

She Shocks 851

Chapter 851: Meeting Deng Weidong Again

When Yu Donghai saw that Yu Huang had finished eating the porridge, he hurriedly stood up and took her empty bowl away. He said, "If you're not feeling well, rest early."

"Okay, Father."

At night, Sheng Xiao stayed with Yu Huang. He placed his hand on Yu Huang's abdomen and said expectantly, "You told me in the past that we will have two children in the future. Do you think it's possible that you're pregnant with twins?"

Yu Huang still couldn't believe that she was actually pregnant. She said, "I keep feeling that it's too sudden. Yesterday, I was still trying to kill the Giant Iron Beast with you guys in the Kunlun Mystic Realm. In the blink of an eye, I became pregnant. It's so sudden."

Sheng Xiao scratched Yu Huang's nose and said, "If you don't believe me, I'll call Yuncheng and the others over tomorrow. You'll believe me after you see them."

Yu Huang thought about it and felt that it made sense. She said, "Alright, I want to see them. By the way, did Yuncheng and Her Highness get together?"

"What do you think?" Sheng Xiao sounded jealous. "They got married later than us, but their child is already three years old."

Yu Huang was very surprised.

The next day, Yu Donghai went downstairs early in the morning to confess his love to Aunt Chen. Sheng Xiao also invited Feng Yuncheng and the others to the capital for a gathering.

They were far away and would only arrive at night.

As Yu Huang stood on the balcony, she witnessed Yu Donghai confess to Aunt Chen with a blush in front of everyone.

Aunt Chen's face was also blushing. After listening to Yu Donghai's confession, she sighed with emotion before saying, "I still remember that fifty years ago, before you went to work every morning, you would hide at the entrance of the estate and peek at me. At that time, I was wondering if you liked me and how long would it take for you to confess your feelings for me instead of just watching me from afar?"

"I didn't expect that I actually had to wait for fifty years." Aunt Chen handed her hand to Yu Donghai. She said, "I've danced solo for more than a hundred years. In the future, I want to dance with you in pairs."

Yu Donghai was extremely excited. He squeezed Aunt Chen's hand forcefully as he raised his head and shouted at Yu Huang, "I succeeded!"

Yu Huang looked at Yu Donghai, who was as excited as a young boy, and her eyes reddened again.

At night, Feng Yuncheng and the others arrived in the capital. Yu Huang followed Sheng Xiao back to the Lovers Lake villa.

When Feng Yuncheng saw Yu Huang, the first thing he said was, "I heard from Mr. Sheng that your sequelae have acted up?"

Yu Huang was stunned. Then, she sized up everyone in the room.

Yu Huang sized up Feng Yuncheng, Beatrice, and the little kid beside them.

Yu Huang also sized up Yin Rong, Xiao Shu, and their two younger daughters.

Donor, Estelle, and Kunlun were all there as well.

Yu Huang noticed that Estelle had completely evolved into a demon. His appearance was no longer as ugly as before. Now, he actually had a chiseled but aloof and handsome face. He was wearing a black suit as he sat on the white sofa. The wings on his back were retracted, and they were still very huge.

He looked exactly the same as the image Yu Huang had seen through the Eternal Eye.

Seeing that Yu Huang was looking at him, Estelle frowned and said, "Mr. Sheng said that your memory returned to the time when we were in the Kunlun Mystic Realm. I was still very ugly at that time. Do you think I seem very unfamiliar looking like this?"

Yu Huang nodded and said with a smile, "You're unbelievably handsome."

"Hahaha!" Everyone laughed.

That night, everyone gathered together and kept telling Yu Huang about the past 30 years. When Yu Huang heard their stories, she could imagine every scene they described.

After chatting with Feng Yuncheng and the others for the entire night, Yu Huang gradually believed that what Sheng Xiao said was true.

Feng Yuncheng and the others only stayed for two days before leaving.

After they left, Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang decided to go to the hospital for a prenatal checkup. This was also their first prenatal checkup after the pregnancy test.

Because it was just an ordinary pregnancy test, they didn't use the treatment center. Instead, they went to the Capital's First People's Hospital.

After knowing that Yu Huang had come for a prenatal checkup, the director put all matters on hold and personally came to welcome her.

The director looked to be 70 years old. He was wearing a black suit and looked very amiable. As soon as he saw Yu Huang, he respectfully called her Lord.

"My lord, it's been fifty-five years. I wonder if you remember me?"

Yu Huang looked at him in surprise and couldn't help but ask, "When have we met before?"

Sheng Xiao explained, "Mr. Deng, my wife has been experiencing amnesia recently. She can't remember the past thirty years."

However, Mr. Deng said, "It's been more than 30 years since I first met you." Mr. Deng looked at Yu Huang in admiration and said, "Do you still remember that when you were 18 years old and had just experienced the pain of being disfigured and was forced to leave the industry, you met a gaming addict on a bus?"

After saying that, Mr. Deng revealed an expectant gaze.

He clearly hoped that Yu Huang would remember this.

Yu Huang really remembered this matter.

She said, "I remember you. Your name was Deng..." Yu Huang didn't even have to look at the dean's introduction card. Her eyes lit up and she said, "Deng Weidong!"

That was the first time Yu Huang had awakened the Eternal Eye, she had a deep memory of that youth.

When Mr. Deng saw that Yu Huang really remembered him, his eyes turned red. "Yes, yes! Lord, I didn't expect you to still remember me. If you hadn't warned me back then, I might have died in the sea of fire."

"After 55 years, I still remember your kindness. However, I was too incompetent to help you, so I haven't been able to find a chance."

"So today, please allow me to accompany you through the checkup. Take it as me repaying you for saving my life back then."

When Yu Huang heard Dean Deng's words, she couldn't bear to refuse, so she completed the entire prenatal checkup with Deng Weidong.

After the examination, Deng Weidong handed all the reports to Yu Huang and congratulated her and Sheng Xiao with a smile. "Congratulations. The child is healthy. According to the data, this child should be a girl!"

Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao smiled. "Thank you."

After the checkup, Sheng Xiao couldn't wait to bring Yu Huang to the mall to shop at a baby shop. The child wasn't even the size of a fist, but Sheng Xiao had already started buying clothes, milk bottles, diapers, and prams for the child.

Feeling Sheng Xiao's joy, Yu Huang looked forward to the birth of this child as well.

After driving back to the villa in a car filled with baby supplies, Sheng Xiao instructed the butler to cook light dishes at night. Then, he went into the study to flip through the dictionary and studied it to come up with a name for the child.

Yu Huang stood in the courtyard downstairs and chatted with Vivian on WeChat.

In the video, Vivian, who was over 70 years old, was white-haired. She was wearing a strapless dress and a knitted sweater as she sat behind the desk.

Although she was old, she was still so graceful and elegant.

When Yu Huang saw Vivian's old appearance, she found it difficult to believe that the young and beautiful Vivian in her memory had actually aged to such an extent.

Chapter 852: There Has Never Been a Paradise in This World

Vivian's old face looked so surreal.

The Vivian in Yu Huang's memory was still so young and beautiful.

Yu Huang suppressed the sadness in her heart and forced a smile at Vivian. Then, she pretended to be calm as she said, "Your grandson is already so old, yet my child has just started to have a heartbeat in my stomach."

"From now on, whenever we go on the streets, those who know about us will think that we have a good relationship. Those who don't know will think that I'm a grandma bringing my daughter and grandson out shopping."

Vivian was amused by Yu Huang's words and laughed heartily. "Hey, if you call me Mom, I'll definitely prepare a gift for you."

Yu Huang scolded Vivian jokingly, "You're really thick-skinned."

Vivian stared at Yu Huang's young and beautiful appearance and said enviously, "When I look at you, I keep feeling that I'm still very young. My health has been getting worse recently. After I die, bury me with Jiang Shangfeng. In the future, I'll have to trouble you to take care of my disappointing children."

"If they do something wrong, slap them hard. They respect you and Mr. Sheng."

Yu Huang nodded repeatedly. "Alright, I'm a professional at hitting people."

Vivian said again, "Move the camera so I can see your stomach."

"My pregnancy isn't showing yet." Yu Huang took her phone away and aimed it at her stomach. When Vivian saw Yu Huang's flat stomach, she smiled and said, "50 years ago, I prepared a newborn gift for your child. Now that 50 years have passed, it can finally be put to use this year."

Yu Huang was amused by Vivian's words. "You can only blame Sheng Xiao."

"Be careful. If Sheng Xiao hears this, he will settle scores with you."

The two of them chatted for a long time. When the food was ready, Sheng Xiao called Yu Huang downstairs to eat. Only then did Yu Huang hang up the video call with Vivian.

She followed Sheng Xiao downstairs. When she saw Yu Donghai, she called out, "Father, why are you here?"

Yu Donghai raised the ultrasound report in his hand and said with a smile, "I can't wait to see the first photo of my grandson."

He caressed the ultrasound scan lovingly and said with red eyes, "This child looks smart and outgoing, like you."

Sheng Xiao chuckled while Yu Huang was speechless.

"Let's eat first."

"Okay."

After walking to the dining room and sitting down, Yu Huang told Yu Donghai about some of the things that had happened during today's physical examination. Thinking of the relationship between her and Deng Weidong, she asked Yu Donghai, "Father, after I was disfigured, when we first reunited, we met a gaming addict on a bus. At that time, I had already foreseen that that child might die in the sea of flames, so I reminded him. Because of this, he avoided the disaster, and now, he has become the director of the People's Hospital. Do you still remember this?"

Yu Donghai thought for a moment, then shook his head and said, "It was so long ago, I really don't remember."

"Mr. Deng saw that your legs were crippled, so he gave you his seat."

Yu Donghai still didn't have any impression of it when he heard that he gave up his seat.' He said, "I'm a disabled person. Every time I sit on a bus, someone gives up their seat for me. My memory isn't that good, so I really don't remember."

When Yu Huang heard this, she didn't ask further.

"Try this lotus root tip." Yu Donghai placed the crispy and sour lotus root tip into Yu Huang's bowl. He said, "This is an appetizer. Eat some."

Yu Huang nodded and took a bite of the lotus root tip. Then, she put down her bowl and chopsticks and said, "I'm full."

Sheng Xiao was a little worried when he saw how little she ate. "Aren't you going to eat more? You didn't eat much today."

Yu Huang shook her head. "I can't eat any more food."

Yu Donghai then said, "It's always like this during the early stages of pregnancy. You feel extremely hungry, but you just can't eat anything. In another two days, the nausea will be even more intense. At that time, you won't be able to eat anything at all."

Sheng Xiao's heart ached for Yu Huang when he thought of that scene. "If you really can't eat anymore, don't eat. Tell me what you want to eat later. I'll make it for you."

"Okay."

Yu Donghai and Sheng Xiao continued eating. Yu Huang took the ultrasound scan and went to the main living room to rest for a while. After Sheng Xiao and the others finished eating, Yu Huang summoned them to the courtyard outside.

The midsummer sky was clear and filled with stars. As Yu Huang looked at the constellations that filled the sky, she suddenly said, "After you led the Yin clansmen to sacrifice themselves, the green soul balls that filled the sky slowly rose. They were even more beautiful than the constellations in front of me. But every time I recall that scene, I feel suffocated and anguished."

Seeing Yu Huang bring up the past from fifty years ago, Sheng Xiao and Yu Donghai turned their heads to look at her. Yu Donghai said, "I'm still alive now. Don't think about those painful memories anymore."

Sheng Xiao echoed, "That's right. You're pregnant now. Try to relax."

Yu Huang smiled and took out the ultrasound report again.

Staring at the blurry shadow on the ultrasound report, Yu Huang muttered to herself, "I became a Divine Master, will spend the rest of my life with Brother Xiao, revived my father, and will give birth to a child soon. I even successfully saved the survivors of the Earth's apocalypse era. I also met an old acquaintance from my childhood when I went to the hospital for a prenatal checkup... All of this is unbelievably perfect. It's simply my ideal world."

"But Brother Xiao, Father, there has never been a paradise in this world? There is no perfect world."

Yu Donghai and Sheng Xiao's expressions changed slightly when they heard this.

Sheng Xiao held Yu Huang's hand and said worriedly, "Why are you saying this?"

Yu Huang took her hand away from Sheng Xiao's palm and placed it on her abdomen as she said, "At this moment, I can clearly feel the existence of the little life in my stomach that is related to me by blood. I can also feel my father's love and care for me, and I can even feel Brother Xiao's love for me and the compassion of my friends. But..."

Yu Huang closed her eyes and tears fell as she said, "This isn't reality."

Sheng Xiao's expression changed drastically when he heard that. Just as he was about to say something, Yu Huang suddenly opened her eyes and stared straight into his eyes. She said calmly, "Stop lying to me."

Sheng Xiao immediately defended himself. "Your memories are in a mess now. You don't even know what's real and what's fake. Do you think your current life is fake?"

Yu Huang immediately interrupted Sheng Xiao. "It's not that I think so, but I've already seen through your tricks."

Yu Huang smiled sadly as she shook her head and said, "This illusion is indeed very realistic. It's so realistic that even I couldn't tell if it was real or fake. However, it's still not foolproof."

Sheng Xiao asked instinctively, "What about it isn't foolproof?"

Yu Huang said, "Deng Weidong, the dean Mr. Deng."

Chapter 853: Yu Huang's Choice

Yu Donghai asked, "What about Mr. Deng?"

Yu Huang turned around to look at Yu Donghai. She said, "Father, do you really not remember Deng Weidong?"

Yu Donghai's eyes flickered slightly.

Yu Donghai thought about it carefully for a very long time, but he still didn't have any impression of him, so he said, "I don't remember seeing that young man on the bus a few decades ago. This isn't a big deal, right?"

After he finished speaking, Yu Donghai saw Yu Huang's gaze suddenly become fierce, and he realized that he might have missed something.

Yu Huang stared at Yu Donghai and slowly said, "You once worked in the kitchen of His Highness the Prince's army. At that time, the chef was surnamed Deng. Coincidentally, his child was the young man I had met once, Deng Weidong."

"Father, although you've never seen Deng Weidong's child, you actually know him."

"The chef's child wasn't an ordinary person. He had actually awakened his beast form. Father, when you called me, you even reminded me to take care of that child and help him if I met him."

"How could you forget such an important thing?"

When he heard this, the smile on Yu Donghai's face suddenly faltered. His expression was unfathomable as he said, "Oh really?"

"Yes, but it was such a trivial detail that I almost forgot. I think this illusion must have been constructed according to my memories and ideals. And the things that left a deep impression on me appeared in my illusion."

"Deng Weidong was the first person I met when I awakened the Eternal Eye. That's why I still have Deng Weidong in my memory. The person who created this illusory world must have secretly seen my memories, so he gave Deng Weidong an identity. However, he didn't expect that there was another connection between me and Deng Weidong."

"If I hadn't talked to you about Deng Weidong at dinner tonight, I would have forgotten that you told me to take care of him on the phone."

Yu Huang's gaze became cold as she said, "Father, how could a compassionate person like you not remember that the chef who had taken good care of you had a son who was a beast tamer and wasn't an ordinary person?"

Hearing Yu Huang's question, Yu Donghai was momentarily speechless.

On the other hand, Sheng Xiao was still trying to cover up the lie. He said, "Father-in-law just got revived not long ago. Perhaps his memory hasn't fully recovered. Believe me, there's really something wrong with you. This world is the real one."

Sheng Xiao tried to make Yu Huang believe that everything he said was true.

“Shut up!” Yu Huang scolded Sheng Xiao. She said, “You’re not Sheng Xiao. The Sheng Xiao I love would never force me to believe in something. If he wanted me to believe in something, he would help me retrieve my memories and let me choose what to believe in. He wouldn’t force me to believe in something, like what you’re doing now!”

Faced with Yu Huang’s doubts, Sheng Xiao appeared very sad and his dark eyes were filled with anguish. However, Yu Huang would never be moved by the feelings of a puppet.

Yu Huang stood up and said firmly, “The world here seems very wonderful and blissful, but that world filled with regret and parting is the world that I truly belong in.”

Yu Huang took one last look at the ultrasound report in her hand. She tore it up without hesitation. She knew that all of this was fake, but when she tore the ultrasound report, she still felt heartache and reluctance.

The instant Yu Huang tore apart the ultrasound report, Yu Donghai suddenly cried out in pain. His body actually turned into pieces that floated into the sky.

He stretched out his disappearing right arm and made a begging gesture at Yu Huang as he shouted in pain, “Save me. Are you going to watch me disappear again?”

As Yu Huang looked at Yu Donghai’s increasingly transparent body, she said with tears streaming down her face, “Father, you will always live in my heart...”

As soon as she finished speaking, Yu Huang summoned the Xuan Yu Sword without hesitation and slashed Yu Donghai’s body into pieces.

“Ah!”

Accompanied by a heart-wrenching scream, Yu Donghai’s body completely transformed into ashes and disappeared from the world.

After glancing at the ashes that filled the sky, Yu Huang looked down at Sheng Xiao. She raised the sword in her hand resolutely to stab Sheng Xiao.

At that moment, Sheng Xiao suddenly said, “Even if this is an illusory world, it will exist forever as long as you want it to.”

“Your father can live forever and marry the woman he loves. Our friends and I will always be with you. Even the survivors of the Earth’s apocalypse that you miss so much will live forever in your small world.”

“Isn’t that good?” Sheng Xiao stared at Yu Huang gently and said, “If you insist on going back, have you ever thought that you and your friends might die in the Kunlun Mystic Realm? Even if you’re lucky enough to leave the Kunlun Mystic Realm alive, the future is still filled with danger and countless unknown possibilities.”

Sheng Xiao smiled gently at Yu Huang. “Stay behind and protect this perfect world with me.”

When Yu Huang heard Sheng Xiao’s words, she was very tempted.

But...

What was fake was destined to be fake.

Yu Huang closed her eyes and said, "Don't even think about trapping me here with a beautiful illusion! All of this is fake! I choose to leave this perfect world and return to my original world!"

With that, she stabbed the Xuan Yu Sword into Sheng Xiao's heart. Just as her sword was about to stab into Sheng Xiao's heart, Sheng Xiao suddenly said, "Have you never suspected that the illusion is an illusion, but I might be the real Sheng Xiao?"

"Aren't you worried that Sheng Xiao will die if you stab me?"

Hearing this, Yu Huang wavered. The Xuan Yu Sword that was about to stab Sheng Xiao's body suddenly stopped in front of him.

Seeing this, 'Sheng Xiao' smiled again. "Then why don't you guess if I'm real or not?"

Yu Huang narrowed her eyes and suddenly said, "I slept with Prime Emperor Zhe An."

'Sheng Xiao' looked stunned and angry.

Just as he revealed this expression, Yu Huang suddenly exerted strength and pierced Sheng Xiao's heart.

After Sheng Xiao's heart was pierced, his body turned into ashes and rose into the sky as Yu Donghai did. Before he completely disappeared, Sheng Xiao asked curiously, "How can you be so sure that I'm not Sheng Xiao?"

Yu Huang smiled indifferently and didn't explain.

Yu Huang had heard Sheng Xiao mention the grudges between him and Ze'an in their previous life.

Jing Huang married Ze'an in order to steal Yu Aofeng's Monster Core. After knowing the truth, Yu Aofeng felt heartbroken and pity for Jing Huang. How could he be angry?

Chapter 854: Untitled

After Sheng Xiao disappeared, the villa behind Yu Huang suddenly began to collapse. Then, the entire city of Jingdu and the entire Holy Spirit Continent instantly shattered.

Yu Huang opened her eyes again and met pairs of eyes filled with worry and concern.

Seeing that Yu Huang had woken up, Sheng Xiao opened his arms to her and said with a smile, "Welcome back to the real world."

Yu Huang looked at Sheng Xiao deeply before looking at Feng Yuncheng and the others.

After confirming that she had really returned to the real world, she walked to Sheng Xiao firmly and tiptoed to hug his neck. She buried her head between his collarbone and chest as she said with a snuffle, "I had a very surreal and blissful dream just now."

Sheng Xiao's big palm gently stroked Yu Huang's long hair repeatedly and he pressed Yu Huang's thin body into his arms as he asked in a low voice, "Since the dream is so blissful, how can you bear to wake up?"

Yu Huang rubbed her head and replied, "Because this place has the real you... guys." The last word was added by Yu Huang after seeing Feng Yuncheng and the others' mocking gazes.

After a while, Yu Huang let go of Sheng Xiao.

Seeing the few of them standing together, Yu Huang asked them, "Did you guys encounter the same situation?"

"Yes." Sheng Xiao told Yu Huang, "I almost killed you, while Yuncheng and the others almost killed themselves." Sheng Xiao looked at the burly Kunlun and said with a mixed expression, "But Kunlun is fine."

Yu Huang said, "This might be the reason Kunlun is the reincarnation of the Kunlun Divine Master."

Kunlun scratched his head innocently. "It's just a bone. How can it affect me?" Kunlun felt baffled that Sheng Xiao and the others were so deeply affected by the skull.

Hearing Kunlun's words, Yu Huang immediately understood. She stared at the white skull on the ground and said, "In our eyes, it's a powerful Divine Master's skull, but in Kunlun's eyes, it's just a shabby skull. This all happened because we were greedy."

Hearing this, everyone felt a lingering fear.

"Fortunately, Kunlun is with us."

Yuncheng poked Kunlun's waist and egged him on. "Kunlun, pick up the skull on the ground and let us take a look."

Yu Huang also nodded at Kunlun. "Go."

Kunlun touched his nose, bent down, and picked up the skull on the ground.

He raised the skull and turned it around so that everyone could size it up.

Kunlun Divine Master was tall and strong, so his skull was also much larger than an ordinary skull. As beast tamers, Sheng Xiao and the others couldn't see the resentment on his skull, but they could sense a sinister and cold aura.

Everyone took a step back to stay away from this thing.

Yu Huang stared at the resentment that filled the skull and said, "After the Kunlun Divine Master died, he should have been buried in the mystic realm, but he was eaten by these demon beasts, so his body became filled with resentment. We have to purify his spirit and cleanse the resentment power in his body before we can use his energy to leave the isolated sea."

Yu Huang reached out and took the head from Kunlun's hand to purify its spirit.

As soon as Yu Huang touched the skull, a bone-piercing coldness quickly spread from her fingertips to her entire body.

Yu Huang's entire body trembled. After spending a few seconds adapting to the chilliness, she used her psychic power to raise the head in the air.

Then, she summoned her Psychic Sphere and began to cleanse its spirit.

When Yu Huang silently chanted the Spirit Purifying incantation, red psychic energy immediately appeared in the world. The psychic energy entered the skull and slowly devoured the resentment in the skull.

However, the Kunlun Divine Master's divine might was immense, and the power of resentment produced after his death was also extraordinary. Yu Huang had almost exhausted all the psychic energy in her Divine Spiritual Abode, but she still couldn't completely purify the resentment in the skull.

With a pale face, Yu Huang stared at the head that emitted endless resentment and said, "This thing's resentment is too strong. With my current ability, I can't completely eliminate it. I think that only someone at my mentor's level can completely eliminate its resentment."

Hearing this, Donor frowned and said, "If we can't get rid of the resentment in it, we won't be able to leave this continent?"

When Feng Yuncheng thought about how he couldn't go to the other sections to find Beatrice, he immediately became depressed.

Yu Huang, who had been silent all this while, suddenly said, "I have a bold idea."

Feng Yuncheng immediately asked, "What is it?"

Yu Huang said, "After that Giant Iron Beast obtained this head, it became the strongest beast on this continent. If one of us is willing to absorb this skull's power, he might be able to become the strongest one on this plate. Then, we can successfully cross the sea."

This was indeed a bold idea.

But no one dared to step forward to be the lab rat.

Yu Huang asked them, "Who is willing to absorb this skull's power?"

Everyone was willing to, but no one dared to. After obtaining the Divine Master's skull, although the Giant Iron Beast's strength had increased greatly, it had become a silent invisible beast.

Everyone wanted to become strong, but they were unwilling to become invisible and ignored by this world.

Yu Huang turned around and said to Kunlun, "Kunlun, you're the reincarnation of the Kunlun Divine Master. You're the person with the closest relationship with him in the world. Why don't you give it a try first?"

"Don't worry, if it has any side effects on you, I'll take it out immediately!"

Kun Lun trusted Yu Huang very much and knew that Yu Huang wouldn't lie to him, so he nodded without hesitation. "Alright, I'm willing to."

"Alright then."

Yu Huang picked up the head and placed it in front of Kunlun. She said to Kunlun, "Close your eyes and use your demonic power to surround this head. Then, slowly absorb it."

Kun Lun followed Yu Huang's instructions and calmly closed his eyes. Then, he released his demonic power and wrapped it around the skull.

As soon as the skull sensed Kunlun's demonic power, it quickly burrowed into Kunlun's head like a fallen leaf returning to its roots.

Then, everyone saw that Kunlun's original baboon head had actually changed. His skull kept expanding and shrinking. This process lasted for more than 20 minutes.

However, when it ended, everyone realized that Kunlun had a human face!

Kun Lun scratched his head in discomfort as he said, "I don't think I have any adverse reactions."

Yu Huang stared at Kunlun's face, which couldn't be considered handsome, but was very imposing, and revealed a thoughtful expression.

She suddenly understood the reason why she landed on the Black Shark Bird's section.

This was because she had the Eternal Eye. She was the only one who could see the invisible beast and help the Kunlun Divine Master find his remains.

The Kunlun Divine Master was asking her for help and begging her to help the stupid baboon collect his bones to help him become a human again!

Chapter 855: Untitled

Seeing that Kunlun had successfully absorbed the Kunlun Divine Master's head, everyone heaved a sigh of relief. At the same time, they felt envious and jealous.

After all, it was a Divine Master's skull. Whoever obtained it would be able to soar in strength and have a bright future.

Sheng Xiao suddenly glanced coldly at his friends beside him. His voice wasn't loud, but his tone was cold. "Don't be bewitched by the huge temptation in front of you."

Sheng Xiao's nonchalant words were like a wake-up call to Donor and the others.

After coming to their senses, everyone felt ashamed of their jealousy.

"I'm sorry," Donor apologized with a blush, then flew away from the Grand Canyon to wait for them on the plain above.

Estelle and Feng Yuncheng also apologized to Kunlun. Only then did everyone leave the Grand Canyon together and advance towards the isolated sea.

After they arrived at the isolated sea, they worked together to build a large wooden boat. Kunlun rowed the oars and carried them deep into the sea.

When they were about to approach the barrier, everyone couldn't help but become nervous. Feng Yuncheng quietly pinched the corner of his shirt.

It wasn't until the wooden ship successfully passed through the barrier line that everyone finally calmed down. Everyone applauded each other to celebrate their departure from Spreading Wing Continent.

After leaving the barrier, Yu Huang took out the map again. She said, "There are a total of five large plates in the Kunlun Mystic Realm. The Black Shark Bird Continent and Spreading Wing Continent can be crossed out. Which continent do you think Her Highness Beatrice is most likely on?"

Sheng Xiao glanced at the three continents on the map and said uncertainly, "The continent in the northwest is the largest. The probability of Beatrice landing on this continent is the highest."

Donor and the others didn't participate in the discussion at all.

Yu Huang simply threw the map into Feng Yuncheng's arms and said, "Yuncheng, tell me your feeling. Which continent do you think Beatrice will be on?"

Yu Huang chose to believe Feng Yuncheng's intuition.

However, Feng Yuncheng raised his head and stared at Kunlun. He suddenly said, "After the Kunlun Divine Master died, he was dismembered by the demon beasts. Were the other parts of his body also eaten by demon beasts?"

Everyone's interest was piqued when Feng Yuncheng suddenly mentioned this topic. Donor asked Feng Yuncheng, "What are you trying to say?"

Donor stared at Kunlun's human face as he said, "I'm wondering that if we can help Kunlun find all the dismembered body parts scattered outside by the Kunlun Divine Master, can Kunlun get rid of his baboon body and recover his human body?"

Yu Huang stared at Feng Yuncheng meaningfully.

She knew that Feng Yuncheng looked unreliable, but he was actually very thoughtful and clever.

Nodding, Yu Huang said, "To be honest, I have the same thoughts as you."

Feng Yuncheng asked Yu Huang, "What about you? Are you planning to help Kunlun collect the bones of the Kunlun Divine Master?"

Yu Huang didn't admit it directly, but she didn't deny it either.

Seeing this, Feng Yuncheng understood.

“I understand. Since we’re going to help Kunlun gather all the skeletons of the Kunlun Yu Huang, it’s very likely that we’ll have to go through all the sections in the Kunlun Mystic Realm. In that case, let’s go to this section first!”

Feng Yuncheng pointed at the smallest plate on the five continents.

The plate wasn’t far from the Spreading Wing Continent. Although the plate area was small, the terrain in the plate was winding and filled with countless small yellow dots. No one knew what they symbolized.

Donor pouted at the little yellow dots and asked Yu Huang, “What are these little yellow dots?”

Yu Huang put away the map and said, “Yellow sand. This plate is a desert.”

A smile suddenly appeared on Sheng Xiao’s lips when he heard that and he said, “I hope that the Holy Spirit Academy can add a drawing class to our curriculum when we get back. With his drawing level, it’s really...”

It was unbearable.

When Yu Huang heard this, she pursed her lips and smiled. She nodded and said, “I think it’s a good idea.”

Hearing their conversation, Estelle couldn’t help but ask, “Who are you talking about?”

Yu Huang blinked at Estelle and said, “Guess.”

Donor narrowed his eyes and stared at the map in Yu Huang’s hand. He guessed a possibility, and his eyes began to quiver uncontrollably. “Don’t tell me you’re saying that the person who drew this map is a student of Holy Spirit Academy?”

But was that possible?

Estelle, Feng Yuncheng, and the others were shocked by Donor’s bold idea. They connected what Sheng Xiao had said to Yu Huang with Donor’s thoughts and realized that Donor had most likely guessed the truth.

Feng Yuncheng hurriedly turned to Yu Huang to verify it. “Yu Huang, is this true?”

Before Xiao Shu’s identity was completely exposed, Yu Huang naturally wouldn’t reveal his identity. Yu Huang said, “Brother Xiao means that they should add a drawing course to our curriculum so that when we draw maps in the future, we won’t be as bad as the owner of this map.”

Sheng Xiao nodded in agreement. “That’s right. What are you thinking?”

Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao both rejected the notion, so Donor and the others became dubious again.

Was he overthinking?

At this moment, Kunlun suddenly turned around and shouted at Yu Huang, “Yu Huang, I feel very uncomfortable.”

Yu Huang and the others immediately stood up and walked towards Kunlun.

Donor and Sheng Xiao took the oars from Kunlun's hands. Then, the two of them sat at the bow of the boat and rowed. Yu Huang pulled Kunlun to the center of the boat to rest.

Yu Huang asked Kunlun, "Why are you feeling unwell?"

Kunlun pressed his head and said with a pained expression, "I feel a mysterious force pulling my skull. It wants to pull me... into the sea!"

Kunlun was in extreme pain. He said, "Help me, help me, Yu Huang. My skull is about to crack."

Yu Huang hurriedly pressed down on Kunlun's head and tried to use her gentle psychic power to relax him, but it was useless. Kunlun hugged his head and shouted for help, "Yu Huang, save me! Save me!"

Yu Huang really didn't know what to do. Seeing that Kunlun was so uncomfortable, she gritted her teeth and simply let go of Kunlun. After she stood up, she lowered her eyes and looked at the vast and boundless sea below her as she said, "I want to see what's attracting you in the sea!"

Yu Huang suddenly summoned the Xuan Yu Sword and said to Feng Yuncheng and the others, "Yuncheng, Estelle, row the boat. Brother Xiao, Donor, follow me into the sea!"

Kunlun was already in so much pain that he was delirious. No one would be at ease until they figured out what was causing trouble at the bottom of the sea.

Hearing this, Estelle and Feng Yuncheng took the initiative to take the oars. Sheng Xiao and Donor jumped into the sea with Yu Huang.

Chapter 856: Untitled

As soon as they entered the sea, they shivered from the bone-chilling seawater.

The three of them released their protective shields and dived into the deep sea. Only then did they realize that something was glowing in the depths of the sea.

"What is that?" Donor said, eyeing the glowing object warily. "I can feel a terrifying energy that makes my soul tremble."

Donor wasn't the only one who felt it. Sheng Xiao also felt the same way. Sheng Xiao said, "This energy fluctuation feels a little familiar."

Yu Huang said with a trembling voice, "It's the Divine Master Bone." Sheng Xiao and the others could only sense the spiritual energy fluctuation of that thing, but Yu Huang could even feel the fluctuations of the resentment inside.

And this resentment was almost identical to that of the head that Kunlun had obtained.

Knowing that it was most likely another Divine Master bone, Donor and the others quickly increased their speed.

When the three of them reached the bottom of the sea, Sheng Xiao pulled out the Dragon Sword and waved away the dust and mud at the bottom of the sea. He realized that there was indeed a white rib hidden under the soil.

Even after seeing the rib, the three of them didn't dare to approach it.

After all, they had just been in danger because of the Kunlun Divine Master's head not long ago. Who knew if this rib would launch a new round of attacks on them or not?

Yu Huang was a Purifying Spirit Master and encountered vengeful spirits often, so she prepared some urns and coffin boxes that were convenient for storing bones and corpses.

Yu Huang took out a rectangular urn and said, "I'll see if I can put it away."

"You have to be careful."

"Okay."

Yu Huang walked towards the rib step by step. The rib immediately released black fog that was filled with killing intent and resentment.

Yu Huang immediately released her psychic power. After using her psychic power to successfully break down that portion of resentment, she put on her gloves and picked up the rib bone, then placed it into the urn respectfully.

Seeing that Yu Huang had successfully taken away the Divine Master's ribs, Sheng Xiao put away the Dragon Sword.

When the three of them returned, Kunlun was still unconscious.

Yu Huang sat beside Kunlun and waited for him to wake up. Sheng Xiao and the others took turns rowing. Soon, the sky turned dark.

Three full moons hung in the night sky. As Yu Huang looked up at the stars and moon above her head, she suddenly thought of the song she and Kunlun had sung together when they were floating above the sea a long time ago.

After Yu Huang stretched out her right hand, Xuan Yu transformed into a xun and appeared in her hand. Yu Huang gently pressed her rosy lips against the xun as she played an unknown tune.

When the song sounded, Sheng Xiao and the others realized that many golden lights had appeared on the surface of the sea. Those lights rushed into Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang's bodies. A very small portion of the golden light was lingering around Donor and Estelle.

When Sheng Xiao saw this, he said in shock, "This is the power of a Divine Master!"

Hearing this, Donor and Estelle immediately closed their eyes and sat cross-legged. They entered a meditative state to absorb the power of the statue.

Even if they could just absorb a little, the benefits would be substantial.

When Feng Yuncheng realized that the light was approaching him, he turned around and flew towards Sheng Xiao, Yu Huang, and the others. While he was envious, he also felt defeated.

Damn, even divine power despised him.

When the melody reached its climax, almost the entire surface of the sea was filled with the golden light of divine power. When Sheng Xiao absorbed the power of the divine power, he could clearly feel the stagnant spiritual power in his body increasing rapidly.

Divine power was the purest, largest, and most difficult to obtain energy in the world. Even a tiny bit of divine power was equivalent to thousands of drops of spiritual power.

When Yu Huang finished playing, the golden light disappeared.

After the song ended, Yu Huang retracted Xuan Yu. When she lowered her head, she saw that Kun Lun had already woken up. Kun Lun said to Yu Huang, "I heard you calling me."

Yu Huang caressed Kun Lun's forehead and asked him, "Are you still in pain?"

Kun Lun said, "As soon as I heard this song, the pain disappeared."

Yu Huang was relieved.

Yu Huang placed the wooden box in Kunlun's arms and told him, "I found this in the sea."

Kun Lun opened the box and stared at the rib. Without needing Yu Huang to explain, Kun Lun said, "I can sense its attachment to me. This should be Kun Lun Divine Master's rib."

Kunlun covered the box again and said, "I'll absorb all the bones together at once after we collect all of them."

Kun Lun handed the box to Yu Huang and said, "Help me keep it. That ring of yours seems to be able to hold anything."

Yu Huang asked him, "Aren't you afraid that I'll take it for myself?"

Kunlun smiled and said bluntly, "Before I met you, I was just a stupid baboon who only knew how to run when I saw demons. Since you helped me gain intelligence, I won't blame you even if you take it for yourself."

Yu Huang looked at Kunlun deeply, then knocked Kunlun's head as she cursed, "Stupid baboon!"

Kunlun just laughed.

As Sheng Xiao watched the interaction between Yu Huang and Kunlun quietly, he suddenly realized that he was jealous of a baboon.

"Yu Huang, come row the boat. I'll rest for a while," Sheng Xiao said.

Yu Huang quickly stood up and took the oar from Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao walked to the opposite side of Kunlun and sat down. He suddenly raised his left ring finger and asked Kunlun, "Can you see the red string tied to my ring finger?"

Kun Lun leaned closer to take a closer look. Then, he shook his head and said, "I don't see anything."

Sheng Xiao said, "It's normal that you can't see it. This line is called the marriage line. Only the other owner of the line can see it. Yu Huang and I are married."

Kun Lun nodded. Just as Sheng Xiao had expected, he asked, "What does the marriage line mean?"

Sheng Xiao told Kunlun, "If you really love someone and want to be with that person for eternity, you can form this marriage line with that person."

Sheng Xiao deliberately tapped his ring finger and told Kunlun, "Yu Huang and I are deeply in love, so we formed a marriage line."

Kunlun naively thought that Sheng Xiao was teaching him about the use and origin of the marriage line. Kunlun held Sheng Xiao's hand gratefully. "Thank you, Sheng Xiao. You're really a good person. You're so warm-hearted."

Sheng Xiao was speechless.

He realized that there was really no need for him to be jealous of a stupid baboon.

Yu Huang, who was listening to their conversation, couldn't help but laugh. "Enough, stop being jealous of everyone."

Sheng Xiao also felt embarrassed. He quickly got up and took the oar from Yu Huang's hand. Then, he rowed the boat silently. They sailed for nearly half a month before arriving at the Desert Continent.

On the Desert Continent, not a single blade of grass grew. As far as the eye could see, there was only yellow sand.

As the wind blew, yellow sand rose into the air, stirring up yellow sand tornadoes.

Yu Huang stared at the desert scenery in front of her, then she looked at the map and stared at the largest crawling demon beast on the map. She said, "Ten thousand years ago, the strongest demon beast on this continent was a python with nine tails. I wonder if it's still alive after ten thousand years."

Chapter 857: Untitled

"However, after 10,000 years of evolution, perhaps a stronger beast has appeared on the desert plate. But no matter what, if we find the strongest beast, there's a chance of finding the scattered bones of the Kunlun Divine Master."

"That's right." When Sheng Xiao saw that Feng Yuncheng's imagination was running wild, he smiled and said, "There's no hurry to find the strongest beast. Let's find out how many survivors there are on this continent first."

"Okay."

Sheng Xiao took out a flare and said, "I'll release a flare first and see how many people gather."

"Good idea."

They set up camp at the edge of the desert and caught sea rabbits to barbecue. Sheng Xiao only lit up the flare when the sky was completely dark.

The signal flare let out a sharp cry, then shot into the sky and bloomed at an altitude of more than two thousand meters.

Countless gorgeous fireworks lit up the night sky on this piece of land. The ashes gathered together and formed the logo of the Divine Realm Academy.

This signal flare was a signal flare custom-made by the Divine Realm Academy and the Divine Moon Empire's scientific research department. In the past, students of the Divine Realm Academy would carry one or two of these signal flares when they went out on dangerous missions.

As a former disciplinary officer, Sheng Xiao didn't lack such flares.

The Divine Realm Academy was one of the three great beast tamer academies in the Holy Spirit Continent. There was no beast tamer who didn't know it. Therefore, if there were any students who survived on this section, they would definitely recognize this signal flare if they saw it.

Sheng Xiao and the others waited by the sea for five consecutive days. During these five days, not a single survivor came to gather. Faced with this situation, Yu Huang and the others felt very heavy-hearted.

Although the area of this desert plate wasn't the largest, it wasn't smaller than Spreading Wing Continent, so there should be many students on this continent.

However, five days had passed but the students had yet to gather. Could it be that all those who had descended on this continent had died or given up?

The next morning, when Sheng Xiao saw that there were still no students, he said, "Let's not wait anymore. It's already the sixth morning. They should have arrived long ago."

When he heard this, Feng Yuncheng's handsome face turned pale. He bent down and grabbed a handful of sand from the ground. When he felt the quicksand cutting away from his palm, he felt utterly powerless.

"For some reason, I keep feeling that Her Highness is here." Feng Yuncheng squatted on the ground and looked up at Yu Huang. He laughed self-deprecatingly as he said, "We're not even married yet, nor do we have a marriage line, but I have a strong feeling that she's here."

Feng Yuncheng scratched his head in frustration and muttered to himself, "But if she was really here, she would have come to look for us long ago."

"Unless... Unless..." Feng Yuncheng's handsome face suddenly turned pale.

He didn't dare to say the rest.

Yu Huang suddenly said to Sheng Xiao, "Brother Xiao, let's search around carefully." She glanced at Feng Yuncheng and said to Sheng Xiao, "Sometimes, the connection between couples is very reliable."

Sheng Xiao asked Donor and the others, "What do you guys think?"

Donor smiled and said, "Let's search around." He patted Feng Yuncheng's shoulder and said, "If we really find Beatrice, we won't give her any gifts when the two of you get married in the future. After all, we can be considered her saviors."

Feng Yuncheng was extremely touched to see that everyone was willing to stay and accompany him to look for Beatrice. He quickly stood up and smiled. "Alright! When you guys attend our wedding, there's no need to send gifts. I'll even take a private plane to pick you guys up."

"Alright, it's settled then."

The six of them left the beach and followed Feng Yuncheng's guidance towards the hinterland of the desert. The barren desert gave off a desolate and lonesome feeling.

After they walked in the desert for three days, all they saw was yellow sand and no signs of life. Sheng Xiao suddenly stopped and said, "Something's wrong."

Yu Huang and the others also stopped.

Donor frowned at the desert in front of him and said, "I also feel that something is wrong, but I can't put my finger on what the problem is."

Estelle said bluntly, "There are no life forms here."

Feng Yuncheng said, "The desert is barren and it rarely rains, so it's normal that there are no lifeforms here."

"But even if it's a dry desert, there should be some lifeforms. Lizards and snakes are common creatures in the desert, but there's nothing here." Estelle frowned. He felt uneasy, but he couldn't tell where this uneasiness came from.

Chapter 858: Untitled

Sheng Xiao's expression changed when he heard Estelle's analysis. He said in a low voice, "There should be life forms even in the desert, unless..."

Yu Huang asked him, "Unless what?"

Sheng Xiao took a deep breath and muttered, "Unless there's something stronger here. Its existence makes all creatures afraid to approach."

Hearing this, Yu Huang and the others all flew up into the air tacitly.

They stood in the void as they looked down at the desert below. Only then did they realize that the desert ridge they had been walking on for three days was actually moving!

Sheng Xiao transformed into a dragon and wrapped Yu Huang and the others in his tail. Then, he brought them into the deep space. Everyone flew in the sky for a few minutes before realizing that there were a total of nine desert ridges below. Every ridge was very long and huge.

Every mountain ridge was squirming at a slow speed!

When Yu Huang thought of the super snake demon with nine tails on the map, she suddenly took a deep breath and said in shock, "We haven't been walking in the desert at all these few days. We've been walking on the tails of the Nine-tailed Snake Demon!"

Donor also said in shock, "That Nine-tailed Snake Demon didn't die. After ten thousand years of cultivation, it became bigger and longer!"

The current Nine-tailed Snake Demon was almost half the size of a desert plate!

Sheng Xiao flew them from the snake's tail to the snake's head. Just as he was about to get closer to observe the Nine-tailed Snake Demon, it suddenly opened its eyes and looked at Sheng Xiao and the others greedily.

"Hiss hiss!" The Nine-tailed Snake Demon suddenly swooped down on Sheng Xiao and the others. When it flew up, countless pieces of sand fell from its body.

"Roar!" Sheng Xiao let go of Yu Huang and the others and rushed towards the Nine-tailed Snake Demon that was even larger than him.

At the same time, Yu Huang opened her arms and roared angrily. A monstrous red flame suddenly erupted from her body, and her black hair fluttered even without any wind.

Xuan Yu whistled as it descended beneath Yu Huang's feet and transformed into the appearance of an adult Divine Feather Phoenix as it carried Yu Huang and flew towards the Nine-tailed Snake Demon.

As soon as the Nine-tailed Snake Demon sensed the phoenix's aura, it was as if it had encountered its natural enemy. It suddenly turned its head and flicked its dark red snake tongue at Yu Huang before rushing towards her.

Hiss ~ The thickest tail under the giant snake suddenly swung at Yu Huang. In an instant, energy filled with a murderous aura charged towards Yu Huang.

Yu Huang immediately used her psychic power to conjure a long arrow. She used her psychic power to draw the Aofeng Bow and roared in a low voice, "Blazing Moon Art!"

The destructive power of the Blazing Moon Art unleashed by the Divine Grade Spirit Tool, Ao Feng Bow, far exceeded the destructive power of the original version of the Blazing Moon Art.

When the Blazing Moon Art collided with the shocking energy, a series of deafening explosions suddenly erupted.

The two energies exploded, and the impact of the force shook Yu Huang to the point of retreating, whereas the Nine-tailed Snake Demon was completely unharmed.

Donor immediately flew over to catch Yu Huang. "Are you alright?"

Yu Huang wiped the blood from the corner of her lips and shook her head. "I'm fine."

At that moment, Sheng Xiao suddenly shouted at Kunlun, "The thickest tail is the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's strongest weapon. Kunlun, can you sense a familiar aura?"

Sheng Xiao suspected that the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's tail was very likely related to the Kunlun Divine Master.

Kunlun stared at the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's thickest tail and said, "Its tail has fused with the Kunlun Divine Master's leg."

Sheng Xiao said decisively, "I'll try my best to restrain its head. You guys work together to cut off its legs."

Sheng Xiao stared at the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's golden beast eyes and said, "I can only trap him for five seconds at most. Success or failure depends on you guys."

With that, Sheng Xiao activated all the spiritual power in his body and rushed towards the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's head. He used his thick and powerful dragon body to strangle the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's throat tightly.

Seeing this, Donor, Estelle, and Feng Yuncheng immediately unleashed their strongest cultivation technique. Donor cut his palm and used the Light Sword to successfully summon angels to the mortal world.

Estelle closed his eyes and muttered something. A translucent black sickle suddenly appeared in his hand.

At the same time, the wings on Estelle's back expanded infinitely. For some reason, his ugly appearance revealed a domineering murderous aura.

Donor turned to look at Estelle, who was beside him. Seeing that Estelle had successfully summoned the demon god and obtained the demon scythe, his eyes were filled with shock and disbelief.

"Estelle, you've actually obtained the demon's powers."

Estelle opened his eyes but didn't answer Donor's question. He raised the scythe in his hand and rushed towards the Nine-tailed Snake Demon without hesitation.

"Demon's Death!"

The scythe swung down, releasing a ball of thick black fog, and the phantom of a demon emerged from the fog. The demon stretched out its sharp demonic claws and accurately grabbed the tail of the Nine-tailed Snake Demon.

Seeing this, Donor's angel gently pressed down his index finger. Golden light descended before turning into a sword of light that slashed at the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's thickest tail.

The demon and angel cooperated tacitly and cut off the tail of the Nine-tailed Snake Demon in one move.

"Hiss!" The Nine-tailed Snake Demon let out a pained roar, and its other eight tails struggled frantically.

When Donor and Estelle saw that the two of them had cut off the tail of the Nine-tailed Snake Demon so easily, they couldn't help but look at each other. They could see the shock in each other's eyes.

It turned out that Light Elves and Night Elves were the best combat partners.

Chapter 859: One Sword Slashes the Nine Heavens

From the moment Donor was born, his elders had instilled in him the idea that they were nobler and more holy than the Night Elves. And in the records left behind by the Elven royal family, there had never been any positive documents about the Night Elves.

Whenever the Night Elves appeared in literature records, they were documented as ugly, lowly, and despicable inferior creatures.

Therefore, Donor had never known that demons and angels could cooperate so well. Even when Donor fought with other Light Elves, he had never cooperated so well with them as he did with Estelle.

He didn't even need Estelle to specify what he should do or when he should actually do it.

The two of them looked at each other silently. They could see the surprise and disbelief in each other's expressions. Donor suddenly extended his right hand to Estelle and said, "I haven't found a suitable Back Spirit yet. If you're willing, I want to invite you to be my Back Spirit."

After Light Elf beast tamers reached adulthood, they could choose their ideal beast tamer to form a Back Spirit contract with.

The so-called Back Spirit referred to a close combat partner who one could trust one's back to.

After a Light Elf decided on his Back Spirit and handed over his heart blood to the other party, the two of them would refine each other's heart blood to form an invisible fuse between them.

This fuse would connect their minds and make them invincible.

Every Light Elf could only form one Back Spirit in their lifetime.

Most Light Elves would form a contract with their spouses, but there were also some who would form a contract with their most trusted friends.

However, no matter what, no Light Elf had ever formed a contract with a Night Elf.

This was something unthinkable to them.

Donor had been an adult for a long time. The reason he had not chosen a Back Spirit yet was that he had never met a beast tamer who had a tacit understanding with him.

To be honest, Donor had once set his sights on Sheng Xiao. He had even suggested to Sheng Xiao that he wanted to form a contract with him.

But Sheng Xiao didn't agree.

However, the reason Donor wanted to form a contract with Sheng Xiao wasn't because they had a tacit understanding in battle, but simply because he admired Sheng Xiao's strength.

But today, when he fought the Nine-tailed Snake Demon with Estelle, Donor felt an unprecedented tacit understanding during battle.

At that moment, Donor's intuition told him—

Estelle was the Back Spirit he was looking for!

Estelle naturally knew that Light Elves had the habit of forming Back Spirit contracts with others. Facing Donor's invitation, Estelle felt flattered.

However, Estelle didn't immediately agree to Donor's request. He said, "Sorry, I can only form a Back Spirit contract with the person I have the strongest tacit understanding with."

In other words, he felt that Donor didn't meet his requirements for the strongest tacit understanding.

Donor's mouth twitched, and he frowned as he asked, "You don't think we have a tacit understanding?"

Estelle shook her head and said, "There is a tacit understanding between us."

Donor was about to say something when Estelle said, "But the world is so big. Other than the Holy Spirit Academy, there are countless small worlds and great worlds. Who can guarantee that you are my strongest tacit partner?"

Donor was speechless.

Estelle was really a rational and cold-hearted Night Elf. "Then I hope you can consider me." Donor was certain that he couldn't meet a more suitable tacit partner than Estelle.

Estelle nodded. Seeing that Feng Yuncheng and Sheng Xiao were working together to fight the Nine-tailed Snake Demon, he said, "Let's kill the snake first!"

"Okay!"

The six of them joined forces and fought the Nine-tailed Snake Demon for more than an hour.

The six of them felt that their spiritual power was about to be exhausted. At the same time, the Nine-tailed Snake Demon was bleeding too much because of its broken tail. Coupled with the fact that it had exhausted too much demonic power, it looked like it was at the end of its rope.

Sheng Xiao saw that the Nine-tailed Snake Demon couldn't hold on much longer and that they didn't have much spiritual power left, so he shouted in a deep voice, "Form the umbrella array!"

Hearing this, Yu Huang and the others immediately flew behind Sheng Xiao and stood in a straight line. Donor placed his hand on Sheng Xiao's left shoulder, and Yu Huang placed her hand on Donor's left shoulder.

Estelle, Feng Yuncheng, and Kunlun did the same.

The five of them immediately activated all their remaining spiritual power and poured it into Sheng Xiao's body without hesitation.

After receiving the help of Yu Huang and the others, the spiritual power in Sheng Xiao's body recovered to its peak.

A pair of shiny black dragon horns drilled out of Sheng Xiao's forehead. Hard black dragon scales instantly grew under his neck. His protective spiritual power turned into a dragon-scale armor that covered him fully.

Sheng Xiao suddenly opened his eyes. The black sky dragon and the dragon sword fused into one. The sword's dragon roar was deafening. Black spiritual power filled the world, as if a dragon was descending. The entire desert shook with its descent.

Sheng Xiao's figure disappeared from the spot and rushed into the black spiritual energy fog like a shadow. Yu Huang and the others vaguely saw a person and a sword fighting with strange moves amidst the fog.

Then, Sheng Xiao reappeared in everyone's sight.

However, the figure and sword shadow in the black fog had yet to disappear!

Soon, the second Sheng Xiao appeared behind the first one.

Just as Yu Huang and the others were in disbelief, the third, fourth, fifth... and ninth Sheng Xiao appeared behind the first Sheng Xiao.

A deep voice echoed—

“One Sword Slashes the Nine Heavens!”

Boom!

The first Sheng Xiao held the Dragon Sword and slashed at the Nine-tailed Snake Demon.

The Nine-tailed Snake Demon roared and charged at Sheng Xiao at full speed. But at that moment, the second Sheng Xiao attacked the Nine-tailed Snake Demon again with the Dragon Sword!

Then, the third Sheng Xiao, the fourth Sheng Xiao...

They all took action!

Wave after wave of attacks landed accurately on the Nine-tailed Snake Demon. The ninth Sheng Xiao was the real Sheng Xiao.

He held the Dragon Sword and charged at the Nine-tailed Snake Demon. He fused with the Dragon Sword in the void and slashed through the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's body with powerful momentum before passing through its thick body!

Boom!

The Nine-tailed Snake Demon turned into pieces and fell to the ground while bleeding profusely.

After each of the snake's body parts fell to the ground, it twitched for a while before dying completely. With a pale face, Sheng Xiao landed in front of the snake meat on the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's abdomen. He pierced the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's abdomen with his sword and took out a bloody Monster Core the size of two fists.

Sheng Xiao saw that there were nine demonic patterns on the Monster Core. When he realized that there was a very light demonic pattern beside the last demonic pattern, he said, "This was a super demon beast that had reached the peak of level nine and was about to break through level ten."

So far, it was also the strongest demon that Sheng Xiao and the others had successfully killed.

Chapter 860: Finding Beatrice

Yu Huang and the others supported each other as they walked towards Sheng Xiao. They stared at the abnormally huge Monster Core in Sheng Xiao's hand with reverent gazes.

Seeing that Yu Huang's eyes were reflecting light, Sheng Xiao asked in amusement, "Do you want to touch it?"

Yu Huang immediately stretched out her hands.

Sheng Xiao really handed the Monster Core to Yu Huang.

Yu Huang held the bloody Monster Core and sighed. "It's so heavy and the energy inside is so strong. At last, we're also people who have touched the Monster Core of a super demon beast."

With that, Yu Huang handed the Monster Core to Donor and the others. "Everyone, touch it."

Everyone gathered around and touched the Monster Core.

After going around in circles, the Monster Core finally returned to Sheng Xiao's hand. Sheng Xiao put away the Monster Core and said, "Let's divide the spoils before we leave."

"Okay."

At this moment, Kunlun pointed at the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's abnormally thick stomach and said, "Its stomach is moving."

Hearing this, everyone lowered their heads and stared at the overly thick stomach on the ground. Sure enough, they realized that the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's stomach was bulging.

Yu Huang frowned and said, "Could it be pregnant?"

Snakes were born from eggs, so the snake in front of them might be an egg-born snake.

When Yu Huang thought about how there might be a baby in the snake's stomach, her expression instantly became sympathetic.

"If it's a small snake, let it live." Although Yu Huang liked to eat snakes, she couldn't bear to eat a small snake that had just been born.

Sheng Xiao said, "Let me see."

Sheng Xiao gently cut the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's abdomen with the tip of his sword. Without the obstruction of its skin, the thing in its stomach immediately slipped to the ground.

However, to everyone's surprise, there was no baby snake in the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's stomach. Instead, there were three to four human beast tamers who had yet to be completely digested and a pile of completely digested bones!

From the shape of the bones, it wasn't difficult to tell that they were all humans!

The four human beast tamers who had yet to be completely digested were almost all dead. Only one woman's legs were still subconsciously trembling as she put up her last struggle against the Nine-tailed Snake Demon.

When the woman landed, her head was facing the ground.

However, Feng Yuncheng still recognized this woman at a glance.

"Your Highness!"

Feng Yuncheng didn't mind how dirty the things in the Nine-tailed Snake Demon's stomach were. He quickly knelt on the ground and carefully flipped the woman over.

After Feng Yuncheng flipped the woman over, the woman's appearance was revealed in front of Yu Huang and the others.

It was really Beatrice!

Beatrice's charming face and curly hair were covered in blood and the digestive juice of the Nine-tailed Snake Demon. She had already fallen unconscious. No matter how Feng Yuncheng called out to her, she didn't react at all.

Feng Yuncheng held Beatrice's face and performed CPR on her. He didn't mind the dirty digestive juice on her face at all, but even after CPR, Beatrice still didn't wake up.

Feng Yuncheng's hands were trembling in fear.

He hugged Beatrice as he cried out in a panic, "Your Highness, Your Highness, wake up, Your Highness!" Feng Yuncheng was so frightened that his lips turned pale. He grabbed the corner of Yu Huang's shirt tightly, as if he was holding onto a life-saving straw.

"Yu Huang!"

"Yu Huang, please save her! Don't Purifying Spirit Masters know how to save people? Save her, Yu Huang!" Among the six people present, only Yu Huang's Psychic power had the ability to save people. Feng Yuncheng could only ask Yu Huang for help.

At this moment, Yu Huang's spiritual power had already been exhausted, and she was very weak. If she forcefully used her psychic power to save Beatrice, it would be extremely harmful to her body.

Sheng Xiao opened his mouth, but he didn't stop Yu Huang.

Yu Huang didn't hesitate at all. She immediately knelt in front of Feng Yuncheng and took Beatrice from his arms.

Yu Huang placed Beatrice on the ground and cleared the filth in her mouth and nose. Then, she gently transferred her gentle psychic power into Beatrice's body.

Under the effects of psychic power, Beatrice's soul was cleansed, and she gradually regained consciousness.

"Ahem!" Beatrice suddenly took a deep breath and coughed several times. Her eyes were red and her nose was running.

When she slowly opened her eyes and saw the pale Yu Huang and Feng Yuncheng, she thought that she was dreaming.

She muttered in a low voice, "Am I hallucinating?"

It was said that people would see the person they cared about the most before they died.

Feng Yuncheng was her boyfriend in name after all. It wasn't strange for her to see Feng Yuncheng, but why did she see Yu Huang?

When Feng Yuncheng heard Beatrice's words, he finally smiled and hugged her tightly with tears in his eyes. "Your Highness, you're safe and sound."

Feeling the strength of Feng Yuncheng's hug, Beatrice realized that she was saved.

When Yu Huang saw that Beatrice had successfully woken up, she was finally relieved. Her body immediately fell to the ground weakly. Fortunately, Sheng Xiao had been observing her. As soon as Yu Huang fell, Sheng Xiao reached out and held her.

Yu Huang lost consciousness for a few seconds before she woke up again. She saw that Sheng Xiao was frowning and it was obvious that he was very worried about her, so she said, "I'm fine. I'll be fine after resting for a few days."

"Okay, rest well."

Feng Yuncheng was also very worried about Yu Huang when he saw her faint. He was about to apologize to Sheng Xiao, but Sheng Xiao seemed to have expected it. He said to Feng Yuncheng in a low voice, "Don't feel sorry. This is what she should do."

Feng Yuncheng was extremely touched. "Thank you."

Sheng Xiao nodded and stood up with Yu Huang in his arms. He led Donor and the others towards the thickest snake tail of the Nine-tailed Snake Demon.

Donor used the Light Sword to separate the tail. Sure enough, they found a few white human bones amidst the bloody mess.

When the human bones were combined, it formed a right leg.

This time, no one had any designs on the right leg. They turned to Kunlun and said, "Kunlun, put it away."

Kunlun was the reincarnation of the Kunlun Divine Master. When he approached those leg bones, they didn't attack him.

Kunlun placed the leg bone with the rib and said to Donor and the others, "Thank you, everyone."

Donor smiled faintly and raised his head to ask Sheng Xiao, "Should we set off for the next continent now, or wait here for Yu Huang to wake up?"

Sheng Xiao thought about it and said, "If we set off now, we can rest at sea."

"Alright then."

The few of them rode on the same large wooden ship while heading towards the largest continent in the northwest of the Kunlun Mystic Realm. Along the way, Beatrice gradually recovered.

From her description, everyone found out that a total of 26 students had landed on the desert plate at the beginning, but they all got eaten by the Nine-tailed Snake Demon.

In the end, Beatrice and her remaining 3 companions didn't escape the pursuit of the Nine-tailed Snake Demon either.

"I didn't encounter my brother on this continent." Beatrice stared in the northwest direction with a frown. "I wonder if my brother is still alive."
