

She Shocks 981

Chapter 981: A Clear Conscience

Ever since they first started fighting Holy Spirit Goldfeather, he had always maintained an unfathomable facade and he seemed to be invincible.

This was the first time Holy Spirit Goldfeather had revealed such a miserable expression.

The more pain he felt, the happier the Beast Tamers were. "Our guess is right. The Central Pagoda is indeed the energy source of Holy Spirit Goldfeather!"

Like a group of victims trapped in an underground cave and unable to find an exit, they finally discovered the exit and saw hope.

"Warriors, let's work together to destroy the Central Pagoda!"

Hearing Sheng Lingfeng's order, the Beast Tamers became excited. Sheng Xiao, Donor, Feng Yuncheng, Yin Rong, and Beatrice stood side by side as they attacked the bottom of the Central Pagoda with the super demon beasts.

Sheng Lingfeng, Di Ruofeng, and the other powerhouses passed through the clouds and flew up towards the top of the Central Pagoda.

Boom!

Boom!

Powerful attacks struck the Central Pagoda one after another. Soon, the Central Pagoda was riddled with holes, and the soul body of Holy Spirit Goldfeather, who was deeply connected to the Central Pagoda, was already so illusory that it was almost transparent.

He squatted on the ground and held his head tightly while letting out pained and despairing cries.

With every scream, his body became more transparent.

However, the Central Pagoda was still standing in the far north without collapsing.

After all, it was a divine-grade Spirit Tool!

Seeing that the Central Pagoda seemed indestructible, some Beast Tamers revealed tired and uneasy expressions.

Why couldn't they push down the Central Pagoda?

Could it be that this Central Pagoda was really indestructible?

Sensing that the battle intent of the warriors was weakening, and the power released by the weapons in her hands was also weakening, Yu Huang realized that they couldn't continue like this. She frowned slightly and lowered her eyes to think for a while before coming up with an idea.

No one noticed that Yu Huang had secretly flown towards Feng Yuncheng.

Yu Huang patted Feng Yuncheng's shoulder.

Feng Yuncheng was attacking the Central Pagoda with Beatrice. When he saw that the Central Pagoda was still standing firmly in the far north, he felt a little vexed.

Could it be that the Central Pagoda couldn't be destroyed?

Realizing that his shoulder had been patted, Feng Yuncheng turned around and saw that it was Yu Huang. He stopped attacking. "What's wrong, Yu Huang?"

Yu Huang looked at him with a meaningful gaze.

Feng Yuncheng frowned and asked, "What are you trying to say?"

Yu Huang said, "I need your cooperation."

Feng Yuncheng was a little surprised. "What do you want me to do?"

Yu Huang said, "Don't you know how to create killing illusions?"

Feng Yuncheng was stunned.

Creating killing illusions was a skill he didn't dare to use.

Feng Yuncheng revealed a hesitant expression.

He knew very well that once he cooperated with Yu Huang to use the killing illusion and aroused the hatred of these Beast Tamer Warriors, it would be equivalent to revealing his secret to the world. At that time, if the world knew that he had the terrifying ability to create the killing illusion, out of fear, they might treat him as a fiendish cultivator like Ouyang Luo.

The human heart was never black or white.

There were times when evil guys would show mercy, and there were times when the good guys would commit all kinds of evil.

A hero who saved the world could also become a demon hunted by tens of thousands of people.

But...

Feng Yuncheng raised his head and looked at his companions who were fighting with all their might beside him, then in the direction of his hometown, the Ice Domain Continent. When he thought about how the continent would be plunged into misery and suffering if they lost the war, he felt afraid.

He hoped that the Holy Spirit Continent would always maintain its most beautiful appearance.

He hoped that the people lived and worked in peace, while the land was filled with flowers, and children lived carefree lives.

"Alright." Feng Yuncheng raised his head and smiled at Yu Huang. "I'll cooperate with you."

As Yu Huang stared at the relaxed smile on Feng Yuncheng's face, she reached out her right hand towards Feng Yuncheng. "Everything is for the future of the continent."

Feng Yuncheng grabbed Yu Huang's hand and said, "I have a clear conscience!"

Nodding her head, Yu Huang summoned her beast form Xuan Yu.

Under her control, Xuan Yu instantly turned into a black ocarina with phoenix patterns on it.

Pressing the ocarina to her red lips, Yu Huang closed her eyes and focused on playing a song.

A melancholic and sorrowful tune quickly spread towards the surroundings of the far north with Yu Huang as the center. When the Beast Tamers heard this unfamiliar but sorrowful song, their movements gradually slowed down, and they were momentarily disoriented.

At this moment, Feng Yuncheng flew above the dark clouds when no one was paying attention. Since his ability was limited, when he flew into the depths of the dark clouds, he realized that he could no longer fly up. Only then did he stop.

At this moment, he had just flown to the middle level of the Central Pagoda.

Sheng Lingfeng and the other Prime Masters stood above Feng Yuncheng.

Seeing Feng Yuncheng suddenly fly up, Di Ruofeng narrowed his eyes and scolded Feng Yuncheng, "Little fellow, you should be fighting below. The oxygen in these dark clouds is thin. You can't stand it!"

Feng Yuncheng turned around and smiled at Di Ruofeng and the others.

Then, his waist swayed slightly, and a pair of incomparably gorgeous butterfly wings suddenly appeared on his back.

Di Ruofeng and the others frowned. Before they could understand what he was trying to do, they saw Feng Yuncheng's wings suddenly flap. Immediately after, countless red sparkly starlight spread throughout the world. They quickly enveloped the Central Pagoda.

When the Beast Tamers fighting saw the red starlight, they didn't take it to heart. They thought that some fire-type Beast Tamer was injured and the blood that flowed out turned into red starlight.

After Yu Huang saw the red starlight, she quickly retreated and stood in the distant sky while continuing to play the ocarina.

The Beast Tamers didn't know that they had already entered the killing illusion Feng Yuncheng had created for them...

"One Sword Slashes the Nine Heavens!"

Sheng Xiao gathered his energy and slashed out.

As a Grand Master, this was Sheng Xiao's strongest move.

Nine Sheng Xiaos held the Dragon Sword at the same time and slashed at the fifth floor of the Central Pagoda.

Bang!

The glass window frame on the fifth floor of the Central Pagoda shattered. The pagoda swayed slightly, but it still stood erect.

Sheng Xiao couldn't help but feel angry.

At this moment, Mo Xiao, Sheng Lingfeng, and the other Prime Masters decided to form an umbrella formation and transfer their spiritual power into Dino's body.

After receiving their help, Dino's power soared. He raised the Merman Divine Sword and slashed heavily at the waistline of the Central Pagoda.

Boom!

The Central Pagoda shook violently a few times. Countless window frames were shattered, while the eaves and horns fell to the ground.

However, the main body of the Central Pagoda still showed no signs of collapsing.

Staring at the standing Central Pagoda, Dino and the others also revealed uneasy expressions.

Why couldn't they push it down?

"Hahaha!" At this moment, Holy Spirit Goldfeather, whose soul power had already become extremely weak, suddenly let out a derisive and arrogant smile. He stood up again and walked to the tower step by step. With a sneer, he said, "Do you know what this divine-level Spirit Tool is made of?"

Chapter 982: Working Together to Create a Killing Illusion

Upon hearing this question, the warriors felt intense uneasiness.

"It's composed of humans!" Holy Spirit Goldfeather laughed loudly as he pointed at the Central Pagoda. He said with a deranged look, "Back then, in order to refine this divine-level Spirit Tool, I didn't hesitate to kill all the disciples of the Holy Spirit Palace. Do you guys know how big the Holy Spirit Palace was?"

Looking at the unhinged Holy Spirit Goldfeather, no Beast Tamer replied to his question.

Holy Spirit Goldfeather wasn't angry. With a sly smile, he appeared on the eaves of the seventh floor of the Central Pagoda and looked down at Xiao Shu from above as he said, "Little unicorn, you've been by my side since you were young and were raised by me with immortal herbs and immortal pills. You should know that the so-called Holy Spirit Palace is actually not a palace, but is composed of 201 sub-palaces, 81 mountains, and the headquarters of the Holy Spirit Palace, right?"

Sheng Xiao and the others looked at Xiao Shu in shock. They asked in disbelief, "Is that true?"

Xiao Shu nodded with an ugly expression as he said, "Even in the ancient era, Divine Masters were extraordinary existences. At that time, Divine Masters were equivalent to kings. The Holy Spirit Palace of Holy Spirit Goldfeather indeed included 201 cities and 81 mountain ranges."

"Hiss!" Neat gasps erupted in the crowd.

Thinking of what Holy Spirit Goldfeather had said earlier, Sheng Lingfeng felt extremely uneasy. He frowned and said, "Could it be that this divine-level Spirit Tool was refined with the lives of all the commoners of the Holy Spirit Palace?"

"Hahaha!" Holy Spirit Goldfeather laughed again.

"That's right!" He said, "The Central Pagoda refined by countless living beings of the Holy Spirit Palace is a divine-level spirit artifact with a demonic attribute. Not only can it absorb the power of faith and help me nourish my soul, but as long as I activate it, it will start a merciless slaughter and devour life endlessly! Otherwise, where do you think the Jade Illusion Continent and the Yin Clan elders I devoured went?"

Holy Spirit Goldfeather pointed at the tower under his feet with a smile and said proudly, "They were all swallowed by the Central Pagoda!"

After knowing the truth, Sheng Lingfeng and the others felt that it was ridiculous.

Holy Spirit Goldfeather continued, "Today, all of you have gathered here, so it's quite convenient for me!" Holy Spirit Goldfeather smiled evilly and revealed a greedy and terrifying expression as he said proudly, "Today, I will devour all of you and slowly digest you guys!"

"After you guys die, the family and hometown you care about the most will be wiped out by me!"

With that said, Holy Spirit Goldfeather suddenly turned into nothingness and fused with the Central Pagoda below.

Under everyone's gazes, the Central Pagoda quickly spun, and an unstoppable magnetic force surged towards all the Beast Tamers.

"Ah!"

Before most Beast Tamers could resist, they were swallowed into the Central Pagoda by the suction force.

"Yu Huang!" Sheng Xiao subconsciously wanted to grab Yu Huang's hand. Yu Huang reached out to him too. However, before their fingertips could touch each other, they were pulled into the Central Pagoda by magnetic force. The other Beast Tamers and super demon beasts were also swept into the Central Pagoda.

Even Xiao Shu wasn't spared.

The only survivors were the Prime Masters floating above the dark clouds.

Sheng Lingfeng and the others watched helplessly as the other Beast Tamers were all swept into the Central Pagoda.

"Holy Spirit Goldfeather! How dare you?!" Mo Xiao's eyes were bloodshot. He suddenly turned into a black eight-tailed fox and mobilized all the spiritual power in his body to the limit. Then, he slammed himself towards the Central Pagoda with the power of lightning!

His full-strength attack only caused a portion of the Central Pagoda to collapse.

At that moment, Mo Xiao had lost consciousness because his spiritual power was exhausted and he fell down.

Seeing that Mo Xiao had used all his strength but was unable to shake the Central Pagoda, Sheng Lingfeng and the others felt despair.

Suddenly, the Central Pagoda shook violently.

Dino and the others thought that the Central Pagoda was finally about to collapse, but they saw the door to the first floor of the Central Pagoda open from the inside. Immediately after, countless corpses were spat out by the Central Pagoda.

Sheng Xiao!

Yu Huang!

Beatrice!

Feng Yuncheng.

Gold Ingot!

Lan Yao...

Countless Beast Tamer corpses were spat out by the Central Pagoda and landed in the black sea of flowers in the far north. Blood flowed out of their bodies and soaked into the black soil in the far north. Instantly, the entire far north was filled with the thick smell of blood.

The far north in front of him was filled with corpses and rivers of blood.

"Ah Huang!" Lin Jiansheng's eyes instantly turned red as he hurriedly flew forward to pick Yu Huang up.

"Xiao'er! Ah Ru! Ah Huang!" Sheng Lingfeng also flew towards the corpses.

Sheng Lingfeng moved the corpses away and finally found Sheng Xiao and Lan Yao, who were covered in blood at the bottom. Staring at his beloved wife and son's bloody corpses, Sheng Lingfeng suddenly lost the desire to live.

"Holy Spirit Goldfeather, I'll fight it out with you!" Sheng Lingfeng quickly stood up. He opened his arms and chose to self-destruct his beast form to perish with the Central Pagoda!

Sheng Lingfeng slammed his head into the Central Pagoda. As soon as his body touched the Central Pagoda, he exploded.

With a Prime Master self-destructing his beast form, a few levels of the Central Pagoda was finally destroyed.

However, although the tower appeared to be on the verge of collapse, it still didn't fall.

Seeing this, Di Ruofeng and Mo Xiao felt despair.

"Hahaha!" Suddenly, a huge black hand reached out from the Central Pagoda. It accurately grabbed Di Ruofeng's throat and raised his old and hunched body bit by bit.

Di Ruofeng grabbed the arm of that hand and struggled hard.

“In front of God, you are all ants. Di Ruofeng, why resist?” As he spoke, Holy Spirit Goldfeather’s body slowly appeared.

He, who had just devoured the spiritual power of all the Beast Tamers, had regained his divine might at his peak.

Holy Spirit Goldfeather pressed down on Di Ruofeng’s head and forced him to look down. “Look, the family members you risked your lives to protect are all dead!”

As Di Ruofeng stared at the tragic scene of corpses and seas of blood below him, his eyes were filled with anguish.

“They died relatively pain-free. Do you know how your eldest disciple died? In order to stop my invasion, his body exploded with a bang, like a balloon filled with air!” Holy Spirit Goldfeather imitated the noise when Yin Mingjue exploded and continued saying, “His flesh, blood, and spiritual power blocked the Time Gate. Hahaha, it’s a pity that you weren’t there at that time. If you were, you would have gone crazy from fright!”

With that, Holy Spirit Goldfeather admired Di Ruofeng’s pained expression for a while before decisively snapping his head off.

Di Ruofeng’s body was instantly beheaded.

Seeing that Holy Spirit Goldfeather had easily killed Di Ruofeng, Dino was filled with shock and fear.

“Dino, it’s your turn!” With that, Holy Spirit Goldfeather extended his demonic claw towards Dino and used his sharp claws to cut off Dino’s waist. The beautiful fishtail fell heavily to the ground and flapped around.

In the end, there was only one living person left.

He was Lin Jiansheng!

Chapter 983: Dark Clouds Disperse, Sunlight Shines

Holy Spirit Goldfeather looked at Lin Jiansheng, who also looked at him.

“As a Purifying Spirit God, you are the only person I can’t completely kill. However, I didn’t intend to kill you in the first place. I want you to live alone. I want you to watch me destroy this world that you guys risked your lives to protect. I want you to live in so much pain that you want to die.”

“Hahaha!”

The gloomy music suddenly stopped. At the same time, the wings on Feng Yuncheng’s back stopped flapping.

The moment the music stopped, the dazed people on the battlefield suddenly came back to their senses.

When they opened their eyes and realized that they were still alive, they belatedly realized that the terrifying scene that had just happened was just an illusion, but that illusion was so real. The pain was real, the anger was real, and the despair was also real.

Therefore, even if it was just an illusion, they still felt fear.

Afraid that the illusion would come true and that all their family members would die, this group of Beast Tamers suddenly felt powerful killing intent. When this killing intent appeared, their remaining reverence and yearning for the Central Pagoda were completely severed.

And when they completely lost faith in the Central Pagoda, the Central Pagoda would just be an ordinary giant pagoda to them.

The Beast Tamers circulated their spiritual power again and launched a new round of attacks.

This time, the blades in everyone's hands left marks on the pagoda. If one strike couldn't cut off a brick, then two strikes. If two strikes still couldn't cut it off, then three strikes!

With this mentality, as if possessed by the god of war, everyone seemed invigorated and unstoppable.

Pa!

A cornice fell.

Bang!

A door was kicked down.

Soon, the divine tower in everyone's hearts became incomplete and dilapidated. At this moment, Holy Spirit Goldfeather was unable to maintain his human form anymore. He looked like a ball of smoke floating in the far north. Only his eyes had yet to disappear.

At this moment, those eyes were looking at Yu Huang's ocarina in disbelief.

Others didn't know what had just happened, but he knew.

He had just heard the Slaughter Song!

The Slaughter Song was one of Kunlun's ultimate techniques. In the ancient era, the Divine Phoenix Divine Master was the most powerful Divine Master among the gods. Back then, Kunlun used the Slaughter Song to lead the ten direct disciples of the Kunlun Palace to draw a tie with the Divine Phoenix Divine Master.

After that battle, there was a place for Kunlun among the peak Divine Masters.

How did this Slaughter Song reach Yu Huang's hands?

Ever since he discovered that Yu Huang had awakened the power of the Divine Master, Holy Spirit Goldfeather had been secretly observing her. According to what he knew, Yu Huang didn't know this Slaughter Song in the past. After the trip to the Kunlun Mystic Realm ended, she suddenly knew how to play this Slaughter Song.

Could it be –

Could it be that the Kunlun Divine Master had escaped to his small world after his death like him?

Kunlun Divine Master wasn't dead yet?

Just as this thought flashed through his mind, Holy Spirit Goldfeather suddenly heard a crack.

He looked up and saw through the dark clouds that the Central Pagoda had been cut off from the center of the pagoda under the combined attack of Mo Xiao and the others!

His divine-grade Spirit Tool was gone!

Boom!

A tall tower quickly rushed towards the far north from the dark clouds.

Lin Jiansheng noticed this scene and roared, "Move aside!" With that said, he raised the Purifying Spirit Scepter in his hand and slapped the confused Beast Tamers standing in front of the Central Pagoda far away.

In the next second, the top of the tower fell from the sky and slammed into the ground.

The diagonally cut tower was inserted into the black soil, and the top of the tower was leaning against the bottom of the tower.

The two collided. In the end, they collapsed together and fell towards the continent in the far north.

Bang!

The huge object landed on the ground and shook the far north.

Yu Huang and the others flew up. It was only when they flew to a height of more than two thousand meters that they could clearly see the Central Pagoda lying on the ground. The pagoda at the bottom of the pagoda was about two thousand meters long, and the section of the pagoda where the top of the pagoda was was actually ten thousand meters long!

It turned out that the total length of this Central Pagoda was 12,000 meters.

However, because the top of the tower was hidden in the dark clouds, and there was no oxygen in the dark clouds, and it was constantly releasing poisonous gas that even Beast Tamers couldn't withstand, no one had ever really seen the top of the Central Pagoda.

Staring at the collapsed tower, Sheng Xiao asked in a hoarse voice, "We succeeded?" He couldn't believe that they had really destroyed the Central Pagoda.

Nodding heavily, Yu Huang held Sheng Xiao's hand and said, "We succeeded."

They had succeeded.

The remaining soul power of Holy Spirit Goldfeather completely disappeared from the world as the Central Pagoda collapsed.

Before he disappeared, everyone heard his indignant roar.

"I can't accept this!!!"

But he still disappeared.

After losing the power of faith, he was weaker than any soul body.

Seeing that the soul of Holy Spirit Goldfeather had finally been destroyed, the Beast Tamers all hugged the people beside them excitedly. They hammered and cheered at their companions to celebrate the death of Holy Spirit Goldfeather.

The Creator had died.

As if they were sad about the death of the Creator, dark clouds suddenly covered the sky. Immediately after, heavy rain fell.

Under the heavy rain, the Central Pagoda suddenly began to spit things out. It first spat out countless corpses that had yet to completely rot. They were the corpses of the people who originally lived on the Jade Illusion Continent. Those corpses piled up in the far north, making one's scalp tingle.

In the end, it spat out more than a thousand Beast Tamers in the Yin Clan's uniform.

"It's the First Elder!" Yu Huang hurriedly ran to the First Elder's side. When she got closer, she realized that the First Elder and the others were still breathing!

She shouted in surprise, "The First Elder and the others are still alive!" Hearing this, the Beast Tamers who were good at healing ran to the Yin Clan's side and began to treat them.

After the Central Pagoda spat out the bodies of the Yin Clan's people, there was nothing else in the Central Pagoda.

The rain became heavier.

At this moment, a large amount of black grievous energy floated out of the Central Pagoda. When the fog dissipated, the Central Pagoda actually disappeared. It turned into two mountain ranges formed by white bones!

The Central Pagoda was really refined from the bodies of all the disciples of the Holy Spirit Palace!

Looking at the white bones on the ground, Sheng Lingfeng sighed and took the initiative to bow to the undead who had died unjustly.

Seeing this, Yu Huang and the others also bowed.

After standing up straight, Sheng Lingfeng turned around and said to Lin Jiansheng, "God Ling Xiao, Lord Purifying Spirit Masters, please help these people who died tragically purify their spirits!" Upon hearing Sheng Lingfeng's words, Lin Jiansheng led all the high-level Purifying Spirit Masters to the side of the skeleton mountain range and chanted the Purifying Spirit Incantation to purify the undead who had been killed by Holy Spirit Goldfeather.

Level 7 Purifying Spirit Masters were considered high-level Purifying Spirit Masters.

Yu Huang, a Level 6 Purifying Spirit Master, was also helping Purifying Spirit because of her special identity.

This Spirit Purification Ceremony lasted for eight hours.

When the spirit purification ended, the sky lit up.

The scorching sun rose as usual.

Sunlight shone on the Holy Spirit Continent. For the first time, it pierced through the dark clouds in the far north and landed on this black soil. The terpsichorean flowers that had been knocked down by the heavy rain bloomed. Under the scorching sun, they actually looked quite cute.

The black poisonous gas that always filled the far north slowly faded under the scorching sun.

The far north finally welcomed life.

Chapter 984: Racial Conflict

Looking at the flowers all over the ground, Yu Huang sighed and said, "This is the first time I've realized that the flowers under the sunlight are actually so beautiful." The flowers didn't have leaves or branches. On a thin flower branch, a black flower bloomed.

There was only one flower on the flower branch.

They grew by absorbing the nutrients of the white bones in the Central Pagoda. After ten thousand years of growth, they had already spread to the entire far north.

The far north was dyed black by the souls in the Central Pagoda and could no longer grow other plants.

Suddenly, Mo Xiao said to Yu Huang, "Ah Huang, cremate these corpses." He wanted her to burn the corpses of the Holy Spirit Palace's people and the corpses of the poor commoners and Beast Tamers on the Jade Illusion Continent.

"... Okay."

Yu Huang and Ji Linyuan released the Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame at the same time.

As soon as the Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame landed on the people of the Holy Spirit Palace and the commoners of the Jade Illusion Continent, it quickly started burning.

That smell was extremely unpleasant.

Soon, the bones piled up on the ground turned into piles of ashes with some broken bones inside.

A breeze blew past and lifted the grayish-white ashes into the sky. They passed through Yu Huang and the others' bodies like a sandstorm and landed in every corner of the far north.

"The ground under your feet!" Lin Jiansheng said.

Hearing this, everyone hurriedly lowered their heads to look at the ground under their feet.

However, they realized that the originally black soil had returned to its original color.

Staring at the mud-yellow soil, Lin Jiansheng sighed and said, "The vengeful spirits trapped in the far north have already reincarnated. Their clean ashes have washed away the sins in the far north."

The far north was finally free.

Sheng Lingfeng stared at the spot where the Central Pagoda had once stood and said, "We should erect a monument here to commemorate the people of the Holy Spirit Palace, the Jade Illusion Continent people who sacrificed themselves, and all the Beast Tamers who sacrificed their lives for this battle."

At this point, Sheng Lingfeng turned around and looked at Mo Xiao, Dino, and the other experts. He asked humbly, "Everyone, I wonder what name we should choose for this battle?"

Di Ruofeng looked at Mo Xiao and pinched the beard on his chin as he said in a low voice, "God Slaying Battle."

"God Slaying Battle?" Sheng Lingfeng was stunned.

The Creator had already died.

However, Sheng Lingfeng still felt his heart palpitate when he heard the words 'God Slaying'.

"I think this name is very good." Mo Xiao completely agreed with Di Ruofeng.

Dino didn't comment.

Sheng Lingfeng said, "The principal is right. God-slaying is the goal of our battle, so it should be called the God Slaying Battle."

* *

After the battle ended, it was time for everyone to go home.

However, the Beast Tamer warriors of the four races and the super demon beasts of the abyss still stood on the spot and didn't leave.

The atmosphere suddenly became awkward.

Behind, there Xiao Shu stood a large group of powerful super demon beasts in different forms. Seeing that the Beast Tamers of the four races were staring at them, these super demon beasts approached Xiao Shu and stared at these Beast Tamers with vigilant and hostile gazes.

When Holy Spirit Goldfeather was alive, they were good combat companions.

As soon as Holy Spirit Goldfeather died, they became two irreconcilable camps.

She Ying, who was in human form, was one of the three experts of the Abyssal Demon Beasts.

At this moment, the battle had ended. She Ying transformed into a human and stood beside Xiao Shu. She was wearing a black leather jacket and a pair of tight jeans with a low fit. Her combat boots were around her sexy calves, while her red negligee wrapped tightly around her plump and sexy breasts.

Her long hair was draped behind her shoulders. She looked very charming as she stood there.

Seeing that the Beast Tamers of the four races were all staring at their demon beast race with an unfriendly gaze, She Ying snorted coldly and curled her finger at Mo Xiao. "Little fox, follow me back to the abyss."

Sheng Lingfeng and the others frowned.

However, in the next second, Mo Xiao actually walked out of the human Beast Tamer camp. His footsteps were firm as he walked to She Ying's side without hesitation.

One of them was beautiful and charming, while the other was handsome and peerless.

They were two types of people with different styles, but when they stood together, they looked so compatible.

They were a match made in heaven.

Looking at Sheng Lingfeng and the others, Mo Xiao was very calm as he said, "I'm sorry for hiding my identity from everyone. I'm not a human. I was originally a member of the Nine-Tailed Clan of the Demon Beast Continent. I escaped to the Holy Spirit Continent by accident." With that said, Mo Xiao held She Ying's hand and said, "The four clans probably don't have a place for us to stay. I'm willing to live in the abyss with my beloved wife."

She Ying was stunned when she heard the words 'beloved wife'.

She looked up at Mo Xiao.

However, Mo Xiao didn't respond to her. He was still staring at Sheng Lingfeng and the others while waiting for their reply.

She Ying lowered her head and watched as Mo Xiao held her hand. Her ears turned red.

If it weren't for the fact that there were so many people around, she would have hugged Mo Xiao and taken a few hard bites.

Hearing Mo Xiao's words, Sheng Lingfeng and the others weren't in a hurry to answer.

Mo Xiao's request to stay in the abyss for a long time was to warn Sheng Lingfeng and the others that the Beast Tamers of the four races could never take another step into the abyss.

Xiao Shu suddenly snorted when the Beast Tamers didn't express their stance for a long time.

"Ten thousand years ago, Goldfeather Nana defeated me with despicable methods and exterminated our demon beast race. I will always remember this." Xiao Shu looked at the group of demons behind him as he said, "At that time, there were countless super demon beasts on the Holy Spirit Continent, but now, there are only a few dozen left. We have already been forced into the Abyssal Origin Forest by you guys. If you guys want to exterminate us, then..."

Xiao Shu suddenly transformed into a Fire Unicorn.

Now, although his cultivation level was still very weak, he had already begun to possess the might of the Lord of All Demons. The red fur on his body fluttered without any wind, and his dignified voice spread throughout the entire far north. "If any Beast Tamer dares to come uninvited and take a step into the abyss, the Abyssal World Wall will be pushed forward a thousand miles away!"

Outside the abyss, there was an arc-shaped boundary wall. It completely isolated the Abyssal Origin Forest from the Holy Spirit Continent.

The Abyssal World Wall was inside the realm wall.

The territory of the four races was outside the realm wall.

Xiao Shu was warning the Beast Tamers of the four races.

If a Beast Tamer dared to intrude upon the abyss, even if he only took a step into the abyssal territory, Xiao Shu would lead all the demon beasts in the abyss to kill the four races.

Sheng Lingfeng's expression changed slightly.

At this moment, Dino suddenly said, "If the super demon beasts no longer come out to do evil, I can promise you that I definitely won't let any Beast Tamer step into the abyss."

Seeing that Dino had expressed his stance, Xiao Shu looked at Sheng Lingfeng, the Elven King, Di Ruofeng, and the other powerhouses and asked, "Prime Emperor Dino has already agreed to my suggestion. I wonder if everyone else agrees?"

Chapter 985: Xiao Shu: Be My Wife

The Elven King, Di Ruofeng, and the others looked at Sheng Lingfeng.

Clearly, they all planned to follow Sheng Lingfeng's decision.

Sheng Lingfeng pondered for a moment before nodding. "I agree." As he spoke, he turned around and bowed to Mo Xiao and Dino. Sheng Lingfeng said, "Why don't we ask Prime Master Mo Xiao and Prime Emperor Dino to set up a barrier on both sides of the Abyssal World Wall? This way, no demon beast or Beast Tamer can enter each other's territory."

"Sure." Xiao Shu was satisfied with Sheng Lingfeng's suggestion.

Mo Xiao and Dino thought about it carefully and agreed.

After settling this matter, Xiao Shu suddenly looked at Yin Rong, who was beside Yu Huang. He transformed into his human form again and walked towards Yin Rong.

When she saw him approach her step by step under the gazes of everyone, Yin Rong's heart suddenly started racing.

She subconsciously pinched the Yin Clan's uniform.

Yin Rong already had a premonition about what Xiao Shu wanted to do next.

As expected, Xiao Shu stopped in front of Yin Rong and stared at her affectionately as he said, "Today, my clansmen and your clansmen are all here."

Yin Rong subconsciously nodded and asked in a daze, "Are you going to marry me?"

The corners of Yu Huang's mouth twitched.

Xiao Shu was also stunned.

At this moment, Yin Rong realized what stupid thing she had said.

Her beautiful face instantly turned red.

"Yes, I want to marry you." Xiao Shu glanced at Yu Huang and smiled. Then, he looked at Yin Rong again and said, "On the day I graduated from the Holy Spirit Academy, I promised our mutual friend that I would marry you after the battle is over."

"Now that the battle is over, you and I are still alive, so..."

Xiao Shu suddenly took off an ancient-looking key from his neck. He knelt on one knee and raised the key to Yin Rong. "When we abyssal demon beasts propose to our spouse, we will give the key to our cave abode to the other party. Rong'er." Xiao Shu's eyes flickered as he asked hesitantly and nervously, "Are you willing to accept the key to my cave abode and be the wife of the Lord of All Demons?"

Yin Rong was a novelist and loved to fantasize about all kinds of creative plots.

At her age, Yin Rong had imagined countless times already the scene when she was proposed to by the man she loved.

She had fantasized about being given a ring by her lover in the rose field. She had also fantasized about being given a ring by her lover under the starry sky on the rooftop of the Imperial Capital Hotel...

Yin Rong, who had a wild imagination, had fantasized about proposals more than a hundred times already.

The only thing she didn't expect was that she would be deeply loved by a demon beast and even receive the key to its cave abode.

Yin Rong stared at the key and lowered her eyes to look at Xiao Shu.

Xiao Shu's face was filled with nervousness.

The Lord of All Demons was nervous.

The others, be it the Beast Tamers or the super demon beasts, looked at them with amusement.

Yin Rong suddenly tilted her head and asked Yu Huang, "Patriarch, do you agree to this?"

Yin Rong had the direct bloodline of the Yin Clan. She had always been a member of the Yin Clan.

Whether she married Xiao Shu or not depended on Yu Huang's opinion.

Yu Huang was stunned when she heard Yin Rong's question.

She didn't expect Yin Rong to value her opinion so much.

Why did she feel as if her own daughter was getting married?

Under Xiao Shu's nervous gaze, Yu Huang nodded and expressed her stance. "If you think he's a good match, then marry him. Even if I don't agree, even if the world objects, you have to marry him."

Yin Rong was relieved.

She accepted the key to Xiao Shu's cave abode without hesitation and said to him, "I'm not used to sleeping on a stone bed. You have to prepare a soft bed for me." She had heard that the demon beasts' cave abodes were entirely composed of hard stones. Yin Rong couldn't stand it.

Hearing this, Xiao Shu immediately stood up, picked Yin Rong up, and spun her around. Then, he smiled and said, "Alright, I'll change the bed. If you're not used to it, I'll spread gold all over the cave abode!"

Yin Rong was speechless.

Seeing that Xiao Shu had successfully married Yin Rong, the young Beast Tamers felt jealous.

Yin Rong was a beauty.

She was young, beautiful, gentle, talented, and from the Yin Clan.

Yin Rong was the crush of many unmarried young men.

At the thought of such a beautiful girl being monopolized by a demon beast, they were all indignant.

Damn!

Beauty with a beast.

He was unworthy of her!

Unlike the angry Beast Tamer youths, the super demon beasts were proud that Xiao Shu could marry her, especially the lecherous Pixiu Demon. When he saw that the wife of the Lord of All Demons was so beautiful, he immediately felt proud.

He subconsciously looked in the direction of the Light Elven Warrior. Just as his gaze landed on the handsome Donor, he was discovered by him.

Donor glared at him fiercely.

The Pixiu Demon had the illusion that Donor was winking at him.

Its heart started racing.

That was the feeling of being in love.

Donor was disgusted. He hurriedly pulled Estelle over and shielded himself.

Estelle stared at the Pixiu Demon with a cold expression.

When the Pixiu Demon saw Estelle, it immediately lost interest.

Tsk.

He was so ugly.

After witnessing the proposal, everyone had mixed feelings.

Suddenly, Yu Huang said, "One of you is the Lord of All Demons, and the other is the Beast Tamer of the Yin Clan. What should we do about this wedding?" Yu Huang glanced at Sheng Lingfeng and said, "Prime Master Lingfeng, she is the genius disciple of the Yin Clan, so the Yin Clan naturally has to marry her off gloriously. We can't just throw the bride and dowry outside the realm wall."

Everyone was speechless.

Sheng Lingfeng was stumped by Yu Huang's question.

This was his daughter-in-law.

If he offended his daughter-in-law, wouldn't his son suffer?

Sheng Lingfeng looked at Lan Yao helplessly.

He always delegated such matters to his wife.

Lan Yao looked at Yu Huang in amusement. "Isn't that easy?" She cupped her hands at Mo Xiao and Dino and said, "Why don't we hold this wedding before the two of you set up the barrier line?!"

Hearing this, Yu Huang asked again, "Then what should I do if Yin Rong wants to return to her maiden home in the future?" She blinked at Mo Xiao and continued, "You're already so old, but you don't have a child. As your adopted daughter, I have to go to your cave abode to visit, right? With the barrier line, how can I visit you in the future?"

Sheng Xiao finally understood what Yu Huang was doing.

Sheng Xiao took the initiative to walk to Yu Huang's side. He bowed to the Prime Masters in front of him and looked at the super demon beasts opposite him. Then, he said, "I think it's inappropriate to use the barrier to completely cut off the communication between the demon beast race and the cultivation world."

Yu Huang looked at Sheng Xiao silently.

She knew that this fellow could understand her thoughts.

Chapter 986: Everyone Is a Treasure

But when Sheng Lingfeng heard Sheng Xiao's words, he thought that Sheng Xiao was messing around. He scolded him, "Xiao'er, what nonsense are you talking about?!"

Dino said to Sheng Lingfeng, "Prime Master Lingfeng, let this child finish his words."

Xiao Shu asked Sheng Xiao, "What's wrong with it?"

The powerhouses from both sides were interested in Sheng Xiao's words. Sheng Lingfeng couldn't stop them, so he could only compromise. "Tell us."

Nodding, Sheng Xiao said, "Although the Abyssal Origin Forest is large, there are also many demon beasts living in the primitive forest. In the future, when Beast Tamers can't enter the Abyssal Origin Forest, the reproduction speed of the demon beasts will definitely increase greatly. Perhaps the abyssal demon beasts will despise the abyss for being too small in ten years or a hundred years.”

“The Abyssal Origin Forest is so small, but the Holy Spirit Continent is so big. At that time, who can guarantee that the demon beasts will not take the initiative to break the contract and start a war to invade the Holy Spirit Continent?”

Xiao Shu’s lips subconsciously parted when he heard this. He wanted to say that he could guarantee that they would never invade the land outside of the Abyssal Origin Forest.

But in the end, he didn’t.

Because he understood that Sheng Xiao was telling the truth.

When the number of demon beasts increased and their strength increased, their ambition would also increase.

At that time, they definitely wouldn’t be satisfied with the current situation.

“That’s not all.” Sheng Xiao looked at his clansmen and said, “Who doesn’t know that there are many natural treasures in the Abyssal Origin Forest? If our family and friends are sick, if someone’s child needs spiritual herbs and spiritual fruits, who can guarantee that they won’t covet the treasures in the Abyssal Origin Forest?”

The Beast Tamers of the four races fell silent.

Both sides looked at Sheng Xiao at the same time.

Xiao Shu and Dino asked at the same time, “What suggestion do you have?”

Sheng Xiao smiled and said, “We haven’t been able to kill them completely even after tens of millions of years. This is enough to prove that it’s impossible for us to get rid of them completely. Besides, the Holy Spirit Continent is the home of all living beings. The humans, elves, beastmen, and merfolk of the Hundred Beast Continent are all children of the Holy Spirit Continent. Similarly, the demon beasts are also children of the Holy Spirit Continent.”

“We should share resources to begin with. Even the four races fight amongst ourselves for resources, let alone the demon beast race.”

After a pause, Sheng Xiao finally said his true thoughts. “What I want to say is that instead of thinking of a way to stop the communication between the demon beasts and the four races, it’s better to try to accept each other.”

Xiao Shu fell silent after hearing Sheng Xiao’s words. Dino, Sheng Lingfeng, and the others lowered their eyes and pondered over it.

Mo Xiao suddenly laughed.

Sheng Xiao looked at him in confusion when he heard his laughter. However, he was still determined. “Grand State Master, what I said might sound ridiculous and naive, but it might be feasible.”

Mo Xiao laughed loudly as he clapped his hands. He marveled, "When it comes to the coexistence of the demon beast race and the four races, child, you have more foresight than your father."

Sheng Xiao was flattered while Sheng Lingfeng felt ashamed.

Sheng Lingfeng humbly asked Mo Xiao, "Grand State Master, what do you think of Xiao'er's suggestion?" The Beast Tamers always respected and trusted Mo Xiao. Even though they knew that he was a nine-tailed fox, they still admired him.

Mo Xiao smiled and said, "If I said that after the joint efforts of the four races and the demon beast race, we did successfully accept each other and start sharing resources, would you believe me?"

The warriors of the four races were stunned.

The Beast Tamers looked at the terrifying super demon beasts, and the super demon beasts also looked at the weak-looking Beast Tamers opposite them. For a moment, they couldn't believe that one day, they would share resources and get along peacefully.

Mo Xiao told them, "The future that Sheng Xiao fantasized about has been realized on a continent in the three thousand worlds." Then, Mo Xiao suddenly called on Lan Yao. "Madam Sheng, you're from the Demon Beast Continent. Tell me, how do the demon beasts of the Demon Beast Continent interact with the humans?"

Lan Yao hesitated for a moment before saying, "On the Demon Beast Continent, we demon beasts have indeed reached a peaceful coexistence with the human race. In the beginning, the demon beast race had tried to exterminate the human race, but they had never succeeded. Later, under the advocacy of a wise person, the demon beast race tried to accept the existence of the human race."

"Now, humans can be seen in every city where demon beasts live. Because humans are smart and social, they built homes for demon beasts, designed all kinds of high-tech weapons, and planted many delicious food. Their existence greatly improved the lives of the demon beasts."

After saying that, Lan Yao looked at the super demon beast camp. Her beautiful almond-shaped eyes flashed as she said, "We can indeed try to accept the demon beast race. The reason the demon beast race eats humans is that they don't know how to plant food. The demon beast race is belligerent because the Beast Tamers invaded their home."

"If the four races can provide food to the demon beast race and help them build their homes and live, they can also use their special abilities to help us!"

"That's right!" Mo Xiao pointed at the super demon beasts behind the Pixiu Demon. They were two dinosaur demon beasts with red fur all over their bodies and bodies as large as hills. He said, "For example, the Inferno Dinosaurs of our Demon Beast Clan are pure fire-type demon beasts. The amount of energy in their bodies is huge, and they can use firepower to generate electricity!"

The two Inferno Dinosaurs pointed at by Mo Xiao were stunned.

What did he mean?

Let them generate electricity?

They could release flames that could easily burn the entire primitive forest. Despite their impressive and powerful skill, he merely wanted them to generate electricity?

Mo Xiao pointed at the Pixiu Demon again and said, "He has three heads and three hearts. Each head has its own independent heart. He can act in movies and be a special actor. He might be able to become a superstar!"

The Pixiu Demon was speechless.

Next, Mo Xiao told them about the uniqueness of the other demon beasts. After Mo Xiao told them, the Beast Tamers looked at the super demon beasts in a new light.

From the looks of it, as long as these super demon beasts didn't kill people, they all seemed to be treasures!

At this moment, Yu Huang silently raised her hand and said, "The Yin Clan's Eight Towers Mountain Range is filled with spiritual energy and the soil is fertile. I can hire a group of agricultural experts to nurture vegetables that are most suitable for you all according to the dietary characteristics of the demon beast clansmen. Cooked food is better than raw meat."

Hearing this, some gluttonous demon beasts in the demon beast race felt tempted.

Then, the Elven King actually took the initiative to speak. He said, "The vegetables cultivated by us elves are the most delicious. Demon beasts who like to eat vegetables can come to the Light Sea to settle down."

Then, the Beast Tamers from all over started saying what they could do for the Demon Beast Clan.

In the end, the Patriarch of the Teng family of the Blazing Realm Continent actually said, "An ancestor of the Teng family brought back a giant from the Upper World eight hundred years ago. She was a tall and sturdy woman. She's!"

After a suspicious silence, the Teng family's patriarch glanced at the Pixiu Demon and said hesitantly, "She despised the human race for being ugly and weak. She had always wanted to find a powerful and devoted demon beast as her husband. This Pixiu Demon also happens to have extraordinary strength. It's obvious that she's a loyal person. If you're willing, you can meet her. If you like her, you can start a family with her."

The Pixiu Demon's eyes widened!

Wife!

Wife!

The lecherous Pixiu Demon, who had been single for more than ten thousand years, hurriedly looked at Xiao Shu and couldn't help but roar, "My Lord, will you allow me to go on a blind date?"

Xiao Shu was speechless.

Despite seeing that the super demon beasts were being coaxed by these hypocritical and despicable Beast Tamers, Xiao Shu was unmoved.

Xiao Shu suddenly walked to Mo Xiao's side and said respectfully, "Grand State Master, you're my most trusted senior and I'm very grateful for your care. I want to ask you, will the demon beast race and the four races really be able to coexist peacefully one day?"

Without waiting for Mo Xiao to answer, Xiao Shu continued, "Grand State Master, in the past, I almost got the entire demon beast race wiped out because I trusted humans. I'm really afraid now. Tell me, can we take another risk?"

Hearing this, the super demon beasts calmed down.

Chapter 987: The Five Clans Shake Hands and Talk

Xiao Shu's question to the Nine-Tailed Fox was like a bucket of cold water poured on the heads of super demon beasts. It immediately made them come back to their senses.

They immediately calmed down.

After carefully thinking about the flattery these Beast Tamers had showered them with, they felt that these Beast Tamers were even more hypocritical and despicable.

How were these Beast Tamers' current actions different from Goldfeather Nana lying to the Lord of All Demons back then?

Most of the super demon beasts present were old demons who had lived for ten thousand years. They had all experienced the battle ten thousand years ago.

They had always hated these Beast Tamers.

They were descendants nurtured by Goldfeather Nana. Goldfeather Nana's despicable and cunning genes flowed in their blood.

Just now, they actually believed in these Beast Tamers' words.

The reason they believed the Beast Tamers' words wasn't because they were stupid and easy to deceive. It was because Sheng Xiao's words made them realize that if the demon beast race and the four races continued to fight like this, both sides would suffer.

Moreover, as the Creator, Holy Spirit Goldfeather had already died, so the spiritual power of the Holy Spirit Continent would quickly be exhausted.

On the Holy Spirit Continent, where spiritual power was sparse, it was impossible for the demon beast race to regain their former glory.

Therefore, for the sake of their descendants and the future of the Demon Beast Clan, they could only put down their grudges and strive to make peace with the four clans.

Xiao Shu looked at Mo Xiao with trust.

After being betrayed by Goldfeather Nana once, he really didn't dare to trust the Beast Tamers anymore. However, he was still willing to trust Mo Xiao for once.

Firstly, they were both demon beasts. Secondly, Mo Xiao was a wise person, different from those cunning Beast Tamers.

Seeing the trust in Xiao Shu's eyes, Mo Xiao raised his right hand and gently stroked Xiao Shu's long red hair as he said, "Yes!"

Just one word was enough to express his attitude.

Hearing Mo Xiao's answer, Xiao Shu lowered his eyes and sighed. "I understand."

If the Demon Beast Clan could get along peacefully with the four clans, he was willing to take another risk.

Xiao Shu turned around. Xiao Shu's dignified and cold gaze landed on Sheng Lingfeng, Dino, and the other experts again as he said, "The demon beast race is very willing to get along peacefully with the four races and share resources. But I have a request!"

The powerhouses exchanged looks before Sheng Lingfeng said, "I wonder what other requests you have. We are willing to hear them."

Nodding his head, Xiao Shu said in a neutral tone, "I will never believe any promises made by you Beast Tamers again. If everyone sincerely wants to accept the Demon Beast Clan and reach a state of peaceful coexistence with our Demon Beast Clan, then I suggest that each clan elect a few Beast Tamer representatives. Let's sit down and draft a detailed peace treaty for the various situations that might arise from the coexistence of the five clans."

After a pause, Xiao Shu looked at the Beast Tamers standing behind Sheng Lingfeng and the others. His attitude suddenly became unyielding as he said, "After the peace treaty is drawn up, all the Beast Tamers of the various races and all the demon beasts in the abyss that have condensed Monster Cores must sign the contract and swear on their Beast Souls and the souls of their ancestors that they will abide by the contract. If anyone dares to violate the contract, their entire clan will be exterminated!"

Once bitten, twice shy.

Goldfeather Nana's betrayal traumatized Xiao Shu.

He was willing to get along with the four races, but he wouldn't trust people that easily.

For this, he had no choice but to make this request.

When the Beast Tamers heard Xiao Shu's suggestion, they fell silent.

Using the souls of their ancestors and their own Beast Souls to swear an oath meant it couldn't be violated. If they did, they would definitely suffer divine retribution.

Who would dare to agree so easily?

The Beast Tamers' reactions made Xiao Shu mock, "Heh, when it's time for you guys to show your determination, all of you become cowards."

The four races were indeed as despicable and cunning as ever!

Just as Xiao Shu lost his good impression of the Beast Tamers again, a clear and deep voice sounded from the Sheng family's camp—

"I agree." It was Sheng Xiao's voice.

Immediately after, Yu Huang said, "The Yin Clan also agrees."

The two of them said at almost the same time.

Xiao Shu looked at them with a gentle gaze.

Sheng Lingfeng looked at his son and daughter-in-law helplessly.

His son and daughter-in-law had grown up and were very independent now. As a father, he was both relieved and helpless.

Shaking his head, Sheng Lingfeng said, "The Sheng family agrees with the Lord of All Demons' suggestion."

Since the Sheng family, the number one family in the cultivation world, had expressed their stance, the other families also expressed their stance.

"We agree too."

...

That night, all the Beast Tamer warriors left the far north and returned to their hometown.

Only a group of Beast Tamers were left in charge of the construction of the monument.

The next morning, the five clans sent a total of 11 representatives to hold a secret meeting for three days and three nights in Conference Room 1 of the Alliance Headquarters Building.

These 11 representatives were Xiao Shu and Mo Xiao of the Demon Beast Clan, Sheng Lingfeng and Di Ruofeng of the Human Clan, Grand Master Bai Xi and Grand Master Dietrich of the Beast Clan, Prime Emperor Dino of the Merman Clan, Carasso of the Elve Clan, and His Majesty.

Three days later, at noon, a document with the "Five Races Peace Treaty" written on it was sent from the secretary's office of the Alliance Headquarters to every Beast Tamer's email.

At two in the afternoon that day, a live broadcast was held on the Beast Tamer official website.

The 11 experts representing the five races appeared in Conference Room 3 of the Alliance Headquarters Building together. Under the live broadcast camera, they signed the peace treaty between the five races and swore in public that they would always abide by and support the peace treaty.

Then, the 11 representatives shook hands and made peace.

The scene of them shaking hands was captured by the reporters and quickly broadcasted through all the major television stations.

Soon, all the citizens of the Holy Spirit Continent knew that the Demon Beast Clan was about to leave the Abyssal Origin Forest and live with the four clans.

To be honest, when they first heard this ridiculous news, the commoners felt uneasy. They were afraid that if they went out to throw trash at night, they would be eaten by hungry and cruel demon beasts.

Panic spread among the crowd, and this emotion was magnified infinitely on social media.

Vivian saw screenshots of the terrifying comments posted by the netizens on various social media platforms and sent them to Yu Huang. After seeing the screenshots of all kinds of conspiracy theories, Yu Huang shook her head and opened her Weibo account, which she hadn't logged in for a long time.

On this day, Yu Huang's Weibo had an update for the first time in a few years—

Yu Huang V: "In the vast and boundless universe, there is a planet called Earth. Humans are the rulers of that planet. In the understanding of Earthlings, humans with two wings are monsters. Humans with human bodies, ponytails, snake tails, lion heads, and human bodies are also monsters. Mermen with human bodies and fishtails are also monsters."

In the eyes of Earthlings, the Holy Spirit Continent, where the four races could coexist, was an absurd and terrifying world.

Everyone, why don't you all calm down and focus on living your current life? When you're old and look back at your youth, you might have a different state of mind.]

Yu Huang was implicitly mocking these netizens for being short-sighted and intolerant.

Seeing Yu Huang's words, the wise people stopped reading the comments on social media and began to consider the entire matter in a rational manner.

As for the idiots, in exasperation, they left comments insulting Yu Huang.

They kept cursing Yu Huang and even her mother. When they clicked to confirm sending the message, they saw a notification pop up on their phone screen—

Your message contains sensitive vulgar words. Please re-edit it.

Everyone: Damn!

...

No matter how much the commoners objected to the fact that they were afraid of the Demon Beast Clan integrating into the lives of the four clans, the peace treaty had already been signed. They had no choice but to accept the existence of the Demon Beast Clan.

Half a month later, under the witness of the reporters, media, and countless Beast Tamers, the boundary wall that had stood outside the Abyssal Origin Forest for ten thousand years was pushed down by the 11 representatives.

Boom!

The wall fell, sending dust flying.

After the dust settled, the demon beasts standing inside the wall couldn't help but look outside of the wall. The Beast Tamers standing outside the wall also looked inside curiously.

They were all extremely curious about the environment that the other party lived in.

After ten thousand years, the Demon Beast Clan met the Beast Tamers of the four clans again.

The last time they met, blood flowed like a river.

This time, they shook hands and made up.

Chapter 988: The Sky Penetrating Bridge Is The Path Paved By Our Predecessors With White Bones

After the wall was pushed down, the demon beasts arrived at Rakshasa City under the lead of the leaders of the various factions and walked to a skyscraper called the 'Demonic Power Test Building'.

When the usually fierce mercenaries saw this group of huge demon beasts riding crutches, they immediately walked obediently to the eaves on both sides of the street. They were afraid that they would be accidentally trampled to death by these super demon beasts.

The staff had built a square at the entrance of the building. In front of the square, there was a test device. The demon beasts had to undergo the demonic power test here and wait for the distribution of work.

"Red Viper Snake, a low-level demon beast. Demonic power test: poison attribute." The staff member was a Grand Master expert. He stared at the small Red Viper Snake and was silent for a while before saying, "Your venom can take a person's life in three seconds. I wonder if you're willing to be a prison police officer outside the Beast Tamer Prison? If anyone dares to break out of prison, bite them directly."

Upon hearing this, the Red Viper Snake, who didn't understand human language, stuck out its tongue at the staff member, as if it was asking something.

The boss was about to translate when the staff instantly understood what the Red Viper Snake meant. He said, "Are you asking about the salary and treatment? The prison policemen work three shifts for eight hours. They take two days off every week. Their salary is 10,000 spirit stones a month. They are provided with three meals a day and accommodation. Oh right, they also have a chance to travel abroad every year."

Upon hearing this, the Red Viper Snake immediately slid to the front of the table and threw its tongue on the mud before making its unique signature on the employment contract.

What a good job.

Just like that, the Abyssal Demon Beasts found jobs that were suitable for them.

Only a third of the demon beasts were sent to the territories where the four races lived to work because of their demonic power. The remaining two-thirds of the demon beasts moved to the Jade Illusion Continent to live under the organization of the Beast Tamer Alliance.

Xiao Shu brought a group of demon beasts to the Jade Illusion Continent.

At Mo Xiao's suggestion, Xiao Shu transformed the largest school in the Jade Illusion Continent into a demon beast academy. Mo Xiao was the principal, while Xiao Shu was the disciplinary director. A group of illiterate demon beasts had to come to school to study after work every day.

Although these demon beasts looked fierce and powerful, it would take them many days to memorize all the information.

There was a frog demon that was covered in mangy. It was born with a missing tongue and couldn't pronounce the word "two" no matter what.

It always pronounced 'two' as 'y-e-yei'.

It was a pronunciation that Mo Xiao had never heard of before.

"What are you saying?" Mo Xiao held the book in his hand and frowned as he stared at the frog demon. His expression gradually became impatient.

The frog demon was only an intermediate-level demon beast. When it saw Mo Xiao, it trembled nervously.

Seeing that Mo Xiao had lost his temper, the frog demon subconsciously let out a cry. Then, it tried its best to correct its pronunciation. "Yei!"

Mo Xiao couldn't help but feel frustrated.

When Yu Huang came to the Jade Illusion Continent to look for Mo Xiao, Mo Xiao was training that frog demon one-on-one.

He repeated the word '2' over and over again, and the frog demon's pronunciation slowly started to correct itself. Seeing that the frog demon was about to pronounce it correctly, Mo Xiao was about to heave a sigh of relief when he heard the frog demon chant again, "Yo!"

Mo Xiao was speechless.

Mo Xiao kicked the frog demon out of the classroom. The frog demon jumped out of the classroom and heard Mo Xiao scold him resentfully, "Are you stupid?! You've lived for hundreds of years, but you don't even know how to pronounce '2'. How embarrassing!"

What a bunch of idiots!

"Pfft!" This was the first time Yu Huang had seen Mo Xiao lose his temper, so she found it funny.

Hearing a familiar voice, Mo Xiao turned around in surprise and looked at the corridor outside the classroom. When he saw Yu Huang leaning against the railing, he was somewhat shocked. "Ah Huang, you're here?"

Yu Huang strode towards the classroom and sat at the desk. Theh, she said, "Tomorrow is Xiao Shu and Yin Rong's wedding. The Divine Realm Continent is too far from the Jade Illusion Continent. We plan to stay in a hotel and let Xiao Shu go to the hotel to pick up the bride."

Nodding, Mo Xiao said, "Those two children are truly in love. It wasn't easy for them to finally get married."

“Godfather.” Yu Huang stared at the formal suit Mo Xiao was wearing. In order to give off the image of a strict teacher, he even wore a pair of gold-rimmed glasses. He didn’t look like a teacher, but more like a superstar who was going to have a photoshoot.

However, the fingertips of this superstar were covered in traces of paint and chalk.

Yu Huang smiled and asked Mo Xiao, “Godfather, are you planning to be a teacher here forever?”

Mo Xiao lamented in annoyance, “Being a teacher for a year will shorten your lifespan by ten years.”

Yu Huang couldn’t help but laugh again.

When she raised her head again, Yu Huang’s expression became serious. She said in a low voice, “Godfather, there’s no more spiritual power on the Holy Spirit Continent.”

Mo Xiao was arranging his books and fountain pen. When he heard this, he paused.

Raising his head, Mo Xiao revealed a helpless expression as he said, “I expected this outcome when we decided to destroy the Central Pagoda.” Mo Xiao reached out into the air and said, “The spiritual power in this world has indeed disappeared.”

Accompanied by the death of the Creator, the spiritual power the Creator had given to the continent also disappeared.

Yu Huang said, “I went to see Dean Di a few days ago.”

“Dean Di.” Seeing that there was something off with Yu Huang’s expression, Mo Xiao frowned and said, “He’s already starting to age?”

Mo Xiao seemed to have expected that Di Ruofeng would age quickly.

Nodding her head, Yu Huang said sadly, “Yes, his body has become much more hunched, and a lot of the white hair on his head has fallen off. The feeling he gives me now is like that of a withered parasol tree.” After a pause, Yu Huang continued, “Not only him, but many old human Beast Tamers have also aged drastically as well.”

“The elders of the Yin Clan and the elders of the Sheng Clan also look very feeble.”

Yu Huang clenched her fists and said with a sad expression, “Godfather, it won’t be long before the top powerhouses on the continent die.” She looked at Mo Xiao sadly as she asked, “What about you? How much longer can you live?”

Mo Xiao said, “I’m a nine-tailed fox. My lifespan is a little longer than that of humans, but...” He smiled calmly and said, “People will die eventually.”

Seeing that Mo Xiao was already indifferent about life and death, Yu Huang suddenly felt relieved. “You’re right. I’m being too paranoid.”

It wasn’t a pity to die as an ordinary person according to a human’s normal lifespan.

However, at this moment, Yu Huang heard Mo Xiao say, “The old fellows can die, but you youngsters can’t just accept your fate.” Mo Xiao looked out of the classroom and suddenly said, “At the wedding tomorrow, the prodigy Beast Tamers on the continent would all be back, right?”

Looking at the mysterious smile on Mo Xiao’s lips, Yu Huang was a little stunned. “Godfather, are you hiding something from us?”

Yu Huang felt uneasy.

Mo Xiao patted Yu Huang’s head affectionately and said, “You’re familiar with all kinds of array formations. Tell me, among all the array formations, what is the most basic, simple, and unique array formation?”

Yu Huang subconsciously blurted out, “Sky Penetrating Array!”

“That’s right. On the first day you entered the Holy Spirit Academy and studied array formations, Professor Pupu An told you about this Sky Penetrating Array.” Mo Xiao stared at Yu Huang calmly as he said, “With the spiritual power of four Prime Masters and a thousand Grand Masters, you can form a Sky Penetrating Bridge. This bridge can at most carry 12 people to the Great World.”

Mo Xiao flicked his right hand, and a piece of white paper appeared in the void. The names of 12 people were written on it.

Yu Huang, Sheng Xiao, Xiao Shu, Yin Rong, Beatrice, Feng Yuncheng, Estelle, Donor...

This list gathered the names of all the Beast Tamer prodigies on the Holy Spirit Continent.

Looking at every name on the list, Yu Huang was shocked and she couldn’t help but ask worriedly, “What will happen to the four Prime Masters and a thousand Grand Masters after they form the Sky Penetrating Bridge?”

Hearing this, Mo Xiao lowered his eyes and stared at a piece of chalk on the table.

He said, “Chalks dedicate themselves to teaching students. Candles burn themselves to bring light to the world. Seniors naturally should pave the way for the younger generation.” Mo Xiao stared at Yu Huang with a deep gaze as he said, “The Sky Penetrating Bridge will be paved for you guys with their bones.”

Yu Huang was stunned.

“Godfather, can’t you not do this?” In order to send them to the Great World, they had to sacrifice four Prime Masters and a thousand Grand Masters. How cruel was this?

Mo Xiao shook his head and said, “No. Just because we’ve lost contact with the three thousand worlds doesn’t mean that the three thousand worlds will never be able to find us. Don’t forget that the abyss rift and the bottom of the Time Valley are all mysterious areas that connect us to the three thousand worlds. The Great World is moving forward at all times, so if we don’t progress, we’re regressing.”

“What should we do if a powerhouse invades in the future?”

Yu Huang was rendered speechless by Mo Xiao’s question.

Chapter 989 You’re Really a Genius

A strong sense of resistance arose in Yu Huang's heart.

If the path to the Great World was paved with the bones of her predecessors, Yu Huang would rather not go to the Great World.

Staying in the Holy Spirit Continent and dying of old age like all ordinary people, was another form of bliss.

"Godfather, I don't want to go to the Central Pagoda," Yu Huang said.

She just wanted to be an ordinary person.

She wanted a short, ordinary, but fulfilling life.

"You're not going?" Mo Xiao's expression suddenly became cold and serious as he said, "You told me about your fortuitous encounter in the Kunlun Mystic Realm. Then let me ask you, why is it that the Kunlun Mystic Realm, which was also cut off from the Three Thousand Worlds, still has endless spiritual power ten thousand years after the demise of the Kunlun Divine Master?"

Yu Huang was completely stumped by Mo Xiao's question.

She thought about it and said, "Perhaps it's because the Kunlun Mystic Realm wandered into the universe and absorbed the spiritual power there."

"No." Mo Xiao shook his head and said, "The cultivation world shouldn't have no spiritual power. Even if its Creator dies, its spiritual power will only slowly weaken, instead of suddenly disappearing in large quantities. This depletion process will last for at least thousands of years."

This reminded Yu Huang of Earth.

In the records of Earth's civilizations, Earth was also filled with Divine Masters in the ancient era.

However, those Divine Masters suddenly disappeared.

In the ancient era, Nuwa was able to mold humans from mud. She could refine rocks and mend the heavens. At that time, elite guards could fill the sea, and Kua Fu was able to chase the sun. They could work together to move mountains!

Were they really just legends?

If the spiritual power of the Holy Spirit Continent completely disappeared, the descendants who lived tens of millions of years later would probably think that it was just a legend when they heard that people from ten thousand years ago could fly on swords, slash the sky with a sword, and ascend towers.

Perhaps in the past, Earth also had spiritual power, and there was also a group of people with special talent who could cultivate to become Divine Masters.

Just like the current Holy Spirit Continent.

From Mo Xiao's words, there seemed to be a reason why the spiritual power of the Holy Spirit Continent disappeared so quickly. Yu Huang asked hesitantly, "Godfather, what are you suspecting?"

After Mo Xiao wiped the chalk dust off his fingertips, he picked up his textbook and said to Yu Huang, "Since class is over, why don't you accompany me somewhere?"

"Where are we going?" Yu Huang was even more confused.

"Just follow me."

After Mo Xiao grabbed Yu Huang's arm, she realized that she had disappeared from the spot.

She appeared in a pitch-black and chaotic world. Soon, countless intersecting golden grids appeared in that world. Mo Xiao pointed at those grids and said to her, "This network is the Holy Spirit Continent."

Yu Huang looked carefully and indeed discovered that the grid was combined to form the outline of the Holy Spirit Continent.

And these grids were the longitude and latitude lines of the Holy Spirit Continent.

Every horizontal line represented a different place.

Mo Xiao reached out and pressed the center of the longitude and latitude line as he said, "After becoming a Grand Master, we can activate our spiritual power to teleport. The reason we can teleport is because the Holy Spirit Continent's territory has become a map in our eyes."

"Every intersection of horizontal and vertical lines represents a different location. Wherever you go, your spiritual power will activate and you can instantly reach the place you want to go."

As a Supreme Master, this was a skill that Yu Huang had never possessed.

After Mo Xiao finished speaking, he was somewhat curious about Yu Huang's reaction.

Yu Huang stared at the densely packed horizontal and vertical lines as she said, "This is the longitude and latitude line."

Mo Xiao was stunned. "What?"

"Longitude and latitude." Yu Huang pointed at the vertical line and said, "This is longitude, and the horizontal one is the latitude. Between longitudes, the further the distance, the further the geographical location represented. The time difference between them is also greater. This is why the morning of our Divine Moon Empire is the afternoon of the Light Sea."

Mo Xiao was baffled.

As a cultivator, he had never learned geography.

The geographical knowledge in this world was also different from that of Earth.

To Yu Huang, the longitude and latitude line was common knowledge that even elementary school students on Earth knew, but Mo Xiao and the others had never heard of it. In their eyes, the horizontal line was the horizontal line, and the vertical line was the vertical line. They couldn't think of profound terms like longitude and latitude.

After hearing this, Mo Xiao thought even more highly of Yu Huang again and he said, "You're indeed smart. You're really a genius."

Yu Huang was speechless.

She didn't dare to take the credit for someone else's discoveries. She hurriedly said, "The concept of longitude and latitude was invented by Claudius Ptolemy."

"Oh really?" Mo Xiao asked her. "Is he your friend?"

Yu Huang realized that this question couldn't be explained clearly to a person from the Holy Spirit Continent, so she shut up and nodded. "Yes, he's a friend." That was an ancestor who had lived on Earth more than a hundred years before her. How could she know him?

"When you become a Grand Master, you can slowly master this skill." Mo Xiao was about to jump down with Yu Huang.

Yu Huang asked curiously, "In that case, if I want to teleport to a certain place, I have to remember the longitude and latitude of that place first?" The world was so big. It would take a lot of brainpower to remember the longitude and latitude of every place.

Mo Xiao shook his head and said, "There's no need for that. If you think about that place, you can sense that place because spiritual power is one with the continent."

So that was how it was.

Mo Xiao grabbed Yu Huang and transported her to the intersection.

When one teleported, their body would transcend light and time. This process was indescribably wonderful.

Yu Huang couldn't even feel the existence of her body. Only her consciousness was still operating.

This reminded Yu Huang of four-dimensional creatures.

Perhaps this was how they existed.

After about two to three seconds, Yu Huang felt sunlight and air whistling past her ears. She opened her eyes and saw a primitive forest, as well as her body. After landing, Yu Huang suddenly asked Mo Xiao, "Godfather, when we teleported, what was our body doing? Where did it go?"

Mo Xiao was stumped by Yu Huang's question again.

He realized that Yu Huang could always think of some blind spots that others couldn't.

Mo Xiao couldn't answer this question, so he revealed a mysterious expression and said, "When you become a Grand Master and master these skills, you will be able to find the answer."

Yu Huang believed it and thought that she was just too ignorant.

"Where is this?"

Yu Huang circled around and discovered that there were towering trees growing all around her.

Because those trees were too tall and dense, it was dark under the trees, and sunlight couldn't enter.

This environment felt inexplicably familiar to her.

Mo Xiao said, "This is the abyss, where the Lord of All Demons once lived." Mo Xiao pointed into the depths of the forest and said, "Inside, there is a forest palace prepared by the demons for the Lord of All Demons. Even though the Lord of All Demons had died back then, they still believed that he would return."

"So, they built a palace here for the god in their hearts."

After hearing this, Yu Huang had a new opinion of Xiao Shu's return to the human world. She said, "Godfather, when the Monster Core of the Lord of All Demons was dug out and his soul shattered, he shouldn't have reincarnated. Was it because of the faith and obsession of the demon beast race for thousands of years that he was able to return to the human world?"

Chapter 990: Abyssal Chasm, Another Conspiracy

Not sure if her analysis was correct, Yu Huang looked up at Mo Xiao and saw that he was looking at her with an encouraging expression. Yu Huang felt encouraged and continued, "I think that just like how our faith nourished the soul of Holy Spirit Goldfeather, the faith of the demon beasts also brought the Lord of All Demons back. I wonder if I'm right?"

Mo Xiao nodded and said, "I have the same thoughts as you about the Lord of All Demons returning to the human world."

He brought Yu Huang into the dark forest. As they walked, he said, "Everyone says that spiritual power is the strongest power in this world, but Su Tingxue discovered psychic power. It can be seen that other than spiritual power, there are many undiscovered powers in this world."

At this point, Mo Xiao suddenly asked Yu Huang, "What is psychic power?"

What exactly was psychic power? This was a question that even the Purifying Spirit Sect didn't come to a conclusion about.

Every Purifying Spirit Master had their own different opinions.

Yu Huang said, "I think that psychic power is kindness released from the depths of a person's heart."

Mo Xiao didn't comment on Yu Huang's opinion. Instead, he said, "Among these four powers, the power of faith is the only power that can create a miracle. The more invisible those powers are, the stronger their potential."

"Because of the existence of spiritual power, countless Beast Tamers appeared in this world. Because of the existence of psychic power, a large number of Purifying Spirit Masters were born. The existence of resentment produced demonic existences. It can be seen that once any energy is controlled and used by someone, it can have an immeasurable effect."

Mo Xiao was like a selfless teacher relaying his state of mind to Yu Huang.

He walked in front and slashed through the forest thorns with his sword, creating a narrow but absolutely safe path for Yu Huang.

As Yu Huang stared at Mo Xiao's back, she suddenly thought of a word—

Guide.

The elders led their children onto the cultivation path and used the swords in their hands to open a path for them.

In silence, they finally walked through the thorny forest and appeared at the edge of a dangerous cliff.

The cliff seemed to have been cut down the middle by an axe. In the middle of the axe, there was an abyss, and a towering triangular mountain was opposite it. On the mountain, countless vines grew into stairs, houses, and castles. This was a forest castle.

A towering ancient tree fell into the abyss, forming a wooden bridge that connected the two mountains. There were no protective measures on both sides of the bridge, and if one fell, one would fall into the abyss.

Those without courage wouldn't dare to cross this bridge.

Yu Huang thought that Mo Xiao was bringing her to admire the cave abode of the Lord of All Demons. She thought to herself that her adoptive father was quite an aesthete. However, he should have brought his wife, She Ying, to admire such a beautiful place instead.

As if he could read Yu Huang's doubts, Mo Xiao chuckled and interrupted Yu Huang's reverie. He said, "We're not going to the cave abode of the Lord of All Demons."

"Huh?" Yu Huang was surprised.

They had already arrived at the front of the forest castle.

If Mo Xiao wasn't bringing her to see the forest castle of the Lord of the Demons, what did he bring her to do?

Mo Xiao extended his slender index finger and pointed at the abyss gully in front of them as he said, "This is the place I want to show you."

Yu Huang was speechless.

She swallowed hard and asked in disbelief, "Godfather, don't tell me that this abyss is connected to that famous abyss rift..."

The abyss rift was located in the center of the Abyssal Origin Forest. Its center was a huge abyssal hole that was like an eyeball. Four rifts extended from the north, south, east, and west.

That year, after Anna's sacrifice, when she fell into the abyss with the Icy Night T-Rex, Yu Huang followed Di Ruofeng to the center of the abyss.

Yu Huang felt afraid of the abyss rift.

Back then, the Grand State Master, who was already a Prime Emperor, was trapped in the abyss rift for two hundred years before he finally climbed out in a sorry state. One could imagine how terrifying it was inside.

Mo Xiao nodded and said, "That's right. This is the northern crack that connects to the center of the abyss."

Yu Huang's scalp instantly went numb. "You... want to bring me into the deep..." Before Yu Huang could finish speaking, her shoulder was suddenly grabbed by Mo Xiao. Then, her feet left the ground, and her body fell into the void.

Even Yu Huang, who had strong mental fortitude, couldn't help but let out a despairing shout—

"Ah!!"

They fell for nearly three minutes.

The lower they went, the greater the pressure below. That feeling reminded Yu Huang of the experience they had when they entered the depths of the sea to search for the ancient merman tomb in the Kunlun Mystic Realm.

The reason why the seabed was powerful was because of the effect of the seawater.

But what could there be below this place?

"We're here," Mo Xiao said.

Yu Huang was stunned. Immediately after, she sensed her feet touching the ground.

Huh?

At the bottom of the abyss rift, there was actually soil.

Logically speaking, the bottom of the abyss connected to the three thousand worlds should be a vortex, just like the bottom of the Time Valley.

As if sensing Yu Huang's confusion, Mo Xiao told her, "The bottom of the abyss rift is indeed empty, but we haven't approached the heart of the abyss rift yet." As he spoke, Mo Xiao held Yu Huang's hand and walked towards the front of the rift on the hard ground.

It was pitch black below. Yu Huang was really worried that they would miss a step and fall into the abyss.

She tried to turn on the flashlight, but the light couldn't shine in this space.

She could only follow Mo Xiao forward.

After walking for an unknown period of time, she realized that the surrounding air had become chaotic. She stopped in her tracks and said, "The energy here is very chaotic."

At this moment, Mo Xiao also said, "We're almost there."

"Okay."

Staring at the chaotic storm, they moved forward with difficulty for a few hundred meters before they could no longer move.

At this moment, the energy in the air became extremely chaotic and it was difficult to move.

Mo Xiao said to Yu Huang, "Stand there and don't move." With that said, he let go of Yu Huang's hand and took out something from his interspatial ring. He lit it up. It was a lamp that could glow.

To be precise, it was a kind of glowing insect.

It was dozens of times larger than a firefly and was contained in a glass cover by Mo Xiao.

The insect's light was very dazzling.

However, when Mo Xiao extended it into the storm in front of him, the dazzling light softened.

With the light of the insect, Yu Huang saw what was in front of them clearly.

It was an energy storm in the shape of an eye. It was like a vortex of water droplets that pulled everything outside into the vortex!

Yu Huang was extremely familiar with that thing. It was spiritual power!

It was the only spiritual power left in the Holy Spirit Continent!

"This..." Yu Huang felt shocked. "This thing is actually stealing the spiritual power of the continent!"

Nodding his head, Mo Xiao said, "Yes, the center of the abyss rift is above us. It's where Anna fell and where I climbed out from."

Hearing this, Yu Huang subconsciously said, "But I remember that when Anna fell into the abyss, the abyss hadn't started secretly devouring the spiritual power of the continent. On the contrary, at that time, it was releasing a certain amount of spiritual power every morning. Why would it start secretly devouring spiritual power?"

"It's a smokescreen." Mo Xiao sneered and said, "It released its spiritual power to gain our good impression first and make us lower our guard against it. Then, it implemented its plan when we were off guard. This abyss rift is really sinister."

Yu Huang suppressed the shock in her heart and asked in a nervous voice, "Godfather, when did you discover the changes here?"

He said, "The reason Xiao Shu agreed to move out of the abyss and interact with humans was that he discovered that the spiritual power in the primitive forest was quickly disappearing." After a pause, Mo Xiao added, "Long before Holy Spirit Goldfeather completely died, the thing in the abyss already began to absorb spiritual power."

"The abyss rift has existed for many years, and it's as unfathomable as the Central Pagoda. For ten thousand years, it has been releasing spiritual power outwards. Its sudden decision to secretly devour spiritual power must mean that its conspiracy is about to be realized. It's accumulating strength and making the last preparations."

Yu Huang asked Mo Xiao, "Godfather, what do you think is hidden in this abyss?"

Mo Xiao asked Yu Huang, "Why do you think the Divine Masters died one after another?"

For a moment, Yu Huang didn't dare to answer rashly.

Because every word she wanted to say was blasphemous and brazen.
