Chapter 89

In the face of my question, the doctor was nodding very seriously.

He told me that if the medicine in Mr. Lin's stomach was not washed out, it would be even more troublesome to deal with it. Although the medicine had been in Mr. Lin's body for quite some time, there was no guarantee that Mr. Lin's body had absorbed all the effects of the medicine.

It was between the nurses sending Ms. Lin to have her stomach pumped, and me sitting in the corridor, just waiting for the results.

I basically spent the rest of the night with Mr. Lin in the hospital.

I called Uncle Chen and told him about the fact that I wouldn't be there. But my behaviour in recent times was also making Uncle Chen a bit worried. Uncle Chen said that if anything happened to me, remember to be the first to talk to him.

To this, I also agreed.

I looked at Mr. Lin in front of me.

Because of the side effects of gastric lavage, it was causing Mr. Lin's face to turn a little white. I stood by Mr. Lin's side. The bottle on the IV tube was changed several times, but Mr. Lin was still not awake under the effect of the sedative.

I waited from eleven o'clock until the arrival of four or five in the morning, more than making me uncontrollably sleepy.

I saw that Mr. Lin was still awake, so I lay down on the edge of the bed and rested for a while.

I was a very light sleeper when I suddenly felt the bed move and woke up with a jolt.

Ms. Lin, who was lying on the bed, looked at me with a stern face and clenched teeth. Her face was tinged with anger and hatred, and her eyes looked even more like she wanted to kill me. The look in her eyes made me even more ashamed of myself and made me I subconsciously wanted to avoid her gaze.

I kept my head down.

But she wanted me to lift my head up.

"Jin Chao, you have the face to do such a thing, but you don't have the face to look at me?" Teacher Lin's tone was very serious.

"Teacher Lin, it's not what you think." I said hastily.

"Oh? Then tell me how things really are!" Teacher Lin gave a cold laugh.

"The thing is"

My explanation reached my mouth, but it suddenly stuck. I suddenly realized that even if my words were to come out, Teacher Lin would definitely not believe me! Even my explanation would only make

Ms. Lin even angrier. She would definitely think that I was lying to her, that I was perfunctorily talking to her!

“What’s wrong? Don’t know what to make up from?” Teacher Lin was so angry that her body trembled a little.

“No Ms. Lin

I said hurriedly.

“Then tell me, what, exactly, is going on?” Teacher Lin stared at mine even more.

But I was suddenly silent again.

“You do tell me!” Mr. Lin urged me anxiously.

“I

“Is it that there is nothing to say? Is it that you don’t even know how to explain?” The teacher was even more agitated, she stared at me angrily, her white face turned red with rage: “Jin Chao, you even dare to hit the teacher now, right!”

I knew I had nothing to say, so I bowed my head helplessly.

But my actions made Teacher Lin even more furious: “Jin Chao, lift your head up!”

I felt my body stiffen a little. Between slowly raising my head, I drew a look of hatred from Teacher Lin that wanted to kill me.

“Should I call the police now and have them arrest you? And let your uncle who is a police officer see what you have become now!” Between her words, Teacher Lin was so emotional that she couldn’t even stop her hands from trembling.

“Teacher Lin, calm down a bit.” I could only say this instead.

“Calm down? How do you want me to calm down?” Teacher Lin’s voice was a little louder: “If this happened to your loved ones, would you be able to calm down?”

I listened to Ms. Lin’s words, but I didn’t know how to respond to her.

I could understand her emotions at that moment.

At that time, I was taken away by 1908 and listened to Chen Tingting’s helpless cries. At that time, I was probably in the exact same state of mind as she is now.

Although that incident, because of Chen Tingting’s cooperation with 1908, was clarified. That incident, was nothing more than a fake-out in front of me. It was only a ploy to get me to fall into Chen Tingting’s trap but at the time, I was also desperate several times.

“Mr. Lin, if you want to if you call the police, I have no right to stop you. But before you call the police, I just want to defend myself for a moment. I, Jin Chao, am not the kind of person who is ungrateful and unrighteous. I remember all the good things that Mr. Lin has done for me in my heart. But I was more than forced to do so.”

I said with a long sigh.

“Forced? How can you be forced?” Mr. Lin almost yelled at me.

The doctor on duty outside heard the commotion and rushed in. Although this was an emergency room, there was no such requirement for quiet as inpatient units. But this was a hospital, after all, and it was important to maintain the atmosphere of hospital silence.

The doctor’s intervention, however, merely kept Ms. Lin quiet for a while.

I looked at her like that.

The way she didn’t say anything or accuse me was even more scary to me than she had been, earlier.

Ms. Lin then rushed to the doctor and asked about her condition, and the doctor explained honestly that it was no longer a serious problem. When she heard that, she even stopped hanging the last bottle. She was so angry that she pulled out the IV tube.

Because of her violence, she got an extra cut on the back of her hand.

But she ignored the doctor’s advice and walked out of the emergency room with her right hand covered.

I looked at her back.

The blood on the back of her hand was dripping onto the ground even between her departures.

And as I looked at the bloody rose blooming on the ground, my whole body froze even more. Suddenly, my head was blank and I didn’t know what to think. I walked out of the hospital in a daze, and the sky was white at 5am.

On both sides of the street, the morning market for vegetables was just beginning.

Many people were bustling with torches and streetlights, just picking out the right vegetables.

But as I walked among them, it was as if I had lost my soul.

I couldn’t help but pick up a cigarette.

Even though I was not a smoker, at this moment I wanted to use it to take the edge off. In my heart, I was even more aware of my next outcome. Although Xu Ying said that she would help me deal with it. But I had lost all confidence in Xu Ying, and I couldn’t trust her as a woman with a human face!

I even imagined the police taking me away, and the way Uncle Chen would look at me, beating his chest!

But there was nothing I could do about it.

Before I knew it, I was walking near the school.

The security guard at the gate saw that I was wearing school trousers, and let me in. But as I sat inside the classroom, my whole being could not bring itself to do so.

I was about to be taken away, wasn’t I?
