Chapter 441: Enchantment Curse, Heart Protection Scale

Yu Huang was proficient in lip-reading. She carefully observed Su Xuanye's lips and recognized that he was saying, "Hundred birds court the phoenix."

Upon hearing this, the old dean immediately explained, "Hundred birds courting the phoenix refers to you becoming the publicly acknowledged leader of the younger generation of Beast Tamers. When Su Xuanye saw Anna, Yin Rong, and the other Beast Tamers moving closer to you and fighting for you, he felt threatened by you."

"That's right." Sheng Xiao glanced at Yu Huang and told her, "Did you notice that Yin Mingchong called Su Xuanye the Peacock King when he rebelled on the Eight Towers Mountain that day? This means that Su Xuanye is self-serving. He wants to become the king of the Blood Peacock Organization."

"But he became a king by contract. We were willing to fight for you." Sheng Xiao smiled and said proudly, "From that moment on, Su Xuanye regarded you as a strong opponent."

Hearing this, Yu Huang mocked herself, "Should I feel honored?"

"Isn't that so?" The old dean muttered. "He doesn't even take us old fellows seriously. You should feel honored."

Yu Huang pursed her lips and said in disdain, "He's jealous of me." He was jealous of Yu Huang's innate leadership and cohesion.

However, no matter the exact reason was, it was an undeniable fact that Su Xuanye was threatened by Yu Huang.

The old dean asked Sheng Xiao, "But what does this have to do with Anna?"

"Look again." Sheng Xiao let the video continue playing. When the video was about to go out of control, Sheng Xiao pointed at Su Xuanye's lips and reminded Yu Huang, "Look, isn't Su Xuanye talking? I watched the video five times just now and found that Su Xuanye chanted a spell before Anna lost control. You know lip-reading. Look at what he chanted."

This time, Su Xuanye's words were more obscure and difficult to understand. Yu Huang read it a few more times before saying uncertainly, "The hungry devil that all living beings fear. Please wake up quickly!" After reciting this sentence, Yu Huang's expression changed drastically. "This is a curse! It's a curse from the Purifying Spirit Art!"

Under Lin Jiansheng's request, Yu Huang was already familiar with the contents of the Purifying Spirit Incantation. She clearly remembered that this incantation was in the Purifying Spirit Incantation!

Yu Huang refuted Sheng Xiao's point. "But if you want to awaken Anna's demonic nature, you have to have a medium. Anna has never interacted with Su Xuanye. There is no medium between them..."

At this point, Yu Huang suddenly thought of something that had happened a long time ago and immediately shut her mouth.

Yu Huang suddenly turned her head and stared at the black pearl bracelet on Anna's right wrist. She was instantly enlightened.

"How is it?" Sheng Xiao asked Yu Huang. "What do you know?"

Yu Huang's phoenix eyes were filled with gloom. She said with a dark expression, "It's Na Luo!"

Na Luo?

The old dean asked Yu Huang, "What did Na Luo do to Anna?"

"Grand Mentor, do you still remember that Anna always wears a black deep sea pearl bracelet on her wrist?"

The old dean also looked at Anna's wrist in the video. On the day of the battle, Anna happened to be wearing the pearl bracelet.

The old dean was close to Anna, so he naturally knew the origin of this bracelet. "Of course I remember. Anna once told me that it was a gift from Na Luo. It's a bracelet made of deep-sea black pearls. This bracelet can help people with fragile souls fall asleep faster, so Anna always wears it."

"Besides, Anna doesn't have many friends. She cherishes the friends around her. She wears any small thing you give her like a treasure and is afraid that she will lose it. So Anna wears that bracelet every day and can't bear to take it off."

Anna had lost her mother since she was young, and her father was an alcoholic and violent man. Anna grew up enduring her father's abuse. Later, when she entered the Divine Eagle Academy, she was bullied because she stuttered and her beast form was weak.

Thus, Anna couldn't sleep well. Whenever she slept, she would have nightmares.

That bracelet perfectly solved Anna's problem.

Na Luo's gift had really touched Anna's heart.

At that time, Na Luo and Anna weren't close. Therefore, when Yu Huang returned from the mystic realm and found that Na Luo had given Anna a bracelet, Yu Huang became suspicious.

"That's right. When I discovered this bracelet back then, I even suspected that Na Luo had ulterior motives for getting close to Anna. I even specially asked my mentor about the material of this bracelet, but my mentor said that there was nothing wrong with this thing, so I didn't take it to heart."

But they were still careless.

"There's indeed nothing wrong with the material of this bracelet, but there's something wrong with the person who gave her the necklace." Yu Huang stared at the bracelet on Anna's wrist. Her beautiful face was gloomy as she said, "If Su Xuanye leaves his spiritual sense on this bracelet in advance and gets Na Luo to give the bracelet to Anna, then there will be a medium between Anna and Su Xuanye. This way, when the time is right, as long as Su Xuanye chants the curse, Anna will awaken her demonic nature."

“So that day, Anna was schemed against by Su Xuanye and Na Luo.”

Yu Huang never expected that Na Luo had her eyes on Anna since last year.

If her guess was true, then Na Luo’s thoughts were too terrifying.

Why did the Blood Peacock Organization target Anna?

Did they already know about Anna’s beast form and deliberately awaken her demonic nature to raise her into a inhumane killing machine?

Sheng Xiao asked thoughtfully, “If your analysis is correct, will Anna regain consciousness as long as we take off the bracelet?”

The old dean smiled bitterly and said, “How can it be that easy? It’s very difficult for demonic cultivators to control themselves. Once their beast form awakens their demonic nature and tastes the sweetness, they will be unable to control themselves from then on. As they devour more and more spiritual power, and their cultivation becomes stronger, they will be even more difficult to control.”

“Those demonic cultivators often end up looking inhumane. Since Anna has awakened her demonic nature, there will never be a day when she recovers her consciousness...”

The old dean’s words instantly made the atmosphere in the bedroom heavy.

* *

The Icy Night T-Rex carried Anna and quickly flew across the sky of the Blazing Realm Continent. In a few seconds, they arrived at the periphery of the primitive forest.

Anna stared at the vast primitive forest below that was as wide as three to four Divine Moon Empire. She immediately felt uneasy. “T-Rex, I’m a human. Can those demon beasts really accept me?”

“Yes.”

The Icy Night T-Rex landed by the river with Anna. This was the periphery of the primitive forest. There were some pots and pans scattered by the river, as well as some plastic bags and basins. It seemed like they were trash left behind by the last batch of mercenaries who arrived here.

The Icy Night T-Rex placed Anna on the shore and dived into the river. It gulped down a few mouthfuls of water to relieve its thirst before flying out of the river. When it flew out of the river, the water in the river was instantly frozen into ice.

Anna suddenly smiled when she saw this.

The Icy Night T-Rex roared. He squatted quietly by the river and said to Anna, “Rest for a while. We’ll go to the center later.”

“Okay.”

Anna saw that the river was frozen. She suddenly picked up the bloody Lolita dress, took off her high heels, and skated on the river in her socks. The river ditch flowed from halfway up the mountain to the valley, so the ice extended into the valley. Anna sat on the ice and quickly slid from the middle reaches to the bottom of the valley.

Seeing that Anna had slid hundreds of meters away in the blink of an eye, the Icy Night T-Rex immediately spread its wings and flew over. It carefully picked Anna up from the river.

Anna said, "A few more times!"

While she was still occasionally conscious, she wanted to laugh a few more times.

"Alright!"

The Icy Night T-Rex played a few skating games with Anna.

Anna went crazy. She simply laid on the ice and let the ice bring her to the valley. She laid on the lake in the valley and quietly stared at the blue sky in the deep forest. She was lost in thought.

When she thought about how this clean world would one day have mountains of corpses and rivers of blood because of her, she felt suffocated.

Guilt and anguish surged into her heart.

Suddenly, a cold dragon claw gently lifted her arm.

Anna opened her eyes. In her teary vision, an incomparably huge Icy Night T-Rex head was gradually approaching. As it got closer, Anna could clearly see the Icy Night T-Rex's ice-blue eyes. At this moment, the reflection of herself in its eyes was crying.

The Icy Night T-Rex gently rubbed its head against Anna's shoulder, and Anna hugged its head.

From now on, the only person who was willing to follow her was this silly Icy Night T-Rex.

"Anna, I want to give you a gift."

Anna let go of the Icy Night T-Rex and a curious expression appeared on her beautiful face. "What are you giving me?"

The Icy Night T-Rex suddenly flew into the sky. He extended his sharp claws and pressed them on his heart. The Icy Night T-Rex used all his strength to tear off the dragon scale closest to his chest, along with his flesh and blood.

Pulling out the dragon scale was a very painful thing, especially the heart-protecting scale.

The Icy Night T-Rex couldn't help but roar in pain. His deafening roar frightened the low-level demon beasts in the outer circle into hiding in the cave.

The Icy Night T-Rex flew back to Anna with the protective scale.

"Anna." The Icy Night T-Rex handed the heart-protecting scale to Anna. He said sincerely and affectionately, "My mother told me that when the Icy Night T-Rex race meets the girl they love the most, they will take off their only heart-protecting scale and woo her."

The Icy Night T-Rex stuffed his only protective scale into Anna's hand. He said, "I don't know when you will completely lose your mind. Before you lose your mind, I want you to know that I love you."

Chapter 442: Eating the Most Spicy Roast Meat and Drinking the Best Wine

He didn't know when Anna would become a fiendish cultivator, nor did he know when he would be able to take human form.

But he still wanted to tell her that he liked her.

Due to her family, Anna had never believed in love since she was young, let alone hope that she could have a sincere relationship. However, the sincerity of the Icy Night T-Rex made Anna feel the feeling of being cherished and loved. Anna lowered her eyes and looked at the bleeding Heart-Protecting Scale on her palm. Tears had long flowed down her face.

So this was how it felt to be liked.

Anna handed the dragon scale to the Icy Night T-Rex. She said, "Let it merge with me." In the Icy Night T-Rex clan, if one party was willing to wear the other party's Heart-Protecting Scale, it meant that they were husband and wife.

Anna took the initiative to ask the Icy Night T-Rex to merge the Heart-Protecting Scale with her body. This meant that Anna had accepted the Icy Night T-Rex's confession and was willing to become his partner.

Hearing this, the Icy Night T-Rex was shocked. He asked helplessly, "Really?"

Of course Anna meant it.

From the moment the Icy Night T-Rex ignored the danger and left with her alone while saying to her, "I'm willing to be exiled with you," Anna had been moved by the Icy Night T-Rex's sincerity.

Anna was wearing a gothic black dress with black lace sleeves. The dress had several layers. She had taken off her black belt and small jacket, and only wore a pure white gauze dress.

Anna pulled down the sleeve of her short skirt from her shoulder, revealing a fair and slightly bulging chest. She took the initiative to approach the Icy Night T-Rex and pressed the dragon scale with flesh and blood on her chest. She said to the Icy Night T-Rex again, "Please let it become one with me."

The Icy Night T-Rex could feel Anna's sincerity and courage. He nodded. "Okay."

Anna clenched her fists and frowned in pain, but urged, "Continue."

Although the Icy Night T-Rex's heart ached for Anna, he still firmly pressed the Heart-Protecting Scale into Anna's flesh. The Icy Night T-Rex activated its demonic power. Under the catalysis of his demonic power, the Heart-Protecting Scale gradually fused with the human body.

Anna fell to her knees in pain.

She reached out and grabbed the weeds on the ground tightly. She raised her head and cried out in pain.

However, she never shouted for the Icy Night T-Rex to stop.

This process lasted for about an hour.

At this moment, there was an ice-blue dragon scale on Anna's fair chest. The Heart-Protecting Scale had fused with her flesh and blood, and it was covered in human bloodline and meridians.

Anna was already numb from the pain. She knelt on the ground with her lips trembling. She looked even more pitiful. With her weak appearance, no one would believe that she was a fiendish cultivator.

The Icy Night T-Rex crawled in front of Anna. Anna could no longer hold on and fell onto the back of the Icy Night T-Rex.

The Icy Night T-Rex turned his head and rubbed against Anna's arm. He said, "I'll bring you back to my hometown."

"... Okay."

The Icy Night T-Rex carried Anna and leaped into the sky. They flew hundreds of meters into the deep sky and flew towards the center of the primitive forest, beginning a journey of exile.

The night sky was filled with stars. Sheng Xiao looked up at the starry night sky. He suddenly held Yu Huang's fingers and said, "Let's go home tonight." They hadn't returned to their house by the Lovers Lake for a long time.

There was always someone watching the villa by the lake. Sheng Xiao called the butler in advance. The butler immediately asked the chef to prepare food for them. When they drove home, the chef had already prepared supper.

The supper was a grilled fish and two plates of spicy grilled beef.

Sheng Xiao took out a bottle of green plum wine from the wine cabinet. There was only half of it left.

He carried the tray with the Green Plum Wine and wine glass to the courtyard. Yu Huang had already taken a shower and was waiting for him at the open-air coffee table in a light purple negligee. The bright moon descended from the sky and sprinkled all over her, draping her with a layer of silver light.

There was no wind in the night, but Sheng Xiao's heart fluttered.

Yu Huang leaned back in her chair lazily and asked without turning her head, "Why are you staring at me?"

Sheng Xiao only walked over with the tray when he was discovered.

He unscrewed the cork and poured half a glass of wine into Yu Huang's glass. He suddenly said, "Just one glass. I don't have much Green Plum Wine left. I have to save it." No one knew if Madam Sheng would return to their side. Sheng Xiao was afraid that he would never get to drink it again if he finished it.

Yu Huang understood what Sheng Xiao meant. She sighed. "There will be a day of reunion."

Sheng Xiao thought of Sheng Yang, whose whereabouts were unknown. The light in his eyes dimmed. "I wonder how Yang Yang is doing now."

"Her soul lamp is still lit. Her life isn't in danger."

"Na Luo is too difficult to figure out. I wonder what she planned by kidnapping Yang Yang." Thinking of what Na Luo had done to Anna, Sheng Xiao was worried that Na Luo would use Sheng Yang to do something against the world.

Yu Huang thought of something, and her expression instantly became solemn.

"Let's not think about this tonight. Come, let's drink." The two of them clinked glasses and took a sip of wine before picking up the beef skewer to eat.

The fragrance of the beef spread in Sheng Xiao's mouth. Sheng Xiao said regretfully, "I've never had barbecue with my friends on the street before. When the world is peaceful, we'll call our best friends and go to the lively night market to eat the most delicious barbecue and drink the best wine. Okay?"

"Alright!"

They finished the food and gradually leaned towards each other with wine glasses. Soon, they sat on the same recliner.

Sheng Xiao finished the last mouthful of Green Plum Wine. He moved his body and took the wine glass from Yu Huang. He threw the wine glass on the table and pressed Yu Huang down.

Yu Huang was already a little drunk. When she looked at Sheng Xiao, she felt that he was wearing a white shirt. It was dreamy and handsome. Yu Huang pinched Sheng Xiao's ear and burped.

"Brother Xiao."

"Huh?" Sheng Xiao twirled her hair with his fingertips. He looked at her with a burning gaze that made her cheeks burn.

Yu Huang shamelessly raised her waist and approached Sheng Xiao's chest. She pressed her fingers on the mole beside Sheng Xiao's collarbone and said, "I suddenly want to have a child with you."

Sheng Xiao's gaze darkened. He wished he could give her all his children and grandchildren...

* *

The next morning, Yu Huang woke up in the master bedroom and heard Sheng Xiao practicing his sword in the courtyard downstairs.

She brushed her teeth and changed into a clean set of clothes. Just as she was about to put on her interspatial ring, she thought of something and hurriedly took out the Eye of All Things.

Yu Huang carried the Eye of All Things to the balcony outside the master bedroom and sat down cross-legged. She raised the Eye of All Things and floated in the void while staring at it and prying. Her adoptive father had said that when her energy was strong enough, she could see a person's past and future through the Eye of All Things.

Yu Huang was now a Level 4 Purifying Spirit Master. Her soul power was much stronger than before. She, who had once stared at the Eye of All Things for a few minutes and would be exhausted, could now look at it for more than an hour.

Yu Huang's brown eyes gradually changed. Soon, her eyes turned as black as ink.

Yu Huang quietly stared at the Eye of All Things. Soon, her soul was sucked into a dreamy world that was as ethereal and silent as the universe.

In this dream world, what appeared in front of Yu Huang wasn't a galaxy of stars, but endless grayish-black lines. These lines were densely intertwined, like a ball of yarn. It was as if all living beings were interacting with each other. Some became husband and wife, some became friends, and some became enemies.

It was the Holy Spirit Continent's billions of independent soul bodies. Every soul thread represented a living being.

Among them, there was herself, Sheng Xiao, and naturally, Anna, whom she missed the most.

If Yu Huang wanted to see Anna's past, present, and future through the Eye of All Things, she had to accurately find Anna's soul thread among these dozens of grayish-brown soul threads.

This was even more difficult than finding a needle in a haystack.

Yu Huang stared at the soul threads that looked exactly the same. She wasn't anxious. On the contrary, she was very calm. She sat cross-legged in the void and closed her eyes while imagining Anna's appearance in her mind.

Soon, the face of a cute girl in a Lolita dress and a pair of ponytails appeared in Yu Huang's mind.

Anna stood quietly in Yu Huang's mind. She looked at Yu Huang sadly and didn't speak.

Yu Huang called Anna's name repeatedly in her heart.

Anna.

Anna.

Anna!

She wanted to find Anna, so she didn't notice that her body was shooting rays of light at the soul thread. Sensing the existence of the light, the soul thread suddenly slowed down.

At this moment, Yu Huang suddenly opened her eyes and flew towards the boundless soul thread in the blink of an eye.

She shuttled through the soul thread and searched.

This one wasn't, this one wasn't, and this one wasn't!

Yu Huang chose hundreds of spiritual threads that were suspected to be Anna's, but none of them were Anna's.

At this moment, Yu Huang already felt that her soul power was insufficient. She gritted her teeth and refused to give up easily. Yu Huang continued to search. After she searched for a few more minutes, a grayish-black line was suddenly flicked out by the soul thread.

After the ball of thread was sent flying, it still refused to leave. It was still trying to squeeze into their midst.

However, the more it wanted to approach those soul threads, the further the soul threads pushed it.

When Yu Huang saw this scene, she suddenly thought of the scene of Anna being ostracized by the cultivation world.

How similar.

As soon as this thought flashed through her mind, Yu Huang's eyes instantly lit up.

That was Anna!

Chapter 443: Foreseeing Anna's Future

Yu Huang hurriedly flew over and grabbed the grayish-black line. The black line struggled with all its might in Yu Huang's palm to break free from her restraints.

However, in the Eye of All Things, the Eye of Samsara was the God that ruled over everything. All living beings were just fragile soul threads, and they were unable to break free from Yu Huang's restraints. Yu Huang pinched that heart and urged her mental strength to pry into the information of this soul thread.

Soon, sad memories were sent into Yu Huang's mind along the soul thread—

It was a little girl with a playful appearance and a pair of beautiful eyes.

It was snowing and early in the morning, so there were very few people at the entrance of the convenience store. A gentle-looking woman squatted in front of the little girl and said, "Anna, Mommy forgot to bring money. Can you wait for Mommy here? Mommy will go back and get the money to buy your favorite rabbit bun."

Although the woman who called herself her mother looked very gentle, she looked very haggard. She was clearly very young, but her eyes were filled with fatigue.

The little girl nodded and said crisply, "Okay."

"Anna, be good and wait for me here. Mommy will be back soon." The woman kissed Anna's forehead lovingly and turned to leave. Her thick snow boots left a series of heavy footprints on the ground. After walking for a while, the woman suddenly turned around and looked at Anna.

Anna raised her right hand and waved at her mother with a smile. "Mommy, hurry up."

"Yes!"

The woman turned her back to Anna and started to wipe her tears. Yu Huang saw a dark green scar on the back of the woman's slender hand.

Anna remembered what her mother had said. She had to stay where she was and wait for her. Her mother would be back soon. However, after that woman left, she never returned. Anna stood at the door of the convenience store. The snow was so thick that it could cover the soles of her snow boots.

In the snow, Anna's face turned purple from the cold, and her hands, hidden under her knitted gloves, were frozen stiff.

The sky was getting darker and darker, but the little girl had been standing here for the entire day. She refused to leave, and no one came to pick her up. Finally, a kind person came forward to talk to her.

"Little girl, why have you been standing here? Where are your parents?"

"Little girl, are you lost? Can we send you to the police station? The police will help you find your mother."

Anna refused to leave. She stared at the rabbit ears on the knitted gloves. Her lips trembled as she stammered, "My, my mother went back to get the money. I can't leave. If I leave, she won't be able to find me."

However, Anna waited until the sky turned dark, but her mother didn't return.

Later, someone finally couldn't stand it and forcefully brought Anna to the police station. Not long after, a handsome man in a suit came to the police station. The man claimed to be Anna's father.

However, in Anna's memory, although her father had a human appearance and was wearing a suit, his face was a blurry mosaic. It could be seen how much Anna disliked this man.

The man brought Anna home. The moment he returned home and saw the house, the man immediately cursed angrily, "That b*tch doesn't want you anymore. She abandoned you and ran away. She went to find a richer man!"

Anna stared at her exasperated father, who was smashing things in the house. She said nothing.

Later, every time her mother left, Anna would go to the entrance of the small store to wait for her. She would wait from early morning until dark.

Day after day, year after year, the girl grew older and older. However, her mother, who had promised to come back to bring her to buy rabbit buns after getting the money, never returned, and her father became more and more unhinged.

Her father became addicted to alcohol. After he returned home, he always vented all the unhappiness he suffered in the company on Anna.

He hit her, picked up the bottle, and threw it at her. He raised the stool and threw it at her.

He scolded her, called her a b*tch's child, and called her an unwanted child.

After the scolding, the man would feel guilty and buy a beautiful dress to force Anna to change into. He would dress her up as a beautiful little princess and take a few beautiful photos. He would post some hypocritical sentimental comments on his WeChat Moments to show off their affectionate father-daughter relationship.

He portrayed himself as a single father abandoned by a b*tch.

But no one knew how many scars were hidden under the cute girl's beautiful dress.

Yu Huang only looked at Anna's past as a bystander, but her heart ached for Anna.

Anna's memories had always been full of unhappiness. It was only when she was 17 years old that warm sunlight appeared in her memories for the first time. It was summer, and the third-year students of Yong Hui Academy were about to participate in the last beast awakening ceremony in their lives.

That day, Anna successfully awakened her beast form.

However, the moment that made her feel truly happy wasn't the moment when she successfully awakened her beast form. Instead, it was when she saw Yu Huang publicly defending her in front of all the students and helping her teach the Prosperous Capital's First High School a lesson.

Yu Huang knew most of what happened after that, so she skipped that memory and used her mental strength to pry into Anna's future.

Predicting the future was far more difficult than prying into the past.

Yu Huang dragged the spiritual thread in her hand backward and arrived at Anna's future. To pry into the future was to pry into the heavenly secrets. Yu Huang's eyes stung, and she clearly felt even more exhausted. Yu Huang gritted her teeth and mobilized all the psychic energy in the Spiritual Abode world. She forced herself to continue watching.

Finally, she saw the future Anna.

Anna stood in a wide square. She was wearing a Beast Tamer uniform and knelt in front of Di Ruofeng. She said in a sonorous voice, "The war has arrived. I request to fight!"

Di Ruofeng was also wearing a Prime Master Beast Tamer uniform. His eyes were slightly red as he looked at his little disciple and said with a choked voice, "Child, do you know that this farewell will be forever?!"

Anna kowtowed to Di Ruofeng. Her forehead was pressed against the smooth stone surface, and her voice became choked. "I'm unfilial and can't send you off in your old age. Please don't blame me!"

Di Ruofeng looked up at the sky and two drops of tears were blown away by the strong wind. "Since you're willing to fight, I naturally can't stop you! Anna, you're the same as your senior brother. You're the greatest pride of my life. Go!"

After receiving Di Ruofeng's approval, Anna stood up. She turned around and took a few steps before suddenly turning back to bow to Di Ruofeng. She cried and said, "I thank you for your guidance and nurturing! I wish you longevity and peace and joy!"

With that, Anna walked to the other side of the square. There were three to four Grand Master Beast Tamers standing there.

Seeing Anna walk over, the Grand Masters gave Anna an encouraging smile. Then, they extended their right hands towards Anna at the same time. Anna held their hands, then lowered her head and bit their hands.

The next scene completely agitated Yu Huang until her eyes turned red.

"Ah!"

Yu Huang was suddenly ejected by the world in the Eye of All Things. Her body fell back against the wall, and the Eye of All Things fell into her arms.

Sheng Xiao heard Yu Huang's call and immediately abandoned his sword and went upstairs.

He ran into the master bedroom and saw Yu Huang sitting on the ground without moving. He hurriedly carried her by the waist and placed her on the bed. "What's wrong?"

Yu Huang grabbed Sheng Xiao's hand.

Just now, Yu Huang had overdrawn her spiritual power to predict the future. At this moment, her beautiful face looked pale, and she looked so haggard that she looked like she could faint at any moment.

"Sheng Xiao, tell the Grand State Master that he must do his best to protect Anna! Anna will be the key to turning the situation around in the battle two months later!" Yu Huang was relieved after telling Sheng Xiao about it. Then, she closed her eyes and fainted.

Sheng Xiao was relieved to see that she was only mentally exhausted and wasn't seriously injured.

Sheng Xiao covered Yu Huang with a thin blanket and turned the temperature of the air conditioner to 26 degrees. Then, he went downstairs and said to the butler, "Prepare a Spirit Gathering Soup for the Young Madam. When she wakes up, give it to her."

The butler lowered his head and asked, "Young Master, where are you going?"

"I need to go out for something."

Sheng Xiao didn't know what Yu Huang had seen, but he didn't dare to delay what she had told him.

The lake where he lived wasn't far from the capital's royal family. It was only a forty-minute drive away. Sheng Xiao drove the motorcycle and arrived at the capital's royal family without any obstructions. The soldiers standing outside the palace recognized him and immediately shouted, "Young Master Sheng is entering the palace. Let him in!"

It was forbidden for non-royal vehicles to ride in the royal palace.

Sheng Xiao placed the motorcycle in the special parking area and walked into the royal palace. On the way, he met Mo Yelou, who had just finished an interview with a reporter from another country.

Sheng Xiao had to bow when he saw the emperor of the Divine Moon Empire. "Greetings, Your Majesty."

Mo Yelou quickly hid the half-eaten sweet potato into his interspatial ring. Then, he asked Sheng Xiao with a dignified expression, "Young Master Sheng, are you going to see the Grand State Master?"

"Yes, I have something to discuss with the Grand State Master."

Since it was related to the Grand State Master, Mo Yelou didn't waste Sheng Xiao's time. He said, "Go quickly. If you're free, come over for lunch with me. The last time we had a meal together, you were still a little kid. In the blink of an eye, you have a family and a career."

Sheng Xiao wasn't interested in eating with Mo Yelou. "If you're free, I'll definitely come to His Majesty for a meal."

"I'll wait."

Seeing Sheng Xiao striding towards the Grand State Master's Divination Tower, Mo Yelou shook his head with emotion. He couldn't help but complain to his personal guard, "If there's anyone I hate the most, it's Sheng Xiao. When I was a Supreme Master, he was still a child. Now that he is a Supreme Master, I'm still a Supreme Master. Every time my mother says that I'm not promising, she compares me to the Sheng family."

Sheng Xiao was a stereotypical outstanding child. Even the king of a country had to be compared to him.

The guard hurriedly flattered, "Your Majesty, as the ruler of a country, you are good at governing. Under your rule, the Divine Moon Empire is far superior to other countries in terms of both economic and military strength. Your Majesty, you also receive the envy of other monarchs!"

This flattered Mo Yelou. Mo Yelou gave him a look of admiration.

Chapter 444: Respectable, my ass!

The Grand State Master sensed Sheng Xiao's spiritual power early on. When Sheng Xiao arrived at the Divination Tower, Lin Feng, the attendant beside the Grand State Master, was already waiting outside the tower.

When he saw Sheng Xiao, Lin Feng straightened his sleeves and took a step forward. He stood in front of Sheng Xiao and said with a smile, "I was wondering who came to visit. The Grand State Master sent me to welcome you personally. So it's Young Master Sheng."

Lin Feng looked behind Sheng Xiao and confirmed that Sheng Xiao had come alone. He said in surprise, "Miss Ah Huang and Young Master Sheng have always been inseparable. Why is Young Master Sheng here alone today?"

Sheng Xiao had met Lin Feng a few times and was considered an acquaintance. He said bluntly, "Ah Huang isn't feeling well. She's resting at home. I have something to discuss with the Grand State Master."

When he heard that Yu Huang wasn't feeling well, Lin Feng's eyes darted around and he asked, "Could it be that Miss Ah Huang is pregnant?"

Sheng Xiao was speechless.

They had been married for a few months. It wasn't surprising if she was pregnant.

Sheng Xiao's ears turned red when he thought of the lovemaking last night.

Seeing that Young Master Sheng was bashful, Lin Feng thought that he had guessed the truth. "Is she really pregnant? Congratulations, Young Master Sheng!"

Seeing that the misunderstanding was getting worse, Sheng Xiao quickly explained, "She's not pregnant. She used the Eye of All Things, so she's mentally exhausted. She's resting at home."

"... So that's how it is." Lin Feng felt a little regretful. He thought that the Grand State Master would become a god grandfather after Miss Ah Huang and Young Master Sheng had a child so quickly.

After knowing that Yu Huang had used the Eye of All Things, Lin Feng guessed that Sheng Xiao had something to discuss with the Grand State Master. Lin Feng didn't dare to waste any time. He quickly turned around and brought Sheng Xiao into the Divination Tower.

The Divination Tower had been built a thousand years ago. The facilities inside were very retro, and there was no elevator. They had to climb the tower on foot along the wooden stairs.

When Sheng Xiao saw the Grand State Master, he was about to eat lunch.

There were four dishes on the dining table, two meat and two vegetables. They looked exquisite and delicious.

The Grand State Master had yet to eat. When he saw Sheng Xiao, he pointed at the empty seat at the dining table and said to Sheng Xiao, "Sit down and talk while eating." The Grand State Master looked like a person who was difficult to get close to, but he liked to chat with others during dinner. That made him more hungry.

Sheng Xiao didn't treat the Grand State Master as an outsider. He walked over and sat down. He picked up a piece of crispy bamboo shoot with his chopsticks and tasted it. In the Divine Moon Empire, the bamboo shoot was past season, but this bamboo shoot was fresh and delicious. It must have been flown over from the Light Sea.

Sheng Xiao took two more bites and put down his chopsticks. He went straight to the point. "Yu Huang saw the future through the Eye of All Things. She fell asleep because she was mentally exhausted. She asked me to send a message to the Grand State Master."

The Grand State Master waved his hand and said, "Let me guess."

Sheng Xiao said humbly, "Go ahead."

The Grand State Master said, "I've been divining frequently recently to predict the outcome of the final battle in two months. I discovered that there was an additional variable. However, my abilities are limited, and I can't predict who that variable is. I guess Ah Huang must have seen that variable."

Sheng Xiao smiled. "The Grand State Master's analysis might be right."

Lin Feng could easily read the Grand State Master's gaze.

He immediately left the dining room and called all the servants on the top floor downstairs so that he wouldn't disturb the Grand State Master and Sheng Xiao's conversation.

The Grand State Master was still worried. He built another soundproof wall outside the dining room and said to Sheng Xiao, "What message did Ah Huang ask you to send?"

Sheng Xiao told the Grand State Master Yu Huang's instructions. "You must do your best to protect Anna! In the battle two months later, Anna will be the key to turning the situation around!"

A puzzled expression appeared on the Grand State Master's handsome face. "Anna?" The Grand State Master asked uncertainly, "Anna? Dean Di's disciple?"

The Grand State Master didn't have a deep impression of Anna. He only knew that Di Ruofeng had accepted a little girl who loved to wear dresses two years ago.

Sheng Xiao nodded. "Yes."

The Grand State Master had been in seclusion for the past few days, so he really didn't know what had happened to Anna.

Seeing that the Grand State Master didn't know, Sheng Xiao told him what had happened to Anna.

The Grand State Master's expression turned serious. "If it's really as you said, and this girl called Anna has indeed awakened a Mutated Devouring Beast with demonic nature, then no matter for what reason she awakened her demonic nature, as long as her demonic nature is awakened, it can't be suppressed or removed."

"However, there are many fence sitters in the cultivation world. These people are extremely gullible. They have always only cared about the results and not the process. They don't care if Anna is possessed by Su Xuanye. They only care if Anna will hurt them after she becomes a demon."

"As long as one person sings the demon-slaying command, tens of millions of people will follow." The Grand State Master said with a cold expression, "Because this is human nature."

Back then, wasn't it the same when the six families of the Divine Moon Empire surrounded Su Tingxue?

As the young master of the Sheng family, Sheng Xiao knew that sometimes, human nature was magnificent, but sometimes, it was stupid. "Now, Xuanyuan Shen is calling for all the Beast Tamers on the continent to fight against the demonic cultivators. Even if Anna hides in the primitive forest, she will still be in danger. Grand State Master, if you trust Yu Huang, please protect Anna as much as possible.”

The Grand State Master pondered for a moment and sighed. “I’ve lived for more than a thousand years. It’s been a long time since I’ve done anything rash. This time, I’ll make an exception.”

Sheng Xiao knew that the Grand State Master agreed.

When he returned to the Lovers Lake, Yu Huang was still unconscious. However, she looked calm after she fell asleep. Sheng Xiao couldn’t bear to wake her up, so he let her continue sleeping. As the date of the final battle neared, it wouldn’t be easy to sleep soundly in the future.

* *

On the other side, although Anna and the Icy Night T-Rex successfully hid in the primitive forest, the trend of suppressing demonic cultivators in the cultivation world didn’t stop. Instead, it became more and more intense.

Xuanyuan Shen stood on the high platform of the Xuanyuan Clan’s martial arts arena and indignantly expressed his hatred for fiendish cultivators and his strong desire to suppress them.

“History has proven that generations of demonic cultivators have slaughtered the innocent and are inhumane. No matter what kind of personality Anna had in the past, from the moment she awakened her demonic nature and devoured the spiritual power of three guest elders of the Xuanyuan Clan, she became the common enemy of the entire cultivation world!”

“Everyone is responsible for bringing a demonic cultivator to justice! Everyone, I suggest that we unite and approach the forest together to force those demon beasts to hand Anna over!”

Below the stage, there were more than a hundred beast tamers who had come from afar. They all hated fiendish cultivators to the core. Under Xuanyuan Shen’s encouragement, the viciousness in these people’s hearts was aroused. They raised their hands and shouted loudly, “Everyone is responsible for killing fiendish cultivators!”

Yu Huang watched this scene from afar and couldn’t help but feel a chill run down her spine. She wondered if they were also so excited when Su Tingxue was jointly besieged by the six families.

Xuanyuan Shen sensed Yu Huang’s spiritual energy fluctuations and immediately raised his head to look at a thousand-year-old ancient tree of the Xuanyuan Clan. “Young Patriarch Yin, since you’re here, why hide behind the tree and refuse to show yourself?”

Young Patriarch Yin?

Yu Huang?

Seeing that Xuanyuan Shen had discovered her, Yu Huang no longer hid. She flew out from behind the tree with Ji Linyuan and landed on the high platform where Xuanyuan Shen was standing.

Today, Yu Huang was wearing a red dress and a pair of black combat boots. Her black hair was casually tied into a high ponytail, revealing her plump and smooth forehead, making her look sharp and heroic.

When he saw Yu Huang, Xuanyuan Jing's gaze flickered and he lowered his head, not daring to look at her directly.

The current Yu Huang had already grown up and become the most dazzling person in the Holy Spirit Continent. The more dazzling Yu Huang was, the more Xuanyuan Jing realized how short-sighted he was and how muddle-headed he was when he was young and frivolous.

The current him was no longer qualified to be compared to Yu Huang.

In the entire Holy Spirit Continent, the person who could fight alongside Yu Huang had already become her husband.

Yu Huang didn't notice Xuanyuan Jing's existence at all. The current her was already stronger than Xuanyuan Jing. When she was strong enough, those who had hurt and humiliated her before would become insignificant ants to her.

Since he was an ant, why look at him?

"Young Patriarch Yin, Mr. Linyuan, are you coming with us to suppress that fiendish cultivator?"

At this point, Xuanyuan Shen even specially explained to the beast tamers below the stage, "Demonic Cultivator Anna was previously good friends with Young Patriarch Yin. After knowing that Anna had become a demonic cultivator, Young Patriarch Yin was willing to take the initiative to stand up and suppress the demonic cultivator Anna with us. It can be seen that her heart is filled with righteousness and justice. She is truly admirable!"

Yu Huang thought with ridicule, "Yeah right!"

"I didn't come here today to subdue the demon with everyone." Yu Huang denied Xuanyuan Shen's words on the spot.

Xuanyuan Shen's expression changed slightly when he heard this. The beast tamers below the stage also started to talk—

"What does Young Patriarch Yin mean? Is she not planning to deal with the fiendish cultivator with us?"

"However, Young Patriarch Yin and the fiendish cultivator Anna were friends after all. It's understandable that she couldn't do it herself."

Xuanyuan Shen heard the discussions of those people. He deliberately questioned Yu Huang maliciously, "Young Patriarch Yin, today is the day of the Demon Subduing Meet. You came to the scene, but you're not here to participate in the Demon Subduing Operation with everyone. May I ask what you want to do? Could it be that on account of your friendship, you're abandoning righteousness to protect that fiendish cultivator?!"

Without giving Yu Huang a chance to explain, he said righteously, "Prime Master Yin Mingjue sacrificed himself to save the world! How could such an indomitable man give birth to a daughter like you who doesn't know right from wrong?!"

“Young Patriarch Yin, what would your father think?”

Chapter 445: Clothing For Fighting

When Yu Huang heard this, she rolled her eyes. “Patriarch Xuanyuan, I was discussing the living with you, but you mentioned the dead. Aren’t you despicable?”

Xuanyuan Shen was speechless.

“Besides, my father died to save the world, so that means I have to kill my family and friends for justice?” Moral hijacking might be effective on others, but it was useless on Yu Huang.

Yu Huang covered her mouth and chuckled. She changed the topic and said with ill intentions, “Patriarch Xuanyuan, you clamored for exorcism so loudly. I think you must also be a gentleman filled with a sense of justice and morality. Since you’re a gentleman, I’m puzzled. Why did Zhou Buwen secretly send a message to me with a spiritual voice when he left the Eight Towers Mountain, saying that the reason Patriarch Xuanyuan was able to successfully marry Liuli Nuonuo back then was because of forceful means?”

She used the word “forceful means” to replace “rape” and let Xuanyuan Shen maintain some dignity.

As expected, Xuanyuan Shen’s expression suddenly became ugly when he heard this. Below the stage, Xuanyuan Shen and Liuli Nuonuo’s eldest son, Xuanyuan Ming, instantly turned pale with shame.

When the Xuanyuan Clan disciples saw the expressions of the Patriarch and Eldest Young Master, their mouths widened.

Damn!

This was actually true!

When those Beast Tamers who had lived for decades heard Yu Huang’s words and thought about Xuanyuan Shen’s estranged relationship with his wife, Liuli Nuo, over the years, everyone came to a realization. They looked at Xuanyuan Shen with amused expressions.

No wonder Liuli Nuonuo never liked Xuanyuan Shen. It turned out that the reason she married Xuanyuan Shen back then was because of Xuanyuan Shen’s scheme.

Anyone would find this difficult to accept.

Xuanyuan Shen felt guilty and naturally didn’t dare to argue with Yu Huang. He hurriedly said with a dark expression, “Today is the Demon Vanquishing Assembly. Let’s discuss the matter of the demon cultivator being executed. What is Young Clan Leader Yin’s motive for bringing up my private matters?”

The corners of Yu Huang’s lips curled up slightly. “What bad intentions could I have? Zhou Buwen is notorious. He must have said those words on purpose to slander you. I don’t believe him at all.”

Xuanyuan Shen snorted. “You’re so sharp-tongued!” If she didn’t believe him, she wouldn’t have deliberately said such a thing in public.

Yu Huang didn’t have the patience to stall for time with Xuanyuan Shen. She said to the hundred or so Beast Tamers below the stage, “The three guest elders of the Xuanyuan Clan were indeed devoured by Anna after she lost control. Their organs failed and they died. Anna is guilty, so I won't absolve her. But I came here today to clarify the ins and outs of this matter."

Xuanyuan Shen immediately retorted, "She's already been killed. What's there to clarify?!"

Yu Huang had no time to bother with Xuanyuan Shen. She took out the memory stone and raised it to the hundred or so Beast Tamers below the stage. "This is the surveillance video from the day of the battle at the Eight Towers Mountain. Everyone, I have evidence to prove that Anna isn't guilty of a heinous crime. Her loss of control was actually Su Xuanye's doing!"

After saying that, Yu Huang threw the memory stone into the sky. The video of the battle at the Eight Towers Mountain started playing in front of everyone.

Yu Huang stared at the image and explained, "Everyone, please pay attention. Anna is wearing a bracelet on her right wrist. This bracelet was given to her by our former good friend, Na Luo. You might not know, but this woman called Na Luo's true identity is actually the ancient merman beside Su Xuanye. Previously, she had been pretending to be an ordinary person and was lurking beside us."

"The Deep Sea Pearl Bracelet that Na Luo gave Anna was actually imprinted with Su Xuanye's soul mark. With this medium, on the day of the battle, Su Xuanye took the opportunity to cast a curse on Anna, causing the originally obedient and kind Anna to lose control of her consciousness and awaken her demonic nature."

Hearing Yu Huang's words, many people questioned, "Just because you said that she lost control of her consciousness because of Su Xuanye, we should believe you? Who knows if you're exonerating her?"

Yu Huang had long expected that someone would not believe her.

Yu Huang pointed at the only two Purifying Spirit Masters present. She pointed out frankly, "Among you, there are two high-level Purifying Spirit Masters. Supremacy Tana and Purifying Spirit Master Sero are both knowledgeable Purifying Spirit Masters. I believe they must be very familiar with Purifying Spirit Master curses."

"Supremacy Tana, Purifying Spirit Master Sero, take a closer look at the incantation Su Xuanye chanted when Anna's consciousness was in space-time. Is it a magic-promoting incantation?"

After being called out by Yu Huang, the two Purifying Spirit Masters walked out from the crowd.

They stood under the memory stone and looked up at the image of Su Xuanye chanting in a low voice. Supremacy Tana imitated Su Xuanye's lips and chanted—

[The hungry devil feared by all living beings, please wake up quickly!]

After reading it, the expressions of Supremacy Tana and Purifying Spirit Master Sero changed.

"This is indeed a magic-promoting curse!" Supremacy Tana immediately took out the book on the Purifying Spirit Master incantation and opened the Purifying Spirit Incantation's magic-promoting curse chapter. He pointed at one of the ancient words that were yellow and told everyone, "Everyone, the ancient word in the Purifying Spirit Incantation's magic-promoting curse chapter refers to the incantation that Su Xuanye chanted!"

Hearing this, a small number of rational beast tamers said in a low voice, “In that case, it means that Anna isn’t evil by nature. In the end, it’s Su Xuanye who used her.”

“Su Xuanye wants to see the world in chaos. He wants Anna to awaken her demonic nature and become a demonic cultivator, plunging the Holy Spirit Continent into misery and suffering. Isn’t this exactly what Su Xuanye wants?”

Seeing that someone’s stance was beginning to waver, Xuanyuan Shen immediately became anxious. Xuanyuan Shen stomped his feet and cursed angrily, “But so what?! The demonic cultivator Anna has already awakened her demonic nature, so she can’t regain consciousness anymore! As everyone knows, the stronger the demonic cultivator is, the weaker their human consciousness will be. In the end, they will completely become a demon.”

“Even if the demonic cultivator Anna was used by Su Xuanye, the Holy Spirit Continent still can’t tolerate her!”

“Killing every Beast Tamer with a demonic beast form before they grow up is an iron rule of the Beast Tamer Alliance! Have you forgotten the great destruction caused by demonic cultivators in the ten thousand years of the Holy Spirit Continent’s history?”

“Yu Huang!” Xuanyuan Shen pointed at Yu Huang and scolded in exasperation, “Yin Clan’s Matriarch, Prime Master Jing An, was the bravest and most combative heroine in the Demon Subduing War back then! More than two thousand years ago, the Yin Clan was once the strongest army in the Demon Subduing War. Why is it that now, the Yin Clan is covering up for the fiendish cultivator?!”

Xuanyuan Shen suddenly raised his right hand, and the spiritual energy in his hand turned into a long sword that pointed at the clouds. Xuanyuan Shen shouted with a majestic aura, “All righteous warriors, those who aren’t afraid of death and are unwilling to collude with the fiendish cultivator, follow me to the Abyssal Origin Forest to suppress the fiendish cultivators together!”

Under the influence of Xuanyuan Shen’s brainwashing, many Beast Tamers joined him. “Patriarch Xuanyuan is right. If the fiendish cultivator isn’t eliminated, there will be endless battles!”

Xuanyuan Shen led more than a hundred Supreme Master Beast Tamers onto the aircraft and drove towards the Abyssal Origin Forest.

Yu Huang stood on the high platform of the Xuanyuan Clan. She looked at the distant aircraft and asked Ji Linyuan in a low voice, “Is a fiendish cultivator really evil?”

Ji Linyuan thought about it and said, “Evil intentions are what is truly vicious.”

Yu Huang laughed self-deprecatingly and said, “How could they not understand such a simple principle?”

They clearly understood, but they were pretending not to.

Seeing that her persuasion had failed, Yu Huang sent the Grand State Master a message: "Godfather, I've failed. Please help."

When Mo Xiao saw this message, he turned to Lin Feng and said, "Go, prepare a set of clothes for me."

Lin Feng was stunned for a moment before asking uncertainly, "What style clothes do you want?" The Grand State Master usually wore the Grand State Master's uniform and rarely wore private clothes. Lin Feng had followed Mo Xiao for many years, but he didn't know Mo Xiao's clothing preferences.

Mo Xiao admired his slender and fair hands. When he heard this, his eyelashes fluttered and he said calmly, "It has to be convenient for fighting."

Lin Feng said, "...Okay."

* *

The reproduction conditions of the Icy Night T-Rex clan were very harsh, so there had never been many Icy Night T-Rexes.

A thousand years ago, there were five to six Icy Night T-Rexes on the Holy Spirit Continent. Now, there was only one Icy Night T-Rex left.

After the Icy Night T-Rex brought Anna to the center of the forest, it was immediately targeted by the super demon beasts living in the center. They surrounded the Icy Night T-Rex and Anna and looked at him warily.

The Icy Night T-Rex didn't dare to anger them, so it took the initiative to confess its origins.

After knowing that this Icy Night T-Rex had awakened its consciousness and had the potential to become a super demon beast, the super demon beasts who lived in the center of the forest accepted the Icy Night T-Rex.

Now, the demon beast clan had been forced to live in the forest by the Beast Tamers. They yearned for more experts to appear in the demon beast world. They yearned for the day when they could defeat the Beast Tamers and regain control of the Holy Spirit Continent!

The demon beasts could happily accept the existence of the Icy Night T-Rex, but they refused to accept Anna. Anna had no choice but to pull open her clothes and reveal the dragon scales on her chest, proving that she and the Icy Night T-Rex were partners.

Seeing that Anna and the Icy Night T-Rex had already become partners, the demon beasts' hostility towards her faded a little. However, they were still unwilling to accept Anna, yet they didn't force the Icy Night T-Rex to send Anna away.

A super demon beast with a high cultivation level said to the Icy Night T-Rex, "Keep your partner in check. If she dares to do anything to harm us demon beasts, we definitely won't let her off easily!"

Hearing this, the Icy Night T-Rex hugged Anna tightly and swore, "Don't worry, we will definitely behave ourselves."

"Hmph!"

These super demon beasts living in the center of the primitive forest were too terrifying. They didn't need to speak, nor did they need to release their demonic power. They just squatted there quietly and glanced at Anna coldly. Anna felt her scalp go numb.

This feeling would only appear when she faced a Prime Master.

Chapter 446: Anna VS Su Xuanye

“Take a rest. I'll build a house for you.”

The Icy Night T-Rex clan loved to live in cold and spacious caves. Their clan had existed for hundreds of thousands of years, but no dragon had ever personally built a house for humans.

However, Anna was a human. The Icy Night T-Rex was unwilling to let Anna suffer.

With that said, the Icy Night T-Rex flew up and used its huge body to knock down the nearby thick trees. Then, it placed its claw on the tree trunk and instantly slapped the round tree into two.

The Icy Night T-Rex only took a day to build a small wooden hut for Anna.

The room was very small, but it was complete. There was a bed and a dining table.

Anna looked at the busy Tyrannosaurus and lowered her head to look at the dragon scales on her chest. Her lips curled up unconsciously. She picked up a small stone and drew a cartoon version of a Tyrannosaurus on a large stone board, along with a petite human girl. She wrote beside the cartoon—

Anna and the little Tyrannosaurus's home.

The Icy Night T-Rex was so tired that it laid on the ground to rest. Seeing that Anna had placed the stone slab in front of the wooden house, he turned his head and glanced at the cartoon on the stone slab. The cartoon was easy to understand. The Icy Night T-Rex recognized that Anna was drawing him and Anna.

However, the Icy Night T-Rex couldn't understand the words on it.

After learning for more than a year, the Icy Night T-Rex was still illiterate.

“Anna, what are you writing?”

Anna turned around and smiled sweetly at the Tyrannosaurus. She said, “Anna and the Icy Night T-Rex's home.”

When the Icy Night T-Rex heard this, he was stunned. There were tears in his eyes. He suddenly reached out his claws and carried Anna up high while spinning in circles. He said happily, “That's great, I have a home again!” Ever since his mother passed away, the Icy Night T-Rex became an orphan and followed the old dean back to the Divine Realm Academy.

Therefore, home was a very sacred place for the Icy Night T-Rex.

The Icy Night T-Rex said excitedly, "In the future, I will embed the most beautiful gems and gold in the world on the wooden house and make it into a gem hut!" Every T-Rex liked shiny treasures, and the Icy Night T-Rex was no exception.

But he was also a maverick, because what he loved the most wasn't gold or gems, but the petite and cute human girl in his palm.

Hearing this, the Icy Night T-Rex put Anna down.

At night, Anna took out a blanket from her interspatial ring and laid it on the hard wooden bed. The newly built house was filled with the unique fragrance of wood. Anna laid in the wooden house surrounded by demon beasts but still felt uneasy.

The Icy Night T-Rex was sleeping outside the wooden house. When it heard Anna's call, it shrank its body and walked into the wooden house.

Anna rolled into the bed. She touched the other pillow and said to the Icy Night T-Rex, "Can you sleep with me? I'm afraid."

At this moment, the Icy Night T-Rex hated himself for his low cultivation level and lack of talent that prevented him from transforming into a human. Otherwise, he would have hugged Anna to sleep and patted her back when she was afraid.

The Icy Night T-Rex shrank its body as much as possible and laid on the wooden floor beside the bed. It placed its huge head on the bed and pressed itself against Anna's body. Anna stroked the T-Rex's cold scales, but she felt extremely calm.

The two of them started living in the center of the forest.

Anna was trying her best to adapt to the world of demon beasts. She didn't dare to go out too far since she was afraid that she would accidentally step into the territory of other demon beasts and be slapped to death by those demon beasts. The Icy Night T-Rex also didn't dare to leave Anna. It was afraid that Anna would lose control, but it was also worried that other demon beasts would bully Anna.

That night, Anna sat by the bonfire and roasted the fish that the Icy Night T-Rex had caught for her. She didn't notice that the black pearl bracelet on her right wrist was emitting a faint glow.

Anna felt a little sleepy after eating the fish. The Icy Night T-Rex extinguished the bonfire and went into the house to sleep with Anna as usual.

Anna slept soundly the first half of the night, but after midnight, Anna suddenly had a nightmare. She was deep in a dream and didn't know that she was dreaming. She thought that everything was real.

In her dream, Anna had become a demonic Prime Emperor with a high cultivation level. With a light twist of her finger, she could make the people of the Holy Spirit Continent suffer.

She was slaughtering non-stop.

She first killed the Beast Tamers, then the demon beasts, and finally, she extended her demonic claws to the commoners.

Anna saw all the commoners lying in front of her. Among them were her familiar neighbors, teachers she knew, and classmates close to her. She even saw herself digging out the hearts of her high school friends, Jiang Shangfeng, Vivian, and the others.

At that time, Vivian was already pregnant and was about to give birth.

Anna saw herself sticking her hand into Vivian's stomach and brutally killing her child. She also saw Vivian cursing her with her eyes wide open. "Anna, you will die a horrible death!"

Anna saw herself sticking her hand into Vivian's stomach and brutally killing her child. She also saw Vivian cursing her with her eyes wide open. "Anna, you will die a horrible death!"

Anna was clearly conscious, but she was unable to regain control of her body.

Anna watched as she killed the humans around her one by one. In the end, she even extended her demonic claws towards Yu Huang!

That was Yu Huang!

She was her most important friend in her life!

Anna watched helplessly as her palm passed through Yu Huang's chest, crushed Yu Huang's beast heart, and instantly absorbed all of Yu Huang's spiritual power and psychic power!

Before Yu Huang died, she said to her with hatred, "What I regret the most is going to the Broken Cliff to save you."

"Anna, I should have killed you long ago. Why didn't you die?!"

Why didn't you die?!

Anna suddenly opened her eyes and shouted in horror, "No! I can't kill Yu Huang!"

Anna instantly sat up on the wooden bed and panted heavily into the night.

In the darkness, the Icy Night T-Rex rubbed its head against Anna's neck and asked with concern, "Anna, did you have a nightmare?"

Anna suddenly threw herself into the arms of the Icy Night T-Rex. She cried and said, "I killed people, so many people. the class monitor, Vivian, Sheng Yang, Sheng Xiao, and even you and Yu Huang were all killed by me..."

Anna gritted her teeth and said in pain, "Kill me. Kill me!"

It was a dream, but not entirely a dream.

If she continued to live, the dream would become reality sooner or later.

Anna didn't want to become a murderous demon, let alone accept that she had killed the friend and lover she cared about the most.

“They’re right. Demonic cultivators are a cancer that harms the world. Once demonic cultivators awaken their demonic nature, they can’t control their consciousness at all. T-Rex, please kill me!” Anna said sorrowfully. “I want to leave with a clean conscience. I don’t want to be covered in sins.”

The Icy Night T-Rex was heartbroken.

Unless it was absolutely necessary, he wouldn’t kill the girl he loved the most with his own hands.

“Anna, before I give up on you, please don’t give up on yourself too. Let’s live our lives together. If...” The Icy Night T-Rex hugged Anna tightly and said, “If you really lose control, I promise you that I will be the first to kill you. I will let you leave cleanly.”

Anna closed her eyes and leaned against the Icy Night T-Rex without saying anything for a long time.

Unknowingly, the sky lit up.

Seeing that Anna had fallen asleep, the Icy Night T-Rex placed her gently on the bed and went out to cultivate.

The morning was the time when the spiritual energy was most abundant in the deep forest. Demonbeasts would wake up in the morning and head to the hinterland abyss in the center to cultivate.

It was rumored that there was an abyssal dragon living in the depths of the abyss. That dragon would spit out a portion of its spiritual power every morning. And these super demon beasts cherished that energy.

Therefore, every morning, a large number of super demon beasts would approach the abyss.

The reason why this primitive forest was called an abyss was because there was a bottomless crack in the center of it. Thousands of years ago, someone had heard a dragon’s roar in the abyss crack, so everyone guessed that there was an abyss dragon living in the depths of the crack.

The Icy Night T-Rex was a junior who came later. He wasn’t qualified to approach the abyss rift. He could only stand at the outermost area of the abyss and cultivate with the cubs of some super demon beasts.

The Icy Night T-Rex floated in the sky and could see a super big crack in the distance. The big crack was filled with milky white mist. The abyss was bottomless. It was said that a small demon beast had accidentally fallen into the abyss, but no one had ever heard it land.

When the first ray of sunlight shone on the primitive forest in the morning, a faint golden gas suddenly surged out of the abyss rift. It was the super powerful spiritual power spat out by the legendary Abyssal Dragon.

Seeing this, all the demon beasts opened their pores and tried their best to absorb as much spiritual energy as possible. The Icy Night T-Rex stood at the outermost area. When the spiritual energy floated to his side, there wasn’t much left. However, the Icy Night T-Rex still opened every dragon scale on its body and tried its best to absorb spiritual energy.

Just as the demon beasts were gathering in the abyss to absorb spiritual power, Anna woke up.

When she woke up, she realized that the bracelet on her wrist was glowing. Anna stared at the bracelet with a confused expression.

Why was this bracelet glowing?

Anna wanted to pull out the bracelet, but she realized that it had grown with her skin!

“What the hell is this?!”

Anna tugged hard and found that the bracelet had fused with the flesh on her wrist at a visible speed. This made Anna feel extremely uneasy.

No way!

Anna realized that there was something wrong with this bracelet and that she had to remove it. She gritted her teeth and immediately took out a dagger from her interspatial ring. She raised the dagger and cut the skin of her wrist without hesitation. She cut open the flesh, but the bracelet quickly fused with her bones.

Anna wanted to cry. What the hell was this?!

At this moment, a man’s voice that sounded unfamiliar but made Anna’s scalp tingle sounded outside the wooden house. “It’s useless, child. Even if you cut off this arm, the demonic nature you awakened still won’t disappear.”

Anna suddenly raised her head and looked out of the wooden house. She saw a man in a purple shirt and long white hair walking up the wooden stairs outside the door.

“Su Xuanye!” Anna never expected Su Xuanye to appear here!

This was the center of the abyss, where the super demon beasts lived. How could Su Xuanye dare to appear here?!

Su Xuanye bent down and entered the wooden house. He nodded at Anna and introduced himself.

“Hello, Anna. I’m Su Xuanye. We finally meet.”

Finally?

Su Xuanye had noticed her long ago?

These days, Anna’s naivety and kindness had long disappeared. Anna glared at Su Xuanye warily and asked coldly, “Su Xuanye, what did you do to me?”

Su Xuanye smiled, and his upraised eyebrows made him look even more sinister.

With his true colors revealed, Su Xuanye no longer needed to act in front of the world. Now, when he raised his eyebrows and chuckled, there was an unconcealable evilness and viciousness. The current him was worlds apart from the previously respected Saint Xuan Ye.

Su Xuanye said generously, “I helped you successfully awaken your demonic nature and gave you a chance to become an expert of your generation. Shouldn’t you thank me?”

Su Xuanye slowly approached the simple wooden bed. He looked down at Anna's beautiful and exquisite face, and his gaze gradually became sympathetic. "Poor Anna. You were abandoned by your mother, abused by your father, bullied by your classmates, and even forced to fall off the Broken Cliff. Don't you hate them for bullying you like this?"

"Don't you want to become strong and trample on the trash who humiliated you in the past? Anna, release your nature, devour, and conquer those who once looked down on you and hurt you. Let them know how powerful you are!"

Su Xuanye slowly extended his right hand towards Anna and said, "And I am willing to fight side by side with you. Soon, those who once looked down on you will submit to you!"

At this moment, Su Xuanye had once again put on his benevolent facade as a Purifying Spirit Saint.

From Anna's angle, Su Xuanye's body seemed to be covered in a layer of light. He looked radiant and worthy of her entrusting her life with!

She would release her nature, devour, conquer, and say no to those who had once looked down on her!

This was indeed a very tempting sentence, but...

Anna, however, shrank into the corner of the wooden bed and avoided Su Xuanye's outstretched hand. "I'm not as pathetic as you think, nor am I worthy of your pity, let alone proinge my strength by devouring the spiritual power and life of others."

Anna was curled up in a corner. She seemed as fragile as a little rabbit, but her gaze looked pure and tenacious.

Anna said, "I don't need to become strong, and I don't need to prove my strength to those who bullied me. I just want to live my life and become a little girl that Mentor likes, Yu Huang trusts, and the little T-Rex dotes on."

"As for those who have bullied me, they are just a group of cowards who bully the weak and fear the strong."

"Besides, in my opinion, the fact that I, who have the demonic beast form, can resist the temptation of becoming a demonic cultivator and becoming a powerhouse in exchange for being an ordinary person is in itself is a form of power."

Su Xuanye wouldn't be surprised to hear these words from an old man who had seen a lot. However, the person who said these words was Anna, who had been abandoned by her mother, abused by her father, and bullied by her classmates since she was young. This made Su Xuanye look at her in a different light.

Chapter 447: Tyrannosaurus: Anna, Eat Slowly, Don't Choke

According to Su Xuanye's plan, Anna should feel that fate was unfair, hate the world, and desire to become strong!

However, she was so calm and rational that she didn't seem like someone her age.

Su Xuanye's first step was that Anna would awaken her demonic nature and become a demonic cultivator. She would be despised by all the Beast Tamers in the world and become a demon that everyone wanted to kill.

When Anna was forced into a corner, he would invite her to join the Blood Peacock Organization and become their strongest ally. This was Su Xuanye's second step.

However, Anna rejected his invitation.

Su Xuanye looked at Anna deeply and his gaze turned cold. "Anna, you disappoint me."

Disappoint him?

Anna sneered. "Who do you think you are? We don't even know each other. What's there to be disappointed about?" Anna only wanted the people who loved her and cared about her not to be disappointed in her.

As for Su Xuanye...

Who did he think he was?!

With his current status, no one dared to offend him in front of him. When he heard Anna scold him, he didn't know whether to be angry or amused. "So, you refuse to become our ally?"

Anna still shook her head firmly. "I refuse."

"... Heh." Su Xuanye laughed ambiguously. The pity in his eyes instantly dissipated, and he returned to his previous cold appearance. "Anna, you know that after the demonic nature is completely awakened, you can't control yourself at all, right? If you lose control here, who do you think will be the first person you kill?"

Su Xuanye glanced in the direction of the abyss rift and smiled. He deliberately said, "It must be that silly Tyrannosaurus, right? I think it likes you very much. It dared to betray that old fellow Di Ruofeng for you and bring you to this place where demon beasts live to seek refuge."

"It's just a pity that his love will eventually kill him."

Su Xuanye shook his head sympathetically and sighed. "Since it's a divine demon, why must it fall in love with a human? Stupid!"

Since ancient times, few divine demons who fell in love with humans had good endings. Whether it was his mother or Lan Yao, who sacrificed herself to save Sheng Lingfeng, they all died because of the person they loved.

"Anna, since we won't work together due to our different goals, I'll give you another gift."

A gift?

What gift?

Anna stared at Su Xuanye warily and saw Su Xuanye's lips moving. At the same time, an ancient and obscure incantation sounded in the wooden hut. The incantation sounded, and the bracelet on Anna's wrist suddenly tightened. Then, her consciousness gradually became dazed.

Su Xuanye saw that Anna's eyes had turned into pitch-black demonic eyes again. He knew that he had succeeded in bewitching her, so he turned around and left.

After Su Xuanye left, an intense sense of hunger filled Anna's consciousness. Anna was very hungry and wanted to eat something urgently.

This feeling of hunger was extremely intense. What remained of her consciousness made Anna realize that she was about to lose control and become a killing machine at any moment!

No way!

She couldn't hurt the T-Rex!

At this moment, a group of powerful demon beasts returned from the abyss rift. The Icy Night T-Rex was among them and walked at the back of the demon beast group.

He held a cloth bag in his hand that was filled with red fruits. These fruits were special fruits from the abyss rift. They were sweet and delicious. Anna liked to eat fruits, especially sweet fruits. Anna would definitely like these fruits.

The Icy Night T-Rex flew to the door of the wooden house. Out of habit, he shrank his beast body a lot before walking in from the low wooden house. "Anna, I brought you sweet fruits!"

The Icy Night T-Rex dragged its heavy body to Anna and presented the sweet fruit to her. He looked forward to seeing Anna smile when she ate the delicious fruit. Her smile would make him feel happy.

"This fruit is very sweet. You'll definitely like it very much."

However, the usually lively and gluttonous Anna didn't respond to his enthusiasm.

She lowered her head and curled up in the corner. Her shoulders were shaking slightly, as if she was very afraid.

The Icy Night T-Rex noticed Anna's abnormal reaction and felt nervous. He quickly put down the fruit bag and asked worriedly, "What's wrong, Anna? Did you have a nightmare again?"

Anna shrank deeper into the corner until she had nowhere to go. Then she stopped helplessly.

"It's okay, Anna. This is the world of demon beasts. No one will kill you!" The Icy Night T-Rex wanted to hug Anna, but before its claws could touch Anna's shoulder, it heard Anna roar at him. "Get out! I'm going to lose control!"

The Icy Night T-Rex was shocked. He didn't expect Anna to lose control of her consciousness after he went out for a morning exercise.

She had been very calm these days and had never shown any signs of losing control. Why did she suddenly awaken her demonic nature?

“Anna... let me see you.”

Anna slowly looked up.

When the Icy Night T-Rex met Anna’s strange demonic eyes, its beast body stiffened for a moment.

Anna’s eyes were flashing rapidly. One moment, they were normal brown, and the next, they were creepy black vortexes.

It was Anna’s consciousness arguing with the demonic nature. No one was willing to admit defeat or retreat.

Anna grabbed the blanket under her tightly with both hands. She said with difficulty, “Don’t let my hands be stained with your blood. Please, kill me!” Anna was afraid that she would hurt the Icy Night T-Rex after losing control of her consciousness, and she was even more afraid that the scene in her nightmare would become real.

She didn’t want to be a inhumane killing machine!

As soon as Anna finished speaking, her eyes turned into pitch-black demonic eyes again. She said to the Icy Night T-Rex in a bewitching tone, “Don’t abandon me, okay? I’m so hungry. I’m starving...”

How could the Icy Night T-Rex bear to hurt Anna after hearing Anna begging him in a pitiful tone?

His heart softened. Just as he was about to hug Anna, he saw that her pupils had returned to normal.

Anna suddenly pushed the Icy Night T-Rex away and roared at him, “Kill me! What are you waiting for?!”

The normal Anna was praying for the Icy Night T-Rex to kill her quickly, while the demonic Anna was tempting the Icy Night T-Rex not to leave.

The Icy Night T-Rex was in a difficult situation.

The Icy Night T-Rex understood that when Anna’s demonic nature awakened, he would no longer be able to control her. He thought of the promise he had made to that old fellow, Di Ruofeng, before he left, and then thought of Anna saying how she hoped she could leave with a clean conscience.

The Icy Night T-Rex knew very well that killing Anna now would be the best for her.

After making up its mind, the Icy Night T-Rex closed its eyes.

The moment he closed his eyes, the ice-blue heart under his chest beat even faster. Boundless demonic power was mobilized by him, and an ice-blue ball slowly condensed above his palm.

When the ice crystal ball appeared, a cold air spread towards the center of the primitive forest with the small wooden hut as the center. Wherever the cold air went, all the weeds and trees were frozen and stopped swaying.

When the super demon beasts sensed the cold aura, they mobilized their demonic power to resist the cold.

“Why did that Icy Night T-Rex suddenly go berserk?” A super demon beast muttered, but he didn’t have the desire to go to the wooden hut to investigate.

Most demon beasts were solitary and aloof.

It was none of his business.

If it concerned him, he would fight.

Those who won were in the right, and those who lost were in the wrong!

In the small wooden hut, the Icy Night T-Rex quickly condensed an ice crystal ball. As soon as this ice ball appeared, a layer of ice instantly appeared on the surface of the wooden hut. Anna was also frozen until her teeth were trembling. It could be seen how powerful the freezing power contained in this ice crystal ball was.

The Icy Night T-Rex looked at Anna with anguish and affection. He bade farewell to Anna with tears in his eyes. "Goodbye, my love." With that, the Icy Night T-Rex raised the ice ball and was about to throw it at Anna. At this moment, Anna suddenly stammered—

"T-Rex, I love you."

I love you.

Hearing Anna's confession, the Icy Night T-Rex paused for a moment.

At this moment, Anna suddenly pounced at the Icy Night T-Rex. She opened her mouth and bit the Icy Night T-Rex's dragon claw arm.

When the Tyrannosaurus regained his senses, he realized that he had fallen into Anna's trap.

The moment Anna bit the Tyrannosaurus, the Icy Night T-Rex clearly sensed that the demonic power in the Monster Core was rapidly flowing away. The demonic power followed his blood vessels and gathered at the back of his hand before being devoured by Anna.

The ice-blue wings on the back of the Icy Night T-Rex instantly turned into a dim grayish-black color. His hard and powerful dragon scales also became extremely fragile.

As the demonic power dissipated, so did the vitality of the Icy Night T-Rex.

He was rapidly aging!

However, Anna's consciousness was already blurry. She had no idea that the delicious food she sucked in was actually the life force of the person she loved. The Icy Night T-Rex looked at Anna, who had lost control, and then at the ice ball on his dragon claw. He suddenly made a decision.

He couldn't save Anna, so he could only die with her!

The Icy Night T-Rex endured the pain and said to Anna gently, "Anna, eat slowly. Don't choke."

Upon hearing this, Anna suddenly slowed down. She opened her eyes and looked at the Icy Night T-Rex with confusion.

Who was this beast that was looking at her gently?

The Icy Night T-Rex opened its mouth and revealed a funny, ugly, but warm smile. He lowered his head and pressed it against Anna's head. He whispered into Anna's ear, "When you're full, I'll freeze us together. Anna, don't be afraid. I'll be with you no matter what."

Hearing this, two drops of tears suddenly rolled out of Anna's eyes.

Tears fell on the Icy Night T-Rex's claws.

The Icy Night T-Rex felt the warmth of Anna's tears and his heart ached.

He suddenly realized that when Anna became a fiendish cultivator and devoured everything crazily, Anna's consciousness hadn't really disappeared. She was only trapped by this fiendish cultivator's body. She could see everything that her fiendish beast form had done to him, but she couldn't stop it.

Anna must be heartbroken too.

Chapter 448: True Love Overcomes Demonic Nature

Unable to bear to see Anna sad, the Icy Night T-Rex rubbed Anna's forehead and said, "Don't feel guilty or sad. I did everything willingly."

Upon hearing this, the dragon scales on Anna's chest suddenly released waves of boiling temperature. The temperature was terrifyingly high, and the burning sensation reached straight into her soul. Anna felt the intense love of the Icy Night T-Rex, and she suddenly let out a silent roar—

T-Rex!

Under the demonic cultivator's body, the fragile soul suddenly erupted with intense love. That love actually temporarily suppressed the demonic beast form!

The black vortex in Anna's eyes slowly disappeared and Anna's brown eyes returned.

Anna hurriedly let go of the Icy Night T-Rex's dragon claws. She got up and hugged the Icy Night T-Rex's head tightly. She stroked his dry and dim dragon scales and finally couldn't help but cry out loud, "Why are you so stupid?!"

Upon hearing this, the Icy Night T-Rex realized that Anna might have regained consciousness.

But was that possible?

Could Anna, who had awakened her demonic nature, rely on her own consciousness to defeat her demonic nature?

The Icy Night T-Rex pushed Anna away. He lowered his head to look into Anna's eyes and realized that her pupils had returned to their normal color. He realized that Anna's consciousness had really successfully defeated the demonic nature.

"Anna?"

Anna wiped her nose as she cried. She nodded and scolded in a choked voice, “Stupid Icy Night T-Rex! Why didn’t you push me away?! Do you know that you almost died?!” Anna stared at the gray wings of the Tyrannosaurus. When she thought about how she was the one who caused this, her heart ached.

Seeing that Anna had really defeated the demonic nature, the Icy Night T-Rex was overjoyed. He immediately dissolved the ice crystal ball and hugged Anna again.

With Anna in his arms again, he actually felt the joy of surviving a calamity.

“Anna, you defeated the demonic nature. You actually defeated the demonic nature! You became the first Beast Tamer in history to defeat the demonic nature! Anna, if the old fellow knew about this, he would definitely be proud of you!”

How did Anna defeat her demonic nature?

It was because she felt the love of the Icy Night T-Rex.

When love defeated desire, Anna could defeat her demonic nature.

Anna stroked the scales and wings of the Icy Night T-Rex with heartache. She cried and laughed.

The Icy Night T-Rex couldn’t bear to see Anna cry. He comforted Anna. “It’s okay. As long as my Monster Core is still there, I can continue cultivating. In a few years, I will be able to become young and strong again. When I have a human form, we will get married under the witness of the old fellow!”

“Alright!”

After surviving the calamity, the two of them hugged each other and cried.

At this moment, Xuanyuan Shen led a large number of Beast Tamers towards the center of the Abyssal Origin Forest.

The aircraft arrived at the junction of the middle and the center circle. It circled in the sky but didn’t dare to move another meter towards the center circle.

Ahead was the territory of the super demon beasts.

Invasion of the territory of a super demon beast was undoubtedly a declaration of war towards the entire demon beast world. That was a price Xuanyuan Shen and the others couldn’t afford.

The middle circle of the Abyssal Origin Forest was clearly separated from the center circle. It was divided into two by a wide valley and lake. On this side of the lake was the territory where mid and high-level demon beasts lived, and on the other side of the lake was the territory where those super demon beasts lived.

That was a forbidden area for the Beast Tamers of the Holy Spirit Continent. It was an existence that was even more dangerous than the Broken Cliff.

Even someone with the Grand State Master’s cultivation level didn’t dare to approach the center, let alone Xuanyuan Shen and the others.

Xuanyuan Shen stood on the sightseeing platform of the aircraft and looked down at the endless center of the primitive forest with a telescope. The primitive forest in the center looked calm, but he didn't dare to let his guard down.

All the demon beasts that could live in the center of the abyss were super demon beasts. All of them were Grand Masters. Their mere hundred beast tamers weren't even enough to fill the gaps between their teeth.

"Patriarch Xuanyuan, that fiendish cultivator is protected by a divine demon. Demonic beasts love to gather together. They will definitely accept that divine demon. Anna is with this group of super demonic beasts. I'm afraid it won't be easy for us to find her."

"Heh..." Xuanyuan Shen smiled ambiguously. He suddenly said, "We can't find her, but that doesn't mean we can't lure her out."

Hearing this, the group of beast tamers standing behind Xuanyuan Shen revealed blank and thoughtful expressions.

"Patriarch Xuanyuan, you mean...?"

Xuanyuan Shen suddenly clapped his hands.

There was the sound of machinery. Then, the aircraft's carrier was suddenly opened. A mechanical arm slowly extended out with an iron cage.

The iron cage floated in the sky. The cultivators leaned on the railing and looked down. They saw that the person imprisoned in the iron cage was a woman!

The woman was wearing a dark red T-shirt and light blue washed jeans, and a pair of bare-toed gladiators. Her hair was dyed blond, and her hairstyle was casually tied into a messy ponytail. The woman had a pair of ordinary golden hoop earrings on her ears, and her face was covered in very thick makeup.

At first glance, this woman was actually very beautiful, but on a closer look, one could tell that she was living a tough life. Even the thick makeup couldn't hide her haggard and tired eyes.

Xuanyuan Shen smiled coldly and told everyone, "This woman is the biological mother of that demonic cultivator Anna!"

Hearing this, everyone had mixed expressions.

Who would have thought that the demonic cultivator's mother would look so ordinary?

Xuanyuan Shen had already imprisoned Anna's mother and brought her to the primitive forest. How could these reincarnated beast tamers not guess what Xuanyuan Shen was planning?

"Grand Master Xuanyuan, are you planning to use this woman as bait to lure out the fiendish cultivator Anna?"

Xuanyuan Shen nodded. "Yes."

“That demonic cultivator Anna has already awakened her demonic nature and become a demonic cultivator. Demonic cultivators are all heartless and cruel demons. Will she still recognize her biological mother? Even if she does, will she still care about her life?” The person who asked this was the Ouyang Clan’s Patriarch.

More than three thousand years ago, the Ouyang Clan was once a famous family.

However, the Ouyang Clan had a demonic cultivator. That demonic cultivator had personally destroyed the Ouyang Clan and almost destroyed the entire Holy Spirit Continent. The Ouyang Clan had been keep a low profile for thousands of years before they rose again. For this, the Ouyang Clan hated demonic cultivators the most.

In this operation, the Ouyang Clan was the most eager to participate.

Xuanyuan Shen wasn’t sure if this method would work, but this was indeed the most effective method. “Let’s give it a try. That fiendish cultivator has just awakened her demonic nature. I hope she can still recognize her biological mother.”

When a female Beast Tamer from the Ice Domain Continent learned of Xuanyuan Shen’s plan, she didn’t agree with his actions.

She was a woman and thought that using motherly love to hurt one’s child was the most despicable method. “Grand Master Xuanyuan, the Beast Tamer Alliance has a clear rule that no matter what happens in the cultivation world, it can’t affect the commoners. As a member of the Beast Tamer Alliance, are you going to break the law?”

Xuanyuan Shen chuckled and explained, “This woman isn’t an ordinary commoner. Although she is weak, she is also a Scholar.”

“That woman is actually a Beast Tamer too?” After knowing that Anna’s mother was also a Scholar, a small number of Beast Tamers who didn’t agree with Xuanyuan Shen’s actions immediately dispelled their doubts.

As a Beast Tamer, even if she was a Scholar with the lowest cultivation level, this woman had the obligation to eliminate fiendish cultivators.

Xuanyuan Shen cleared his throat and suddenly circulated his spiritual power. He shouted towards the center of the primitive forest, “Demonic Cultivator Anna, you injured three guest elders of the Xuanyuan Clan. You have committed many evil deeds, and your crimes are punishable by death! I order you to take the initiative to appear at noon today and obediently admit your mistake and be punished! Otherwise...”

Xuanyuan Shen glanced at the woman in the cage and snorted coldly. He said viciously, “I’ll throw your mother into this forest and let her be devoured by all the beasts!”

Xuanyuan Shen’s voice was magnified and spread through spiritual power.

The center of the primitive forest was more than half the size of the Divine Moon Empire. Xuanyuan Shen’s voice couldn’t completely spread in the center. He made the aircraft circle around the lake and warn Anna through his spiritual power.

Xuanyuan Shen and the others were so loud, so how could Anna not hear them?

The super demon beast that lived on the mountain next to the Icy Night T-Rex was a mammoth beast. The mammoth beast was sleeping when it was suddenly woken up by the human voice on the aircraft. It was somewhat angry. "Damn it! These humans are too arrogant. How dare they come here to cause trouble!"

The mammoth suddenly stood up, stomped its feet, and flew out of the forest into the sky. The mammoth swung its nose and threw the fancy aircraft hundreds of meters away.

The aircraft rolled several times in the sky before stopping.

Xuanyuan Shen and the others stabilized themselves and looked up to see a mammoth as large as a small mountain standing in the sky hundreds of meters away.

The mammoth stood in the sky and shouted at Xuanyuan Shen and the others, "Get lost. A group of two-legged beasts dare to behave atrociously in my territory?! Why don't you take a look at your cowardly appearance? How can you call yourselves heroes if you hide in the iron shell and shout? If you have the ability, come down directly and let's go to the forest to fight!"

Xuanyuan Shen and the others were frightened by the imposing manner of the mammoth. For a moment, no one dared to retort.

The mammoth shook its nose and spat water at them.

Its mouthful of water was as terrifying as a flood in a reservoir to Xuanyuan Shen.

Xuanyuan Shen finally came back to his senses and shouted, "Everyone, work together to resist the mammoth's attack!"

Upon hearing the shout, all the Beast Tamers released their beast forms at the same time. Their beast forms released their spirit energy collectively, forming a colorful wall of spirit energy that blocked the rolling flood.

Seeing that Xuanyuan Shen and the others had blocked its attack, the mammoth realized that it was no match for this group of Beast Tamers.

After all, he was alone and outnumbered.

"Hmph! Come down and fight me if you dare to!" After saying that, the mammoth returned to the forest.

If they could win, they would fight. If they couldn't win, they would run. This was the publicly acknowledged rule of survival for demon beasts.

Chapter 449: Mother as the Bait

The Mammoth Beast landed on the top of the mountain where it lived and shook the small mountain. The Mammoth Beast stood on the top of the mountain and glanced at the small wooden house where its neighbor lived in the distance. It said coldly, "Icy Night T-Rex, they want you to hand her over. If you want to hand her over, then hand her over quickly. If you don't want to hand her over, then kill them quickly! They're so noisy that they're disturbing my sleep!"

With that, the mammoth returned to the cave where it lived and continued to sleep.

This group of super demon beasts were willing to accept the Icy Night T-Rex and give him a territory to live in. They were already being very benevolent by doing this. They definitely wouldn't become enemies with the entire human race for a human fiendish cultivator like Anna.

The Icy Night T-Rex wasn't worth them risking their lives for.

The Icy Night T-Rex also knew about their current situation very clearly. He looked down at Anna and saw that she was looking up at the aircraft in the distant sky.

Her expression seemed sad.

The Icy Night T-Rex knew that Anna's mother had abandoned her when she was still a cub. He approached Anna and lowered his head to ask her, "Is that person your mother?"

Anna stared at the swaying iron cage in the sky and said, "I can't see clearly."

The Icy Night T-Rex asked again, "Then do you remember what your mother looked like?"

Anna's pretty face instantly looked lonely and sad. She shook her head and whispered, "Can you believe it? I actually don't even remember what she looks like."

The Icy Night T-Rex didn't say anything. It only quietly opened half of its wings and covered the sad Anna under them. Anna leaned against the Icy Night T-Rex's wings and looked at the cage with a complicated expression.

She never expected that her reunion with her mother would be under such circumstances.

The rabbit bun she wanted to eat had long stopped being manufactured.

It was half past ten in the morning when Xuanyuan Shen shouted.

After shouting, they used the robotic arm of the aircraft to pull the iron cage and flew back and forth along the sky of the middle circle.

The aircraft stirred the airflow, causing the trees in the forest below to sway.

The group of intermediate-level demon beasts was in great anguish. They hid in the forest and roared threateningly at the group of human Beast Tamers in the sky. Xuanyuan Shen was afraid of the super demon beasts in the center, but he didn't take these intermediate-level demon beasts seriously.

The aircraft circled in the sky for more than an hour. There were only ten minutes left until noon, but the fiendish cultivator, Anna, still didn't appear. Xuanyuan Shen finally couldn't sit still.

"Demonic cultivator Anna! You still have ten minutes! If you don't appear, I'll throw your mother down from the sky!" Xuanyuan Shen let out an exaggerated cry and said, "She will be smashed into meat paste and then torn apart and chewed by those hungry and cruel demon beasts in the forest!"

After saying that, seeing that there was still no movement in the forest, Xuanyuan Shen suddenly said to a disciple behind him, "Go, put the loudspeaker on that woman!"

"Yes, Mentor!"

Xuanyuan Shen's personal disciple, Chu Zhuang, put on a loudspeaker and flew to the iron cage on his sword.

After opening the metal cage, Chu Zhuang was about to put the loudspeaker on the woman's neck.

The woman's hands were bound by nylon ropes and placed behind her back. This prevented her from escaping.

The woman, who was originally kneeling stiffly in the cage like a puppet, suddenly raised her head and begged Chu Zhuang when she saw him open the iron cage, "Young man, can you help me untie the rope behind me?!"

The loudspeaker wasn't turned on for the time being. The woman begged Chu Zhuang with tears in her eyes, "I've let my child down. I've never raised her or done my duty as a mother. How can I hurt her?! In this world, the person who has the least right to hurt her is me!"

"Young man, you have parents. How can you bear to use a mother as bait to hurt her child?"

Chu Zhuang said expressionlessly, "I don't have parents. They abandoned me in the snow because I was missing two fingers." Chu Zhuang fixed the loudspeaker and looked at the woman in front of him in disgust. "Since they don't want to raise me, why give birth?"

Chu Zhuang turned on the loudspeaker, stood up, and left the cage.

Seeing that Chu Zhuang had put the loudspeaker on Anna's mother, Xuanyuan Shen pressed a switch in front of him. The cage was suddenly opened from the bottom!

The intense sense of weightlessness and the fear of the unknown frightened the woman so much that she broke down and shouted crazily

"Ah!!!"

The woman's screams reached Anna through the loudspeaker.

Anna, who was leaning on the Icy Night T-Rex, immediately stood up straight and looked up at the sky. When she saw the woman who was hanging in the void and shouting in panic, Anna's pupils trembled uncontrollably, and her brown eyes turned black again.

Anna stood rooted to the ground.

The Icy Night T-Rex silently guarded beside her. He asked Anna, "Are you going to save her?"

Anna said nothing, but her eyes gradually returned to normal.

A moment later, Anna asked the Icy Night T-Rex, "If it was you, would you save her?"

The Icy Night T-Rex's mother had died to save him. He had always respected and admired his mother. "I would save her because my mother loved me so much that she gave up her life for me. But she is your mother. She once abandoned you. If you want to save her, I will help you. If you don't want to save her, I understand."

The Icy Night T-Rex wasn't human. He was much more carefree.

Anna didn't remember much about her childhood. The only thing she remembered clearly was her father's violent abuse and her mother's back figure as she walked further and further away in the snow.

Anna knew that her mother loved her. If her father wasn't so cruel, how could her mother bear to abandon her biological child and escape from that living hell?

Anna clenched her fists and said, "The moment I awakened my beast form, I wanted to become stronger. There are only two reasons why I wanted to become stronger. One, I wanted my father to never dare to bully me again. Two, I wanted to become Mother's protector."

Protecting her mother and preventing her from being bullied was Anna's original intention when she awakened her beast form. Why did she forget her original intention after seeing her mother?

"Demon Anna, you still have three minutes!" Xuanyuan Shen's tone gradually became irritable.

With that said, his eyes swept across the center of the forest with a gloomy gaze. Seeing that the fiendish cultivator still didn't appear, he immediately became impatient. Xuanyuan Shen suddenly jumped off the aircraft and summoned his beast form, the brown unicorn rhinoceros.

The rhinoceros turned into a long sword that Xuanyuan Shen held tightly in his hand.

Xuanyuan Shen floated above the iron cage. He raised his sword high and said loudly, "Demonic cultivator Anna, if you still don't appear, I will cut off the safety rope on your mother! You still have two minutes!"

Hearing this, the woman in the iron cage suddenly struggled crazily. She let out a hoarse roar and shouted, "Anna! Anna, don't worry about me! I have already been seriously injured and only have half a year to live! Don't sacrifice your life for me!"

After she heard her mother's words, Anna's psychological defense finally broke.

She told Anna not to care about her, but she was actually protecting Anna.

Anna understood that her mother still loved her.

Soon, Xuanyuan Shen shouted again, "Demon Anna, you still have one minute!" After a pause, he said, "You still have fifty seconds!"

The haggard woman spat out a mouthful of blood from Xuanyuan Shen's strike. "Ah!" The woman couldn't bear the pain and couldn't help but cry out.

The wailing sound spread along the loudspeaker and fell into Anna's ears. Anna couldn't stay still for a moment longer. She flew and sat on the back of the Icy Night T-Rex. "Let's go!"

"Okay!" The Icy Night T-Rex flapped its wings and flew into the sky with Anna.

"Demonic Cultivator Anna, you still have 30 seconds!" Xuanyuan Shen raised his beast form spirit sword and silently counted down. "If you still haven't appeared in the last ten seconds, I will cut the safety rope without hesitation!" After saying that, Xuanyuan Shen looked nervously at the forest below. He wanted to see if the demonic cultivator would save her mother.

At this moment, the forest in the center suddenly shook greatly, as if some huge creature was about to fly out of the forest.

In the next second, an ice-blue dragon leaped up from the forest and instantly flew to the same height as the aircraft.

On the head of the Icy Night T-Rex stood a woman in a white gauze dress. The woman was petite and looked less than 1.6 meters tall. She had two pigtails and her cute face looked icy.

Seeing this woman, Xuanyuan Shen subconsciously tensed up. The beast tamers on the aircraft were also on high alert.

The little girl in front of them was a demonic cultivator. She was an evil existence. They couldn't let their guard down around her!

"Anna!"

Seeing that Anna had really appeared, her mother suddenly broke down and cried. "Anna, my child, leave quickly! These bastards will kill you!" The woman didn't care if Anna was a fiendish cultivator that would cause the continent to be plunged into misery and suffering.

She only knew that it was her child, Anna. She was a pitiful child who had been abandoned by her parents since she was young, but had still grown up tenaciously.

Anna looked at her birth mother sadly. She said, "I waited for you in the snow all day that day."

The woman was immediately stunned. "Anna."

When she thought about how the young Anna had actually obediently stood in the snow and waited for her for an entire day, the woman's heart ached.

"I'm sorry, Anna. I was afraid of your father back then! Although I'm a Scholar, I awakened the most useless plant beast form, the three-leaf clover. My spiritual power is weak, and I'm no different from a commoner. I wanted to take you away, but I couldn't give you a better life!"

"I'm sorry. I was wrong!"

Chapter 450: Not A Mount, But My Lover

Anna was suddenly relieved to hear her mother's apology.

She could understand her mother.

Her husband was cruel, her child was weak, and her beast form was weak. After being beaten up all year round, what could she do except escape from that hellish life?

When she was young, Anna had watched her mother leave with her own eyes. She had waited for 18 years before they reunited. If she let her mother leave today, they would never see each other again.

"Mom, I won't abandon you!"

Anna bent down and laid on the body of the Icy Night T-Rex. She whispered to the Icy Night T-Rex, "Charge!" Hearing this, the Icy Night T-Rex roared at the sky and flew towards Xuanyuan Shen with Anna on its back!

Seeing this, Xuanyuan Shen wasn't in a hurry to resist. Instead, he cut the rope on Anna's mother at this critical moment.

"Ah!"

Anna's mother's body fell in a straight line and landed on the ground of the forest. With a bang, she died instantly!

The change happened too quickly. Anna didn't even have the chance to save her mother!

"Mom!" Anna's eyes turned red when she saw this.

"Xuanyuan Shen!" Anna roared at Xuanyuan Shen. "This is a grudge between us. Why did you kill my mother?!"

On the aircraft, some Beast Tamers who hadn't completely lost their minds saw Xuanyuan Shen's actions and were instantly enraged. "Xuanyuan Shen, this is a war between us and the demonic cultivator Anna. It's fine if you use Anna's biological mother as bait, but why do you have to kill her?!"

Xuanyuan Shen sneered. He stared at Anna and said expressionlessly, "She injured three guest elders of the Xuanyuan Clan. Why can't I kill her mother?!"

A female cultivator who had just become a mother suddenly walked out from the team. She condemned Xuanyuan Shen in extreme disappointment, "Xuanyuan Shen, are you going to subdue the demon or are you going to drag all of us to avenge you?!"

"It's everyone's responsibility to kill a demon, but it's not our duty to avenge you!" The female cultivator spat and said, "The Great Abyss Kingdom's Mo family, withdraw from this battle!" With that, the woman jumped off the aircraft and flew towards the edge of the primitive forest.

Seeing this woman's actions, more than a dozen Supreme Masters who were dissatisfied with Xuanyuan Shen's actions stood out and withdrew from the battle.

"The Su family of the Great Abyss Kingdom will withdraw from the war!"

“The Zhong family of the Cangyuan Empire will withdraw from the war!”

“The Hentel family of the Tuo Luo Empire, withdraw from the war!”

With the withdrawal of this batch of families, there were only 90 people left in the Demon Subduing team.

Xuanyuan Shen turned around and looked at the group of Beast Tamers in the aircraft who were still willing to fight alongside him. He nodded in relief and raised his sword while shouting, “Everyone, follow me and capture this fiendish cultivator alive. Hand her over to the Beast Tamer Alliance to deal with!”

Upon hearing this, all the Beast Tamers released their beast forms at the same time and flew out of the aircraft to surround Anna and the Icy Night T-Rex.

Most of the Icy Night T-Rex’s demonic power had been devoured by Anna, and its cultivation level had decreased greatly. It was already at the early-stage Grand Master Realm, but now, it was only comparable to an intermediate-stage Supreme Master.

Most of the ninety-odd Beast Tamers surrounding them were Supreme Masters, and there were even two to three Grand Masters. The Icy Night T-Rex knew that he and Anna were definitely doomed this time. He didn’t dare to underestimate his opponents, and he used his strongest move from the start—

“Icebound Thousand Miles!”

The demon core in the body of the Icy Night T-Rex trembled as he released all his demonic power.

Cold air at -200 degrees Celsius descended from the sky and froze the trees and weeds in the primitive forest.

Seeing this phenomenon, the beast tamers activated their protective shields at the same time and worked together to resist the cold air.

Under the confrontation of spiritual power, although they weren’t frozen into ice, their attacks still slowed down. Taking this opportunity, the Icy Night T-Rex carried Anna and flew towards the center of the abyss.

Anna’s mother was already dead, so he wouldn’t foolishly wait for death with Anna.

Xuanyuan Shen used the shortest time possible to evaporate the cold air around him. He saw the Icy Night T-Rex carrying Anna and approaching the abyss crack. He gritted his teeth and chased after it.

Xuanyuan Shen dared to step into the airspace of the central region, but the group of Beast Tamers behind him didn’t dare to. As everyone knew, the central region of the Abyssal Origin Forest was a forbidden area for Beast Tamers. Once the super demon beasts living there were enraged, the cultivation world would definitely have a war!

How could Xuanyuan Shen dare to risk his life for Anna?

Xuanyuan Shen was a Grand Master. In the blink of an eye, he teleported in front of the Icy Night T-Rex and Anna and blocked their path.

“You want to escape?”

Xuanyuan Shen fused with his beast form. His slightly short figure instantly turned into an aggressive beast after fusing with the brown unicorn!

The rhinoceros' huge body ran in the air and mercilessly pierced through the stomach of the Icy Night T-Rex with its hard horns. The Icy Night T-Rex was struck by this violent impact and its body was instantly sent flying back to the middle of the forest!

Seeing that the Icy Night T-Rex had been knocked out of the central airspace, the Beast Tamers who were hesitating and didn't dare to go forward took the opportunity to fly towards the Icy Night T-Rex and surround them again.

Xuanyuan Shen and the rhinoceros beast form split into two and joined the encirclement team.

At this moment, the Icy Night T-Rex's abdomen was severely injured. Its flesh had been pierced by Xuanyuan Shen's rhinoceros horn, and blood was flowing out. It was a shocking sight. The lower part of his heart was exposed, and Xuanyuan Shen could see his heart beating.

“It's been a few days since we last met, but you've aged a lot.” On the day of the battle at the Eight Towers Mountain, Xuanyuan Shen had seen the Icy Night T-Rex. At that time, the T-Rex's dragon scales were a translucent ice-blue color, and its wings were covered in pure white wings.

However, only a few days had passed, but his beautiful shining scales had become dull and lusterless. The wings on his wings had also aged to the point of losing their luster.

“From the looks of it, even you were almost devoured by this fiendish cultivator.” Xuanyuan Shen pointed at the body of the Icy Night T-Rex and said to the Beast Tamers of the Demon Subduing Brigade, “Everyone, look. When this fiendish cultivator loses control, she can even devour her mount, let alone all the living beings in the world.”

Upon hearing this, Anna immediately refuted Xuanyuan Shen. “You're wrong. The Tyrannosaurus isn't my mount.” Anna lowered her head and kissed the Icy Night T-Rex's body. She heard the Icy Night T-Rex's painful groan, and tears of heartache flowed from the corners of her eyes.

Anna suddenly stood up and shouted in a strong voice, “He's my lover! He's my T-Rex!”

With that, Anna suddenly flew up!

Her body floated in the air, and her demonic eyes stared coldly at Xuanyuan Shen. “Despicable old bastard, today, I will bury you all with me!” Anna suddenly opened her arms, and black demonic energy was released from her eyes.

The mist turned into petite ants that silently clung to the Beast Tamers.

At this moment, hatred filled Anna's consciousness!

She wanted to kill!

She wanted to devour!

She wanted to kill all the Beast Tamers who had injured the Tyrannosaurus!

“Ah!” A Beast Tamer who was bitten by an ant suddenly screamed. Xuanyuan Shen looked at that person and saw that his hair had instantly turned snow-white, and the skin on his body was quickly covered in wrinkles. Soon, the spiritual energy in his body was completely devoured by Anna.

After the Beast Tamer lost his spiritual power, his body fell straight into the primitive forest.

Immediately after, the second and third Beast Tamers were devoured by the Mutated Devouring Beast and fell into the forest below!

Seeing this, Xuanyuan Shen’s pupils dilated, and he immediately felt fear.

Was this the true might of a fiendish cultivator?

It was actually so terrifying!

Xuanyuan Shen immediately raised his voice and shouted to the other two Grand Masters, “Fifth Grand Master! Grand Master Liao! The fiendish cultivator is enraged and a calamity is imminent. The three of us shouldn’t hide our strength anymore! We have to work together to surround her!”

The people called out by Xuanyuan Shen were the fifth elder of the fifth family and the itinerant cultivator, Liao Xingzhi.

The two of them knew that if they didn’t join forces to resist the enemy today, there was a high chance that their lives would be ended by the demonic cultivator Anna. They had no choice but to join forces with Xuanyuan Shen.

“Alright, let’s fight together!”

The three of them quickly flew in three different directions, cutting off Anna’s escape route.

Diwu Yujie had stepped into the Grand Master realm 30 years ago. However, although he had awakened a relatively weak plant-type beast form. His beast form was a silk flower. The silk flower was a rather aggressive plant-type beast form. Its beast form was a silk flower, but when Diwu Yujie cultivated to the Grand Master realm, the silk flower had already split into hundreds of strands.

Diwu Yujie closed his eyes, and messy tentacles grew out of his body.

“Inescapable Net!”

The huge net was formed, and it was filled with dense white tungsten flowers. It looked gorgeous and dangerous.

The inescapable net descended from the sky and enveloped Anna's petite body. There were too many tungsten flower vines, and the number of mutated devouring beasts that Anna could transform into was limited. It would still take some time for them to completely devour the energy of these flower vines.

When he saw that Anna was temporarily tied up by Diwu Yujie, he immediately summoned the Goat Horn Hammer's beast form and threw it high into the sky. The Goat Horn Hammer, which was originally only the size of an adult's arm, was infinitely enlarged when it flew high into the sky.

The Goat Horn Hammer finally turned into a huge hammer that was about twenty meters long and eight meters tall.

Liao Xingzhi held the handle of the hammer and poured all his spiritual power into the Goat Horn Hammer. He shouted, "Million pound hammer!" Then, he gritted his teeth, raised the hammer, and smashed the hammer towards the petite Anna's head!
