

Silly Teen 85

Chapter 85

Cao Ge said he had the Great Dragon buff on him and was able to speed back to the city, and he went back to guard first. However, I shook my head. With no troops coming in, I acted as a meat shield with myself and frantically demolished the opposite side's defence tower.

One of our gateways broke down, and the opposite one fell afterwards.

As we watched, the second incisor on the opposite side was about to break, and the second incisor on our side had fallen.

We always came up short!

"It's going to be a loss." The night rain sounded annoying right at the end of the voice.

"No, we're winning!" I said abruptly, "Our family's defense crystal is about to come back to life!"

"What?" Night Rain Sound Annoyance was obviously surprised to. That is, just as my words fell, our family's crystal was, indeed, resurrected. The people on the other side, seeing that they had already beaten the crystal down to a third of its blood, were only a second away from victory at most.

But it was at this juncture that something like this happened!

Because of the resurrection of the defence crystal, our base crystal became unelectable. They rushed back to demolish the defence crystal, but it was already too late.

Then, along with a 'boom' sound. The base crystal broke, and two big words 'Victory' appeared on the screen!

"We actually won?" Night Rain sounded annoyed or didn't react.

"Chao, you're remembering time, remembering is simply getting scarier and scarier." Cao Ge couldn't help but say.

"No ..... it's not scary, it's simply perverted!" Night Rain sounded annoyed at the end of the voice, adding to Cao Ge's words.

"Are you a pro level player?" Night Rain Sound Bother then asked at me.

I laughed dryly and replied, "How can I be a pro level player? I'm, like, a high schooler."

"A high school student can do that? That's amazing!" Night Rain sounded annoyed even more surprised.

"And with this skill, he's still only started playing League for half a month of operation and awareness." Cao Zhiyong said for me.

"Holy sh*t, holy sh*t, are you sent by God to strike us?" The night rain sounded annoyed and the emotions exploded.

"Yes, haha." Cog responded again for me.

I did look at him a little breathlessly, "Cao, just stop joking and restart the game too."

“I’m just being honest!” Cao Ge said with a chuckle. Because we were in row five, the queue took a relatively long time. I sat in my seat and smoked a cigarette with Cao Ge and the others. During the process, the night rain sounded annoying and asked about where we were from.

I didn’t care at the time, so I told him in passing that we were from Xuancheng.

But if I said Xuancheng, he wouldn’t know. After all, Xuancheng is a third or fourth tier city! But I didn’t expect that Night Rain would say that he knew Xuancheng, and that he knew it well! This was what made me suddenly curious about where he was from, and whether he was from a coastal province like us.

But at the very moment when Night Rain was about to explain, the internet cafe suddenly lost power!

“Holy sh*t! What’s the deal with a power cut at this juncture?” Cao Ge was startled and cursed.

And this end of the cyber cafe gave an explanation afterwards, saying that the transformer around here was overwhelmed and blew up! We didn’t get a match on the one we just had either, and Cao Ge and the others didn’t bother to run a kilometre to another cyber cafe. As the evening was approaching, we went straight to find a place to eat.

After dinner, Cao Ge suddenly said he had to go to work.

It was the first time I had heard him say that, so it was a bit new!

The little brother on the side explained to me that Cao had always helped out with the venue before and was free as a matter of course. But now he suddenly said he wanted to go to work because of a girl.

“Brother Cao, which girl do you have your eye on?” I asked with a harsh laugh.

“Go go go, you kids don’t mind so much!” Looking at Cao Ge, he seemed to be a bit embarrassed.

“Tell me about it, or a photo will do!” I joked about Cog.

“I don’t have any photos!”

Cao Ge said breathlessly instead.

“But the girl Cao has his eye on is pretty hot! Nice body too!” Little brother did add on the side.

“You’re the one who talks too much!”

Cao Ge gave him a brain dime.

“All right, all right, if you’ve got something to do, you go and do your thing. We’re going out tonight to dazzle our!” Achango, who was on the side, also joked.

“Oh yeah, I’ve got something to do tonight too, you guys go and have fun.” I remembered Xu Ying’s words and said to Brother Achang.

“I don’t suppose you’ve got a date with a woman too!”

Ah Chang did look at me with some surprise.

“Not really. ....”

I said with a dry smile.

But as I was talking, a BMW suddenly pulled up in front of the small shop where we were eating. Achang and the others were a bit puzzled, thinking that this BMW was just here to show off its superiority at a small roadside restaurant like this. But Cao Ge looked at the BMW's arrival and shot a glance at me instead.

Cao Ge obviously knew that this was Xu Ying's BMW!

"Jin Chao, what are you still standing there for? Get in!" Xu Ying said at me as soon as she rolled down the window.

"Holy sh*t, a beautiful young woman!"

Brother Achang's emotions also perked up for a moment.

"Jin Chao, who's this for you? Sister, girlfriend? Or ..... gun-friend!"

Cao Ge said with some amusement from the side, "You guys just don't guess so much blindly! Jin Chao, you go ahead."

I listened to his words, but nodded, and left after saying hello to them. I walked straight up to the BMW, as I had sent the address to Xu Ying earlier, it was no surprise that she appeared in front of the shop.

I sat in the passenger seat.

"Have you had enough?" Xu Ying asked as she reversed the car and rushed to me.

"Seven percent full, I guess, what's wrong?" I asked in passing.

"I'll take you to dinner, and by the way there's something I want you to do tonight." Xu Ying drove on up the road.

"You're trying to get me to ....."

I realised what was going on at once.

"Something like that." Xu Ying affirmed.

I sat on the passenger side of the BMW, my mood suddenly was apprehensive. Xu Ying was definitely taking me to meet a woman, but it made me instinctively think that the woman I was going to meet later must be some kind of older ..... definitely not a beautiful woman like Xu Ying anyway!

Xu Ying took me and walked into a building that was plain in appearance but not too elegant.

This is a high class private restaurant in Xuancheng!

But it was after walking into the lobby that I was frozen.

"Manager Xu, how come my class teacher is here?" With Xu Ying's knowledge of me, she must have known who my class teacher was. And my class teacher, Ms. Lin, was sitting in the seat Xu Ying had reserved! There was no reason for her not to tell me that the person she had a date with was my homeroom teacher!

“What, are you nervous?”

The corner of Xu Ying’s mouth curled into a faint smile.

“Not nervous, just embarrassed.” I gave a sarcastic laugh.
