

Silly Teen 92

Chapter 92

I walked aimlessly along the road, thinking about what had happened to me that day.

Since that day, I had been terrified and blamed myself for doing such a ridiculous thing, and I felt a pang when I thought of the desperate and angry look in Ms Lin's eyes.

At the same time I was afraid that when I did whatever I was doing a bunch of policemen would suddenly rush in and surround me, pulling me towards the police station, afraid of the sad look in Uncle Chen's eyes when he found out what I had done.

When I stopped, I found myself at the door of the internet cafe, I shook my head and couldn't help but laugh at myself: it seems I can't stay away from online games and League of Legends for the rest of my life.

I walked into the cafe and saw that almost all the monitors were showing League of Legends, and I felt the urge to put my worries behind me and play a game, but just as I sat down to light my cigarette, I thought of Zheng Hua's class in the afternoon and Guo Xuefu's words, so I helplessly put out my cigarette, went to the bathroom, washed my face and walked towards school.

I walked into the classroom and sat down in my seat. Guo Xuefu turned her head and gave me a look. I smiled at her and shrugged my shoulders.

Xu Dazhi came over, "Chao, what's the matter, it's time to go to P.E. class later, how should Mr. Zheng Hua treat us? After all, we're kind of the ones who helped him out."

"I don't know, who knows what he thinks, anyway, just treat him like a normal teacher, right? We'll see how it goes, well, class first." I didn't do much explaining because up to now I hadn't guessed into Zheng Hua's mind and didn't know what he was really up to.

"Oh, okay, but I guess PE should be a bit easier." Xu Dazhi closed somewhat.

I laughed bitterly at Xu Dazhi's words, it was true that ignorance was also bliss.

Although I had the intention to make the time slower, it still passed unnoticed.

I twirled the pen in my hand, feeling a little distracted.

"Jinchao, it's time for PE, what are you dawdling about? Everyone has finished walking." Suddenly, I heard Guo Xuefu's voice and the pen in my hand couldn't help but lurch.

I slowly raised my head and looked at Guo Xuefu who looked strangely huffy from anger and smiled unnaturally.

"What's wrong with you?" When Guo Xuefu saw my somewhat ugly face, she thought I was a little uncomfortable and hurriedly took two steps forward and touched my forehead.

I looked at her anxious look and felt warm in my heart, even the annoyance over Zheng Hua's arrival was thrown away.

Looking at Guo Xuefu, who was very close to me, her beautiful face only an arm's length away from mine, an impulse floated through my heart.

I took Guo Xuefu's arm, which had not yet been extended, and, in front of her wide-eyed gaze, pulled her down onto my lap with a sharp effort. Guo Xuefu's soft body pressed against my skin, deeply stimulating me and causing my body temperature to gradually rise.

I looked at her sweet red lips and could not help but kiss them. Guo Xuefu seemed not to react, and as if she did not refuse, she just gave her eyes to close.

"Brother Chao, Brother Chao, are you in the classroom? Hurry up and come out to go to gym class."

Just as I was enjoying this moment, suddenly, from the corridor came Xu Dazhi's voice, and from far to near, like it was almost at the classroom door.

When Guo Xuefu heard the sound, she opened her eyes as if she was a scared rabbit and hurriedly struggled to stand up from my lap.

At this moment, I hated Xu Dazhi in my heart.

"That, I'll go first, you hurry over to gym class." Guo Xuefu blushed red and finished the sentence very quickly before trotting towards the outside of the classroom without looking back. He almost collided with Xu Dazhi who was about to enter the classroom.

"Chao, you're here, why didn't you squeal when I called you? I thought no one was there." Xu Dazhi took a somewhat strange look at Guo Xuefu who ran out and faced me with a smile.

"By the way, how come the school girl ran out in red, shouldn't you?" Xu Dazhi smiled badly.

I walked up to Xu Dazhi and hit him on the head without saying a word.

"Chao, why are you hitting me? It hurts." Xu Dazhi shouted with an exaggerated shout.

"Is your brother and your sister-in-law's business something you can pry into more? Besides, I didn't use much strength just now, why do I have to shout so loudly? I pushed Xu Dazhi and walked towards the stadium, complaining about the pain I had caused him on the way.

Xu Dazhi and I hurried towards the playground, but we were still a bit late. When we arrived, all the other students were already standing in line. Zheng Hua was standing in front of the line with his hands behind his back and a serious face, but he looked a bit funny with his big bald head in the sun.

When Xu Dazhi and I saw this, we didn't dare to walk forward cheekily, so we hurriedly took three steps and ran over.

Zheng Hua saw that we were both late, but didn't stare at the matter much either. After we stood in line, Zheng Hua ran like a normal PE teacher, did exercises and then dismissed. I didn't really see that Zheng Hua had such a talent, but he actually did it in a decent way, which surprised me and made me feel incredible.

When he said free time, Zheng Hua waved to me and went to the sports equipment field.

I didn't know what he meant, I was afraid that he would know about Mr. Lin, but on second thought I thought it was unlikely, after all, if he knew he wouldn't be so calm at lunchtime and would be laughing and talking with me. So I walked up to him with a bold face.

"What's the matter, Chao, you look scared of me, wasn't it nice at noon? Did you do something shameful or wrong?" Zheng Hua looked at me with a smirk, seeing my anxiety.

I was taken aback by his question and my palms were sweating a little.

"No, how could it be? Just a little out of breath from the run, Hua Zheng Hua teacher" I looked at his face and found nothing unusual, so I was a little active in my heart and changed the word Hua to Zheng Hua teacher in a hard way.

Zheng Hua listened, and did not continue to dwell on the issue, but put his hand on the bar, just like that, looking at the playground of various playing ball, doing sports on the students.

"Are you surprised that I'm here?" Zheng Hua squinted, as if he had been hit by the blinding sunlight, resting his eyes for a while before turning to look at me.

"Yes, I did feel surprised and incredulous when I found out you were coming and taking on the role of my PE teacher, not expecting us to meet again in such a scenario."

I put my hands in my pockets and looked him straight in the eye. After this moment of cushioning, I had eased up a little and pressed myself to try and stay calm and follow his words.
