

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 228

“Sigh, Tongtong, Uncle Qin has been worried sick. He’s even ready to file a report at the police station. What should we do? Even more so, how long are we gonna wait here for that Chen Hao?”

Something had happened to Qin Ya, so naturally all her friends and family members were informed.

Which explained why all of Qin Ya’s roommates had gathered together.

Right now, they were all waiting for Chen Hao at the front entrance of Jin Ling College.

Zhao Tongtong had already agreed to meet up with Chen Hao at Jin Ling College during their phone call earlier.

Furthermore, they had to inform the school’s authorities about what had happened too. Uncle Qin had left for the police station. So, Zhao Tongtong and the others came over to the college instead.

“Let’s just wait for him. After all, Qin Ya left under his care. If anything, he obviously understands the situation much more than we do. Nevertheless, my sisters! Chen Hao must have had something to do with Qin Ya’s disappearance. Watch me teach him a lesson later!” Zhao Tongtong scoffed.

Qin Ya’s roommates were all filled with indignation.

It is decided! When Chen Hao reaches, we will all beat him up! Hmph!

“Seriously though, I don’t know what Qin Ya sees in Chen Hao. What was the point of looking for that kind of loser?”

“Most importantly, after Qin Ya left, he didn’t care about her anymore!”

All the other roommates gossiped.

Right at that moment.

One of the girls pointed in the direction of the other side of the road. “Hey guys, look at that! That G Wagon is heading toward our direction! And the driver looks like he’s pretty hot!”

“Come on Yanyan, look at the situation right now. Are you really still in the mood to check hot guys out?”

However, all of the girls couldn’t help but stare at the G Wagon. After all, the car looked very sophisticated.

“Hey, wait. Is it just me or the guy driving the car looks like Chen Hao?” one of the girls commented.

“Chen Hao? What the f*ck? How is that possible?”

“That poor loser? It’s already not bad if he came riding a bicycle!” Zhao Tongtong grumbled.

The G Wagon finally arrived.

Slamming on the brakes, the car stopped right in front of Zhao Tongtong and the others.

Then, Chen Hao came out from his car.

“What’s the situation now?” Chen Hao gushed.

“Huh?!”

This time, Zhao Tongtong and the others were dumbfounded.

Indeed, the Chen Hao in the past was a poor loser under their impressions. But now? F*ck, this guy really drove a G Wagon?

Zhao Tongtong always thought that she was somewhat closer to Chen Hao than the others. At this point, however, even she was shocked.

“Chen Hao, how did you get yourself a G Wagon?” Zhao Tongtong questioned.

“I just got it recently. Let’s not talk about that first. What’s the situation right now?” Chen Hao inquired.

Zhao Tongtong tried her best to suppress her fear and summarized what had happened.

The situation wasn’t looking good.

Except for filing a report at the police station, there weren’t any leads or even development regarding the case.

Qin Ya’s family were on the verge of breaking down.

Initially, Qin Ya’s parents had already suffered enough from the pressure given by Beijing’s Long family. The Long family had been forcing them to hand Qin Ya over for marriage.

Now, even Qin Ya’s whereabouts were unknown because of this matter. Their mental states were unstable at this point.

After listening to what Zhao Tongtong said, Chen Hao’s feeling of guilt intensified.

As for Zhao Tongtong and the others, they initially wanted to beat Chen Hao up. However, none of them would actually raise a finger now. Looking at his G Wagon, the way they spoke to him were visibly more modest than before.

“Don’t worry, Chen Hao. I’ve thought of an idea. Ling Fei, my younger cousin, told me that she has a classmate working as a moderator for a live streamer. Last month, one of the audience requested them to help search for their long lost brother. And guess what? With the help of all of the audiences, they managed to reach out to the brother through all sorts of investigations on social media.”

“I’ve already contacted Ling Fei and asked her if she could get her friend to help us out and get some help from their audience. After all, it is easier to get the job done with more people helping out!” Zhao Tongtong continued.

Chen Hao nodded in agreement. This seems like a good idea.

After all, you could never look down on people who were constantly active on social media platforms.

As long as you were willing, it was definitely possible for them to retrieve whatever information you need.

At the same time, Chen Hao also gave an order to Tian Long and Di Hu to do a manhunt.

Consider this as double insurance for this matter!

“Ling Fei is here!”

They saw a black car stopping by the side of the road. Then, Zhao Tongtong’s younger cousin came out of the car along with an elegant looking man with glasses.

Ling Fei was present the other day when Zhao Tongtong came to hang out with them. Thus, she also knew Chen Hao.

It looked like she had also heard about what happened to Qin Ya. Immediately upon reaching, she rolled her eyes when she saw Chen Hao.

“Guys, I brought Xiao Qiang with me. Xiao Qiang, this is my cousin sister. I’ve already briefed you about the current situation. Qin Ya went missing, and we hope that you can help us out by getting your audiences from your radio show to help us! Of course, we can also pay you for helping!” Ling Fei explained.

The guy named Xiao Qiang pushed his glasses and stated, “It doesn’t matter if you guys pay me or not. It is almost Viral Day anyways, I want to do some good deeds to expand my influence, so there should be no problem. My older sister’s office is just in Jin Ling University City, let me bring all of you guys over. I’ll explain the situation to her and it will be fine!”

“Hang on, that famous live streamer that you’re talking about, you don’t mean Han Siyu right?”

Chen Hao was stunned.

To be able to have a workshop in Jin Ling City and have a large influence... Who else could it be if it weren’t for Han Siyu?

“Haha, what do you think? Of course it’s her!” Xiao Qiang said, side eyeing Chen Hao.

“What the hell, Chen Hao? I asked my friend over to help Qin Ya, not for you to ogle at live streamers! Can you stop acting like an as*hole?!” Ling Fei criticized.

Zhao Tongtong stepped in and said, “That’s enough. Let’s just hurry over and start looking with Xiao Qiang! Stop wasting time!”

“Alright, let’s head over in my car! I will fetch all of you!”

Initially, Chen Hao was hesitant about the idea of getting help from a live streamer that they didn’t know. He was worried that they might not be efficient enough to do their job.

However, after knowing that it was Han Siyu, Chen Hao became enthusiastic.

After all, Han Siyu was brought up by Ordinary Guy—himself. Whose orders would she comply with if it weren't for his?

He immediately went into his car.

“What the f*ck? A G Wagon?” Ling Fei exclaimed in shock.

“Chen Hao, is this your G Wagon?”

“Come on, hurry up and get in the car!” Chen Hao urged impatiently.

Even Xiao Qiang pushed his glasses again, eyeing Chen Hao in surprise.

Looks like this guy is even more powerful than I am, driving a luxurious car around like that!

Zhao Tongtong, in another car, followed behind Chen Hao who was familiar with this area. In no time, they arrived at Block B of the University Student Entrepreneurship Base.

It looked like Xiao Qiang dropped out from high school to pursue his dream to become a live streamer. However, he ended up as Han Siyu's moderator.

They came to the office.

“Miss Yue, Miss Tongtong and the others are here!”

Xiao Qiang brought Chen Hao and the others into the office and informed a girl there.

This girl was none other than Chen Hao's classmate, Du Yue.

“Alright, I'm coming!”

Du Yue strutted toward them in heels.

She was taken by surprise before she even managed to greet them.

“Chen Hao? What are you doing here?”
