Chapter 82

As soon as Cao Ge's words came out, the crowd at the side directly copied the stools and small tables at the side and smashed them viciously against the mahjong machines. The most expensive items in the shop were the mahjong tables in the lobby. If they were all smashed up, there would be nearly 100,000!

As I listened to the riot at the side, I was suddenly frozen. It was the first time I had ever experienced such a scene, and my emotions were heightened by it.

This bunch of people, they're all here for me!

"Stop it all ..... hurry up and stop it all!" Fatty Zhu appeared right at the door, panting and shouting with near full strength.

"Yo Fatty Zhu, you're finally here." Cao Ge made a gesture and had the crowd at the side stop moving their hands. But it was between our stops that the ground was already a mess. Broken plastic benches, the plastic sides of the mahjong machine ..... were all scattered on the floor.

Although the mahjong machines weren't completely broken, these machines would cost several thousand dollars to repair!

"Cao Ge, what are you doing! Can't we just talk about what's going on? Why are you really smashing my shop!" Fatty Zhu looked at everything in the shop and had an even meatier expression.

"But I've already given you the chance to discuss, you just don't cherish it." Cao Ge said with a sneer.

Fatty Zhu looked at Cao Ge very seriously and asked, "Cao Ge, do you know what will happen if you offend me?"

Cao Ge then returned his words as they were, "Then do you know what will happen if you offend me?"

"Fatty Zhu, you still don't know, do you? In recent times, Cao Ge and 1908 have been getting very close!" Ah Chang then reminded at the side. His words also implicitly represented his attitude. By my thinking, he must be attached to Cao because of 1908's existence as well.

"What? 1908!"

Fatty Zhu literally froze for a moment.

"Yes, you understand now, don't you?"

Cao Ge said a little lightly.

As Fatty Zhu listened to Cao Ge's words, his expression became even more serious for a moment: "Cao Ge, can we go outside to talk?"

"If there's anything to say, wouldn't it be better to talk about it here! Chao is also present." Cao Ge said, and looked in my direction. But when his words came out, they even made Fatty Zhu's face darken. Although Fatty Zhu had hit me, I had given him two kicks in the crotch, so he must not have suffered much better!

From this point of view, Fatty Zhu didn't really have any advantage from me. After all, the crotch is one of the most 'valued' parts of a man's body!

And Cao Ge's words choked Fatty Zhu even more.

"Well ..... Cog, then, what happened last night was my fault. But now you've also smashed my shop, between us, we can clear the air!"

Fatty Zhu just said that.

Just along with his words, it made the atmosphere even more tense.

Cao Ge said: since he had come to the door, how could he let this matter end just like that? On the other side, Ah Chang was also saying something wrong about Fatty Zhu. For a while, Fatty Zhu was also moved. He was looking very resigned, so he asked Cao Ge what he wanted.

Cao Ge was lazy and said, "I don't want anything either. But since things have come to such a head, you should give me a reasonable result anyhow!"

"Cao Ge, do you really think you're a bully because you're close to 1908? Who the hell knows who you are in contact with and whether you have any power!" Fatty Zhu was really angry, "Also, Cao Ge, don't forget that this is my turf. Do you really think you people, you can mess with me on my turf?"

"Fatty Zhu, you don't have to make this noise either. If you don't believe me, go ahead and try your hand! Let's see who will be dead then!"

Cao Ge said with a sneer.

"Trying to bluff me with just two words? Do you think I, Zhu Yu, am scared?" Fatty Zhu said with an agitated expression.

But at this, Cao Ge laughed coldly.

"Brother Zhu, Cao Ge and the others are simply bullying people too much, not to mention smashing the shop on our turf and even threatening us. I can't stand it anymore."

"Brother Zhu, don't talk so much nonsense with them, let me call my brothers over."

"Yes Brother Zhu, just these guys of theirs are not enough!"

Fatty Zhu's little brothers on the side, also exploded. They even stirred Fatty Zhu's emotions. It was between their words that someone was even saying from the side that they had called the men over. I listened to their commotion and got a little nervous. If we really started fighting, we wouldn't have any advantage at all!

It was not long after Fatty Zhu's minions spoke that a group of silhouettes surrounded the entrance of the mahjong hall in an ugly manner.

In a flash, Fatty Zhu's thirty-odd men formed an absolute crush on us!

"Cao Ge, think about it. If you leave now, this matter can still be left alone." Because of the suppression in numbers, Fatty Zhu's strength also increased and he threatened Cao Ge instead.

“Cut it out, does having more people help?”

Achang said with a disdainful smile.

With his size, he was a standard fitness freak. With a physique like that, he was naturally able to keep the others out of his sight.

“Ah Chao, when the fight starts later, you just stand on the side.” Cao Ge said to me as soon as he dropped the cigarette in his hand.

I was about to say something else, but was interrupted by Cao Ge.

“There’s no just, listen to me all! If we really do it later, Chang and I can’t take care of you.” Cao Ge said to me very seriously. I also understood my situation. They were all from society, but I was just a high school student. Let’s not talk about the physical size, but just in terms of hands, I was a far cry from them.

If I intervened in this, I was afraid that I would only become a drag for them.

“Do it!”

Fatty Zhu gave an order.

Along with his words, the chaotic battle suddenly started.

Fatty Zhu seemed to be distressed by the mahjong machines in the venue, and kept asking his men to draw Cao Ge and the others out. But Cao Ge and his men knew what was involved, and they knew that in this 200 square metre area, they wouldn’t dare to hit them hard because of their concern for their own venue!

And so, too, Cao Ge and the others stayed in the field!

“Crackle-”

Amidst the noisy scene were the shouts and curses of two groups of people. I stood aside, but became forgotten by them. After thinking about it, I gritted my teeth even more, grabbed a bottle from the side and smashed it hard against the head of one of the men in front of me. I didn’t want to just watch from the sidelines, I wanted to make a difference too.

“F*ck!” Fatty Zhu’s minions watched and became even more violently angry.

“Get him!”

With my move, their attention, all of it, shifted to me. And at that moment, I also suddenly realized that danger was about to really come .....
