

Silly Teen 58

Chapter 58

Wah asked me plaintively, but his words put me on alert for a moment.

“My uncle has gone on a mission.”

I asked carefully, trying not to reveal my nervousness as much as possible, “What, do you and my Uncle Chen know each other?”

“Haha, sort of.”

Hua said, and stood up, “Well, since your Uncle Chen isn’t home, I’ll withdraw first. When he comes back, I’ll also ask you to tell him for me that I, Zheng Hua, have returned.”

“Oh, okay .....

I froze and agreed.

I walked him to the door, he suddenly remembered something, is to look back at me: “By the way Jin Chao, you have time tomorrow, right?”

“Yes, why?”

“I just want to take you to dinner tomorrow to express my gratitude for yesterday. Also by the way ..... ease the relationship between you and Snow Float.” Hua said, and laughed harshly.

Wah told me that the reason why Guo Xuefu would mind so much about me becoming that ‘gangster nature’ of a delinquent student. As long as it was because of his influence. Guo Xuefu had watched him being taken away by the police. And the reason Guo Xuefu minded so much was that he was afraid that the same thing would happen to me again.

And with Hua’s explanation, I understood what Guo Xuefu was thinking.

What I wasn’t sure about was whether Wah was here with hostile intentions or as an ‘old friend’.

I exchanged phone calls with Wah, who then waved his hand at me, “See Jin Chao tomorrow, wait for my call.”

“Okay, see you tomorrow.”

“Don’t worry about the snow float. It’s not supposed to be a big deal, I’ll definitely get it done for you.” Wah said, and with a wink at me, disappeared between the stairs. As I thought back carefully, the whole time, Wah gave me the impression that he was nothing more than a big brother next door.

Instead, it was my nervousness and concern that made me feel that what he said was with a strong sense of purpose.

What was going on here?

According to Manager Xu, wasn't Wah supposed to screw Uncle Chen after he came out? And Wah, being a very powerful man, shouldn't have been beaten up by Xu Ying's men on his first day out of prison. Plus, Hua's earlier remarks made me feel that something was not right.

As if the whole thing was not what Xu Ying had said!

But what was going on here? Was Xu Ying lying to me, or was it this sudden primary election of Hua? I don't know!

After waiting all night, I still didn't wait for Uncle Chen's return. Because Uncle Chen said before he left that he went on a mission, I didn't give the courage to call him either.

The next day, I went to my appointment after a text message from Wah. I waited for a while at the appointed place, and this was when I saw the appearance of Wah with Guo Xuefu.

"Jin Chao, let's go." With a harsh laugh, Wah led the two of us away.

And this time when we met, Guo Xuefu's face towards me was considered a little better because of Hua Chai.

"Jin Chao, Xuefu, aren't you classmates? Say something! Do you expect me, someone who hasn't been back for five years, to help you guys find something to talk about?" Hua sat right across from me and joked.

"Xuefu, that time I went to the internet cafe, it was my fault. Will you just forgive me?" I looked at her very sincerely.

"It's none of my business if you want to go to an Internet cafe. You can go if you want to, I'm not stopping you." Guo Xuefu then beamed and said very sulkily. Her tone, however, had improved in comparison to before.

"Xuefu, are you being petty again?"

Hua laughed harshly.

"What do you mean by playing small? I'm just telling the truth!" Guo Xuefu even gave Hua a disgruntled glance.

"Xuefu, do you still refuse to forgive me?" I asked hastily.

Guo Xuefu paused for a moment and then gave me a step, "You haven't even realised what's wrong with you yet? How can you ask me to forgive you?"

And her words left me in the dark. Was it not because of my visit to the Internet cafe that she was angry?

I thought about it for a while, but I couldn't think of anything else I had done wrong apart from going to the Internet cafe. I apologized to her very sincerely, and I really wanted to reconcile our relationship. But she said so ..... Could it be that there was something else I hadn't realised?

Hua was laughing on the sidelines and also reconciling from it.

He told Guo Xuefu to say whatever she was angry about, just say it plainly. After all, we boys' minds are not as delicate as girls'. Even if I were to guess what Guo Xuefu was thinking at this moment, I would not be able to guess.

Because of Hua's words, Guo Xuefu was the one who said her heart's dissatisfaction with me in front of my face.

"Jin Chao, what I've been angry about all this time is your attitude. You lied to me and went to an internet cafe. And then had to find other excuses to continue lying to me to cover up the fact that you went to an internet cafe. Haven't you ever thought of being open and honest with me about this matter of you going to an internet cafe?"

Guo Xuefu said with her arms around her chest, looking at me very seriously.

"I was afraid that if I told you, you would get even more angry." I fell back and scratched my head a little embarrassed.

"Yeah, I'm definitely going to be angry!"

Guo Xuefu suddenly said so, "Look at yourself, how do you still look like a student these days? I wouldn't even care about you going to an internet cafe if you said your academic performance could go up. But you're kind of degenerate now! Can you stand up to Uncle Chen who loves you so much?"

As soon as Hua heard this he just very helplessly interjected on the side, "Xue-fu ah, why do I feel that you are talking about it and putting me in it all together?"

"Brother Hua, you too. Five years ago I watched you get taken away, do you know how worried I was?" Guo Xuefu said, and glared towards Hua.

And as soon as Hua heard that, he hurriedly was making a face of surrender, "Fine, fine, what happened five years ago was my fault, I admit my mistake. Please also ask my good sister Xue Fu to forgive me."

Guo Xuefu rolled her eyes and said, "You two are really the same, you are obviously grown men and you need others to worry about it!"

"Right brother A-hwa, since you're out, find a normal job and go to work. Jinchao, and you, you should also hurry up and get your grades up. Both of you, do you hear me?" Guo Xuefu surprisingly just had the presence of mind to lecture the two of us.

Hua and I smiled at each other and agreed with a smile.

Wah was a very good mediator of the atmosphere. With his presence, there was no awkwardness at all at the dinner table.

But just as we were about to finish eating, a group of people suddenly rushed into the restaurant .....
