

She Shocks The Whole World After Retirement

Chapter 26: Spirit Restraining Parasite

After returning home, Yu Huang went to the kitchen to wash the lunch box.

Out of the corner of her eye, she noticed that Yu Donghai had been peeping at her. His eyes were clearly filled with confusion and concern, yet he didn't dare to open his mouth to ask her.

Yu Huang sighed.

She placed the lunch box into the cupboard and walked to the dining table before snatching the wine pot from Yu Donghai's hands. She said, "Don't drink too much wine. If your body hurts too much, I'll massage it for you."

Yu Donghai was missing a leg. When he walked, most of his strength was placed on his left leg. After being outside for an entire day, the muscles on Yu Donghai's left leg had already become stiff. He hammered his calf and said, "It's so painful here that it's a bit numb."

"Let me give you a massage." Yu Huang squatted down and massaged Yu Donghai's legs. As she massaged, she said, "Father, I've become a laughingstock again today."

Yu Huang was not truly invincible. The things that happened during the day had given Yu Huang a heavy blow. Yu Huang was indeed unreconciled, but so what? Would she be able to successfully awaken her beast form if she was unreconciled?

The most useless word in this world was unreconciled.

However, she had lived for more than two hundred years after all. Sorrow, joy, separation, reunion, deception, betrayal, disappointment, and despair, she had experienced them all in her previous life. What happened today was not enough to truly stump her.

Yu Donghai only knew that Yu Huang's awakening had failed, but he didn't know what exactly happened to her. When he heard Yu Huang say this, Yu Donghai guessed that something unusual must have happened today.

His heart ached a little for Yu Huang. He asked gently, "What exactly happened? You can tell me. I will face it with you."

Yu Huang nodded and sorted out her thoughts before she told Yu Donghai about everything that happened in the Purifying Spirit Academy.

When Yu Donghai heard Yu Huang say that every time her beast heart was about to form, an invisible force would deliberately scatter them and he would unconsciously sit up straight.

"You're saying that there's an invisible force stopping you from condensing your beast heart?"

Yu Huang nodded. "Yes. I tried it twice. It happened both times."

When he heard this, Yu Donghai looked at Yu Huang with eyes filled with curiosity and suspicion. He sized her up from head to toe, and finally stared at her left eye without moving.

Yu Huang felt her hair stand on end from Yu Donghai's gaze. She stopped massaging his legs and curiously asked, "What's wrong, Father?"

Yu Donghai lowered his head and observed Yu Huang's left eye at a close distance. After a long while, he said uncertainly, "Why do I remember that when you were born, you didn't have this mole in your eye?"

Could he have remembered wrongly?

Yu Huang's eyelids twitched when she heard this.

That mole in her eyes?

“Father, just a few days ago, the mole in my eye suddenly changed. I saw it emitting black gas with my own eyes. Do you think it’s some ominous thing?”

After he heard Yu Huang’s words, Yu Donghai’s expression became even more serious. “Black steam was seeping out...” He frowned deeply while trying to figure out what was going on.

Yu Huang had her own guesses. She said, “Father, do you think this mole of mine is some kind of restriction? Perhaps as long as the mole is removed, I can be reborn?”

This was what was written in novels and television. The Host had even filmed this kind of fantasy movie before.

Yu Huang’s joke had enlightened Yu Donghai.

Yu Donghai suddenly opened his eyes wide, saying with a shocked expression, “Spirit Restraining Parasite!”

Upon hearing these words from Yu Donghai, Yu Huang narrowed her eyes.

This thing sounded very evil and mighty.. It didn’t seem like something ordinary people could come into contact with. How did a lame man who sold alms bowls and chickens know something like the Spirit Restraining Art?

Chapter 27: I can admit anything, but I cannot resign myself to fate!

Yu Donghai’s mind was in a mess, and he utterly didn’t realize that his words from before were filled with mistakes.

He grabbed the wine pot on the table and drank a mouthful of wine before saying with certainty, “That’s right, it is called Spirit Restraining Parasite! But that thing has already been burned. It should not have appeared!”

He suspected that he had made a mistake, and he frowned again.

Yu Huang pretended to be innocently curious while asking Yu Donghai, “Father, what is Spirit Restraining Parasite?”

Upon hearing these three words, Yu Donghai was filled with disgust.

After pondering for a moment, Yu Donghai slowly said, “A few hundred years ago, there was an evil Purifying Spirit Master who appeared on the Holy Spirit Continent. No one remembers his name anymore. All we know is that he used all the knowledge he had learned in his lifetime to create an evil venomous insect that specializes in dealing with Beast Tamers! This venomous insect feeds on the beast’s nature. If a child who has yet to awaken their beast form is poisoned by this venomous insect, the beast’s nature in their body will be slowly devoured by the venomous insect. In the end, they will become an ordinary person and unable to awaken their beast form for the rest of their lives!”

Yu Huang asked, “Is this Spirit Restraining Parasite really so powerful?”

“More than that. If this thing is planted on a large scale, it can exterminate the entire clan!”

In order to let Yu Huang understand how terrifying this thing was, Yu Donghai told her a story that had been sealed for many years.

“The Su Clan of Kui Mountain, which was six hundred years old, was originally a great cultivation clan and could rival the six great cultivation clans of today. However, such a great clan had completely declined in a short span of twenty years because all the young children of the Su Clan seemed to have been cursed, and none of them had awakened their beast form!”

“The Su Family’s decline is truly strange. The six families joined hands to investigate this matter, and discovered that there was an unprecedented parasite hidden in the bodies of the Su Family disciples. This parasite is precisely the Spirit Restraining Parasite!”

“The Su Family’s decline made the six families deeply aware of the abominability of this Spirit Restraining Gu. They worked together to capture that Purifying Spirit Master, beheaded him in public, and burned the method to refine the Spirit Restraining Parasite. Logically speaking, this thing should have been destroyed long ago...”

After hearing Yu Donghai’s explanation, Yu Huang had a deeper understanding of the Spirit Restraining Parasite. She said, “Father, so you suspect that there is also a Spirit Restraining Parasite in my body?”

Yu Donghai wasn't certain, but the abnormality that appeared on Yu Huang's body was exactly the same as the reaction toward Spirit Restraining Parasite, so he could not help but think that way.

"Those with beast nature can definitely awaken their beast form! You have a strong beast nature, but you are unable to awaken your beast form. This does not make sense! If someone secretly planted a Spirit Restraining Parasite in your body, that would explain the abnormality in your body."

Yu Donghai's words were logical and well-founded, and Yu Huang almost believed him. However, she remained calm throughout, and reminded Yu Donghai, "Father, I'm just an ordinary person. I'm not worthy of others scheming to harm me."

When he heard these words, Yu Donghai's expression looked shifty.

Yu Huang had been observing Yu Donghai's reaction the entire time. When she saw that Yu Donghai's gaze was shifty, as if he was hiding some secret, she knew that her father was definitely hiding something from her.

Yu Huang deliberately put on a deflated look and said dejectedly, "Maybe I'm just unlucky and destined not to become a Beast Tamer. Father, I've accepted my fate."

When Yu Donghai heard Yu Huang say that she had accepted her fate, he seemed to have suffered a huge blow. He raised his voice and berated her, "Nonsense! You can accept anything, but you can't resign yourself to fate!"

Yu Huang was shocked.

This reaction was too unusual!

Yu Donghai forcefully placed the wine pot on the dining table. He rubbed his face, and made an important decision.

"You have to listen carefully to what I'm going to tell you next. After you hear it, you have to keep it to yourself. Before you have absolute strength, you cannot reveal it to anyone!"

Yu Donghai's expression was too serious, so Yu Huang could only nod her head solemnly. "Father, I will definitely keep this secret."

Nodding his head, Yu Donghai opened the lid of the wine jar and drank a mouthful of wine. After that, not knowing where to start, he fell into silence.

Yu Huang knew that Yu Donghai was organizing his words, so she didn't disturb him.

After a quarter of an hour, Yu Donghai suddenly opened his mouth and said, "You said earlier that you're just an ordinary person, and that you're not worthy of someone scheming to harm you. You're gravely mistaken."

Yu Huang only looked at him quietly. She didn't urge him or ask him any questions.

Yu Donghai asked Yu Huang a question, "Have you ever thought about your birth father's identity?"

Chapter 28: Yu Huang's Background

Yu Huang narrowed her eyes.

Biological father?

As intelligent as she was, she had long discovered the abnormality in Yu Donghai's identity. When he was young, he had accompanied the 'young master' to the Imperial Cuisine Restaurant. He dared to venture into the abyss alone, and he even knew about the existence of the 'Spirit Restraining Parasite'. He also knew a lot about the six great clans.

All sorts of signs indicated that Yu Donghai's identity wasn't ordinary. He was absolutely not an ordinary commoner.

Yu Huang pretended to be confused. She said, "Father, you said that you picked me up from the abyss. To me, you are my biological father. I've never thought about anything else."

Yu Donghai sighed and decided to tell Yu Huang the truth about her origins.

"You were indeed brought back by me from the abyss. However, you are not an abandoned baby that I picked up. You are the Little Young Master that I risked my life to enter the abyss and snatch back from the mouth of the ferocious beasts! Your true identity is the Little Young Master of the Yin Clan, one of the six great cultivation clans.

Yu Huang was speechless!

Even though she had long guessed that her identity was extraordinary, Yu Huang was still shocked.

"Yin Clan?"

Yu Donghai nodded.

He told Yu Huang, "Your father is the previous patriarch of the Yin Clan, Yin Mingjue!"

Yu Huang wasn't familiar with Yin Mingjue's name, so when she heard this name, her reaction was somewhat blank and it felt unfamiliar.

When Yu Donghai saw Yu Huang's blank and ignorant expression, he couldn't help but feel sorrowful.

Yu Donghai sighed with sorrow. "The people of today only know that Master Sheng has extraordinary talent and is a genius of the cultivation world. However, they have forgotten that 150 years ago, one of the six great cultivation clans, the Yin Clan, had once produced a shocking genius!"

At the mention of his young master, Yin Mingjue, Yu Donghai's expression unconsciously became proud. He spoke as if he was speaking of his family's treasures, "Young master awakened his beast form at the age of ten, entered the Divine Realm Academy at the age of 14, broke through to the Master Realm at the age of 23, and broke through to the Supreme Master Realm at the age of 35. He is the best in his generation!"

In Yu Donghai's heart, Young Master Yin Mingjue was the most formidable god!

"When Young Master was 38 years old, he successfully ventured into the Central Pagoda and the outside world to seek knowledge. He went there for a hundred years. It was only 18 years ago that Young Master brought you, who was a month old, back to the Holy Spirit Continent. When he returned from his studies, he was already a revered Prime Master-level Beast Tamer!"

When she heard the term "Prime Master", Yu Huang's eyes flickered lightly.

On the Holy Spirit Continent, there were currently only three Prime Master level powerhouses. However, they were all old monsters who had lived for hundreds of years. Her father had become an Prime Master level powerhouse at the age of 130. What kind of terrifying cultivation talent was this?!

Yu Huang noticed the details in Yu Donghai's words and hurriedly asked, "I was brought back from the Upper World by my father? What about my mother? Did she not follow me back?"

Yu Donghai shook his head with his brows tightly furrowed as he said in confusion, "I've never seen the Young Madam before. I only know that she's the girl Young Master knew in the Upper World. Young Master once said that he would bring you to the Upper World to reunite with her, but he..."

Yu Donghai suddenly fell silent, as if he had recalled a painful past. The expression on his face instantly became sorrowful.

Yu Huang had a bad premonition. She asked softly, "My father... how did he die?"

Yu Donghai gulped down a mouthful of wine as two streams of warm tears flowed down his face. Yin Mingjue's death was something that Yu Donghai didn't dare to recall after so many years.

"Young Master's death is related to the Central Pagoda."

Central Pagoda?

This was another name that Yu Huang found unfamiliar.

Knowing that Yu Huang did not understand the Central Pagoda

, Yu Donghai told her, "There is a mysterious iron pagoda at the northernmost end of the Holy Spirit Continent. It goes deep into hell and reaches into the clouds. It is called the Central Pagoda. The Central Pagoda is the passageway that connects our world and the outside world."

The Holy Spirit Continent was only a small world among the three thousand worlds. Above it were ten super large worlds, hundreds of middle worlds, and countless small worlds.

"Back then, Young Master went to the outside world to focus on cultivating for a hundred years. When he returned, he was already a revered Prime Master. The young and promising him was recommended by various big shots of the Holy Spirit Continent to become the guardian of the Central Pagoda. That was a great honor!"

"Going to the outside world to study is a rare opportunity and also an honor. Thus, every five years, the various authorities of the Holy Spirit Continent would send their geniuses to the Central Pagoda for a challenge. The top ten winners who passed the trials would be sent to the outside world by the spatial gate to learn. 18 years ago, all the geniuses gathered at the Central Pagoda for the challenge, but an accident happened that time..."

"What exactly happened?" Yu Huang asked impatiently.

"Dead..." Yu Donghai shook his head and sighed. "Out of 200 talented young Beast Tamers, only one is left... Even Young Master died in the Central Tower."

A trial had turned into a living hell. It was the painful memory of the entire Holy Spirit Continent.

Yu Huang only felt shocked.

A Prime Master-level Beast Tamer was a supreme expert capable of destroying the world. To be able to kill a Prime Master in the Central Pagoda, what exactly happened in the pagoda?

As if he knew what Yu Huang was thinking, Yu Donghai told her, "What happened in the pagoda is still a mystery."

"That day, when the rescue team arrived at the Central Pagoda, the battle had already ended. I followed them into the Central Pagoda and saw a bloody battlefield, along with young Beast Tamers who had already lost their lives. The Young Master had already died..."

"He sacrificed his life, self-destructed his beast form, and blocked the space-time gate with all his might.

No one knew what was behind the space-time gate.

Yin Mingjue's remains were still stuck at the spacetime door at the top level of the central tower.. It was indestructible and guarded all the living beings in the Holy Spirit Continent alone, year after year, without asking for anything in return.

Chapter 29: Heartless Man

After she heard the whole story, Yu Huang's heart was so heavy that she was speechless.

This was the first time she had heard about her biological father, Yin Mingjue. Yin Mingjue was completely different from what she had imagined. He wasn't a scumbag father who abandoned his child. He was an indomitable hero.

So she was not an abandoned baby that her parents did not love. She was her father's treasure.

Yu Donghai drank some wine and cried again. His eyes and cheeks were flushed.

He grabbed Yu Huang's hands and gazed at her with tears in his eyes. He said to her, "You really should enter the Divine Realm Academy and take a look at the square of the Hall of Fame at the Divine Realm Academy."

“Hall of Fame?” In the eyes of ordinary people, the Divine Realm Academy was mysterious. There had never been any information about the Divine Realm Academy on the Internet.

No one knew where the Divine Realm Academy was or what it looked like.

“That’s right.” Yu Donghai told Yu Huang, “The Hall of Fame is one of the most famous buildings in the Divine Realm Academy. There are many statues of great people placed there. The young master’s statue is placed in the center of the hall of fame. Everyone calls him ‘Selfless Prime Master’.”

“He was handsome and heroic. If you can enter the Divine Realm Academy, you must personally go to the Hall of Fame to pay respects to your father.”

Upon learning that her father’s statue had been placed in the Hall of Fame, Yu Huang’s desire to enter the Divine Realm Academy intensified.

“I must go to the Divine Realm Academy. Even if I can’t be accepted into the Divine Realm Academy as a Beast Tamer, even if I become the top scorer, I still have to enter the Divine Realm Academy.”

When Yu Donghai heard her words, he felt extremely gratified.

He looked at the stubborn look on his face and thought about how his young master would never be able to see her grow up into an adult. He couldn’t help but feel sad.

“Do you understand now?” Yu Donghai stared at the little black mole in Yu Huang’s eyes and sighed. “Just because you’re Yin Mingjue’s daughter, it’s worth it for them to plot against you!”

Yin Mingjue possessed such terrifying cultivation talent, so how could his only daughter, Yu Huang, be mediocre?!

Yu Huang asked, “Who would harm me?”

Yu Donghai recalled some enemies, and his gaze couldn’t help but become gloomy. “If I’m not mistaken, then it’s probably done by that heartless Yin Mingchong!”

“Yin Mingchong?” This was another name that was completely unfamiliar to Yu Huang.

“Who is he?”

“Yin Mingchong is your uncle, Young Master’s cousin, and the current Patriarch of the Yin Clan. He’s the most hypocritical person!” As soon as Yin Mingchong was mentioned, Yu Donghai gnashed his teeth with hatred.

He grabbed the pendant on the wine pot tightly and said in a gloomy tone, "When Young Master was still alive, he pretended to obey Young Master's orders. Before Young Master even died, he already couldn't wait to take over the Yin family and colluded with others. He acted as if a bandit who broke into the Yin family and stole you away!"

Yu Huang frowned and said, "Father, you mean that you suspect Yin Mingchong has joined forces with outsiders to steal me away and abandon me in an extremely dangerous abyss for me to die?"

"Yes! You're the Young Master of the Yin Clan, so how could you have been abandoned in such a dangerous place like the abyss for no reason!?"

Yu Donghai was still unable to let go of the memories that had been sealed away. He said, "At that time, even though Yin Mingchong was in charge of the Yin Clan and became the Patriarch, the elders only saw him as a temporary Patriarch. They placed their hopes on you, Young Master."

"Because you're the young master's child, it's very likely that you'll inherit the young master's heaven-defying cultivation talent. The elders originally intended to use the entire clan's strength to nurture you into the Yin Clan's next Prime Master. When Yin Mingchong sensed the threat you posed to him, the ruthless him secretly collaborated with outsiders to direct a scene where the young master of the Yin Clan was stolen and your whereabouts were unknown!"

So in this world, the person that was most afraid of Yu Huang awakening her beast form and becoming a Beast Tamer was none other than Yin Mingchong!

Yu Huang had lived for over 200 years, and she was deeply aware of how capricious human nature was, and how evil human nature was. It wasn't strange that Yin Mingchong would do such an unforgivable thing for the sake of his status and power.

But...

"Father, how can you be sure that my disappearance is related to Yin Mingchong?"

"This is only a guess..." Yu Donghai was aware that Yin Mingchong was extremely likely to be the mastermind, but he was unable to find any evidence that could let him testify against Yin Mingchong.

Yu Donghai still remembered the details of Yu Huang's disappearance eighteen years ago.

As he recalled, he said, "Back then, ever since Young Master passed away, I've always been by Young Master's side to protect him. But not long after, a rumor suddenly spread. It was said that a Beast Tamer discovered a forbidden technique that could revive a person's soul in an ancient ruin. I desired to revive the Young Master. After hearing this news, I left the Yin Clan to search for the source of the rumor. And the tragedy happened on the second night after I left the Yin Clan. Right after I left the Yin Clan, the grievous news of you being stolen and missing came."

It was also Yu Donghai's fault for being too anxious to save his master. When he heard the news, he recklessly went to investigate the truth.

rumorNow that he thought about it, the timing of the rumor being spread was too coincidental. It could be seen that someone intentionally spread the rumors, with the goal of luring Yu Donghai away from Yu Huang's side!

Chapter 30: The Truth About the Broken Leg

Chapter 30

Just like that, Yu Donghai was easily tricked by the mastermind and lost his young master.

When she listened up to here, Yu Huang still had doubts in her mind as she said, "Since Yin Mingchong views me as an obstacle, why didn't he just kill me directly and instead go through great pains to abandon me in the abyss?"

If he killed her, wouldn't it be the end of everything?

"How could he dare to?!" Yu Donghai slapped the wine jug with excitement, and said angrily, "If Yin Mingchong really kills you, then if he's exposed in the future, then he'll be despised by the entire Divine Moon Empire! Finding someone to disguise as a thief and steal you away, then throw you into the abyss that's filled with danger and leaving you to fend for yourself is the wisest method!"

However, Yin Mingchong had never expected that Yu Donghai would find Yu Huang and bring her out of the abyss safely.

Yu Huang asked again, "Father, then how did you find me?"

"It's all thanks to the Grand State Master that we were able to find your whereabouts." The Divine Moon Empire had a Grand State Master who was proficient in divination. This person's cultivation was profound, and he was also able to pry into the fate of the nation. Even the emperor had to show him some respect. Back then, Yu Donghai had spent a lot of effort to get the Grand State Master's help.

“Back then, I took your personal belongings and found the Grand State Master. The Grand State Master made a divination for you. The divination showed that your hiding place was in the abyss and that your lifespan was not up yet. After knowing that you were still alive, I barged into the abyss alone and took three days to finally find the hungry you.”

“It had been six days since you were stolen. Your cries were as weak as newborn kittens. If I had come half a day later, you might have starved to death. What was even more terrifying was that a Rank 6 Magic Snake was coiled on a tree, waiting to eat you. Fortunately, Young Master had added a blessing to your body. That power could help you withstand five fatal attacks. You were able to stay alive because Young Master was secretly protecting you...”

The power of blessing? Yu Huang would rather call it the power of fatherly love.

She looked at Yu Donghai thoughtfully. In the end, she couldn't help but ask the question that had been hidden in her heart for a long time, “Father, were you also a Beast Tamer in the past?”

Yu Donghai was obviously stunned when he heard this.

Yu Huang calmly analyzed, “To dare to enter the abyss alone and walk out alive, Father, this is not something an ordinary person can do. You were a Beast Tamer before, right?”

Yu Donghai knew that he couldn't hide it anymore, so he could only admit it. “Yes, I was once a Beast Tamer in the past, but my talent wasn't high. After cultivating for more than a hundred years, I'm still only a Supreme Master.”

He was indeed a Beast Tamer!

She noticed that Yu Donghai's words contained the word 'past', it meant that he was no longer a Beast Tamer. Only Beast Tamers who had self-destructed their beast forms would become ordinary people again.

Yu Huang was very curious as to what exactly had happened to Yu Donghai that he was forced into a corner and self-destructed his beast form.

“Father, why did you self-destruct your beast form? And how did you lose your leg?”

Facing Yu Huang's question, Yu Donghai remained silent for a longer time than before.

Why did he self-destruct his beast form?

Because his cultivation was still shallow and his ability was too weak, he was utterly not a match for that Rank 6 Magic Snake. In order to kill that Rank 6 Magic Snake, he could only choose to detonate his beast form and perish together with that Magic Snake.

His leg was also bitten off by a Rank 6 Magic Snake in battle.

But could he tell the whole truth to Yu Huang?

Looking at Yu Huang's eyes, which were filled with concern, Yu Donghai could not bear to tell her the truth.

Knowing the truth would only increase Yu Huang's psychological burden, and Yu Donghai was unwilling to let Yu Huang bear too much pressure.

When she saw that Yu Donghai did not speak, the confusion in Yu Huang's mind deepened. What was her father worried about? Why did he not dare to tell her the truth?

Was he unable to say it, or was he unwilling to say it?

Yu Donghai lied and casually explained. "In the past, I offended someone, and a leg was chopped off by that person. In the end, I could only choose to detonate my beast form to survive."

Yu Huang did not believe his nonsense at all.

However, she acted as if she believed Yu Donghai's explanation. She nodded her head and said, "So that's how it is. Father, tell me that person's name. In the future, I will avenge you."

"That person died a long time ago. Now that he's dead, bygones are bygones." Yu Donghai thought that he'd deceived Yu Huang, and he heaved a sigh of relief in his heart.

But at that moment, Yu Huang suddenly reached out and pulled up the empty section of his pants.

Yu Donghai was shocked. "What are you doing?!" He wanted to put down his pants, but Yu Huang grabbed his pants and refused to let go.

"Don't move!" Yu Huang glared at him fiercely with a straight face. It was quite frightening.

Yu Donghai really did not dare to move anymore.

Without the cover of his pants, Yu Donghai's crippled leg appeared before Yu Huang's eyes.

Yu Donghai's left leg had been broken from the top of his knee. However, the cut was obviously not caused by a knife or a sharp weapon. It was more like it had been torn apart by a ferocious beast with sharp saw teeth.

Yu Huang had guessed the truth behind Yu Donghai's broken leg, and her eyes instantly turned blurry with tears. Yu Huang's heart wasn't made of stone. Seeing such a scene, even she was moved.

"You self-destructed your beast form in order to save me, right? Your leg was also bitten off by that level 6 Magic Snake, right?"
