

She Shocks 601

Chapter 601: Don't Be A Frog In A Well (1)

the news that the Holy Spirit Academy was recruiting cleaners quickly spread throughout the cultivation world.

When those smart people saw this message, they immediately guessed the real intention of the Holy Spirit Academy's actions. Hiring a cleaner was just a cover. The truth was that the principal, Mo Xiao, cherished talent and wanted to choose people full of potential from among the eliminated participants to nurture.

Previously, in the Holy Spirit Academy's enrollment competition, Xuanyuan Chen, who had just broken through to the early-stage of the Supreme Master Realm, had entered the Holy Spirit Academy with a ranking of 380. Liuli Luoluo, who had gone with him to register for the competition, was unable to successfully enter the top 500 rankings even though she was at the peak of the late-stage of the Master Realm.

Liuli Luoluo was eliminated with a ranking of 506.

After being eliminated, although Liuli Luoluo was a little disappointed, she did not mope. She returned to the Liuli Clan and quickly cheered up under the guidance of her mentor, Liuli Xiangsi, and her fellow disciples. She threw herself back into cultivation.

When she saw the recruitment notice on the Beast Tamer Alliance's website, Liuli Luoluo became invigorated again.

Liuli Luoluo went to the villa where her mentor lived and found Liuli Xiangsi, who was doing a full-body beauty treatment. "Mentor, I want to apply for a cleaning job at the Holy Spirit Academy."

Liuli Xiangsi was naked. There was a white towel on her sexy and graceful body.

A female beautician was massaging her with essential oil.

The room was filled with a faint sandalwood smell. Liuli Xiangsi seemed to be asleep but was not. When she heard Liuli Luoluo's words, she did not react at first. Liuli Xiangsi was a little nervous. She licked her lips and said softly, "Mentor, I really want to go."

Liuli Xiangsi removed the blindfold from her eyes and glanced at Liuli Luoluo. She said helplessly, "The Holy Spirit Academy will hold a second enrollment. You can go then. Why fight with them for a janitor spot?"

Liuli Xiangsi stared at her beloved disciple's charming face and fair and slender fingers. She picked up Liuli Luoluo's fingers and sighed. "Look at your beautiful hands and your beautiful face. Other students cultivate and do missions all day long. How glorious. With your left hand holding a mop and your right hand holding a bucket, won't you feel disappointed when you mix in with them?"

Liuli Luoluo followed her mentor's description and thought about it carefully. She immediately felt less tempted.

“Besides.” Liuli Xiangsi sneered and said, “The Grand State Master, that old fox, has never been a busybody. He won’t send out a recruitment ceremony for no reason. I think that old fox must have someone he fancies. If you go, you’ll just waste your time.”

“Is that so?” Liuli Luoluo revealed a suspicious look when she heard her mentor’s analysis. “You’re saying that the Grand State Master already has a suitable candidate in his heart?”

“Don’t doubt me. Just wait and see.” Liuli Xiangsi narrowed her charming eyes and thought in confusion, ‘I wonder which two lucky fellows were fancied by that old fox. He actually made an exception for them.’

* *

Not everyone was as shrewd as Liuli Xiangsi. Many Patriarchs of large families did not see through Mo Xiao’s true intentions, so they sent the resumes of their outstanding disciples immediately.

These disciples were qualified. Therefore, after the resumes were submitted that noon, they were informed of the interview in the afternoon.

The candidates who received the interview notices immediately set off for Rakshasa Empire.

Thus, Feng Yuncheng, accompanied by his two brothers, took a plane to Rakshasa Empire. He planned to go to the Holy Spirit Academy to participate in the interview. The moment he walked out of the airport, he saw many applicants from all over the continent.

Feng Yuncheng even saw Xuanyuan Jing and his second brother.

“What a coincidence. Xuanyuan Jing, you’re also here for the interview?” Feng Yuncheng held an umbrella and walked towards Xuanyuan Jing.

Xuanyuan Jing recognized Feng Yuncheng, but he wasn’t familiar with him. Seeing that Feng Yuncheng had taken the initiative to greet him, Xuanyuan Jing nodded reservedly.

His second brother saw that Feng Yuncheng and the other two brothers were handsome, especially Feng Yuncheng. He asked, “Is this your classmate? Why didn’t you introduce him?”

Xuanyuan Jing said, “They’re from the Blazing Realm Continent. This is my junior, Feng Yuncheng, and these are his two brothers. These two were once students of Divine Realm Academy. Feng Tang and Grand Master Sheng were once schoolmates. Feng Zhen...”

Chapter 602: Don’t Be A Frog In A Well (2)

Xuanyuan Jing didn’t introduce Feng Zhen in detail when he thought about how Feng Zhen failed to pass the school year and examination for three consecutive years because of his high myopia.

Xuanyuan Yao’s cultivation and experience were inferior to Xuanyuan Jing’s. Back then, when he participated in the Beast Tamer Selection Competition, he didn’t manage to enter the Divine Realm Academy and instead entered the Divine Eagle Academy.

The students of the Divine Eagle Academy and the students of the Divine Realm Academy had always looked down on each other.

Thus, after knowing that the three of them were only from a third-grade cultivation family in the Blazing Realm Continent, Xuanyuan Yao lost the mood to chat with them.

Feng Tang's eyes were sharp. He saw through Xuanyuan Yao's proud nature at a glance. He said to Feng Yuncheng, "Fourth Brother, there will be plenty of opportunities for old friends to catch up in the future. Let's go for the interview quickly."

"Okay!"

The moment they left, Xuanyuan Yao said to Xuanyuan Jing, "Is the recruitment threshold of the Divine Realm Academy so low now? A pretty boy like him who can't stand the elements is also qualified to enter your academy to study?"

Although Xuanyuan Jing and Xuanyuan Yao maintained a brotherly relationship, in the end, they were born from the same father but two different mothers. The two of them maintained a fake brotherhood only to leave a good impression in front of their father so as to avoid annoying him.

Xuanyuan Jing had entered the Divine Realm Academy and felt that he was one level higher than Xuanyuan Yao. When he heard Xuanyuan Yao question his alma mater, he was naturally unhappy.

"Second Brother, frogs look at the sky from the bottom of a well and think that they have seen the entire world. Little do they know that the world is more vast than they think. Similarly, we can't just look at the surface when we look at people. You only see that the other party is afraid of the sun and rain, so how do you know what kind of tenacious heart is hidden under that umbrella?"

"Back then, I suffered from being stubborn and short-sighted. I should also give you a piece of advice. When you judge people, you should look at things more comprehensively." After saying that, Xuanyuan Jing held a bottle of mineral water and walked out of the airport first.

Xuanyuan Yao stood on the spot and sneered with a sinister expression. He muttered, "How dare a son of a b*tch teach me a lesson! Do you really think that you can step on me forever after you entered the Divine Realm Academy?"

* *

The students of the Holy Spirit Academy had all gone out to carry out missions, so the Black Dome resumed a quiet atmosphere. Because the air here was filled with poisonous gas, even the birds couldn't be bothered to come here to poop.

Feng Yuncheng and the other Beast Tamers who needed to participate in the interview stood at the bottom of the Black Dome Mountain. They looked up at the huge mountain in front of them and stared at the academy built on the top of the mountain. They could not help but look forward to it.

"That's the Holy Spirit Academy." Feng Tang had regretfully lost in the final assessment. He thought that he would never have the chance to enter the Holy Spirit Academy in his life. Therefore, his feelings towards the Holy Spirit Academy were the most complicated.

Feng Zhen subconsciously narrowed his eyes and looked at the top of the mountain. He remembered that Yu Huang had already cured his short-sightedness. Feng Zhen widened his eyes and clearly saw the academy built on the top of the mountain. He asked in confusion, "What kind of interview do you think a cleaner needs to do?"

Feng Tang seemed to have thought of something and laughed shortly. "Perhaps the interview is about the ability to mop the floor?"

When Feng Yuncheng heard his two brothers' words, he became a little nervous for no reason. "Let's take it one step at a time."

Beast Tamers were not allowed to approach the Black Dome unless they were recruits. Therefore, Feng Yuncheng had to walk the rest of the way alone.

After bidding farewell to his two brothers, Feng Yuncheng climbed up the mountain alone. Along the way, he met many competitors from all over the continent.

He even met Xiao Shu.

Xiao Shu walked in front of him with a hiking stick in his hand and limited edition AJ sneakers. Feng Yuncheng did not know if he was feeling unwell, but when he saw that his footsteps were a little heavy, he quickly chased after him.

"Xiao Shu!" Feng Yuncheng panted heavily and handed a bottle of mineral water to Xiao Shu.

Xiao Shu turned around and was surprised to see Feng Yuncheng. "Feng Si, why are you here?"

"I'm here to apply for a cleaning job! Are you the same?" Feng Yuncheng had heard from his brother that Xiao Shu had taken the initiative to give up the competition in the final assessment and given the spot to Yin Rong.

Feng Yuncheng immediately thought more highly of Xiao Shu.

This seemingly carefree senior was a good man.

Xiao Shu nodded. "Yes, I'm here to try my luck."

Seeing that a capable senior like Xiao Shu had applied for the job of a cleaner, Feng Yuncheng immediately felt better. "Then let's do it together."

When they reached the entrance of the Holy Spirit Academy, it was almost dark.

It was only at eight in the evening that the school gate of the Holy Spirit Academy opened to them.

Lin Feng stood on the field with a list of interviewees.

"Xuanyuan Jing."

Xuanyuan Jing hurriedly raised his hand. "I'm here!"

"Xuanyuan Yao."

Xuanyuan Yao did not dare to delay at all. He hurriedly raised his hand and replied, "Here!"

“Feng Yuncheng!”

“Here!”

“Zhong Luoxue!”

“Here!”

After calling their names, Lin Feng led them to the storeroom at the end of the corridor on the first floor of the administrative building. He opened the storeroom and said to them, “There are a total of 20 mops inside. Go in and pick one.”

Staring at the 20 mops neatly arranged in the storeroom, the interviewees revealed gloomy expressions.

There were 103 Beast Tamers participating in the interview, but there were only 20 mops. Whether or not they could get a mop depended on their ability.

Chapter 603: The Past Glory, The Unpleasant Present Day (1)

In an instant, everyone released their beast forms and tacitly used the most sinister and ruthless move on the people closest to them.

Lin Feng took a few steps back silently. He stood in the distance and watched them fight with a cold expression. He didn't stop them.

However, from the corner of his eye, he saw the interviewee called Feng Yuncheng sneak out of the battle circle.

Lin Feng narrowed his eyes in confusion.

Was this person planning to give up?

After Feng Yuncheng left the battle circle, he nodded at Lin Feng and walked along the corridor towards the administrative building alone.

The battle in front of the storeroom lasted for nearly half an hour before there was a result.

After Xiao Shu, Xuanyuan Jing, Xuanyuan Yao, Zhong Luoxue, and the remaining 16 interviewees defeated the other competitors, they walked into the storeroom without a word and each picked a mop.

Lin Feng glanced at the people who had successfully obtained the mop and then at the interviewees who were sitting or lying on the ground. He tapped the roster with his pen and said to the people lying on the ground, “Unfortunately, you guys are the first to be eliminated.”

Hearing this, those people slowly stood up against the wall. Then, they silently swallowed the blood in their mouths and walked towards the exit of the administrative building.

At this moment, a handsome man in a divination hat and a wide-sleeved crane cannon suddenly appeared in the administrative building and walked over casually.

Seeing that person, everyone instantly became solemn and respectful. “Principal!”

Lin Feng quickly lowered his head towards Mo Xiao.

Mo Xiao walked past Lin Feng and walked to the interviewee called Xuanyuan Yao.

Xuanyuan Yao opened his eyes and carefully looked up at the Grand State Master.

When he saw the Grand State Master's face at such a close distance, Xuanyuan Yao's heart thumped wildly.

The rumors were true. The Grand State Master was really handsome.

Suddenly, the Grand State Master extended his fair right hand towards Xuanyuan Yao. "Let me see this mop in your hand." The Grand State Master's voice was melodious.

Xuanyuan Yao hurriedly handed his mop to the Grand State Master with both hands and said nervously, "Here, here."

After the Grand State Master held the mop in his right hand, he suddenly turned around and gave Lin Feng a sly smile. "Director Lin Feng, I got the broom. Did I pass too?!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the Grand State Master in front of everyone transformed into Feng Yuncheng.

Lin Feng stared at Feng Yuncheng and was stunned.

This...

He had served the Grand State Master for decades and was the person who was most familiar with him. However, he hadn't seen through Feng Yuncheng's disguise just now!

When Xuanyuan Yao saw that the Grand State Master had turned into that pretty boy from the Feng family, his expression instantly became angry. "Feng Yuncheng! You're cheating!" Xuanyuan Yao glared at Feng Yuncheng indignantly. Then, he raised his head and said to Lin Feng, "Director Lin Feng, isn't him using a charm technique considered cheating?!"

Without waiting for Lin Feng's reply, Feng Yuncheng raised the mop in his hand and covered the mop with spirit energy before forcefully stabbing the mop at Xuanyuan Yao's stomach.

"Roar!" In order to fight for the mop, Xuanyuan Yao had a fierce battle with those interviewees. Feng Yuncheng's attack injured Xuanyuan Yao so much that he clutched his stomach and knelt on the ground in pain.

Feng Yuncheng held the mop with one hand and looked down at Xuanyuan Yao's disheveled appearance. He said, "I'm indeed a vain pretty boy, but not only can I raise an umbrella, but I can also swing amop and beat people up."

Feng Yuncheng had overheard Xuanyuan Yao's mocking words at the airport.

He was taking revenge.

Xuanyuan Yao glared fiercely at Feng Yuncheng. He wanted to stand up again, but Feng Yuncheng's spiritual power was too strong. Xuanyuan Yao's chest was hurt by the other party's attack, so he actually temporarily lost his mobility and couldn't even stand up.

Feng Yuncheng turned to Lin Feng and smiled respectfully and calmly. "Director Lin Feng, I snatched the mop from Xuanyuan Yao openly. I should have passed this test, right?"

Lin Feng pursed his lips and didn't answer. However, he picked up a pen and made a cross behind the space with Xuanyuan Yao's name on it. "Whoever has a mop, follow me to the second interview."

Hence, Feng Yuncheng, who had successfully obtained the broom, hugged the mop and followed the main group to participate in the second round.

Xuanyuan Jing deliberately fell a few steps behind everyone. When those people were far away, he reached out and helped Xuanyuan Yao up from the ground. Xuanyuan Yao leaned against the wall and before he could catch his breath, he heard Xuanyuan Jing say, "Second Brother, I told you before that you can't judge a book by its cover."

Chapter 604: The Past Glory, The Unpleasant Present Day (2)

Xuanyuan Yao's expression darkened. "Shut up!"

Xuanyuan Jing smiled and chased after the group with his mop.

Lin Feng brought the main group to the southwest side of the dormitory building of the Holy Spirit Academy. There was a feces pit there.

The manure pit was covered with a layer of concrete boards to prevent anyone from accidentally falling in.

Smelling the stench in the feces pit, this group of pampered young masters frowned from the stench, and some even retched.

Lin Feng said without changing his expression, "There are feces buckets and shoulder poles over there. Your job is to pick the feces in the feces pit to the vegetable garden in the shortest time possible and plant a vegetable garden for the school."

After a pause, Lin Feng continued, "The Black Dome is a poisonous gas mountain. The soil here is barren, so it's very difficult to successfully plant vegetables. However, there's a plant demon beast called the 'Ghost-Wrapping Flower' in the primitive forest. Their roots can survive in the poisonous gas mountain."

"In that case, please plant a vegetable garden for the school as soon as possible."

With that, Lin Feng turned around and left, leaving the 20 Beast Tamers staring at each other blankly.

"Aren't we here to apply for a cleaning job? Why are we working as dung pickers?" A Light Elf with a pair of pure white elf wings on his back muttered.

Xiao Shu glanced at the elf and said, "If you were really here to be a cleaner, would you have come?"

The elf was speechless.

Feng Yuncheng continued, "We all know that the academy isn't recruiting cleaners at all. What the principal really wants is to choose two people among us to nurture."

Feng Yuncheng stared at the smelly feces pit. For once, he didn't smile cheekily. He said, "It's very simple. Those who can bear the hardship, stay. Those who can't bear the hardship, scam as soon as possible."

"Yes." Xiao Shu agreed with Feng Yuncheng's point of view. "Then, is there anyone who wants to forfeit and choose to leave?" Xiao Shu couldn't wait for them to see the truth and scam.

However, no one turned around to leave.

Xiao Shu didn't say anything.

At this moment, Xuanyuan Jing took out his phone and opened the Beast Tamer Alliance Meeting. He entered the demon beast database and searched for information about the 'Ghost-Wrapping Flower'. Very quickly, he found information about the Ghost-Wrapping Flower.

Xuanyuan Jing said, "Ghost-Wrapping Flower is a level 4 plant demon beast. It looks like cabbage with a red root. If you cut off the root, blood will flow. It's a rare and precious medicinal herb that can be eaten."

After a pause, Xuanyuan Jing said with a sinister expression, "Ghost-Wrapping Flower only lives in the hinterland of the abyss primitive forest. It's the favorite food of the level 8 demon beast, the slant-eyed snow wolf."

Everyone fell silent when they heard this.

Everyone knew that the slant-eyed snow wolves were powerful and numerous. They often lived in groups.

If they wanted to pass the interview test, they had to plant a vegetable field, and the Ghost-Wrapping Flower was the only plant that could be successfully planted in the Black Dome. If they wanted to stay, they had to enter the hinterland of the primitive forest and successfully steal the Ghost-Wrapping Flower from the territory of the slant-eyed snow wolf pack.

After a long while, the Light Elf was the first to say, "The hinterland of the primitive forest is too dangerous. If we barge in rashly, there's a high chance that we won't be able to return. I heard that the Holy Spirit Academy will recruit another batch of students in five years. I plan to participate in the next enrollment competition."

With that, the Light Elf turned around and walked down the mountain.

His voluntary abstention was like a fire that ignited a grassland. Next, five to six more applicants chose to abstain, and left the Black Dome.

Xuanyuan Jing also had the intention to leave, but he glanced at the determined Zhong Luoxue and didn't forfeit.

In the end, only 11 Beast Tamers stayed. Apart from Xiao Shu, Feng Yuncheng, and the other three alumni, there was also a couple with the cultivation of a Supreme Master. The husband was called Shilin, and the wife was called Song Ying.

The rest were Beast Tamers.

The beastmen had always had a bad relationship with the humans. The five beastmen glanced at Xiao Shu and the others before bringing their companions down the mountain and heading towards the primitive forest.

Feng Yuncheng said to Xiao Shu, "Xiao Shu, let's team up. I'm a support-type Beast Tamer. If I help you, our chances of winning will be higher."

The two of them knew each other well and were good friends who had eaten a few meals together. In addition, the two of them were close to Yu Huang. It was indeed the right choice for the two of them to be together.

Xiao Shu nodded. "Alright, let's team up."

Xuanyuan Jing also wanted to team up with Xiao Shu, but Xiao Shu and Feng Yuncheng were both good friends of Yu Huang. With his strained relationship with Yu Huang, he really didn't have the nerve to team up with them.

Xuanyuan Jing smiled and said to Zhong Luoxue, "Luoxue, let's form a team, okay?"

Zhong Luoxue understood Xuanyuan Jing's feelings for her. However, Zhong Luoxue was Yu Huang's fan and had always disdained how Xuanyuan Jing humiliated Yu Huang a few years ago.

Besides...

Zhong Luoxue pursed her rosy lips and asked hesitantly, "Xuanyuan Jing, is what your father did to Ms. Liuli Nuonuo true?"

Some time ago, some posts about the relationship between Xuanyuan Shen and Liuli Nuonuo appeared on the Beast Tamer Alliance's website. Those posts claimed that the reason Xuanyuan Shen could marry Liuli Nuonuo was because he used despicable methods.

Thus, Xuanyuan Shen's reputation was in shambles.

When he heard Zhong Luoxue's question, Xuanyuan Jing's handsome face instantly turned pale. "He..." Xuanyuan Jing wanted to deny all of this, but could he deny what had happened?

Xuanyuan Jing didn't want to lie to Zhong Luoxue, but he would also humiliate himself by admitting the truth, so he gritted his teeth and didn't answer.

Seeing this, Zhong Luoxue understood everything. "Xuanyuan Jing, I know you're not a bad person, and thank you for liking me..." Zhong Luoxue hesitated for a moment before saying cruelly, "I'm a girl after all. I won't let myself be with the son of a rapist. I'm afraid that I'll become the second Liuli Nuonuo."

With that, Zhong Luoxue jogged down the mountain.

Xuanyuan Jing punched the wall of the dormitory.

In the past, he was proud that he was Xuanyuan Shen's son and the young master of the Xuanyuan Clan. Now, he felt ashamed of his birth.

Chapter 605: Honey Trap (1)

While Feng Yuncheng and the others were troubled about how to outsmart the slant-eyed snow wolf and steal the flower from them, Yu Huang and the others were also agonizing over how to successfully save the Weng family's young lady.

The ancient towering tree covered the blazing sun. Dappled light entered through the gaps in the leaves and landed in the lush and messy vegetation.

A group of young people were shuttling through the forest in a sorry state. They were wearing camouflage uniforms that blended into the forest. They also had green makeup on their faces and camouflage hats on their heads. The equipment completely covered their original appearances.

They shuttled through the forest. It looked like a part of the forest.

After cautiously walking deeper into the forest, Yu Huang discovered a pile of freshly produced feces on the ground. She suddenly whispered, "Everyone, squat down!"

Upon hearing this, Estelle, Beatrice, and the others subconsciously squatted down.

As Donor squatted, he asked Yu Huang, "What did you find?"

Yu Huang pointed ahead.

Donor and the others looked in the direction Yu Huang was pointing at and saw a pile of feces that was still emitting smoke.

Donor was speechless.

Donor turned around and retched.

Damn it, what kind of animal feces was this? It was so smelly!

However, Yu Huang extended her hand towards the pile of feces and even crushed them into ten small balls without batting an eyelid.

Not to mention Donor, even Yin Rong and Beatrice revealed hesitant and disdainful expressions.

Yu Huang spread out the feces ball in her hand and extended it in front of Donor and the others. She said, "We have already entered the middle circle of the primitive forest. Everyone has seen how dangerous this journey was. The demon beasts are very resistant to the intrusion of humans. This is the feces of the Magic Snake. It is in the middle circle and is considered a relatively powerful demon beast."

"The feces of demon beasts that have just been born will emit the powerful aura of the demon beast itself. Everyone, carry this feces ball with you. It can help us chase away those low-level demon beasts." Similarly, it could also threaten some demon beasts of the same level.

Yin Rong hesitated for a moment before reaching out to take a smelly piece of feces. Beatrice, Estelle, and the other students did the same. Only the noble and handsome Donor despised the stench and refused to reach out.

Estelle clicked his tongue and reached out to grab the feces ball in Yu Huang's hand. In a few moments, he smeared the ball on Donor's body.

"F*ck!" Donor pushed Estelle away and quickly wiped the feces off his clothes with a handkerchief. This wipe dirtied a large area of his clothes.

The corners of Yu Huang's lips curled up slightly as she said in amusement, "Let's go. Let's continue forward."

Donor rolled his eyes. The group of people bent down and carefully moved deeper into the forest under the cover of the tall and dense plants.

After walking for a while, they heard fighting.

Everyone stopped in unison and laid behind the grass to watch the battle in the distance.

Under the ancient tree in the distance, a group of beastmen students was fighting two adult Magic Snakes.

Magic snakes were a type of growth-type demon beast. When they were born, they would devour their parents. Therefore, when they were born, their tails would have three red horizontal patterns.

As for newborn Magic Snakes, they actually had no demonic power or combat strength. However, they had inherited their memories from their parents. They had very strong cultivation abilities. Every 50 years, the Magic Snakes would shed their skin and evolve.

Every time they shed their skin, a red horizontal line would appear on their tails.

The number of horizontal patterns on their tails represented their cultivation level.

As for the two magic snakes in front of them, one of their tails had seven horizontal patterns, and the other had six! On the body of the magic snake with six horizontal patterns on its tail, two colors of snake scales appeared. One part was lustrous and hard, while the other was gray.

Clearly, this snake was about to shed its skin!

This was a Rank 7 Magic Snake and a Rank 6 Magic Snake that was about to transform into a Rank 7 Magic Snake! The combined combat strength of the two was equivalent to that of a Grand Master Beast Tamer and a peak late-stage Supreme Master Beast Tamer!

Yu Huang and the others held their breaths and didn't dare to make a sound.

Yu Huang noticed that during the battle, the tails of the two Magic Snakes had been intertwined. She deduced that when this group of students bumped into the two of them, the two of them might have been having sex here.

The couple had a deep relationship and good teamwork. The students in that group were probably doomed.

Chapter 606: Honey Trap (2)

As soon as this thought appeared, the group of Beast Tamer students were defeated by the two Magic Snakes at the same time and fell to the ground while howling in pain.

“Ah!”

After a girl with a human body and a ponytail rolled to the ground, her eyes burning with fire.

She saw that her companions were seriously injured and had completely lost their ability to fight, while the two Magic Snakes were unharmed. Tears immediately welled up in her eyes. “Jaris!” The girl said to the Snake Clan girl lying not far away on her right, “Angus and the others are about to die! We are no match for these two Magic Snakes! Let’s forfeit!”

The Snake Girl looked up at the two Magic Snakes on the tree.

Seeing the Magic Snake’s forked tongue and the killing intent in its eyes, Jaris knew that it wouldn’t be easy for them to escape. “You’re right. We should have forfeited long ago!” With that, as the captain, Jaris quickly pressed the forfeiture button on her watch.

The moment she pressed the button, the old dean, Di Ruofeng, flew down from the sky and placed the entire group of students in a big sack before taking them away.

As soon as they left, the counter on Donor’s wrist flickered. He lowered his eyes and glanced at the counter. His eyes lit up, and he said gloatingly, “32 teams have already forfeited.” In other words, only 18 teams were still doing missions in the entire forest.

Donor looked at Yu Huang and asked her, “Shall we continue?”

They had just arrived at the middle circle when they encountered a ferocious demon beast like the Rank 7 Magic Snake. If they continued forward, it would probably be even more dangerous.

Yu Huang didn’t reply. Instead, she looked at Beatrice and the others. “Do you think we should continue this mission?”

Beatrice said, “Since it’s a mission, it means that we all have a chance to complete the mission. I think the principal and the others won’t really have us risk our lives. I think we should continue to complete the mission.”

Yin Rong agreed with Beatrice. “I think so too.”

Estelle said, “I’m not quitting!”

After receiving her teammates’ reply, Yu Huang shrugged at Donor. “Look, everyone wants to continue.”

Yu Huang lowered her eyes and stared at the marriage line on her ring finger. She noticed that the marriage line extended deep into the forest. The corners of her lips curled up slightly as she said to Donor, “My husband seems to have entered the hinterland.”

Donor became excited. “Let’s go. Don’t let Sheng Xiao beat us to it!”

* *

At the same time, Sheng Xiao and the others arrived at the hinterland.

Just like Yu Huang's team, Sheng Xiao's team was wearing camouflage uniforms. Although they didn't have feces wiped on their uniforms, they smelled bad.

If one looked carefully, they wouldn't notice that there was a smelly cloth bag hanging on their waists. It contained insect repellent pills specially concocted from the feces of the demons.

This thing was made by Sheng Zhou.

Because Sheng Yang liked all kinds of perfume, when Sheng Zhou was in Yufu City, his greatest hobby was to concoct perfume for Sheng Yang. Therefore, when he entered the primitive forest and encountered the feces of the demons in the hinterland, Sheng Zhou used the feces of the demons to concoct this insect repellent pill.

Although it was called an insect repellent pill, it could actually successfully distort the sensory buds of all demon beasts that were inferior to demon cultivators.

After Sheng Xiao and the others got close to the hinterland, with the help of the feces bag, no high-level demon beasts attacked them.

Sheng Xiao lowered his head and looked at the marriage knot on his ring finger. He noticed that the marriage knot was shaking. He guessed that Yu Huang and the others were rushing to the center of the hinterland. He couldn't help but look doting.

"According to the map, the Pixiu Demon lives on a mountain that looks like an old tiger head." Sheng Zhou and the others stared at the nearby mountain for a long time before finally finding a small mountain that looked like an old tiger head.

They had found the place where the wolf demon lived, but no one dared to take the initiative to look for it.

At this moment, another team successfully broke into the center of the hinterland and found the residence of the Pixiu Demon.

The group of people were wearing tattered camouflage uniforms like Sheng Xiao and the others. Their leader was a woman with slicked-back hair. The woman looked to be in her thirties. She had an earring with the word "North" on her left ear.

She was Fang Peipei, the second place on the top 500 rankings of the Holy Spirit Academy's recruitment competition. She was also the princess of the Northern Ice Kingdom and the number one killer of Wind Blade Mountain.

When he saw Fang Peipei, Sheng Xiao took the initiative to nod and greet her. "Sister Fang." Sheng Xiao had been in Wind Blade Mountain for a while. He admired Fang Peipei from the bottom of his heart.

Fang Peipei was surprised to see Sheng Xiao greet her. "Grand Master Sheng." Fang Peipei nodded at him as a greeting.

Fang Peipei raised her head and looked at the small mountain in front of her. She said in a low voice, "The Pixiu Demon is a super demon beast with strength comparable to a Prime Master. It's absolutely impossible for us to save Miss Weng from under its nose."

Sheng Xiao nodded. "It's very difficult."

Fang Peipei looked into Sheng Xiao's eyes and suddenly said, "I wonder if you have any good ideas?"

To be honest, Sheng Xiao really didn't.

This mission was impossible to complete.

Seeing that Sheng Xiao was silent, Fang Peipei said, "Actually, I have an idea."

Hearing that, both Sheng Xiao's team and Fang Peipei's team were curious about her method.

Sheng Zhou imitated Sheng Xiao and called Fang Peipei Sister Fang. Then, he asked, "Sister Fang, do you mind sharing your method with us?"

Fang Peipei smiled mysteriously. She only said, "Pixiu Demons are lecherous."

Sheng Xiao narrowed his eyes. "I understand. Sister Fang, you're saying that we can't deal with the Pixiu Demon by force. We can only use our wits. We can use a honey trap."

"That's right."

Then the question was, where was the beauty?

Chapter 607: Although I'm Ugly, I'm Kind (1)

Although Fang Peipei was a woman, her appearance wasn't exactly beautiful. And in their two groups, there was no other female other than Fang Peipei.

The plan couldn't be carried out.

Sheng Xiao suddenly felt a few gazes on him at the same time. He looked up and saw Fang Peipei, Sheng Zhou, and the others staring at him. They had a strange look in their eyes.

Sheng Xiao was speechless.

How rude.

Sheng Zhou put his hand to his mouth and coughed. He said, "Junior Sheng Xiao, you're the most beautiful one among us. Why don't you give it a try?"

Sheng Xiao's expression darkened. "Have you seen a beauty who's almost two meters tall?"

At that moment, Sheng Xiao and the others smelled a strange and unpleasant stench. They turned around and saw Yu Huang's team.

The camouflage uniforms on the students of Yu Huang's team were almost completely torn, and there were wounds of all sizes on their bodies.

It could be seen that they had put in a lot of effort to successfully reach the hinterland of the primitive forest.

Staring at the women in Yu Huang's team, Fang Peipei, Sheng Zhou, and the others' expressions instantly lit up.

The beauty was here!

Yu Huang had long heard the topic Sheng Zhou and the others were discussing.

Without waiting for Sheng Zhou and the others to speak, Yu Huang smiled and said, "Our team is willing to contribute a beauty, but after the mission is completed, the team that wins must give our team 500 points." Yu Huang had long expected this.

The Pixiu Demons were too strong. Even Sheng Xiao couldn't defeat them. She knew the strength of her team very well. She didn't intend to get first place from the start. Her goal was only those 500 points.

Fang Peipei and Sheng Xiao didn't say anything.

They had worked so hard for so many days for the sake of those 1,000 points. Yu Huang and the others didn't do anything. They would only provide a beauty, but they wanted to get 500 points in return. No one was willing to do it.

Seeing that they were unwilling to express their stance, Yu Huang wasn't anxious.

She crossed her arms and winked at Sheng Xiao. She said casually, "Since we can't reach a deal, let's just forfeit and let Sheng Xiao be the beauty."

Then, Yu Huang winked at Sheng Zhou and reminded him, "Senior Sheng Zhou, don't forget to take a few beautiful photos of Sheng Xiao for me. I'll post them on Weibo later so that everyone can see how beautiful he is."

Sheng Zhou didn't dare to say a word, but his hand, which was by his leg, secretly made an OK gesture at Yu Huang.

Sheng Xiao took a deep breath and said, "Deal!"

Yu Huang then looked at Fang Peipei. "How about Sister Fang?"

Seeing that Sheng Xiao had agreed, Fang Peipei thought about the huge difference in strength between her team and Sheng Xiao's team. It would be difficult for their team to get first place. She agreed. "I'm willing."

Yu Huang snapped her fingers. "Very good."

Seeing that the deal was done, Yin Rong looked worried. She held Yu Huang's arm and said in a low voice, "Yu Huang, that Pixiu Demon is lecherous and cruel. Let's not take this risk." Yin Rong couldn't help but look at Sheng Xiao reproachfully.

Sheng Xiao wasn't a good person to let his wife take the risk.

Sheng Xiao's expression didn't change when he received Yin Rong's gaze. He even asked Yu Huang with interest, "Who is going to seduce the Pixiu Demons?"

Upon hearing this, Donor subconsciously said, "Who else could it be?" Among these women, Yu Huang had the most tricks up her sleeve.

However, Yu Huang's gaze landed on Donor's face.

Donor asked in confusion, "Why are you looking at me?"

"I'm not going." Yu Huang gave Donor a sweet and seductive smile. She said, "You're the most handsome, good-looking, and strongest person in our team. Of course you should go!"

Donor was speechless.

"I'm not going!" Donor's expression darkened. "Sheng Xiao doesn't want to be a woman, so why should I act as a woman?"

Sheng Xiao said against his conscience, "Because you're prettier than me."

Estelle said, "You're the best-looking one among us."

Beatrice said, "Because you're gentlemanly and kind."

Yin Rong said, "Because you're our hero, our captain, and the strongest among us."

Donor was flattered by their words.

"I can be the beauty, but what about the distribution of points?" In the Holy Spirit Academy, points were more precious than spirit stones. Donor wasn't stupid enough to give up fighting for benefits.

Chapter 608: Although I'm Ugly, I'm Kind (2)

Yu Huang said, "There are a total of 10 people in our team. Everyone will get 40 points. The remaining 100 points will be transferred to your point card." In other words, Donor would get 140 points.

Donor was quite satisfied with Yu Huang's arrangements.

"Alright, let's start changing your clothes." Yu Huang threw the dress she had prepared to Sheng Xiao and said, "Brother Xiao, please change Donor's clothes."

Sheng Xiao stared at the dress in his hand and then at Donor's handsome and fair face. He wanted to laugh, but he was afraid that Donor would quit if he laughed. He could only hold back his laughter and bring Donor to the back of the forest to change.

Soon, Sheng Xiao and Sheng Zhou dragged Donor out of the forest.

Donor was a little over 1.8 meters tall and had a slender frame. He was wearing a light green waist-length dress. At first glance, he indeed looked like a golden-haired and tall beauty.

When Fang Peipei saw Donor like this, her beautiful eyes lit up.

Yu Huang nudged Yin Rong's arm. "Yin Rong, go put on makeup for him."

Yin Rong loved to carry skincare products and cosmetics with her. When she heard this, she carefully asked, "What makeup style?"

The corners of Yu Huang's mouth twitched slightly as she described simply, "The kind of makeup that makes him look pitiful, charming, and sexy."

Yin Rong's mouth widened a little, and she immediately took out a makeup brush and cosmetics to put on Donor's makeup.

Half an hour later.

The Pixiu Demon sat at the entrance of the cave and stared at the woman in the cave with a gloomy expression. The head in the middle cursed, "Why aren't those despicable humans here yet?! Mo Xiao, that old fox, is really troublesome. If I had known that it would be so annoying to train with those brats, I wouldn't have agreed in the first place!"

The left head said again, "Seriously, why did Boss suddenly agree to cooperate with humans?! In my opinion, we should cut off all contact with humans! When our demon beasts become stronger, we'll kill all the humans and kidnap all the beauties to my cave abode!"

The right head said irritably, "I'm hungry!"

The woman sitting in the cave abode was wearing a black tube top and a red leather skirt that only covered her small butt. Her seductive long legs were crossed on the bed in the Pixiu Demon Cave Abode.

However, the Pixiu Demon didn't dare to take another look.

The woman put on the mask with the word "Weng Qian" on it and covered her charming face. She said in a seductive tone, "What's the hurry? Society is improving, and so are humans. If you ask me, humans are more interesting than before. Especially that principal..."

At the mention of the principal, the woman suddenly opened her cherry red mouth and spat out a long snake tongue. It quickly swept across the corner of her lips, like she was a hungry python thinking of the most delicious food and couldn't help but drool.

At the same time, her black eyes instantly turned blood red. "The principal seems really delicious. I really want to eat him." As for how to eat him, the woman didn't even dare to think about it. Just thinking about it made her feel tantalized all over.

Upon hearing the woman's words, the Pixiu Demon's three faces became serious at the same time. "She Ying, you can play, but you can't develop feelings for humans. That principal is clearly a powerful person. Don't follow in the Peacock Demon's footsteps. Think about how the Peacock Demon died!"

When she heard this, the woman's blood-red eyes gradually returned to the color of ink. "What nonsense are you talking about? I want his face and body. I don't want his heart."

“Okay, as long as you know your limits.”

At this moment, the Pixiu Demon suddenly heard the sound of fighting.

The head on his left raised its eyelids lazily and looked at the mountain in front of him. When it saw a girl in a light green dress falling quickly towards the Tiger Mountain, its heart ached. “Hey, beauty!”

Upon seeing the beauty, the Pixiu Demon immediately became invigorated.

In a flash, he appeared halfway up Tiger Mountain and caught the elven beauty who had fallen from the sky.

The beauty had a slender figure and a stunning appearance. Lying in his arms, she looked really weak. The Pixiu Demon looked at the woman’s face in fascination. His heart ached as he asked, “Hey, beauty, where does it hurt?!”

It hurt everywhere!

Sheng Xiao was really ruthless.

Seeing that the beauty was silent, the Pixiu Demon thought that the beauty was frightened by his appearance. The head on the left asked softly, “Little girl, did I scare you because I’m ugly?”

Donor approached the Pixiu Demon at a close distance and was indeed frightened by his pig body and human head.

Donor asked in a half-hearted tone, “What, what are you?”

These words clearly hurt the Pixiu Demon’s feelings.

The head on the left revealed a sad smile, the head in the middle revealed a sinister smile, and the head on the right revealed a creepy smile.

The human head on the right said, “Don’t be afraid, Beauty. I’m Brother Pig. Brother Pig just saved you. Although Brother Pig is ugly, Brother Pig is kind.”

Donor was speechless.

What the hell.

Donor endured his disgust and fear. He deliberately pinched his throat and whispered to the Pixiu Demon, “Brother Pig, can you help me catch that person just now? That person is a heartless man. He promised to marry me, but he betrayed me and slept with an ugly monster. Brother Pig, you’re a good person. Can you help me catch him?! I want to take revenge myself!”

Hearing this, the head in the middle took the opportunity to say, “You can catch him, but you have to promise me that you will listen to me in the future and be my woman.”

Donor said, “...Okay.”

Chapter 610: Scheming City People (2)

At this moment, Donor said, "Brother Pig, I... I don't want to see him anymore."

The Pixiu Demon looked at him in surprise, and its three pairs of eyes were filled with confusion. "What's wrong, little beauty? Didn't you say that you wanted to kill him yourself?"

Donor suddenly sobbed, and his eyes instantly turned red. He reached out his trembling hand and hugged the Pixiu Demon's neck. He pretended to be fragile as he said, "I thought about it. I still have to move forward. There's no need to let the jerk pester me. Besides..."

Donor pretended to look at the Pixiu Demon affectionately. He said in a tone that made him feel disgusted, "You treat me so well. I think I should cherish the person in front of me even more. Brother Pig, I don't want to see him anymore. Take me back to your home."

When the Pixiu Demon heard Donor's words, his heart almost melted. "You're so likable."

The Pixiu Demon was ugly. Which beauty wouldn't scream a few times when they saw him? Then, they would turn around and escape!

It was because of this that the Pixiu Demon became cruel and greedy.

Finally, he met a kind and cute girl like Donor. The Pixiu Demon was instantly head over heels in love. "Alright, I will bring you to our home!" The Pixiu Demon carried Donor back to his cave abode.

After returning to the cave abode, the Pixiu Demon saw that She Ying had disappeared. Without thinking much of it, he threw Donor onto the bed and anxiously wanted to kiss him.

This frightened Donor so much that his legs went weak.

Donor hurriedly pressed his arm against the Pixiu Demon's chest. His face was flushed as he said, "Brother Pig, can you let me take a shower? I still have that scumbag's blood on me. I feel disgusted just by smelling it. Let me take a shower and accompany you cleanly."

After saying this, Donor felt like vomiting.

However, the Pixiu Demon was overjoyed.

“Okay!”

The Pixiu Demon carried Donor and threw him into a pool outside the cave abode. “You can shower here.”

Donor pretended to pull down the collar of his dress. When the Pixiu Demon saw Donor’s fair skin, its eyes widened and its breathing became heavy.

At this moment, Donor said shyly, “Can you turn around? I... I feel shy.”

The Pixiu Demon thought: This little elf is so innocent, so cute, and so pure.

“Okay.” The Pixiu Demon turned his back to Donor and rubbed his hands in anticipation. He even urged Donor, “Little beauty, hurry up.”

Donor heaved a sigh of relief and hurriedly took out the watch given to them by the academy from his interspatial ring. Then, he hurriedly pressed the abstention button. The moment the button was pressed, Di Ruofeng, who was guarding nearby, appeared above the Pixiu Demon Cave Abode.

Di Ruofeng stood on the top of Tiger Mountain with a complicated expression as he looked at Donor, who was dressed in female clothes, in the pool. He then looked at the impatient Pixiu Demon and immediately guessed what despicable means Donor and the others had used to complete the mission.

When the Pixiu Demon saw Di Ruofeng suddenly appear, it immediately revealed a fierce expression. “Old thing, what are you doing here?!”

Di Ruofeng flew down from the top of the mountain. He cupped his hands and apologized to the Pixiu Demon before saying, “Brother Pig, Miss Weng Qian was successfully rescued by the students. Your mission is over. I’m here to pick up our students.”

The three heads of the Pixiu Demons were stunned. “Your students? Who?”

At this moment, Donor stood up from the pool and said softly, “... It’s me.”

When the Pixiu Demon heard Donor’s voice, he guessed a possibility, and he instantly became enraged. The Pixiu Demon turned his head and looked at Donor angrily. He asked in a sinister tone, “Beauty, you tricked me?”

“Beauty?” The corners of Di Ruofeng’s mouth twitched. He hurriedly shook his head and explained, “I’m not a beauty. I’m a boy.”

Hearing this, the three heads of the Pixiu Demon had different expressions.

The left head was filled with shock, the middle head was filled with anger, and the right head revealed a pained expression.

The head in the middle of the Pixiu Demon suddenly scolded Donor, “Despicable elf! How dare you deceive my feelings!” He thought that he had finally met his true love!

Having been deceived, the Pixiu Demon was extremely angry. The hair on his body suddenly stood up, and black demonic power faintly emerged from it.

Seeing that the Pixiu Demon was angry, Di Ruofeng picked up Donor and fled without a word. Just as the two of them flew into the air, the Tiger Mountain turned into ruins under the Pixiu Demon's angry roar.

"Despicable elf, I must tear you into pieces!"

Donor's legs went weak when he heard the Pixiu Demon's roar.

The old dean quickly carried Donor back to the Holy Spirit Academy.

He threw Donor on the field and was about to leave when Donor hurriedly reached out and grabbed Di Ruofeng's wrist. He asked uneasily, "Principal, will the Pixiu Demon take revenge on me?"

Di Ruofeng snorted. "You better not be caught by him!"

Donor couldn't help but ask, "What will happen if I'm caught?"

Di Ruofeng glared at him and said angrily, "You'll either be killed or played to death!"

Donor was speechless.

...

On the other side, Yu Huang and the others left the middle layer of the primitive forest and arrived at the outer layer.

The demon beasts in the outer circle were no longer a threat to them.

The moment they entered the outer circle, Sheng Zhou and Xuanyuan Chen did not say a word. They drew their swords to ambush the students of Fang Peipei's team. However, Fang Peipei was not to be trifled with. The moment Sheng Zhou and the others drew their swords, Fang Peipei wrapped one hand around She Ying's waist and extended the other to ambush Sheng Zhou and the others.

The moment she extended her right arm, it suddenly turned into a two-headed black snake.

The black snake spat out a poisonous black liquid that landed on Sheng Zhou and the others. The poisonous liquid immediately entered their bodies through the air. Sheng Zhou, Xuanyuan Chen, and the others were instantly paralyzed and lost their combat strength.

Fang Peipei hugged the snake tassel and turned to look at Yu Huang's team with a warning gaze.

Yu Huang glanced at Sheng Zhou and the others, who had lost their combat strength. She silently took a step back and revealed a submissive attitude. Seeing Yu Huang retreat, Beatrice and the others also retreated.

Seeing that Yu Huang's team was sensible, Fang Peipei nodded and was about to leave with She Ying. The moment She Ying turned around, Yu Huang suddenly raised her head and shouted in another direction in surprise, "Brother Xiao!"

Thinking that Sheng Xiao was really coming, Fang Peipei and the others turned to look at Yu Huang.

At this moment, Yu Huang suddenly closed her eyes and muttered softly, "Tears of Samsara!" A transparent tear appeared above Yu Huang's head out of thin air. That tear turned into a mist that enveloped Fang Peipei and the others.

Surrounded by the mist, Fang Peipei and the others instantly lost all their mobility. They hugged She Ying and remained motionless.

Yu Huang's Tears of Samsara could only last for three to five seconds.

The people in Yu Huang's team moved at the same time.

Yu Huang spread her Vermillion Bird wings and flew into the sky. Yin Rong also summoned her unicorn. She rode her unicorn and followed behind Yu Huang while Beatrice chased after them. The other students who were good at land combat ran towards Fang Peipei at the same time.

A male student snatched She Ying away from Fang Peipei's arms and threw her to another male student.

That person opened his arms and caught She Ying. Then, like a basketball, he passed She Ying to Beatrice.

At this moment, the effect of the Tear of Time disappeared.

Fang Peipei and the others regained their mobility. Seeing that She Ying had fallen into Beatrice's hands, they were instantly enraged. "Despicable!"
