

She Shocks 221

Chapter 221 Dance of Wife Separation

Yu Huang walked to Sheng Xiao with the edge of her dress. She walked around him and asked deliberately, "How is it? Isn't it beautiful?"

The tube top dress was relatively revealing. Yu Huang's collarbone and half her back were exposed. Her fair skin made one's imagination run wild.

Sheng Xiao looked away. He gulped and said, "Yes."

Yu Huang stopped and looked at Sheng Xiao with a smile. When she saw Sheng Xiao with the Three Lives Stone needle pin, her smile became more genuine. "You're very handsome today."

Sheng Xiao raised his eyebrows. "I'm handsome every day."

"You're especially handsome today."

Sheng Xiao was delighted.

Yu Huang held Sheng Xiao's hand and said, "Let's go to the party." "Okay."

Yu Huang walked slower than usual in her high heels. So did Sheng Xiao. "If you can't walk properly, you can put your weight on me."

Sheng Xiao could tell that Yu Huang did not know how to walk in high heels.

Yu Huang chuckled. "You even dare to walk through mountains of knives and seas of fire. What are so difficult about high heels?" She deliberately walked in a catwalk while shaking her hips.

Sheng Xiao could not resist her charm. He said with a straight face, "Walk properly. It's awkward."

Yu Huang laughed gloomily and was finally willing to behave.

When they arrived at the venue, the party had already begun.

The graduates were having a meal. Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang sat at the end of the long dining table.

According to the rules, students who successfully passed the 60th level could graduate. The students who passed the 70th level would receive an outstanding student badge, and the students who passed the 80th level would receive an honorary student badge.

The people responsible for distributing the badges were naturally the dean and vice dean Professor Mu.

The dean cherished tonight's graduation party. He deliberately changed into a black robe and stood on the high platform to put on their honor badges for every student who was named by Professor Mu.

When Yu Huang saw this, she was a little envious. She said longingly, "I hope that when I graduate, the dean can personally award me the honorary student badge."

"That day will come."

There were a total of 60 people who obtained the honorary student badge. These 60 people were recognized as the best among this batch of graduates.

After graduation, Xuanyuan Chen and Liuli Luoluo naturally had to return to their families to serve their families. However, a number of itinerant cultivators with ordinary backgrounds chose to stay in the academy to work.

It was almost nine o'clock when the award ceremony ended.

Next was prom.

Considering that the prom was mainly a fun time for the students, the professors took the opportunity to slip away. The ball was held on Weiyang Lake. There was a small circular square on Weiyang Lake. Every year, during the graduation party, the school would spend money to invite famous music groups and singers to perform.

Before graduating, the student union had done a detailed investigation and compiled the list of celebrities most anticipated by the students. Then, they handed the list to Professor Mu, who stepped forward and invited the celebrities on the list to perform for the Divine Realm Academy

It was common knowledge that every student who graduated from the Divine Realm Academy was an expert from all over. These celebrities were flattered to be liked by this group of beast tamers.

wa

At the gala, they had to maintain their mysterious identity as celebrities and could not afford to offend these beast tamers.

That night, the stars were shining brightly.

The famous singers Lu Jingjing and Su Weige attended the ceremony. They each went on stage to perform a classic song. Next, it was time for this group of graduates to celebrate.

Seeing that everyone was dancing, Sheng Xiao lowered his head and asked Yu Huang, "Do you want to dance?"

Yu Huang shook her head. "Not really." Everyone was busy surviving during the apocalypse. Who would specially learn to dance?

Before Yu Huang became the ultimate monitor, she often participated in gatherings. However, at that time, the despair of the apocalypse enveloped the base. The heavier the atmosphere in the base, the more casually everyone danced.

Back then, people didn't dance tango, waltz, or Latin. They danced in packs. But Yu Huang noticed that everyone at the graduation party was doing the tango dance. "Why don't you teach me?"

"Okay." Sheng Xiao hugged Yu Huang's waist and appeared at the center of the dance floor in a flash.

Everyone fell silent for a moment when they saw Senior Sheng enter the dance floor. Then, they heard a commotion.

"Wow! Senior Sheng, you're dancing!"

This was Sheng Xiao's first time dancing in public. The graduates could not help but take out their phones to take pictures.

Sheng Xiao raised his cold eyes and glanced at them indifferently. The graduates immediately put their phones away obediently.

Sheng Xiao was very patient when he was teaching Yu Huang. Even if Yu Huang accidentally stepped on his leather shoes with her high heels, he would remain calm.

The third time she stepped on him, Sheng Xiao finally straightened his expression. He said, "Stop fooling around and dance."

Yu Huang explained, "I've been dancing properly."

Sheng Xiao said, "Stop pretending. You can dance."

Yu Huang was stunned.

It was only then that she realized that the Host, Yu Huang, had been in the entertainment industry for a long time. She was good at all kinds of dances. Sheng Xiao thought that she was fooling around with him.

However, Yu Huang felt very wronged.

She really did not know how to dance.

"Okay, I won't pretend anymore."

Yu Huang suddenly let go of Sheng Xiao. She pulled off the hem of the big fishtail skirt that was in the way under her skirt and kicked off the high heels. Then, she placed her hand on Sheng Xiao's chest and said, "I'm going to start the performance. Sheng Xiao raised his eyebrows. In the next second, Yu Huang started to wriggle her waist.

She shook her waist. It was more like twerking.

The moment Yu Huang deliberately twisted her waist, the graduates on the dance floor stopped and gathered around to watch Yu Huang flirting with Sheng Xiao.

In public, Yu Huang deliberately got close to Sheng Xiao's body and danced the legendary dance of "When one's wife is gone, one's family will be destroyed."

Her fingers brushed past Sheng Xiao's cheeks and chin, then pressed on his Adam's apple. Her fingers brushed past the mole beside his Adam's apple. Sheng Xiao tensed up. He did not dare to move. He could not move. Yu Huang ran her fingers through her hair. Under the golden mask, her pair of slender, willowy eyes made Sheng Xiao unable to shift his gaze away. When her waist brushed against him, Sheng Xiao could clearly feel his blood boiling. Yu Huang made him blush under the jeering of the graduates.

Seeing that Sheng Xiao did not move at all, Yu Huang felt bored and was about to leave. Just as she moved away from Sheng Xiao, Sheng Xiao grabbed her waist and pressed her into his arms.

Yu Huang's nose bumped into Sheng Xiao's chin. She heard him say hoarsely, "Don't go. Let me hug you for a while."

Yu Huang was stunned.

Yu Huang felt a sense of achievement when she guessed that Sheng Xiao was afraid that others would find out and used her as a shield.

But when he hugged Yu Huang, Sheng Xiao did not feel any relief. Instead, he felt it even stronger.

He closed his eyes and sighed. "You're killing me today."

Yu Huang snorted. Without a word, she spread her Vermilion Bird wings and flew towards the sky above the central lake with Sheng Xiao in her arms. In the blink of an eye, the two of them reached the staff dormitory.

Under everyone's gazes, Sheng Xiao was kidnapped by Yu Huang. The professors went out to have fun. The staff dormitory was pitch black. Sheng Xiao only let go of Yu Huang when he saw that no one was around.

Yu Huang wanted to lower her head, but Sheng Xiao grabbed her chin.

"Don't look down." Sheng Xiao was a little shy. He was afraid that Yu Huang would see something she should not see.

Yu Huang chuckled. "Don't act so prudish." He looked quite seductive.

Knowing that Sheng Xiao was a shy person, Yu Huang felt merciful and prepared to let him go. "Aren't you leaving for the Central Pagoda tomorrow? Rest early. I'm going back too."

Sheng Xiao, on the other hand, grabbed her chin and refused to let go. He stared at Yu Huang's red lips with a dark gaze. "Aren't you going up with me?"

Yu Huang was surprised to hear the hint in Sheng Xiao's words. She asked bluntly, "Speak clearly. If I go up with you now, can I still come down tonight?"

Sheng Xiao replied sternly, "I'm afraid not."

Yu Huang rolled her eyes. "Then I'm leaving."

She turned around to leave, but Sheng Xiao picked her up by the waist.

Yu Huang exclaimed, "What are you doing?!" Sheng Xiao carried her and strode into the dormitory. As he walked, he said, "If you don't agree, you can just spread your wings and fly away. I can't trap you here even if I want to." He meant that she should stop pretending. He knew that she wanted to stay.

Chapter 222 Can't Wait For You to Be My Fiancee

Yu Huang was displeased.

She pursed her lips and muttered, "I'm a girl. I have to be more reserved."

Sheng Xiao carried her into the elevator. He looked down at the girl's mirthful eyes and asked, "Do you have that thing?"

Yu Huang's gaze became dangerous. "Sheng Xiao, you're so sharp-tongued. Do you still want me to stay?"

Sheng Xiao shut up immediately.

When they got out of the elevator, Yu Huang walked beside Sheng Xiao. Both of them were quiet. They were nervous and excited about what would happen next. After they entered the dormitory, Sheng Xiao turned on the light. He looked down at Yu Huang for a moment before saying in a hoarse voice, "I'll take a shower first."

"Go."

Sheng Xiao turned on the air-conditioner and went into the bathroom.

Yu Huang sat on the small sofa in the living room of her dorm. Her expression was serious as she pondered, should she take the initiative later? How should she take the initiative? How far should she go?

Time always passed quickly when one was deep in thought. Before Yu Huang could come up with an answer, Sheng Xiao finished showering

He walked out of the bathroom in a thin ink-blue bathrobe. The design of the deep V neckline revealed a large portion of his muscular chest and the mole beside his Adam's apple.

Yu Huang raised her head and stared at him. Her gaze landed on his open chest and she suddenly smiled.

She had lived two hundred years longer than Sheng Xiao. Sheng Xiao was handsome and young. She was the one who got the better end of the bargain.

She had to pamper the little kid a little.

Yu Huang pretended to be calm and patted the sofa. "Come and sit."

Her aura suddenly became that of a queen. Sheng Xiao was a little stunned. Shouldn't she feel shy at this time?

Sheng Xiao walked over hesitantly and sat down beside Yu Huang.

As soon as Sheng Xiao sat down, Yu Huang smelled the cold scent of mint. Yu Huang tried hard to stay calm and composed. She crossed her legs and placed her round right foot on Sheng Xiao's calf as she moved upwards.

Sheng Xiao lowered his eyes and stared at her naughty foot. When he saw that the corner of the bathrobe was lifted by the big toe, he grabbed Yu Huang's foot instinctively.

What a slender ankle.

Yu Huang's heart skipped a beat, but her expression was calm.

At that moment, she really wanted to smoke. She would pretend to be mature and take a puff. Then, she would blow smoke at Sheng Xiao's face. She would act mature as she asked him, "Boy, do you want to have sex?"

But she didn't have a cigarette.

Yu Huang's toes curled up in Sheng Xiao's hand. She blinked and asked in a dry tone, "Little..." Yu Huang could not say the word.

Sheng Xiao gave her a puzzled look. His handsome face suddenly leaned close to Yu Huang. He asked in confusion, "What?"

His handsome face suddenly got closer. Yu Huang was mesmerized by his looks. Her mind went blank and she started to blurt out, "Small?"

Sheng Xiao was stunned.

The next second, his gaze suddenly became ambiguous. He pushed Yu Huang onto the sofa's armrest. "You'll know the answer soon."

After that, Sheng Xiao leaned against the sofa while panting. He did not move. His gaze was dazed and lazy.

PO

Yu Huang washed her hands in the bathroom. She scrubbed her hands over and over again before putting them in front of her nose to smell them. The senses of a Purifying Spirit Master were stronger than those of a Beast Tamer. After washing them a few times, she could still smell the scent that made her heart race.

She wiped her hands and walked out of the bathroom to see Sheng Xiao smoking.

Yu Huang turned her head and was a little shocked. "You smoke?"

Sheng Xiao took off the cigarette in his mouth and threw it to Yu Huang. "Try it."

Yu Huang had the intention to give it a try. She bit the cigarette and took a puff. Immediately, a rich peppermint smell entered her body and rushed to the top of her head.

Yu Huang shuddered and felt uncomfortable. "What is this?" This was definitely not cigarettes.

Sheng Xiao said with a complicated look on his face, "This is a candy made of Ice Spirit Grass. It calms people down when they eat it." He pressed his temples with his thumb and said with reddened eyes, "I'm a little agitated. I have to calm down."

Yu Huang was speechless.

She threw the candy into the trash can and walked into the room. Sheng Xiao quickly stood up and followed her. He hugged her waist from behind and the two of them entered the room like conjoined twins.

Sheng Xiao asked Yu Huang, "Is your hand sore?"

How could Yu Huang admit that her fingers were sore? She said, "What a joke. I'm a cultivator. This is no big deal. What's there to be sore about?"

Sheng Xiao chuckled. "You're lying."

Yu Huang was still wearing a dress.

It was uncomfortable to wear the beautiful dress. Yu Huang took Sheng Xiao's hand away and strode to his wardrobe.

She opened the closet and picked out an ink-blue shirt.

She turned around and saw that Sheng Xiao was still standing at the end of the bed. She raised her eyebrows and asked, "Do you want to see me change my clothes?" Sheng Xiao said, "Let's talk for a while. You can change after I leave. I'll stay in the study tonight." Sheng Xiao, afraid that he would not be able to control himself, did not dare to stay in the same room as Yu Huang.

He did not want to take the final step with Yu Huang prematurely.

After all, this was his first love, the woman he was certain would bear a child with. He could only make love to her after they got married.

Yu Huang was naturally surprised to hear this. "You won't sleep here?"

Sheng Xiao's eyes were bloodshot. He shook his head. "Yes."

Yu Huang understood what Sheng Xiao was worried about. She sat down on the bed with the shirt. "What do you want to talk about?"

Sheng Xiao sat down on the small stool opposite the bed. He looked straight at Yu Huang and said, "When I come back from the Central Pagoda, you will come back to Yufu City with me."

"Didn't we agree to return to Yufu City after the Cong Lang Mystic Realm contest is over?" This was something they had discussed long ago.

Sheng Xiao said, "I don't want to wait anymore."

"Huh?" Yu Huang did not understand what Sheng Xiao meant.

What didn't he want to wait for?

Sheng Xiao's gaze was deep. He stared at her face for a moment before explaining, "I can't wait to make you my fiancée." He did not want to wait another day.

When Yu Huang heard this, she was somewhat surprised.

Was every young man in love so passionate?

"Sure."

Seeing that Yu Huang had agreed, Sheng Xiao was finally relieved. "Okay. When I come back, we'll go back to Yufu City together!" "Okay."

After explaining the important things, Sheng Xiao could finally go to the study without worry. He could not sleep and could not read. So, he sat cross-legged and cultivated the whole night.

The next morning, Yu Huang woke up early and accompanied Sheng Xiao to the canteen for breakfast. Then, she sent Sheng Xiao to the flight deck.

The two of them said goodbye at the flying platform.

Sheng Xiao reminded Yu Huang, "You have to train hard after I leave. I hope that I can see your name in the top 100 when I come back." A large number of new students would report in September. The group arena that was originally scheduled for September was changed to the end of August.

There was only a month left until the arena match in August.

Yu Huang took Sheng Xiao's hand away. "Don't pat me. Only children like to be patted on the head."

"You're seven years younger than me. When you were still being breastfed, I already knew the entire alphabet. In front of me, aren't you a child?"

"Alright." Whatever.

Sheng Xiao saw that the Bird Rider was here. He had to go. He could not bear to leave Yu Huang, so he dawdled and refused to board the bird. "I'm leaving." He looked at her suggestively.

Yu Huang waved her hand with a cold expression. "Go, go."

Sheng Xiao was a little angry. He pressed Yu Huang's shoulder and lowered his head to kiss her. Then, he turned around and left on the flying bird.

Yu Huang stood on the flying platform and watched him leave before returning to school alone.

TIC

Now that Sheng Xiao was gone, it was time for her to focus on her cultivation. Yu Huang took Sheng Xiao's point card and went to the Cultivation Hall. She went straight to the 18th floor and used Sheng Xiao's card to get 30 days worth of points.

It felt great to swipe the point card without restraint.

Yu Huang was focused on her cultivation while Sheng Xiao embarked on a new journey.

After leaving the Divine Realm Academy, Sheng Xiao went to the nearest airport in Qiang City. He bought a plane ticket to Tanzan City.

The Central Pagoda was located in the extreme north of the Holy Spirit Continent. It was also the loneliest continent on the Holy Spirit Continent.

There was no airport or station there, only a spatial teleportation tunnel. The origin of this tunnel was not the Divine Moon Empire, but the center of a city called Tanzan City, between the Divine Realm Continent and the Ice Domain Continent.

Just like the Rakshasa Empire, Tanzan City was also a no man's land. The difference between Tanzan City and the Rakshasa Empire was that the people there were law-abiding citizens and the security was good. It was hailed as the Holy Spirit Continent's paradise.

Twenty years ago, the door of the Time Gate had not been sealed. After every Beast Tamer who returned from the Upper World left the far north, they had to stay in Tanzan City for a night.

Because Beast Tamers frequently came and went to this town, it brought business opportunities to this city.

Chapter 223 Sheng Xiao the Tattletale

However, as the door of the Time Gate was sealed, the only hub between the Holy Spirit Continent and the Upper World was also cut off. Now, there were much fewer Beast Tamers coming and going between the Northernmost Region and the Southernmost Region, and Bliss City was comparatively less prosperous than before.

When the plane arrived at Tanzan City, it was already 9 p.m.

It was already dark in the Divine Moon Empire, but the sun had not set in Bliss City. Sheng Xiao walked out of the airport and hailed a taxi.

The driver saw that he had an imposing aura and was handsome and mighty. He instantly guessed that this person's identity was not simple. "Sir, where are you going?"

Sheng Xiao crossed his arms and leaned against the seat. "To the Bliss Hotel."

The driver looked at Sheng Xiao respectfully.

The Bliss Hotel was established five thousand years ago and was only reserved for beast tamers. Even a wealthy person with a rich family was not qualified to stay there.

Now, Tanzan City had already developed into a tourist city. There were countless starred hotels in the city, but the Bliss Hotel was still the most famous hotel in Tanzan City.

After knowing that Sheng Xiao was going to the Bliss Hotel, the driver greeted him differently. "Master, please sit properly."

Sheng Xiao fastened his seat belt. "Let's go."

The driver, afraid that he would make Sheng Xiao uncomfortable, tried his best to drive slowly.

The car quickly drove into the city.

The Bliss Hotel was built in the center of the city. The hotel was surrounded by a sea of flowers. There were no buildings. This ensured that every Beast Tamer who stayed in the Bliss Hotel could cultivate and rest in a quiet environment.

The car stopped outside the sea of flowers. The driver told Sheng Xiao, "Master, the hotel staff will come out to receive you personally. We can't drive in."

"Thank you."

When Sheng Xiao took out his wallet and was about to pay, the driver waved his hand and said, "It's your first time in Tanzan City, isn't it? In Tanzan City, beast tamers don't get charged for a taxi."

Tanzan City was originally a deserted village. Thanks to these beast tamers, the formerly deserted village was able to develop into a large-scale city. The Tanzan City's government respected the beast tamers highly and treated the beast tamers extremely well. The beast tamers in Tanzan City enjoyed all things free.

This was the first time Sheng Xiao had heard such a thing. After confirming that the driver was not lying, he put away his wallet. He thanked the driver again before getting off the car with his bag.

The once in every five years Central Pagoda challenge ceremony was about to begin. Most of the beast tamers who had recently checked in to the Bliss Hotel were excellent beast tamers who were going to the far north to participate in the Central Pagoda challenge ceremony. The hotel did not dare to neglect them.

The moment the taxi stopped by the roadside, the hotel manager personally brought people out to pick up the guest.

Seeing Sheng Xiao get off the car, the manager walked up to him and said respectfully, "Sir, please show me your Beast Tamer identity card."

Sheng Xiao took out his Beast Tamer ID and handed it to the manager.

The manager took the silver-white identity card with both hands. When he saw that the name on the identity card was Sheng Xiao, his expression became even more respectful. "So, it's you, Supreme Master Sheng. Please come in with me!"

The manager led the way while Sheng Xiao followed behind with his bag on one shoulder.

"Has the hotel been busy recently?"

The manager thought about it and said, "The Central Pagoda is opening soon. It's been a long time since the hotel was so lively."

He was telling Sheng Xiao that almost all the beast tamers who were going to participate in the Central Pagoda challenge ceremony were here.

Sheng Xiao nodded and followed the manager into the hotel lobby.

The manager turned back to Sheng Xiao. "Supreme Master Sheng, your room is on the eighth floor. I'll go check in for you. I can only get the staff to bring you up. Please forgive me for my negligence."

"Thank you."

Sheng Xiao took the elevator to the eighth floor with the staff.

There were 16 elevators in the hotel, which only went to the ninth floor. It was probably to protect the privacy of the beast tamers. Sheng Xiao went to the eighth floor and walked out of the elevator. He had to pass through a long corridor to reach his room.

There was an open-air restaurant below the hotel. There were already people having their meal there. Sheng Xiao walked along the railing to his room. He looked down at the open-air restaurant downstairs and raised his eyebrows.

Downstairs, everyone in the Holy Spirit Continent gathered in the dining room. Merman, Elf, Beast, Dwarf, and a portion of humans.

Everyone sat together.

“Supreme Master Sheng, we’ve reached your room.”

The beast tamers had good hearing. The staff spoke on the eighth floor, and the beast tamers in the open-air restaurant on the third floor all heard the words “Supreme Master Sheng.”

Everyone put down the cutlery in their hands and looked up at the eighth floor, only to see a tall black figure.

Those who were qualified to participate in the Central Pagoda trials were all young Beast Tamers with Supreme Master cultivation levels. At their cultivation levels, they had already completely abstained from eating. Eating was optional for them.

However, everyone still came to the open-air restaurant and pretended to eat. Their real goal was to find out about the strength of the other races.

The humans sat in the northeast corner of the outdoor dining room. The elves sat in the northwest corner. The mermen sat in the southeast corner. The beasts sat in the southwest corner. The dwarves sat in the center.

Everyone took one side and did not interfere with each other, but their eyes were all looking at each other’s dining tables. After about half an hour, everyone heard steady footsteps approaching. They turned back to look at the elevator entrance and saw a tall young man walking over from the elevator lobby.

The man was wearing a loose-fitting shirt with two black fountain pens on his chest. The pen cap on the left had the word “Xiao” on it, and the pen cap on the right had the word “Jue.”

The humans sitting in the northeast corner stood up and shouted enthusiastically at the person who came

“Young Master Sheng!”

“Supreme Master Sheng!”

Sheng Xiao stopped and glanced at the Beast Tamers. Then, he looked at the humans.

Sheng Xiao walked toward the humans. Halfway there, he was stopped by a man from the Elf Tribe.

“Sheng Xiao, long time no see!”

Sheng Xiao looked at the man who spoke.

The elves were divided into ranks. The higher the status, the stronger the cultivation level, and the more beautiful they were. The elves who looked like bats Yu Huang met in the Xixia Ocean last time were actually Night Elves with low status.

The nobles elves all had a pair of white wings. They were all tall and had long dark golden hair. They were born beautiful.

The man who called out to Sheng Xiao was especially handsome.

He was wearing a light yellow long robe. His golden hair hung behind his shoulders, revealing a pair of pointed ears and a pair of light golden eyes that looked at everyone as gently, as if he was looking at a lover.

This person was famous for being a handsome man in the elven race, and he was the prince of the elven royal family, Donor.

After Sheng Xiao recognized Donor, he nodded at him. "Long time no see, Prince Donor."

Donor raised his eyebrows and asked him, "I heard that you broke through to the Supreme Master Realm two years ago?"

Sheng Xiao nodded. "Yes."

Donor blinked. He was playful and handsome. "What a coincidence," he said. "I broke through to the Supreme Master Realm last spring, too."

Many years ago, Donor had always been hailed as the number one genius on the continent. He had broken through to the Master Realm when he was twenty years old and two months old. Many years ago, Donor had always been hailed as the number one genius on the continent. He had broken through to the Master Realm when he was twenty years old and two months old.

Donor was angry when he heard others praising Sheng Xiao. He went to the Divine Continent to fight with Sheng Xiao. He lost the battle and lost a lot of things to Sheng Xiao.

They had not seen each other for five years, but Donor remembered Sheng Xiao very well.

Sheng Xiao was not shocked when he found out that Donor had also broken through to the Supreme Master level. He smiled brightly, but his words were infuriating. He said, "Congratulations, but I can still press you to the ground and hammer you."

Donor's smile stiffened. "Aren't you afraid that you'll bite your tongue off?"

Sheng Xiao said, "Whether or not I will bite your tongue will be determined after we enter the tower." Then, Sheng Xiao walked straight to the human camp in the northeast.

When he saw Sheng Xiao walk over, a man in his thirties stood up and greeted him. He held Sheng Xiao's hand and said excitedly, "Mr. Sheng, it's been so many years since we last met. You're still as arrogant as ever."

The person who spoke was called Feng Tang, the young master of the Feng family in the Ice Domain Continent. He was the last disciplinary officer in the Divine Realm Academy. Sheng Xiao had beaten Feng Tang to get that position.

The two of them were considered old acquaintances.

Sheng Xiao sat down beside Feng Tang. He stared at his face for a moment and suddenly said, "I've seen Feng Si before. He doesn't look like you."

Feng Tang was Feng Si's eldest brother.

Feng Tang was stunned when he heard Feng Si's name.

He was stunned for a moment before remembering that Feng Si was his fourth brother's alias.

Feng Tang was more rough-looking, while Feng Si had a pretty boy look. They indeed had two different types of appearances. Feng Tang shook his head and laughed. He said, "My fourth brother looks like my mother. He didn't cause you any trouble when he went to the academy, did he?"

Sheng Xiao thought of Feng Si and his expression became playful. "He didn't cause any trouble for me. He didn't even dare to talk to me. He was very afraid." After a pause, Sheng Xiao added, "But he's on good terms with my girlfriend."

Chapter 224 Who Doesn't Want Yu Huang, Who Is Drop Dead Gorgeous?

Feng Tang's heart skipped a beat.

Feng Tang did not know that Sheng Xiao was in a relationship and he was not aware of the girl's identity. But, the girl that Sheng Xiao liked must be very outstanding.

Thinking that his brother was bold enough to snatch Sheng Xiao's woman, Feng Tang immediately said sternly, "This guy doesn't know the rules at all. I'll call him later and reprimand him."

He could not let his fourth brother's foolish actions bring endless trouble to the family.

Sheng Xiao took a sip of his tea and nodded. "Cultivation is the most important thing for students in school." So, he should restrain himself when it came to making friends.

He should stop hanging around in front of Yu Huang all day. Feng Tang smiled teasingly when he heard Sheng Xiao's words. "Junior Sheng, you have double standards, haven't you? You're both students in school. You can date but he can't?"

Sheng Xiao was delighted.

Sheng Xiao put down his teacup and tilted his head to look at Feng Tang. He said proudly, "She's my girlfriend. She's a Beast Tamer with the potential to fight in the Super Beast State. She's also a Purifying Spirit Master. She's very outstanding. It's okay for her to get into a relationship while she's busy. As for your brother..."

Sheng Xiao looked like he was at a loss for words. He said bluntly, "Your brother is slow-witted. He should train harder."

Feng Tang was stunned.

Feng Tang was not angry when someone said that his younger brother was slow-witted. This was the truth.

Feng Tang's attention was on Sheng Xiao's other sentence. She was a Beast Tamer in the Super Beast State with S-class battle potential. She was also a Purifying Spirit Master.

Feng Tang's heart rate slowed down. He asked tentatively, "Is your girlfriend that Dual Cultivator Yu Huang?"

News of a Dual Cultivator appearing in the Divine Realm Academy had spread throughout the Holy Spirit Continent. However, Feng Tang did not expect Yu Huang to be Sheng Xiao's girlfriend.

Sheng Xiao was shocked. He asked in surprise, "So, you know about Yu Huang too?"

Feng Tang shook his head and laughed. He pointed at the crowd of Beast Tamers and said with a smile, "Ask these friends. Who in the Holy Spirit Continent doesn't know about Yu Huang?" Everyone nodded in agreement. "We all know this lady."

"News of a Dual Cultivator appearing in the Divine Realm Academy has spread throughout the entire Holy Spirit Continent." When they thought about what the young master of the Xuanyuan family had done to Yu Huang, everyone looked at Sheng Xiao with admiration and envy. "Young Master Sheng, you're really discerning."

Sheng Xiao smiled. He could not hide the pride in his eyes. "She's so outstanding and dazzling. I think it's difficult for anyone not to notice her. I was lucky to get to know her early."

Otherwise, he would really not necessarily be able to win Yu Huang's heart.

Feng Tang could not help but pout when he saw Sheng Xiao's reaction. The little guy who used to be obsessed with cultivation now knew how to show off PDA.

Tsk tsk.

When Sheng Xiao mentioned Yu Huang, there was love in his eyes.

The human beast tamers at the same table as them and the beast tamers at the other tables had mixed feelings.

Damn it. The Sheng family was already invincible enough on their own. Now, Sheng Xiao was in love with Yu Huang, a dual-cultivator. If they became a couple in the future, wouldn't the Sheng family be more omnipotent?

Donor stared at Sheng Xiao with admiration and jealousy. He could almost see himself being stepped on by Sheng Xiao forever and doing whatever he wanted.

Donor took a sip of his wine and thought to himself, 'Yu Huang is so beautiful. I want Yu Huang too.'

After the PDA, Sheng Xiao did not say much. He came to have a meal just to say a few ambiguous words to Feng Tang.

After dinner, everyone returned to their rooms.

There were still competitors who had not arrived. They would continue to stay in the Bliss Hotel for a day tomorrow. The day after tomorrow, when everyone had gathered, the mayor would open a spatial passageway and send them to the far north.

That night, Madam Sheng called Sheng Xiao. Master Sheng was sitting beside her.

Madam Sheng asked him, "The Central Pagoda Breakthrough Ceremony is imminent. Xiao'er, how's your preparation going?"

Sheng Xiao held Yin Mingjue's metal pen in his hand. He replied, "I'll do my best."

Mrs Sheng nodded.

Master Sheng said, "I heard that the energy in the Time Gate on the top floor of the Central Pagoda has been a little chaotic recently. I'm afraid that something will happen. Remember, no matter what happens, you have to protect yourself."

Sheng Xiao was shocked. "The energy in the Time Gate is in chaos?"

"Yeah."

"Isn't there the Prime Master suppressing it?" Why would the Time Gate suddenly become chaotic?

Sheng Lingfeng shook his head and said, "We're not sure about the details. In order to prevent any accidents, a few vice presidents of the Beast Tamer Alliance will accompany me to the northernmost region. Professor Jin from your academy will also be with us. If any accident occurs, we will definitely not just stand by and watch."

"That's good."

"By the way," Madam Sheng suddenly interrupted. "Didn't Yu Huang come with you?"

Sheng Xiao's expression softened when he heard Yu Huang's name. He shook his head and told Madam Sheng, "There's only one month left until the competition. Yu Huang is in seclusion."

Madam Sheng nodded and said, "She said that she wants to enter the top 100 of the expert rankings and go to the Cong Lang Mystic Realm."

"Yes." Sheng Xiao said, "I'll accompany her when I'm done." "Then our family will give you a spot."

"Yeah, okay."

Mrs Sheng reminded him again to be careful and to protect himself if anything happened.

Sheng Xiao listened to Madam Sheng's nagging patiently and hung up.

That night, almost all the beast tamers in the hotel did not rest. They were all cultivating calmly and preparing for the challenge in the Central Pagoda. After dawn, the hotel staff sent breakfast to the rooms of the beast tamers on time. They did not dare to disturb their cultivation and left after delivering breakfast.

It was the same at noon and at night.

In the blink of an eye, it was the third morning

Sheng Xiao woke up from his cultivation state. He took a shower and changed into his tribe uniform.

The navy blue gown made him look more dignified, cold, and handsome when he wore it. He looked more and more like his father, Sheng Lingfeng. Sheng Xiao packed up his things and opened the door to leave.

There was breakfast on the dining table in the hall. Sheng Xiao sat down and drank a glass of milk, then he ate some bread and an egg before he walked out of the hotel and went to the lobby on the first floor.

In the hall, more than a hundred Beast Tamers who had participated in the battle were already prepared.

Today, all the Beast Tamers had changed into their respective family uniforms. Even the Elven Prince, Donor, had changed into the Elven Royal family's attire. Everyone stood together with an imposing aura, making the hotel manager and staff's blood boil.

When eight o'clock arrived, everyone left the hotel under the hotel boss's lead and got into a private car before heading to the space-time transfer station.

The teleportation station that led to the far north was built on a lake five kilometers northeast of the hotel. When everyone got out of the car, they saw a group of people standing beside the lake. They had been waiting for them for a long time.

Seeing that the beast tamers had arrived, Tanzan City's mayor, Bai Yuchen, quickly walked forward and bowed to them from afar. "Welcome, Supreme Masters! I hope that you will all return in glory."

Among the Beast Tamers, the Elven Prince, Donor, was the most respected.

He stood at the front of the Beast Tamer camp. Donor quickly walked up to the mayor and helped him up. "City Lord, there's no need to be so polite. I have to trouble you to open the space-time tunnel and send us to the far north."

"This is what I should do."

The spatial tunnel was managed and repaired by Tanzan City. The mayor was not a Beast Tamer, but the old man standing behind him was a Grand Master-level expert.

The old man took a step forward and injected all his spiritual energy into the spatial tunnel.

The spatial tunnel finally awakened under the old man's energy summon.

Boom!

A circular energy tunnel appeared on the lake.

The mayor said to Sheng Xiao and the others, "My lords, the space-time tunnel is open. Please enter quickly!"

Seeing that, everyone thanked the mayor and the Grand Master before quickly entering the space-time tunnel. After entering the tunnel, everyone released energy barriers to resist the invasion of the space-time tunnel.

The tunnel was pitch black. They walked in the tunnel for about two hours before they saw light. When they saw the ball of light, everyone gathered together and were teleported out of the tunnel.

When they opened their eyes again, they had already arrived at the far north.

Chapter 225 Sheng Xiao's Crazy Idea

They had thought that the far north was a barren wasteland.

But when they reached the extreme north, everyone realized that the terrain here was flat and the ground was filled with a type of black flower.

The flower had no leaves and only roots. Each petal was the size of an adult's palm. When the five petals were combined, the flower looked incomparably huge.

In the middle of each flower, there was a stamen as thick as a pinky finger. The stamen was dark red. These black flowers danced in the wind, and their roots were tough, so they could not be blown away.

As they looked at the black flowers that filled the mountains, everyone's reactions were somewhat slow.

Sheng Xiao blocked his sense of smell immediately and took an anti-poison pill. He told everyone, "These are Terpsichorean Flowers. They are special products from the far north. They are poisonous. Those who are slightly poisoned will hallucinate. Those who are seriously poisoned will get lost in this sea of flowers and become fertilizer for them."

Hearing that, everyone blocked their sense of smell immediately. They, afraid that they would become fertilizer for the flowers, took anti-poison pills just like Sheng Xiao.

Everyone stood in the middle of the wasteland and looked around, but they did not see the Central Pagoda. Donor spread his wings and flew into the deep sky. Soon, he landed and pointed to the northwest. "Over there."

He looked excited, as if he had seen something extraordinary.

Sheng Xiao asked, "Prince Donor, what did you see?"

Donor shook his head and sighed excitedly. "What a high tower. I think it should be called Skysplit Tower. It really leads to the heavens."

Hearing that, Sheng Xiao took out his sword and flew northwest.

Seeing this, everyone followed suit. Because the elves had wings on their backs, they could fly directly without riding their swords.

The hundred or so beast tamers quickly flew to the northwest corner. After flying for an hour, they passed over a set of hills and saw the Central Pagoda.

On a vast and boundless plain, the black flowers swayed in the cold wind, and a towering pagoda that reached the clouds stood at the center of the plain.

The bottom third of the tower was clearly visible, and the top two-thirds of the tower was hidden in a black cloud. No one could see its true appearance.

The huge pagoda was cone-shaped. The higher one went, the narrower the pagoda became.

Sheng Xiao and the others landed under the Central Pagoda. It was only when they looked up that they realized that they were almost two meters tall. They were not even one-tenth the height of the first floor of the Central Pagoda!

This tower was indeed huge!

“Ssss ~” Someone hissed softly.

Someone exclaimed, “Can humans construct such a high tower?”

“Does anyone know when the Central Pagoda was built?”

“I’m not sure.”

At this moment, Donor suddenly said, “According to the records, the Central Pagoda’s history goes as far back as when the first Beast Tamer awakened on the Holy Spirit Continent.”

The first Beast Tamer on the Holy Spirit Continent had awakened ten thousand years ago.

Sheng Xiao said, “That’s not the case.”

Donor glared at Sheng Xiao and said, “Then tell me, how long has the tower been built for?”

Everyone turned to look at Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao looked up at the huge pagoda above his head. He said, “There was no Beast Tamer on the Holy Spirit Continent. It was only when the Prime Master Goldfeather came to the Holy Spirit Continent through a Time Gate 10,000 years ago that something changed. Prime Master Goldfeather opened an independent space and created the Divine Realm Academy. He wandered around the continent for more than a hundred years and helped countless Beast Tamers awaken. Only then did the Holy Spirit Continent enter the era of Beast Tamers.”

Donor did not retort. It was obvious that Sheng Xiao was telling the truth. Sheng Xiao said, “According to the records, ten thousand years ago, Prime Master Goldfeather passed through the Time Gate and arrived at the Holy Spirit Continent. The place where he landed was the Central Pagoda in the far north. From this, it can be seen that the Central Pagoda existed before that.”

Feng Tang said, “I saw this piece of information. Junior Sheng is right.”

Donor pursed his lips and said, “Ten thousand years ago, our Holy Spirit Continent developed very slowly and our technology was quite backward. Such a huge tower was not something that people from that era could build.”

Feng Tang added, “In this era, I’m afraid we won’t be able to build it either.”

Then...

Who built this tower?

Sheng Xiao made a bold guess. "Perhaps this pagoda has existed for as long as the Holy Spirit Continent has existed."

"Impossible!" Donor subconsciously retorted. "How could someone have built such a thing back then?"

Sheng Xiao sneered. "Who said that it's man-made?"

Donor said, "What do you mean?"

The others looked at Sheng Xiao in confusion. "Young Master Sheng, if it's not man-made, can it be God-made?"

Sheng Xiao stared at the Central Pagoda. He murmured, "Why can't it be created by God?"

Everyone looked at Sheng Xiao as if he was a lunatic. "Young Master Sheng, there is no God in this world. Everyone knows that."

"Why is there no God?" Sheng Xiao's gaze suddenly became fervent. He said, "Have you forgotten that there was a God in the three thousand worlds?"

Donor's eyes lit up as he cried out in shock, "It's a Divine Master!"

Everyone shut their mouths.

Feng Tang grabbed Sheng Xiao's hand and asked, "Junior Sheng, are you saying that our world might be created by a Divine Master?"

Sheng Xiao said nothing.

He looked up at the dark clouds covering the tower above him and suddenly fell into a surreal state.

Where did this world come from?

Where did this Central Pagoda come from?

Did God really not exist anymore?

Sheng Xiao stared at the black mist. Unknowingly, his consciousness became disoriented. Sheng Xiao did not notice that there were faint golden rays entering his body from all directions.

Donor was shocked.

"What is this?" He stared at the light that was pouring into Sheng Xiao's body. He looked confused.

"What is Sheng Xiao doing?"

Feng Tang was also shocked. "Junior Sheng!"

Feng Tang reached out to pull Sheng Xiao back, but he did not move.

Feng Tang guessed something. He let go of Sheng Xiao's hand and looked up to explain to Donor and the others. "Don't disturb him. He's comprehending."

Hearing this, Donor looked uncomfortable, as if he had eaten a fly.

Sheng Xiao managed to comprehend something under such circumstances. His cultivation talent was really enviable.

His mind was in a state of chaos. Sheng Xiao felt like he was being pulled into another world, and his body was spinning. He only landed on the ground after a long time.

Sheng Xiao opened his eyes and found himself in a strange world.

There was only a desert here. There were no flowers or trees. There were no humans or beasts. When one looked around, they was only yellow sand!

In the sky, the scorching sun was at the top, and his figure was enveloped by a colossus.

Sheng Xiao suddenly turned around when he realized that there was a huge creature behind him. He saw a tower that was exactly the same as the Central Pagoda!

Sheng Xiao was stunned.

“Is this... the Central Pagoda

What was going on?

Sheng Xiao pushed open the door and walked in. He saw that the walls of the tower were clean. There was nothing there. The tower was very high, but there was no path to the second floor.

Where was this?!

Sheng Xiao walked out of the Central Pagoda and into the desert alone. He walked further and further away. He was exhausted but he could not get out of the desert.

During the entire process, he didn't see a single blade of grass or tree. In this desolate world, he was the only living thing.

Sheng Xiao walked in the desert for a long time. But, he could not find a way to leave this world. So, he sat cross-legged on the ground and started to comprehend the technique Myriad Slash. He wanted to see what this world wanted to do to him.

Time passed by unknowingly. When Sheng Xiao felt that his spiritual power was about to run out, the ground beneath him suddenly shook.

Sheng Xiao opened his eyes and saw the desert in the distance crumbling.

He was forced to stand up, and the soil beneath his feet disappeared bit by bit. Soon, the entire world became desolate, and he stood in the void like an explorer floating in the universe.

Suddenly, a powerful energy dragged him out of this world.

When Sheng Xiao regained consciousness, he found himself back in the Holy Spirit Continent. Beside him, Prince Donor was chattering. “How long will he take to comprehend it? The door of the tower is about to open!”

“Why don’t we go in first and ignore him?!”

Feng Tang was about to persuade Donor when Sheng Xiao opened his eyes.

Feng Tang shouted in surprise, “Junior Sheng, you’re awake!”

Chapter 226 Sharp-tongued Bastard!

Donor immediately turned around to look at Sheng Xiao.

Seeing that Sheng Xiao was really awake, Donor pursed his lips and muttered, “If you don’t wake up, you will miss the tower’s challenge ceremony.” Sheng Xiao stared at the tower in front of him in a daze. It was only when he saw Donor’s face clearly that he realized that he had walked out of that desolate world.

Sheng Xiao was puzzled.

He had clearly stayed in that barren world for more than ten days. How come when he returned to the real world, he was still in the far north?

Sheng Xiao ignored Donor. He turned to Feng Tang and asked, “Senior Feng, what happened just now?”

“Don’t you know?” Feng Tang patted Sheng Xiao’s shoulder. “I don’t know what happened. You suddenly stopped talking just now and didn’t move at all. You look like you understood what the professors said.”

“What did you comprehend just now? Did you comprehend some cultivation technique?” Some powerful cultivation techniques were comprehended by the Beast Tamer in a mysterious state.

Sheng Xiao could vaguely guess what had happened to him after hearing Feng Tang’s explanation. He asked Feng Tang, “How long was I in a daze?”

“About ten minutes.”

It’s only been ten minutes?

He had been in the desert world for more than ten days, and only ten minutes had passed in real life. This meant that the time passed in the two worlds was different.

Donor suddenly leaned close to Sheng Xiao and asked in confusion, “Sheng Xiao, what were those things just now?”

Sheng Xiao was even more confused than Donor. He pretended to be mysterious about it and said, “What are you talking about?”

Donor rolled his eyes. “What else could it be?” he said. “What are those pale golden lights things? Why have I never seen them before?”

Sheng Xiao was stunned.

Pale golden light?

He suddenly thought of what happened to Yu Huang last year. Could it be that he comprehended the power of the Divine Master just now?

That possibility made Sheng Xiao excited.

But he was used to not showing his feelings, so no one could tell how excited he was. Sheng Xiao shook his head and replied, "I don't know."

"Just pretend." Donor glared at him and crossed his arms. "Let's see who gets to the 99th floor first."

Sheng Xiao stared at the interspatial ring on Donor's finger. He thought of something and said, "Let's make a bet. If I reach the 99th floor before you, give me all the holy water in your interspatial ring."

Donor's expression changed slightly.

He immediately thought of the time when he was defeated by Sheng Xiao five years ago and had a bottle of holy water scammed by him.

Holy water was very precious. Only a handful of it could be produced a year. He had to cherish it. He did have two bottles of holy water in his interspatial ring, but he did not want to give them to Sheng Xiao.

Donor raised his chin and asked Sheng Xiao, "What if you lose?"

Sheng Xiao was about to answer when Donor interrupted him. "Give me your girlfriend."

As soon as he finished speaking, Sheng Xiao summoned the Black Qing Sky Dragon.

Roar!

The Black Qing Sky Dragon soon landed on Sheng Xiao's head. The dragon and Sheng Xiao stared at Donor expressionlessly. Donor felt his scalp going numb.

Sheng Xiao raised his sword and pointed the tip of the sword at Donor's throat. He asked gloomily, "What did you just say?"

Everyone gave Donor a gloating look.

Served him right for being a sharp-tongued bastard.

Donor shuddered and quickly smiled. "Sheng Xiao, I was just kidding. Can you not be so petty? You can't even take a joke!"

Hearing that, Sheng Xiao's expression darkened. He said in a low voice, "She's a person, not an object. How can you say 'let'? Prince Donor, you should stop joking. What you think is funny is detestable to me."

Donor stared at Sheng Xiao's serious look and suddenly realized that Yu Huang was very important to him.

He also stopped smiling and apologized with a serious expression. "I was rude. I'm sorry."

Hearing that, Sheng Xiao put away his sword and called Black Qing Sky Dragon back.

Feng Tang stood beside Sheng Xiao quietly. He was terrified when he saw this.

He decided that he would go to the Divine Realm Academy personally when he returned. He would stop his stupid brother from thinking about Yu Huang. Was Sheng Xiao's woman someone that fool could covet?

He might get himself killed because of this.

When Donor saw Sheng Xiao putting away the Black Qing Sky Dragon, he smiled and said, "Since you want to bet, you should bet on something too. I might win."

As long as Yu Huang was not mentioned, Sheng Xiao was easy to get along with.

He thought about it and raised his sword. "Is this sword enough?" This was Sheng Xiao's accompanying sword. It was a high-level flying spiritual artifact that was priceless.

Donor raised his eyebrows. "As long as you can bear to," he said. "I can."

The two had just finished their conversation when sounds of flying rang out in the sky.

Everyone looked up and saw a few presidents of the Beast Tamer Alliance descending from the sky and landing behind them.

Everyone turned around and bowed to them.

"Greetings, presidents!"

The Beast Tamer Alliance was the only official organization in the Holy Spirit Continent. The alliance head was Sheng Lingfeng. Other than him, there were six vice presidents.

Those who could be the vice president were mostly head of the top cultivation families on the Holy Spirit Continent.

They were respectively Carasso Stuling, the patriarch of the Elf Tribe's Stuling family, and the patriarch of the Beast Clan's Lion King Clan Ruli, Huo An, the patriarch of the Merman Race's Hell Volcano Clan, Dietrich, the patriarch of the Dwarf Race's You Clan, and Dongfang Xiaogui, the patriarch of the Blazing Realm Continent's Dongfang Clan, and Yin Mingchong, the patriarch of the Divine Realm Continent's Yin Clan.

Sheng Lingfeng was surprised that they had not entered the tower. He asked Sheng Xiao, "Are the guardians not here yet?"

Sheng Xiao shook his head.

"Then let's wait a little longer." Just as he finished speaking, Sheng Lingfeng sensed energy fluctuations in the air in the distance. He turned his head to look back and murmured, "They're here."

Sheng Xiao and the others raised their heads to look at the sky. Then, they saw four powerful spiritual lights appear in the empty sky. In the blink of an eye, the four lights arrived before them.

The light dissipated and turned into four figures standing side by side.

The person on the left wore a black coat and looked a little fierce. He was Divine Realm Academy's Gold Ingot Grand Master.

The person standing beside Gold Ingot was a man as well. He was wearing a long robe with embroidered crane sleeves. His face was as flawless as jade, and he had a proud look on his face. His aura was awe-inspiring.

Sheng Xiao recognized the man immediately. He was the Grand State Master of the Divine Moon Empire.

The person standing beside the Grand State Master was an elven woman. She was wearing a light blue dress and a crown on her head. She looked similar to Donor.

Donor quickly stood beside Sheng Xiao and bowed to greet the woman. "Mother."

"Yes."

She was the elven queen, Daiya, the legendary number one beauty of the elven race. She was also a late-stage Grand Master.

The person on the right was a male merman. He had light golden hair and deep purple eyes. The robe on his body was worn in a very revealing manner. He was very bold and unrestrained.

This person was called Dino, and he was a late-stage Prime Master. His strength was unfathomable, and it was said that he was an old monster that had lived for over a thousand years.

He was also the only top-notch powerhouse on the Holy Spirit Continent qualified to be called a Prime Emperor.

When they saw the Grand State Master and Dino, Sheng Lingfeng and the others had to bow their proud heads. "Greetings, Lord Dino and Grand State Master."

Dino was proud and didn't like to speak.

He looked up at the Central Pagoda that was hidden above the dark clouds and without a word, he poured his spirit energy into the Central Pagoda. Seeing this, the Grand State Master and the other two raised their hands and poured their boundless power into the Central Pagoda.

The tower suddenly started to spin on its own, and a circle of pale white light bloomed from outside the tower. After a moment, the Central Pagoda stood still, and an illusory figure stood in front of the Central Pagoda's door.

The illusory figure looked at Dino and the others with a lifeless gaze and asked in an ethereal voice, "Who are you?!"

Dino bowed to that person and said, "Merman Race's Dino, Elf Race's Daiya, Human Race's Mo Xiao, and Gold Ingot. Please open the tower, Prime Master!"

Shock flashed across their eyes.

Prime Master?

Sheng Xiao's gaze was filled with shock. He looked at the illusory figure holding the door and found it unbelievable.

Sheng Lingfeng, who was standing beside Sheng Xiao, saw that he was shocked. He said softly, "After the Prime Master sacrificed himself at the Central Pagoda, his soul had already merged with the Central Pagoda. After that, every time the Central Pagoda door was opened, four guardians would have to wake the selfless Prime Master up. Only by gaining the recognition of the selfless Prime Master could the door of the Central Pagoda be opened." "I see."

The illusory figure in front of the pagoda door seemed to ponder for a moment before transforming into the form of a unicorn and charging towards the door of the Central Pagoda. The unicorn fused with the door, and the next second, the door finally opened slowly...

Chapter 227 Big Shots Are Not Reliable

When the door of the Central Pagoda opened, Dino crossed his arms and glanced at Sheng Xiao and the others coldly. He said lazily, "The tower is open. Come in."

Just as he finished speaking, Mo Xiao, the Grand State Master, suddenly waved his sleeve. A light blue survival ring appeared on their wrists. "Wear it. If you can't continue to continue venturing into the tower, break the survival ring. The Central Pagoda will send you out."

Gold Ingot waved his hand and said impatiently, "Stop dawdling. Get lost!"

Seeing this, the Elven Queen waved her water sleeve and the 120 young experts were instantly teleported to the door of the Central Pagoda.

Everyone looked up at the tall tower door and felt a little apprehensive.

Many years ago, it was a form of honor to be able to obtain the qualification to challenge the pagoda and enter the Upper World to seek knowledge. However, the change in the Central Pagoda twenty years ago still planted fear in the hearts of every junior.

There was something terrifying hidden inside the door of the Time Gate.

This was the fear in every Beast Tamer's heart.

Everyone had heard about the abnormal energy fluctuations in the Time Gate recently. They were afraid of encountering danger, so no one dared to be the first to enter the tower.

Donor looked at Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao's attention was not on the tower but on the two opened doors. There was a beast eye between the two doors on the left and right.

Sheng Xiao recognized the unicorn's eyes and walked forward. He bowed to the unicorn and walked into the Central Pagoda first.

Seeing that Sheng Xiao had entered, Donor did not back down and quickly followed him.

After him, Feng Tang and the others entered the tower.

Seeing these children hesitate for a moment at the door before daring to enter the tower, Sheng Lingfeng shook his head and sighed. "The calamity of the Central Pagoda still left a trauma in these children's hearts."

At the side, the short but muscular Madam Dietrich said, "How can they not be afraid? No one knows what happened in the Time Gate. The 199 elite and selfless Prime Masters were killed inside. Just thinking about it is scary."

Back then, during the calamity in the Central Pagoda, Dietrich had personally gone to the scene to investigate the situation. When she thought of the scene of blood flowing like a river on the top floor of the Central Pagoda, Dietrich's entire body went cold.

Sheng Lingfeng had also seen that tragic scene with his own eyes. He sighed and said, "I hope they can return safely."

Afraid that there would be an unexpected change in the Central Pagoda, Sheng Lingfeng and the others did not dare to leave, so they decided to stay outside the Central Pagoda and guard it. If there was any commotion in the Central Pagoda, they could charge in immediately to save this group of young people. Dino saw that the Grand State Master had been looking up at the dark clouds above him. There was spiritual light in his blue eyes. He frowned and asked, "Mo Xiao, what are you looking at?"

The Grand State Master retracted his gaze and stared at Dino for a moment. Suddenly, he created a soundproof barrier around the two of them.

Seeing this, Dino's expression gradually darkened.

Outsiders could not hear their words inside the barrier. Mo Xiao was acting so mysteriously. What did he have to say?

The Grand State Master looked at Dino and sighed sadly, "Dino, I can't see the future of the Holy Spirit Continent."

Hearing this, Dino looked stunned. "...What do you mean?" After speaking, Dino realized that his voice was extremely dry.

The Grand State Master sighed and said, "The Holy Spirit Continent is about to face a calamity."

"How could this be?!" Dino was extremely shocked.

A calamity that could be described as a 'calamity' by Mo Xiao must be a real calamity.

The Grand State Master said, "From the moment the Prime Master sacrificed himself twenty years ago, I had already sensed the arrival of the calamity. Over the years, I have repeatedly deduced that the calamity will be six years later."

"But as for why that calamity started, I can't predict it." He was not God, and was only prying into the heavenly secrets. He had already used all his strength to predict that the calamity was about to happen.

After knowing this news, Dino was speechless for a long time.

He raised his head and stared at the Central Pagoda in front of him with his eyes slowly revealing grief. He said, "If the calamity really comes, then it will have to be over our dead bodies!"

Even if the sky fell, they would hold it up!

Mo Xiao looked at Dino deeply and nodded. "That's right." The Prime Master had already left everyone. Who among their colleagues could stay out of this?

At this moment, Gold Ingot suddenly slapped his head and cried out in shock, "Holy sh*t, did we forget to announce the rules of the tower challenge?"

Hearing that, Daiya, Dino, and the others were stunned.

The Grand State Master acknowledged in frustration and said, "That's right. We forgot to tell them that the challenge of the pagoda didn't start from the first level of the Central Pagoda."

After every participant entered the tower, the Central Pagoda would test their abilities for them and then send them to the floor they were suitable for.

Those with strong abilities might reach the 50th level when they opened their eyes. Those with weaker abilities might open their eyes to the 1th or 2th floor.

In short, the levels where each participant started to challenge were not fixed. But they actually forgot to announce such an important piece of information just now!

The four of them looked at each other speechlessly.

Daiya said, "These children should know..."

Gold Ingot poured a bucket of cold water on her. He said, "The rules regarding the tower challenge in the Central Pagoda are never allowed to be spread. Who knows? At least, I didn't know about it before I challenged the pagoda back then. I only heard the Grand State Master tell me about it before I was about to enter the pagoda."

A hundred years ago, the Grand State Master and Dino were already guardians.

Hearing this, the Grand State Master used his slender index finger that was like a jade chopstick to gently press against his temples. His face also revealed an apologetic expression as he said, "I was distracted just now and forgot to mention this." Gold Ingot and Daiya looked at Dino again. Dino pouted and blew his hair while saying confidently, "Why are you looking at me? I don't have to announce the rules for every tower challenge." He just had to be responsible for activating the tower door.

Gold Ingot mumbled, "I've only been in office for 15 years. I'm still a newcomer."

Daiya was speechless.

Everyone started to shift the blame. No one was willing to be the scapegoat.

Daiya carefully glanced at the Grand State Master and said softly, "In the past, it was always the Grand State Master who announced it."

The Grand State Master blinked and looked at Daiya as he said coldly, "Is it important to say or not? After entering the tower, you just have to charge into the tower."

Daiya hurriedly said, "Yes! The Grand State Master is right! Strength is the important factor that determines everything."

The Grand State Master snorted. "It's good that you understand."

When Sheng Xiao and the others were teleported into the Central Pagoda, they were immediately enveloped by darkness. Sheng Xiao held his sword tightly and shouted softly, "Senior Feng?"

No one replied.

"Prince Donor?"

No one replied.

Sheng Xiao looked down at the pitch-black space. He felt uneasy.

No one had told him that the first level's test was so difficult.

However, Sheng Xiao, who did not know the rules of the tower challenge, did not know that the "first floor" he thought was actually the 55th floor!

At the same time, Donor and Feng Tang entered the tower. They realized that they had been separated from the others. They had the same thought as Sheng Xiao.

Was the first level of the Central Pagoda Hell Mode at the start?

Sheng Xiao stood in the darkness. After making sure that he could not see anything, he wanted to walk into the darkness and find out what was going on. He was about to take a step forward when he realized that his legs were tied up.

Huh?

Sheng Xiao tried to move his arm again and found that it was tied up.

He was already tied up, so how was he to compete?

Sheng Xiao stopped struggling and quickly calmed down. Since it was a test, there must be a way. There had to be a way out.

Sheng Xiao quickly noticed something strange after he calmed down. He heard the sound of water. It sounded like it was dripping from the top of his head onto his toes.

The water droplets fell faster and faster, and before long, they drenched his shoes and formed a puddle under him.

Before Sheng Xiao could figure out what was going on, the water spread to his ankles. It would not be long before it soaked his thighs, waist, and chest...

If he couldn't break free, he would drown.

How should he solve a question without a question?

As if to confirm Sheng Xiao's guess, more and more water dripped from his head. Soon, it covered his thighs, his waist, and his shoulders.

When the liquid covered Sheng Xiao's mouth and nose, he quickly felt suffocated.

At this moment, an ethereal voice that sounded like it came from ancient times sounded in his mind

"Do you believe in the existence of God?"

Sheng Xiao's eyes widened.

It was the Inquisition!

Chapter 228 Shithead Couple!

The so-called Inquisition referred to the heavens interrogating one's soul in an extremely pressing situation. And the person being tested had to be sincere. If they lied, they would be punished by the Heavens.

At that moment, Sheng Xiao could choose to break the survival ring on his wrist. That way, he would be sent out by the Central Pagoda.

But Sheng Xiao did not want to forfeit so soon.

If he couldn't even clear the first level, how could he face anyone after he went out? After he returned to the academy, if Yu Huang asked him how many levels he had passed, how should he answer?

Answer: eliminated in the first round? Sheng Xiao shuddered at the thought of that.

He was a man, so how could he not have an ego?

Sheng Xiao understood the situation and replied quickly, "No."

After he finished speaking, Sheng Xiao heard the sound of thunder rumbling in his mind. It was as if the heavens were checking if he was telling the truth. The thunder rumbled for a moment but did not stop.

It was obvious that Sheng Xiao had passed the first question.

The heavens asked again, "Do you believe in the existence of a Divine Master?" The heavens' tone was very slow, and it sounded like he had been in the top for a long time.

Sheng Xiao nodded without hesitation. "I do!"

The thunder rumbled for a moment, but it still did not fall.

Then, the heavens asked a third question. "Then do you believe the saying that the Divine Master is kind and loving?"

Sheng Xiao wanted to say that he believed in it, but some guesses flashed across his mind. He immediately fell silent.

The heavens saw that Sheng Xiao was hesitating and he urged him unhappily, "The heavens is asking you a question. You have to answer it!"

Sheng Xiao sighed in his heart. "No!"

"Why don't you believe in it?!" The heavens suddenly questioned Sheng Xiao.

The voice of the heavens was accompanied by the rolling thunder as it said authoritatively, "Those who can become Divine Master are all beast tamers with great love. Why don't you believe the saying that Divine Masters are benevolent and loving?"

The heavens seemed to think that Sheng Xiao was unreasonable.

Sheng Xiao could tell that the heavens was angry. He could not help but feel baffled. In the Inquisition, the heavens only needed to ask questions and did not need to question the examinee.

The heavens' emotions were too volatile.

Sheng Xiao had some guesses, but he did not show them. He was afraid that the heavens would notice something was amiss.

Sheng Xiao replied in his mind, "I believe that every Divine Master has great love the moment they become a God, but I don't believe that they will still have great love after they become a God!"

The heavens suddenly fell silent. "Why?"

Sheng Xiao said, "Because humans are greedy by nature."

Humans were greedy.

It was like a relationship. In the beginning, you would love a woman without asking for anything in return.

But when that woman smiled at you, you would hope that she would know your feelings. If that woman knew your feelings, you would hope that she would respond.

If she responded to you, you would hope that she would fall in love with you. Then, you would want her to marry you, bear children for you, cook for you, and care for you.

But you forgot that your initial thought was to silently like her and be satisfied with seeing her happy.

So, no one was not greedy, and Divine Masters were no exception.

After hearing Sheng Xiao's answer, the heavens went silent for even longer.

Just as Sheng Xiao was about to suffocate, he suddenly heard the heavens say, "Next, you can ask me a question. I will tell you the truth. I won't lie."

After a pause, the divine being said, "You can ask me the method to pass through successfully, or you can ask me the secret about the door of the Time Gate. You can even ask me anything. As long as you ask, I will answer everything."

The heavens were tempting him to ask about the secret of the pathway and the Time Gate. He had set up such a trap on purpose because he was afraid that Sheng Xiao would ask something else.

Sheng Xiao licked his lips. "You'll answer every question I ask?"

The heavens nodded proudly. "Yes."

Hearing that, Sheng Xiao asked a question that had nothing to do with clearing the level or the door of the Time Gate. He asked, "You're not the heavens. You're the Divine Master who created the Holy Spirit Continent, right?"

The other party suddenly fell silent.

He refused to speak.

Sheng Xiao sneered. "According to the rules, you have to answer everything."

The thunder in Sheng Xiao's mind was even more shocking. It was the sign of the heavens' wrath. However, Sheng Xiao was not frightened by the commotion. He waited quietly. Finally, he heard the heavens' answer.

"... Yes!" This time, the heavens gritted his teeth.

This child was really cunning!

Right after "yes" was said, the sealed space where Sheng Xiao was imprisoned suddenly exploded. Water splashed everywhere and Sheng Xiao fell out of the sealed space. The ropes that tied him up disappeared.

Sheng Xiao opened his eyes and got up. He found himself standing in front of a closed door. He looked up at the number on the door.

56.

Sheng Xiao raised his eyebrows. 56?

He had a bad guess.

Could it be that the place he was at just now was not the first level of the Central Pagoda but the 55th level?

Could they do this?

But no one had told him that the challenge floor was random after entering the Central Pagoda.

Sheng Xiao stood in front of the door and thought about the challenge on the 55th floor. A thought flashed across his mind, and he smiled. A Divine Master was not invincible.

When the suffocation in his body subsided and he could breathe normally, Sheng Xiao calmly pushed open the door of the 56th floor of the tower.

The door was pushed open and Sheng Xiao was pulled in by a force.

As the world spun, he woke up again. He actually appeared on the 18th floor of the Divine Realm Academy's Cultivation Hall.

Sheng Xiao stared at the tightly shut stone door in front of him.

Room 1805.

It was Sheng Xiao's private room for cultivation. But at that moment, the stone door was opened a little. Sheng Xiao heard a faint panting sound. It sounded very familiar.

Yu Huang?

Sheng Xiao opened the door and walked in. He saw Yu Huang.

Yu Huang laid on the cultivation platform with a pained look on her face. She pressed her chest and her face blushed. When she saw Sheng Xiao come, a look of surprise flashed across Yu Huang's eyes. "Brother Xiao?"

Yu Huang frowned slightly and asked in surprise, "Weren't you challenging the test in the Central Pagoda? Why did you suddenly come back?"

Sheng Xiao was puzzled.

What was going on?

Was this an illusion or reality?

If it was an illusion, then this scene was a little too real.

After a moment of silence, Sheng Xiao walked to Yu Huang. He held her hand and asked, "What's wrong?"

Yu Huang pressed her chest and said, "It's that drop of your heart blood."

Yu Huang's body was burning. She leaned against Sheng Xiao and said helplessly, "Black Qing Sky Dragon refused to be ordered around by me. He barged into my Spiritual Abode while I was cultivating and tried to make me lose control."

"Why would I?" Sheng Xiao asked her. "How do you feel?"

Yu Huang pressed her chest and replied angrily, "Brother Xiao, my body is so hot."

Sheng Xiao touched Yu Huang's neck. It was indeed hot. "How could this be?"

"Perhaps dragons and phoenixes are natural enemies."

Yu Huang was having a fever and was groggy from the fever. She rubbed against Sheng Xiao and suddenly said, "You feel so cold." Yu Huang placed a hand on Sheng Xiao's chest.

Sheng Xiao's body stiffened.

He looked down at the girl beside him and had a guess.

Could it be that this test tested 'desire'?

And his desire was Yu Huang.

Sheng Xiao took a deep breath.

Yu Huang suddenly got up and straddled Sheng Xiao's waist. She called his name and buried her head in his neck.

Sheng Xiao felt aroused, but he remained calm.

Very quickly, there was not much clothes left on Yu Huang.

Sheng Xiao lowered his eyes and glanced at the fair skin on his shoulders. His heart fluttered when he saw her usually covered breasts.

“Brother Xiao, save me...” Yu Huang’s usually calm voice became anxious, pitiful, and flirtatious.

It was difficult for Sheng Xiao not to react, but he remained indifferent.

Seeing that Sheng Xiao did not move, Yu Huang suddenly sobered up. She let go of Sheng Xiao and said angrily, “Since you don’t want to, I won’t force you.”

Yu Huang staggered down the stone platform. She adjusted her clothes and staggered towards the stone door.

Sheng Xiao sat on the stone platform and stared at the fleeing figure. He asked her, “Where are you going?”

Yu Huang leaned against the stone door and bit her lips as she turned back. She looked at Sheng Xiao in embarrassment. She said, “You say that you love me, but you still think that I’m ugly, right?”

“Sheng Xiao, so you’re no different from Xuanyuan Jing.”

Hearing this accusation, Sheng Xiao looked into Yu Huang’s eyes that were filled with accusation and resentment. He suddenly smiled. “Do you know?”

Yu Huang was a little puzzled. “Know what?”

Sheng Xiao said, “The girl I love will never look at anyone with resentment. Do you know what the real her is like?”

Sheng Xiao used the words ‘the real her’. It was obvious that he was still clear-headed and had not been bewitched by Yu Huang.

Yu Huang asked curiously, “How is she like?”

Sheng Xiao smiled. “The real her is much wilder than you. She always thinks that she’s the best in the world. She never looks at me with resentment. Besides...”

There was a strange pause. Sheng Xiao’s ears turned red. He said softly, “If she really went crazy and needed me to quench her lust, she would not seduce me like you did. She would just... do me.”

After interacting with Yu Huang, Sheng Xiao had realized how assertive Yu Huang was.

Yu Huang took the initiative every time they made out. They would do whatever she wanted. Sheng Xiao could only lie down and enjoy himself.

However, Yu Huang in front of him respected him and prioritized seduction.

Yu Huang was stunned for a long time before she gritted her teeth and said, “Shithead couple!”

After she finished cursing, Yu Huang disappeared. The Cultivation Hall of the Divine Realm Academy was gone as well. Sheng Xiao opened his eyes and saw himself standing in the tower. There was a nine-tailed fox imprisoned on the stone platform in front of him.

At that moment, the nine-tailed fox was glaring at Sheng Xiao with its red eyes. It spoke in human language. "Little one, your girlfriend is very feisty. She's my type. Introduce her to me someday."

Sheng Xiao was speechless.

"She will come to challenge the tower in five years. I hope you can show her mercy."

The Nine Tail Fox cried out and said gloatingly, "Don't worry, I'll definitely show mercy. I'll definitely let her climb out of my building on all fours!"

Chapter 229 Dragon Clan's Crown Prince and Jing Huang

The Nine Tail Fox was spouting nonsense, but Sheng Xiao did not react much to it. He even added in a good mood, "Remember to transform into me."

He could not accept Yu Huang flirting with any man other than him, even in an illusion.

Nine Tail Fox was no longer interested in teasing him. "Tsk, how boring. Get lost!"

It suddenly arched its back and shook its nine gorgeous furry tails. Its tail suddenly became large and long

The nine tails pressed the nine hidden switches on the wall at the same time. Sheng Xiao heard the sound of a mechanism being activated. Then, a stone door opened behind Nine-Tailed Fox. A staircase hidden behind the wall was revealed.

The Nine Tail Fox retracted its tail and said to Sheng Xiao in a charming voice, "Handsome little gentleman, we won't be able to meet again on this trip. I wish you the best of luck."

Sheng Xiao felt goosebumps all over his body when he heard her call him handsome little gentleman. He looked at the nine-tailed fox with a complicated expression and said coldly, "Thank you." With that, Sheng Xiao walked into the corridor with his sword.

The moment he entered the staircase, the door behind him closed tightly.

Sheng Xiao walked up the jade stairs. Under the dim light, he glanced at the paintings on the wall. He could not take his eyes off them.

On the wall, there was a dragon and a phoenix.

In a canyon, a huge black dragon was stepped on by a huge and gorgeous phoenix. The phoenix opened its bloody mouth and bit the head of the Black Qing Sky Dragon.

Beside the painting were a few words,

It was God's Day.

Sheng Xiao stared at the picture and was mesmerized.

The next second, he suddenly felt a sharp pain in his body, as if it was coming from his abdomen.

Sheng Xiao suddenly opened his eyes and saw a flaming phoenix flapping its wings on his body. It was about to bite him!

Sheng Xiao closed his eyes. At that moment, he heard a clear girl's voice. "Father! I want him!"

The expected pain did not come.

Sheng Xiao felt something dripping on his face. It was unclear whether it was saliva or something else.

Sheng Xiao opened his eyes and saw the phoenix tilt its head in another direction. "You want him?" The phoenix spoke in human language.

"Yes! I still lack a little pet. Father, give it to me!"

That enormous phoenix suddenly transformed into the figure of a middle-aged man. He was muscular and wore a set of colorful long robes. The man was extremely handsome, and his pair of upturned phoenix eyes appeared evil and flirtatious.

The man stared at the distant girl and thought for a moment. Then, he said, "This little black dragon is only a snack to me. Since you want it, I will give it to you. Huangler, take good care of it. When he becomes a Prime Emperor, swallow him to help you become divine."

The girl replied respectfully, "Thank you, Father, for your love."

"Come over and sign a contract with him!"

"Okay."

Then, light footsteps approached Sheng Xiao.

The sun was burning brightly. Sheng Xiao narrowed his eyes and saw a beautiful figure appear above his head and block the glaring sunlight. In an instant, Sheng Xiao saw the girl.

That girl was wearing a black gradually changing golden battle robe. She had a thin belt made of pure gold on her waist and a cloak embroidered with phoenix patterns on her shoulder. There were two fiery red phoenix feathers on her ponytail.

She had a delicate oval face with exquisite facial features. She also had a pair of almond-shaped eyes, but they were not as sharp as her father's. Perhaps because she was still young, she looked more harmless.

She was young and beautiful.

But what shocked Sheng Xiao was that she looked a lot like Yu Huang before she was disfigured.

What was going on?

Was it just a coincidence?

The girl was only twelve to thirteen years old. She was already quite dignified. She looked down at Sheng Xiao and said mockingly, "Little black dragon, from now on, I am your master."

Sheng Xiao did not say anything. However, the little black dragon, who was possessed by him, said, “Get lost! Stinky bird, you’re just like your father. You smell like a bird and it makes me want to puke! To think that I even saved your life. Your Divine Feather Phoenix Clan are all hypocrites!”

Sheng Xiao was speechless.

No, Little Black Dragon, don’t talk nonsense. I don’t smell any stink of birds.

Hearing the little Black Dragon’s scolding, the girl’s gaze turned cold. “You loach, you’re still stubborn even at the brink of death. You really don’t know your place! Do you think I’ll let you die a painless death just because you pretend to be tough? In your dreams!”

The girl suddenly cut her fingertip and dripped a drop of red blood between the little Black Dragon’s eyebrows.

Immediately, Sheng Xiao felt a strong burning pain.

He was not the one who cursed, but he was the one who suffered. This was not fair.

When she saw Sheng Xiao rolling around in pain, the girl snorted coldly. “Little prince, my Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame is the natural enemy of your Black Qing Sky Dragon. When it tames you, you will be my pet.”

She gave Sheng Xiao a deep look and turned to leave.

After the girl left, Sheng Xiao finally had the time to think about what had happened to him. After leaving the 56th floor, he walked into the staircase. It seemed that the staircase was most likely the 57th floor.

He was currently in the middle of a trap.

But Sheng Xiao could not understand what was going on, nor did he know how to break out of it.

That night, Sheng Xiao was in so much pain that he did not even blink. He almost lost consciousness. The little girl came again at dawn. This time, she changed into a black dress that was gradually turning pink. She looked even more cold and elegant.

The girl walked to Sheng Xiao and stepped on his dragon head with her right foot. She looked down at him and said, “From today onwards, you are no longer the prince of the dragon race. You are my pet. Your name is...”

Mirth flashed across her eyes. She deliberately gave Sheng Xiao a name to humiliate him. “Let’s call it... little black snake!”

Before Sheng Xiao could speak, Black Qing Sky Dragon shouted angrily, “Jing Huang! I will remember this insult. If I can regain my freedom in the future, I will kill you! I will tear you into pieces! I will pluck out every feather on your body and turn them into shuttlecock for everyone to play with!”

Jing Huang roared with laughter when she heard this. “Then we’ll talk about it when you regain your freedom!”

Jing Huang waved her sleeve and shouted, “Come with me!”

When he heard that, Black Qing Sky Dragon turned into a young man and followed Jing Huang out of the canyon.

Jing Huang was the young master of the Divine Feather Phoenix Clan. She was highly respected in the clan. No matter where she went, she would be the center of attention. Seeing the young master raising the dragon race's crown prince as a pet by his side, the clansmen admired her very much.

As a phoenix bird, she actually dared to raise her natural enemy by her side as a pet. She was really bold.

Just like that, the dragon race's crown prince grew up day by day by Jing Huang's side. In the blink of an eye, the girl had grown up to be extremely beautiful.

In the middle of the summer, Jing Huang, who was afraid of the heat, took off her cloak and sat on the chaise longue with only a negligee on. She shouted lazily, "Little black snake, come here and massage your master's legs."

The adult-sized black snake walked over with a dark expression. It was forced to sit beside the chaise longue and unwillingly massaged its master's legs.

Jing Huang, who matured, was even more beautiful. Her skin was as fair as snow and her slender legs looked shapely as they were held by the Black Qing Sky Dragon.

However, he knew how fierce and ruthless this seemingly slender and delicate girl would be when she entered the battlefield.

Jing Huang suddenly used her toes to pull open Black Qing Sky Dragon's chest. Black Qing Sky Dragon stopped and asked her with a dark expression, "What are you doing?"

Jing Huang sat up and reached her fingers into his shirt to cover his firm chest. She said, "You're my pet, my object. I can do anything to you."

Black Qing Sky Dragon felt humiliated.

But Sheng Xiao saw the affection and adoration in Jing Huang's eyes. He thought, This little phoenix bird has feelings for this little black dragon.

"Hug me!"

After she shouted, Black Qing Sky Dragon, who was oppressed by the contract, immediately hugged her obediently.

Jing Huang smiled in satisfaction and said, "Kiss me."

Black Qing Sky Dragon kissed her unwillingly.

Sheng Xiao should not have seen the rest.

Sheng Xiao closed his eyes and listened quietly for a long time before the two of them really ended. It was said that dragons were lecherous, and Sheng Xiao had finally seen it today.

In the blink of an eye, the little black dragon had been by Jing Huang's side for a hundred years.

After a hundred years of cultivation, Jing Huang was already a Prime Master expert. Her fierce combat style made her the war goddess of the Divine Feather Phoenix Clan.

The war goddess was renowned for her devastatingly beautiful appearance. She was quite well-liked by the men in the clan.

She was at the age where she should get married.

Chapter 230 Scram As Far As You Can. Don't Come Back!

On this day, Prime Emperor Ze An personally came to the Divine Feather Phoenix Clan and requested to see the clan head of the Divine Feather Phoenix Clan, Jing Ju. He also publicly requested Jing Ju to marry his beloved daughter, Jing Huang, to him.

Who was Prime Emperor Ze An?

That was the number one expert of the Divine Feather Continent. Back then, it was he who had led the Divine Feather Phoenix Clan to successfully exterminate the Black Qing Sky Dragon.

That year, the dragon race vowed to fight to the death. They would rather die than be swallowed by the Divine Feather Phoenix Clan and help them become gods.

Thus, under the attack of the Divine Feather Phoenix Clan, the ten thousand plus people of the Dragon Clan were forced to jump into the Endless Sea and die there.

That year, the Dragon race's crown prince was still young. The Dragon Prime Emperor could not bear to see his entire race destroyed, so he hid his only son in a secret passage. However, the Dragon race's crown prince was eventually found by Prime Emperor Ze An.

Seeing that the Dragon race's crown prince was too small and that it was useless to eat him, Prime Emperor Ze An dug out the dragon race's crown prince's inner core and made him a cripple who was unable to cultivate, then gave him to Clan Leader Jing Ju.

Although the Dragon race's crown prince no longer had his inner core, dragon flesh was also a kind of supplement.

Jing Ju had planned to eat the dragon race's crown prince, but was stopped by his beloved daughter, Jing Huang. If Jing Huang had not asked Jing Ju for the dragon race's crown prince, the dragon race would have really been exterminated.

To the Dragon race, Prime Emperor Ze An was an irreconcilable enemy. However, to the Divine Feather Phoenix race, Prime Emperor Ze An was a war god.

There was no woman in the Divine Feather Phoenix Clan who did not admire Prime Emperor Ze An.

Prime Emperor Ze An had personally come to ask for the marriage. It was clear how much he liked Jing Huang.

Jing Ju was naturally looking forward to Jing Huang marrying Prime Emperor Ze An. However, Jing Ju loved and respected his daughter very much. Marriage was a big deal. Jing Ju did not dare to make the decision on his own. He decided to go back and ask Jing Huang for her opinion.

Jing Ju said to Prime Emperor Ze An, "It is my daughter's honor to be personally courted by the Prime Emperor, but as her father, I can't interfere with her marriage. I still want to hear my daughter's opinion."

Hearing this, Prime Emperor Ze An was not angry. He said kindly, "Clan Leader, you're right. I was rude."

"It's my daughter's fortune to be favored by the Prime Emperor."

After sending away Prime Emperor Ze An, Jing Ju found Jing Huang and told her about it.

When Jing Huang heard this news, she did not refuse or agree immediately.

"I'll think about it."

When they saw Jing Huang walk out of Jing Ju's courtyard, the villagers thought that she had agreed to the marriage with Prime Emperor Ze An.

News of Prime Emperor Ze An and Jing Huang's impending marriage quickly spread throughout the entire clan.

When Black Qing Sky Dragon heard this news, his expression remained indifferent. However, when he was pouring tea for Jing Huang, he did not realize that the tea had already filled the cup and overflowed onto the small table.

"Little Black Snake." Jing Huang stared at the wet table. She picked up the cup of tea and drank it all. She played with the teacup and hid the love in her eyes. She asked in a low voice, "Little Black Snake, what do you think about my marriage with Prime Emperor Ze

An?"

Black Qing Sky Dragon smiled slightly and said, "Prime Emperor Ze An is the number one expert of the Divine Feather Continent and you are the number one genius on the continent. Your marriage is a match made in heaven."

The smile in Jing Huang's eyes disappeared completely when she heard this.

She put down the teacup and grabbed Black Qing Sky Dragon so that he could face her. Jing Huang asked Black Qing Sky Dragon with a cold expression, "Yu Aofeng! Do you really think so?"

He had not heard his real name for more than a hundred years. When he heard the name Yu Aofeng again, a look of pain flashed across his eyes.

Yu Aofeng was the Dragon race's crown prince, but the Dragon race had long been exterminated. In this world, the person Yu Aofeng should not exist anymore.

Black Qing Sky Dragon clenched his fists and lowered his gaze before saying softly, "Master, I am just your pet. Why should you ask your pet's opinion if you want to marry someone?"

"Very good!"

Jing Huang suddenly let go of him and turned to open the door. She shouted at the person outside the door, “Go reply to Prime Emperor Ze An that Jing Huang has agreed to this marriage!”

She turned back and glanced at Black Qing Sky Dragon before saying, “When the time comes, my little pet will marry over as well!”

COI

er as v

Hearing that, Black Qing Sky Dragon shook his body.

The Black Qing Sky Dragon Race had been exterminated by Prime Emperor Zhe An. Yu Aofeng was the crown prince of the Black Qing Sky Dragon and had been reduced to Jing Huang’s pet. However, she had treated him extremely well and doted on him. She had even lost her virginity to him.

In the end, she wanted to marry someone else and bring him with her.

In the future, day and night, he could only watch as she made love to his enemy.

Jing Huang, in terms of ruthlessness, who could compare to you?!

Sheng Xiao felt suffocated under the influence of the Black Qing Sky Dragon. Couldn’t these two idiots just say that they liked each other? Sheng Xiao was worried for them!

He had waited for more than a hundred years and there was still no hint of a breakthrough. Sheng Xiao’s patience was running out. He had endured these hundred years. He had not seen Yu Feng for more than a hundred years. He missed her very much.

In the blink of an eye, it was the day of their marriage.

On this day, Jing Huang was dressed in a phoenix crown and veil. She was beautiful and peerless. It was also on this day that Black Qing Sky Dragon changed into a dark red suit as requested and was considered Jing Huang’s dowry to marry into her new family.

On the day of Prime Emperor Zhe An and Jing Huang’s wedding, fireworks were set off everywhere in the Divine Feather Continent. The entire world was in high spirits.

Prime Emperor Zhe An stood in front of the residence and waited for the bride to arrive. The sedan chair leaned forward and Jing Huang walked out of the sedan chair with a red veil. Prime Emperor Zhe An carried her in his arms and entered the residence.

Joyous music was played in the residence. Yu Aofeng was brought to the storage room by the servants along with the dowry. He stood in the storage room and heard the host’s loud voice shouting from the distant hall —

“First bow to heaven and earth!”

“Second bow to the parents!” “Husband and wife bow to each other!”

“Marriage contract!”

A marriage contract referred to the soul contract between a husband and wife. From then on, there would be one of you and one of me. If one party betrayed the other, the other party could control the other party's life.

Yu Aofeng listened in a daze, and his heart was about to break.

The next day, at dawn, the door opened.

Jing Huang was standing at the door in a black-gold dress. Yu Aofeng opened his eyes and looked at her. When he smelled the scent that belonged to someone else on her, his dragon eyes instantly turned red.

He straightened his neck and said to her, "Master, you shouldn't have come here on the first day of our marriage. Although I'm your pet, I'm a man after all. I'm also a man... who has been intimate with you for a hundred years."

Jing Huang ignored his sarcasm.

sarcasm

She walked up to Yu Aofeng and looked at him silently for a long time before saying, "Little Black Snake, open your mouth."

Yu Aofeng closed his lips tightly and did not react.

Jing Huang suddenly hugged his head and kissed his lips.

In the midst of his shock, Yu Aofeng's oral cavity was pried open and a round object slid into his abdomen through his oral cavity. In an instant, Yu Aofeng felt a powerful energy revive in his body. His body, which had been weak for more than a hundred years, was suddenly filled with strength!

Yu Aofeng was shocked.

"This is... an Inner Core!"

The Inner Core that had been dug out by Prime Emperor Zhe An was brought back by Jing Huang

Yu Aofeng grabbed Jing Huang's wrist and questioned her in a low voice, "Jing Huang, what are you doing?! Am I not your little pet? Didn't you enjoy humiliating me? Why did you do this?!"

How could he hate her when she was like this?!

Jing Huang gave him a deep look and her eyes suddenly turned red. "Yu Aofeng, I've returned your life-saving grace to you." After she finished speaking, she suddenly touched the center of Yu Aofeng's brows with her finger and pulled out a wisp of Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame from his body.

The contract between them was broken.

"Yu Aofeng, from now on, scam as far as you can. Don't come back!"

With that, Jing Huang suddenly struck his neck with her palm.

Yu Aofeng glared at her fiercely and refused to close his eyes even after he fainted.

Jing Huang hugged his body and murmured, "Yu Aofeng, you're free."

Jing Huang hid Yu Aofeng in her interspatial ring and pulled out a feather from her body. She let that feather carry the interspatial ring to the door of the Time Gate and send Yu Aofeng to the Lower World.

Yu Aofeng entered the Lower World while Sheng Xiao followed.

He thought: What's going on? Is there an end to this?

After Yu Aofeng woke up in the Lower World, he broke the barrier of the interspatial ring and cultivated peacefully for more than a hundred years in the Lower Realm. Soon, his cultivation level reached the late-stage Prime Master level.

Just as Sheng Xiao thought that Yu Aofeng had let go of the past, he suddenly returned to the Divine Feather Continent.

He barged into Prime Emperor Zhe An's residence alone. Pointing the tip of his sword at the door, he roared, "Prime Emperor Zhe An, Yu Aofeng and the 13,620 vengeful spirits of the dragon race have come to seek revenge!"

The Dragon Race's Prime Emperor's anger alarmed the Divine Feather Continent.

The hidden experts flew into the sky and watched the battle from afar.

The tightly shut door slowly opened. The blue-robed Prime Emperor Zhe An stood at the door. His gaze was calm as he stared at Yu Aofeng, and he smiled ambiguously.

That smile was full of self-deprecation. "So her marriage to me was really just a ploy..."
