

She Shocks The Whole World After Retirement

Chapter 12: How Can You Humiliate My Yu Huang?

From the side, Yu Donghai scolded this group of people like a shrew on the streets. Yu Huang felt that it was funny, but she was also deeply moved. Ever since she was disfigured, the people around her all revealed their true colors. Only her crippled father was still willing to protect her and treat her like a treasure.

When it came to family, number wasn't what mattered. One person was enough.

Yu Huang tugged on Yu Donghai's sleeve and said, "Father, you don't have to lower yourself to the level of rabid dogs."

The term 'rabid dog' was heard by quite a number of people. Immediately, someone let out a cold laugh and openly mocked Yu Huang. "Do you think that you're still Young Master Xuanyuan's fiancée and that everyone has to give in to you? That was in the past! Without the protection of the Xuanyuan Clan, who in the Prosperous Capital would care about you, Yu Huang?"

Yu Huang tilted her head and looked at the person who spoke.

The other party was a young man dressed in a black suit and had the face of a passerby. However, the tall and sturdy man sitting beside him was someone Yu Huang knew. That man's name was Ao, and he was a beast tamer at the level of a teacher. He had entered the Xuanyuan Clan many years ago and became Xuanyuan Jing's personal bodyguard.

The Xuanyuan Clan thought highly of Ao. Xuanyuan Jing brought this person along when he went to Divine Realm Academy to study. Xuanyuan Jing came back to the Prosperous Capital today to break off the engagement with her, so his follower naturally had to follow him back.

In the past, Xuanyuan Jing cherished Yu Huang. As long as Yu Huang attended large-scale business events, Xuanyuan Jing would send Ao to protect her.

He and Yu Huang could be considered old acquaintances.

Being stared at by Yu Huang with a pair of indifferent eyes, the gaze of the man called Ao flickered slightly, but he didn't say anything to stop his companion. In the past, he respected Yu Huang and treated her as the future young mistress of the Xuanyuan Clan. Today, Xuanyuan Jing broke off the engagement with Yu Huang, and he also saw that Yu Huang no longer had a place in his young master's heart, so he didn't take her seriously.

Yu Huang could not help but feel sad.

The servant had treated her with great respect in the past could even order others to hit her while she was down. This made Yu Huang understand the principle of 'a good horse is ridden by others, and a good person is bullied by others' deeply.

However, as the number one expert in Doomsday World, Yu Huang was prideful as well.

Although she was bullied by bastards when she was down, how dare these rats look down on her?!

Yu Huang suddenly raised her right arm, and two extremely thin poison needles flew out from her sleeve towards the person who dissed her. The poison needles accurately pierced into the person's lips, and there was one on each of the upper and lower lips. It was very symmetrical.

"Ah!" The man in black howled in pain and hurriedly pulled out the poison needle. With a pained expression, he shouted at Ao, "Ao! She ambushed me! You have to back me up!" As he spoke, the man's lips gradually lost their feeling, and in the end, his lips actually couldn't move anymore.

"Yu Huang! How dare you use poison?!" The injured man was Ao's cousin. He was the only Beast Tamer in the clan. If his cousin was harmed to the point of being unable to speak in front of him, how could he continue to stay in the clan?

Yu Huang tilted her head and looked towards Ao's table. She looked at Ao fearlessly and her clear and domineering voice spread throughout the hall of the Imperial Cuisine Restaurant——.

"I met Xuanyuan Jing when I was 15 years old. Before I met him, I was already the youngest movie actress in the Divine Moon Empire. What has the trophies, honor, recognition, and praises I received got to do with Xuanyuan Jing?! Now that my looks are ruined, without Xuanyuan Jing's protection, how can trash like you who only knows how to curry favor with others humiliate me?"

After she finished speaking, Yu Huang stared at the corners of A' Ao's dark green mouth and said, "Since you can't speak, then it's better to keep your mouth shut forever, so as to avoid offending others with the wrong words in the future and losing your life directly."

Ao's patience had run out, and he shouted at Yu Huang coldly, "Yu Huang, hand over the antidote!"

Yu Huang sneered. "There is no antidote!"

Ao flew into a rage and stood up to walk towards Yu Huang's table.

Seeing that the situation was not right, Manager Zhang hurriedly stepped out to mediate the situation. "Sir, you are a powerful Beast Tamer. Miss Yu Huang is just a weak woman, and she is old friends with your young master. You used your status to bully an unarmed weak woman. If this matter gets out, I'm afraid it will damage the Xuanyuan Clan's reputation."

Ao immediately regained his senses when he heard that the Xuanyuan clan's reputation would be tarnished.

Because of Yu Huang's disfigured face, the young master's request to annul the engagement had already attracted a lot of rumors and slander. If he were to bully Yu Huang in public, then it would be even more humiliating for the young master!

After weighing out the pros and cons, Ao could only suppress his anger.

Seeing that Ao had calmed down, Manager Zhang turned around and said to Yu Huang, "Miss Yu Huang, you're a kind lady. I know that you must have said those words out of anger. You must have the antidote, right?"

Yu Huang couldn't help but look at Manager Zhang with a look of admiration.

This person was really sly. His words would even make Satan laugh.

Yu Huang gave Manager Zhang some face and said, "It's just an ordinary numbing medicine. After a day of meditation, it will naturally go away."

Hearing this, Manager Zhang heaved a sigh of relief. The Beast Tamer called Ao also relaxed. He looked at Yu Huang meaningfully before bending down to help his injured cousin up and leaving with him.

Just as they were about to leave, they bumped into a guest who had just entered.

Upon seeing that person, Ao's eyes became filled with surprise and suspicion.

When the Divine Realm Academy started school this year, Ao had accompanied Xuanyuan Jing to enter the Divine Realm Academy. He was fortunate enough to admire the face of the top genius of the Divine Realm Academy, Sheng Xiao, from afar. And the person in front of him, whether it was his looks or his domineering aura, was very similar to that person!

But that person was very busy and shouldn't have appeared here.

But when Ao saw the pen in Sheng Xiao's pocket, his expression turned serious. It was the 'iron rule pen' of Divine Realm Academy. Only Sheng Xiao, the disciplinary officer of Divine Realm Academy, had the right to wear it!

Ao quickly let go of his cousin and bowed to him. He greeted respectfully, "Greetings, Master Sheng!"

Hearing the title of 'Master Sheng', everyone in the room fell silent.

Master Sheng?

Which Master Sheng?

Was it some powerful Master Sheng of the Sheng family? Or was it the legendary top genius of the Sheng family?

With curiosity and shock, everyone raised their heads to look at the entrance of the restaurant.

In front of the restaurant, there stood a tall and radiant young man.

The young man was wearing a dark green shirt with the hem of the shirt tucked into the waist of his pants. It clung tightly to his narrow waist and his long legs could be seen clearly. The button of the shirt extended to the center of his collarbone and was neatly buttoned to the top to reveal his slender neck and a small black mole beside his Adam's apple.

The young man had a handsome face, but his stern and cold demeanor made people dare not to look at him directly.

The more they looked, the more they felt that this person resembled that legendary person.

At that moment, the owner who had been waiting at the back of the restaurant hurried to Sheng Xiao. He arched his back slightly and looked at the young man as if he was looking at a god. He said respectfully, "Master Sheng, you're here. The food is ready.. Please follow me into the room."

Chapter 13: Sheng Xiao: He's blind and shallow

"Master Sheng, this way please." Fan Sheng, the owner of the restaurant, smiled warmly as he led Sheng Xiao to the private room. His respectful manner left everyone speechless.

Anyone affluent would know that Fan Sheng's true master was His Majesty's younger brother, the prince of the Ink Moon Tower. The only people who could make Fan Sheng bow and greet them were the dukes and nobles, and only the Patriarchs of the six major cultivation families.

However, the six Patriarchs were all old, while the young man in front of them was a young and handsome man. It was obvious that he wasn't them.

His surname was Sheng, and he was already a Beast Tamer at such a young age. There was only one such person in the entire Divine Moon Kingdom—

Sheng Xiao!

No one in the Divine Moon Empire dared to neglect Sheng Xiao.

Not only was he the young master of the Sheng Clan, but he was also the youngest Monarch-level Beast Tamer in the history of cultivation on the Holy Spirit Continent!

In the Holy Spirit Continent, all those who had awakened their beast forms were called Beast Tamers.

There were strict rankings for Beast Tamers. According to the strength of the Beast Tamer, they were divided into Scholar, Master, Supreme Master, Grand Master, Prime Master, and the Divine Master that only existed in legends! Currently, on the Holy Spirit Continent, there were more than a million recorded Scholars, hundreds of Masters, tens of thousands of Supreme Masters, thousands of Grand Masters, and only three Prime Masters.

And the legendary Divine Master was an illusory existence.

How far a Beast Tamer could go depended on their talent and hard work. Some Beast Tamers would never be able to break through the realm of a Scholar even after cultivating for their entire lives. For a slightly more talented Beast Tamer, to be able to reach the realm of a Master before the age of 40 was considered outstanding.

That was why five years ago, when Sheng Xiao broke through to the level of a Scholar at the age of 20 and became a Master, it caused a huge commotion in the entire Holy Spirit Continent! Because he broke the record of the cultivation world of the Holy Spirit Continent and became the youngest Master Beast Tamer on the continent!

The entire Divine Moon Empire was proud to have Sheng Xiao as their peerless genius!

Sheng Xiao, who had such a terrifying cultivation talent, had a bright future ahead of him. Not only Fan Sheng, but even the master behind Fan Sheng had to treat Sheng Xiao with respect.

Once they knew that the young man was Sheng Xiao, everyone looked at him with fervent gazes!

“Something big must have happened for Master Sheng to come to the Prosperous Capital!”

When Yu Huang heard the discussions around her, she turned her head to look at the tall figure. She recognized him as the person who had lended her the fountain pen at the hospital. Yu Huang was very surprised.

He was the legendary number one cultivation genius of the Divine Moon Empire, Sheng Xiao?

Yu Huang found some of Sheng Xiao’s memories from the Host. The Host had never seen Sheng Xiao in her entire life, but she knew everything about him like the back of her hand. It could be said that there was no girl in the entire Divine Moon Empire who did not love Sheng Xiao!

If Xuanyuan Jing was the heavenly star, then Sheng Xiao was definitely the underwater moon.

You could take a plane to every planet, but you would never be able to catch the moon in the water. Sheng Xiao was the underwater moon that countless girls wanted but did not dare try to have.

Yu Donghai had long been dumbstruck by this scene, and he sighed lightly as he said, “This young man is extremely radiant.” After he glanced at Yu Huang, Yu Donghai muttered in a very low voice. "I think this kid is much more outstanding than that kid, Xuanyuan. He's suitable for you!"

Yu Huang glared at Yu Donghai when she heard that. "Father, don't talk nonsense. People will laugh if they hear it!" Since everyone was paying attention to Sheng Xiao, no one noticed them.

Although she had met Sheng Xiao once, Yu Huang was not naive enough to think that he had a deep impression of her.

She was an old monster who had lived for more than two hundred years. She lived rationally and thoroughly. She knew very well that a woman who could be remembered by such an outstanding man should also be an outstanding woman. Only a toad and a love-struck fool would dream of being remembered by a big shot that they had only met once.

And she was still a nobody.

Even if she was attracted by Sheng Xiao's outstanding qualities one day, she would not be stupid enough to think that Sheng Xiao would take the initiative to walk toward her if she just stood still.

If she really fell in love with someone who was a hundred times more outstanding than her, Yu Huang would charge forward even if she had to overcome all obstacles. She would work hard to become more outstanding and powerful. Then, she would raise her head, straighten her chest, and walk in front of him. She would confidently say to him, "I want you!"

On the other side, Fan Sheng led Sheng Xiao to the private room. When they passed by the stairs, he reminded Sheng Xiao carefully, "Master Sheng, be careful of the steps."

Sheng Xiao was about to walk up the stairs when he felt a curious gaze on him. He paused for a moment and turned to look at the small table in the corner.

Yu Donghai felt embarrassed when he noticed that Sheng Xiao had noticed him. He quickly lowered his head to avoid Sheng Xiao's gaze.

Sheng Xiao only glanced at Yu Donghai's face once before his gaze landed on Yu Huang, who was sitting opposite him. The young girl sat calmly in a corner and ate her food quietly. Compared to the feverish customers around her, her attitude was cold.

This time, she was not wearing a veil. The right side of her face, which was full of burn scars, was facing Sheng Xiao. She did look scary. However, the girl's hazel eyes were calm and gentle.

Sheng Xiao felt that Yu Huang was a very interesting girl. She was arrogant and fiesty when she talked back to Xuanyuan Jing. But when she was calm, she seemed graceful and composed.

Such a girl reminded Sheng Xiao of the cactus on the window sill of his dormitory. Compared to those beautiful flowers, Sheng Xiao admired cactus more.

For a species like the cactus, as long as it was given a bit of soil, it would be able to extend its tentacles to firmly grab onto the soil and absorb every drop of water. It would be able to thrive.

Being resilient was even rarer than being beautiful.

Sheng Xiao thought for a while and walked toward Yu Huang. When he got closer, he saw that Yu Huang did not notice his approach. He took the initiative to greet her. "What a coincidence."

The man's voice was cold to the bone, but clear as a lake.

This voice suddenly sounded beside Yu Huang's ear, stunning her. Yu Huang raised her head and looked at Master Sheng, who was standing beside her table. A hint of surprise appeared on her face.

Sheng Junshi still remembered her?

After witnessing Xuanyuan Jing breaking off their engagement, it was normal for Sheng Xiao to remember her.

Yu Huang stood up and asked respectfully, "Master Sheng, are you looking for me?"

Sheng Xiao noticed that her attitude was respectful. She was not as easygoing as she was when they met at the hospital. He thought that Yu Huang did not remember him. He reminded her, "We met at the hospital garden before."

It was definitely not honorable for Yu Huang to be watched by Sheng Xiao. She felt awkward and explained, "I didn't know Sheng Junshi's identity and it was rude of me. I'm sorry."

Sheng Xiao raised his eyebrows and said, "You did well." Seeing that Yu Huang was in low spirits, Sheng Xiao felt that he should say something to comfort her. He thought for a while and said to Yu Huang in a serious tone, "He is stupid, blind and shallow. You should be happy that you broke off the engagement with such an idiot."

Yu Huang: "?"

This number one genius was different from what she had imagined. Was it really appropriate to disparage someone behind his back?
