

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 100

“Huh? It’s impossible right, Uncle Lee? Mr. Li Zhenguo is the richest man in Jin Ling. He has the ability to buy it!” Wang Shuai asked in shock.

“Haha, you’re wrong. Mr. Li Zhenguo used to have the ability. But now, I heard that Mr. Li Zhenguo has been transferred away from Jin Ling Commercial street. Jin Ling Commercial Group and Commercial Street will be managed by someone else!”

“Moreover, even though Mr. Li has been transferred away, I heard that he is still working for Young Master Chen. So at this time, he wouldn’t buy the manor even if he had the ability to do so.”

“Huh? So General Manager Li has been transferred?!”

“Yes, since Young Master Chen has retained him, he has to tone down a bit!”

Wang Shuai nodded solemnly to show that he understood.

“Wang Shuai, Dad, what are you guys talking about? Who is Young Master Chen? Why have I never heard you mention him before?” Lee Mingfei asked curiously.

Judging from their conversation, Young Master Chen seemed to be someone who was very powerful.

It seemed that the whole Jin Ling Commercial Group belonged to him.

Fang Qing and Xu Na were both astounded. They had never been exposed to this kind of information before. Naturally, they were interested in it.

“Of course I have never told you before because I only heard about Young Master Chen’s story from my friends yesterday. Although Mr. Li Zhenguo is powerful, he is just working for Young Master Chen. This is because the whole commercial street is owned by him!”

“Oh my god!”

“Shit!”

Lee Mingfei, Fang Qing and Xu Na all widened their eyes.

“Besides, you’ve heard of Young Master Huang, haven’t you?” Lee Wangfeng said with a wry smile.

“Yes, I’ve heard of Young Master Huang. He is one of the richest descendants of wealthy families. He has a garage of sports cars. Before this, he even hosted a huge party for the descendants!” Lee Mingfei said.

Lee Mingfei knew this because she was also invited.

Unfortunately, her period came on that day, and it hurt so much that she couldn’t go at all.

This was one of her biggest regrets because all the young girls worshipped Huang Yonghao.

“Haha, Huang Yonghao is actually the godbrother of Young Master Chen. The Huang family has clung tightly to the Chen family and as a result, has risen to be the richest family in Suzhou in just a few years!”

Wang Shuai and others gaped widely. They didn’t expect them to be connected in so many ways.

At this time, all the attendees had finally arrived.

The emcee introduced Tang Ran next and Tang Ran started to introduce the entire area around Cloud Manor.

Although Chen Hao felt like he was about to burst in anger, he endured it.

When Tang Ran started introducing the manor itself, he glanced up at the screen that was showing pictures.

Just one look and Chen Hao was attracted. This Cloud Manor was built according to the geography of the mountain, as expected. It went straight into the clouds and looked like a palace in heaven.

It was extremely luxurious.

To be honest, Chen Hao was really interested.

800 million was a sky-high price!

If it was before, even if he owned a lot of money, Chen Hao would not buy a house with 800 million even if he was very interested.

But now, it was different.

His sister had given him 1 billion to spend in seven days.

He was frustrated because he had been thinking about how he should spend it.

Now his chance was here. He would be killing two birds with one stone!

The more he looked, the more excited Chen Hao was.

The introduction went on for two hours.

Everyone yearned for it.

However, no one dared to buy it.

Tang Ran seemed to be satisfied with the expression of the crowd. She then said with a smile, “This Cloud Manor costs 800 million. I would like to ask if anyone here would like to purchase it?”

Tang Ran said with a kind smile.

“I... don’t want!”

At this time, a CEO stood up, shouted and sat down quickly.

This made the crowd laugh loudly!

Li Zhenguo also laughed on the stage.

Some CEOs liked to joke like this!

Tang Ran then said, "Ladies and gentlemen, this manor will not be auctioned. However, it's a first come first serve basis. Whoever can pay 800 million first will own this Cloud Manor!"

"Hahaha, indeed, no one is buying it!" Wang Shuai said with a smile.

Lee Wangfeng said with a bitter smile, "I have said that as long as you are a smart businessman, you would not waste the 800 million on a house. Unless..."

"I want it!"

Before Lee Wangfeng had finished speaking, he heard a voice that was not very loud, but loud enough that everyone in the whole hall heard it.

"Hmm?"

The whole crowd was thrown into confusion.

All eyes turned to look at him.

Lee Wangfeng and Wang Shuai were dumbfounded. They all turned around because it was not someone else who had shouted this sentence. It was the bumpkin brought in by Wang Shuai, Chen Hao!

"My God! Chen Hao, you are crazy? Don't you dare spout nonsense! Do you know the price you have to pay if you can't complete the purchase?"

"It's over. He's not here to gain insight. This man is here to die!" Xu Nan and Fang Qing said in astonishment. They both wanted to slap Chen Hao until he was dead.

"Hmph, what a ridiculous person!"

Lee Wangfeng was staring. Is he really using this occasion to sensationalise himself? Is he stupid or what?

Chen Hao didn't care about what they said.

He got up directly and walked toward the stage.

"Crazy. This bastard is absolutely crazy!"

Tang Ran was also looking at Chen Hao, stunned!

In short, apart from a few people, most of them were dumbfounded.

“Chen Hao, what’s the matter with you? You better leave now!” Tang Ran said angrily.

She even shoved Chen Hao.

“I want to buy this manor. Why do I have to leave?” Chen Hao smiled bitterly.

“Rubbish, you can’t even afford this manor!” Tang Ran was speechless.

“How do you know I can’t afford it?” Chen Hao sneered, then looked at a group of staff from the bank standing next to him. “Come here. I’m paying by card!”

Although some banking specialists were confused, no matter how they looked at it, they didn’t think that Chen Hao could even afford a few thousand. He even wanted to use his card.

However, if the guests requested it, they couldn’t refuse.

They walked toward him immediately with the credit card machine.

Chen Hao swiped his card effortlessly, input the password, did a face recognition check and a few more security checks.

“Ding! The transaction is successful. The total amount transferred is 800 million... ”

The system’s automated voice could be heard clearly.

After that, a dead silence ensued.

800 million! How could this person have 800 million?

Oh My God!

Tang Ran heard the machine loud and clear. She covered her mouth and dropped the microphone onto the ground because at this moment, her brain went blank!

Gulp!

Wang Shuai, who was below the stage, even gulped in difficulty.

He was completely dumbfounded, let alone the look on Xu Na and Fang Qing’s faces.

To be honest, from the first meeting, Xu Na, Fang Qing and Wang Shuai not only looked down on Chen Hao, they didn’t even treat Chen Hao as a person.

They just thought that he was a bumpkin who came from the village.

It was too cheap to have him following them around.

But now, they felt like their faces were being slapped numerous times.

You looked down on him? You could never earn the amount of money he had even if you worked your whole life!

I can't believe it! He's an extremely wealthy heir!

"Wang Shuai, w-who... who is he?" Lee Mingfei was shocked as well.

"I don't know... I just know that his name is Chen Hao! Hey, look at Mr. Li Zhenguo, Huang Hongyun, Huang Yonghao, as well as those rich businessmen! Why are they all walking toward the stage?" Wang Shuai stammered. ??????????????????????
