

Silly Teen 26

Chapter 26

Guan Dongxuan's father said this with his mouth, and he looked at us with contempt. Uncle Chen looked at him and also clenched his fist. On the side, Teacher Lin also frowned and was even trying to shield me behind her. But the look from Duan Chang on the side was what forced her to back off.

And Guan Dongxuan's father raised his hand to land another slap on me. Uncle Chen rushed forward and grabbed his hand.

"Hey, don't go too far."

Uncle Chen said with a gloomy face.

"Oh, you've been suspended now, what else do you want Oh no, I should ask you, what else can you do! Now you, can't you still arrest me?" Guan Dongxuan his father asked back, while his tone was even more questioning, "Let go of me!"

Uncle Chen was on the verge of an emotional outburst, but he still released Guan Dongxuan's dad's hand.

Guan Dongxuan, who was standing at the side, watched the scene and the look he cast at me was even more smug.

Uncle Chen was holding back his anger and wanted to discuss the matter with Guan Dongxuan's father. This was not a big deal from an adult's point of view. It was the intervention of Guan Dongxuan's father that increased the seriousness of the matter. But Uncle Chen's initiative to seek peace was not taken seriously by Guan Dongxuan's father.

Guan Dongxuan's father maintained his superior attitude and gave a conciliatory solution: "If you really want to settle this matter, let this little bastard kneel down and apologise to Dongxuan!"

Hearing his words, even Mr. Lin, who was standing by, couldn't help but say, "This is too much!"

"Excessive? Someone has slandered your child, can't you still make him admit his mistake and apologize?" Guan Dongxuan's father asked rhetorically.

"But this way you're going about it, it's too much!" Teacher Lin continued.

But aside, Duan Chang hurriedly was glaring at Teacher Lin: "Teacher Lin, there's nothing for you to do here, you should go out first!"

"Duan Chang"

"Did you hear what I said!" Duan Chang said in a very serious manner. And Teacher Lin was even more furious for a while. She glanced in my direction, and even more helplessly turned around and left the place. I looked at Teacher Lin's back and also thought about how Uncle Chen had suddenly been suspended because of me, and I felt even more uncomfortable in my heart.

I didn't want to let this matter continue at this pace any longer.

If my kneeling could really put this matter to rest for the time being, I was willing to do so!

“Ah Chao, let’s go, go home!” Uncle Chen said in a deep voice. He grabbed my arm and was about to lead me away.

“The matter hasn’t even been settled yet, how are you guys going to just walk away?” Guan Dongxuan’s father directly stopped the way, just rushing us and asking.

“You forced me to do this!”

“Forced you to what?”

Uncle Chen listened to Guan Dongxuan’s dad’s voice and let go of me with his backhand. He clenched his fist and threw two fists at Guan Dongxuan’s dad. Although Uncle Chen had retired from the army for many years, he usually had exercise. With him, putting down Guan Dongxuan’s dad was just a matter of moments!

“Why are you still hitting people? Dad” Guan Dongxuan hurriedly helped his dad up.

“I’m fine.” Guan Dongxuan’s dad shook his head. What followed was that he pushed Guan Dongxuan away. He stared at Uncle Chen and sneered, “You want to fight? Come on, who’s afraid of who!”

“Chief Guan, don’t fight here, it’s not a good influence.” The Duan chief at the side hurriedly advised.

“Don’t mind my business!”

That was what Guan Dongxuan’s father said.

With his voice, Uncle Chen told me to step back a bit and confronted Guan Dongxuan’s father head-on. Guan Dongxuan’s father was no match for Uncle Chen. In three or two strokes, he was downed by Uncle Chen again. But Guan Dongxuan’s father was not convinced and got up again.

Guan Dongxuan was even more anxious as he walked over to me and bellowed at me, “Jin Chao, hurry up and tell your uncle to stop for me, do you hear me?”

I turned my head and gave him a very cold look, “Why should I do as you say?”

“You’re looking for death?”

“It’s you who’s looking for death!” I yelled at him with even more anger welling up in my heart. Guan Dongxuan had bullied me more than once or twice. At this moment, he still had the courage to say such things to me. Was he bullying me and taking it for granted?

Did I deserve to be bullied? By association, should the people around me also be trampled underfoot by Guan Dongxuan’s family?

“Alright, don’t fight.”

Duan Chang hurriedly came up to dissuade him.

Uncle Chen once again, after putting Guan Dongxuan’s father on the ground, also took a few steps backwards, indicating that he had stopped. After Guan Dongxuan’s father got up from the ground, his eyes became even more sinister. His white shirt was stained with a lot of grey stains, and he even looked in a mess.

“Ah Chao you come here, let’s go.” Uncle Chen waved at me.

Beside me, Guan Dongxuan, who was looking at me, was looking at me with great anger. If this were the usual situation, he would have come over with a big mouth. But at this time, he did not make a move. When I passed by Guan Dongxuan’s father, his father suddenly moved.

Guan Dongxuan’s dad couldn’t beat Uncle Chen, so instead he waved his arm, raised his hand and slapped me violently: “Bastard! Get lost!”

And I gave him this slap, breaking the skin directly on the inside of my mouth. The taste of blood and fishy sweetness filled my mouth. I turned my head back that had been deflected by his flash. I clenched my fist and glared at him. My face was already bruised, and it was made worse by his blow.

Uncle Chen came over with a grim look on his face and just asked at me, “Chao, does it hurt?”

“I’m fine, Uncle Chen.”

I said hurriedly.

I was rushing to sense something was wrong from Uncle Chen’s tone of voice. I said this because I didn’t want Uncle Chen to be impulsive. But when Uncle Chen looked at me, he took off the police uniform he was wearing and handed it over to me.

He twisted his fist and stood right in front of Guan Dongxuan’s dad: “Hey, Chief Guan, let me just ask you one thing. You didn’t come to the school to inspect it in your capacity as the chief, did you?”

Guan Dongxuan’s father did not dare to respond. If he had come over for an inspection, he was definitely not the only one who came over.

“Not talking, are you? Then let me ask you again, did you come to the school in the same capacity as me, as a parent?” Uncle Chen continued his question.

“Why are you asking so much nonsense!” Guan Dongxuan’s father gave a strong bellow. But he was even stronger at this point, and he was just bluffing when he said that.

“Of course I have my purpose for asking this! If that’s the case, then I don’t need to worry about any consequences even more if I beat you up!”

Uncle Chen said with a sneer.

And Guan Dongxuan’s father tensed up all of a sudden, “You dare to hit me? Do you know who I am?”

“Just a parent!”
