Chapter 811: How Could Someone As Stupid As Him Have a Wife? (2)

When it hummed, Yu Huang felt that the entire world had become peaceful. She suddenly summoned Xuan Yu and ordered it to turn into a musical instrument—

An ocarina.

The stupid ape hummed, and Yu Huang played music to accompany its humming.

The music was very heavy, like a sound that came from the thick soil. It made people feel sad and hesitant when they heard it. The stupid ape glanced at Yu Huang and hummed even more enthusiastically. Yu Huang also played faster. The two of them cooperated intimately, and there was actually a wonderful feeling of sublimity.

As the tune became more and more passionate, Yu Huang sensed that the spiritual power in her body was being activated uncontrollably. The originally calm her actually felt excited and filled with battle intent!

Only then did Yu Huang realize that this nameless song wasn't just a profound and pleasant song. It was more likely to be a musical cultivation technique!

In this world, there were indeed very few music cultivation techniques.

Among the music cultivation techniques, there were those that could eliminate one's irritation, those that could let one sleep soundly, and naturally, there were also those that could stimulate one's fighting spirit.

And the song the stupid ape was singing was clearly a war song.

After the two of them finished playing, Yu Huang held the ocarina and took a few deep breaths. After a long time, she finally calmed down. The ocarina transformed into Xuan Yu and landed on Yu Huang's shoulder. It rubbed its head against Yu Huang's for a while before turning into a wisp of red spiritual energy and entering Yu Huang's mind.

This sea was unexpectedly wide. The raft sailed on the sea for an entire week before Yu Huang realized that the sea had become shallow. She lowered her eyes and glanced at the marriage line on her ring finger. Seeing that the marriage line was shaking faster and faster, she stood up and pointed in the direction where the marriage line extended. She said to Kunlun, "Head in this direction."

"Okay."

Kunlun rowed the boat while carrying Yu Huang towards the distant land.

After passing through the barrier between the deep sea and the shallow sea, Yu Huang suddenly discovered that the spiritual power in her body had become abundant again. She tried to spread her wings and take off, and this time, she actually succeeded.

Yu Huang stood in the void and looked at the distant plate. She saw a black dragon fighting countless jumping sea rabbits in the shallow sea.

There was only one black dragon, but there were hundreds of sea rabbits.

When Yu Huang saw this scene, she raised her eyebrows and was extremely surprised.

Could it be that Sheng Xiao had been killing sea rabbits for the past seven months in order to cross the sea?

Yu Huang landed on the raft and said to Kunlun, "I found him."

Kunlun asked, "Sheng Xiao?"

"Yes."

Kunlun immediately grinned happily and repeated, "It's good that you found him. It's good that you found him." But then, Kunlun's smile disappeared again. It calmly slowed down and the oars swung slower and slower.

Yu Huang noticed that Kunlun was slacking off. She thought that Kunlun was tired, so she walked to Kunlun and reached out to say, "You can rest. I'll row the boat."

Kunlun dawdled and moved its position.

Yu Huang rowed the boat, and the boat moved even faster. Soon, Kunlun also saw the man fighting the sea rabbits in front.

The man was wearing a black shirt and holding a long sword. When the long sword slashed down, he killed a sea rabbit. His combat strength impressed Kunlun.

"He's Sheng Xiao?" Kunlun looked at Sheng Xiao enviously.

That two-legged monster was quite good-looking.

Yu Huang nodded. "We're husband and wife." Guessing that Kunlun might not understand what a husband and wife meant, Yu Huang explained patiently, "We're the closest people in the world. He's someone I can entrust my life to."

Kunlun's eyes lit up and it hurriedly said, "Friends!"

Yu Huang had said before that friends could entrust their lives to each other.

Yu Huang smiled and explained in detail, "It's a closer relationship than friends."

Kunlun seemed to understand.

Soon, Sheng Xiao sensed Yu Huang's aura. He looked into the deep sea and saw Yu Huang sitting on a raft with an ape. They were rushing towards him. When he saw Yu Huang, his murderous gaze softened.

Sensing that Sheng Xiao had become gentler, the sea rabbits that were frightened by his killing heaved a sigh of relief.

Damn it, this lunatic had been challenging them every day for the past six months.

In the beginning, they were all very happy. They were all looking forward to defeating this two-legged monster and eating it. This two-legged monster was a species they had never seen before. It looked fair and clean, and there was no stench on its body. It must taste very delicious.

However, what shocked the sea rabbits was that these two-legged monsters could actually transform into large dragons!

A dragon!

That was a super divine beast that only existed in legends!

In the beginning, the sea rabbits in the nearby sea wanted to eat Sheng Xiao and were willing to fight with him. However, as they fought, he killed all the sea rabbits nearby. In the end, this despicable two-legged monster deliberately went to the deep sea to swim. It lured the sea rabbits who didn't know the truth from the deep sea to the shallow sea and killed them.

Under his influence, the number of sea rabbits in the sea near this plate was rapidly decreasing.

Now, this two-legged monster had been cautiously placed on the fasting list by the sea rabbits.

Therefore, when they realized that they couldn't defeat this two-legged monster and noticed that the two-legged monster's attack had become gentler, these sea rabbits used all their strength to escape.

Sheng Xiao didn't pursue them.

Sheng Xiao put away his sword and teleported to the raft Yu Huang was on.

He stared at Yu Huang with a loving gaze for a long time before touching her face with heartache and saying, "You've lost weight and become tanned."

Yu Huang was speechless.

How could such a fool have a wife?

Chapter 812: Gathering (1)

Yu Huang sneered. "Not only have I lost weight, but I also cheated on you." She took a detour and held the ape's arm. She told Sheng Xiao, "Let me introduce you. This is my new boyfriend."

It was Sheng Xiao's turn to be speechless.

Sheng Xiao knew that Yu Huang was joking. He also knew that Yu Huang was angry. He wasn't stupid. Of course, he understood why Yu Huang was angry. Sheng Xiao quickly apologized. "You know, my heart aches for you."

Yu Huang's gaze instantly softened.

The top two buttons of Sheng Xiao's shirt were open. His chest had been exposed to the three suns for seven months and had turned bronze. Yu Huang stared at the skin under Sheng Xiao's collar and whistled. She said frivolously, "Not bad. Your abs look much sexier."

Sheng Xiao strode to Yu Huang. He lowered his head and flirted with her in a low voice. "My chest is not the only sexy thing on me..."

Yu Huang coughed and pushed him away before saying to him, "This is my friend. His name is... Kunlun." When she introduced the stupid ape's name, Yu Huang was quite bashful.

Sheng Xiao was shocked when he heard the name. "Kunlun?"

The stupid ape quickly strode forward and grabbed Sheng Xiao's hand. It didn't know how to read people's expressions. It introduced itself excitedly, "Hello, hello, hello. I'm Yu Huang's friend, Kunlun."

An ape that lived in the Kunlun Mystic Realm actually spoke the Divine Moon Empire's language!

Sheng Xiao looked at Yu Huang in shock. "It can speak?"

Yu Huang smiled proudly. "I taught it."

Sheng Xiao looked at Yu Huang in admiration.

How impressive that she could even teach the ape to speak.

Sheng Xiao took his hand out of the ape's palm and nodded. He said to the ape, "Hello. Your name..." Sheng Xiao couldn't bear to say anything harsh when he met the ape's bright eyes. He said against his conscience, "It's very nice."

The ape actually took the name of the creator of the Kunlun Mystic Realm. How bold.

However, the naive ape didn't know Sheng Xiao's true thoughts. It thought that Sheng Xiao was praising it. It smiled shyly. "Thank you. Your name is nice too."

Sheng Xiao nodded and took the paddle from Yu Huang's hand. He personally rowed the boat to the shore. He jumped down from the raft and reached out to hold Yu Huang's hand. However, Yu Huang jumped onto the beach directly. Her movements were handsome. Sheng Xiao stared at his empty palm. Then, he seemed to have thought of something and laughed. "You only wait to hold my hand obediently when we dance."

Yu Huang raised her eyebrows. "Are you saying that I'm not weak and cute enough?"

Sheng Xiao just stared at her and smiled.

Yu Huang realized that Sheng Xiao was teasing her only when she saw that he was laughing non-stop. She rubbed her nose uncomfortably and asked Sheng Xiao, "Are you the only one living on this continent?" Yu Huang had been on the continent where the Black Shark Birds lived for seven months and had only met Xiao Shu. She didn't know about the other students.

Sheng Xiao shook his head first. Then, he said, "No, there are more than thirty students living on this island." There were only five continents in the Kunlun Mystic Realm. The Holy Spirit Academy had 120 students participating in the mystic realm training this time. There should be more than 20 participants on each continent.

That was why Sheng Xiao wasn't in a hurry to find Yu Huang after realizing that he couldn't cross the sea.

He thought that Yu Huang had companions on the board where she lived.

After knowing that there were more than thirty students on the continent where Sheng Xiao lived, Yu Huang couldn't help but envy him. "Then, your island is quite lively. I lived on another island by myself for seven months."

"You were alone on the island?" Sheng Xiao was shocked. "How is that possible?"

Yu Huang shrugged helplessly and mocked herself. "I'm unlucky."

"Who else is on this island?"

Sheng Xiao said, "Estelle, Donor, and Fang Peipei are all on this plate."

"There are so many experts here."

Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao chatted as they walked. After a while, Yu Huang realized that something was missing. She stopped and looked back at the coast. She saw the stupid ape standing alone beside the raft. It was looking at her sadly.

When Yu Huang saw how reluctant the stupid ape was, she felt pity.

Chapter 813: Gathering (2)

The two of them had been together for seven months. She gave him a name and taught him common sense. He also accidentally taught her a music cultivation technique. When it came to the moment of separation, Yu Huang also felt a little reluctant.

Sheng Xiao could sense their reluctance. He said softly, "You can handle it. I'll wait for you in front."

Sheng Xiao wouldn't interfere with Yu Huang's decision.

After Sheng Xiao left, Yu Huang walked back to the stupid ape and asked it, "What are you doing here?"

The stupid ape lowered its head and fiddled its hands as it stammered, "I, I will watch you guys leave."

Yu Huang stood on her tiptoes and knocked the stupid ape on the head. "Idiot, I didn't ask you to go back."

At first, the stupid ape didn't understand what Yu Huang meant.

Yu Huang decided to speak more clearly. "I'll continue to stay here for more than two years. If you're willing, you can live with us during this period."

The stupid ape immediately grinned. "Let's live together!"

"Then follow me."

* *

Sheng Xiao stood in the forest and saw Yu Huang walking back with the stupid ape. He didn't seem surprised or have any objections. He just held Yu Huang's hand and held back his laughter. "Donor and the others will laugh at you when they see you coming back with a big ape."

Yu Huang snorted. "How dare he!"

The stupid ape stared at Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang's hand. He couldn't help but speed up and chase after them. He held Sheng Xiao's other hand silently.

Ever since Sheng Xiao grew up, he had only held hands with Yu Huang. When his right hand was suddenly held by someone else, Sheng Xiao was so frightened that he shook off the hand.

The stupid ape was shocked by Sheng Xiao's actions. It looked at Sheng Xiao in confusion. Thinking that Sheng Xiao didn't like it, it walked from Sheng Xiao's back to Yu Huang's other side and held her left hand. "Friend." The stupid ape raised its hand that was holding Yu Huang's hand tightly and shook it. "Friend, hold my hand."

Sheng Xiao was speechless.

How rude.

Sheng Xiao shouted coldly, "Kunlun, come here. I'll hold your hand!"

A smile appeared on Yu Huang's lips.

When the stupid ape heard Sheng Xiao's shout, it ran to Sheng Xiao and held its hand.

In unfamiliar territory, the plains and valleys were often the most dangerous places. So, the students of the Holy Spirit Academy gathered on the highest mountain peak on the island. This place could withstand the invasion of many little demon beasts. When Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang returned to the camp, it was dark.

At this moment, the students who had gone out to train had just returned with wounds all over their bodies.

The students gathered around the bonfire and were all sharing what they had seen and heard today. As they were talking, Feng Yuncheng suddenly saw Yu Huang. "Yu Huang!" Feng Yuncheng immediately stood up and rushed over from the bonfire to hug Yu Huang tightly. "Yu Huang, you've finally found us!"

Yu Huang also hammered Feng Yuncheng's shoulder hard. She said, "It's been seven months since we last met. You've become tanned."

Feng Yuncheng immediately let go of Yu Huang and turned around to take out a mirror. "Really? Really? I don't want to meet Her Highness with a tan." Beatrice landed on another plate. Feng Yuncheng had been thinking of a way to find Beatrice. He was afraid that if he became tan and ugly, he would be despised by Beatrice.

After all, the only thing Feng Yuncheng could boast about was his handsome face.

Yu Huang was amused by Feng Yuncheng's narcissism.

At this moment, Donor, Fang Peipei, Estelle, and a few Light Elves surrounded her. When they saw Yu Huang, the first thing Donor said was, "Why did you become ugly?"

Yu Huang retorted, "Why has Prince Donor become thinner too? Everyone says that men can't be too thin. Your Highness, you should take care of your body. After all, you still have to help the elves."

Donor was rendered speechless by Yu Huang's retort. "In terms of cursing, Yu Huang, you're more capable." Donor cupped his hands towards Yu Huang to express his admiration.

Estelle pointed at the big ape behind Yu Huang and asked, "Yu Huang, is this big ape your demon beast?"

"It's not a baboon, but an ape." Yu Huang turned around and pulled Kunlun to her side. She introduced him to everyone. "Its name is Kunlun, and it's my friend. It will live with us next."

"Kunlun?!" Everyone was shocked by the bold name.

Yu Huang naturally knew why they had such a huge reaction. She explained, "It only named itself Kunlun because it admired the Kunlun Divine Master so much. Don't misunderstand."

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

As for Kunlun, it raised its right hand and waved at everyone as Yu Huang had taught it in the past. Then, it opened its mouth and revealed a mouthful of white teeth. It greeted them warmly, "Hello, friends. I'm Kunlun. Please take care of me in the future."

All the students were silent at first, then they surrounded Kunlun in wonder.

"Impressive, Yu Huang. You actually taught an ape to speak the Divine Moon Empire's language."

"We've encountered countless demon beasts on this island, but those demon beasts are all speaking languages that we don't understand. The ape you brought back can actually speak the Divine Moon Empire's language. Alright, alright. From now on, Kunlun will be our translator."

Just like that, Kunlun became Donor and the others' translator.

At night, Yu Huang chatted with Donor and the others for the entire night. Only then did she know that there were a total of 38 students who had landed on this island. However, five students had been killed by demon beasts one after another. Now, there were only 33 students left on this island.

The addition of Yu Huang and Kunlun gave them new strength.

Sheng Xiao saw that the moon had risen into the deep sky. He said, "Everyone, you have to go to the Black Well to kill the Thousand-Faced Demon Spider tomorrow. Sleep early tonight. I'll be on duty." It was indeed Sheng Xiao's turn to be on duty tonight. Even if Yu Huang had just returned, Sheng Xiao couldn't slack off.

Yu Huang stood up as well. "I'll accompany you."

The two of them arrived at the entrance of the mountain and sat down on a rock. Yu Huang asked Sheng Xiao, "Were the five students really killed by the demon beasts?" Yu Huang was skeptical.

Sheng Xiao knew what Yu Huang was thinking. He shook his head and said, "The academy did send supervisors, but those demon beasts were too powerful. When the supervisors arrived, they had already been killed. This is not a peaceful place, nor is it a pure training ground. This is a battlefield where life and death don't matter. This place is even crueler than the Doomsday Battlefield."

In the Doomsday Battlefield, one could still take off their wristbands to survive after being defeated. But here, defeat meant death.

Yu Huang tried her best to be calm as she asked, "Who died?" She was afraid to hear her good friends' names.

Sheng Xiao said five names. Although those people were not Yu Huang's best friends, they were still classmates who had spoken to her in school and had some friendship with her. She leaned on Sheng Xiao's shoulder and sighed. "How cruel." However, Yu Huang was curious about how Feng Yuncheng survived.

"Fourth Brother's cultivation level is the weakest. How did he survive?"

"Him?" Sheng Xiao's expression suddenly became strange. He said, "He's not weak at all."

"What do you mean?"

Sheng Xiao said mysteriously, "You'll know tomorrow."

Chapter 814: Sheng Xiao: What Do You Think I Want to Do?(1)

They only met again after seven months. Yu Huang looked at Sheng Xiao seductively.

Sheng Xiao wasn't a blockhead. He understood Yu Huang's gaze.

After all, he wasn't calm either.

Sheng Xiao suddenly stood up and said, "Help me stand guard for a while. I'll go back and get something."

"Okay."

As soon as Sheng Xiao left, Kunlun walked out of the darkness. Yu Huang didn't turn around when she heard Kunlun's footsteps. She stood on the huge rock and looked at the path up the mountain. She asked without turning around, "Why aren't you resting? Is it because you can't sleep after changing places?"

Demonic beasts like Kunlun and the others were very vigilant when they suddenly changed their environment.

Kunlun arrived beside Yu Huang. It lowered its eyes and swept its gaze towards the endless demon beast world at the foot of the mountain. It said with some fear, "There are very many powerful demon beasts here." It rubbed its nose and said, "I've only sensed such a powerful aura in the swamp."

In other words, there were as many super demon beasts on this plate as there were hairs on an ox. Among them, there were many demon beasts that were comparable to the Terrestrial Alligator.

Yu Huang turned to look at Kunlun's tall and strong side profile and asked in surprise, "You can sense the aura of a big shot?"

Kun Lun nodded vigorously. "Yes, the aura of every demon beast is different. That Terrestrial Alligator gives me the feeling of a dark night..." After a pause, Kun Lun racked its brains to find a suitable adjective. "It's like the aura of a snowy night. "

Cold, mysterious, and unfathomable.

"And I've only sensed such an aura in the swamp before, but there are a few on this continent." Kunlun rubbed its arms and asked Yu Huang worriedly, "Must we live here?" Wasn't it good to return to the sea? The sea was windy and sunny, and there were delicious sea rabbits.

Yu Huang didn't know how to explain to Kunlun Realm why they came to the Kunlun Mystic Realm. After thinking for a while, she said concisely, "Kunlun, my friends and I are from another world. To the people of your world, we are intruders. What do demon beasts hate the most?"

Kunlun subconsciously said, "Intruders."

"That's right. That's why when we came to this world, we were destined to become enemies with demon beasts. Do you understand? Even if we return to the small wooden hut from before to live, sooner or later, we will attract the attack of the super demon beasts on that plate." Although the Terrestrial Alligator looked lazy, once it discovered that a large number of outsiders had intruded into its territory, it definitely wouldn't let them off.

With Yu Huang's explanation, Kunlun immediately understood.

At that moment, Sheng Xiao returned. Not only was he back, but he was also followed by Estelle and Donor.

Yu Huang raised her eyebrows and asked Sheng Xiao, "Are they what you went to get back?"

Donor immediately retorted, "Do you know how to talk? Am I a thing?" Donor walked over angrily and pulled Yu Huang down from the rock. He pushed her to Sheng Xiao's side and walked to the rock. He said to Estelle, "Come on, Estelle. The couple wants to hide under the blanket and play games. Let's us bachelors stand guard."

Estelle had been with this group of perverts for a period of time and was no longer as innocent as he used to be. Of course he knew what kind of game 'hiding under the blanket and playing games' was.

Estelle blinked at Yu Huang before jumping onto the huge rock. He even thoughtfully laid a soft blanket on the huge rock and said to Donor, "Your Highness, let's sit."

Donor was relieved to see that Estelle was so prepared.

After the two of them sat down side by side, Donor waved at Sheng Xiao impatiently again. "Get lost! You're an eyesore."

Sheng Xiao held Yu Huang's hand and said softly, "Let's go back and rest."

Yu Huang looked at Sheng Xiao with a faint smile and followed him to the camp.

On the other hand, Kunlun couldn't sleep, and there was no tent for it in the camp for the time being, so it stayed with Donor and the others. Kunlun had never seen Donor and Estelle, these two types of monsters. Its huge body squatted beside the thin Estelle, and it looked incomparably tall.

Kunlun turned to look at the two of them and asked innocently and curiously, "Are you two birds? Or humans?"

Donor and Estelle were speechless.

Donor was speechless for a few seconds before saying, "We're elves."

Chapter 815: Sheng Xiao: What Do You Think I Want to Do? (2)

Estelle glanced at Donor and didn't explain to Kunlun that he was a Night Elf, and that Night Elves and Light Elves were not of the same race.

"Elves?" Kunlun was stunned, not understanding what species elves were.

Donor thought of something and suddenly asked Kunlun, "What does this mean?" He imitated the cry of a demon beast. A few days ago, when Donor was out hunting demon beasts with the Light Elves, a scorpion demon beast had said this to him.

Kun Lun's expression was slightly hesitant. It said, "Wa la la wu means I want you to be a sex slave."

"What?" Donor was so angry that he immediately stood up. "It wants me to be a sex slave? Is that lowly and ugly scorpion worthy?" When the scorpion said this, its eyes were shining. At that time, Donor even narcissistically thought that the scorpion was praising his beauty.

It turned out that it was insulting him!

Donor was so angry that his handsome face turned red.

Donor patted Kunlun's shoulder hard and told him, "Bro, from tomorrow onwards, you will go out with us to fight and be our translator. If I hear such humiliating words again, I will definitely chop him up!"

The two of them instantly became buddies.

* *

When Sheng Xiao returned to the camp with Yu Huang, most of the other students were resting. Only a few seriously injured people who couldn't sleep were sitting by the bonfire and asking their companions to apply medicine to their wounds.

Seeing that Sheng Xiao had called Donor and Estelle out and brought Yu Huang back, the adults understood.

Fang Peipei poured a bottle of wine on the wound on her thigh. She gritted her teeth in pain and asked a Beast Tamer who was good at healing to heal her wound. She looked up and said to Sheng Xiao, "Sheng Xiao, do you need to change tents with me?"

Sheng Xiao's tent was at the front. This was the most dangerous position. If a demon beast attacked, Sheng Xiao would be the first to be attacked. Fang Peipei was a princess of a fallen country and a girl, so her tent was at the back of the camp with the other girls.

Fang Peipei felt that it would be easier for Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang to make out at the back.

Hearing Fang Peipei's suggestion, the students around the bonfire looked at them ambiguously.

The two of them were a couple who had a marriage compact. Any intimacy between the two of them was legal. They were both adults. It was understandable that they couldn't help themselves when they reunited after seven months.

Sheng Xiao said, "No need." He pulled Yu Huang to his tent. However, Yu Huang turned around and smiled at Fang Peipei. "Thank you."

Fang Peipei stroked her short hair and smiled. "Beautiful women are the most likable." She looked at Sheng Xiao without smiling. He looked boring.

Sheng Xiao's tent was also a single tent. There were only two simple blankets inside. One was a sheet and the other was a blanket. The tent was very narrow. When Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao laid together, there was almost no extra space. As Yu Huang laid in Sheng Xiao's tent, her heart was racing.

She pointed at her and him as she said hesitantly, "This place isn't very suitable, right? The tent can reveal shadows. If we do anything, everyone outside can see us!"

"What do you think I want to do?" Sheng Xiao pulled Yu Huang into his arms. He said, "I just want to hug you properly." When he saw Yu Huang at the beach, Sheng Xiao wanted to hug her tightly and not let go. However, the annoying ape had been following them. He was too embarrassed to do so.

Yu Huang felt a little regretful. "What? We actually won't do anything when there was such a good opportunity?"

Sheng Xiao buried his head in Yu Huang's neck and took a deep breath. His eyes were bloodshot. He said with suppressed breathing, "Tomorrow, I'll rebuild a big tent for us at the back. This place is too small."

Yu Huang was speechless.

"That works too."

To be honest, the students sitting by the bonfire were a little embarrassed when they saw Sheng Xiao pulling Yu Huang into the tent. They were afraid that they would see the couple's intimate actions from the fabric of the tent. Fortunately, the two of them were not so thick-skinned.

Seeing that they were just chatting, Fang Peipei and the others heaved a sigh of relief.

Sigh, it was late at night. It was very cozy to have someone to hug to sleep.

Yu Huang let her guard down and had a good sleep. The next morning, she was woken up by the other students.

Yu Huang opened her eyes and realized that Sheng Xiao had woken up.

She unzipped the tent and saw that the three suns had risen. She realized that she had slept in Sheng Xiao's arms for the entire night. She quickly zipped up the tent and changed her clothes. Then, she got out of the tent and walked to the front of the camp to report.

Sheng Xiao was counting the number of people fighting today. When he saw Yu Huang standing in the third row, he nodded at her and said, "There are a total of 21 people fighting today." He included the ape, Kunlun. The remaining injured people could only stay in the camp to rest because they were mentally weak and their spiritual power was exhausted.

Today, they were going to work together to kill the super demon beast, the Thousand-Faced Spider, in the Black Well.

Three months ago, when the students were on a routine mission in the forest, they met the Thousand-Faced Spider. The Thousand-Faced Spider was cunning and vicious, causing them to lose three members. These days, they had sent two groups of members to fight the Thousand-Faced Spider. Now, they had figured out the other party's combat characteristics.

Today, they planned to kill the Thousand-Faced Spider and avenge their teammates.

"I hope we can all return safely."

* *

The Thousand-Faced Spider lived in the Black Well.

Along the way, Yu Huang listened to Feng Yuncheng's story. Only then did she find out that the Black Well wasn't a well, but an underground world. Not only did the Thousand-Faced Spider live there, but there were also many rare spirit herbs that she had only seen in the Spirit Grass Record.

Three months ago, when the students were picking spiritual herbs, they were ambushed by the Thousand-Faced Spiders lying in ambush on the stone wall.

The distance between the Black Well and the camp was quite far. Yu Huang and the others flew with their spiritual power and only arrived at the Black Well after flying for more than an hour. Kunlun couldn't fly, so it was carried by Donor.

Kunlun weighed nearly three hundred pounds. Donor carried him all the way to the Black Well and was already panting from exhaustion.

When they were near the Black Well, Sheng Xiao suggested, "Everyone, rest for twenty minutes. We'll go down the Black Well again." The Thousand-Faced Spider wasn't easy to deal with. They had to rest and recover their spiritual power before attacking together. Then, their chances of winning would be higher.

Donor ignored his image and sat down on the grass. He said to Sheng Xiao, "When you go back, carry Kunlun. That guy is too heavy."

Sheng Xiao glanced at Kunlun's strong and tall body. He didn't agree or reject.

After resting for twenty minutes, everyone set off again. Soon, a wide pit as deep as 300 meters appeared on the flat ground. It looked very similar to the sinkhole in the Karst landscape. At the bottom of the pit, there were countless colorful flowers, but at the center of the pit, there was a black hole the size of a well.

Dark black fog was seeping out of the cave.

When one looked down at this sinkhole, the small hole in the Black Well from high above looked like a huge eye.

Yu Huang immediately recognized that the flowers at the bottom of the pit were all precious poisonous spirit herbs.

Chapter 816: The Coquettish Yu Huang (1)

Sheng Xiao pointed at the well in the middle of the pit and said, "That's the entrance to the black well." Sheng Xiao looked up at his teammates and said, "I'll go first. Follow me closely!" Then, Sheng Xiao flew down the pit and jumped down from the black well.

Seeing this, Donor and Yu Huang immediately followed.

Kunlun hesitated for a moment before jumping down as well. However, it had underestimated its size. When it jumped in from the entrance of the black well, its stomach was actually stuck at the entrance.

Kunlun's legs were hanging under the black well, and its hands were raised above his head. It kept glaring at its legs and shouted in a low voice, "Kick me down!"

Feng Yuncheng really kicked Kunlun in the stomach.

Kunlun's big stomach shrank from the kick, and it fell from the entrance of the black well.

Feng Yuncheng also jumped down...

They fell for nearly a minute before reaching the bottom of the pit. There was a small pool at the bottom of the pit, but the water wasn't deep. Sheng Xiao stood in the pool and caught Yu Huang. As soon as Sheng Xiao put Yu Huang down, he saw Kunlun falling.

He hesitated for a moment before reaching out to catch Kunlun.

"Hmph!" Sheng Xiao caught Kunlun and felt that his arm was dislocated.

"Thank you, thank you."

Kunlun quickly jumped down from Sheng Xiao's arm and climbed to the shore in embarrassment.

The other students also fell quickly like dumplings.

Kunlun stood by the water and sized up the world at the bottom of the pit with Yu Huang.

A beam of dark light descended from the entrance above, bringing a ray of light to the dark underground world. Yu Huang saw many pairs of red eyes on the stone wall above. In the dark environment, those eyes were strange and sinister, making one's scalp tingle.

Sheng Xiao saw Yu Huang staring at the red eyes. He said, "Those are bats."

Yu Huang thought that all bats had black eyes. She didn't expect the bats here to have red eyes. As soon as Sheng Xiao finished speaking, the red eyes suddenly moved. They turned into red lights and attacked the intruders.

Sheng Xiao said to Yu Huang, "These bats are afraid of fire!"

Upon hearing this, Yu Huang immediately summoned Xuan Yu and ignited it in the underground world. Under the burning of the Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame, the bats had nowhere to escape. Soon, a large number of them died. Those who didn't die also hid in small gaps in the stone wall. They tightened their small wings and stared at Yu Huang, who could summon the Divine Feather Phoenix, with reverence and hatred.

Estelle suddenly roared at the bats. They were so frightened that they peed their pants and didn't even dare to look at them anymore.

When Yu Huang saw this scene, she couldn't help but find it funny.

What was going on?

The little bats saw the big bat and felt afraid?

Feng Yuncheng told Yu Huang, "Before you came back, Estelle relied on his bloodline to suppress these bats." Feng Yuncheng covered his mouth and chuckled. "Perhaps the Night Elves really evolved from bats."

Yu Huang said, "That might not be the case. The phoenix bloodline can suppress the Vermillion Bird and Peacock bloodlines, but can you say that the phoenix evolved from the Peacock and Vermillion Bird?"

Feng Yuncheng understood what Yu Huang meant. "You're saying that these bats are low-level demon beasts that have evolved from Night Elves?"

"Yes."

After dealing with those annoying little bats, the group of people walked along a slippery path towards the demonic cave where the Thousand-Faced Spider lived. Feng Yuncheng told Yu Huang, "That Thousand-Faced Spider is very cunning. Do you know how it killed three of our classmates?"

Everyone was moving forward in silence. They could only hear the sound of flowing water in the underground river. Therefore, Feng Yuncheng's voice sounded especially loud.

Yu Huang asked him, "How did they do it?"

Feng Yuncheng said, "That spider can transform."

"Oh really?" Yu Huang asked him, "Just like you?"

Feng Yuncheng nodded and said excitedly, "Last time, that guy turned into Sheng Xiao and killed the three students with poisonous silk when they were off guard. Because of this, everyone misunderstood Sheng Xiao and thought that he was assassinating them. They even teamed up to kill Sheng Xiao..."

Upon hearing this, Yu Huang suddenly stopped in her tracks.

The atmosphere in the team suddenly became awkward and silent.

Yu Huang glanced at the front.

Sheng Xiao led the way at the front. Once they found the Thousand-Faced Spider, Sheng Xiao would be the first to be attacked. He was always like this. His tent was at the front of the camp, and he walked at the front collectively. He always put himself in the most dangerous position.

Chapter 817: The Coquettish Yu Huang (2)

Just because his cultivation level was high, he should bear the brunt of the danger?

When she thought about how such a sincere and upright person had actually been jointly besieged by his teammates, Yu Huang felt sorry for him and her heart ached.

Sheng Xiao walked at the front. Donor was behind Sheng Xiao, and Kunlun was behind Donor. Yu Huang was Kunlun. So, when Yu Huang stopped, Feng Yuncheng and the others behind her couldn't move forward.

The entire team was forced to stop.

The students at the back had awkward expressions.

Yu Huang suddenly sneered and said, "He's always at the forefront when there's danger. He used his body to block the danger for you guys. When you guys decided to join forces to surround and kill him, did you guys hesitate? Did your hearts soften? Did you guys trust him at all?"

In the back, someone seemed to want to say something, but he took a deep breath and gave up.

Yu Huang was still angry. She said indignantly, "When you guys need him, you guys let him be at the front. When you guys suspect him, you guys join forces to attack him. What an eye-opener!"

Sheng Xiao suddenly called Yu Huang, "It's a misunderstanding. It's okay now."

"Nothing?" Yu Huang glared at Sheng Xiao. "Shut up!"

This was the first time Yu Huang had flared up at Sheng Xiao. Sheng Xiao was so frightened that he shut up.

Yu Huang suddenly asked, "Who attacked Sheng Xiao that day?"

At this moment, no one was willing to answer.

Yu Huang sneered. "Do you guys want me to ask one by one?" Yu Huang's attitude clearly showed that she wanted to pursue the matter to the end. Those who felt guilty raised their hands and said in a low voice, "Me."

"Me too."

Good lord, there were actually 12 people!

There were only 21 people in their team.

Yu Huang took a deep breath and suppressed her anger. Then, she said, "After this encirclement operation is over, there's no need for us to cooperate anymore. What we need is teammates who can trust and cooperate with each other, not hypocrites who drag us down to our deaths if there's danger and point their knives at us if there's a problem!"

Sheng Xiao wanted to persuade Yu Huang to let it go. He said, "I didn't..."

Yu Huang guessed what Sheng Xiao wanted to say. She interrupted him immediately and told him, "You want to say that you're fine, but have you thought about what I would do if they really hurt you and killed you? Sheng Xiao, don't forget that you're my man. You don't care when you're injured, but my heart aches."

"Think about it from my point of view. What would you do?"

Sheng Xiao calmed down and thought about it from Yu Huang's perspective.

He suddenly realized that it was wrong of him to blindly help and indulge his teammates. If his Yu Huang was always thinking about her teammates and always placed herself at the front line of danger, only to suffer the hostility and suspicion of her teammates, then he would even have the intention to kill those useless teammates.

It was no wonder Yu Huang was so angry.

Sheng Xiao smiled in relief. "Alright, we'll do as you say. When the siege is over, we'll go our separate ways."

Only then was Yu Huang satisfied.

Donor smiled. "We trust Sheng Xiao. We'll follow you."

Feng Yuncheng hurriedly said, "I'll go with you too."

Yu Huang smiled and said, "Welcome."

After that, although no one quarreled or even spoke, they knew that the atmosphere had changed and something was different. The unity of the team had vanished.

At this moment, Kunlun suddenly said, "Yu Huang, I think I smell snow."

Hearing this, Yu Huang hurriedly said in a low voice, "Everyone, be careful. That Thousand-Faced Spider is nearby."

Sheng Xiao turned his head and asked Yu Huang, "How did you know?" He hadn't found any traces of the Thousand-Faced Spider yet.

Yu Huang explained, "Kunlun can smell the aura of experts. Ice and snow are the aura of super demon beasts."

Sheng Xiao looked at Kunlun in surprise. Was this guy that capable? Sheng Xiao looked around warily, but he didn't see the Thousand-Faced Spider. However, Kunlun said, "I smell snow again. Yu Huang, the Thousand-Faced Spider is around us."

But there was nothing around them.

There were only their teammates around them.

Yu Huang thought of the fact that the Thousand-Faced Spider could change its form. She carefully recalled all the details along the way and suddenly widened her eyes.

Yu Huang suddenly turned around and asked Feng Yuncheng, "Fourth, do you still remember the first time we met?"

Feng Yuncheng pushed his silver-framed chain glasses up his nose bridge and suddenly smiled slyly. "My good friend, don't you realize that it's very quiet behind you?"

Sheng Xiao, Yu Huang, and the others turned around and saw that their teammates were gone!

Just now, Yu Huang had been thinking about how Sheng Xiao was bullied. She realized that it was very quiet behind her. She only thought that the students were ashamed and didn't say anything. The ground under their feet was very slippery, and the sound of their footsteps was very soft. Yu Huang didn't notice that the students were gone.

Yu Huang immediately took a step back and stared at 'Feng Yuncheng' warily. She said, "You're not Fourth Brother. You deliberately told me that Sheng Xiao was besieged by his teammates just now to distract the team!" Yu Huang was frustrated.

If Yu Huang had been calmer and more rational just now, she would have discovered something.

Although Feng Yuncheng was a chatterbox, he wasn't an idiot, nor was he someone who couldn't keep his mouth shut. He knew what to say and what not to say.

In this special situation, how could Feng Yuncheng be stupid enough to deliberately say those words that would affect the cohesion of the battle?!

But it was about Sheng Xiao. Yu Huang couldn't remain calm.

The super demon beasts in the Kunlun Mystic Realm were indeed cunning.

Chapter 818: Wine Is Really Sharp-Eyed

At that moment, Yu Huang wasn't the only one who realized that something was wrong. Sheng Xiao, Donor, and the others also realized that something was wrong.

Sheng Xiao pulled Yu Huang to his side and said, "I was careless just now. I didn't notice anything wrong with Fourth Brother." Sheng Xiao and Feng Yuncheng were good friends. Like Yu Huang, he knew Feng Yuncheng very well.

Although Feng Yuncheng looked carefree, he wasn't an idiot who spoke without thinking. He knew that saying that matter would distract the team, so Feng Yuncheng definitely wouldn't talk about it at this time.

If it was any other time, Sheng Xiao would have noticed it immediately. However, Yu Huang's reaction was too intense just now. Sheng Xiao was so focused on comforting Yu Huang that he didn't notice the problem with Feng Yuncheng.

Sheng Xiao asked 'Feng Yuncheng', "When did you join our team?"

Without waiting for 'Feng Yuncheng' to explain, Yu Huang said firmly, "When he said that Estelle evolved from a bat, he probably already swapped with Fourth Brother." Feng Yuncheng knew very well how sensitive Estelle's identity was. How could someone as tactful as him tease Estelle in front of everyone?

At that time, Yu Huang felt that there was something wrong with Feng Yuncheng's words. She even specifically refuted him with the relationship between the Divine Feather Phoenix and the peacock.

Now that she thought about it carefully, Yu Huang discovered the problem.

Feng Yuncheng's eyes flickered with a strange light under his glasses. He stared at Yu Huang with a spurious smile and said, "You're quite smart, but no matter how smart a person is, one loses one's rationality the moment it concerns one's man. You're just so-so."

Not only was Yu Huang not angry, but she also reflected on herself.

That's right. Yu Huang wouldn't make a fuss about what 'Feng Yuncheng' said just now unless it was related to Sheng Xiao. In the end, it was because she was in love that her IQ was affected.

However, Donor said quizzically, "Why does this disgusting thing speak the language of the Holy Spirit Continent? The last time we met, it was clearly just an idiot who could only hiss and roar. It's only been three months since we last met, but it actually learned the language of the Holy Spirit Continent." Donor couldn't help but admire the intelligence of these demon beasts in the Kunlun Mystic Realm.

Sheng Xiao stared at 'Feng Yuncheng' thoughtfully for a while. He said, "It didn't learn it. It learned our teammates' language after it ate them."

Donor was stunned.

Yu Huang nodded and said, "From the looks of it, its demon technique allows it to obtain a portion of its food's energy by devouring it. It's a very good demon technique."

Seeing that Yu Huang and the others had guessed his demonic technique in a few words, the Thousand-Faced Spider's gaze became sinister.

Yu Huang asked Feng Yuncheng, "Where did you send them?" Yu Huang didn't think that the Thousand-Faced Spider could kill them without anyone knowing. It might have secretly led them to another passageway while Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao were distracted.

Feng Yuncheng said gloatingly, "At this time, who knows which passageway they have passed through? As you can see, the underground world's underground rivers extend in all directions. If you take the wrong path, you might never be able to walk out again. I don't know where they are now."

Yu Huang was silent for two seconds before asking, "Where is the real Feng Yuncheng?"

Feng Yuncheng's expression was cold. "Dead."

Yu Huang nodded and said, "Then he's still alive."

'Feng Yuncheng' was stunned and looked at Yu Huang quizzically, not understanding how Yu Huang had guessed it.

Yu Huang could tell that the Thousand-Faced Spider was curious. She said bluntly, "You're indeed cunning, but you also like to show off. You're so smug just because you led our other teammates to another path. If you really killed him, you'll definitely boast about how you killed him."

"Since you only said briefly that you killed him, you're lying." Yu Huang looked up and said to Sheng Xiao, "That fool is most likely still at the pool."

Sheng Xiao wanted to laugh when he saw that Yu Huang had seen through the Thousand-Faced Spider easily. "You're quite shrewd."

After the Thousand-Faced Spider separated the other teammates, Yu Huang's team was only left with her, Sheng Xiao, Donor, and a stupid baboon who looked tall but wasn't good at fighting.

The Thousand-Faced Spider didn't take Yu Huang seriously at all.

It had its eyes on Sheng Xiao and the others. In the Thousand-Faced Spider's eyes, Sheng Xiao was the battle assistant and their leader. That was why when it first met them three months ago, the Thousand-Faced Spider turned into Sheng Xiao and killed his three companions easily.

It was unknown where these two-legged demon beasts came from, but their meat was abnormally fresh and delicious. They were completely different from the unpalatable demon beasts in the forest.

The Thousand-Faced Spider had lived for thousands of years, but this was the first time it had encountered such delicious two-legged monsters. It coveted the flesh of these people.

The Thousand-Faced Spider smiled at Sheng Xiao in a sinister manner. When it smiled, the corner of its mouth split to the tips of its ears, and the blood-red flesh under its cheekbones could be seen. Immediately after, the skin on its face began to peel away from its lips. Its nose and eyes became one part, and its chin and neck became another.

The entire human skin instantly peeled off from Feng Yuncheng's body, revealing his bloody body. Then, the bones in his body suddenly let out cracking sounds. The 'Feng Yuncheng' in front of everyone instantly transformed into a blood-red spider with faces all over his body!

There were all kinds of strange faces, including the faces of various demon beasts and three human faces.

Yu Huang recognized the three faces at a glance as the students who had been eaten by the Thousand-Faced Spider.

She immediately guessed that the faces on the Thousand-Faced Spider were all demon beasts and humans that it had eaten.

Donor held a flashlight in his hand. He saw the disgusting appearance of the Thousand-Faced Spider through the flashlight. Even though he had seen this thing before, he was still so disgusted that goosebumps arose.

He complained, "This thing doesn't need to use any demonic techniques. It only needs to stand there without moving to be disgusting enough."

Yu Huang also felt disgusted. She stared at the three familiar faces on the Thousand-Faced Spider and felt uncomfortable again. They had died in a foreign land. Not only had they been eaten by a ferocious demon beast, but they also became a part of the demon beast that continued to hurt their classmates and good friends.

If they knew in the netherworld, how could they rest in peace?!

Yu Huang suddenly summoned Xuan Yu, causing it to transform into a long sword burning with flames.

The moment it saw the burning torch, the spider took a step back warily. It sneered. "I'm not those useless bats. The flames can hurt them, but not me."

"Then let's see how fireproof your skin is!"

The underground tunnel was narrow and was only suitable for close combat. Yu Huang held the Xuan Yu Sword in her right hand and stabbed at the Thousand-Faced Spider without hesitation. At the same time, Sheng Xiao raised the Dragon Sword and rushed forward. Donor summoned his Light Sword.

The three of them formed a triangular formation and attacked the spider together.

Kun Lun was about to help when it heard Yu Huang say, "Support us!"

Kunlun immediately nodded and stood on the spot, not daring to move. It watched every move in the battle to find the Thousand-Faced Spider's flaw so that it could ambush it.

Yu Huang kicked the stone wall beside her. The Xuan Yu Sword in her hand carried powerful spiritual power as it stabbed towards the back of the Thousand-Faced Spider's face. At this moment, the lizard face that was stabbed by Yu Huang's sword suddenly left the Thousand-Faced Spider's body and transformed into a lizard phantom that used its thick tail to catch Yu Huang's sword.

Yu Huang's longsword swung down forcefully and severed the lizard's tail on the spot.

The lizard turned its head angrily and bit Yu Huang's arm tightly, sinking its sharp teeth into Yu Huang's right arm that was holding the sword. Yu Huang grunted and raised her left hand. In her hand was actually a ball of fiery red psychic energy. She turned her psychic energy into a psychic net and wrapped it around the lizard's body.

As soon as the lizard clone that had become a soul came into contact with the pure psychic power, it howled, as if it had encountered its natural enemy.

Yu Huang threw the lizard into the distance. Then, she ignored the wound on her arm and flew towards Sheng Xiao. She shouted, "Sheng Xiao, Donor, every face on the back of the spider has the soul of the owner of the face imprisoned. Think of a way to subdue them. I will use the psychic net to tie them up and purify them!"

Chapter 819: Never Abandon a Friend (1)

Yu Huang landed beside Sheng Xiao. She saw the Thousand-Faced Spider staring at the lizard that she had tied up with a sinister gaze. It looked at her with an unfriendly gaze. She knew that it hated her to the core. "The Thousand-Faced Spider is powerful because it has eaten too many powerful demon beasts and possessed too many demon techniques. If we want to kill it, we can only remove the faces on its back one by one. When all the faces are removed, it will die."

Sheng Xiao nodded. "That's right. We also discovered the characteristics of the Thousand-Faced Spider's demonic technique. Our people had to go through a lot to successfully remove the face on its back. I didn't expect that there would be a soul imprisoned in this face. It seems that your psychic power is its nemesis."

"That's right."

Sheng Xiao and Donor were motivated after finding a way to kill the Thousand-Faced Spider.

Donor said, "Then you're in charge of purifying spirits, and we're in charge of helping you subdue the souls of these demon beasts. This way, this Thousand-Faced Spider will be tortured to death by us sooner or later. In terms of endurance and patience, we don't lack it!" After knocking on the Black Spirit Stones for a few months in the Holy Spirit Continent, their patience and endurance had been honed.

Even if this was a protracted battle, they were not afraid at all.

The spider was furious when it saw that Sheng Xiao and the others had found a way to kill it. It smiled evilly and shook its butt. A human face behind its back suddenly opened its mouth. Then, a tall man with a human body and a ponytail emerged from the human face.

This person was Sheng Xiao's classmate and good friend, Beastman Jackson!

The Thousand-Faced Spider chuckled and said sinisterly, "Come kill your friend with your own hands!"

When Donor suddenly saw the dead Jackson standing in front of him again, for a moment, he couldn't bear to raise the Sword of Light in his hand.

However, although Donor couldn't bear to see him like this, Jackson, who had been refined by the Thousand-Faced Spider, didn't have any humanity left at all. He raised the longbow in his hand and fired an arrow at Donor. The arrow was like a hot knife through butter, and it seemed like it was going to pierce through Donor.

Sheng Xiao suddenly appeared in front of Donor. A grayish-black aura appeared on the Dragon Sword. He shouted softly, "One Slash Ten Thousand Souls!" Sheng Xiao didn't show any mercy. One Slash Ten Thousand Souls made the entire underground world tremble.

When his sword light collided with Jackson's arrow, Jackson was shattered by Sheng Xiao's sword. Not only that, but Sheng Xiao's sword energy also passed through Jackson and landed on the Thousand-Faced Spider. It injured a few faces on his back.

After being injured, those faces were all opened, and strange-looking demon beasts emerged from them.

Yu Huang even saw an adult Black Shark Bird there.

Clearly, when this unlucky Black Shark Bird flew across the isolated sea to search for food near the Black Well, it was unlucky enough to become the prey of this Thousand-Faced Spider.

Sheng Xiao had killed more than ten demon beasts in one move. The demon beasts attacked them together. Donor and Yu Huang entered a fierce battle state. They didn't hold back and used their strongest cultivation technique immediately.

Donor immediately cut his palm with the Light Sword and allowed his light golden blood to be absorbed by the sword. His long hair fluttered in the wind, and his brown eyes were gradually replaced by golden. On his handsome face, his expression became solemn and pious, and he exuded a sense of nobility.

Donor closed his eyes and muttered softly, "Junior Donor, use the golden blood to summon an angel."

Splash!

A golden light suddenly appeared on Donor's sword. Sensing the appearance of that energy, Donor immediately opened his eyes and said sincerely, "May the angel descend and kill the demon!"

An illusory holy angel flew out from the Light Sword. She stood quietly above Donor. She slowly raised her fair right hand and gently pressed her slender index finger towards the Thousand-Faced Spider. Her ethereal voice sounded in the underground world—

"Demon filth, disperse!"

When it finished speaking, the dozen or so demon beast souls in front of Donor instantly turned to ashes.

After losing more than ten faces at the same time, the Thousand-Faced Spider let out an angry roar. "Bastards, I'll kill you. I'll refine you into my faces!" Seeing that Donor had severely exhausted his spiritual power and was clearly the easiest to kill, the Thousand-Faced Spider released more than twenty faces at the same time.

Chapter 820: Never Abandon a Friend (2)

In the blink of an eye, more than twenty demon beast souls appeared and attacked Donor.

Yu Huang pulled Donor behind her and said to him, "Rest first. I'll go with Sheng Xiao!"

At this moment, Donor's blood was boiling, and his heart was racing. His spiritual power was greatly exhausted, but his body was trembling with excitement. On the surface, his condition was very bad, and he wasn't suitable for participating in battle.

Donor knew what was good for him and didn't force it. He nodded and grabbed Yu Huang's hand. He said solemnly, "Be careful. If you can't win, run." After a pause, Donor said, "Don't worry about me." He was injured and was already a burden. If Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao brought him along to escape, their chances of escaping would be greatly reduced.

Donor didn't want to drag his two good friends down.

Yu Huang glared at him. "Shut up!"

She took off the longbow on her back. When Sheng Xiao used Galaxy Slash, she pulled the bow and shot the Xuan Yu arrow at the ferocious demon beasts.

Two equally brazen energies attacked the Thousand-Faced Spider at the same time. The Thousand-Faced Spider also arched its back nervously. Seeing that the twenty-odd demon beast souls might not be able to withstand the destructive power of these two people, it gritted its teeth and opened all the faces on its back to release the demon beast souls it had completely refined.

For a moment, the entire underground passageway was covered in those souls.

Those were not just twenty or thirty beasts.

There were more than two hundred of them!

A demon beast that was judged to be on the same level as the Terrestrial Alligator by Kunlun couldn't be underestimated. Even Sheng Xiao, who was a Grand Master, and Yu Huang, who was a Supreme Master, couldn't defeat it.

Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang's expressions darkened when they saw that they had only killed more than thirty demon beasts.

Donor was seriously injured and the two of them were about to run out of spiritual power, but they had only killed one-fifth of the Thousand-Faced Spider's face. This was indeed disheartening.

Realizing that they were no match for the super demon beast, Sheng Xiao shouted, "Retreat!"

Yu Huang shouted at Kunlun, "Kunlun, run!"

Kunlun ran.

Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang pulled Donor and ran.

However, just as Donor had guessed, when Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao forcefully brought him along to escape, he had indeed become a burden. Donor, whose spiritual power was exhausted, was basically a cripple. He had to be dragged by the two of them to leave. This severely affected Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang's escaping speed.

Donor looked back at the spider.

The spider had eight thick and sturdy legs. When its eight legs worked together, it quickly caught up to them.

Donor saw that the Thousand-Faced Spider was about to catch up with them. He glanced at Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao silently. He was suddenly satisfied when he saw that they didn't abandon him.

It was enough to have such friends in his life.

Donor suddenly pushed Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao's arms away. He suppressed the blood in his chest and roared, "Leave. I'll cover for you guys!" Donor pushed them out. He pulled out the sword on his waist again and stood in the middle of the passageway while swaying. He looked at the Thousand-Faced Spider fearlessly.

"Come, I'm doted on by the royal family. I'm the most exquisite and delicate one. My skin is the most delicious. Today, I'll let you have a taste!!" With that said, he raised the sword in his hand with great effort.

Even if he was eaten, he would definitely leave a scar on the spider with his weapon!

"Donor!" Sheng Xiao saw that Donor had taken the initiative to give himself up. He subconsciously turned around to save Donor. However, Yu Huang grabbed his arm tightly and said coldly, "Sheng Xiao, think about it. If you stay, the four of us will die!"

Sheng Xiao said, "But if I leave, I will regret it for the rest of my life."

"I don't want to be a hero who sacrificed myself to save the world, but I also don't want my friend to sacrifice himself for me. If I stay, I will have no regrets even if I die in battle."

Yu Huang gave Sheng Xiao a deep look and ran towards Donor without saying a word.

Sheng Xiao smiled and chased after her.

Donor waited for the spider to bite him to death. He kept guessing how painful it would be when his body was bitten by the spider. It was impossible for him not to be afraid. However, he waited and waited, but the spider's huge mouth didn't appear. He opened his eyes and realized that Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang had arrived beside him.

The two of them used all their spiritual power to form an energy barrier that enveloped him and Kunlun.

The Thousand-Faced Spider had already opened its bloody mouth, but it was unable to pierce through the energy shield for a moment, so the pain didn't come.

"Why did you come back?" Donor's voice was hoarse.

Sheng Xiao said to him, "As the young master of the Sheng family, my flesh is not any less delicious than yours."

Donor's eyes turned red.

Donor looked at Yu Huang again. "What about you? Didn't you look down on me and think that I was ugly in the past?" When Yu Huang's appearance was ruined, Donor despised her for being ugly. He slandered Sheng Xiao and hinted that Yu Huang wasn't worthy of him.

Later, when Yu Huang regained her looks, Donor flattered her.

He admitted that he was a shallow and vain man.

Yu Huang sneered. "I'm not saving you. Sheng Xiao and I are husband and wife. We are cooperating with each other."

Donor smiled through his tears. "Although husband and wife should die together, there are four of us. What's the point of us dying?"

Yu Huang said, "Sheng Xiao and I are husband and wife. You can do whatever you want with Kunlun."

Donor suddenly relaxed.

"Alright, then we'll die together!"
