

She Shocks The Whole World After Retirement

Chapter 21: Just because you're a bad student doesn't mean you're a bad person!

"There's a reaction from the crystal ball!"

Someone's shout attracted everyone's attention.

They stared at the black crystal ball and Anna Tao in shock and disbelief.

The crystal ball was a telekinesis ball. The color shown in the ball was the color of the beast inside the test subject's body. The black color shown in the crystal ball meant that Anna Tao had successfully awakened her beast form. Her beast form was a black creature!

Below the stage, the group of youths who had failed their awakening earlier were now filled with jealousy and unwillingness.

A slacker from Yong Hui High School had actually awakened successfully?

How unfair!

Anna Tao had her eyes closed the entire time while concentrating on fighting the crystal ball and was unaware of the changes in her body.

What Anna Tao feared the most was not some sort of beast, but her father.

Her father was a violent man. When he was drunk, he would hit her. When he was sober, he would hug her, cry and apologize. After crying, he would buy her a beautiful dress.

The girls in the class always envied Anna Tao for having beautiful clothes to wear, but they didn't know that underneath every beautiful dress she wore, there were dark green scars.

The crystal ball's energy took on the form of Anna Tao's father. It attacked her mentally, punching and kicking her.

Out of habit, Anna Tao ducked and hugged herself with her mouth shut as she curled up in the corner. She'd never ask for help because she knew no one could save her.

Her mother had long been unable to tolerate her father's neurosis and secretly left home when she was four years old.

No one would help her!

No one!

Anna Tao suddenly felt indignant. Was she supposed to be trampled on like an ant just because she was weak? Was she really going to be abused by her father forever?

When being bullied, even ants knew how to bite. Why did she have to accept it!

She wanted to control her own life and future!

There was a sudden burst of astonishing power in Anna Tao's body. She stood up slowly while her brown eyes turned a rich black in an instant.

Anna Tao jumped onto her father like a wild beast. She lowered her head and bit her father's neck without letting go!

The moment Anna Tao's father was bitten by her, the crystal ball's tentacles suddenly pulled out of Anna Tao's body. At the same time, the father in Anna Tao's mind disappeared.

Anna Tao opened her eyes in confusion and found that the crystal ball was releasing a black light. She glanced at the abbot in confusion.

A smile finally appeared on the host's face. He smiled and congratulated Anna Tao. "Congratulations. From today onwards, you will officially become a Beast Tamer."

She had become a Beast Tamer?

The pleasant surprise stunned Anna Tao. The host reminded her, "It's time to see your beast form."

Suppressing her feelings of excitement, she focused her attention on the crystal ball. The thick black coloured light within the ball gradually condensed together, transforming into... an ant!

Staring at the ant, the host and Dean Lin's expressions became strange.

It was common knowledge that ants were known as useless beasts in the beast world!

The host looked at Anna Tao with pity and regret. This was the first student to awaken today. Why was she in a useless beast form?

After she discovered that her beast form was that of an ant, the smile that had yet to spread across her face froze on her face.

How could it be an ant?

Seeing that Anna Tao's awakened beast form was actually a tiny ant, a boy who had failed to awaken could not help but mock in a low voice, "I thought it was some powerful beast form, but it's actually a useless ant! Trash is trash, and the awakened beast form is also trash! What's so great about it?!"

Even though his voice was low, the square was too quiet. His voice reached Anna Tao's ears.

Hearing this, the light in Anna Tao's eyes dimmed and her round and cute face was filled with defeat.

Anna Tao gave up on herself. Yes, she was never a smart and powerful person. She was just a stutterer with an ordinary IQ. It was not surprising that someone like her could awaken a useless beast like an ant.

At this moment, a cold and proud female voice suddenly sounded from Yong Hui High School's team. "What's the big deal?"

The moment Yu Huang opened her mouth, she received everyone's attention.

Sheng Xiao heard a familiar female voice. He looked down at Yu Huang.

Yu Huang, at 173cm, was very eye-catching when she stood among a group of cute girls. Sheng Xiao easily found her position.

However, Yu Huang's attention was all on the boy. She did not notice that Sheng Xiao was secretly observing her.

Yu Huang's gaze fell on the boy who had slandered Anna Tao. Seeing that the boy was wearing the uniform of Shengdu High School, she smiled meaningfully and said, "I was wondering who was so arrogant. Turns out it's the top student of Shengdu High School!"

The address of "top student" was extremely insulting, and the students of Shengdu High School could not help but blush.

The principal of Shengdu High School glared at the boy who spoke too much. He wished he could kick him out of Shengdu High School.

What a disgrace!

Yu Huang asked the boy, "Did you just ask what's so great about Anna Tao?"

The boy knew that he had said something wrong and embarrassed the school. Hence, when he heard Yu Huang's question, he felt ashamed and did not dare to look up at her.

However, Yu Huang did not intend to let him off the hook. Her clear and sharp voice spread throughout the entire square.

"The trash you spoke of successfully overcame the fear in her heart and awakened her beast form. As for you, you were so frightened by the fear in your heart that you could only kneel on the ground and beg for forgiveness."

"Just based on that fact, when you see her in the future, you have to lower your head and respectfully call her a Scholar!"

"Just based on the fact that her name can be recorded in the Divine Moon Empire's Beast Tamer Register system in the future, and your name will forever be a shame to Shengdu High School!"

Staring at the geniuses and nobles on her right, Yu Huang asked loudly, "Is this enough?"

Yu Huang was not only telling the boy this, she was also telling everyone who looked down on Anna Tao that they had no right to look down on a person who had awakened her beast form!

The entire square was silent.

Was it enough?

Of course!

Sheng Xiao stared at the aggressive Yu Huang and his lips curled up.

As expected of a small cactus, she was full of thorns.

After receiving Yu Huang's protection, Anna Tao was suddenly filled with courage. She understood that there was no trash in this world! As long as she did not admit that she was trash, no one could determine that she was trash!

Anna Tao wiped away her tears and summoned her courage to shout in the direction of Shengdu High School. "I will prove to you that I am not trash! My beast form is not trash either!"

"I'll let you know that being a bad student doesn't mean you're a bad person!"

Perhaps it was because she was filled with confidence, but at that moment, she did not even stutter.

Chapter 22: Yonghui High, Yu Huang!

Chapter 22: Untitled

Anna Tao ran off the stage and hugged Yu Huang. "Thank you, Yu Huang." Anna Tao would remember Yu Huang's protective words for the rest of her life.

Yu Huang patted Anna Tao's back and told her, "Don't listen to those people. They are just jealous that you have successfully awakened your beast form."

The class monitor also felt indignant for Anna Tao. He said, "Ants may be small, but they are not useless. Anna, you have to treat your beast form well and activate your beast nature as soon as possible. Try to become a super-powerful person and bring glory to our school!"

Although Anna Tao's beast form was just a weak ant, it was still better than the Shengdu High School and Mondu Private Academy, which had yet to awaken any bullsh*t!

Damn it, it had been more than ten years since Yong Hui High School had awakened a Beast Tamer. This time, they could finally hold their heads high!

Hearing the class monitor and Yu Huang's words, Anna Tao nodded her head vigorously. "I know, I will do my best!"

Dean Lin sat quietly in his chair. He stared at the two young ladies and said to Sheng Xiao emotionally, "Don't you think that the young people of this generation are more courageous than us old people? The world will belong to the young people eventually."

Sheng Xiao shook his head solemnly. "Mr. Lin, I'm still young. I don't know much about the life of you elders."

He was only seven years older than Yu Huang, so he was not old.

Dean Lin was stunned for a moment. Then, he was caught between laughter and tears. "Mr. Sheng is young and promising. With you guys around, the world will be even better!"

The 18-year-old Anna Tao had successfully awakened her beast form. This was a good sign. Perhaps there would be a few more Beast Tamers among this group of older teenagers. This made the host look forward to the next test.

However, after they tested more than a thousand students, no one managed to awaken their beast form.

Although the abbot was a little disappointed, he did not despair. Beast Tamers were rare existences, but there were only a dozen or so people who could awaken their beast forms every year.

Anna Tao, who was already 18 years old, was able to successfully awaken her beast form. It was a pleasant surprise.

Seeing that it was almost her turn, Yu Huang left the class and walked towards the waiting area in a low profile.

The moment Yu Huang entered the waiting area, she was recognized by a slightly plump girl. "Were you the one who scolded that guy from Shengdu High School?"

Among the tens of thousands of people present, only Yu Huang was wearing a mask. This lady recognized Yu Huang immediately.

Before Yu Huang could reply, the girl grabbed Yu Huang's arm again enthusiastically. She stop very excitedly. "The way you scolded that jerk was so cool! Those guys from Shengdu High School are so arrogant because of their good grades. I've always hated them!"

Yu Huang did not agree with that. She said, "Shengdu High School is still very outstanding. It's just that that person's character is not good. A rotten apple ruins the bunch."

Yu Huang would never admit that she was mediocre, but she would never deny the excellence of others. The fact that she dared to admit that others were more outstanding than her was already a form of excellence.

The girl looked embarrassed. She wiped the sweat off her forehead and asked Yu Huang, "Hey, why do you keep wearing a mask? Aren't you hot?"

Yu Huang replied indifferently, "Sorry, I'm ugly and can't be seen."

The girl was rendered speechless by her answer. Unwilling to give up, she asked again, "What's your name? I like how cool you are. Let's add each other as friends!"

At this moment, the host on the stage called out to her.

"1832, Yong Hui High School, Yu Huang!"

When Yu Huang's name was heard, the entire plaza was in an uproar.

"Yu Huang?"

"Yu Huang actually came to participate in the test this year!"

"Where is she?"

Yu Huang lifted her mask and said to the girl beside her, "Please let go. It's my turn to go on stage."

The girl asked, "What?"

She let go of Yu Huang's arm in a daze and watched as she walked towards the testing stage.

Under the gazes of everyone present, Yu Huang's figure appeared before the stairway at the side of the tall platform.

The girl had a high ponytail and was wearing a wide grayish-blue school uniform jacket. She was wearing a pair of flat canvas shoes at the bottom of her feet. Her height of more than 1.7 meters made her appear slender and tall.

Upon seeing her outfit, everyone's eyes widened in shock. Wasn't she the masked girl who had spoken up for Anna Tao earlier?

It was actually Yu Huang!

The commotion below the stage did not affect Yu Huang. She remained calm from the start while walking up the stairs step by step. This scene reminded everyone of the scene when she was dressed up and performing on the stage.

However, things were no longer the same as before. The once beautiful young lady had now lost all her beauty and fell to rock bottom.

Yu Huang walked to the stage and bowed to the host. Just as she was about to take the test, she suddenly thought of something and looked at Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao noticed her gaze and raised his eyebrows. "What's wrong?"

Yu Huang said, "My friend worshiped you before and she successfully awakened her beast form." The commotion below the stage hadn't subsided, so only Sheng Xiao heard Yu Huang's words clearly.

Sheng Xiao was reminded of Anna Tao's actions when she went on stage. He could not help but feel his scalp go numb. He frowned and said disapprovingly, "It's all superstition. It's not advisable."

Yu Huang continued, "But before I left, my father asked me to worship you. Perhaps it's useful to worship you."

Sheng Xiao smiled.

In front of everyone, Sheng Xiao walked to Yu Huang and touched her forehead with his right index finger.. He lowered his voice and said, "Little Yu, I'll give you all my good luck today."

Yu Huang felt her forehead burning from Sheng Xiao's touch. "I'll borrow your luck then."

Sheng Xiao continued, "Later, you will see what you are most afraid of. But you must remember that it is all an illusion. Activate your beast nature and defeat the illusion. Then, you will awaken your beast form."

"I understand. Thank you." Only then did Yu Huang turn to face the crystal ball.

After witnessing Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao's interaction, there was another commotion.

"Yu Huang knows the overseer of the Divine Realm Academy?"

"Could they be having an affair?"

Sheng Xiao cast a cold glance at the audience below the stage. Everyone immediately shut up and kept quiet out of fear.

The moment Yu Huang stretched out her finger, her fingernails were wrapped by the tentacles that emerged from the crystal ball.

A sharp tentacle pierced through Yu Huang's finger and entered her body, reaching straight to her heart. In the next instant, Yu Huang felt an overwhelming and terrifying aura attacking her head.

Yu Huang's body trembled and she immediately closed her eyes.

When she opened her eyes again, she found herself tied to a chair by a translucent rope. In the distance, there was a sea of boiling lava. It was a horrifying scene.

This was a scene Yu Huang had never seen before. She didn't even understand why her fear was this.

Boom!

A giant black dragon emerged from the lava and struggled in the void. Its scales and flesh fell into the lava, revealing its white bones.

Yu Huang was instantly stunned when she saw this scene.

What was that?!

She clearly did not recognize that creature, but she could feel the heart-wrenching pain and sorrow coming from her heart. Yu Huang instantly forgot that she was undergoing the Awakening test. She really thought that she was in an illusion.

"Did you see that?" A male voice sounded beside Yu Huang's ear. "In order to save you, he willingly agreed to become my alchemy bone. You gave him consciousness, gave him life, and gave him a name. He was born for you, and he will die for you."

"Look, this is the price he has to pay for loving you—"

The little Black Dragon was in so much pain that it lost all rationality. It turned into a real wild beast, and its hoarse dragon roar reverberated in the sealed space, causing Yu Huang's heart to skip a beat.

The person mercilessly lashed a purple whip onto the little Black Dragon's body, causing its massive body to fall into the lava.

When he was picked up by the long whip again, the little Black Dragon had lost a few pieces of flesh, leaving only a massive dragon bone!

Yu Huang's tears fell uncontrollably. She could not help but beg, "Please, let it go! You can't hurt it!"

That voice, deliberately provoking her, sounded again. "Then kill me! If you kill me, that beast will be able to survive! Heh, look at you, you don't even have the strength to fight back, what can you use to kill me?!"

"You're useless!"

You are trash!

In front of the crystal ball, Yu Huang suddenly opened her eyes and roared angrily, "I said, you're not allowed to hurt it!" Yu Huang grabbed the crystal ball's tentacles with her backhand and used her boundless spiritual energy to attack the crystal ball!

At the same time, the crystal ball suddenly emitted a dazzling red light! The red light blotted out the sky and spread out in all directions with the Purifying Spirit Academy as the center and enveloped the entire downtown area of the Prosperous Capital.

Apart from Sheng Xiao, everyone, not daring to look at it directly, closed their eyes at once.

The slumbering tiger in Yu Huang's heart was finally awakened!

Sheng Xiao looked at the glaring red light above him in shock.

As everyone knew, the brighter and deeper the light released by the crystal ball, the stronger the beast tamer's beast form would be and the higher their cultivation talent.

The energy released by Yu Huang's beast form directly snatched away the radiance of the sun, enveloping half of the Prosperous Capital within. Just how powerful was its beast form to release such a majestic and brazen beast nature?!

Dean Lin stood up in shock while exclaiming, "What a powerful beast!"

The beastly red light released by Yu Huang dyed the white clouds in the sky red. Those clouds converged in the same direction while gradually transforming into a strange giant bird!

"Swish!" A strange bird cry similar to the sound of a flute rang out from the horizon. The sound contained an endless amount of terrifying energy that specialized in attacking one's spiritual force.

Dean Lin was caught off guard. His soul was attacked by the bird cries, and a trace of blood flowed out from the corner of his mouth!

He was a Level 8 Purifying Spirit Master! His mental strength was as vast as the ocean. He would not be attacked by a soul that easily!

Sheng Xiao quickly helped Dean Lin up when he saw that he had lost his composure. He asked in concern, "Mr. Lin, what happened to you?" Sheng Xiao noticed that all the Purifying Spirit Masters were injured.

Dean Lin's condition was the mildest. His disciples were injured by the bird's cry and knelt on the ground with pained expressions.

On the other hand, the students below the stage were safe and sound, completely unaffected by the bird's cry. They all raised their heads and stared at the phenomenon in the sky in shock. The same thought surfaced in their minds—

Yu Huang's beast form was extremely powerful!

Chapter 24: Brazenly Biased

Dean Lin stared at Yu Huang's slender body that seemed as if it would shatter with a single squeeze. His eyes were filled with shock as he muttered in disbelief, "How could this be?! How could her soul force be so powerful?!"

To be able to release such a powerful and terrifying soul attack, just how powerful was Yu Huang's spiritual energy? It wouldn't be an exaggeration to say that it was as boundless as the sea!

Sheng Xiao frowned. "Elder Lin, what are you talking about?"

Mr. Lin grabbed Sheng Xiao's arm tightly. He looked at Yu Huang with a fanatical gaze. He said, "This child is born to be a Purifying Spirit Master! She's a rare one in a thousand year talent!"

With such a powerful soul force, it would be a pity if she did not become a Purifying Spirit Master!

Sheng Xiao was about to speak when he saw a black shadow appear beside Yu Huang. Sheng Xiao looked at it and saw that it was Lu Yubei, the leader of the Prosperous Capital. His vigilance and alarm faded a little.

Dean Lin let go of Sheng Xiao and said to Lu Yubei with cupped hands, "Lord, I think you must have been alarmed by the strange phenomenon in the sky."

Lu Yubei nodded. He turned around and looked at Yu Huang. Seeing that the girl had yet to wake up from the illusion, he raised his head and stared at the phenomenon in the sky while revealing a shocked expression.

Such tyrannical and powerful beast energy was truly rare!

She was definitely a genius!

Lu Yubei could not help but feel his blood boiling when he thought about the awakening of a super genius in the capital city. He did not dare to interrupt Yu Huang's test. Lu Yubei quietly retreated to Sheng Xiao and Dean Lin's side and chose to watch quietly.

Yu Huang did not know what kind of shocking commotion she had caused.

After successfully awakening Yu Huang's beast nature, the crystal ball was ready to leave Yu Huang's body. However, Yu Huang treated it as the evil person who had harmed the little Black Dragon in her illusion. She wanted to skin it alive, so how could she let it leave?

If she did not get rid of it today, Yu Huang would not stop!

Yu Huang used her terrifying spiritual power that had lived for two hundred years to mercilessly crush the crystal ball. Her spiritual power continuously poured into the crystal ball. In the end, the crystal ball could no longer hold her power. The ball began to heat up, and a faint crack appeared on the ball.

When he saw that the crystal ball had actually cracked, Dean Lin's face immediately revealed some astonishment. He cried out in alarm, "How can this be? The psychic energy ball is about to break!"

This was the first time in history!

The real name of the crystal ball was Psychic Sphere. It was a divine item forged by the president of the Purifying Spirit Alliance by using his mental strength. The president was the only level-nine Purifying Spirit Master in the world. How could his most prized creation be destroyed so easily?

When Sheng Xiao awakened his beast form back then, he almost cracked a psychic energy ball, but that was only a little! However, there were cracks on the psychic energy ball in front of Yu Huang. Red flames were rising from the cracks. It looked like it was going to explode at any moment!

Was that even possible?

Dean Lin was shocked and pained. This psychic ball was priceless!

Sheng Xiao and Lu Yubei were shocked too. Sheng Xiao looked at Yu Huang with his bright eyes. It was as if he had found a treasure.

Divine Realm Academy was definitely going to recruit her!

Lu Yubei noticed Mr Lin's pained expression and reminded him calmly, "Mr Lin, calm down. I want to see how big of a surprise she can give me." Lu Yubei wanted to see the limits of Yu Huang's energy and how much potential she had.

Mr Lin pursed his lips at Lu Yubei and mumbled, "Are you going to pay for the damage?"

Lu Yubei immediately fell silent.

However, Dean Lin listened to Lu Yubei and did not interrupt Yu Huang's awakening test.

"Die!" Accompanied by Yu Huang's angry curse, her majestic and powerful soul force was poured into the crystal ball. The crystal ball finally couldn't bear the burden, and after a clear cracking sound, it exploded into pieces!

It became... shreds?

The crowd was so silent that one could hear a pin drop.

Dean Lin stared at the broken pieces on the ground. The wrinkled old flesh on his face were trembling.

It really blew up!

Following the explosion of the crystal ball, Yu Huang also withdrew from the illusion. The phenomenon in the sky also dissipated, turning into a blue sky and white clouds once again.

She looked at the broken pieces on the ground before her and took a few breaths. Then, she turned to look at Sheng Xiao and Dean Lin. She asked innocently, "How is it broken?"

She looked confused and innocent.

Just as Dean Lin was about to tell Yu Huang the truth, he heard the young man beside him say calmly, "The quality of this ball isn't passable. It exploded on its own."

Dean Lin was speechless.

Would a Psychic Ball personally forged by a Level 9 Purifying Spirit Master not be up to quality?

Mr. Sheng was openly siding with Yu Huang!

Yu Huang actually believed Sheng Xiao's explanation. She looked at Dean Lin and asked, "Dean Lin, did my awakening fail or succeed?"

Dean Lin took a deep breath and said, "Wait a moment, I'll get someone to get another psychic call."

Soon, a new psychic ball was sent over.

The abbot's soul had been severely damaged by the bird's cry, and he spat out a mouthful of blood. His face was still pale.

He stared at Yu Huang warily. Seeing that she was reaching out her index finger to accept the test, he couldn't help but remind her, "Miss Yu Huang, you only need to inject a trace of soul force into the Psychic Sphere.. You don't need to inject too much."

Chapter 25: The Awakening Failed, But It Was Unstoppable

He, afraid that Yu Huang would destroy the Psychic Sphere again, deliberately emphasized on the word 'a little'. When he heard this, Dean Lin couldn't help but look at his student in admiration.

Yu Huang said, "Alright."

Under the gazes of everyone present, Yu Huang stretched out her index finger once more.

All the students below the stage stood on their tiptoes and looked at Yu Huang expectantly. They had a premonition that they were about to witness the birth of a miracle!

The tentacles once again wrapped around Yu Huang's finger and pierced through her skin, transferring a trace of her soul power into the Psychic Sphere.

In the void, the ball began to tremble slightly. In the next second, the translucent ball began to glow with a bright red light. The red light was so dense that it was as deep as blood. It made one's heart skip a beat.

The host reminded Yu Huang, "Concentrate and feel your beast form."

Yu Huang hurriedly calmed herself and focused her mind while carefully sensing her beast form. Closing her eyes, Yu Huang could feel a wave of scorching hot energy circulating within her body. They gathered towards Yu Huang's heart to condense into a beast heart.

Every Beast Tamer possessed a beast heart. The beast heart was a storage device for beast form energy. If the beast heart could not be formed, then she would never be able to awaken her beast form and become a Beast Tamer.

The temperature of her heart became hotter and hotter. Just as the beast heart was about to condense into a shape, an invisible hand suddenly scattered them all!

At the same time, the red light that was about to condense in the Psychic Sphere suddenly dispersed. Then, the color became fainter and fainter until it completely disappeared.

"What's going on?!"

Mr Lin and Lu Yubei frowned.

This was the first time they had encountered such a situation.

Sheng Xiao stared at Yu Huang. He noticed that she was frowning, as if she was in trouble. He quickly reminded her, "Yu Huang, calm down and feel it!"

Yu Huang's heart skipped a beat as she attempted to awaken her beast form again.

But this time, the situation was the same as last time. Yu Huang watched helplessly as the energy body that was about to condense was disrupted by an invisible hand. She started to feel annoyed.

How could this be?

Was God playing with her?

He gave her a strong beast nature but did not allow her to awaken her beast form. Could it be that he was racist and despised her for being an Earthling?

Seeing that Yu Huang was unable to awaken her beast form, Dean Lin tugged at the small mustache on his chin and muttered, "This is impossible. With such a powerful beast nature, she shouldn't be unable to condense her beast form."

At the same time, there were different discussions below the stage—

"What's going on? Why can't she summon her beast form?"

"She clearly has a beastly nature, so how can she not have a beast form?"

“They created such a huge commotion just now, but now, they can’t even awaken their beast form. Are they doing a comedy show for us?”

The host saw the red light in the Psychic Sphere disappear again, and he couldn’t help but look at Dean Lin.

The other students only had one chance. Yu Huang had two chances. If he made an exception again, it would arouse dissatisfaction, and it would also attract discontent.

Should he stop Yu Huang’s test? Or should he give her another chance?

Mr Lin looked at Yu Huang with pity and couldn’t bear to ask her to step down. Lu Yubei said to Mr Lin, “Maybe she’s too nervous. Should we give her another chance?”

Sheng Xiao felt that it was inappropriate. He was about to reject it for Yu Huang when she turned around and faced them. She said calmly, “Dean Lin, I failed my awakening. Let’s not waste any more time. Let’s call the next person.”

Dean Lin comforted her. “You still have one chance. Come back next year.”

Yu Huang nodded, and then she turned around and walked off the test platform.

Everyone’s gaze followed Yu Huang’s figure as she walked down the stage. They wanted to see her expression clearly. She must be feeling very dejected and unwilling. After all, God had just played this kind of joke on her.

However, Yu Huang was wearing a mask, so no one could see her true expression. Her back was still upright, and she had an indomitable sense of tenacity.

Sheng Xiao watched Yu Huang leave from the corner of his eye. He saw that she was still holding her head high and did not look like she was about to give up. He pursed his lips and sent a message to his friend.

[Please water the cactus on the window sill of my dormitory.]

No matter how tenacious the cactus was, it still needed rainwater occasionally.

The test lasted until the night.

After taking the school bus back to the entrance of Yong Hui High School, Yu Huang alighted and saw Yu Donghai. He was holding a lunch box in his hand and leaning against the tricycle. It was obvious that he had been waiting for a long time.

Seeing Yu Huang alight from the bus, Yu Donghai waved his hand and called out to her, "Come over quickly! You've been hungry for a whole day and are about to run out of strength, right? I made chicken soup for you. After you've eaten your fill, let's have a good night's sleep. Study the textbooks for another 300 days and get into a good university!"

Yu Huang smiled. Even her eyes were filled with mirth. "Alright."

On the way home, Yu Donghai drove the tricycle very slowly. Yu Huang sat in the front passenger seat. She held the lunch box and drank the soup bit by bit. Yu Donghai knew that she had failed her awakening. At this moment, he was dying to ask questions, but he did not dare to ask.

He couldn't bear to see her sad.

After returning home, Yu Huang went to the kitchen to wash the lunch box.

Out of the corner of her eye, she noticed that Yu Donghai had been peeping at her. His eyes were clearly filled with confusion and concern, yet he didn't dare to open his mouth to ask her.

Yu Huang sighed.

She placed the lunch box into the cupboard and walked to the dining table before snatching the wine pot from Yu Donghai's hands. She said, "Don't drink too much wine. If your body hurts too much, I'll massage it for you."

Yu Donghai was missing a leg. When he walked, most of his strength was placed on his left leg. After being outside for an entire day, the muscles on Yu Donghai's left leg had already become stiff. He hammered his calf and said, "It's so painful here that it's a bit numb."

"Let me give you a massage." Yu Huang squatted down and massaged Yu Donghai's legs. As she massaged, she said, "Father, I've become a laughingstock again today."

Yu Huang was not truly invincible. The things that happened during the day had given Yu Huang a heavy blow. Yu Huang was indeed unreconciled, but so what? Would she be able to successfully awaken her beast form if she was unreconciled?

The most useless word in this world was unreconciled.

However, she had lived for more than two hundred years after all. Sorrow, joy, separation, reunion, deception, betrayal, disappointment, and despair, she had experienced them all in her previous life. What happened today was not enough to truly stump her.

Yu Donghai only knew that Yu Huang's awakening had failed, but he didn't know what exactly happened to her. When he heard Yu Huang say this, Yu Donghai guessed that something unusual must have happened today.

His heart ached a little for Yu Huang. He asked gently, "What exactly happened? You can tell me. I will face it with you."

Yu Huang nodded and sorted out her thoughts before she told Yu Donghai about everything that happened in the Purifying Spirit Academy.

When Yu Donghai heard Yu Huang say that every time her beast heart was about to form, an invisible force would deliberately scatter them and he would unconsciously sit up straight.

"You're saying that there's an invisible force stopping you from condensing your beast heart?"

Yu Huang nodded. "Yes. I tried it twice. It happened both times."

When he heard this, Yu Donghai looked at Yu Huang with eyes filled with curiosity and suspicion. He sized her up from head to toe, and finally stared at her left eye without moving.

Yu Huang felt her hair stand on end from Yu Donghai's gaze. She stopped massaging his legs and curiously asked, "What's wrong, Father?"

Yu Donghai lowered his head and observed Yu Huang's left eye at a close distance. After a long while, he said uncertainly, "Why do I remember that when you were born, you didn't have this mole in your eye?"

Could he have remembered wrongly?

Yu Huang's eyelids twitched when she heard this.

That mole in her eyes?

"Father, just a few days ago, the mole in my eye suddenly changed. I saw it emitting black gas with my own eyes. Do you think it's some ominous thing?"

After he heard Yu Huang's words, Yu Donghai's expression became even more serious. "Black steam was seeping out..." He frowned deeply while trying to figure out what was going on.

Yu Huang had her own guesses. She said, "Father, do you think this mole of mine is some kind of restriction? Perhaps as long as the mole is removed, I can be reborn?"

This was what was written in novels and television. The Host had even filmed this kind of fantasy movie before.

Yu Huang's joke had enlightened Yu Donghai.

Yu Donghai suddenly opened his eyes wide, saying with a shocked expression, "Spirit Restraining Parasite!"

Upon hearing these words from Yu Donghai, Yu Huang narrowed her eyes.

This thing sounded very evil and mighty.. It didn't seem like something ordinary people could come into contact with. How did a lame man who sold alms bowls and chickens know something like the Spirit Restraining Art?
