples could not help but snicker.

the lop rabbit in the cage.

Yu Huang climbed onto Lin Jiansheng's shoulder again and refused to leave.

Spirit pets all had a favorable impression of people with pure hearts. Lin Jiansheng was a Level 8 Purifying Spirit Master. Although he was mischevious, he was actually very pure-hearted.

Yu Huang loved this burly man with a rough appearance but a sensitive heart. Lin Jiansheng could not refuse Yu Huang's adorableness. Thus, throughout the class, Yu Huang and Lin Jiansheng were inseparable.

"The Purifying Spirit Incantation is eternal, but the effects of the Purifying Spirit Technique are related to the cultivation level and temperament of the Purifying Spirit Master. Everyone needs to remember one thing. When you purify living beings, you need to have a pious heart."

"Because every bit of energy we receive comes from nature. Only by reveling in nature can we receive nature's gift."

Everyone nodded.

“Next, I’ll demonstrate the key to the use of the Purifying Spirit Technique for everyone.” After saying that, Lin Jiansheng used his telekinesis to hold the moving earlobe in place.

The lop rabbit raised its head obediently and its two red eyes met Lin Jiansheng’s.

At this moment, the two of them established Soul Guide.

The next second, Lin Jiansheng’s expression became solemn. He began to chant the Spirit Purification Incantation softly. As the incantation sounded, Yu Huang saw wisps of natural power come to the Cultivation Hall from the natural world. They tunneled into Lin Jiansheng’s scepter and transformed into silvery-white telekinesis that were sent into the lop rabbit’s body. Soon, everyone noticed a change in the rabbit’s body.

The single ear on its head slowly moved to the right of its head. Then, the fur on the left head moved slightly, and a furry ear grew out.

This was the power of a Purifying Spirit Master.

Everyone applauded and showed Lin Jiansheng plenty of respect.

Lin Jiansheng stroked Yu Huang’s back and called Yu Huang’s name. “Yu Huang, come and try.”

Yu Huang hurriedly stood up from the crowd and walked to Lin Jiansheng’s side.

The attendant brought over a glass cage, and inside, there was a three-legged lizard. Lin Jiansheng said, “This is just an ordinary lizard. It lost a leg due to a congenital malformation. Come and give it a try.”

Yu Huang chuckled. She stared at the scepter in Lin Jiansheng’s right hand and couldn’t help but ask, “Mentor, can you lend me your scepter?”

She had been coveting Lin Jiansheng’s scepter for a long time.

Lin Jiansheng snorted. “What do you think?”

Yu Huang instantly became obedient.

Lin Jiansheng told her, “Close your eyes and think about the lizard’s original form in your heart. With a pious heart, please pray that nature will bestow you strength.” “Okay.”

Yu Huang closed her eyes and summoned her telekinesis ball. She then used her telekinesis to link up with the lizard before chanting the Purifying Spirit Incantation with a pious mind.

After she chanted for a moment, some weak natural force really appeared in the Cultivation Hall. They entered the Psychic Ball and, under the effects of the Purifying Spirit Incantation, turned into pure psychic force that was sent into the lizard’s body.

Yu Huang thought about the appearance of a lizard. But for some reason, she thought about Sheng Xiao’s Black Qing Sky Dragon.

Ten minutes later, the lizard’s body started to change.

But...

The lizard's fourth leg didn't grow out, but a pair of horns grew out of its head.

It looked like a dragon horn.

Lin Jiansheng frowned. When Yu Huang opened her eyes, he picked up the lizard's horn and handed it to Yu Huang. She scolded her angrily, "What are you thinking about?! I told you to meditate on the lizard's appearance, not Sheng Xiao's little black dragon!" She was thinking about men in class. This child was hopeless.

Yu Huang's face blushed from the scolding.

She also knew that she had done something wrong. She buried her head deep and said softly, "I won't dare to do it again."

Lin Jiansheng threw the lizard into Yu Huang's arms angrily. "Get lost, you're embarrassing yourself!" failure. This was the first time he had seen a creature change its breed with a spirit cleansing technique.

Chapter 213 Sheng Xiao

After being reprimanded by Lin Jiansheng in front of everyone, Yu Huang felt a little ashamed. She carried the lizard back to her seat and listened to the class obediently.

After Lin Jiansheng finished teaching, the surrounding disciples immediately gathered around Yu Huang

"Yu Huang, is this really a dragon horn?"

As the President of the Prosperous Capital's Purifying Spirit Academy branch, the entire branch's Purifying Spirit Masters were considered his in-name disciples. Of course, only Yu Huang was his personal disciple.

Therefore, Yu Huang became their junior.

Yu Huang placed the lizard on the ground and nodded with a complicated expression.

"Can you lend it to us?"

"Sure."

So they started discussing the lizard

"So that's how Black Qing Sky Dragon's dragon horn looks like. Even though it's a bit small, it still looks very mighty."

"I really want to see how heroic the Black Qing Sky Dragon is."

Suddenly, someone asked Yu Huang, "Yu Huang, can you purify this lizard into the form of a Black Qing Sky Dragon? It can also be mini."

Yu Huang looked at that person as if she was looking at an idiot. Then, she rescued the lizard from under their hands, held the lizard's dragon horn, and left the Cultivation Hall.

Yu Huang walked to Lin Jiansheng's waiting room.

Lin Jiansheng was feeding Yu Huang and even said, "I will feed you."

Yu Huang laid listlessly on the table. When the minced meat was fed to it, it stuck out its tongue and licked it lazily.

Lin Jiansheng sensed that this little fellow did not like to eat meat. He frowned and said, "You don't even like meat. What do you want to eat?" Why was it so troublesome to rear a spirit pet?

Yu Huang leaned against the door frame and looked at it for a while before knocking on the door to attract Lin Jiansheng's attention.

Lin Jiansheng put down the bowl filled with minced meat and asked Yu Huang with a fierce expression, "You came at the right time. Come and take a look. Is Yu Huang sick? I fed him minced meat, but he doesn't seem to like it." Yu Huang walked to the table and reached out to rub the soft flesh on the back of Yu Huang's neck. She told Lin Jiansheng, "Yu Huang's body can't take it anymore. It's already too old. If you want to treat it, you can only feed it the holy water of the Light Sea."

"Holy water? That's too extravagant." Holy water was indeed a good thing, but this thing was too precious. Typical Beast Tamers would only be willing to spend money to buy a few drops to nourish their bodies when they were seriously injured.

"I have no choice. Yu Huang is too weak."

Yu Huang took out the last drop of holy water from her interspatial ring. She poked through the pearl's shell and squeezed the holy water into Yu Huang's mouth. Yu Huang quickly rolled up its tongue and drank the holy water completely. It even stared at the pearl shell in Yu Huang's hand with a hungry gaze. However, Yu Huang did not feed the pearl shell to it.

Lin Jiansheng said in anguish, "A thousand spirit stones are gone just like that." It was not even this costly to rear a Gold Swallowing Beast.

Yu Huang didn't feel any distress.

She took out all her savings and handed it to Lin Jiansheng. "I will be quite busy after returning to the academy. I'm afraid I don't have the energy to take care of Yu Huang. All my savings are here. You have a lot of connections. Help me buy more holy water to feed Yu Huang."

Lin Jiansheng held the card and looked at Yu Huang helplessly. "Are you planning to keep raising it like this?"

Yu Huang sighed. She bent down and picked up Yu Huang's thin body. Then, she said, "Yu Huang has suffered greatly by following me. I can't watch him die like this. Money and spirit stones can be earned again, but Yu Huang only has one life."

Lin Jiansheng nodded and said, "You're right. Let's keep raising it like this." After helping Yu Huang find a husband, Yu Huang could finally cultivate the Purifying Spirit Art in peace.

In the afternoon, she expedited the red elm tree's birth and purified the little lizard again.

After her morning lesson, Yu Huang did not dare to be distracted when she was cleaning the little lizard. She was afraid that she would purify the little lizard into another species.

Fortunately, her hard work paid off. Yu Huang successfully purified the little lizard's fourth leg, but the pair of dragon horns on its forehead was unable to be purified.

Yu Huang was somewhat dejected. She stared at the little lizard for a moment. Then, she took out her phone and took a photo of the little lizard. She sent the photo to Sheng Xiao and asked, "Look, what creature is this?"

Sheng Xiao replied quickly. [... Lizard? Or some new species?]

Yu Huang suppressed her laughter and replied, 'It was originally a three-legged lizard. When I tried to purify its spirit for the first time, I was distracted. I thought of your black shirt and it caused this little lizard to purify a pair of dragon horns.'

Sheng Xiao was speechless.

He sat alone on the desert and stared at the message for a long time before laughing softly.

Sheng Xiao called Yu Huang.

Yu Huang hurriedly picked up the video call. Seeing that there was no tree at all, Yu Huang asked him, "Where are you?" "The Tamur Desert."

The Tamur Desert was the most famous desert in the Holy Spirit Continent. It was a place where not a single blade of grass grew. It was said that even camels would die if they entered it.

Yu Huang asked him, "Why are you going there?"

"The central tower has a total of 99 levels. Each level is a completely different world. It's said that the 98th level is the desert world. I came here to train."

By familiarizing himself with the desert environment in advance, it would be easier for him to enter the Central Pagoda.

"I see." Yu Huang saw that the light was so strong that she could not see Sheng Xiao's face clearly. She said, "Take an umbrella and cover your face. Otherwise, I won't be able to see your face."

"Okay." Sheng Xiao took out an umbrella from his interspatial ring and raised it above his head. The light was blocked a little, and Sheng Xiao's face became clearer on the screen. After months of training outside, Sheng Xiao's face had become more chiseled. His fair and handsome face had been tanned. There was a pair of dark eyes in his deep-set eyes that looked sharp and piercing. Sheng Xiao looked even more manly. Yu Huang stared at Sheng Xiao for a while before looking away. She swallowed hard.

Sheng Xiao did not notice her small movements. He smiled as soon as he spoke. His laughter reached Yu Huang's ears through the receiver on the phone, and it made her heart skip a beat. "It's not good to miss classes."

Yu Huang picked up her cup and took a sip of cold water before replying calmly, "I miss you too much." Her frankness surprised Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao blinked and comforted her. "I'll be back in half a month at most." The Central Pagoda Breakthrough Ceremony was coming soon, and it was time for Sheng Xiao to return to the academy.

Yu Huang asked, "How much longer will it be until the tower challenge?"

"A month." The Central Pagoda challenge was held every five years. Each time, it was held in the middle of August, and this year was no exception. "Alright, I'll wait for you."

"Okay."

Sheng Xiao heard something chirping. It sounded very pleasant. He asked, "What are you hiding there? I hear voices."

"It's a Companion Beast!"

Yu Huang put down her phone and got off the bed to grab Yu Huang.

She walked far away and her entire body appeared in the camera. It was only then that Sheng Xiao realized that Yu Huang was wearing a long sapphire blue dress today. Her long hair was draped behind her shoulders. As she walked, her back looked noble and enchanting.

Sheng Xiao looked at it again. A moment later, Yu Huang returned to the camera with Yu Huang.

The last time Sheng Xiao saw a Companion Beast was 20 years ago. He had no impression of it. Sheng Xiao asked, "Is this a Companion Beast? Where did you get it?"

He remembered that in the entire Holy Spirit Continent, only the Yin family had one Companion Beast.

Yu Huang laid on the bed with Yu Huang in her arms. She held Yu Huang in her arms and stroked his fur from time to time. She told Sheng Xiao in detail what happened in the Yin family yesterday.

After knowing that this Companion Beast was the Yin family's Companion Beast, Sheng Xiao sighed. "It is said that this Companion Beast was captured by the selfless Prime Master from the Upper World. I heard that the Companion Beasts are the same as the auspicious beasts. They are formed by the purest spiritual power in the world. They are very humane and are only close to people who are kind."

Yu Huang sighed and said, "The Prime Master must have doted on his daughter very much." "Of course." Sheng Xiao's smile disappeared at the mention of the young master of the Yin family. He looked at Yu Huang, who was in Yu Huang's arms. Naturally, he realized that Yu Huang was not in good spirits. "Is this Companion Beast sick?" "It's not sick. It's because it misses the Little Master too much and has no teeth that its health has become very poor, and it doesn't have much time left. Now, it can only use the holy water of the Light Sea to sustain its life."

Sheng Xiao suddenly said, "I have a bottle of holy water from the Light Sea. I'll send it to you later."

"Where is it from?"

Sheng Xiao explained, "I fought with the prince of the Elf Race. He lost and compensated me with a bottle of holy water."

Yu Huang immediately carried Yu Huang and said to the camera, "Yu Huang, thank Daddy quickly!"

Yu Huang chirped.

Sheng Xiao smiled. "I'm the father. Are you the mother?"

"I'm the older sister," Yu Huang said without thinking

Sheng Xiao's smile disappeared immediately. He stared at Yu Huang sternly and said, "Yu Huang, call me brother-in-law."

Yu Huang froze.

"Ignore him. He's crazy." Yu Huang thought that Sheng Xiao was crazy. She hung up immediately.

Sheng Xiao was stunned when he saw that Yu Huang had really hung up. He touched his nose and looked back at the endless desert. Then, he walked deeper into the desert.

After dark, Yu Huang returned home.

Yu Donghai knew that she was coming back and prepared food in advance.

Yu Huang pressed the doorbell and waited for half a minute before she heard Yu Donghai running over to open the door.

The door opened from the inside. Yu Huang raised her head and shouted with a smile, "Father!" After she shouted, Yu Huang finally saw Yu Donghai's appearance clearly. She was instantly shocked.

S

was

"Father, what's wrong with your face?"

The Yu Donghai in front of her looked a little different from before. Although he was still the same person, there were many wrinkles on his face. He looked older and more dispirited.

But a few months ago, during their video chat, Yu Donghai clearly looked much younger than he was now.

Yu Donghai pulled Yu Huang into the room and said, "Someone's investigating me."

Yu Huang was slightly stunned. "They're from the Yin Clan?"

"I'm not sure. You're famous now. There must be many people who want to investigate your family background. No matter who it is, I can't let them discover my identity. It's always right to be careful, so I specially wore a human skin mask."

OL

After Yu Donghai put on the human skin mask, he didn't look like himself at all. Presumably, even Yin Mingchong would be unable to discover his true identity when he stood in front of Yu Donghai.

However, Yu Huang felt that it was most likely Yin Mingchong's doing. Yin Mingchong had taken out Yu Huang yesterday with the intention of testing Yu Huang. Yin Mingchong had suspected her since a long time ago and would definitely send someone to investigate her family background.

Chapter 214 Passionate

"Father, why don't you return to the Divine Realm Academy with me?" Yu Huang was worried that Yu Donghai's life would be in danger. Moreover, she couldn't always stay by Yu Donghai's side and protect him.

"There's no need," Yu Donghai said. "I'm only an ordinary person now. Yin Mingchong doesn't dare to make a move on me. The rules of the Beast Tamer Alliance have weight. If Yin Mingchong dares to make a move on me, he will be punished by the Beast Tamer Alliance."

Yu Donghai became an ordinary person, he would be more safe instead.

"But he can use someone else to attack you."

"I don't think so." Yu Donghai told Yu Huang, "Since yesterday afternoon, I noticed that the people in charge of supervising me have disappeared. I think your performance in the Yin Clan eliminated Yin Mingchong's doubts. They received the news and have already left." Yu Huang still didn't dare let her guard down when she heard this.

After dinner, Yu Huang drew a new weapon design plan overnight and sent the design plan to Mo Yuelou's email.

It was a radar detector that could be invisible underwater.

When Mo Yuelou received the email, he immediately contacted Yu Huang on social media and said to Yu Huang, "Professor Night Owl, the design drafts have been received. Name a price."

Although he had long known Yu Huang's real identity, Mo Yuelou still called Yu Huang Professor Night Owl out of habit.

After Yu Huang sent the design plans, she opened her social media app and waited for Mo Yuelou to contact her.

Yu Huang saw the message just as it was sent over. She replied: [I'll give you the design draft, but I have a request.] Yu Huang's identity as a Dual Cultivator had long been spread throughout the entire Holy Spirit Continent. Mo Yuelou naturally knew about it as well. Now, he was extremely glad that he had become friends with Yu Huang long ago and had established good relations with Yu Huang before everyone else.

Seeing that Yu Huang had something to ask, Mo Yuelou didn't hesitate and immediately replied: (Professor Night Owl, please speak.)

Yu Huang said, "Because of my identity, someone has been secretly investigating my adoptive father recently."

Yu Huang was a Beast Tamer with S-level potential of the Super Beast form and was also a Purifying Spirit Master. Her status as a dual cultivator brought endless hope to the Divine Moon Empire. Naturally, her existence posed a threat to other countries.

In such a situation, it was inevitable that enemy spies would secretly use special methods.

Thinking that there was a spy from an enemy country who wanted to harm Yu Huang's adoptive father, Mo Yuelou's expression changed. He hurriedly said, "I'll send people to the Prosperous Capital to protect your father immediately!"

However, Yu Huang said, "I have an idea."

Mo Yuelou said, "Professor Night Owl, please speak."

Yu Huang said, "My father is a good cook. I think that His Highness might still lack a chef in the army."

Mo Yuelou understood Yu Huang's meaning. He picked up the coffee on the desk and took a sip, then his lips curled into a smile. By inviting Professor Night Owl's father to his army as a chef, he would be giving Professor Night Owl a favor and winning her over as well.

This was really... killing two birds with one stone!

Mo Yuelou could not find a reason to refuse.

Mo Yuelou said, "My army happens to be lacking a chef. I'll send someone to pick your father up tomorrow." Yu Huang said, "Thank you." The two of them chatted for a while more before Yu Huang turned off the computer.

At dawn, Yu Huang knocked on Yu Donghai's room door and urged Yu Donghai to get up and pack his things.

Yu Donghai opened the door and asked with a puzzled expression, "Where do you want me to pack my things and go?"

Yu Huang said, "Go to the prince's army."

Yu Donghai hurriedly shook his head and said, "No, no, my legs are disabled. I can't fight anymore."

Yu Huang said with a smile, "Go cook."

Yu Donghai was speechless.

He actually wanted to fight on the battlefield more.

He understood that Yu Huang had made such an arrangement for the sake of protecting his safety. Yu Donghai naturally wouldn't refuse. As he packed his things, he said worriedly, "That alms bowl chicken store's lease hasn't expired yet. Everyone likes the alms bowl chicken I made. If I leave, those children won't have any alms bowl chicken."

Yu Huang was at a loss. She walked over to help Yu Donghai fold his clothes and said, "If you go to the army to be a cook for all the officers, won't you feel more accomplished?"

Yu Donghai thought about it and felt that what Yu Huang said made sense. Only then did he beam with joy.

As soon as they packed their things, Mo Yuelou's guards arrived at their door.

The officer knocked on the door. Yu Huang walked over and opened the door. The officer immediately bowed to Yu Huang. "Your Excellency, the Prince has sent me to pick up your father to serve in the army!"

With that, the officer took out the appointment token and Mo Yuelou's identity token.

After Yu Huang confirmed his identity, she carried her luggage and personally escorted Yu Donghai onto the military vehicle.

After sending Yu Donghai off, Yu Huang returned to the Purifying Spirit Academy.

She had spent half a month in the Purifying Spirit Academy and had been scolded by Lin Jiansheng many times. She had learned a lot.

On the day that the red elm tree roots sprouted, Yu Huang would be setting off to return to the Divine Realm Academy.

After putting the things away, Yu Huang played with Feng Yu for a while longer before going to say goodbye to Lin Jiansheng.

Lin Jiansheng was personally cooking for Yu Huang. The ingredients were the expensive Deep Sea Yellow Dragon Fish.

Such a fish would be sold for tens of thousands of yuan each.

Since he was a Level 8 Purifying Spirit Master, the association would send Lin Jiansheng a batch of daily necessities every month. There were thirty such fish every month. He couldn't bear to eat it himself and fed it all to Yu Huang

"Mentor, I'm going back to the college today."

Lin Jiansheng waved her hand impatiently and said, "Hurry up and leave. Don't stand here and block my light. It'll affect my ability to pick fish bones."

There were thorns in the Yellow Dragon Fish's body. Lin Jiansheng would only feed it to Yu Huang after he had removed all the thorns.

Yu Huang felt his annoyance. She smacked her lips and muttered, "You can't even bear to feed me this fish."

Lin Jiansheng sneered. "You're not worth it."

Yu Huang was instantly offended, so much so that she was numb.

"Mentor, I'm really going back to school ah."

"Let's go."

Lin Jiansheng was busy picking fish bones and had no time to bother with Yu Huang.

Yu Huang's heart ached. She carried her bag and left. When she was about to reach the door, Lin Jiansheng suddenly called out to her, "Ah Feng."

Yu Huang, thinking that her mentor would counsel her, turned around happily.

Lin Jiansheng pointed at the plate on the table and said, "Pour the thorns on the plate into the trash can and help me bring the trash bag downstairs."

Yu Huang was speechless.

Yu Huang carried the trash bag downstairs and threw the trash into the trash can before hurriedly leaving the Purifying Spirit Academy.

As soon as she got on the plane, she received a WeChat message from Lin Jiansheng. Yu Huang opened it. It was all pictures of Yu Huang.

Yu Huang sighed and turned off her phone before closing her eyes to rest.

After a long journey, Yu Huang finally returned to the Divine Realm Academy.

wy.

When Yu Huang returned to school, Sheng Yang and Na Luo had not returned.

The 12th grade seniors were about to graduate. They would participate in the Skysplit Tower challenge ceremony tomorrow. Things were quite frenzied in the academy. The broadcast was also repeatedly broadcasting the things to pay attention to tomorrow. Yu Huang had even memorized it from listening to it so much.

After tidying up, Yu Huang wanted to take a shower, but she remembered that she had already spent all her points.

Yu Huang ran to the Mission Hall to get two low-level Mission Cards and ran to the back of the mountain to do the mission alone.

She finished her mission and returned to the campus. Before she reached the dormitory, she saw Sheng Xiao standing in front of the door of the female dormitory. He must have just returned and was still wearing his own clothes.

He was wearing a navy blue shirt and black pants. As he stood in the dark, he seemed to blend into the night.

Sheng Xiao looked up at Yu Huang's dormitory. It was dark inside. He thought that Yu Huang was asleep, so he planned to look for her tomorrow morning. But when he turned around, he saw Yu Huang in a disheveled state.

Yu Huang was wearing the school uniform of an academy. There were a few mud footprints of demon beasts on the uniform. Her legs, which were exposed under her leather pants, were stained with demon beast feces, and it smelled a little... smelly.

She did not expect the reunion to be so awkward.

Even Yu Huang felt embarrassed herself. She explained, "I just went to do a mission."

Sheng Xiao teased her. "Are you going to the fecal drain to get some gold?"

Yu Huang was angry. She pushed Sheng Xiao away and wanted to go back to the dormitory.

Sheng Xiao grabbed her wrist. "Aren't you going to invite me to your dormitory?"

Yu Huang sneered. She did not reject Sheng Xiao's request. "Follow me."

Most of the freshmen were still out on missions. There was not much people in the female dormitory during this period of time.

The dormitory building was very quiet, and for a moment, only their footsteps could be heard.

When they reached the third floor, Sheng Xiao suddenly held Yu Huang's hand.

Yu Huang stopped and rolled her eyes at him. She said mockingly, "Senior Sheng, I just went to the feces pit to dig. Don't you find it smelly?"

Sheng Xiao chuckled. "No."

Yu Huang wanted to shake his hand off, but she did not succeed. The two of them walked to the sixth floor hand in hand. It was only when Yu Huang took out her key to open the door when Sheng Xiao let go of her.

After opening the door, Yu Huang turned on the light in the living room and said to Sheng Xiao, "Sit. If you want to drink water, you can use your points. I got my points from digging feces. It's not easy." Sheng Xiao pressed his forehead and chuckled as he leaned against the tea table. "You can't get over this, can you?"

Yu Huang snorted coldly.

She really smelled terrible. She had to shower.

Yu Huang quickly unbuttoned her suit jacket and took it off in front of Sheng Xiao, revealing her negligee.

The negligee was extremely thin, and he could clearly see her underwear.

Sheng Xiao gulped and quickly looked away.

The dormitory was very quiet. Yu Huang heard him and suddenly turned to look at Sheng Xiao. "Why are you swallowing your saliva?"

Sheng Xiao said, "I'm thirsty."

"Is that so?" Yu Huang suddenly walked to Sheng Xiao and pushed him against the wall.

Yu Huang pressed his shoulder against the wall. Sheng Xiao thought that Yu Huang was going to fight. He was even prepared to be beaten up.

However, Yu Huang made a bold move.

She pressed Sheng Xiao's shoulder with her right hand so that he could not move. She grabbed the back of his head with her left hand and forced him to lower his head. Then, she raised her head and kissed him on the lips.

Sheng Xiao widened his eyes.

Yu Huang's kiss was passionate.

Just like what Sheng Xiao had said in the letter

May the day of our reunion be the day you give me a passionate kiss. After all, I miss you like crazy.

But Sheng Xiao was not the only one who felt a sense of yearning.

Chapter 215 I Will Be Jealous

Sheng Xiao was shocked when Yu Huang kissed him suddenly.

Yu Huang found Sheng Xiao's reaction hilarious. She thought about how dirty and smelly she was and that it was not a good time to tease Sheng Xiao. She quickly pushed Sheng Xiao away and turned to go to the bathroom.

Before Sheng Xiao could savor the kiss, Yu Huang had already run into the bathroom.

Sheng Xiao sat on the sofa in the living room of their dormitory. He listened to the sound of running water in the bathroom. His heart was beating wildly.

Yu Huang took a long shower. She even washed her hair. When she came out of the shower, Sheng Xiao had fallen asleep on the sofa.

Yu Huang tiptoed back to her room and got a thin blanket to cover Sheng Xiao with. As soon as she approached him, he opened his eyes.

A cold light flashed across his eyes. When he saw that it was Yu Huang, the wariness in Sheng Xiao's eyes disappeared.

The girl in front of her was only wrapped in a towel. Her hair was wrapped in a towel and she had yet to put on her mask.

Sheng Xiao stared at Yu Huang's face for a while. Then, he suddenly grabbed Yu Huang's arm and pulled her into his arms. Yu Huang sat on his thigh and did not dare to move. She could not move either.

"What are you doing?"

Sheng Xiao leaned his head against Yu Huang's neck and sniffed hard. He smelled a rose scent. He said, "The shower gel you use smells good."

Yu Huang pushed Sheng Xiao's forehead and said, "Get up. Don't be a hooligan."

"No." Sheng Xiao opened his mouth and bit her on purpose.

Yu Huang grunted.

Sheng Xiao froze when he heard her snort.

“Stop.” Sheng Xiao sounded angry. Yu Huang: “I can’t help it.” This was the first time she had been bitten like this. Her body was sensitive.

Sheng Xiao felt unwell. His rationality told him that pushing Yu Huang away was the right thing to do now. But he could not bear to do it.

“Don’t move. Let me hug you for a while.” Sheng Xiao, afraid that Yu Huang would notice his change, did not dare to move.

Yu Huang suddenly laughed.

Sheng Xiao asked, “What are you laughing at?”.

“You’re aroused.”

Sheng Xiao whispered into her neck, “You’re my girlfriend. Isn’t it normal for me to be aroused?”

Yu Huang suddenly started laughing.

“Let me help you calm down.” Then, Yu Huang held Sheng Xiao’s face so that he could look at her face. She said, “When you feel that you’re going to lose control, look at my face. Look, this face is so ugly. You won’t be able to feel aroused.”

Although Yu Huang was not a man, she was human.

Everyone loved beauty.

Her face was so ugly that it could calm a man down more than ice water. Yu Huang believed that Sheng Xiao would calm down soon.

Sheng Xiao stared at Yu Huang’s face.

A minute later, Sheng Xiao did not react.

Two minutes later, Sheng Xiao still did not react.

Three minutes later, his reaction was getting stronger. Yu Huang blinked and said innocently, “Why isn’t it working...”

“It’s useless. I’m immune to your face.” Sheng Xiao stared at Yu Huang’s red lips and said, “Don’t talk. I get more aroused every time your mouth moves.”

Yu Huang was annoyed. “Get lost!” She pushed Sheng Xiao away and stood up. “I think you’ve been single for more than twenty years, so you can’t hold back anymore.”

Yu Huang went to her room barefooted. Sheng Xiao heard her blow dry her hair. After a moment, the sound of the electric wind stopped. Yu Huang did not come out, and it was unknown what she was doing inside.

A while later, Yu Huang opened the door. She crossed her arms and asked Sheng Xiao, “Do you want to sleep on the sofa or Yang Yang’s bed?”

Sheng Xiao did not hear what she was asking. His attention was on Yu Huang.

Yu Huang was wearing a light green lace nightgown. She leaned against the door frame. Her figure was seductive, but her gaze was pure. To a girl, this was just an ordinary nightgown, but to Sheng Xiao, it made him go crazy with lust.

Sheng Xiao pressed his forehead with his hand and sighed. "Are you seducing me?" Yu Huang was slightly surprised. She had no intention of seducing Sheng Xiao. If she really wanted to seduce him, why would she wear any clothes?!

"Little friend, don't be too dirty-minded." Yu Huang grabbed the door handle and said to Sheng Xiao, "You can sleep on Yang Yang's bed." Then, she closed the door and fell asleep.

Sheng Xiao sat on the sofa alone for more than half an hour before returning to Sheng Yang's room to sleep.

The next morning, Yu Huang got up and changed her clothes. When she opened the door and walked out, Sheng Xiao was already waiting for her on the sofa in the living room.

Seeing the dark circles under Sheng Xiao's eyes, Yu Huang asked, "Where did you go last night?"

Sheng Xiao glared at her but said nothing.

Yu Huang shrugged and said, "Oh, you must have dreamed of me."

Sheng Xiao blushed. "Shut up."

Yu Huang was also dressed very sexily today. She wore a white chest wrap and a loose-fitting denim jacket. Her work attire and pants were tucked into her combat boots, revealing her thin and fair waist.

Yu Huang had a good figure. She was sexy and seductive. Anyone would steal a few glances at her when she was dressed like this. Sheng Xiao frowned and pointed at her waist. "Can't you wear something longer?"

Yu Huang subconsciously said, "If I wear long clothes, who can still see my waist?" Her waist was so thin and the cleavage was so sexy. It would be a pity not to show it.

Yu Huang twirled her point card with her finger. "Let's go eat breakfast."

Sheng Xiao stood up but did not follow her out. Instead, he walked into her room, opened her closet, and picked out a loose T-shirt.

Yu Huang was opening the door of the dormitory with her back facing Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao suddenly pounced on her from behind. He lifted Yu Huang's knee and lifted her on his right arm. Then, he carried her to the sofa with one hand.

Sheng Xiao had a lot of strength in his arms. Yu Huang was just a small toy to him.

Bang!

Yu Huang was thrown onto the sofa by Sheng Xiao. She laid on the sofa. Before she could react, Sheng Xiao took off her coat.

Yu Huang was shocked. She clutched her chest and shouted, "Sheng Xiao, don't do anything stupid!"

She thought that Sheng Xiao was going to do her.

"Stop arguing." Sheng Xiao glared at her. Then, he picked up the T-shirt on the sofa and quickly put it on Yu Huang's head.

Yu Huang was speechless.

All he did was change her clothes.

She was prepared to lose her virginity this morning "Don't walk around in such a revealing outfit in the future." Sheng Xiao looked down at her and said softly, "I'll be jealous."

Yu Huang touched her slightly hot earlobe and said, "I really like to wear revealing clothes. I bought a lot of revealing clothes. You can't be so bossy."

"... You can wear them for me to see."

Yu Huang pulled the hem of her shirt and sat up. She placed one hand on Sheng Xiao's shoulder and blew into his ear with her ear. She teased him, "But I prefer not to wear clothes in front of you."

Sheng Xiao's heart skipped a beat.

Damn, she was teasing him again!

Sheng Xiao shrugged and shook Yu Huang away mercilessly. "Don't be rash. If you continue to mess around, both of us won't get out of this dormitory today."

Sheng Xiao looked at Yu Huang meaningfully. "After all, I've been single for more than twenty years and I'm a hooligan with dirty thoughts."

Yu Huang chuckled without end.

She thought to herself, You've only been single for more than twenty years. I've been single for more than two hundred years!

Chapter 216 The Veteran Couple

The two of them argued in the room for a while before leaving the dormitory with their point cards and going to the canteen to eat.

Most of the lower grade students were still outside doing missions. As for the 12th grade seniors, they were going to Skysplit Tower today. At this time, there was almost no one in the canteen.

The canteen had prepared exquisite and rich dishes for the graduates today. However, Yu Huang and the others arrived late and there was not much left. When they reached the canteen, Sheng Xiao took out his point card to buy breakfast. He thought of something and said, "I'm going to graduate soon. I still have a lot of points left. From today onwards, you can use my points."

Yu Huang asked him, "Is this considered cheating?"

After all, the college adopted the points system to urge the students to work hard in their cultivation. With Sheng Xiao as a cheat, Yu Huang did not have to do any missions anymore. She could just lie down and live comfortably for a few years. Sheng Xiao thought about it and said, "You're right. After I graduate, I'll go and charge my point card."

Yu Huang felt distressed again. "Don't, just give it to me. The next time I enter seclusion, I'll spend your points and go to the 18th level." Sheng Xiao smiled. "Okay."

Although there was not much breakfast left, it was enough for the two of them to eat.

After breakfast, the two of them left the Divine Realm Academy on a bird and went to Skysplit Tower.

At this time, outside Skysplit Tower, all the students had gathered. They wore the academy's battle uniforms, and as far as the eye could see, they were all pale blue.

In the sky, professors of all grades and departments were present. Even the dean, who had been in seclusion for a year, had come out. Seeing the door of Skysplit Tower open from the inside, the prospective graduates thought that this was a sign that the tower challenge ceremony was about to begin. They gripped their weapons and prepared to enter.

They all tiptoed towards the entrance of Skysplit Tower.

Two tall and straight figures walked out of the tower side by side. The young man on the left was handsome, and the young woman on the right was charming. The two of them were really a match made in heaven when they stood together. Liuli Luoluo pursed her lips. "Why is Senior Sheng back?"

"Yu Huang completed the mission so quickly?"

In the sky, the dean also noticed Yu Huang. He hurriedly waved at Yu Huang, and his eyes flashed with light, as if he was very happy.

Yu Huang rolled her eyes and soared into the sky to stand in front of the Dean. She took the initiative to hand the pot of red elm tree roots that had successfully sprouted to the dean.

When the dean saw the little sapling, his eyes lit up even more. "This is the red elm tree root?" The dean deliberately teased Yu Huang. "It can't be a tree root you casually dug up from the side of the road, right?"

Yu Huang was so angry that she laughed.

"Dean, if you don't believe me, you can send someone to the Yin family to ask."

How could the dean not know what happened in the Yin Clan a few days ago? He was teasing Yu Huang on purpose just now. With a wave of his hand, the red elm tree root was stored into the interspatial ring by the dean. "Well done. Congratulations on successfully being promoted to the second grade."

Yu Huang returned to Sheng Xiao's side after she was done with her mission. She watched the competition with Sheng Xiao. Yu Huang noticed that there were a few unmanned planes flying in the sky. She pointed at the helicopter above her and asked Sheng Xiao, “Is that a television station shooting?”

“It’s the staff of the Beast Tamer Alliance’s website. Every year, the Graduation and Pagoda Breakthrough Ceremony of the Divine Realm Academy is a major event that is watched by everyone. The staff of the website will record it on the spot and send it to the website for all the Beast Tamers and Purifying Spirit Masters to watch.”

Yu Huang had never browsed the Beast Tamer Alliance’s website before and was free. She said, “I’ll download the website and take a look.”

Very quickly, Yu Huang downloaded the app on the website.

When they got the Beast Tamer ID, the staff had registered an account for Yu Huang’s website. Yu Huang could just log in.

However, she did not know that when every Beast Tamer used the website for the first time, the website would announce this news on the world channel through a loudspeaker.

(World): Ding dong ~ Scholar Yu Huang has officially joined the Beast Tamer Alliance’s website. Hurry up and follow her and be friends with her!

(World): Ding dong ~ Level 2 Purifying Spirit Master Yu Huang has officially joined the Beast Tamer Alliance website. Hurry up and follow her and be friends with her.

When they saw this message, the lively World Channel suddenly quietened down.

Immediately after, everyone started flooding the screen

(Blazing Realm Continent – Jiang Suwen): Damn! Yu Huang? The only dual cultivator in the continent!

[Xixia Sea-Katrina]: Wow, Yu Huang finally joined the website. I have my eyes on this cool lady.

(Divine Realm Continent-Yin Rong]: Welcome, Yu Huang, to the Beast Tamer Alliance’s website. Everyone, hurry up and flirt with her!

[Divine Realm Continent – Sheng Xiao]: Don’t flirt with her @ Divine Realm Continent – Yin Rong.

The world channel fell silent again when they heard Sheng Xiao’s words.

Then, the tempo of the comments became even more crazy

(1st floor): God, Sheng Xiao is here. Arrest him and take a photo with him!

[2nd floor): I heard that big shot is in a relationship with Yu Huang. Is the news reliable? Brothers and sisters of the Divine Realm Academy, the big shot is really with Yu Huang?

(Third floor): The once in a ten thousand year big shot Sheng Xiao appeared for Yu Huang. This is love.

[4th floor): Both of them appeared at the same time, so it is reasonable to suspect that they are together.

Sheng Xiao did not reply to those messages anymore. He saw that Yu Huang had forwarded the message on the website's notice board and she did not notice the messages. He reached out to Yu Huang and said, "Give me your phone."

Yu Huang did not suspect him and handed the phone to Sheng Xiao. Sheng Xiao added himself to Yu Huang's account first. Then, he made Yu Huang's information invisible and closed her friend request window. Then, he deleted all the friend requests that were not reviewed.

Of course, Yu Huang was watching from the side when Sheng Xiao did all of this.

Seeing that he had even closed the friend request window, Yu Huang could not help but find it funny. "What are you doing? It's just adding friends. Do you have to do this?"

Sheng Xiao returned the phone to Yu Huang and told her sternly, "You're still young. You should focus on cultivation and learning. Don't get addicted to the internet." Yu Huang scoffed. "Still young? When you pressed me down on the sofa and kissed me this morning, why didn't you think I was young..."

Sheng Xiao covered Yu Huang's mouth.

Only then did Yu Huang realize that the professors around them were looking at them with a teasing gaze. She had forgotten that these beast tamers had much better hearing than ordinary people. Although her voice was not loud, it was enough for them to hear her.

Thinking of this, Yu Huang blushed.

Sheng Xiao felt shy too. Seeing that they were both feeling shy, the professors chuckled and looked down.

Sheng Xiao let go of Yu Huang's hand and said, "Don't say such things in public anymore."

Yu Huang did not need Sheng Xiao's reminder. She had said something wrong in a moment of carelessness.

Yu Huang quickly lowered her head to look at the app. Sure enough, she found the live broadcast of the Skysplit Tower's challenge ceremony. She entered the live broadcast and found her and Sheng Xiao.

Many young beast tamers were gathered in this live broadcast room. There were even people who placed bets on how many people from Divine Realm Academy would successfully pass the 99th level this year.

Yu Huang was not interested in their bet. She exited the live-stream and realized that there was a leisure section on the website.

Everyone liked to read gossip, and Yu Huang was no exception.

Yu Huang opened the board in the leisure section and what entered her eyes was a popular and captivating thread-(Dig up the daily life of the big shot couple in Divine Realm Academy]

Yu Huang clicked on it out of curiosity and saw an introduction that gave her goosebumps.

He was the heaven's chosen one, the only successor of the S clan. He awakened his beast form at the age of nine, entered the Divine Realm Academy at the age of 12, broke through to the cultivation level of a Master at the age of 20, and broke through to the cultivation level of a Supreme Master at the age of 25. He was the number one genius on the continent!

She was originally a superstar in the entertainment industry. Because of the fire, she was disfigured and fell to rock bottom! Everyone thought that she had fallen into obscurity, but they did not know that she had long been reborn!

She was a Super Beast State awakened, an S-class Potential combatant! She was also an extremely talented Purifying Spirit Master! Sparks of love flew between the two big shots and they became the famous big shot couple of the Divine Realm Academy.

Next, let me reveal their love life.

Note: It's enough to see the big shot and his wife's daily lovey-dovey moments everyday. Don't dig deep into my alternate identity. If I fall, you guys won't get any juicy gossip anymore.

Yu Huang was speechless.

No matter how stupid she was, she knew that the thread was about her and Sheng Xiao. Besides, she was not stupid. Yu Huang patiently looked down and saw "He appeared in the Mission Hall like a god and grabbed Yin Y's whip. With a gentle tug, he pulled Yin Y to the ground and wailed non-stop. He walked forward, grabbed her waist, and pressed her into his arms. He lowered his head and comforted her softly in her ear." Don't be afraid, Huang'er. With me around, no one will dare to bully you!"

She was extremely touched and sobbed softly in his arms. "Senior, I'm so afraid. They all bully me."

His cold gaze swept across everyone and landed on the jerk Xuanyuan J. His expression instantly darkened as he warned the other party, "Xuanyuan J, no matter what your relationship with Huang'er was in the past, she's my woman now. How dare you covet my woman!"

Yu Huang was speechless.

She broke out in goosebumps.

Chapter 217 The Academy Is Full of Hidden Masters

Although she had indeed had a conflict with Yin Ya in the Mission Hall and Sheng Xiao had indeed appeared to punish Yin Ya, they did not hug each other, and Sheng Xiao did not say those mushy words to her.

Huang'er?!

Return my woman to me?!

Yu Huang rubbed the goosebumps on her arms and quickly turned off her phone. She turned to ask Sheng Xiao, "Do you know who wrote this post? Is there something wrong with this person's head? What is this crap?"

Sheng Xiao had noticed the post a long time ago. His father was the president of the Beast Tamer Alliance. He could check the real information of every user at will. Sheng Xiao knew the identity of the person who posted the post.

“You know this person.”

Yu Huang raised her eyebrows. “Who?”

Sheng Xiao’s expression became complicated. He said, “Yin Rong.”

Yu Huang blinked and thought she had heard wrongly. “Senior Yin Rong? That’s impossible, right?” She, Senior Yin Rong, was such a gentle girl. How could she write something like this?

Sheng Xiao said, “You will never know what kind of monster a person is just from their appearance.”

Yin Rong, for example, looked gentle and intellectual. No one would be able to guess that she was a cultist who was into shipping couples. Sheng Xiao, for example, looked like a cold and reserved disciplinary officer, but was actually a lecherous pervert who would fantasize about Yu Huang whenever he saw her stomach.

Yu Huang stared at Sheng Xiao for a while and nodded. “Yes, otherwise, why would there be such a saying like ‘don’t judge a book by its cover’?”

Seeing the dean stand up, Yu Huang quickly shut her mouth.

Sheng Xiao said, “The tower challenge ceremony is about to begin.”

The dean appeared on the top of Skysplit Tower in a flash.

He was dressed simply today.

The old man was wearing a thin, open-necked shirt with a pair of loose black pants. He was wearing a pair of black handmade cloth shoes as he stood on the top of the tower. He did not have the aura of a super big shot and looked no different from an old man playing chess in the park.

Seeing the dean appear, the prospective graduates immediately stopped talking and looked up at the amiable dean with respectful gazes.

The director smiled and his eyes narrowed.

Staring at the young and high-spirited faces beneath him, the dean’s smile subconsciously widened, and his eyes looked even smaller. “Children, some of you have already challenged the pagoda for the third time. I wish you all the best this year and that you guys graduate smoothly!”

Hearing this, some of the students who had stayed behind consecutively lowered their heads in shame. This time, if they failed to clear the tower, they would be expelled.

How disappointing!

“Children, I still remember how vigorous you all were when you first entered the academy. When I saw you, I saw the hope of the Holy Spirit Continent. Now, the young eagles have already grown up. It’s time for you to spread your wings and soar into the sky.”

After a pause, the dean shouted, “May we never see each other again next year!”

All the students felt their blood boil when they heard this. They shouted loudly, “We won’t see each other again after today!”

The President heard their roars and couldn't help but feel relieved. "I announce that the graduation and tower challenge ceremony of Skysplit Tower has officially begun!"

After speaking, the tightly shut door of Skysplit Tower rumbled open.

Yu Huang lowered her eyes and looked inside the door. She saw dozens of men and women standing side by side inside the door. Some of them were wearing the canteen uniforms of the Divine Realm Academy, while others were wearing the uniforms of the academy's health workers.

In short, they were all the staff members that could be seen everywhere in the academy.

Yu Huang opened her mouth wide when she saw that. She heard Sheng Xiao explaining things to her. "The employees who work in the Divine Realm Academy, including the workers who sweep the floor, are all outstanding students who have successfully reached the 90th floor of the Skysplit Tower."

Yu Huang nodded and said, "I know. Mentor has explained it to me." However, even though she had heard it, she was still shocked when she saw those people who usually carried brooms and swept the floor transform into soldiers.

At this time, more than 600 prospective graduates ran into Skysplit Tower together. When the last student ran into the tower, the door of Skysplit Tower was instantly closed.

Night lights instantly lit up the dark tower. The students opened their eyes and were stunned when they saw the middle-aged men and women holding shovels and brooms in the center. "Uncle Lin!"

"Auntie Su!"

"Soy milk lady!"

Familiar names blurted out from their mouths.

But no one told them that the staff of the academy were all Beast Tamers, and this was the first challenge they would face when they challenged Skysplit Tower!

The uncle, who was standing in the center with a trash can in his hand, chuckled and said, "Children, are you very surprised? Hehe, come at me! I won't show any mercy!"

With that, he threw the trash can in his hand into the sky, and the trash can instantly turned into a four-eyed golden lion.

The lion stood above everyone's head and roared, "Roar!"

When the lion roared in anger, everyone trembled.

The students were shocked.

"Uncle Lin is actually a Supreme Master!"

Only a Beast Tamer who was a Supreme Master could change his beast form freely.

The surprise was yet to come.

Under the stunned gazes of the students, the other people also summoned their beast forms.

“Aunt Su is Supreme Master!”

“The soymilk lady is also a Supreme Master!”

“Oh my God, how many big shots are there in our school?!”

As core disciples of the six major cultivation families, Liuli Luoluo and Xuanyuan Chen clearly knew about this long ago. After all, some of their elders had graduated from the Divine Realm Academy. Before they entered the school, their elders had reminded them

Never underestimate any staff member in the academy, even if it was an inconspicuous cat. Because you would never know whether what was hidden under the cat’s skin was an animal or a Grand Master expert!

However, even though they knew, they would still be shocked and in disbelief if they really saw the old woman who usually wielded a spatula transform into a Beast Tamer.

After they came to their senses, Liuli Luoluo and Xuanyuan Chen exchanged glances.

Xuanyuan Chen nodded at her and said, “Fight!”

Liuli Luoluo immediately shouted, “Students, this is only our first hurdle. We have to work together to break through their defenses!”

“That’s right!”

Xuanyuan Chen immediately summoned his Demon Slayer and roared, “Attack!”

“Attack!”

Immediately, more than 600 beams of light of various colors lit up within the pagoda, and the entire pagoda instantly became multicolored.

A great chaotic battle began!

The chaotic battle in the tower had already been projected into the sky through the projection screen.

Yu Huang sat cross-legged beside Sheng Xiao. She looked up at the image in the sky and felt her blood boiling. She wished she could pull out her knife and break into the tower to join Xuanyuan Chen’s battle.

Sheng Xiao could feel Yu Huang’s excitement. He patted her head and said, “If you go to the tower now, you won’t live past the 30th floor.”

Yu Huang rolled her eyes at him. “Shut up!”

The chaotic battle lasted for more than ten minutes. Many prospective graduates were already injured.

There were a total of 695 students who had been approved. More than 100 of them had been retained for the retest because they had failed the graduation assessment. A portion of the students who had entered the academy in the same year as Xuanyuan Chen had been expelled for various reasons.

Of the 695 beast tamers, there were close to 500 Monarch Masters, and the rest were all at the peak of the late-stage Scholar realm. Among them, Liuli Luoluo and Xuanyuan Chen had both reached the mid-stage Master Realm.

Logically speaking, the ability to approve graduates was considered formidable, but when they faced the 30 faculty members of the academy, they still found it troublesome.

It seemed like the cultivation gap between grades was really difficult to overcome.

This chaotic battle lasted for nearly half an hour.

Everyone passed the first level!

After entering the second level, they would have to face 50 level 4 demon beasts, and this time, Anna and the department head of the Breeding Department were the commanders of the demon beasts.

“Anna!” When Yu Huang saw Anna’s figure on the projection screen, she was truly shocked.

Sheng Xiao noticed Anna too. A mirthful look flashed across his eyes as he said to Yu Huang, “It seems that your friend has found her rightful place.”

“She’s so awesome!”

On the second floor, Anna stood in the middle of a group of demon beasts with a bamboo flute in her hand.

The sound of a bamboo flute could be heard. Under her command, the demon beasts at the outermost circle launched the first round of attacks at the students. The sound of the bamboo flute was weak, and the demon beasts at the outer circle quickly retreated to the back to rest while the demon beasts in the inner circle charged forward.

Seeing this, the dean stroked his small beard and pointed at the figure of the little girl on the projection screen. “This child is quite interesting. She can actually command these demon beasts to fight tirelessly. Who is this child? What grade is she in? We can nurture her!”

Professor Mu hurriedly said, “This child’s background is rather complicated. I’ll tell you in detail after the test is over.”

“Sure.”

Chapter 218 Sheng Xiao, Don’t Learn From Her

Rank 4 Demon Beasts were equivalent to Master-level Beast Tamers. Moreover, Demon Beasts had a ruthlessness that showed that they were not afraid of death. If 50 Demon Beasts used their full strength in a tag-team battle, it would be enough to deal with these students.

But they were, after all, a large camp composed of more than 500 Masters. They quickly worked together to break through the demon beasts’ defenses and arrived at the third level.

The higher one went, the more difficult the test was.

When the light of the clearing tower reached the 28th floor, two male students were forced to stop the test because they were too injured and were sent out of the tower.

After that, people left one after another.

When they reached the 59th floor, more than 80 students were successively teleported out. Including the students who had been eliminated previously, there were 183 students who had failed to pass the tower graduation test this year.

Of these, 103 were the first batch of rookies to participate in the tower challenge. There were 55 people who failed the tower challenge last year and stayed behind to challenge the tower twice.

The remaining 25 people were those who had failed to pass the test for three consecutive years. Most of them were at the peak of the late-stage Scholar Realm. It was very likely that they would never be able to break through to the Master Realm in their lives.

Of these 25 people, the youngest entered the Divine Realm Academy at 14 years old. He was already 30 years old. The oldest was called Meng Yinghao. He entered the Divine Realm Academy at 13 years old. To date, he was already 39 years old.

His qualifications were not good. On the way from the first year to the 12th grade, he stayed behind for many times.

After failing again, Meng Yinghao's expression was sorrowful.

"I failed again! I can't graduate!" After working hard for 20 years, he ultimately failed to obtain the graduation badge of the Divine Realm Academy. Meng Yinghao finally broke down.

He squatted on the ground and covered his face while crying

When Meng Yinghao was young, he was considered a genius. However, after he turned twenty, his cultivation speed slowed down. Even though Meng Yinghao was willing to work hard and could endure hardships, he was unable to break through to the Master Realm.

The dean stood at the top of the tower and stared at Meng Yinghao with a look of pity on his face. There were too many examples like Meng Yinghao in the cultivation world.

Affected by Meng Yinghao, the other 24 students hugged each other and broke down into tears. Yu Huang looked at them and could not help but feel sad.

Beside her, Sheng Xiao said slowly, "I see such a scene every year." He had seen it many times, but he still could not remain aloof.

Looking at the group of people crying, Sheng Xiao suddenly said, "Look at them and then at us. We have the talent and comprehension that they dream of. What right do we have to not work hard?"

Yu Huang tilted her head and stared at Sheng Xiao's profile. She felt that Sheng Xiao was especially charming at that moment. "You're right. We have to work harder."

"Okay."

Soon, someone broke into the 61st floor.

Yu Huang stared at the light on the Skysplit Tower and asked Sheng Xiao, "Do you think anyone can clear Level 99 successfully today?"

Sheng Xiao pursed his lips and shook his head. "I'm not sure."

"Do you wish there was?"

"Of course." Sheng Xiao said, "The students who pass the 99th floor can participate in the Central Pagoda Breakthrough Ceremony with me. I hope that someone can be my partner."

Unfortunately, no one had passed level 99 since Sheng Xiao.

Yu Huang was filled with anticipation. She said, "I think Senior Xuanyuan and Senior Liuli can succeed."

"I hope so."

The tower challenge ceremony began in the morning and did not end until evening. The lights of Skysplit Tower already reached the 97th floor.

The lights on the 97th floor lit up for more than 30 minutes. Two more students were sent out. At this time, a total of 691 students had been eliminated from Skysplit Tower, and only four were still fighting bitterly.

Pa!

Suddenly, the lights on the 98th floor lit up.

"Someone has broken into the 98th level!"

Professor Mu immediately turned on the surveillance cameras on the 98th floor.

The surveillance footage on the first floor was shown on the big screen above their heads.

All the students and professors looked up at the big screen at the same time.

She saw...

Xuanyuan Chen was the first to be teleported to the 98th floor. At this moment, his combat uniform was in tatters and the hair on his head had been burnt into small curls by something that stuck to his scalp.

He looked extremely miserable.

Immediately after, another person was sent in. This time, it was Liuli Luoluo.

Liuli Luoluo was in an even more sorry state than Xuanyuan Chen. Her combat uniform was completely torn and her waist was exposed. Her two collarbones and pale blue underwear were clearly visible under her skin as they trembled slightly with her breathing.

The rope around Liuli Luoluo's head was cut, and her long hair hung on both sides of her shoulders. In her disheveled state, she looked even more charming. The moment she appeared, she shouted at Xuanyuan Chen, "Brother Xuanyuan, give me a piece of clothing!"

Xuanyuan Chen turned around and glanced at her. When he saw the blue undergarment under her tattered clothes, he blushed and he quickly looked away. He took out a large shirt from his interspatial ring and threw it to her.

Liuli Luoluo grabbed the shirt, tore off her tattered combat uniform, and put it on.

Seeing that, Yu Huang raised her eyebrows and praised, "How bold!"

Sheng Xiao snorted. "How promiscuous!" All the women in the Liuli family were like that.

Yu Huang rolled her eyes at him. "What do you know?"

Sheng Xiao did not argue with her. He said, "You can't be like her."

Yu Huang gave him a spurious smile and did not reply. At this time, another man and woman were teleported to the 98th floor. What was surprising was that the man and woman were actually twins. They looked quite similar. They had the same face. The girl appeared gentle and elegant, while the boy appeared handsome and delicate.

The twins were in an even more sorry state than Xuanyuan Chen and Liuli Luoluo. The girl was injured, and there were several knife wounds on her fair arms. The man was also covered in wounds.

Liuli Luoluo saw that the woman's injuries were a little severe and clicked her tongue twice. She casually took out a bottle of hemostatic medicine from her interspatial ring and threw it to her. "Catch! Yin Fang!"

The woman called Yin Fang quickly reached out and grabbed the hemostatic medicine. She cupped her fists at Liuli Luoluo and thanked her before taking the medicine.

Xuanyuan Chen asked the man, "Yin Cong, how are you? Can you still hold on?"

Yin Cong said, "I'm fine. My sister's injuries are more serious."

Yin Fang lifted her uniform and stared at her torn abdomen. She shook her head and said, "I can't get past this floor." Yin Fang looked at her brother and said, "I'll hold on for a while longer and send you up to the 99th floor."

Liuli Luoluo snorted and said, "Yin Fang, this isn't a life and death battle. If you can't hold on, just give up. Don't get yourself killed."

Liuli Luoluo's words sounded very harsh, but Yin Fang knew that she was a woman who was sharp-tongued but soft-hearted. She didn't argue with her. She said, "I'll act according to my ability."

"Okay."

Suddenly, Gold Ingot appeared in front of everyone. When they saw Professor Gold Ingot, their expressions changed and they subconsciously gathered together.

Gold Ingot stared at the miserable appearances of the four people for a while. Then, he stretched out his right hand and raised three fingers.

"Three moves," he said.

The four of them looked at each other.

Liuli Luoluo asked cautiously, "Professor Gold, what do you mean?"

Gold Ingot smiled and said, "Those who can withstand three of my attacks will pass!"

The four people's faces turned pale.

Gold Ingot was a peak late-stage Grand Master Beast Tamer. His beast form was that of a high-level Taotie Beast. In the entire Divine Realm Academy, Gold Ingot was the strongest person besides the dean.

Who could withstand his three moves?

Gold Ingot did not summon his beast form. He just reached out his right hand and made a seal in the void, then mobilized all the spiritual power in his body and gathered it in his right hand.

Under the gazes of Liuli Luoluo and the others, Gold Ingot's right arm suddenly disappeared and turned into a black wormhole. The wormhole looked very small, but it gave off a feeling that its power was boundless and immeasurable. The four of them immediately adjusted their states and faced Gold Ingot's attack in their strongest state.

Gold Ingot growled. "Fury of Taotie!"

The wormhole suddenly released a dark light that spread towards Liuli Luoluo and the others. As the light approached, a powerful suction force pulled the four of them forward.

The four of them mobilized all their spiritual power to barely resist Gold Ingot's power. However, they only lasted for two to three seconds before Yin Fang was the first to be defeated. She spat out a mouthful of blood and was pulled into Gold Ingot's wormhole by the spiritual power.

"Ah!" The other three people crashed into the wall of Skysplit Tower. As they fell to the ground, all of them vomited a mouthful of blood.

At the same time, Yin Fang was sent out of Skysplit Tower. "Ah!" Yin Fang fell to the ground, and her vision went dark from the pain.

Professor Mu quickly went to Yin Fang's side and performed an emergency treatment for her.

Chapter 219 I Wish For You to Win

On the 98th level, the battle was still ongoing.

Liuli Luoluo, Xuanyuan Chen, and Yin Cong staggered to their feet. As soon as they stood up, they saw Gold Ingot merge with his beast form.

The space in the tower could be infinitely enlarged. As soon as the Taotie Beast appeared, it felt as if the entire space was occupied by the other party. And the height of the three of them standing on the ground were not even as tall as the Taotie Beast's knees.

The Taotie Beast's front limbs kicked the ground ten times in a row. With each kick, the color on the Taotie Beast's body became more intense. After ten kicks, the fur on the Taotie Beast's entire body became pitch black, like the deep and mysterious night sky.

The Taotie Beast lowered its head and stared at them quietly with its eyes.

Being stared at by that pair of eyes, the three of them froze. Liuli Luoluo realized that she was unable to mobilize the spiritual power in her body.

She had completely become a lamb waiting to be slaughtered.

Under that pair of beast eyes, Liuli Luoluo and Yin Cong's bodies were slowly frozen.

Soon, Liuli Luoluo realized that all the blood in her body had stopped flowing. Then, her heart stopped beating. Soon, Liu Li Luoluo lost consciousness.

Boom!

Liuli Luoluo and Yin Cong were sent out of Skysplit Tower.

At this moment, Xuanyuan Chen was the only one in the pagoda who was still gritting his teeth and holding on. He lasted for a full fifteen minutes before the cold that had been attacking him non-stop disappeared.

Xuanyuan Chen knelt on the ground and panted heavily. Gold Ingot looked at him in surprise and sighed. "You've improved a lot recently." He was as impressive as Sheng Xiao when he participated in the tower challenge ceremony. Xuanyuan Chen slowly stood up while pressing his chest. After he stabilized himself, he wiped the blood off the corner of his lips and swallowed the taste of blood in his throat. Then, he said in a low voice, "Professor Gold, please enlighten me!"

"Look, isn't the third move coming!?!"

The Taotie Beast twisted its head and opened its ferocious mouth.

"Devouring power!"

Taotie represented greed, gluttony, lust, and power. Gold Ingot inherited the Taotie's gluttonous desire. He did not eat beast tamers, but the mental power of beast tamers.

When Gold Ingot opened its bloody mouth, Xuanyuan Chen could clearly feel his mental strength being devoured bit by bit while he did not even have the strength to fight back. All he could do was push through until it was all over...

"You passed!"

Gold Ingot suddenly regained his human appearance. He stared at Xuanyuan Chen, who had collapsed to the ground. He sighed. "You're not bad. You're as capable as Sheng Xiao was back then."

Xuanyuan Chen was not comforted. Sheng Xiao was only 23 when he challenged the pagoda back then, and he was 29 years old this year. He was far behind Sheng Xiao. After Gold Ingot left, Xuanyuan Chen was sent to the 99th floor.

When Sheng Xiao saw that Xuanyuan Chen had successfully reached the 99th floor, he straightened his posture. It seemed that he was looking forward to Xuanyuan Chen's success. When Xuanyuan Chen appeared on the 99th floor, the projector screen was suddenly turned off.

"Huh? The projector screen is switched off!"

"Can the assessment scenes on the 99th level not be publicized?"

Unable to see the real-time image of the 99th floor, everyone could only stare at the dusky tower lamp on the top of the tower. If someone succeeded in passing the test, the tower lamp would automatically light up.

Xuanyuan Chen opened his eyes and stared at the starry sky above him. It took him a few seconds to realize that he had reached the 99th floor.

Xuanyuan Chen gritted his teeth and climbed up. He did not see the examiner nor did he see any demon beasts. He could not help but feel shocked. What was the 99th level's test?

Suddenly, a light lit up in front of Xuanyuan Chen.

Xuanyuan Chen raised his head and saw an old man with narrowed eyes.

Seeing this, Xuanyuan Chen closed his eyes and almost fainted.

The dean stood in the middle of the tower in rough clothing. When he saw the dejected look on Xuanyuan Chen's face, his smile widened. "Xuanyuan Cheng, the examiner for the 99th floor is me."

Damn it, after sending away a Taotie Beast, he welcomed another narrowed-eyed monster!

The dean gathered an energy ball in his right hand. At the same time, his gray eyes turned into golden eyes. "Mr. Xuanyuan, you will pass if you can withstand two moves from me!"

Xuanyuan Chen's pupils dilated when he heard that. His fingers, which were holding the Demon Slaying Saber, were trembling.

Seeing Xuanyuan Chen's reaction, the dean suddenly sighed.

Hearing this sigh, Xuanyuan Chen raised his head in confusion. He looked at the dean and found that the energy ball in his hand had disappeared. He could not help but feel puzzled.

"Dean..."

The dean saw through his thoughts. He said, "Are you curious why I suddenly stopped attacking you?"

Xuanyuan Chen nodded hesitantly.

The dean said, "That's because you've already lost."

Xuanyuan Chen's eyes widened. "How is that possible?! We haven't even started!" Because he was anxious, Xuanyuan Chen's face flushed with anger. Blood boiled in his throat and a trace of blood trickled down the corner of his lips.

The dean placed his hands behind his back and walked towards Xuanyuan Chen.

Seeing that Xuanyuan Chen refused to admit defeat, the dean suddenly asked an irrelevant question. He said, "Do you know how Sheng Xiao reacted when he appeared on the 99th floor and saw me four years ago?"

Xuanyuan Chen was dazed for a moment before he shook his head and replied honestly, "I don't know."

The dean said, "At that time, his eyes were filled with fighting spirit."

Xuanyuan Chen was stunned.

The dean raised his right hand and gently tapped the space between Xuanyuan Chen's eyebrows. He said, "But when you saw me, there was only despair and discouragement in your eyes."

saw

The dean said earnestly, "Child, you didn't lose to me. You lost to yourself."

Xuanyuan Chen's mind instantly cleared up when he heard this.

"...I..." Xuanyuan Chen lowered his head deeply and said in embarrassment, "I'm ashamed."

Seeing that he understood everything in an instant, the dean was relieved. "Child, you're about to graduate. Let me give you a word of advice."

Xuanyuan Chen hurriedly bowed and said respectfully, "Dean, please speak." The dean placed his hands behind his waist and looked up at the bright starry sky. He said, "Remember, only when you are confident will you be the real victor."

"If you believe that you can fly, you can soar through the starry sky."

"If you believe that you're invincible, you'll be invincible."

Xuanyuan Chen knelt on the ground and kowtowed three times respectfully to the dean. He prostrated on the ground and said with a choked voice, "I, Xuanyuan Chen, will remember your teachings!"

As soon as Xuanyuan Chen finished speaking, he was teleported to the desert.

Sheng Xiao saw Xuanyuan Chen come out. He looked up at the top of the tower. When he saw that the light on the tower was not on, his eyes darkened.

Xuanyuan Chen had actually failed as well.

Xuanyuan Chen stood up and bowed to the professors who had taught him for more than ten years. Then, he strode to Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao quickly stood up. Xuanyuan Chen walked to Sheng Xiao and bowed to him. He said calmly, "I failed. I can't go to the central tower with you. Senior Sheng, I hope you can successfully break into the tower and win glory for the Divine Realm Academy and the Divine Moon Empire!"

Sheng Xiao bowed to her. "Good luck. I hope we can fight side by side in the future."

"Alright!"

The graduation and tower challenge ceremony finally ended and the students returned to the academy.

The graduates who graduated successfully had to stay and participate in the graduation party tomorrow night. The 25 students who failed the test had to leave at dawn.

Yu Huang didn't sleep the entire night. When the sky lit up, she saw the 25 people walk out of the institute with their bags. They stood at the entrance of the institute and kowtowed three times respectfully to the institute. Then, they carried their bags and crossed the iron chain bridge over the Endless River before leaving on a bird.

The dean stood in front of the office window and watched them leave. He only turned around when the bird had flown away.

He was holding a fountain pen in his hand. The pen was of the same design as the one on Sheng Xiao's chest, but the words on the pen were different. The dean touched the word "Jue" on the cap with his thumb repeatedly. His eyes were slightly red.

There was a tall male figure standing in the middle of the office.

Sheng Xiao noticed that the dean's eyes were red and felt helpless.

He had already been in the Divine Realm Academy for 15 years. In his impression, the dean was always smiling. This was the first time he had seen the dean reveal his emotions.

The dean soon calmed down. He waved at Sheng Xiao. "Sheng Xiao, come here."

Sheng Xiao strode to the dean.

The dean placed the fountain pen with the word "Jue" in Sheng Xiao's chest pocket. He pressed Sheng Xiao's shoulders and said, "May it protect you. May you win."

Sheng Xiao nodded. "I will do my best!"

Chapter 220 Drink It, and Be Drunk for Life

After lunch, the students returned to their dorms and closed the door. They hid in their rooms to dress up and prepare for tonight's graduation party.

Sheng Xiao had graduated a long time ago. Sheng Xiao was not invited to the dinner. However, he was the disciplinary officer of the school. He had interacted with the children in the 12th grade for more than ten years, so he was invited to the dinner.

In addition to the Disciplinary Hall, there was also a student union responsible for daily affairs. Each grade had a representative, and the student union representative for the 12th grade was Liuli Luoluo.

Liuli Luoluo sent the invitation letter to Sheng Xiao's dormitory. Sheng Xiao took it and opened it. He closed the letter and asked Liuli Luoluo, "Is bringing a companion allowed?"

Liuli Luoluo tucked her hair behind her ear and puffed out her chest. She said shyly, "I'm sorry, but I have a companion, Senior Sheng."

Sheng Xiao looked up at the scorching sun and laughed mockingly. "The sun is shining on your head. Why are you already dreaming?"

Liuli Luoluo's expression darkened.

"Senior Sheng, you have such a sharp tongue. Why do I feel that you're my prince charming?" Liuli Luoluo was afraid of Sheng Xiao, but she admired him too. She had always treated Sheng Xiao as the most suitable boyfriend candidate all these years, but he had ignored her advances.

She had thought that Sheng Xiao was incapable of love.

In the end, she realized that Sheng Xiao was just incapable of loving her.

He would rather love an ugly little girl than accept her. After Sheng Xiao expressed his affection for Yu Huang, Liuli Luoluo did not do anything to Sheng Xiao anymore. Liuli Luoluo had her pride too. She could not lose her pride after getting rejected.

But since she was about to graduate, Liuli Luoluo finally asked the question that had been hidden in her heart for a long time. "Senior Sheng, how am I inferior to her?"

Liuli Luoluo's family background was better than Yu Huang's. She was more beautiful than Yu Huang and her figure was more sexy than Yu Huang's. Although she hadn't awakened her Super Beast Form, her Advanced Beast Form wasn't bad either.

As for Yu Huang's identity as a Dual Cultivator...

Up until now, Yu Huang was the only one who had appeared in the Holy Spirit Continent.

So, Liuli Luoluo could not understand why Sheng Xiao chose Yu Huang.

Putting aside the fact that Yu Huang's appearance was ruined, the key was that she had an engagement with Xuanyuan Jing. Although Yu Huang and Xuanyuan Jing had already canceled the engagement, Yu Huang was still someone who had been engaged before.

A woman like her was not worthy of Sheng Xiao.

"You're asking me, how are you inferior to her?" Sheng Xiao looked at Liuli Luoluo like she was crazy. He said, "I think you're inferior to her in every way."

The phrase "every way" was especially upsetting for Liuli Luoluo to hear.

Liuli Luoluo's heart was about to break. Tears welled up in her eyes as she asked shyly, "Senior Sheng, are you as sharp-tongued to Yu Huang?"

Sheng Xiao's gaze became strange again. He said, "Can it be the same? Who is she to me? Who are you to me?"

Liuli Luoluo was exasperated.

"You're too mean!"

Liuli Luoluo stomped her feet and her chest heaved. She glared at Sheng Xiao and turned to leave.

Sheng Xiao knew that Liuli Luoluo was sad, but he was indifferent. She was not the person he liked. Whether she was happy or angry had nothing to do with him.

Sheng Xiao had always been alone during the graduation party in the past. But it was different this time. Sheng Xiao was no longer single. Naturally, men who had just joined the dating game wanted to show off their love all the time. Sheng Xiao returned to the dorm with the invitation and called Yu Huang.

Yu Huang hurriedly hung up and found the time to reply to him with a message. She explained: "Professor Edward is showing me around the Purifying Spirit Department. I'll call you back later."

Sheng Xiao raised his eyebrows and did not disturb Yu Huang anymore. He turned around and went to the bathroom to take a shower.

After Sheng Xiao showered and shaved, he received Yu Huang's call. "I'm out." Yu Huang was on the way back from the Purifying Spirit Department to the Beast Tamer Department. She jumped up and plucked a longan from the tree, then kicked it with her combat boots to play.

"Brother Xiao, what are you looking for me for?"

Sheng Xiao put down the razor and said, "There's a graduation party tonight. Are you coming with me?"

"Didn't you graduate a long time ago?"

"I received their invitation." Sheng Xiao placed his phone on the table and opened the medicine box to apply medicine to the wound on the side of his waist. There was a wound on his waist that had been scratched by the demon beast. The bleeding had stopped long ago, but the wound had not healed yet, and one could see his exposed flesh. Sheng Xiao sprinkled the medicine on the wound expressionlessly. Then, he wrapped a bandage around his waist.

Yu Huang said on the phone, "Sure. Do I have to wear a gown?"

A graduation party was a very formal party. Logically speaking, they should wear evening gowns. Sheng Xiao tied a knot on the bandage and said, "If you have it, wear it. If not, you can wear school uniforms." "I do."

"Okay, I'll pick you up tonight."

"Okay."

Yu Huang really had quite a lot of gowns.

When the original owner of the body, Yu Huang, was a celebrity, she had collected many beautiful gowns and accessories. After Yu Rufeng and her husband went to jail, the Yu family's nanny packed Yu Huang's belongings and sent them to Yu Donghai.

When Yu Huang returned this time, she brought those things with her in case of emergencies.

She did not expect it to come in handy so quickly.

When night fell, the graduates walked towards the central lake together.

On this day, everyone was dressed up to the nines.

Sheng Xiao changed into a formal suit. He was wearing a custom-made ink-blue suit and a wine-red satin shirt.

His shirt was very well-tailored. It was buttoned all the way to the top and he did not wear a tie. There was only the Three Lives Stone white collar pin at the collar.

It was Yu Huang's token of love for him. Sheng Xiao had finally gotten the chance to wear it and show off.

The employee dormitory was quite far from Yu Huang's female dormitory. They had to go around the small park behind the central lake. When Sheng Xiao appeared in the park in a gorgeous suit, the graduates' eyes lit up.

"Senior Sheng is in a suit!"

"Can we take pictures secretly?" "Do you dare? Do you want to be imprisoned on the last night of your graduation?"

Hearing that, those restless women immediately gave up on this idea.

Sheng Xiao went to the female dormitory alone. He stood at the door and waited for more than ten minutes before he received Yu Huang's call.

"Brother Xiao, I'm ready. Where are you?"

Sheng Xiao did not answer.

Yu Huang asked in confusion, "Huh? Why aren't you saying anything?" Sheng Xiao suddenly said, "I suddenly realize that I've never called you by your name seriously. Yu Huang is too formal and Ah Feng is too ordinary. What should I call you?"

Yu Huang sneered. "Anyway, you can't call me your wife. It's too early to call me your wife."

If Yu Huang did not mention it, Sheng Xiao would not even think about it. "Yes, it's a little early." He asked again, "What is it called?" "Huang'er?" That was what her father called her.

Sheng Xiao was silent for a moment. Then, he suddenly said, "Are you going to call me father?"

Yu Huang was stunned. Then, Yu Huang held her forehead with her hand and chuckled. "Be serious. Don't tease me." Yu Huang picked up her dinner bag and said, "Call me Wine." "Wine?" Sheng Xiao was shocked. He asked Yu Huang, "What's with this name?" Yu Huang replied frivolously, "I'm good wine. One sip and you'll be drunk for life!"

Sheng Xiao praised, "Good name."

As he spoke, Sheng Xiao heard the sound of high heels clicking on the stairs. He looked up and saw that the light in the fifth floor stairwell was on. Soon, the light in the fourth floor stairwell was on as well. "You're on the fourth floor." "Yes, I'll hang up first."

Yu Huang hung up.

Her skirt was a little long, and she was worried that her high heels would step on the edge of the skirt. Yu Huang held the edge of the skirt and walked very carefully with each step.

In next to no time, Yu Huang appeared in the hall on the first floor of the female dormitory.

Sheng Xiao was looking down at his phone. When he heard the commotion, he looked up at the lobby of the female dormitory.

CMOCY.

With just one look, he was mesmerized.

Yu Huang wore a dark red velvet long dress with a big fishtail design. Coupled with the black high heels, it made her originally sexy body appear even more graceful and enchanting

Her black ponytail, which was always tied up high, was lowered and she even did a slight curl.

The golden phoenix mask covered half of her face. Her lips were rosy, and her eyes were bright. She stood quietly under the dim night light, and she was so beautiful that she made one swoon.

Sheng Xiao suddenly felt that the nickname Wine matched Yu Huang very well.

She was like a type of wine. With a gentle sniff, she would make him mesmerized and smitten. The wine that his mother had brewed her entire life was not as intoxicating as the wine in front of him.

Sheng Xiao suddenly thought, "Fortunately, she's disfigured. Otherwise, who knows how many people would pursue an outstanding and beautiful girl like her?"
